lastminute.com N.V. updates on Swiss investigation: application for remand filed

Amsterdam / Chiasso, 22 July 2022 – In connection with the ongoing investigation of the Public Prosecutor's Office ("Office") of the Canton of Ticino (cf. ad hoc release under: <https://lastminute-corporate.com/media>) against certain current and former executives and managers of certain subsidiaries of lastminute.com N.V. (namely BravoNext SA, BravoMeta CH SA and LMNext CH SA), the Company informed that the Office has applied for remand for five persons including Fabio Cannavale and Andrea Bertoli with the competent compulsory measures for a maximum duration of up to three months. All the other managers questioned in the context of the investigation have been released.

Furthermore, the Office has blocked a portion of funds held in certain bank accounts of the concerned subsidiaries for an aggregate amount of CHF 7 million.

The Company has already taken measures to safeguard adequate continuity of all day-to-day management of the concerned subsidiaries as they may be affected by such measures and continues to support the Office in its investigation.
