

The Route of Stevenson

From Chasseradès to St Jean du Gard

Self-guided circuit, with double bedroom or 'gite'

7 days 6 nights with 6 days of hiking

Activity : Hiking
Difficulty Level : 2,5/5
Period : April to October
Support : Self-guided

Key points:

- ✓ Well-balanced stages
- ✓ Carefully selected accommodation

Depart from Chasseradès, in the Lozère, and follow the second part of the journey of Robert Louis Stevenson and his donkey Modestine, who hiked this route in 1878.

This second stage of the Route of Stevenson will transport you through the Cévennes, crossing Mont Lizère (1699m), Bougès (1421m), the Mimente valley and across moors, forests and fields.

This trip is also an opportunity to discover and gain an understanding of the history of the Camisards, via emblematic French Protestant villages (Pont-de-Monvert, Florac, St Germain de Calberte, etc.).

Like Robert Louis Stevenson, you will finish your hike in Saint-Jean-du-Gard, the regional capital of the Camisards.

Programme

Day 1 : From Chasseradès to Bleynard

Distance : 17 km / Approximate duration : 5h / Altitude difference: +300m

The route starts by climbing up through the Lizard forests, towards the top of Goulet (1413m), offering a beautiful panorama over Mont Lozère. Following tracks alongside the streams that feed the Tarn river, you will eventually reach the hamlets of Alpiers and Le Bleynard. You are now at the foot of Mont Lozère.

Day 2 : From Bleynard to Pont de Montvert

Distance : 19 km / Approximate duration : 5h30 / Altitude difference: +650 m

This is the stage with the biggest climb! Ascend Mont Lozère, on to the Summit of Finiels, passing through forests, moors and fields to arrive in Les Cévennes. An exceptional panorama opens up to you. The route continues on, down the southern slope, passing through the small hamlet of Finiels towards the Pont de Montvert, the village from which the Camisards uprising began in 1702.

Day 3 : From Pont de Montvert to Florac

Distance : 28,5 km / Approximate duration : 7h / Altitude difference: +550 m

The longest stage of your hike takes you across the River Tarn to climb the third highest massif of the Cévennes National Park: Bougès (1421m) stands in the heart of the Camisards. Following the Col du Sapet and Bedouès, then along the River Tarn, you finally arrive at Florac, the 'capital' of the Cévennes.

Day 4 : From Florac to Cassagnas

Distance : 18 km / Approximate duration : 5h / Altitude difference: +150m

Following the old railway through the Mimente valley, you reach St Julien d'Arpaon and its famous castle. You then arrive at Cassagnas.

Day 5 : From Cassagnas to Saint Germain de Calberte

Distance : 15 km / Approximate duration : 5h / Altitude difference: +370m

This short stage takes you across the Cévennes National Park, through the Fontmort forest and down towards the Col de la Pierre Plantée, before arriving at Saint-Germain-de-Camberte.

Day 6 : From Saint Germain de Calberte to Saint Jean du Gard

Distance : 22km / Approximate duration : 5h30 / Altitude difference: +375m

The last leg of your hike following in the footsteps of Robert Louis Stevenson takes you first to Saint-Etienne-Vallée-Française to cross the Gardon valley. Passing by the Col de Saint-Pierre, you continue your crossing of the Camisards, before finishing your hike with a descent into Saint-Jean-du-Gard, a typical village of the lower Cévennes valleys, and the place where Robert Louis Stevenson ended his adventure.

Day 7 : Saint Jean du Gard

End of the trip after breakfast.

During your stay

Key information and support

Self-guided formula :

You can go on your own, as a couple, with your family or with friends. We'll look after your accommodation, meals, luggage transfer and group.

You have a good experience of hiking. From one stage to the next, you follow the maps and detailed digital roadbook that we have carefully prepared for you.

Going on your own means hiking lightly, at your own pace, and taking full advantage of the pleasures of nature without worrying about the logistics of your stay. It also means being free to interpret and imagine what the landscapes have to say.

Luggage

Two options to choose from:

- With luggage transfer: You should only carry what is needed for the day and your picnic. Your other luggage is transported by vehicle. Please respect the luggage limit of one bag per person, maximum weight of 13kg/bag.
- Without luggage transfer: you carry all of your belongings throughout the trip with no organised luggage transfer by vehicle.

Accommodation

The whole of your stay is 'half-board' (dinner, overnight accommodation and breakfast included). There are two options to choose from:

- Accommodation in a 'Gite' : You stay in basic accommodation often in a dormitory, allowing you to fully experience the adventure of Robert Louis Stevenson.
- 'Selected' Accommodation: Accommodated in a private double or triple room in a 'gite', bed and breakfast or hotel, normally with a private ensuite bathroom and toilet. On certain stages, and according to availability, you may be offered sanitary facilities (private or communal) which are accessible from the landing or hallway. We will inform you of the type of facilities available. Sheets and towels are provided.

Food

This is not the time to go on a diet! Instead, it is an opportunity to taste local cuisine and specialities. The quality of your food is paramount and we take great care to ensure a good dietary balance, sufficient calorie intake and that each meal includes local specialities.

Picnics (lunch) are not included. Available as an additional option.

Number of participants

From 2 people.

Recommended equipment

As good preparation is synonymous with a successful trip, here are a few tips regarding equipment you should take to ensure your trip goes as smoothly as possible (non-exhaustive).

Your luggage

As far as possible, please do not exceed one large bag per person: sports bag of around 55L. These bags will be transported to your accommodation by vehicle. We will provide you with address tags to attach to your luggage.

Your backpack

1 medium-sized backpack to carry the essentials for the day (55 litres).

To include in your backpack

- A compass and altimeter for self-guided trips
- A raincoat
- A minimum of two 1 litre water bottles
- A first aid kit (contents as advised by your doctor): dressings, bio-gauze disinfectant, strips, sterile gauze, purification tablets for drinking water, aspirin, any personal medications and a survival blanket.
- Personal items: a camera, hat, binoculars etc.

Shoes

Good quality hiking boots. They must be comfortable, waterproof and breathable. Shoes which support the ankle are essential. If you need to buy a new pair, we advise you to test out your shoes prior to the start of your trip. Do not take a smaller size as feet tend to swell during hiking.

Clothes

- A jacket that is both windproof and waterproof (gore tex, poncho, etc.).
- A big sweater or a fleece jacket.
- Comfortable walking trousers.
- Shorts, t-shirts..., and breathable underwear.
- A change of clothes.
- A warm hat and a pair of gloves.
- A swimsuit (for some stays).

Sleeping (for nights in a 'gite' or dormitory):

- A sleeping bag or bedsheets
- Earplugs (you never know!)

Picnic

- An airtight and waterproof plastic lunchbox, with a section for salad and with your initials marked on both the lid and box.
- Cutlery (fork, folding knife, spoon).
- 'Race food' (energy bars, dried fruit etc.)

Extras

- Light and airy shoes for the evenings (trainers or sandals)
- A pair of telescopic hiking poles or a 'shepherd's stick'.
- Sunglasses, sunscreen and protective lip balm.
- A cap or sunhat.
- A small toilet bag with a towel and toilet paper.
- A torch or head torch with spare batteries.

And your mobile phone should be fully charged before each day of hiking.

After your return

Tell us what you think ! And to ensure that these great travel memories are not lost, we would be extremely happy to receive your photos, videos, montages, comments...created during your trip.

AT YOUR SERVICE

The entire La Rébenne team is at your disposal to ensure your stay goes to plan, so please do not hesitate to contact us: we will do everything possible to make your trip a success.
