OVERVIEW

Paul Seaborn joined the management faculty at the McIntire School of Commerce, University of Virginia in 2019. Previously he was an Assistant Professor at the Daniels College of Business, University of Denver from 2011-2019 after completing a PhD in Strategic Management at the University of Toronto's Rotman School of Management. Prof. Seaborn has published scholarly articles in the journal Business & Society and Case Research Journal and has been the recipient of multiple teaching awards, including the top Daniels faculty teaching award and recognition as one of Poets & Quants Top 40 Undergraduate Business Professors in 2017. Professor Seaborn's research and teaching interests lie at the intersection of business strategy and government policy with a particular focus on regulated industries including the marijuana/cannabis industry. In 2014, he published one of the first-ever teaching cases on the marijuana industry and in 2017 taught the first-ever Business of Marijuana course at any AACSB-accredited business school. Since 2015, he has organized or participated in over 10 conference presentations and symposia related to the marijuana industry and his analysis of the industry, including his Colorado Marijuana Market Report, has been featured in over 30 different media outlets. He is also section editor for Commerce, Business, and the Environment for the Journal of Cannabis Research.
