+For the first time, flexible scheduling may be applied in Weeks 5-10. During that period, flexible scheduling can be used in no more than two weeks by shifting a Sunday afternoon game into primetime and moving the Sunday night game to an afternoon start time.

&For the first time, a select number of games are being "cross-flexed," moving between CBS and FOX to bring potentially under-distributed games to wider audiences.

*"Flexible scheduling" will be used in Weeks 11-17 as it has been in recent years. In Weeks 11-16, the schedule lists the games tentatively set for Sunday Night Football on NBC. Only Sunday afternoon games are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, in which case the tentatively scheduled Sunday night game would be moved to an afternoon start time. Flexible scheduling will not be applied to games airing on Thursday, Saturday or Monday nights. A flexible scheduling move would be announced at least 12 days before the game. For Week 17, the Sunday night game will be announced no later than six days prior to December 28. The schedule does not list a Sunday night game in Week 17, but an afternoon game with playoff implications will be moved to that time slot. Flexible scheduling ensures quality matchups in all Sunday time slots in those weeks and gives "surprise" teams a chance to play their way into primetime.

^The broadcasting network and start time for the 49ers Week 16 matchup with the San Diego Chargers will be set at a later date. If the game airs on NFL Network, kickoff will be 1:30 p.m. PT. If the game airs on CBS, kickoff will be 5:15 p.m. PT.

DENISE DeBARTOLO YORK & JOHN YORK

CO-CHAIRMEN

Denise and John York bring long and distinguished careers in sports and business to their roles as Co-Chairmen of the San Francisco 49ers, where they combine their passion for building a championship team with their commitment to being the best possible business partners and community citizens.

A THIRTY-YEAR LEGACY IN BUSINESS AND PRO SPORTS

Since Denise's father, Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., purchased the 49ers in 1977, she has been an integral part of more than three decades of 49ers football, including 44 playoff contests and five Super Bowl victories. Earlier in her career, Denise served as President of the Pittsburgh Penguins hockey team. Under her leadership, the Penguins were revitalized and transformed into a championship team, winning the Stanley Cup. She is one of only 12 women to have her name engraved on the Stanley Cup.

A successful entrepreneur, John spent years as Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations for the DeBartolo Corporation, instituting programs designed to enhance the fan experience and raise the profile of thoroughbred horse racing. John, a noted pathologist, began his business career in 1982 as founder of DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, Ohio. From three employees, he molded the company into a 500-person operation with facilities in three states before selling the company to Corning, Inc. in 1993.

As owners of the 49ers, Denise and John provide the resources and guidance to uphold the 49ers celebrated history and oversee the team's relationship with the Commissioner of the National Football League and other team owners.

TAKING A LEADERSHIP ROLE IN THE NFL

Denise and John's dedication to the sport of football extends to the top levels of the NFL.

Denise is an active member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Committee, where she helps to oversee the League's ongoing support of the museum that pays tribute to the triumphs of pro football's greatest stars, including 14 legendary members of the San Francisco 49ers.

John is Chairman of the NFL's Health & Safety Advisory Committee, which was established in 2011. He is also a member of both the League's Audit and International committees, the latter of which he previously served as Chairman. Under his leadership, the 49ers became the first team to play a regular season game outside the boarders of the United States, taking on the Arizona Cardinals in front of 100,000 fans at Azteca Stadium in Mexico City. The League expanded its presence abroad with regular season games at Wembley Stadium in London, England, under his direction. San Francisco has played in London's Wembley Stadium twice in the last four years, defeating the Denver Broncos in 2010 and the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2013.

CELEBRATING THE TEAM'S LEGENDARY HISTORY

Denise and John have played a pivotal role in fostering tremendous relationships with former players and coaches to help celebrate six monumental decades of 49ers football. Over the past decade, Denise and John have brought back every Hall of Fame enshrinee from the 49ers to be honored at Candlestick Park for their tremendous contributions to Bay Area sports.

When Levi's® Stadium opens in 2014, one of the premiere features of the venue will be the 49ers Museum Presented by Sony, which will house the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame. The two-level, 20,000 square foot space will be dedicated to showcasing the past, present, and future of the 49ers organization and its commitment to education and innovation.

Under the guidance of Denise and John, the team hosts its annual alumni weekend event to give all players who have donned the red and gold throughout the team's history a chance to catch up with old friends. They have also worked with players like Joe Montana, Steve Young and Dwight Clark, and the members of the 1981 49ers defense to re-enact and commemorate some of the team's most famous plays such as "The Catch" and the goal line stand that propelled the team to its first Super Bowl victory. As the team said goodbye to Candlestick Park in 2013, the 49ers commemorated many great memories by honoring the Top 10 moments in the storied history of the venue by welcoming back the alumni who help make them all possible.

ENHANCING THE FAN EXPERIENCE

Denise and John are dedicated to embracing the passion of 49ers fans everywhere. They are committed to giving fans an opportunity to experience the excitement of 49ers football year-round. From the 49ers Foundation's annual Winter Fest fundraiser in Lake Tahoe, to Pasta Bowl in Santa Clara each summer, they have made it their mission to embrace the fans as family.

Levi's® Stadium is the culmination of their vision to create an unparalleled game day experience for 49ers fans. The venue will not only provide fans the ultimate place to enjoy 49ers football, but it will also play host to a number of world-class sports and entertainment events throughout the year. Through the integration of innovative technology, sustainable practices and groundbreaking design elements, Levi's® Stadium will accurately reflect the best of the Bay Area while bringing fans closer to the game.

Visitors to Levi's® Stadium will immediately notice wider, open concourses that look back into the lower bowl so you don't miss a minute of the action while waiting for food. Fans will have plenty of options when they are hungry with more than 180 menu items throughout the stadium. A significant increase in the number points of sale for concessions and merchandise and a drastic increase in the number of restrooms with limit congestion. From their seats, visitors can marvel at 19,000 square-feet of video board space, while using the Levi's® Stadium App to order food or to watch replays of the action on the field. Those who visit the NRG Solar Terrace on the roof of the stadium's suite tower will be treated to unbelievable views, while being shaded by 49 solar panel arrays that will help to make the venue the first NFL stadium to open with LEED Gold certification.

In addition to an extensive roster of sports and entertainment events, Levi's® Stadium is home to three signature locations - The 49ers Museum Presented by Sony, Michael Mina's Bourbon Steak and Pub and the 49ers Team Store. Packaged with the venue's public tours and its special events program, these elements make Levi's® Stadium a year-round destination.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN THE LIVES OF OTHERS

Under the leadership of Denise and John, the team's community outreach programs and 49ers Foundation have grown tremendously.

The San Francisco 49ers Foundation is the non-profit community funding extension of the San Francisco 49ers. Now in its 22nd year, the 49ers Foundation supports development programs for underserved youth that keep them, "Safe, On Track, and In School." The San Francisco 49ers are promoting RESPECT for schools and community by donating a significant portion of the foundation's funding toward family violence prevention programs and activities that teach youth leadership and respect. Since 1992, the Foundation has donated over $23.3 million to support non-profits, including $3.3 million in 2013. In 2013, 100% of players participated in one-or-more community program and were joined by ownership, coaching staff, executives and their families at most of these events.

The 49ers ongoing efforts to promote education took significant steps forward in 2014, as Denise and John established two wonderful new programs. The Denise DeBartolo York Education Center, located inside The 49ers Museum at Levi's® Stadium, will provide learning platforms that connect, inspire, and engage students in grades K-8. The curriculum will feature content-rich lessons in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics), ingrain invaluable life skills and encourage physical activity. The Center will serve more than 20,000 children free of charge in year one alone.

