

Abraham, Old Testament Patriarch

“Look now toward heaven, and count the stars if you are able to number them.”

And He said to him, “So shall your descendants be.”

Pray for all the members of your extended family

St. Agnes, 4th century virgin and martyr

January 21

O singular example of virtue, glorious Saint Agnes, by the living faith which animated thee from thy tenderest years, and rendered thee so pleasing to God that thou didst merit the martyr's crown, obtain for us the grace to keep our holy faith inviolate within us, and to profess ourselves Christians sincerely in word and work to the end of our lives.

Pray for those tempted to abandon their faith.

St. Alphonsus Liguori

August 1

"Leave the world and give yourself to Me." (Jesus to St. Alphonsus)

Pray for the holiness of men in all states of life.

Saint Andre Bessette- January 6

Canadian brother, known for his devotion to Saint Joseph. With childlike devotion, he recommended novenas and prayers to Saint Joseph as well as sacramental oil and many who came to him were healed.

“When you invoke Saint Joseph, you don’t have to speak much. You know your Father in heaven knows what you need; well, so does His friend Saint Joseph.” “Tell him, ‘If you were in my place, Saint Joseph, what would you do?’

Well, pray for this in my behalf.’

Saint Andre, help us be generous in our intercessory prayer.

Saint Andrew, apostle

November 30

“Saint Andrew was the first convert among the apostles; he was especially in the Lord's confidence; thrice is he described as introducing others to him; lastly he is little known in history, while the place of dignity the name of highest renown have been allotted to his brother Simon, whom he was the means of bringing to the knowledge of his Savior.” – J.H. Newman

Pray for those who have no one to pray for them.

Saint Andrew Dung-Lac and Companions

(celebrated November 24th)

“We can say that the blood of martyrs is for you, Christians of Vietnam, a source of grace to progress in the faith.”

-- Pope St. John Paul II

Pray the Angelus for those who do not pray and do not want peace and joy, which only the Most High can give.

St. Andrew Kim Taegon, Korean martyr

September 20

“Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you [falsely] because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.” -Mt 5:10-12

Pray for persecuted Christians.

Saint Angela Merici, mystic, religious founder

January 27th

"Mothers of children, even if they have a thousand, carry each and every one fixed in their hearts, and because of the strength of their love they do not forget any of them. In fact, it seems that the more children they have the more their love and care for each one is increased."

Pray for mothers.

Saint Anne, mother of the Blessed Virgin Mary

July 26th

I wish in a special way on Christmas Day to give mothers my own special motherly blessing, and Jesus will bless the rest with His own blessing.

(Our Lady of Medjugorje 12/19/1985)

Pray for the holiness of all mothers.

Saint Anthony of Egypt, 4th century desert monk

January 17th

"Now therefore, beloved, let this word be manifest among you, that the bounty of the Father spared not his Only-begotten for our sakes, but delivered him up for the salvation of us all."

Pray for the flourishing of the new evangelization.

Saint Anthony of Padua

June 13th

"We spread the love of God by loving as He loves."

Pray that those who are under the influence of Satan may be saved

Archangel Raphael

September 29th

“I was sent to put you to the test. At the same time, however, God commissioned me to heal you and your daughter-in-law Sarah. I am Raphael, one of the seven angels who enter and serve before the Glory of the Lord...No need to fear; you are safe. Thank God now and forever. As for me, when I came to you it was not out of any favor on my part, but because it was God’s will. So continue to thank him every day; praise him with song.” (Tobit 12:14-18)

Pray for the healing of families

St. Athanasius, Bishop of Alexandria

May 2

“The Greek philosophers have compiled many works with persuasiveness and much skill in words; but what fruit have they to show for this such as has the cross of Christ? Their wise thoughts were persuasive enough until they died.”

Pray for our clergy to remain strong against what may seem like insurmountable opposition; may they defend the true faith, regardless of the cost.

St. Athanasius, Bishop (of Alexandria) and Doctor of the Church

May 2

“Similarly, anyone who wishes to understand the mind of the sacred writers must first cleanse his own life, and approach the saints by copying their deeds.”

Pray for conversion of hearts and a desire and ability to grow in holiness for all of God’s dear children.

St. Athanasius the Great, Bishop of Alexandria

May 2

“Jesus became what we are that He might make us what He is.”

