

- . Pianist
- . Teacher
- . Adjudicator

Pianist, Rosanna Marzaroli, has won many prestigious awards and competitions as a student of Carl Matthes. Rosanna received her Bachelor of Music degree from the University of Southern California where she was a student of John Perry and Master of Music degree from Rice University as a student of Robert Roux. As a soloist, she has performed with the Los Angeles Bach Festival Orchestra, the Glendale Symphony Orchestra, (under Lalo Schifrin), California State University-Los Angeles Orchestra, and the Bangkok Symphony Orchestra. Additional performances have been in the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion, (Music Center Los Angeles), the Aspen Music Festival, Steinway Hall in New York City, as well as music festivals in Prague, Italy, and the Netherlands. Rosanna has served on the faculty of the Music Academy of North Carolina. She is in demand as a judge for music festivals and competitions throughout Southern California and is an active performer for both solo and duo piano music. Rosanna was appointed as Executive Manager for the Music in Me Foundation in California, a non-profit organization which brings music to children in the Middle East. She was on the Board of Directors for the Music Teachers' Association of California, Glendale Branch where she has served as Branch President. Rosanna resides in Orange County where she maintains a private studio in Tustin, CA. She is the recipient of the Steinway Top Teacher Award for 2021.

Musical Reviews "...the music was so beautiful, it brought tears to your eyes...no one wanted the program to end..." Thai in Los Angeles, California.

"...performance was passionate...outstanding talent and artistic maturity..." Glendale News Press, California.

www.marzarolipiano.com