Funded by the 49ers Foundation, Chevron and other collaborative partners, the 49ers STEM Leadership Institute will be housed at Cabrillo Middle School. Each year the program will accept seventh grade students from the Santa Clara Unified School District who exhibit great promise and desire and prepare them to engage in scientific research, impactful community-changing projects, or become entrepreneurs putting them on the path to enroll in a top-tier university with a STEM major.

> "On and off the field, talent alone will not lead to success. The game changer for promising future leaders is to provide a stimulating environment where their natural talent and drive will be fed by motivating mentors, meaningful activities, and academic enrichment. The 49ers STEM Leadership Institute's vision is to be a leader in STEM education, preparing and inspiring talented learners to meet the challenges of the global society through innovation, collaboration, and creative problem solving." - John York, Co-Chairman of the San Francisco 49ers

In recognition of their community involvement, the couple has been honored with a number of accolades including the Children Discovery Museum's Legacy for Children Award, City Year's Service Leadership Award, Silicon Valley Exemplary Community Leadership Award by Silicon Valley FACES, Outstanding Corporate Philanthropy Award at the Catholic Charities/Catholic Youth Organization's Loaves & Fishes Dinner, and inclusion on the Top Corporate Philanthropists list for the San Jose/Silicon Valley Business Journal.

The couple's passion for community involvement extends beyond the Bay Area as well. John has been honored with Loyola University's Strich Medal - the highest honor awarded by the school - for his ongoing contributions to his alma mater. Denise and John were honored with the Youngstown Hearing & Speech Center's Great Communicators Award in recognition of their philanthropic leadership. The couple continues to support the Boys and Girls Club of Youngstown and the Mahoning Valley United Way, while also being intimately involved with the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. Memorial Scholarship Foundation which awards college scholarships to deserving Youngstown area high school seniors.

Denise continues to provide mentoring and tuition assistance for at risk youth throughout all levels of education. She is also involved with the No Stone Unturned Foundation, which provides support for children and their families affected by developmental and neurological disorders. Denise is also passionate about cancer related causes, including The Serenity Garden at the Joanie Abdu Comprehensive Breast Care Center and the A Way With Words Foundation.

PUTTING FAMILY FIRST

Though Denise and John have accomplished much in their professional careers, they first define themselves as husband, wife and parents.

Their eldest son, Jed, now carries on the family's legacy begun by his grandfather Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., his Uncle Eddie DeBartolo Jr. and his parents, by serving as CEO of the 49ers. Their son, Tony, is currently an entrepreneur in the high-tech industry in the Bay Area, and is involved with support programs for incarcerated juveniles alongside team pastor Earl Smith. Their twin daughters, Jenna and Mara are pursuing careers in oenology in the Napa Valley. All of the York children share their parents' passion for community service and are very active in the 49ers Foundation. Denise and John, have one grandchild, Jaxon, the son of Jed and his wife, Danielle.
JED YORK

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

10TH NFL SEASON	10TH WITH 49ERS

BUILDING A CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

As chief executive officer of the San Francisco 49ers, Jed York oversees all aspects of the organization. Now in his fifth year as CEO, York has been a driving force behind the 49ers recent success on and off the field making bold decisions to return the team to its winning tradition and ultimately the Super Bowl. York recognizes and shares the ongoing passion of the team's faithful fans.

Many now point to 2011 as a significant year in the history of the storied franchise, as York led the organization through a year of great change and prosperity. His promotion of Trent Baalke to general manager, and the subsequent hiring of Jim Harbaugh as head coach, set the wheels in motion for the team's resurgence on the field. The team has since won two NFC West Division titles, advanced to three consecutive NFC Championship Games and a Super Bowl, while posting a 41-14-1 overall record.

York's strong leadership was instrumental in providing his team and its fans a state-of-the-art new home a year ahead of schedule. On April 19, 2012, the Santa Clara Stadium Authority broke ground on Levi's® Stadium and enlisted the 49ers to manage the construction process which achieved a ribbon cutting just two years later. Designed to set a new standard for the stadium experience, Levi's® Stadium is certain to become known as one of the iconic sports and entertainment venues in the world.

RECOGNIZING THE 49ERS FAITHFUL

A 49ers fan since birth, York recognizes that the success of the 49ers hinges on the team's faithful fans, and he is committed to honoring them for their passion and enthusiasm. Most recently, York recognized the unique opportunities Levi's® Stadium presented the team and its fans, and he directed the organization to capitalize.

From the time Levi's® Stadium was just a concept, creating the ultimate game day experience for 49ers fans was at the core of the York family's vision. The unique approach taken to designing the venue and bringing that vision to life incorporated one of the Bay Area's most notable natural resources – innovative technology. As York has repeatedly stated, Levi's® Stadium may not be the biggest stadium, but it will be the smartest.

With technology woven into its backbone, the building will not only allow visitors to customize their own individual experience through the use of the Levi's® Stadium App, but it will also be able to seamlessly evolve throughout the decades to come. In addition to groundbreaking design elements that bring fans closer to the game, the venue is a showcase for the region's sustainable efforts and world-class wine and cuisine. Fans will also come to recognize Levi's® Stadium as a year round destination that features a restaurant headlined by an award-winning chef and a museum dedicated to honoring the team's storied history, while also using football as a means to educate Bay Area youth.

Under York's leadership, the team established the Edward J. De-Bartolo, Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame in 2009, to commemorate the significant accomplishments of some of the team's biggest stars and key contributors. Named for his grandfather and the beloved patriarch of the 49ers, the Hall of Fame automatically inducted those 49ers greats that have either had their jersey numbers retired by the team or have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. York, shortly thereafter, announced the Hall of Fame's inaugural inductee, his uncle, Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr., who was enshrined during the 2009 season. The 49ers Hall of Fame now has a home inside the new 49ers Museum presented by Sony at Levi's® Stadium.

Also located inside the 49ers Museum is the newly created Denise DeBartolo York Education Center, which will provide learning platforms that connect, inspire, and engage students. Featuring content-rich lessons in science, technology, engineering and mathematics, the center will be highly interactive as it promotes physical activity and valuable life skills.

CARRYING ON THE FAMILY'S LEGACY

York's roots with the 49ers run deep. He is the oldest child of Denise and John York, the co-chairmen of the team. York's uncle and godfather, Eddie DeBartolo, also known to fans as "Mr.D", has long served as a mentor.

York began his career as a financial analyst at Guggenheim Partners, a diversified financial services firm. He worked in the firm's New York office in several areas, including private wealth management, hedge funds risk analysis, and collateralized debt obligations.

Born and raised in Youngstown, OH, York was a student athlete at Cardinal Mooney High School where he was captain of the baseball team as well student body president. After high school, York decided to carry on a family tradition by attending the University of Notre Dame, where he earned a degree in both finance and history. York was a member of Phi Alpha Theta, the National History Honors Society.

York credits his parents, his uncle Eddie, and his grandfather Edward DeBartolo, Sr. as being positive role models and for teaching him character values such as integrity, a strong work ethic, and respect for others. He is pleased to carry on his family's commitment to community by serving as a board member at Tipping Point Community, the Common Wealth Club, Bay Area Council, Silicon Valley Leadership Group, and the Council on Foreign Relations.