*Give thanks to the Lord, call on His Name,
Make known His deeds among the peoples.
Sing to Him, sing praises to Him!
(Psalm 105)*

St Augustine of Hippo, bishop, Doctor of the Church

August 28th

You have forgiven me my past sins and drawn a veil over them, and in this way You have given me happiness in yourself, changing my life by faith and Your sacrament. When others read of those past sins of mine their hearts are stirred so that they no longer lie listless. Instead their hearts are roused by the love of Your mercy and the joy of Your grace.

Pray for the conversion of sinners

Newborn Baby Jesus

"Today when Jesus is born and by His birth brings immeasurable joy, love and peace, I call you, in a special way to say your 'yes' to Jesus. Open your hearts so that Jesus enters into them, comes to dwell in them and starts to work through you. Only in this way will you be able to comprehend the true beauty of God's love, joy and peace." (Message thru Jacov 2000)

Let the baby Jesus be your guide

December 4th

The blood of the martyrs is the seed of Christians. ~Tertullian

Pray for the spread of the Church to all parts of the world

Saint Bartolo Longo, ex-satanist, Catholic priest & champion of the Rosary

October 5

“Just as two friends, frequently in each other's company, tend to develop similar habits, so too, by holding familiar converse with Jesus and the Blessed Virgin, by meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary and by living the same life in Holy Communion, we can become, to the extent of our lowliness, similar to them and can learn from these supreme models a life of humility, poverty, hiddenness, patience and perfection.”

Pray for greater love for Our Lady and the Rosary

Saint Bartolo Longo, ex-satanist, Catholic priest & champion of the Rosary

October 5

“May you be ‘peacemakers,’ following in the footsteps of Bl. Bartolo Longo, who knew how to combine prayer and action, making this Marian City a stronghold of charity.”

– Pope St. John Paul II (Oct. 7, 2003)

Pray for an increase of hope for those who are far away from the faith

St. Benedict, abbot and patriarch of western monks

July 11th

“See how the Lord in His love shows us the way of life. Clothed then with faith and the performance of good works, let us set out on this way, with the Gospel for our guide, that we may deserve to see him who has called us to his kingdom (1 Thes 2:23)” from the Rule of Saint Benedict

Pray for the coming of the Kingdom of God.

St Benedict Joseph Labre, pilgrim recluse

The Lord asks that we do not bury the talent so invaluable that the Lord placed in our hands, so that we obtained holiness during the life and then eternal glory
Pray for nurses and those in the health care profession

St. Carlo Acutis

October 12

“When we take Communion, Jesus pauses among us for fifteen minutes, hidden in the form of bread and wine, substantially present, truly residing ... He shares this day with us and continues, after the forms of bread and wine have decomposed, with His grace, His residence with us. So, we become His house, His home, and so Jesus, present, alive, and real, is not only a fact of faith, not only a fact of ‘sacramentality,’ but a fact of ‘Life!’”
Pray for the grace for all people of God to make the Eucharist the center of their lives.

St. Carlo Acutis

October 12

“Why do people worry so much about their physical beauty but don’t worry about the beauty of their souls?”
“Money is only ragged paper...”
“Happiness is looking towards God; Sadness is looking towards yourself.”
“What counts in life is the nobility of the soul, that is, the way that one loves God and loves one’s neighbor.”
Pray for the grace to love boldly, pray heartily, and model God’s Love fearlessly.

St. Carlo Acutis

Saint Maria Faustina

(celebrated October 5th)

"I know God is in my heart. With Him I go to work, with Him I go to recreation, with Him I suffer, with Him I rejoice; I live in Him and He in me. I am never alone, because He is my constant companion. He is present to me at every moment. Our intimacy is very close, through a union of blood and flesh."

Pray for the Triumph of God's mercy in your heart and in the world.

Sts. Felicity and Perpetua, Third Century Martyrs

March 7th

"Dear children! Today I invite you to comprehend your Christian vocation. Little children, I led and am leading you through this time of grace, that you may become conscious of your Christian vocation. Holy martyrs died witnessing: I am a Christian and love God over everything. Little children, today also I invite you to rejoice and be joyful Christians, responsible and conscious that God called you in a special way to be joyfully extended hands toward those who do not believe, and that through the example of your life, they may receive faith and love for God.

"(11/25/1997)

Pray for childlike confidence in God.

Saint Frances of Rome

March 9

One of her contemporaries writes: "With peace of soul, she always reconciled herself to the will of God, and gave him thanks for all that happened. God had not chosen her to be holy merely for her own advantage.

