Stravinsky's Firebird*

Thomas Søndergård, conductor
Vadym Kholodenko, piano
Tal Rosner, video artist and creative designer

FRI SEP 25 8PM
SAT SEP 26 7PM

The world premiere of Stravinsky's first ballet, The Firebird, made him famous overnight. For our Season Opening celebrations, the creativity of video artist Tal Rosner adds thrilling dimension to Stravinsky's luminous score. Van Cliburn Competition gold medalist Vadym Kholodenko's technical brilliance will dazzle in Prokofiev's Piano Concerto No. 2.

THU OCT 1 11AM
FRI OCT 2 8PM
SAT OCT 3 7PM

Violinist Stefan Jackiw draws his life motto from the myth of Sisyphus: "There is scarcely any passion without struggle." It's a reminder that just because he can make it sound effortless to play the violin, that doesn't mean it is. Jackiw's interpretation of Mozart will set you up beautifully for the tension and power of Prokofiev's Symphony No. 6.

SAT JUN 12 7PM

By now, you may have figured out that one of Thomas Søndergård's favorite composers is Richard Strauss. This time, he draws our attention to Strauss' only work for piano and orchestra with decorated soloist Yeol Eum Son making her Minnesota Orchestra debut.

There are many great moments in Mahler's Symphony No. 5, including a moving Adagietto which some scholars have described as a love letter to his wife, Alma.

Steve Hackman Conducts His Beethoven X Beyoncé

Steve Hackman,
conductor & creator

FRI JUN 25 8PM

Steve Hackman's electrifying new production pairs pop's Queen with classical music's King—Beyoncé and Beethoven—in a genre-defying concert experience. Beethoven's Symphony No. 7 becomes the driving force behind 15 of Beyoncé's biggest hits, including "Crazy in Love," "Sorry," "Single Ladies" and "Texas Hold 'Em." The evening's emotional high point fuses Beyoncé's soaring "Halo" with the haunting second movement of Beethoven's Seventh, creating a powerful and unforgettable musical moment. Hackman brings with him three powerhouse female soloists and a band featuring drums, guitar/keys and bass.

Thorgy Thor and the Thorchestra

SAT JUN 26 7PM

Sensational drag performance artist Thorgy Thor—famed worldwide from RuPaul's Drag Race—joins the Minnesota Orchestra for a thrilling, hilariously theatrical symphonic spectacular. With virtuosic violin chops and razor-sharp wit, the self-proclaimed "Queen of Classical Music" delivers a night of musical masterpieces, side-splitting laughter and fabulous fashion. A Pride weekend you won't soon forget!

FRI JUL 31 8PM

SAT AUG 1 7PM

GRAMMY® Award-winning mandolinist, singer, songwriter and composer Chris Thile brings his singular artistry to the Minnesota Orchestra in ATTENTION!, his playfully bold autobiographical work for mandolinist and orchestra. Part narrative song cycle, part musical self-portrait, ATTENTION! blends virtuosity, humor and storytelling. Whether you know Thile from Punch Brothers and Nickel Creek, or from his tenure as host of public radio's Live from Here, you'll be dazzled by his wit, invention and restless imagination.

An Evening with Chris Thile and Friends

SUN AUG 2 7PM

Devilishly dexterous and eclectic, Chris Thile is at home in every genre—from bluegrass to Baroque to jazz to indie pop. Thile's enormous talent and boundless energy have resulted in multiple Grammys®, a MacArthur “Genius” grant and dozens of albums as a solo artist. Thile and a crew of his closest musical compatriots and collaborators grace the Orchestra Hall stage for a one-night-only performance.

John Holiday,
countertenor

FRI AUG 7 8PM

Countertenor John Holiday returns to Orchestra Hall to perform Carlos Simon's orchestral song cycle Songs of Separation, a setting of texts by the 13th-century Persian Sufi mystic and poet Rūmī that meditates on loss, longing and the human experience of separation. Tracing a deeply expressive emotional arc—from grief and sorrow toward hope and affirmation—the work is brought vividly to life by Holiday, whose extraordinary, genre-defying voice has been praised by audiences and critics alike for its power, nuance and unmistakable individuality.
