6 days, 5 nights, 5 days of biking, In double bedroom or 'gite'

Level: 2/5

What if your mountain bike could replace Modestine, Robert Louis Stevenson's famous donkey?

From Le-Puy-en-Velay to Saint-Jean-du-Gard, this mountain bike route follows in the footsteps of Robert-Louis Stevenson. It takes you over the volcanic hills of the Velay, the rugged highlands of the legendary Gévaudan, Mont Lozère and then the crests and valleys of the Cévenne des Camisards.

A 250km mountain biking adventure which alternates between valleys, volcanic plateaus and forests, crossing villages filled with history, before taking some height and passing over the tops of the Goulet, Mont Lozère and the Bougès Massif.

Finally, after some physically demanding climbs and pleasant descents, you arrive in Saint-Jean-du-Gard, just as Stevenson and Modestine did in 1878.

SCHEDULE

Day 1 : Arrival au Puy-en-Velay :

In the afternoon, you arrive in Puy-en-Velay, the first step for Robert Louis Stevenson in 1878, before he set off for Monastier-sur-Gaveille.

Before heading to your accommodation, let yourself be transported in this story-filled town with a stroll through the medieval streets in the old centre. Don't miss a visit to the cathedral with its magnificent Roman cloister, the Statue of the Black Virgin of Puy, and St Michel chapel, built atop an 80m rocky peak.

Night in Puy-en-Velay.

Day 2 : From Puy-en-Velay to Bouchet-Saint-Nicolas : 41 km - Elevation: + 1430 m

For your first stage, you will climb up to the Plateau du Pays Vellave, a volcanic platform at around 1000m altitude, from where you can enjoy wide views across the Puy-en-Velay basin. Next, you head south, taking on a beautiful descent towards the Rivers Loire and Coubon, before climbing back up to the plateau towards Le-Monastier-sur-Gazeille, the true starting point of Robert Louis Stevenson and his donkey Modestine's adventure, in September 1878. Following the Gazelle Valley, you reach the volcanic plateau once again. Then a very technical and narrow descent to Goudet before a slight portage in the following climb. You then cross through meadows to arrive in Bouchet-Saint-Nicolas.

Night in Bouchet-Saint-Nicolas.

Pass by Pradelles, a medieval village which has been officially named as one of the most beautiful villages in France, and Langogne, the entry point into the territory of the Beast of Gévaudan, which terrorised inhabitants for 100 years. Once you have arrived in Luc, which is home to one of the most significant châteaux from the Middle-Ages, you have another climb before descending once more, into the forest, towards Laveyrune.

Night in Laveyrune in a 'gite' (no double bedrooms on this day).

This stage is physically demanding, with several steep but short climbs (Mourade and Goulet).

Night in Bleymard.

Day 5 : From Bleymard to Florac : 48 km - Elevation: + 1170 m

It's the arrival in the mountains ! Today you will take a little more altitude as you arrive in the Cévennes by climbing Mont Lozère through forests, moors and grassy fields. A technical descent leads you to Pont-de-Montvert, an iconic place for the Camisards movement in 1702.

You then cross the River Tarn before a physical climb up to the Bougès Massif (1421m) and, from there, a fast descent to arrive at the end of the stage in Florac.

Night in Florac.

Insurance :

In accordance with regulations, each participant in a LaRébenne trip must hold individual civil liability as well as individual multi-risk cover to protect themselves against incidents or accidents that may occur before or during the tour or bike trip.

Assistance mainly covers search and rescue, repatriation and medical expenses. It comes into play as soon as a medical report makes it possible to decide on repatriation. Repatriation, known as "premature return", can also be arranged for reasons other than the insured's own, such as the death of a family member (see cases in the insurance booklet). Beforehand, in regions far from medical facilities and difficult to access, you must agree to the organization of first aid using local resources (4X4, porters, horses, etc.).

This contract also covers loss, theft or delayed delivery of baggage, as well as interruption of stay.

The insurance protects against the financial risk of cancellation. It is very important to have this type of insurance in case of cancellation due to a health problem or for professional reasons.

We suggest you take out one of the five policies we have selected, bearing in mind that we only act as an intermediary between you and the insurer. Any additional insurance is invoiced per person and must be taken out on the day of booking:

- "Multirisque" contract (4.5%), minimum premium 15 euros:
Repatriation assistance + tour interruption + luggage + cancellation.

- "Cancellation" contract (2.5%), minimum premium 10 euros:
Cancellation only.

- "Repatriation assistance" contract (1.6%), minimum premium of 10 euros:

As far as "civil liability abroad" is concerned, only French residents are covered.