For this reason people flocked to Frances from all directions, as to a safe refuge.

No one left her without being consoled, although she openly rebuked them for their sins and fearlessly reproved them for what was evil and displeasing to God."

Pray for wives and mothers.

Saint Francis de Sales

(celebrated January 24th)

"In all your affairs rely wholly on Divine Providence, through which alone you must look for success. Labor quietly on your part to co-operate with its designs. Amidst those ordinary affairs and occupations that require most so earnest an attention, you should look more on God than on them."

Pray for the conversion of the media.

Saint Francis of Assisi

(celebrated October 4th)

Pray for the Triumph of the Immaculate Heart.

St. James, the Greater, Apostle

July 25th

“He then went up the mountain and summoned the men he himself had decided on, who came and joined him. He named the twelve as his companions whom he would send to preach the good news; they were likewise to have authority to expel demons...James, son of Zebedee; and John, the brother of James. He gave these two the name Boanerges, or ‘sons of thunder.’” Mark 3:13-17
Pray for zeal in the hearts of priests.

St Jerome

(celebrated September 30th)

“Read the divine scriptures constantly; never, indeed, let the sacred volume be out of your hand. Learn what you have to teach. Hold fast the faithful word you have been taught so that you may be able by sound doctrine to give instruction and confute those who contradict it.”
Pray for a deep love of God’s Word.

Saints Joachim and Ann

(celebrated July 26th)

“It is important that the ‘communion of persons’ in the family should become a preparation for the ‘communion of saints.’ This is why the Church both believes and proclaims the love which ‘endures all things’ (1Cor13:7); Everyone is called to love, including spouses and families. In the Church everyone is called equally to perfect holiness.” –JPII, Letter to Families
Pray for grandparents and the elderly.

Pope Saint John XXIII

October 11

"To keep me from sin and straying from Him, God has used devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. My life vows destined to be spent in the light irradiating from the tabernacle, and it is to the Heart of Jesus that I dare go for the solution of all my problems."

Spend more time in front of the Blessed Sacrament this year.

Saint John Henry Newman

October 9

"God has created me to do him some definite service; he has committed some work to me which he has not committed to another. I have my mission – I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next... I have a part in a great work; I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons..."

-Blessed John Henry Newman

Pray that the will of God will be accomplished in your life

(after an apparition of Saint Dominic Savio)

Pray for teachers.

St. John N Neumann, Bishop of Philadelphia

January 5th

"Everyone who breathes, high and low, educated and ignorant, young and old, man and woman, has a mission, has a work. We are not sent into this world for nothing; we are not born at random; God creates every soul for a purpose. He needs, He deigns to need, every one of us. We are all equal in His sight, and we are placed in our different ranks and stations, not to get what we can out of them for ourselves, but to labor in them for Him. As Christ has His work, we too have ours; as He rejoiced to do His work, we must rejoice in ours also."

Pray to understand God's plan for your life.

Saint John of the Cross

(celebrated December 14th)

"Would that men might come at last to see that is quite impossible to reach the thicket of the riches and wisdom of God except by first entering the thicket of much suffering, in such a way that the soul finds there its consolation and desire."

Pray for those who suffer, that they unite with Jesus and find joy.

Pope Saint John Paul the Great

October 22

“Willed by God in very action of creation, marriage and family are interiorly ordained to fulfillment in Christ and have need of His graces in order to be healed from the wounds of sin and restored to their “beginning,” that is, to full understanding and the full realization of God’s plan” –St. JPII
Pray for the healing and protection of marriages and families.

Pope Saint John Paul the Great

October 22

Pray for priests.

Saint Joseph, Husband of Mary

March 19

“St. Joseph was chosen among all men, to be the protector and guardian of the Virgin Mother of God; the defender and foster-father of the Infant-God, and the only co-operator upon earth, the one confidant of the secret of God in the work of the redemption of mankind.” — St Bernard of Clairvaux
Pray for a renewal of strong fatherhood in families and among priests

St. Joseph the Worker

May 1

“Some Saints are privileged to extend to us their patronage with particular efficacy in certain needs, but not in others; but our holy patron St. Joseph has the power to assist us in all cases, in every necessity, in every undertaking.”— St Thomas Aquinas
Pray for the unemployed and those seeking to know their vocation

St. Joseph of Arimathea

March 17

“There was a man named Joseph, an upright and holy member of the Sanhedrin, who had not been associated with their plan or their action... This man approached Pilate with a request for Jesus’ body. He took it down, wrapped it in fine linen, and laid it in a tomb hewn out of the rock, in which no one had yet been laid.” Lk 23:50-53
Pray for great reverence for the Body of Christ to be restored in the Church.

