RESTAURANT RIALTO

On a very charming square by the very charming channel, this spot is ever so lovely. The menu is small but precise and there is one particularly giant dish for you to focus on - the authentic Wienerschnitzel. A very decent wine list also exists to wash it all down.

Don't leave before you digest an entire schnitzel.

ATELIER F

Located in one of the little galleries off the main road, this French American kitchen is all about great vibes, comfy sofas, cool music and delicious dishes. The culinary balance between sophisticated French and uncomplicated American works like a gem. Go for a burger or steak and enjoy the beautiful fleet view in the heart of the city.

Don't leave before you side with sweet potato fries!

DANIEL WISCHER

Spearheading Hamburg fish specialties since 1924, everything at this cult restaurant is homemade, delicious, and fairly priced. A loyal fan base of both locals and tourists (and a few celebrities) return time again for their favorite dishes. Make it yours, too.

Don't leave before you eat fish and chips with your hands.

Distance from Mindspace:

250m (2 minute walk)

Visit: Große Johannisstraße 3

Call: 040 3252 5815

TI BREIZH HAUS DER BRETAGNE

Get ready to enjoy the best crepe bretonne outside France with views across a historical canal. This little restaurant is located in old Hamburg's last preservation area just a few steps away from the town hall market and the historic Speicherstadt.

Don't leave before you scarf a fancy crepe.

Distance from Mindspace:

400m (5 minute walk)

Visit: Deichstraße 39

After hours

LE LION

Ring the bell, and you will be let in to Le Lion, a speakeasy straight out of the prohibition era with everything you need to have a classy ol' time. Suave barkeeps, super attentive waitstaff, charming ambiance, top-notch cocktails, great crowd. Ready for some time away from the desk?

Don't leave before you nip a gin and basil smash.

Distance from MindSpace:
600m (7 minute walk)

Visit: Rathausstraße 3
Call: 33475 3780

DIE BANK

Well heeled city slickers have been posting up at Die Bank forever. It's the place to settle in for entire evenings of celebrating, eating and drinking. A former cash hall, revel among the remains of enormous columns and walk-in safes and enjoy a ambiance that's not short of old-world class and international flair. The brasserie is fantastic, by the way.

Don't leave before you sip a Nuclear Daiquiri.

BRICKS

This coffee, tea and cocktail bar lies right at the heart of Hamburg's shopping district - and it's where you'll want to end up after a long day at the office or a draining afternoon shopping afternoon. Join a very international clientele for a joyful evening of stiff drinks in a homelike setting. Tip: catch performances from local artists every Thursday night.

Don't leave before you scale the cocktail menu.

MEYER LANSKY'S

This bar established itself as an evergreen in the early 90s, and it continues on as a contemporary institution for locals that love it to death. Known for great service and rotating 80s hits, Meyer Lansky's shies away from the plush, puristic bar culture of the city. Reality is rougher, darker, and cozier around here - so much so, that you ought to secure your seat ahead of time.

Don't leave before you sink the famous Mexican Snowball.

NORD COAST COFFEE ROASTERY

Sip a mean brew to the tune of a heavenly canal breeze. This roastery sits right on the water with a focused coffee menu written up on the back wall and a healthy kitchen serving out generous lunch dishes. They do delicious hummus bowls, perfect poached eggs, and lots of sweet things like fluffy waffles. Send our regards to the resident bulldog - the cutest furry pal ever.

Don't leave before you sink your teeth through a waffle.
