

Technology Liability

Programme your risk.

A customised policy designed to protect technology companies against professional errors and omissions involving software failures, hardware defects, implementation errors and downtime, as well as intellectual property rights and personal injury disputes arising from media content. You also cannot ignore the threat of a cyber incident with the loss of personal or sensitive data and malicious threats like malware, ransomware, and spyware on the rise. Companies with a Delta Technology Liability policy will have access to a comprehensive set of solutions created to help protect themselves on all fronts from tech and cyber risks.
