

BECOME A MARKETPLACE EXHIBITOR!

DENA'INA CIVIC & CONVENTION CENTER ANCHORAGE, ALASKA

Free and open to the public twice a year, the National Congress of American Indians Marketplace offers vendors and exhibitors a premiere opportunity to interact with tribal leaders, national Native organizations, and other key figures from every corner of Indian Country. Our marketplace provides the opportunity for a variety of booths ranging from artists to federal job recruiters and much more! While conference attendees are the main audience, our marketplace is open to the public giving exhibitors the opportunity to reach the greater community.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

NATIONAL CONGRESS OF AMERICAN INDIANS' MARKETPLACE

HOW ARE BOOTH LOCATION ASSIGNMENTS DETERMINED?

NCAI's policy is to place exhibitors in a first come, first served basis for those who have submitted a registration form and completed their booth payment. All booth assignments are final.

WHEN WILL WE RECEIVE OUR EXHIBITOR KITS?

Three to five weeks prior to the event, the marketplace decorator will email all exhibitors who have submitted a complete application and full payment a package containing full details on the exhibit space.

IS THE MARKETPLACE OPEN TO THE PUBLIC?

NCAI's marketplace is open to the public for the entire event. Feel free to invite your family, friends, colleagues, and networks to attend.

CAN EXHIBITORS ATTEND OTHER PARTS OF THE CONFERENCE?

Exhibitor registration does not include conference registration. Exhibitors must separately register as conference attendees to attend all breakout sessions and general assemblies. There are conference events that are open to everyone, including federal consultations, federal listening sessions, a welcome reception, and cultural night. For more details, please see the current draft agenda on NCAI's website.

IS THERE A HOTEL BLOCK FOR THE EVENT?

Hilton Anchorage is the host hotel for the 2022 Mid Year Conference & Marketplace, however NCAI does have overflow properties on standby. To receive the discount code to book your room, you must first be registered for a booth. Once registered, exhibitors will receive a link to book hotel rooms in a confirmation email. If there are questions regarding booking links, please contact events@ncai.org.
