

I am going to Big Umbrella Outdoors at Lincoln Center!

Big Umbrella Outdoors is an outdoor arts festival for young people with autism and other developmental disabilities.

Friday, September 17th from 6:00pm-9:00pm
is dedicated to teens and young adults.

This festival takes place on Lincoln Center's campus,
entering on 62nd Street between Columbus and Amsterdam
Avenues in Manhattan.

What to bring:

- ✓ eTickets (one ticket for everyone in your group)
- ✓ Mask
- ✓ Proof of vaccination or negative COVID test
- ✓ Favorite fidget or headphones (or you can borrow)
- ✓ Standard jack headphones (or you can borrow)
- ✓ A snack

What you'll get when you arrive:

- Visual Schedule with a checklist of activities
- Wrist band (you can wear on your wrist or ankle)
- Fidget and ear plugs
- Box of water

Friday, September 17

6:00–6:45 pm

E.P.I.C. Players

Songs and Stories
from the Spectrum

6:45–7:30 pm

Drop-in Activities

7:30–9:00 pm

Inclusive Silent Disco

Check in begins at 5:30pm

I can check in at the registration table. The entrance is on 62nd Street between Columbus and Amsterdam Avenue in Manhattan. I may need to wait while other guests check in.

I will wear my mask and have either my proof of full Covid-19 vaccination or a proof of negative test ready to show the staff.

Security guards will welcome me and check my bag if I have one. They will direct me to walk through the evolv machine.

I will receive a wristband and a bag with my schedule for the day. Then I'm ready to start my festival adventure!

First, I will watch and listen to E.P.I.C Players perform Songs and Stories from the Spectrum. I can sit in any open seat. I will listen to the performance and may want to dance and sing along.

If I need an assistive listening device or to watch captions, I can ask the staff for access. There will be ASL-interpreters on the stage.

After the performance, I will explore the drop-in activities. I can choose from:

- Dance Workshop
- Mosaic Art Project
- OrchidsPlayscape: a sensory sculpture
- Swingset Drumkit: a sonic soundscape

I can use my schedule to check off the activities I do.

During the drop-in activities time, I may want to use the restroom, eat a snack that I brought, or take a break in one of the three Chill Out tents.

The restrooms are located in the Concourse of Lincoln Center. I can access the Concourse by taking the elevator at David H. Koch Theater or taking the stairs to the right of Lincoln Center Theater down to the street level of West 65th Street.

Then I will enter the glass doors under the large awning and walk down a long hallway until I reach another set of glass doors.

I will walk through the doors to a crosswalk and check to make sure there are no cars before safely crossing the street.

I will turn left past the bike racks and keep walking along the sidewalk until I see a glass wall on the right.

I will walk past the glass wall and the restroom will be on the right.

The Chill Out Tents are located at Josie Robertson Plaza, Hearst Plaza, and Damrosch Park.

After the activities, I will go to the last stop: Inclusive Silent Disco!

I will pick up headphones and adjust the sound. I can also borrow Music: Not Impossible backpack, ankle and wrist bands to feel the music's vibrations throughout my body while I listen to the music.

DJ Kevin Gotkin will play music while I dance and watch.

At the end of the Silent Disco, I will return the Music: Not Impossible gear and headphones. I can take my bag with me. Then I will say "goodbye"!

Accommodations

E.P.I.C. Players

All seats are located on accessible routes with space for mobility devices

ASL interpretation

Live captioning

Assistive Listening Devices

Drop-in Activities

ASL interpretation
available upon request

Inclusive Silent Disco

ASL interpretation

Assistive Listening Devices

If you request any additional accommodations, please contact access@lincolncenter.org or 212 875 5375.

Explore More

Sun Runners* an intergalactic audio adventure

by Audioplay & Windmill Theatre Company

With a pair of headphones and a mobile device, your kids plunge headfirst into an immersive space adventure, hurtling across the farthest reaches of the galaxy in your own living room. Sun Runners infuses imaginative, physical play with a cinematic score to create a thrilling action-packed experience; it's technology without the screens.

This experience can be accessed at home via mobile device from September 13 at 10:00 am through September 26. Enjoy 6 interactive episodes, ranging from 15–18 minutes each.*