A HISTORY OF INNOVATION.

Originally built in 1899 for the Strietmann Biscuit Company, this 7-story, Class A building was reborn as The Strietmann Center. Building on the storied history here, the legacy of success and innovation that was set lives on.

The Strietmann Center is one Cincinnati's most exciting buildings - It offers soaring 30' ceilings, exceptional natural light, and a location in the city's creative epicenter. With 15,000 SF open floor plates and flexible workspaces available, it is the perfect setting for creatives, entrepreneurs and millennials to thrive.