Besides his tremendous passion for the 49ers, York enjoys traveling, fishing, and playing cards, which he learned from his grandfather.

Jed lives in the Bay Area with his wife, Danielle, and son, Jaxon.

TRENT BAALKE

GENERAL MANAGER

17TH NFL SEASON	10TH WITH 49ERS

A veteran of 17 NFL seasons, Trent Baalke enters his 10th year with the 49ers and his fourth as the team's general manager.

During Baalke's tenure, the 49ers have appeared in three consecutive NFC Championship Games and a Super Bowl, while tallying a 5-3 postseason record. The 2011 NFL Executive of the Year, as selected by Pro Football Weekly and the Pro Football Writers of America, earned the honor in just his first season as the 49ers general manager.

Since 2010, the year Baalke began to oversee all player acquisitions as the team's vice president of player personnel, the 49ers draft and free agent classes have produced significant returns. In that span, five of the players acquired have accounted for eight All-Pro selections, while seven of those players have earned Pro Bowl honors. In all, the 49ers have produced 23 All-Pro selections and 30 Pro Bowl acknowledgements over the last three seasons.

At the completion of the 2013 season, 42 players acquired under Baalke's direction remained on the 49ers active roster. Among that group were 16 draft picks, including six regular starters and seven key contributors. Under Baalke's watch, the 49ers have selected 48 players in the last five drafts. Of those drafted players, 31 entered training camp with the team in 2014, and 10 have already logged starts for the team.

Focused on maintaining a strong core of veteran players to provide experience and leadership, Baalke has extended the contracts of a number of 49ers over the last four years, most recently QB Colin Kaepernick. He has also extended the contracts of All-Pros LB Patrick Willis, DT Justin Smith, LB NaVorro Bowman, and LB Ahmad Brooks, and Pro Bowlers TE Vernon Davis and RB Frank Gore.

Prior to his promotion to vice president of player personnel, Baalke was the 49ers director of player personnel from 2008-09, where he oversaw both the college and pro personnel departments. He first joined the franchise in 2005 as the team's western region scout, a position he held through 2007.

Baalke spent four years as a member of the Washington Redskins scouting staff, serving as the college scouting coordinator in his final season. From 2001 to 2003, he served as Washington's national scout and traveled throughout the country in search of rising talent. Before joining the Redskins, Baalke spent three seasons (1998-2000) as a scout with the New York Jets.

From 1990 to 1995, Baalke held the position of defensive line/strength and conditioning coach at South Dakota State. In that role, he helped promote players such as former Pro Bowl guard Adam Timmerman and current NFL kicker Adam Vinatieri to NFL scouts. Baalke then spent time as the athletic director at Shanley High School in Fargo, ND, before moving on to the Jets.

Baalke began his coaching career as a graduate assistant defensive line coach at North Dakota State, in 1989. The team finished with a 14-0 record and a Division II National Championship.

A double major at Bemidji State (MN), Baalke received his bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He went on to earn his master's degree in secondary education and sports administration while coaching at North Dakota State. ABOUT LEVI'S® STADIUM

The Bay Area is a consistent leader in innovation. Hosting the premiere outdoor sports and entertainment venue in the world that is set to incorporate groundbreaking in-stadium technology will add another industry that has been greatly influenced by the innovation of our region. In the past decade, the home-viewing experience has become so good that many argue it is a more attractive option than attending a live sporting event. Imagine a stadium that combines the comforts of home while also providing a forum to connect with 68,500 people in real time. Levi's® Stadium is set to change the dynamic of live sporting events as we know it, while uniting the Bay Area region in the process.

A smarter stadium was bound to happen. Levi's® Stadium will capture the best technology found in Silicon Valley by allowing fans to create their own experience inside its friendly confines. Instead of focusing on hardware that will become obsolete over time, Levi's® Stadium will leverage the brilliant companies who create personal mobile devices for our customers, such as tablets and smartphones. The focus will be on ensuring that fans have full connectivity inside the stadium, providing them the unique ability to get inside the game like no other venue allows. The best fans in the world expect a stadium to provide a ticketless and cashless experience with unique content and camera views available on their own handheld devices. That's why the 49ers have hired the best and brightest minds to redefine the in-game venue experience.

Innovation doesn't stop with the fan experience. Levi's® Stadium will be functionally green: the first stadium in North America designed to be net neutral to the grid. That means the 49ers 10 home games would be completely powered by the sun, from the venue's year-round collection of solar power, allowing it to become the first professional football stadium with LEED Gold Certification for New Construction. Food service will bring together all the great aspects of Northern California culinary culture. There will be an emphasis on locally grown, organic, seasonal and sustainable food.

An interactive museum highlighting 49ers history and tradition will also serve as an educational hub that teaches students how the stadium functions from a STEM perspective, while also highlighting the great history of the Bay Area. Levi's® Stadium will set a new standard for the in-stadium fan experience.

There is no bigger sporting event than the Super Bowl. Levi's® Stadium is set to host the game's golden anniversary in 2016, when Super Bowl 50 comes to the region. There is no better stage to showcase the smartest stadium in the world when hundreds of millions of television viewers join millions of tourists to get a glimpse of life in the Bay Area. Hotels, restaurants, museums, and other attractions will be buzzing. Public transportation and three international airports will be front and center. What an opportunity it will be to inform the world that the Bay Area is a present day version of Florence during the Renaissance.

Levi's® Stadium will build off of a legacy of innovation founded in the Bay Area. No longer is "good enough" an option for live sports. Levi's® Stadium will change the game internationally, becoming the next innovation to commence right here in the Bay Area.

This will include a game center with replays (within 5-10 seconds) and game statistics, as well as in-seat food and beverage, and merchandise ordering. The app will also provide paperless ticketing and parking, wayfinding, and integrated access to Faithful 49 presented by Esurance, the team's fan engagement platform.

- XFINITY by Comcast will be bringing free WiFi to guests throughout the stadium. When a fan is in their seat, they will never be more than 10 feet away from a WiFi signal.

NETWORK INFRASTRUCTURE

- Over 400 miles of data cable has been run in the stadium, including 70 miles of cable to support WiFi.

- More than 12,000 physical network ports have been installed.

- Levi's® Stadium features a backbone of 40Gb/s of available Internet bandwidth, easily scalable to event attendance, which is 40 times more Internet bandwidth capacity than any known U.S. stadium and four times greater than the standard for NFL stadiums mandated by the league for 2015.

- WiFi: The stadium contains more than 1,200 access-points and the most current wireless standards will be accessible in every location and free to all.

IN-STADIUM "BROADCAST"

- The in-stadium "Broadcast" will rival that of a Network TV broadcast, featuring 13 stadium cameras (most NFL stadiums have four-six). The stadium has the ability to share camera feeds with the broadcasting TV network. At least six different replay angles can be viewed per play. The game day production team will consist of 40-plus people.

- The stadium is equipped with two HD 13 video boards at the North and South ends of the stadium that measure 200 feet by 48 feet, producing more than 19,000 square feet of viewing space. They are among the largest in the NFL. The boards also feature tremendously sharp, cutting-edge LEDs. The boards can be sectioned in order to show multiple pieces of content simultaneously.

- Levi's® Stadium is one of a handful of stadiums in North America that is truly 4K-capable. The content team will be using 10 Sony F55 video cameras, their premium product, to capture the action in the stadium. The content team will be capturing in 4K, not broadcasting, as they are capturing for future capabilities.

