

The Blodgett Building

15 Ionia Ave SW | Grand Rapids, MI

The venue's strategic proximity to major attractions creates an unparalleled advantage for hosting memorable events. Located steps away from Van Andel Arena, guests can easily transition from concerts and sporting events to your banquet facility. The nearby 20 Monroe Live entertainment complex and Studio Park development provide additional draw for attendees, while The B.O.B. offers complementary dining and nightlife options that extend the evening's experience.

The location's connection to Grand Valley State University's downtown campus presents exceptional opportunities for corporate recruitment events, graduation celebrations, alumni gatherings, and educational conferences. This proximity to a major university ensures access to a built-in audience for academic events while providing convenient access to emerging talent for corporate functions.
