

The Route of Stevenson, First Part From Puy-en-Velay to Chasseradès

Self-guided circuit, with double bedroom or 'gite', 8 days 7 nights with 6 days of hiking

Level: 2/5

From Puy-en-Velay to Chasseradès, follow in the footsteps of Robert Louis Stevenson and his donkey Modestine, who travelled this route in 1878.

This first stage of the Route of Stevenson takes you through the volcanic landscapes of Velay and Margeride: vast open spaces scattered with blocks of granite.

After crossing Le Monastier-sur-Gazeille, Le Bouchet-St-Nicolas, Pradelles and Langogne, you enter the province of Gévaudan.

Long after any traces of the famous Beast of Gévaudan faded, this region continues to feed the imagination. Continuing your walk through the ever-varied landscapes, you arrive at Chasseradès, a pretty little hamlet criss-crossed by narrow winding lanes, and its Roman church.

SCHEDULE

Day 1 : Arrival at Puy-en-Velay :

You arrive in the afternoon at Puy-en-Velay, which served as Robert Louis Stevenson's first base in 1878 before he went on to Monastier-sur-Gazeille.

Before reaching your accommodation, let yourself be transported in this story-filled town. Walk through the medieval alleys of the old centre and do not miss the Cathedral with its magnificent Roman cloister, the Statue of the Black Virgin of Puy, and the chapel of St Michel, perched up high on an 80m peak.

Day 2 : From Puy-en-Velay to Monastier sur Gazeille : 19 km - 5h - Elevation: + 550 m

For your first stage, you leave Le Puy by climbing up to the Plateau du Pays Vellave, a volcanic platform at about 1000m altitude. From here you can admire panoramic views across the Puy-en-Velay valley. Heading south, you descend towards the River Loire, which you will cross in Coubon, before climbing up on to another plateau. In turn this leads you on to the Monastier sur Gazeille, «a small town of character», and the real starting point of Robert Louis Stevenson and his donkey Modestine's adventure, in September 1878.

Day 3 : From Monastier sur Gazeille to Bouchet Saint Nicolas : 24 km - 6h30 - Elevation: + 600 m

It was from here that Robert Louis Stevenson bought a donkey which he named Modestine, and with whom he set off for Saint Jean du Gard. Before rejoining the volcanic plateau, follow the Gazeille valley. You criss-cross many small villages before descending through gorges to the River Loire. Follow the river on to Goudet and the ruins of its former castle. Having passed through several hamlets and meadows, you arrive at Bouchet Saint Nicolas.

Day 4 : From Bouchet Saint Nicolas to Pradelles : 21 km - 5h30

Exiting the village of Bouchet-Saint-Nicolas, you come across an imposing wooden sculpture, depicting Stevenson and Modestine's journey. Sticking between the Loire and Allier rivers, you pass through the villages of Landos and Arquejol before arriving in Pradelles, a small medieval town which has been officially named as one of the «most beautiful villages of France». A former trading centre for salt, oil and wine, Pradelles has many historic examples of medieval architecture: old ramparts, small streets, arcades and fountains.

Day 5 : From Pradelles to Cheylard l'Evêque : 22 km - 5h30 - Elevation: + 300 m

You start by crossing the River Allier, and passing through Langogne where you will discover its beautiful Roman church and its 85 carved granite capitals (carved column tops). The route then re-enters the province of Gévaudan from where the legendary «beast of Gévaudan» terrorised the inhabitants for over 100 years. On this stage of your journey, you will encounter moorland landscapes, marshes covered in heather and imposing granite rocks. Crossing Brugeyrolles and Fouzilhac, you arrive at Cheylard l'Evêque.

Day 6 : From Cheylard l'Evêque to La Bastide Puylaurent : 26 km - 7h - Elevation: + 320 m

This part of the route takes you to the Château de Luc, one of the region's most significant castles from the Middle Ages. You then continue on to Laveyrune, Rogleton and the summit of Espervelouze (1225m), before arriving at Notre-Dame-des-Neiges, a Cistercian abbey where the monks produce wine. Stevenson spent three days there!

You then head on to La Bastide Puylaurent.

Day 7 : From La Bastide Puylaurent to Chasseradès : 12.5 km - 3h - Elevation: + 300 m

This short final day of hiking takes you up a forest track, offering a beautiful view of the surroundings as you cross the forest of Gardille to reach La Mourade (1310m). You pass through a wind farm before re-descending towards the pretty hamlet of Chasseradès.

Day 8 : Chasseradès :

End of the trip after breakfast.

Insurance :

In accordance with regulations, each participant in a LaRébenne trip must hold individual civil liability as well as individual multi-risk cover to protect themselves against incidents or accidents that may occur before or during the tour or bike trip.

Assistance mainly covers search and rescue, repatriation and medical expenses. It comes into play as soon as a medical report makes it possible to decide on repatriation. Repatriation, known as "premature return", can also be arranged for reasons other than the insured's own, such as the death of a family member (see cases in the insurance booklet). Beforehand, in regions far from medical facilities and difficult to access, you must agree to the organization of first aid using local resources (4X4, porters, horses, etc.).

This contract also covers loss, theft or delayed delivery of baggage, as well as interruption of stay.

The insurance protects against the financial risk of cancellation. It is very important to have this type of insurance in case of cancellation due to a health problem or for professional reasons.

We suggest you take out one of the five policies we have selected, bearing in mind that we only act as an intermediary between you and the insurer. Any additional insurance is invoiced per person and must be taken out on the day of booking:

- "Multirisque" contract (4.5%), minimum premium 15 euros:
Repatriation assistance + tour interruption + luggage + cancellation.

- "Cancellation" contract (2.5%), minimum premium 10 euros:
Cancellation only.

- "Repatriation assistance" contract (1.6%), minimum premium of 10 euros:

As far as "civil liability abroad" is concerned, only French residents are covered.