- Nearly 2,000 screens will be connected to the stadium's IPTV system, which allows for incredible flexibility and customization throughout the venue. Content will include menu boards, game broadcasts, statistics and other important information as deemed necessary.

SUSTAINABILITY

Levi's® Stadium is the first professional football stadium to open with LEED Gold certification for New Construction, the recognized standard for measuring sustainability for design and construction.

The stadium is designed to reduce energy demand and generate more electricity annually, via on-site photovoltaic (PV) systems, than is consumed during the 10 scheduled 49ers games each season.

SUSTAINABLE DESIGN ELEMENTS

- NRG, the exclusive sustainable energy provider of the 49ers and the stadium, installed a number of state-of-the-art solar elements that account for 1,162 photovoltaic panels throughout the venue:

  - The NRG Solar Terrace, the venue's 27,000 square foot "green roof," is located atop the stadium's Suite Tower. It will feature 16 species of vegetation native to the Bay Area, and will lower the building's cooling/heating needs, as it will help regulate ambient temperatures in the Suite Tower. A portion of the roof is shaded by a solar panel canopy.

  - Three solar array-covered bridges (NRG Energy Bridges) - the first of their kind in the NFL.

- Electrical vehicle charging stations (NRG EV Charging Stations) are also being installed at the stadium to power maintenance and operations electrical vehicles. NRG is currently building the nation's first comprehensive, privately funded electric vehicle charging network.

- Low-flow plumbing fixtures such as toilets, urinals and sinks will use 40 percent less water than conventional fixtures. On top of low-flow water fixtures, the stadium will be using reclaimed water for flush fixtures in addition to irrigating all site landscape and the playing field.

- The playing field features Bermuda Bandera turf grass, which requires up to 50 percent less water than the average turf variety in the Bay Area.

- The stadium's sustainable initiatives also include public transit access (Caltrain, Ace & capital Corridor – VTA, Amtrack), convenient bicycle parking and a walking path from the San Tomas Creek Trail.

- Construction materials utilized contained more than 40% recycled content overall, based on cost. More than 75% of construction waste was recycled and diverted from landfills.
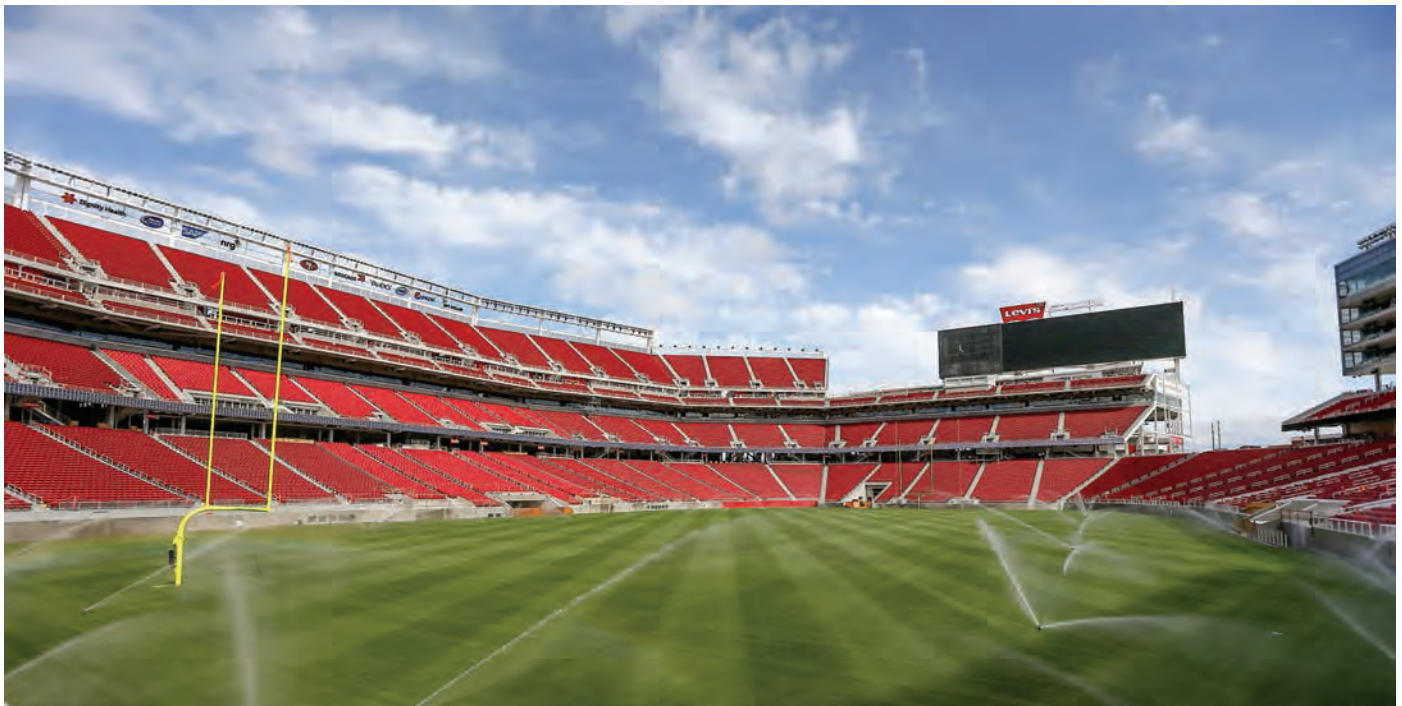

SUSTAINABLE STADIUM OPERATIONS PROGRAMS

- The Recycled Water Program is setting a new standard for stadiums. Recycled water will account for about 85 percent of all water used in Levi's® Stadium and will be used for playing field irrigation, the "green roof", flushing toilets, and cooling tower make-up water. Other stadiums in the U.S. are plumbed for recycled water use, but none are using it to the extent and in the myriad of ways as Levi's® Stadium.

- The Solid Waste Management Reduction Program is a comprehensive waste diversion program will strive for net-zero landfill. All garbage, recycling and compostable materials from inside the venue and the surrounding parking areas will be sorted on site and placed into compactors to be processed.

- The Building Management System allows the venue to conserve energy usage through HVAC monitoring, lighting distribution and the use of automatic sensors.

- The Energy Metering & Benchmarking Program utilizes a comprehensive, live-time electrical metering building management system, that allows the stadium to load-shed as needed through the use of motion sensors.

- The Preventative Maintenance Program will track all equipment and systems to enact their manufacturers recommendations and scheduled preventative plans.

- The Ongoing Commissioning Program will ensure that the venue will operate under the LEED existing building guidelines for new projects and build outs.

- The Green Cleaning Program ensures that the janitorial contractor, ABM, will use sustainable green certified products for all cleaning essentials and equipment.

- The Sustainable Purchasing Program for ongoing consumables, foodstuffs, durable goods will ensure that local, organic, recycled, compostable, items will be purchased from vendors.

- The Integrated Pest Management Program uses green pest eradication products.

- The Indoor Air Quality Management Program consists of perpetual monitoring of indoor air quality based on the LEED approved HVAC system.

- The Landscape Management Program includes using native, drought-resistant plants that will be hydrated with 100 percent recycled water.

