

qemp Terms and Conditions of Purchase, Use, and Distribution Training

Use only as directed on the labels

Each of qemp's hemp-derived CBD products contain a full profile of cannabinoids from hemp. This innovative approach to providing the body with all the benefits of a full spectrum of cannabinoids is what makes qemp "next level." While many will benefit from qemp products, please be aware of the following:

- Absolutely no one under the age of 21 should use qemp products.
- qemp products are not to be used for pets or animals.
- qemp products should never be used in vaping or any electronic nicotine deliver systems.

Abide by local, State, and Federal laws

Each State has it's own rules and laws regarding CBD products.

You are responsible for complying with all applicable local, state, and federal laws rules, regulations, and ordinances regarding your possession, use, transportation, distribution, and sale of qemp products

Although qemp products contain CBD from hemp, it is your responsibility to know what the laws are in your area.

Do not diagnose or prescribe treatment

It's easy to want to share qemp with everyone and tell them of the amazing benefits of hemp-derived CBD. But please remember, that you cannot diagnose or prescribe treatment for any disease or medical condition, this includes mentioning disease or medical conditions in any verbal or written communications.

Do not recommend that anyone should discontinue the services, recommendations, or medications of any doctor, behavioral health physician, or healthcare professional.

Making any improper, false, or misleading claims verbally or in writing including on any website, written communications, testimonials, or social media platforms can result in a qemp Compliance investigation or FDA/FTC investigation.

Do not make any claims on social media

Social media is a powerful tool for our Distributors. As such, qemp and regulatory bodies like the FDA and FTC monitor Distributors' social media platforms closely for improper, false, or misleading claims.

Never make any improper, false, or misleading claims verbally or in writing, including on any website, written communications, testimonials, or social media platforms.
