

OFFICIAL MEMBER

The Sports and Entertainment community within Keller Williams Real Estate Inc. was launched in December, 2021 and comprises over 1,000 like-minded real estate agents in over 330 markets across North America. This unparalleled coverage ensures transparency, accountability, and hyperlocal resources in major metropolitan cities and small markets alike.

- The procurement of local housing (leasing and purchases)
- Sales of current primary and secondary residences (listings)
- Local vendors providing specific relocation, maintenance, and niche services
- Informative property tours of new areas
- Extensive knowledge of local cultures and communities
- Local luxury amenities (automotive, shopping, fine dining, childcare, gyms)
- Real estate investment opportunities (residential, commercial, and land)

The power of Keller Williams Sports + Entertainment (KWSE) is the widespread collaboration of our agent team for housing and real estate needs - whether you are buying, selling, leasing, or investing, we can assemble a targeted, diverse team of experienced KWSE real estate agents to swiftly and professionally oversee all details and close the deal.

KWSE is the most extensive and comprehensive one-stop, concierge-based entity servicing the private real estate client, with a focused approach tailored to client needs that ensures results. Our KWSE team operates within the customized parameters of desired location, property features, and budget. Our KWSE team's purpose is to add value and come from contribution to cultivate relationships, without motivation to upsell our clients outside of the scope provided.

Our number one priority is execution and client confidence to ensure a white-glove and consistent experience. KWSE real estate agents undergo extensive training and frequent, internal mastermind groups to guarantee discretion and a repeatable process across all market coverage areas.