

The entire Cathar Trail on foot

From Quillan to Durban-Corbières

7 days, 6 nights, including 6 days of hiking

Level 3/5

The castles proudly stand on rocky peaks. You follow the path, carved out eight centuries ago, to reach the summit. Initially serving as military posts guarding the Spanish border, these majestic buildings served as refuges for the Cathars. These are true fortresses where one would live, train, defend and worship. From the summit, you'll take in a wide panorama, all the better to spot the enemy arriving...Following in the footsteps of hundreds of faithful men and women, you walk along paths soaked in heritage.

Visit the most remarkable Cathar chateaux, nestled in magnificent landscapes: from the limestone foothills of Plantaurel, the mountainous Ariégoises forests and the Plateau de Sault to the garrigue, vineyards of the Corbières and the smells of the Mediterranean.

KEY POINTS:

- A complete trail on foot.
- Diverse landscapes: from the Ariège forests to the Mediterranean garrigue.
- A string of châteaux from the Middle Ages, nestled in stunning scenery.
- The return transfer is included.

Following the River Aude, we arrive in Quirbajou via the chalets of Carach.

D2 : From Quirbajou to Aigues Bonnes

Profile : 26.5km / 6h30. Altitude Difference : +400m -550m

Starting from the Gorges du Rébenty, we leave behind the green meadows and mountains in search of the Mediterranean climate. We stop at a real jewel of medieval architecture, the Château de Puilaurens (optional), perched on a rocky outcrop overlooking the Vallée de la Boulzane. Night stay on a farm.

D3 : From Aigues Bonnes to Labastide

Profile : 22km / 5h30. Altitude Difference : +780m -875m

We continue our hike towards Caudiès de Fenouillèdes and cross the magnificent Gorges St. Jaume. The smells of the garrigue follow us as we continue on to the little village of Labastide. Night stay on a farm.

D4 : From Labastide to Peyrepertuse

Profile : 22km / 7h. Altitude Difference : +690m -860m

We walk on to reach the start of the Gorges de Galamus. Then, passing between holm oak trees and juniper bushes, we arrive on the Corbières ridge, where we come across the imposing Château de Peyrepertuse (optional visit). Night in Duilhac-sous-Peyrepertuse.

D5 : From Peyrepertuse to Tuchan

Profile : 23.5km/ 6h30. Altitude Difference : +650m -750m

This stage starts with a descent through the garrigue towards the village of Cucugnan, famous for its legendary parish priest. We then arrive at the Château de Quéribus, guardian of the form Spanish border. Finally another pleasant descent to the château and village of Padern. Night in Tuchan.

D6 : From Tuchan to Durban

Profile : 28km/ 7h. Altitude Difference : +450m -800m

In the morning, we pass by the Château d'Aguilar and walk on through the land of a thousand Mediterranean smells. The vines gradually take over the scrubland.

Return transfer and night in a hotel in Quillan (or in Foix for those who follow the 2 circuits).

D7 : Quillan

End of trip after breakfast.

DURING YOUR STAY

KEY INFORMATION :

Self-guided formula :

You can go on your own, as a couple, with your family or with friends. We'll look after your accommodation, meals, luggage transfer and group.

You have a good experience of hiking. From one stage to the next, you follow the maps and detailed digital roadbook that we have carefully prepared for you.

Going on your own means hiking lightly, at your own pace, and taking full advantage of the pleasures of nature without worrying about the logistics of your stay. It also means being free to interpret and imagine what the landscapes have to say.

LUGGAGE:

You only need to carry what is needed for the day and your picnic. Your other luggage is transported by vehicle. Please respect the luggage limit of one bag per person, maximum weight of 15kg/bag.

