A community is a group of people with a common interest or who share the same environment or locality.

Examples of communities are villages, towns, tribes, clans.

Other communities, like the church community, also have name for their leaders, e.g

- Pope or Bishop (Catholics),
- Prelate, Primate(Anglicans, Methodists),
- Pastor(Pentecostals),

Maintaining relationship in the church;

(Romans 12: 9-21):

St Paul urged the Roman Christian community:

1. To love one another and hate evil
2. To honour all members of the church
3. Not to be lazy at work

4. To receive visitors into our home joyfully
 5. To be at peace with everyone
 6. To be kind to those who hurt them
 7. To love as Christ loved them

We too should conduct ourselves in the ways above.

Maintaining relationship in the church;

1 Pt. 3 :8-13

We can maintain good relationship with our Christian brethren in the ways highlighted by St Peter (1 Peter 3:8-13):

1. Unity of spirit
2. Sympathy for those in need

3. Not being selfish in our dealings
 4. Humility
 5. Being caring and helpful
 6. Not returning evil for evil