- The Exterior Hardscape Management Program will utilize cleaning equipment when washing the exterior skin of the building and sidewalks. All organic materials collected will be composted.
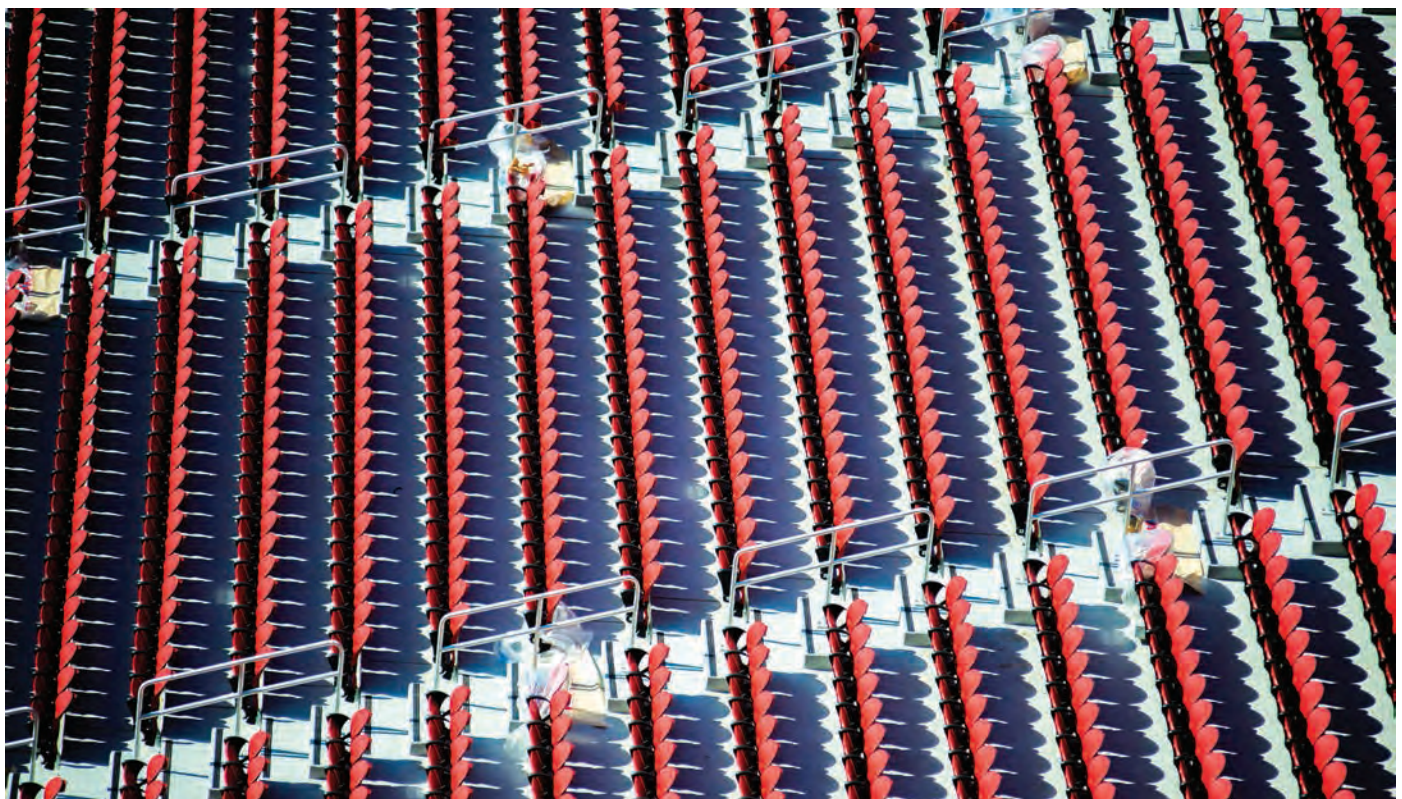

FAN EXPERIENCE OVERVIEW

Levi's® Stadium will deliver an unparalleled game day experience to fans and will be delivered in a multitude of ways.

STADIUM DESIGN

- Featuring over 45,000 seats, Levi's® Stadium's lower bowl will be one of the largest in the NFL (roughly two-thirds stadium capacity). The seating is designed this way to bring the majority of fans closer to the field.

- The design also eliminates the traditional club mezzanine level, which will bring fans sitting in the upper deck lower to the field.

- The location of Levi's® Stadium offers convenience to patrons in both access and parking. There are 13 freeway interchanges located near the stadium's site, which means fans will have ample access points to get on the freeway.

- There are 25,000 parking spaces located within a short walking distance from the stadium. Tailgating will be an integral part of the game day experience in Santa Clara.
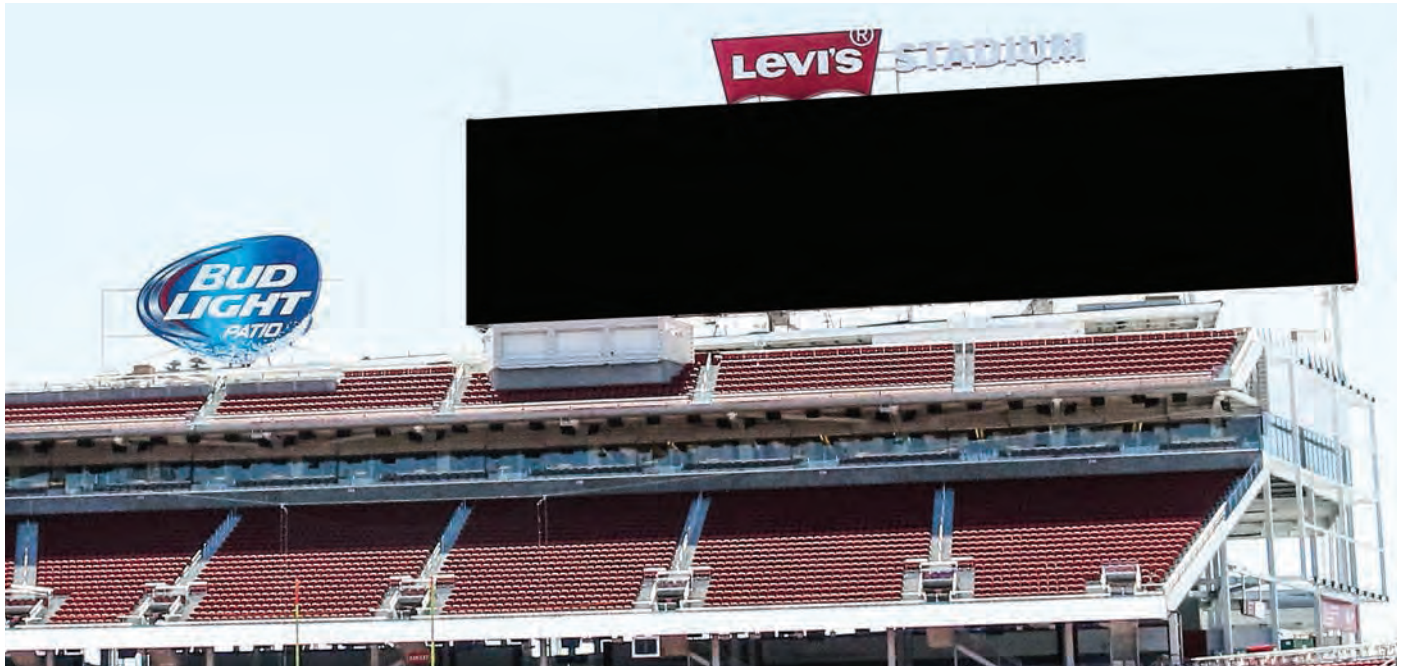

LEVI'S® STADIUM FEATURES

Plazas

- The first level of the stadium will feature open pedestrian plazas, retail and community space, a team store, the 49ers Museum presented by Sony and Edward J. DeBartolo, Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame, the Yahoo Fantasy Football Lounge, Michael Mina's Tailgate and more.