Saint Josephine Bakhita

Pray for forgiveness to conquer in hearts bound by hatred.

Saint Juan Diego

July 31

“I am only a poor man. I am not worthy of being there where you send me. Pardon me, my Queen, I do not want to make your noble heart sad, I do not want to fall into your displeasure.” After much persuasion he agreed to go to the Bishop. He left her, calling her “My Dear One, my Lady...”

Pray for the conversion of the Americas.

Saint Juan Diego

July 31

“I am your merciful Mother, the Mother of all who love me, of those who cry to me, of those who have confidence in me. I will hear their weeping and their sorrows ... their necessities and misfortunes. ...

Listen, and let it penetrate your heart. ... Do not fear any illness or vexation, anguish or pain. Am I not here who am your Mother? Are you not under my shadow and protection?” – Our Lady of Guadalupe

Pray for those suffering from fear, doubt and anxiety.

St. Junípero Serra

July 1

“All my life I have wanted to be a missionary. I have wanted to carry the Gospel message to those who have never heard of God and the kingdom he has prepared for them.”

Pray for vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life

St. Katharine Drexel, Virgin and Foundress

March 3rd

“And here is the passive way – to be filled unto the fullness of God. The passive way – I abandon myself to it, not in a multiplicity of trials, extraordinary penances accomplished, practices of great works – but in peaceful abandonment to the tenderness of Jesus, which I must try to imitate, and by being in constant union with his meek and humble heart.

Pray for receptivity to Christ’s love.

Saint Kateri Tekawitha, Native American

July 14th

“Who can tell me what is most pleasing to God that I may do it?”

Pray for Native Americans

St. Lawrence

(Celebrated August 10th)

After three days, Lawrence gathered all of the lepers, cripples, orphans, widows, the poor and the lame and presented them to the prefect as the "true treasures of the Church."

Pray for the poor and for the gift of love for the poor.

Pope Leo the Great

Feast November 10

A great pope, he battled heresies and is best known for turning back Atilla the Hun from invading Europe

"It was fitting, therefore, that the birth which brings salvation brought no corruption to virginal integrity; the bringing forth of Truth was at the same time the safeguarding of virginity. Dearly beloved, this kind of birth was fitting for Christ, the power and the wisdom of God: a birth in which he was one with us in our human nature but far above us in his divinity. If he were not true God, he would not be able to bring us healing; if he were not true man, he would not be able to give us an example"

We pray for theologians and Catholic schools and universities.

Blessed Leonie Martin

(Celebrated June 16th)

"Your little Leonie may be changed, not only in name, but in everything which might be displeasing to Him whom alone she wishes to love." "It is inappropriate for me to moan over my faults as I have done until now. That is pride.

As our Holy Founder said, it is no wonder that weakness is weak; I must humble myself, not vex myself.

Pray for peace in the family.

Saint Leopold Mandic 1866-1942

(Celebrated October 16th)

Cappuchin Priest in Yugoslavia: "I expect everything from the charity of our Lord Jesus Christ and His Divine Heart"

Pray for those who are questioning their faith.

Saint Margaret of Castello- Feast April 13

Born blind and with physical deformities, Margaret was rejected by her parents and suffered greatly in her life. In spite of her physical difficulties, Margaret visited prisoners, helped the sick, and comforted people who were suffering. Soon everyone in the city of Castello knew about Margaret and admired her. At her death, the entire city attended her funeral and that a crippled young girl was healed during the Mass.

We pray for those who are disabled in any way.

St. Margaret Mary Alacoque

“A just soul has so much power over my heart that it can obtain forgiveness for thousands of criminals.”

(Jesus to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque)

Pray for hardened sinners.

Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque

(celebrated on 16 October)

"Make your home in the adorable Heart of Jesus Christ, take your little worries and disappointments, and all will find peace there. You will find the remedy for your ills, the strength for your weaknesses and shelter in all your needs."

Pray for those crushed by trials

(1 Thessalonians 5:16-18)

“Patience is good, but perseverance is even better.”

Pray for a desire to adhere ever more to Christ and the Gospel.

