REGENT SQUARE

*A new sense of what a city
can be*

Regent Square is an example of what's possible when a new city district is designed from a cohesive master plan, and when our sense of what a city can be aligns with our sense of who we are and how we want to live our lives.

REGENT SQUARE

A new city district

Regent Square will create Houston’s premier mixed-use development and its first truly pedestrian-oriented city district.

Vibrant Mix of Uses

The community combines a blend of 300,000 square feet of shops and restaurants, 200,000 square feet of offices, 1,500 residences, and valet and self-parking spaces for 4,200 vehicles.

World-Class Public Spaces

Regent Square creates new streets and boulevards, tree-lined sidewalks and promenades, signature parks, and distinctive public spaces.

Exceptional Architecture

A collection of the world's preeminent architects collaborated to design Regent Square and craft an urban experience that combines traditional architectural styles with elements of contemporary design.

Social Interaction

Regent Square pulses with energy throughout the day and evening as residents, office workers, shoppers, diners, and visitors experience the diverse array of activities and experiences associated with city life.

Sustainable Development

Adhering to the principles of new urbanism, Regent Square is the largest sustainable development in Houston, and demonstrates a commitment to smart growth, green building, and environmental consciousness.

LOCATION

Houston, Texas

An endeavor with the magnitude and ambition of Regent Square requires a canvas with equal prominence. Houston, the 4th largest city in the United States with a population of 2.3 million, is the perfect setting for a bold new approach to city living—Texas style. Regent Square is a cosmopolitan community that proudly embraces its heritage and is uniquely Houston.

Houstonians are increasingly moving in-town, looking for the density and dynamism of urban living and escaping the blandness of suburban sprawl and long commutes. At the same time, Houston's most dynamic in-town area, the Inner Loop, is starved for a sense of place, a feeling of urban vibrancy, a place to walk, a place to people watch, somewhere to experience street life. Regent Square seizes that opportunity on an irreplaceable site in the heart of Houston's most desirable in-town area.
