

JUSTICE FOR GREENWOOD

Before the 1921 Tulsa Race Massacre, Greenwood was one of the most prosperous, organized, and successful Black communities in United States history.

The Greenwood neighborhood, which included the renowned Black Wall Street, was home to around 11,000 Black people, as well as hundreds of thriving Black-owned businesses and organizations.

Then, overnight from May 31st to June 1st, a white mob of several thousand Tulsans attacked the Greenwood district, destroying the neighborhood.

WHEN YOU TALK ABOUT THE TULSA RACE MASSACRE, YOU TALK ABOUT THE WORST ACT OF DOMESTIC TERRORISM IN THE HISTORY OF THIS COUNTRY.

- DAMARIO SOLOMON-SIMMONS,
NATIONAL CIVIL RIGHTS ATTORNEY
AND FOUNDER OF JUSTICE FOR GREENWOOD

The massacre, which was encouraged, sanctioned and led by the city of Tulsa, Tulsa Police, the Tulsa Chamber of Commerce, the Tulsa County Sheriff's Department, and the National Guard, resulted in more than 35 city blocks laid to charred ruin.

Almost 1500 homes and businesses were obliterated, personal possessions looted and countless families forcibly placed into internment camps for days.

Hundreds of Black residents were killed, and thousands were injured and displaced—with families, and the lives they once knew, shattered.

IN AN INTENTIONAL ACT DESIGNED TO BURY AND WHITEWASH THE EVENT, CITY OFFICIALS DESTROYED ALL EVIDENCE OF THE MASSACRE FROM THEIR RECORDS. MANY STILL DO NOT KNOW THE TRUE FULL HISTORY OF WHAT HAPPENED TO GREENWOOD IN 1921.

Today, an open litigation is making historic progress in the Oklahoma State courts, thanks to the courageous efforts of descendants, and the last two living survivors, Lessie Benningfield Randle (109) and Viola Ford Fletcher (110).

TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE.

THE ROAD TO JUSTICE,
HEALING AND REPAIR NEEDS
YOUR VOICE AND SUPPORT.

I AM HERE TODAY, AT 109
YEARS OLD, ASKING YOU TO GIVE US SOME PEACE. GIVE ME,
MY FAMILY, AND MY COMMUNITY
SOME JUSTICE.

- LESSIE BENNINGFIELD RANDLE, TULSA RACE MASSACRE SURVIVOR Reparations are the antidote to inequality.

We all want a future where freedom and justice is for all. For that to happen we must reckon with the whole truth of our history to heal past harms.

Restoration of rights, compensation, rehabilitation, recognition of wrongdoing, and guarantees that these harms will never be repeated are required for justice to be served and people and communities to be made whole.

WE HAVE TO CONTINUE TO FIGHT NO MATTER WHAT. JUSTICE LOOKS LIKE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT PLUS TANGIBLE ACTION ... IT'S NOT OVER AS LONG AS THERE ARE SURVIVORS OR DESCENDANTS HERE ... WE'RE GOING TO CONTINUE TO PUSH FOR JUSTICE AND REPARATIONS.
