The Minnesota Orchestra has been committed to educational programming for over a century.

Today, its Education and Community Engagement Department uses symphonic music as a catalyst to enrich our community by bringing people together, creating meaningful connections to the Minnesota Orchestra, and inspiring exploration and growth through engagements in Orchestra Hall, the community and digital spheres.
MESSAGE FROM THE DEPARTMENT

Dear Minnesota Community:

We are excited for the 2023-24 season, which brings a new music director, innovative programming, and new and continuing partnerships with students, teachers and artists throughout Minnesota. A season highlight for the Department of Education and Community Engagement will be a Family Concert in January conducted by Music Director Thomas Søndergård! Our Young People’s Concerts return with captivating conductors, hosts, and a combination of well-known pieces and music that is new to Orchestra Hall, with a diverse array of composers spotlighted throughout the year. We are working to listen deeply to our community and co-create experiences that will take place at Orchestra Hall and out in our Twin Cities community. Our Relaxed Family and Sensory-Friendly programs are central to ensuring that the Minnesota Orchestra is accessible for all families and all ages. Best of all, we get to do this work with the wonderful musicians of the Minnesota Orchestra! Our programs create opportunities for our musicians to connect with our community members in unique and transformative ways. This brochure touches on many great programs: please explore our website for even more up-to-date information, photos and concert descriptions. Let’s have a season to celebrate!

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

ORCHESTRA HALL+

OH+ presents interdisciplinary programs to engage audiences with diverse cultural and socioeconomic backgrounds, striving to eliminate barriers of access to the Orchestra. This is done through collaborations and partnerships to create pre-concert experiences that deepen connections between the Minnesota Orchestra and the community it serves, including concert and preview discussions with musicians and artists, performances and exhibits. By facilitating artistic experiences and engaging audiences in various settings at the Hall and in their communities, we meet our community “where they are at.”

"This year we have fantastic plans to connect the Orchestra with the vital LGBTQ+ Minnesota communities in celebrating Pride at the Hall in June. Connecting to what makes our Minnesota communities unique, strong and vibrant is one of the Minnesota Orchestra’s greatest motivations in our Community Engagement work."

Mary Ellyn Johnson, Manager of Community Engagement Programs

COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS

The Minnesota Orchestra collaborates with organizations and community partners to build and strengthen a sustainable arts eco-system with diverse communities of all ages and backgrounds across the state, with a particular commitment to its home locality of Minneapolis. Through these partnerships we create meaningful and sustainable connections with our unique communities in Minnesota, striving to better understand our communities and to maximize the impact of its community initiatives.
COMMON CHORDS

Common Chords is a Minnesota Orchestra initiative that strives to bring Minnesota communities together through music. A year-long community planning process culminates in a festival week of chamber ensemble and full-Orchestra performances in the host city, educational programming and other activities that reflect the interests, diversity and heritage of the community.

Musical activities take place in a variety of settings ranging from concert halls and schools to coffee shops, pubs and community centers. Previous host communities have included Austin, Grand Rapids, Willmar, Hibbing, Bemidji, Detroit Lakes, Mankato and North Minneapolis.