St. Marie-Léonie Paradis

May 4

“Our mission in the Church is to help the priest on the temporal and spiritual planes,” she wrote, “But what it really demands as a supreme witness is for us to love one another and to love all people, not with just any love, but with all the love that God wants to give them.”

Pray for all those who follow Christ to grow in humility and in service, learning from Him who made Himself a servant to reach everyone with His Love.

Saint Martin de Porres

(celebrated November 3rd)

“He excused the faults of others and pardoned even the most bitter injuries done to him. He sought to bring sinners back to a good life, was most kind to the sick, provided the poor with food, clothing, and medicine, and did all he could for those who were regarded in his day almost as slaves” Bl John XXIII

Pray for an end to racism and human trafficking

Saint Mary Magdalene

(celebrated July 22nd)

“And a woman in the city, who was a sinner, having learned that he was eating in the Pharisee’s house, brought an alabaster jar of ointment. She stood behind him at his feet, weeping, and began to bathe his feet with her tears and to dry them with her hair. Then she continued kissing his feet and anointing them with the ointment” (Luke 7:37ff.)

Pray that those lost in sin will come to know the great love of Jesus.

Saint Mary of Jesus Crucified, The Lily of Palestine

Canonized in 2015; Celebrated August 25

Holy Spirit, inspire me. Love of God consume me. Along the true road, lead me. Mary, my good mother, look down upon me. With Jesus, bless me. From all evil, all illusion, all danger, preserve me.

Pray for persecuted Christians

St. Maria Goretti, virgin and martyr

(celebrated July 6th)

“Rejoice in the measure that you share Christ’s sufferings. When His glory is revealed, you will rejoice exultantly.

Happy are you when you are insulted for the sake of Christ, for then God’s Spirit in its glory has come to rest on you.”

Pray for the purity of the young

Saint Martha of Bethany

July 29th

“Martha, Martha, you are busy and worried about many things. One thing alone is necessary. Mary has chosen the better part and it shall not be taken from her.” (Luke 10:41-42)

Pray for those who struggle with anxiety to find peace in Jesus

Saint Martha of Bethany

(celebrated July 29th)

“Martha said to Jesus, ‘Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you.’ Jesus said to her, ‘Your brother will rise.’ Martha said to him,

‘I know he will rise, in the resurrection on the last day.’ Jesus told her, ‘I am the resurrection and life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and anyone who lives and believes in me will never die.’

Pray for the despairing.

Mary, Mother of God

January 1

“Do whatever he tells you.”

Pray for caught in the snare of addiction.

Venerable Matt Talbot- June 19

An Irish layman who drank heavily for over 16 years, Matt spent the last forty years of his life in sobriety, penance and deep prayer. He rose at 5 a.m. every day so as to attend Mass before work. At work, whenever he had spare time, he found a quiet place to pray. He spent most of every evening on his knees.

“I am with you and I desire to help you to grow in renunciation and mortification, that you may be able to understand the beauty of the life of people who go on giving themselves to me in special way. Dear children, God blesses you day after day and desires a change of your life. Therefore, pray that you may have the strength to change your life.” (05/25/90)

We pray for those who struggle with addictions to drugs or alcohol and for their families

Saint Matthew, apostle

(celebrated September 21st)

“The Pharisees and the scribes of their party said to Jesus’ disciples, ‘Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and non-observers of the law?’ Jesus said to them, ‘The healthy do not need a doctor; sick people do. I have not come to invite the self-righteous to a change of heart, but sinners.’”

Pray for those who do not know the love of Jesus.

Saint Maximilian Kolbe (Poland)

(celebrated August 14th)

“What is essential is not to accomplish a great deal according to our own lights, but to be in the hands of the Immaculate Virgin.”

Pray that Mary Immaculate may reign in our hearts.

Blessed Miriam Teresa Demjanovich

Beatified in 2014

May 8

The imitation of Christ in the lives of saints is always possible and compatible with every state of life. The saints did but one thing – the will of God. But they did it with all their might. We have only to do the same thing; and according to the degree of intensity with which we labor shall our sanctification progress.

Pray for God’s will to be done in your life and in the world.

St. Monica (mother of St. Augustine)

(celebrated August 27th)

“If I am your child, O my God, it is because you gave me such a mother!” St. Augustine. Monica did not give up but prayed for Augustine for many years. Her prayers won for the church one of its greatest Doctors.

