Vistancia Innovation Park – Where Advanced Technology Meets Strategic Location

Introducing Vistancia's premier four-building industrial development, strategically positioned to serve the Metro Phoenix's semiconductor and advanced manufacturing corridor. Located within close proximity to the future AMKOR $2 billion facility and just minutes from TSMC's $165 billion campus, this cutting-edge campus offers unparalleled access to the region's high-tech market.

With convenient Loop 303 access and flexible building configurations, the development is purposefully built for innovation-driven companies, semiconductor suppliers, and advanced manufacturing operations seeking a sophisticated industrial environment. The park offers a variety of sizing options to accommodate diverse operational needs, while the campus's prime positioning places tenants at the epicenter of Arizona's technology revolution.
