TENNIS

ROVINJ - VRSAR / ISTRIA / CROATIA

Introduction

The unique combination of sport and tourism offered by Rovinj and Vrsar starts primarily with the large number of tennis courts. The beginning of tennis playing in Istria was registered in the 1890s in Pula. Baron Gottfried Meyern Hohenbergat is considered to be responsible for the first matches. At the beginning of the 1970s, the attractive international tennis tournament Istarska rivijera (Istrian riviera) took place for the first time in Croatia. This tournament is today listed with the ATP.

Today, this is a destination where amateurs from around the world meet and take part in organised tennis schools and famous tennis camps. They choose Rovinj and Vrsar as attractive locations offering optimal infrastructure and outstanding accommodation for enjoying active holidays all year round. However, some of the most famous names of the tennis world such as Ivan Ljubičić, Petr Korda, Boris Becker, Thomas Muster and Marin Čilić have presented their tennis skills in Rovinj and Vrsar over the years.

Tennis infrastructure

All courts in the Rovinj - Vrsar destination can be found in excellent locations by the sea and in the vicinity of the hotel complexes, tourist resorts and apartments.

Rovinj has 34 tennis courts of which 23 are clay courts, 6 are hard courts and 5 are artificial grass courts. Some of them are covered, and most of them dispose of special audience seats.

Vrsar offers 26 tennis courts of which 24 are clay courts and 2 are hard courts.