Pray for the holiness of mothers.

St. Nicholas, Bishop and Patron of Children

December 6th

“Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them, for it is to such as these that the Kingdom of Heaven belongs.”

Pray for a childlike heart.

Blessed Oscar Romero

Beatified in 2015; March 24

If we are worth anything, it is not because we have more money or more talent, or more human qualities. Insofar as we are worth anything, it is because we are grafted onto Christ’s life, his cross and resurrection. That is a person’s measure.

Pray for governments to respect human life from conception to natural death.

Our Lady of Fatima

(celebrated May 13th)

“O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell. Lead all souls to heaven, especially those in most need of thy mercy.”

Pray for greater devotion to the Rosary among Christians.

Our Lady of Lourdes

(celebrated February 11th)

“I am the Immaculate Conception.”

Pray for deeper devotion to Our Lady’s Immaculate Heart.

Cultivate a devotion to the Miraculous Medal.

Our Lady of Mount Carmel

(celebrated July 16th)

"Those who wish to live truly devoted to Our Lady of Mount Carmel must follow Mary into the depths of the interior life...Mary's soul is a real 'garden' of virtues, an oasis of silence and peace, where justice and equity reign; an oasis of security completely enveloped in the shadow of God, and filled with God. Every interior soul, even if living amid the tumult of the world, must strive to reach this peace, this interior silence, which alone makes continual contact with God possible."

Pray for peace and interior silence in the hearts of bishops and priests.

Our Lady, Queen of Peace

Seek first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things shall be yours as well.

Pray for peace in your heart.

Saint Padre Pio

(celebrated September 23rd)

"The greatest charity is to take away souls from Satan and to bring them back to God".

Pray for the salvation of souls.

Saint Patrick of Ireland

(celebrated March 17th)

"If I am worthy, I am ready also to give up my life, without hesitation and most willingly, for his name. I want to spend myself in that country (Ireland), even in death, if the Lord should grant me this favor."

St. Patrick's Confessions

Pray for the sanctification of priests and bishops.

St. Paul

Feast of Sts. Peter and Paul: June 29th

"I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me." ~Gal 2:20

Pray for the conversion of those who attack the Church

St. Paul

Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul: January 25th

"As he traveled along and was approaching Damascus, a light from the sky suddenly flashed about him. He fell to the ground and at the same time heard a voice saying, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?'"

Pray for the unity of Christians.

Blessed Pope Paul VI

Celebrated September 26

"In humble obedience then to her voice, let Christian husbands and wives be mindful of their vocation to the Christian life...For the Lord has entrusted to them the task of making visible to men and women the holiness and joy of the law which united inseparably their love for one another and the cooperation they give to God's love, God who is the Author of human life." –Pope Paul VI

Pray for married couples to love each other as Christ loves the Church

Saint Peter the Apostle

(celebrated on 29 June)

"Lord, you know everything, you know that I love you."

Pray for the Pope and his intentions for the world.

St Peter To Rot

July 7

"This is a very bad time for us, and we are all afraid.

But God our Father is with us and looking after us.

We must pray and ask Him to stay with us always."

Pray for families to hold on to the traditions that defend and strengthen Family Life

St Peter To Rot

July 7

"I have to fulfill my duty as a Church witness to Jesus Christ."

Pray for those persecuted for their fidelity to the Gospel

St Philip Neri

(celebrated May 26th)

"Let joy in the Lord be continuous until joy in the world is extinguished. The former is always growing, the latter ever decreasing and finally dying. Rejoice in the Lord then, and not in the world. Rejoice, for wherever you are and as long as you are on earth, the Lord is near, do not be anxious."

Pray for those who have yet to find true joy in Jesus

St. Philomena

August 11

We beseech Thee, O Lord, to grant us the pardon of our sins by the intercession of Saint Philomena, virgin and martyr, who was always pleasing in Thy sight by her eminent chastity and by the profession of every virtue.

Pray for babies, especially the unborn, and children.

St. Pier Giorgio Frassati

July 4th

"Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope." 1Pet 3:15

Pray for teenagers.

St. Pier Giorgio Frassati

July 4th

"Prayer is the noble supplication which we lift up to the throne of God. It is the most efficient means to obtain from God the graces which we need, and especially the strength of persevering in these times, in which the hatred of the sons of the devil is breaking out violently against the sheep who are faithful to the fold."