- The main entry, Intel Plaza at the northwest corner of the Stadium, will be open to the public year-round and provide direct access to the Levi's® Stadium Fanwalk and the 49ers Team Store. In the northeast corner, Toyota Plaza will be the main entry for guests of Michael Mina's Bourbon Steak & Pub restaurant and the 49ers Museum presented by Sony. Dignity Health Plaza at the southwest corner of the Stadium will be another primary entry gate for fans on event days.

Concourse

- Concourses at Levi's® Stadium are among the widest in the NFL and have more than 600 individual concessions points of sale, allowing for easy pedestrian access and creating a more pleasant, less congested atmosphere around vendors.

BRAD SEELY

26TH NFL SEASON	4TH WITH 49ERS

Considered one of the most successful special teams coaches in NFL history, Brad Seely is in his fourth year with the 49ers as assistant head coach/special teams coordinator.

San Francisco's special teams has been one of top units in the NFL in each of Seely's first three seasons. From 2011-13, the 49ers have made more field goals (105) than any other team in the NFL. San Francisco also ranks first in the NFL in net punting average (42.8), second in gross punting average (48.2) and fifth in opponents punt return average (7.9) over that time frame.

In 2013, San Francisco's specials teams unit ranked second in the NFL according to The Dallas Morning News' Rick Gosselin's special teams rankings. K Phil Dawson set the 49ers franchise record with 27 consecutive field goals made. Dawson also set single-season career highs with 140 points, 44 made PATs and 32 made field goals. P Andy Lee ranked third in the NFL with a 48.2 gross punting average and fourth in net punting average (41.7).

Under Seely's direction in 2012, the 49ers fielded one of the strongest special teams units in the NFL. Lee led the NFL with 43.2 net punting average, while also ranking fifth in the league with a 48.0 gross punting average, on his way to All-Pro honors. San Francisco also led the NFL in starting field position (31.8-yd. line) and ranked second in the NFL in opponents starting field position (24.9-yd. line).

In 2011, the 49ers special teams unit emerged as one of the best in the NFL. K David Akers set the NFL single-season record for most field goals (44) and points with no touchdowns (166). Lee set the NFL record with a 44.0 net punting average, while the 49ers led the NFL in average starting field position (33.5-yd. line) and opponents average starting field position (24.3-yd. line). Both Lee and Akers earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl selections. Seely was named Special Teams Coach of the Year by Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, whose special teams rankings are widely regarded.

Seely brought 22 years of NFL special teams coaching experience to the 49ers. Prior to joining the team, he served as the special teams coordinator for the Cleveland Browns from 2009-10, where he worked with WR/KR Joshua Cribbs, who earned Pro Bowl selections in each of the last two seasons. Seely's special teams unit led the NFL in kickoff coverage, while ranking fifth in the NFL in punt coverage in 2010.

In 2009, Seely was named Special Teams Coach of the Year after leading the Browns to a league best special teams ranking according to the formula comprised by Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News. It marked Seely's fifth top-five finish for his special teams units since 1990.

Prior to joining the Browns, Seely spent 10 seasons as the New England Patriots special teams coach (1999-08), where he was part of three Super Bowl championships. Over the span of his tenure in New England, the Patriots led the NFL in kickoff return average (23.5), were fourth in field goal percentage (83.4%) and ranked eighth in punt return average (9.9). In addition, his units registered 11 returns for touchdowns, including eight on kickoffs, a figure that tied for second in the NFL over that 10-year stretch. Seely also helped produced a total of 3 special teams Pro Bowlers (K Adam Vinatieri - 2004, LB Larry Izzo - 2004 and K Stephen Gostkowski - 2008). He also tutored the AFC's leading kickoff returner on two occasions (WR Bethel Johnson – 2003 and RB Kevin Faulk - 2002) and leading punt returner (WR Troy Brown - 2002).

Seely worked with the Carolina Panthers from 1995-98, where he helped coach an expansion team to an NFC Championship Game appearance in just its second season. In 1996 and 1997, Panthers kickoff returner Michael Bates became the first player in 35 years to lead the league in kick return average in consecutive seasons, earning two consecutive trips to the Pro Bowl for his efforts. In 1996, Seely earned Special Teams Coach of the Year honors. He also had the league's best kicker, as John Kasay set a then NFL single-season record with 37 field goals. In addition to the success of Bates and Kasay, Carolina also boasted one of the league's top coverage units as the Panthers led the NFL in opponents average punt return (5.4 avg.) and ranked fifth in opponents average kickoff return (20.1 avg.).

Seely began his NFL career in 1989 with the Indianapolis Colts, serving as their special teams/tight ends coach for five years (1989-93). During his time with the Colts, he assisted in the development of two Pro Bowl special teamers, P Rohn Stark and WR Clarence Verdin. In 1992, the Colts had the NFL's top specials teams unit based on rankings by the Dallas Morning News. Seely then coached the Jets' special teams for one year (1994), and in that season, New York ranked fifth in the league in kickoff return defense (19.6 avg.) and sixth in punt return defense (6.8 avg.).

Seely's collegiate coaching career began as an assistant coach at South Dakota State in 1978. He then moved on to become a graduate assistant at Colorado State in 1979, before being named the Rams offensive line coach in 1980. Seely then served as the offensive line coach at Southern Methodist (1981), North Carolina State (1982), University of Pacific (1983) and Oklahoma State (1984-88).

A native of Vinton, IA, Seely earned all-conference honors as an offensive guard at South Dakota State University while majoring in economics and physical education. He and his wife, Patti, have three daughters, Sarah, Hannah and Brynn.

VIC FANGIO

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

28TH NFL SEASON	4TH WITH 49ERS

With a plethora of NFL coaching experience, Vic Fangio is in his fourth season as defensive coordinator of the San Francisco 49ers.

In Fangio's first three seasons in San Francisco (2011-13), the 49ers are the only team to rank in the top five in the following nine categories: points allowed (16.1 points per game - 1st), rush defense (89.1 yards per game - 1st), rushing average (3.7 yards per carry - 1st), first downs allowed (835 - 1st), opposing quartback rating (76.0 rating - 2nd), yards allowed (306.5 yards per game - 3rd), 20-plus yard plays allowed (147 - 3rd), takeaways (93 - 5th) and third down defense (34.1 pct. - 5th).

Fangio's defense continued to stymie opponents in 2013 as the 49ers defense ranked third in the NFL in points allowed (272), fourth in opponents quarterback rating (76.4) and rushing yards allowed (1,535), and fifth in total yards allowed (5,071). San Francisco's defense featured three AP All-Pros (LB NaVorro Bowman - First-Team; LB Ahmad Brooks and DT Justin Smith - Second-Team) and five Pro Bowl selections (Bowman, Brooks, S Eric Reid, Smith and LB Patrick Willis). Reid became the first rookie safety in franchise history to be selected to the Pro Bowl.

In 2012, Fangio led a 49ers defensive unit that ranked second in the NFL in both points allowed (17.1 points per game) and first downs allowed (284), third in total defense (294.4 yards per game), tied for third in third down defense (33.0 pct.) and fourth in both rush defense (94.2 yards per game) and pass defense (200.2 yards per game). San Francisco was one of two teams in the NFL to rank in the top five in all six categories (Denver).