ACCOMMODATION: HALF-BOARD (dinner, night stay and breakfast included)

Accommodation options to choose from:

- 'Gite' option: Gites are selected specifically for their warm welcome and friendly atmosphere. More often than not, you will share a dormitory of 4-6 beds. Sheets and towels are not provided.
- Double bedroom option (depending on availability): Sleep in a comfortable 2 person bedroom in a hotel, B&B and sometimes, in a 'gite'. Sheets and towels are provided.

FOOD:

This is not the time to go on a diet! Instead, it is an opportunity to taste local cuisine and specialties. The quality of your food is paramount and we take great care to ensure a good dietary balance, sufficient calorie intake and that each meal includes local specialties.

Picnics (lunch) are not included.

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS:

From 2 people.

RECOMMENDED EQUIPMENT:

As good preparation is synonymous with a successful trip, here are a few tips regarding equipment you should take to ensure your trip goes as smoothly as possible (non-exhaustive).

Your luggage

As far as possible, please do not exceed one large bag per person: sports bag of around 55L. These bags will be transported to your accommodation by vehicle. We will provide you with address tags to attach to your luggage.

Your backpack

1 medium-sized backpack to carry the essentials for the day (55 litres).

To include in your backpack

- A compass and altimeter for self-guided trips
- A raincoat
- A minimum of two 1 litre water bottles
- A first aid kit (contents as advised by your doctor): dressings, bio-gauze disinfectant, strips, sterile gauze, purification tablets for drinking water, aspirin, any personal medications and a survival blanket.
- Personal items: a camera, hat, binoculars etc.

Shoes

Good quality hiking boots. They must be comfortable, waterproof and breathable. Shoes which support the ankle are essential. If you need to buy a new pair, we advise you to test out your shoes prior to the start of your trip. Do not take a smaller size as feet tend to swell during hiking.

Clothes

- A jacket that is both windproof and waterproof (gore tex, poncho, etc.).
- A big sweater or a fleece jacket.
- Comfortable walking trousers.
- Shorts, t-shirts..., and breathable underwear.
- A change of clothes.
- A warm hat and a pair of gloves.
- A swimsuit (for some stays).

Sleeping (for nights in a ‘gite’ or dormitory):

- A sleeping bag or bedsheets
- Earplugs (you never know!)

Picnic

- An airtight and waterproof plastic lunchbox, with a section for salad and with your initials marked on both the lid and box.
- Cutlery (fork, folding knife, spoon).
- ‘Race food’ (energy bars, dried fruit etc.)

Extras

- Light and airy shoes for the evenings (trainers or sandals)
- A pair of telescopic hiking poles or a ‘shepherd’s stick’.
- Sunglasses, sunscreen and protective lip balm.
- A cap or sunhat.
- Camera, binoculars
- A small toilet bag with a towel.
- A torch or head torch with spare batteries.
- Toilet paper.
- Mobile phone

A FEW WORDS ON THE HERITAGE OF THE REGION:

Catharism :

At the end of the twelfth century, an alternative to Christianity spread across the south of France. This deviance boiled down to a belief in two entities: Evil (the material, living world) and Good (the immaterial world, after death) This was considered as profanity by the Church, which, in response, launched a crusade (1208) to eradicate the heretics - the Cathars.

The Cathars were completely integrated into society, existing even in the families of lords (for example the Trencaval, the Counts of Foix...). The battle began, sieges went on for months as the population resisted, or not (Simon de Montfort seized, in the name of the King, Béziers, Narbonne and Carcassonne, amongst others). The Cathars fought on, preferring to end up with their heads on a stake rather than deny their faith.

The Treaty of Paris (1229) marked the end of the conflict, and the beginning of the Inquisition. The Cathars remained outlaws and the Inquisitors used their power to seek them out: putting a price on their heads. The surviving Cathars went into exile, seeking refuge in the castles which guarded the border, where they continued to prosper for a few more years.

They were finally removed by Louis XI, who came to power in 1241. It is for this reason that 'Saint Louis' became known as Louis le Sanguinaire (Louis the Bloodthirsty), in the region.