Pray from the heart; practicing piety, first of all the most Holy Eucharist.

St. Pier Giorgio Frassatti

July 4th

“True happiness, young people, does not consist in the pleasures of the world and in earthly things, but in peace of conscience, which we can have only if we are pure in heart and in mind.”

Pray for the disillusioned and broken-hearted to be granted the graces of Faith, conversion and repentance.

Blessed Luigi and Maria Quattrocchi

(Celebrated April 28th)

Maria was advised to abort her unborn child to save her own life. The couple graciously relied on their trust in divine providence and were blessed with a healthy baby girl "Enrichetta". They also raised their family to be just as virtuous; three of their four children joined religious orders.

Pray for engaged couples.

St. Rita of Cascia

Pray for the healing of broken and wounded marriages.

St. Rocco

August 16

A great St. Rocco, assist us to make good use of health, to bear suffering with patience, and, after thy example, to live in the practice of penance and charity, that we may one day enjoy the happiness which thou has merited by thy virtues.

Pray for those suffering from contagious diseases.

Saint Rose of Lima

(celebrated August 23rd)

“Listen, all you people! At Christ’s bidding and in his very words, I warn you: We cannot win grace if we do not suffer affliction; toil upon toil must be ours if we are to attain an intimate share in the divine nature, the glory of God,s children, and perfect happiness.

If only men knew how beautiful, noble, and priceless a thing God,s grace is!”

Pray that souls find the true beauty of the Cross.

Sacred Heart of Jesus

Celebrated 19 days after Pentecost

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, fountain of eternal life, Your Heart is a glowing furnace of Love. You are my refuge and my sanctuary. - St. Gertrude the Great

Pray for those who do not yet know the love of Jesus.

Saint Scholastica, Sister of Saint Benedict- Feb 10.

According to the Dialogues of St. Gregory the Great, the brother and sister spent their last day together in prayer and conversation. Scholastica sensed her death was close at hand and she begged Benedict to stay with her until the next day. He refused her request because he did not want to spend a night outside the monastery, thus breaking his own Rule. Scholastica asked God to let her brother remain and a severe thunderstorm broke out, preventing Benedict and his monks from returning to the abbey. Benedict cried out, “God forgive you, Sister. What have you done?” Scholastica replied, “I asked a favor of you and you refused. I asked it of God and he granted it.” Brother and sister parted the next morning after their long discussion. Three days later, Benedict was praying in his monastery and saw the soul of his sister rising heavenward in the form of a white dove. Benedict then announced the death of his sister to the monks and later buried her in the tomb he had prepared for himself.

Pray for love between siblings.

St. Scholastica, Virgin, Sister of St. Benedict

February 10th

Thereupon, Scholastica cried openly, laid her head upon the table, and prayed that God would intercede for her. As she did so, a sudden storm arose. The violent rain and hail came in such a torrential downpour that Benedict and his companions were unable to depart. "May Almighty God forgive you, sister" said Benedict, "for what you have done." "I asked a favor of you," Scholastica replied simply, "and you refused it. I asked it of God, and He has granted it!"

Pray for confidence in God's Providence.

Saint Seraphim of Sarov

(celebrated on 2 January)

"Acquire inner peace and thousands around you will find salvation."

Pray for the unity of the Church.

St. Silvan

(celebrated July 30th)

O holy Saint Silvan, Martyr of unwavering faith, Your incorrupt body testifies to Divine Grace. Intercede for us, that we may remain steadfast in our trials and faithful to our Lord.

Pray for those suffering with unbelief.

St. Simon of Cyrene

"It is the Cross that bears you, not you who bear the Cross" (the Curé of Ars).

Pray for fraternal charity to reign among Catholics.

Father Slavko Barbarić, O.F.M.

November 24

"Dear children! Today when Heaven is near to you in a special way, I call you to prayer so that through prayer you place God in the first place. Little children, today I am near you and I bless each of you with my motherly blessing so that you have the strength and love for all the people you meet in your earthly life and that you can give God's Love. I rejoice with you and I desire to tell you that your brother Slavko has been born into heaven and intercedes for you. Thank you for having responded to my call."

(Our Lady of Medjugorje on November 25, 2000)

Pray and celebrate the sacraments from the heart.

Blessed Solanus Casey, O.F.M. Cap.

