Our Lady's Message November 25, 2022

“Dear children! The Most High has sent me to you to teach you prayer. Prayer opens hearts and gives hope, and faith is born and strengthened.

Little children, with love I am calling you: return to God, because God is love and your hope. You do not have a future if you do not decide for God; and that is why I am with you to guide you to decide for conversion and life, and not for death.

Thank you for having responded to my call.”

November 25, 2022, Marija speaks to Fr. Livio on Our Lady's message

Fr Livio: Hi Marija!

Marija: Hello Father Livio!

Fr Livio: Well Marija I gather this message is extremely full of exhortations and spiritual proposals.

Marija: Exactly Father Livio! Thank God Our Lady is still with us and is still guiding us and giving us messages. While we wait for the message we make sure that the day is surrounded and filled with prayer. During the apparition I was thinking how many people came to Medjugorje, began to pray and faith was born in their hearts, and it strengthened and many found God again. This is an invitation for all of us to pray even more and testify with our lives. In this time in which we are approaching Advent it is particularly a time of grace in which she wants to teach us to pray by opening our hearts. I begin to realize that many words are often useless and superfluous while prayer remains the most concrete thing. I therefore invite you all to pray because prayer works miracles.

We have seen it through the numerous testimonies and I thank Our Lady and the Most High because even today they have not gotten tired of us. By saying: "The Most High has sent me to you to teach you prayer," She becomes our teacher and therefore we do everything with love. I believe that without "love" there is no life, we all become poor. So I invite you above all in this time of Advent, of expectation, of grace, of mercy, of waiting for the Child Jesus, to open your hearts and try to be "prayer".

Fr Livio: Marija surely prayer is the thing that impresses us the most when we arrive in Medjugorje, not only in the Church, but in the open valley area, on the hills and really everywhere! It is a wonderful thing. So, I wanted to ask you this – Our Lady has emphasized the Holy Mass above all other prayer and we especially in the Western world see that many young people are completely absent from Mass. They pray personally but unless they are in a particular group, you don't see young people at Holy Mass: how can this be overcome Marija?

Marija: By praying, I think we must become more and more prayer. Many words, many projects are useless, what matters is prayer – the personal relationship with God. The Lord knows that we are not experts, but we can do it with the heart anyway. We are all invited to be Love and bring to prayer all those who need it, starting with the families that are destroyed, making a corner for Sacred Reading in our homes as well as for the Nativity Scene. Where there is no prayer there is no love, there is no hope.

Fruits of Medjugorje

Christine Broesamle lives a life of mission and she shares how Medjugorje was the golden thread in her ministry work. Empowered by Our Lady Christine received the greatest call of her missionary life - to fight for the life of Alfie Evans. Alfie's parents wanted to keep him alive in a hospital that had decided to no longer treat him and had refused to transfer him internationally for treatment.

Christine shares how Our Lady provided for her needs during the months of fighting for Alfie's life and how she always gives people the courage and strength to stand up for what's right, to take risks and trust in God.

Christine emplores each of us to consider what will we say to God at the end of our lives - Did we stand up? Did we take risks? Did we do what we could do?

Engage in trade...Do something....

Fr Robert Rieger reflects on the parable of the noble man who left gold coins with his servants and encourages them to "engage in trade" until he returns.

We've all been given the treasure of our life and Fr Robert encourages and challenges us to make our life a gift, to multiply our life and to "do something".

We often wonder....what can I do? Jesus doesn't ask for a quantity or success by human standards, but like the poor widow, he sees what we can really give. Each of us is free to give ourselves in love, compassion, gratitude, forgiveness, sharing and generosity.

A Moment with Mary

Our Lady provided a beautiful message on 25th November focussing on prayer and an open heart.

Cathy reflects on this message and we are invited to pray even more and to testify with our lives.

As we begin advent, this is a time of grace and a time to learn how to pray. Prayer works miracles...and may this time of advent be a time of conversion, repentance and prayer for the world.
