Caribbean, Bermuda & Mexico

The Caribbean conjures images of footprint-free beaches, clear warm waters and long lazy days. From the mountain peaks of Saint Lucia to the reggae rhythms of Jamaica, these island nations are the perfect antidote to the long British winter. As of course is pint-sized Bermuda, 1,000 miles north and a long-standing favourite among golfers and divers.

Asia

Asia's unspoiled islands and beautiful beaches are open once again to curious travellers. And there's genuinely never been a better time to visit. Beaches and jungles are looking better than ever after a two-year timeout from human interference, and crowd numbers are lower at top sights and attractions than they have been in decades.

Africa

The home of the safari. The cradle of humankind. There's nowhere on the planet like Africa. Which is why we've developed a new specialist website, Africa by Lusso, crammed with ideas for tailor-made safaris and luxury holidays. Here is a taste of what we can offer in sunny South Africa. For further inspiration, visit the new site at africa.lussotravel.com

DAYS 1-3 - CAPE TOWN

Arrive in Cape Town and transfer to the iconic Silo Hotel. Set right on the V&A Waterfront, The Silo sits atop the Zeitz Museum of Contemporary Art Africa and has been built into the frame of a colossal former grain silo. Highlights include a glass-sided rooftop infinity pool and breathtaking views of the waterfront, Robben Island and Table Mountain.

DAYS 4-5 - CAPE WINELANDS

After three days exploring Cape Town, travel east by private car to Franschoek amid the mountains and vineyards of the scenic Cape Winelands. Check in for two nights at La Residence, a regular fixture in roundups of the world's top hotels. Enjoy sampling the estate's wines and be sure to book a tour of the vineyards and orchards.

DAYS 6-7 - HERMANUS

Drop south to arguably the most exclusive hotel in Hermanus, Birkenhead House, perched on the cliffs above Walker Bay. Come between June and December and you can sit on the terrace and watch whales nurse their calves right in front of you. The food is exceptional and two of the region's best beaches are right on the doorstep.

DAYS 8-11 - GREATER KRUGER NATIONAL PARK

Fly from Cape Town to Johannesburg and take a light aircraft flight to the Greater Kruger for three nights at Royal Malewane. This intimate safari lodge provides a front-row seat to the African wilderness. Service is polished but unstuffy, the safari guides are among the most experienced in Africa, and elephants come to drink from the waterhole out front. Take a light aircraft flight to Johannesburg on day 11 to connect with your flight home.

Peace of Mind

Given the ever-changing and unpredictable nature of travel over recent years, we recognise that providing travel agents and their clients with flexibility, reassurance and complete peace of mind has never been more important. Which is why we offer the highest levels possible of financial protection.

All of our holidays that include flights are fully ATOL-protected, with all non-flight packages protected by way of a bond held with ABTA. Crucially, we also take a flexible, transparent approach to all our bookings, taking each on a case-by-case basis and working with our suppliers to always offer you the best terms and conditions available at the time.
