To Whom it may concern:

I am very happy to recommend Mrs. Te-fong Lee Hsy (Deborah Hsy) as a teacher of music, especially of piano. While in the above school, she did an excellent piece of work even though she had to come some distance and had a small family. I taught her for four years.

As a person, she has a charming personality and makes friends easily. She is very dependable and very conscientious. She is very artistic, accomplished in the art of Chinese brush painting. She is a very dedicated person and will give everything she has to any work given to her to do. She is very clever and has a good mind, also very well read.

I trust that her application will be given consideration.

Yours truly,

Lisel Taylor
Head of music Department.
