The Appeal of the Japan Southern Alps National Park
Adventure Tour!

The first helicopter hiking tour in Japan to the Japan
Southern Alps National Park Class 1 Special Area!

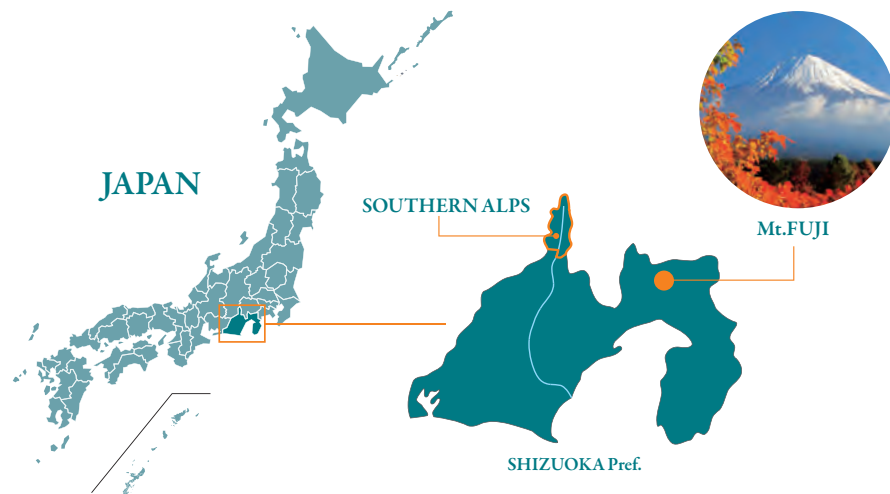

Arrive by helicopter in about 20 minutes on a journey that would take three days one way on foot.

Spectacular views! The majestic Japan Southern Alps and Mt. Fuji

In the majestic Japan Southern Alps, which are almost inaccessible to the public, enjoy the expansive natural wonder that is the pride of Shizuoka through a varied sightseeing itinerary including mountain climbing, hiking, touring a whisky distillery, and soaking in hot springs.

The Japan Southern Alps are truly hidden gems. A helicopter in "The Japan Southern Alps National Park Adventure Tour" will whisk you to the Mt. Ogochidake area (elevation: 2,802m) in only about 20 minutes, a journey that would typically take three days each way. From there you can enjoy an elegant stroll. This is the first helicopter hiking tour in Japan to the Japan Southern Alps National Park Class 1 Special Area. Weather permitting, it will be an unforgettable and special experience, as spectacular views of Mt. Fuji and the Japan Alps spread out before you.

3 nights/4 days Active Plan Time Schedule

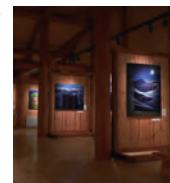

Day 1

After meeting the staff at Shizuoka Station, you will travel to Nihondaira Yume Terrace. Mt. Fuji can be admired on clear days. After that, check-in at Nippondaira Hotel. Dinner at the hotel.

Day 2

After descending by helicopter from Mt. Ogochidake to an elevation of around 1,000m, a private car will take you to the photo gallery at Sawarajima Lodge. At this gallery, you can see pictures of the splendor of the Japan Southern Alps in all four seasons. This is followed by lunch at Sawarajima Lodge.

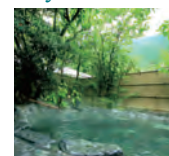

Day 3

You will aim for Senmai-goya Hut at an elevation of 2,500m. This tour takes you on a special one-hour ride in a private car on a route that is normally only accessible on foot. After arriving at Senmai-goya Hut, you will prepare for the ascent.

Day 3

After climbing, you will take a private car down to Sawarajima Lodge from Senmai-goya Hut and take a rest. After that, you will head to the Sumatakyō Onsen (hot spring). You will soak in the hot springs and rejuvenate from the fatigue of climbing. Dinner will be served at a ryokan.

Day 4

The tour ends upon arrival at Shizuoka Station. Thank you for your participation.

Day 1

Day 2

Day 2

Depart from the heliport on the Nippondaira Hotel grounds for the Japan Southern Alps. In just 20 minutes, you will touch down near the summit of Mt. Ogochidake located in the Japan Southern Alps National Park.

Day 2

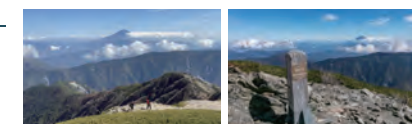

You will tour the Ikawa Distillery. Whisky is made at a high altitude that is rare in the world, and this national park area is the source of its mother water. This is the most remote distillery in Japan and is not open to the public, but this tour's participants are offered a special visit.

Day 3

Day 3

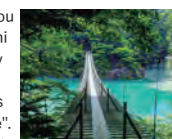

You will start climbing in top condition. You head for the summit of 2,880m Mt. Senmaidake together with an English-speaking mountain guide while taking in the great nature of the Japan Southern Alps. At the summit awaits a spectacular view of the Japan Southern Alps, and Mt. Fuji can be admired on clear days.