The 49ers defense boasted six AP All-Pro selections in 2012 (First-Team: Bowman, S Dashon Goldson, LB Aldon Smith and Willis; Second-Team: Brooks and Justin Smith) and six Pro Bowl honorees (Bowman, Goldson, Aldon Smith, Justin Smith, S Donte Whitner and Willis).

In 2011, the 49ers defensive unit ranked first in the NFL against the run (77.3 yards per game), tied for first with 38 takeaways and second in points allowed (14.3 points per game). The defense did not allow a rushing touchdown through the first 14 games of the season, setting a new NFL record. The unit allowed just three rushing touchdowns all season, which is the lowest total allowed since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978. The 49ers defense also led the NFC in points allowed (14.3), yards allowed per game (325.9), opposing quarterback rating (73.6), first downs allowed (267) and ranked second in red zone defense (41.2 pct.).

Under Fangio's direction, the 49ers defense had four players named to the All-Pro team and four selected to the Pro Bowl. Justin Smith became the first player ever to be named First and Second-Team All-Pro at different positions in the same phase of the game (First-Team All-Pro at defensive tackle; Second-Team All-Pro at defensive end). Smith was also selected to his third consecutive Pro Bowl. CB Carlos Rogers, Whitner, Goldson, Aldon Smith, Bowman and Willis joined Justin Smith on the NFC Pro Bowl squad.

Fangio enters his 28th season coaching in the NFL, which includes 15 years of experience as a defensive coordinator for four NFL teams - Carolina (1995-98), Indianapolis Colts (1999-2001), Houston Texans (2002-05) and San Francisco (2011-13). As a defensive coordinator, prior to his stint with San Francisco, Fangio has directed defensive units that have led the NFL or ranked among the top three teams in seven or more major statistical categories.

Fangio was the defensive coordinator for Stanford in 2010, where he led one of the nation's top defenses. He was unanimously selected as college football's Defensive Coordinator of the Year by three different media entities.

The Cardinal defense made significant strides under Fangio's guidance, improving from a 90th ranked unit nationally in 2009 to a defense that ranked in the top-25 nationally in six major defensive categories in 2010. Stanford finished the year ranked 10th in scoring defense (17.4 points/game), 11th in sacks (36), 16th in passing defensive efficiency (112.79), 19th in rushing defense (120.8 yards/game), t-19th in interceptions (18) and 21st in total defense (322.8 yards/game). Within the Pac-10 Conference, the Cardinal improved from 8th to 1st in both scoring defense and sacks, while moving from 9th to 2nd in takeaways and yards allowed. In addition, Stanford posted three Pac-10 shutouts on the year; marking the first time ever the Cardinal had held opponents scoreless in three contests in a single season.

Prior to joining Stanford, Fangio served on the Baltimore Ravens coaching staff from 2006-09 as a special assistant to the head coach and linebackers coach. In his four seasons with Baltimore, the Ravens led the NFL in total defense in 2006, ranked second in 2008 and third in 2009.

Fangio spent the previous four seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Houston Texans (2002-05). His 2002 defense ranked eighth in the AFC overall and fourth in the conference in pass defense. The Texans scored three defensive touchdowns against the Pittsburgh Steelers at Heinz Field in Week 14 en route to a 24-6 victory.

In 2004, the Texans set a team record and ranked fifth in the NFL with 22 interceptions, five of which were returned for touchdowns. Houston did not allow a touchdown for 13 straight quarters from Week 13 to 16, posting the longest stretch by any team in the league that season.

Fangio served as the defensive coordinator of the Indianapolis Colts from 1999-2001. The Colts posted a 13-3 record in Fangio's first season after going just 6-26 the previous two years. Indianapolis won its first division title in 15 years, while the Colts defense improved from last to 15th under his guidance. The 2000 Colt defense tallied 42 sacks and made strides in all other statistical categories.

In 1995, Fangio was named defensive coordinator of the expansion Carolina Panthers. The Panthers tied for seventh in total defense and ranked sixth in scoring defense, 10th in rushing defense, fifth in takeaways and second in defensive passer rating in its inaugural season.

In 1996, the Panthers won the NFC West title and reached the NFC Championship game in just their second year of existence. The Panther defense allowed just 218 points on the year, ranking second in the NFL. Carolina also yielded just five touchdowns and 56 points in the second half of games for the entire season, breaking an NFL record set by the 1985 Chicago Bears that still stands today. The Panthers defense also led the NFL in sacks and 3rd down defense. Fangio's defense featured three All-Pro linebackers in Lamar Lathon, Sam Mills and Kevin Greene.

Fangio spent nine seasons as the linebackers coach of the New Orleans Saints, starting in 1986. In his second year, the Saints advanced to the playoffs for the first time in franchise history and came back the following year to finish with a 10-6 record. Fangio coached the vaunted "Dome Patrol," which included All-Pro linebackers Rickey Jackson, Pat Swilling, Sam Mills and Vaughan Johnson. The group was the only linebacking unit from one team voted to the Pro Bowl on the first ballot. That group was later voted the best linebacking unit in NFL history by NFL Network.

After attending East Stroudsburg University, Fangio began his coaching career in 1979 as the linebackers coach at his alma mater, Dunmore (PA) High School, and was later promoted to defensive coordinator in 1980. He spent 1982 as the defensive coordinator at Milford (CT.) Academy before landing his first collegiate coaching position at the University of North Carolina, where he served as a graduate assistant in 1983.

Following a one-year stay in Chapel Hill, Fangio spent the 1984 and 1985 seasons as a defensive assistant with the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL, helping the team to back-to-back league titles.

Fangio was inducted into the Northeast Pennsylvania Hall of Fame in 1993. Vic has a son, Christian, and a daughter, Cassie.

GREG ROMAN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

17TH NFL SEASON	4TH WITH 49ERS

Greg Roman is in his fourth year with the 49ers after being named the team's offensive coordinator on January 14, 2011.

Since his arrival to the club in 2011, Roman's offense has been an unstoppable force, especially on the ground. In each of his three seasons calling the plays, the rushing attack has ranked in the top 10 in the NFL each season in total rushing yards - 3rd in 2013 (2,201 yards), 4th in 2012 (2,491 yards) and 8th in 2011 (2,044 yards). It is the first time since 2001-03 that a 49ers offense has ranked in the top 10 in the NFL three consecutive seasons in that category. The 6,736 rushing yards over his three seasons with the team is the 2nd most in the NFL over that time span.

Not only have the 49ers been able to move the ball each year under Roman, the offense has consistently been able to avoid turnovers. From 2011-13, the 49ers have only committed 44 turnovers which ranks 1st in the NFL over that time span and is nine fewer turnovers than the second place team. Avoiding turnovers has been a large reason for the teams 41 wins, which is tied for the most wins in the NFL from 2011-13.

In 2013, Roman again proved himself as one of the brightest minds in the NFL. In QB Colin Kaepernick's first full season as a starter, the offensive unit was consistantly forcing its will on their opponents. In the first game of the 2013 season vs. Green Bay, Kaepernick set the franchise record for most passing yards in a season-opener with 412 yards. The offense continued to put points on the scoreboard all season, scoring 30-or-more points in eight games, the most by the team since 1998 (10 games). The offense ranked consistently in the top 10 in numerous offensive categories in the league including 1st in 20-plus yard runs (20), 3rd in rushing yards per game (137.6), 4th in rushing touchdowns (18) and 10th in offensive scoring efficiency (37.6 pct). It marked the first time since 2003 that the 49ers had a 3,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver in the same season.

