Day 5 : From Feugarolles to Agen : 28 km - Elevation: + 450 m

With this stage, join the Garonne river. It is a unique opportunity to discover little medieval villages, and their romanesque churches. Once in Agen, you cross the Canal's bridge, one of the most beautiful of the region. Take your time to discover the historical centre. For the epicure, the "rue des Cornières" is the best place here to have a delightful dinner. "Bon appétit!". Night in Agen.

Day 6 : From Agen to Moissac : 57 km - Elevation: + 480 m

Overpass the canal and discover a preserved countryside dotted of various pigeon houses. Have a stop in La Bastide de Donzac and discover the past rural way of life and the famous Gallo-roman city of Auvillar. The finish is planned in Moissac, well-known for its turning bridge and of course for its exceptional cloister in the Saint-Pierre abbey. Night in Moissac.

Hotel

Day 7 : From Moissac to Toulouse : 68 km - Elevation: + 390 m

After crossing the Cacor canal-bridge, you are going to be surprised by the slope water of Montech, a real lift for boats! Continue through the living port of Castelsarrasin and join Toulouse, avoiding the usual hustle and bustle typical of big cities, by riding along the canal until the "port de l'Embouchure", entrance of the "Pink City" and starting of the canal du Midi. A possible other trip can lead you on the canal du Midi's sides to reach the Mediterranean. Night in Toulouse.

Hotel

Day 8 : From Toulouse to Castelnaudary : 63 km

Point of departure : Paul Riquet's bridge.

Discover the "art of living" Toulouse style : its lilting accent, history and many hidden alleyways. Head out to Castelnaudary along the Canal du Midi, with a first stop in Avignonet, in the heart of the Lauragais, land of the Pastel flower, place of a battle against the Cathars. Pass over the highest point of the trip (190m high) and find several ancient canal locks such as the Lock of Sanglier, as well as many aqueducts, before reaching Castelnaudary. Castelnaudary is the city of cassoulet (a delicious local meat and bean stew) but perhaps this does not get your taste buds going so, as dinners are not included, feel free to choose another dish.

Night and breakfast in Castelnaudary.

Hotel

Day 9 : From Castelnaudary to Carcassonne : 40 km

After a good night's rest, ride along the Canal du Midi, through a delight of many different villages and landscapes. Make your way to Saint Papoul's abbey, created in the 8th century, to discover the church in the middle of wheat fields. Then ride on until Bram passing quiet villages before heading for Carcassonne. Its architecture and the warmth of its narrow streets are waiting for you. You can enjoy the medieval walled town, which is also now listed among UNESCO's World Heritage Sites.

Night and breakfast in Carcassonne.

Hotel

Day 10 : From Carcassonne to Homps : 42 km

Once you have drunk in enough of the secrets of Carcassonne, continue your trip and storm along to Homps and its port. Take your time to admire the buildings along the canal, a wonderful example being the Moulin de Trèbes. You can have a stop in Marseillette, an old Gallic village and in Capendu as well, to see its Romanesque church. Then continue on to arrive in Homps.

Night and breakfast in Homps.

Bed & Breakfast

Day 11 : From Homps to Beziers : 64 km

This typical south-east town, in love with wine, rugby and festivities, will open its arms to you. Cross the tunnel de Malpas and discover the oppidum of Ensérune (apart from Canal), to arrive by the spectacular 9 canal locks of Foncérannes, and then onto Béziers, Riquet's birthplace. The city shows you lots of examples of his talent.

Night and breakfast in Beziers.

Day 12 : From Beziers to Sète :

For this last stage, cycle to Agde where the Herault River and Canal du Midi flow into the Mediterranean. The maritime's influences are important and the landscape is different. The volcanic black stone of Agde, the wild black bulls and white horses are typical of this region.

Ride towards Sète port along Thau Basin. This city has a strong local culture, Sète will not miss to seduce you at your arrival. With chance, you maybe would see local sport played since 1666, nautical battles. Night and breakfast in Sète.

Insurance :

In accordance with regulations, each participant in a LaRébenne trip must hold individual civil liability as well as individual multi-risk cover to protect themselves against incidents or accidents that may occur before or during the tour or bike trip.

Assistance mainly covers search and rescue, repatriation and medical expenses. It comes into play as soon as a medical report makes it possible to decide on repatriation. Repatriation, known as "premature return", can also be arranged for reasons other than the insured's own, such as the death of a family member (see cases in the insurance booklet). Beforehand, in regions far from medical facilities and difficult to access, you must agree to the organization of first aid using local resources (4X4, porters, horses, etc.).

This contract also covers loss, theft or delayed delivery of baggage, as well as interruption of stay.

The insurance protects against the financial risk of cancellation. It is very important to have this type of insurance in case of cancellation due to a health problem or for professional reasons.

We suggest you take out one of the five policies we have selected, bearing in mind that we only act as an intermediary between you and the insurer. Any additional insurance is invoiced per person and must be taken out on the day of booking:

- "Multirisque" contract (4.5%), minimum premium 15 euros:
Repatriation assistance + tour interruption + luggage + cancellation.

See the complete contract

- "Cancellation" contract (2.5%), minimum premium 10 euros:
Cancellation only.

See the complete contract

- "Repatriation assistance" contract (1.6%), minimum premium of 10 euros:
Repatriation assistance + tour interruption + luggage.

As far as "civil liability abroad" is concerned, only French residents are covered.
