KOKA BOOTH AMPHITHEATRE

Koka Booth Amphitheatre provides an abundance of events for the Triangle area including Summerfest with the North Carolina Symphony, Movies by Moonlight with WakeMed, assorted music series, races, and more. With over 60 events just between April-October, Koka Booth is an important staple to the Cary area. Positioned in a 14-acre wooded area next to Symphony Lake, the Amphitheatre has a capacity of 7,000 people with options to sit on the open lawn or the Crescent Deck.

SWIFT CREEK GREENWAY

Running along the northern border of the Hemlock Bluffs Nature Preserve, the 1.2 mile trail, including the asphalt, was created completely of recycled materials, making it the first greenway of its kind in the nation. On a walk through the Swift Creek Greenway, you will pass by Ritter Park where the main trailhead is located. The greenway is open from dawn to dusk so there is plenty of time for walking, running, biking, and more.
