Property Overview

Built in 1943 as the Riggers and Sail Loft Building for the U.S. Navy Yard, 7 Tide Street has been thoughtfully transformed into a premier waterfront design and experiential showroom destination in Boston's Seaport District. This historic property retains its authentic character with original Douglas Fir timber ceilings while offering modern amenities including conference facilities and direct waterfront access. The building currently houses luxury home brands such as the Marvin Brand Experience Center and Sub-Zero & Wolf showroom, creating a curated environment that attracts architects, designers, and homeowners. Located adjacent to Dry Dock #3 in the heart of the Seaport's evolving industrial waterfront, 7 Tide Street offers a unique opportunity to join a distinctive creative community with unparalleled access to the neighborhood's world-class dining, cultural attractions, and transportation options.
