

Obituary

Jamie Lee Hastings, 41

Jamie Lee Hastings, 41, of Blackfoot, passed away Thursday, August 5, 2010.

Jamie was born February 19, 1969, his Grandma Hastings' birthday, in Idaho Falls, Idaho to James Ronald and Terry Faye Swearingen Hastings. He was raised in Basalt, attending schools in the Firth School District, graduating from Firth High School in 1987. He was a member of Drama Club in high school and took a lot of art classes. He continued his education by taking some additional art classes while living in Salt Lake City, after graduation.

Jamie worked in security at Bechtel for the last ten years. He also had worked at Melaleuca, assembling computer boards in California and Utah, and at the payroll department at JcPenney's in Salt Lake City. Jamie was an artist, he enjoyed art, drawing and painting. In his free time, he enjoyed camping, especially in Paris Canyon, family bar-b-ques and spending time with his family.

Jamie is a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Jamie is survived by his parents, James and Terry Hastings of Basalt; brother, Shane Danley Hastings of Firth; and sister, Rhonda Sue Ockerman of Basalt; paternal grandmother, Lavon Hastings and maternal grandmother Nelda Swearingen both of Basalt.

Jamie is preceded in death by his grandfathers, Jim Swearingen and George Danley Hastings; and his infant brother, KayRon.

A funeral service will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, August 12, 2010 at the Firth LDS Stake Center in Basalt. A visitation will be held from 10:00 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. prior to services at the church. Interment will follow at the Goshen Cemetery. Services are under the direction of Hawker Funeral Home. Condolences may be sent to the family at condolences@hawkerfuneralhome.com.
