Why Montréal, Quebec?

Echoing Montréal's renowned cultural reputation, Montréal's east end populations embrace fashion, fun and active lifestyles in a manner that celebrates their rich cultural heritages and local communities.

Conveniently located at the junction of Metropolitan Highway and Highway 25, Galleries d'Anjou draws from the diverse and multicultural populations from neighbouring communities and from the affluent Laval and Lanaudière regions. Welcoming more than 8M visitors annually, Galleries d'Anjou's regional prominence is only expected to grow with the forthcoming STM Metro station planned on the property's grounds.