Beatified 2017; Celebrated November 3

"Long since, he had come to know the Christ-taught truth that pure love of God and one's fellowmen as children of God are in the final event all that matter. Living this truth ardently and continuously had made him, spiritually, a free man—free from slavery to passions, from self-seeking, from self-indulgence, from self-pity—free to serve wholly both God and man"

Pray for the grace of interior freedom.

Saint Stanislaus Papczynski - Sept. 17
Died Sept 17, 1701
Founder of the Marians of the Immaculate Conception

Two centuries before the proclamation of the Dogma of the Immaculate Conception, Stanislaus professed:
"I believe everything that the holy Roman Church believes, but first of all I profess that the Most Holy Mother of God, Mary, was conceived without any stain of original sin."
This privilege of the Immaculate Conception was very precious to him.
Pray for all religious to find their refuge in the Immaculate Heart of Mary

Blessed Stanley Rother, Martyr, Priest of Oklahoma City

"The shepherd cannot run at the first sign of danger."
Pray for courage and strength for priests.

Saint Stephen, first martyr, celebrated Dec 26
"And Stephen, full of grace and power, did great wonders and signs among the people. Then some of those who belonged to the synagogue of the Freedmen...disputed with him. But they could not withstand the wisdom and the Spirit with which he spoke...And gazing at him, all who sat in the council saw that his face was like the face of an angel."
Pray for the gift of holiness.

Saint Teresa of Avila
(celebrated October 15th)
"Since the spiritual world is based entirely on humility, the closer one gets to God, the more this virtue should grow."
Pray for consecrated souls.

Saint Teresa of Calcutta
September 5
"The more we are united with God, the more eager we will be to love and serve the poor with our whole heart."
Pray for the poor and those who have no one to pray for them.

Saint Mother Theodore Guerin
(Celebrated May 14)
What have we to do in order to be saints? Nothing extraordinary; nothing more than what we do every day. Only do it for God's love."
Pray for trust in God's Providence

Saint Thérèse of Lisieux, Doctor of the Church
(celebrated on 1 October)
"I understand so well that it is only love that can make us pleasing to the Good Lord, and my ambition is for this love alone."
Pray for the fire of love to descend upon the Church.

St. Thérèse of Saint Augustine and Companions

(The Martyrs of Compiègne)

July 17

“We are the victims of the age, and we ought to sacrifice ourselves to obtain its return to God.”

“I forgive you as heartily as I wish God to forgive me.” --St. Marie-Anne Piedcourt (Sister of Jesus Crucified)

Praise the Lord, all ye nations,

Praise Him, all ye peoples.

For His loving kindness (mercy) has been bestowed upon us,

And the truth of the Lord endures for eternity.

Pray for a steadfast love for God.

St. Thomas Aquinas, Dominican, Doctor of the Church

(celebrated January 28th)

“Eternal life consists in the complete satisfaction of desire, for there the blessed will be given more than they wanted or hoped for. The reason is that in this life no one can fulfill his longing, nor can any creature satisfy man’s desire.

Only God satisfies, he infinitely exceeds all other pleasures. That is why the Lord says:

Enter into the joy of your Lord.”

Pray for the conversion of lukewarm souls.

Saint Thomas the Apostle

(celebrated on 3 July)

"Jesus said to him, "Put your hands in my side and do not doubt, but believe." Thomas replied,

"My Lord and my God." (Jn 20: 27-28)

Pray for unbelievers.

Saint Thomas More

(celebrated June 22nd)

‘I never stop trusting in His mercy. His grace has thus far strengthened me to renounce everything—possessions, income, life itself—rather than take an oath against my conscience. God will either sway the king to do no more to me, or He will give me strength to bear courageously and willingly whatever further evils are in store for me.’

Pray for lawyers and judges.

St Timothy, Disciple of St Paul

(celebrated January 26th)

‘We decided to send our brother Timothy, who is God’s helper in spreading the Good News of Christ, to keep you firm and strong in the faith, and prevent any of you from being unsettled by the present troubles.’ 1 Thess 3:2-3

Pray those overwhelmed by their problems to find peace in Christ.

Pray for the gift of compassion.

Saint Vincenza Maria Poloni

November 11

Lord Jesus, you raised up St. Vincenza Maria Poloni to serve the poorest among us with love and compassion. Give me the courage to see Your face in every needy person, to offer what I have with joy, and to advance toward holiness through my service. Through her intercession, renew in me a heart of mercy that mirrors Yours.

Pray especially for women who suffer with breast cancer.
