International Terms & Agreement 2021

- Minimum: $400 with a $20 processing fee to apply on international orders* under $400.
- Shipping: the US postal service is normally the most economical option and will be used unless you specify another method. Once we know the weight and size of your order, will inform you of the shipping cost for your order.
- Insurance: when available for your destination, expect your package to ship insured and with a tracking number. In the unlikely event your box arrives damaged or is lost, you are responsible for submitting a claim to the corresponding carrier in your country.
- Custom Fees & Taxes: when importing products into your country, you are also responsible for any cost from brokerage fees, duties or taxes associated with this purchase. To avoid surprises, before placing your order, please find ahead of time if there may be special requirements, restrictions, and/or tariffs for the type of products you are buying. The "Country of Origin" for 99% of our collections is PERU, while our Rainforests Balsa Masks are from COSTA RICA.
- Pay by Bank Transfer: Once we have your total and this form returned, we will send you instructions for a bank transfer. At this moment, we are unable to accept international credit cards.

By signing this form, I agree to the terms and conditions listed for all orders placed with Lucuma Designs, at Lucuma.com or by other method, now and in the future.
 Lucuma Designs reserves the right to reject any order and for any reason.
