Orlando Highlights

ORLANDO MSA

Orlando consistently ranks among America’s fastest-growing major metropolitan areas, with a growth rate typically 2-3 times the national average over the past decade. The metro area added approximately 60,000 new residents annually in recent years, placing it in the top 5 fastest-growing large metro areas in the United States, driven by strong job creation in tourism, healthcare, technology sectors, and a steady influx of both domestic migrants and international newcomers.

RECRUITMENT OPPORTUNITY

The Orlando metropolitan area features a robust higher education landscape anchored by the University of Central Florida (UCF), which ranks among the nation’s largest universities with over 70,000 students, alongside several other notable institutions. Collectively, these institutions contribute to Orlando’s economic development through research initiatives, workforce training programs, and cultural enrichment. With 500,000 college students within 100 miles of Orlando, the region guarantees businesses a sustainable pipeline of qualified talent to support long-term growth and workforce needs.

Orlando Stats:

Orlando ranks #3 city where people are moving (Redfin, 2023)

#10 for STEM Job Professionals in the U.S. (WalletHub 2025)
