CLIENT NOTES: Locate Mom Ella Louise Wooten Thomas Barnette Wooten is the Father of Ella Louise Wooten DOB ; 1939 /08 / 31 (would be 83 in August of 2022) father John henry Wooten , North Caroline Pauline Wooten

GOAL:

We begin our research, running the subject's name, and other identifying information through our databases, some of which are only available to Law Enforcement and Private Detectives. We look for information, not only on the subject, but also on close friends and associates – people that can help us (discreetly) get the answers the client is looking for.

From the results we collect Internet and social network information, compiling recent leads on anyone that may have vital information on your subject. We then focus on local areas. Places where the subject lived, worked, and spent time with others. We quietly check places such as restaurants, stores, businesses, and neighborhood sources, shirrtail relatives and sometimes hospitals and government establishments.

Some of these sources require delicate checking and undercover techniques that we have learned to get information that is accurate and not biased by close friends.

INVESTIGATION:

Investigators begin with a comprehensive look at the Subject's background history. We begin with the subject name and information provided by the client. We located the subject's files and accumulated information on the past history over the last ten to fifteen years.

We researched past addresses where the subject has lived over the past decade. Our background searches for current and past telephone numbers the subject may have registered. We looked for any history of criminal and civil problems through local courts and nationwide sources. We researched business listings that generally provide any licensing and business interests and UCC filings that the subject may be affiliated with.

Our research continued with a look at any problems financially that may have surfaced in recent years. This includes a look at Bankruptcy history and debts such as liens, encumbrances or judgments. We looked for assets such as real property and personal property requiring licensing such as vehicles, planes or watercraft.

We searched for neighbors, friends and associates who may have knowledge of the subject's current situation. We have compiled the results of our comprehensive search below for your evaluation...