The 2012 season displayed Roman's expertise and vast knowledge in various offensive systems as QB Colin Kaepernick transitioned into the starting role midway through the season. Roman added new wrinkles to the offense to capitalize on Kaepernick's multi-tool talents, taking the league by surprise en route to the team's first Super Bowl appearance since 1994. The offense ranked in the top half of the league in multiple offensive categories for the second consecutive season under Roman, including 4th in rushing yards per game (155.7), 10th in time of possession (30:49), 11th in total yards per game (377.6) and 11th in points per game (24.8). Including the postseason, the 49ers broke an NFL record by recording 100 rushes of 10-plus yards, setting a new mark since the stat began being tracked in 1991.

As the 49ers captured their second consecutive NFC West title in 2012, the offense continued to display historical performances under Roman. Against the Buffalo Bills on October 7, 2012, the offense set the all-time franchise record with 621 total yards and became the only team in NFL history to rush for 300-plus yards and pass for 300-plus yards in the same game. In the NFC Divisional matchup vs. Green Bay, the 49ers set the franchise record for total yards in a playoff game with 579 yards.

Under Roman's direction in 2011, the 49ers notched a 13-3 record as the offense ranked in the NFL's top 10 in points per game (23.8 - tied for 10th), rushing yards per game (127.8 - 8th) and time of possession (32:04 - 4th). Additionally, the offense committed just 10 turnovers (5 fumbles, 5 interceptions), which ranks tied for first in NFL history for the fewest turnovers in a season, also setting a franchise record.

In Roman's first year with the 49ers, RB Frank Gore was named to his third career Pro Bowl and surpassed Hall of Famer Joe "The Jet" Perry as the franchise's all-time leading rusher. QB Alex Smith flourished in Roman's system, setting career highs in completions, passing yards and quarterback rating. Smith also set the franchise record for fewest interceptions thrown in a season (5).

TE Vernon Davis grew in the offense throughout the season. He took his game to the next level in the playoffs, registering 10 receptions for 292 yards and four touchdowns in two games. Davis became just the fifth player in the Super Bowl era to register at least two receiving touchdowns in consecutive postseason games in the same season. T Joe Staley also flourished under Roman, as he was named Second-Team All-Pro and was selected as a starter in his first career Pro Bowl.

In what marks his 17th season coaching in the NFL, Roman has been a member of the coaching staffs of the Carolina Panthers (1995-2001), Houston Texans (2002-03) and Baltimore Ravens (2006-07). He also spent two seasons (2009-10) on Jim Harbaugh's coaching staff at Stanford.

Roman joined the Cardinal in 2009 as the running game coordinator, with position responsibilities of tight ends and offensive tackles. In 2010, he kept those responsibilities, but also added the duties of associate coach and assistant head coach of the offense.

During his time at Stanford, the Cardinal posted a 20-6 record, which was the best over a two-year span in the University's history. He mentored two Heisman runner-up candidates in QB Andrew Luck (2010) and RB Toby Gerhart (2009). Over those two seasons, the Cardinal allowed a total of 13 sacks on offense, which marked the fewest over that time span in the nation. Stanford allowed just seven sacks in 2009 and six sacks in 2010, ranking 2nd in the nation both years.

Roman oversaw a Cardinal offense in 2010 that ranked 9th nationally in points scored (40.3 points/game), 14th in total yards per game (472.5), 17th in rushing yards per game (213.8) and 1st in time of possession (34:34). Under his guidance, Stanford's offense produced a school-record 524 points. Roman mentored a tight end trio of Coby Fleener, Konrad Reuland and Zach Ertz, who combined for a total of 833 receiving yards on 65 catches with 13 touchdowns.

A year prior, Roman's sophisticated blocking schemes and knowledge of the running game were major factors in the Cardinal amassing a single-season school record of 2,837 yards on the ground in 2009. At season's end, all five members of the offensive line garnered postseason honors, while Stanford's tight ends combined to catch 38 passes for 557 yards and four touchdowns.

Prior to arriving at Stanford, Roman served as the assistant offensive line coach for a Baltimore Ravens team that captured the 2006 AFC North Division title with a regular season mark of 13-3. He helped the Ravens improve to 17th in the NFL in total offense and 2nd in fewest sacks allowed with 17, setting a franchise record. Baltimore also led the NFL in time of possession and set team records for completion percentage (62.6%), third-down conversions (96), fourth-down percentage (72.7%) and fewest turnovers (23). The offensive line helped quarterback Steve McNair set a team record for pass completion percentage (63.0%) and most passes without an interception (162). In addition, left tackle Jonathan Ogden was voted to his 10th-straight Pro Bowl.

Prior to joining the staff in Baltimore, Roman enjoyed a four-year coaching stint with the Houston Texans, serving as the team's tight ends (2002-03) and quarterbacks coach (2004-05). As tight ends coach, Roman tutored Billy Miller, who led the Texans with 91 receptions over two seasons. He also guided former 2002 NFL first round draft pick David Carr, who had his best season under Roman in 2004 when he passed for 3,531 yards and an 83.1 quarterback rating.

Roman launched his coaching career with the Carolina Panthers in 1995, the team's inaugural season in the NFL, when he was named the strength and conditioning assistant/defensive quality control coach, while also working with the defensive backs and the linebackers. In 1996, the Panthers set a NFL record for most wins by an expansion team, as Carolina won the NFC West crown and advanced to the NFC Championship game. He then moved to the offensive side of the ball as Carolina's offensive quality control coach for two seasons (1997-98) before assuming the role of offensive assistant for the 1999 and 2000 campaigns. As the team's offensive assistant, he worked with both the run-and-pass game strategy and implementation, helping the Panthers finish 2nd in the NFL in passing offense and 5th in yards per rush. Roman worked as the team's assistant offensive line coach in his final season with the Panthers in 2001.

A three-year letter-winner and two-year starting defensive lineman at John Carroll University from 1990-93, Roman earned All-Ohio Conference honorable mention honors following his senior season. He also helped the Blue Streaks capture a share of the OAC championship.

During his junior year at John Carroll, Roman participated in Project H.O.P.E. (Helping Others Through Physical Education) which aids the developmentally disabled in northeast Ohio.

A native of Ventnor, N.J. and a graduate of Holy Spirit High School, Greg and his wife, Dana, have three children, Connor, Gregory and Emily Grace.

GEEP CHRYST

QUARTERBACKS

22ND NFL SEASON	4TH WITH 49ERS

Geep Chryst is in his fourth season with the 49ers after being named the team's quarterbacks coach on January 19, 2011.

Chryst has played a pertinent role in the development of QB Colin Kaepernick, which was evident when he became the starter in Week 11 of the 2012 season and led the team to an appearance in Super Bowl XLVII. During the 2013 season, Kaepernick led the team to its third consecutive NFC Championship Game appearance. Under Chryst's tudorship, Kaepernick ranked 10th in the NFL with a quarterback rating of 91.6, throwing for 21 touchdowns and only 8 interceptions.

The 2012 season showed Chryst's strengths and expertise as the teams quarterbacks coach in captializing on the strengths of the starting quarterback. Midway through the season, Kaepernick was named the teams starter. Chryst's quarterback duo of Kaepernick and Alex Smith, tied for the fewest interceptions in the NFL (8), ranked 4th in quarterback rating (101.2), and 4th in completion percentage (66.3).

In 2011, Chryst helped guide Smith to his best NFL season, setting career highs in passing yards (3,144), completions (273), and passer rating (90.7). He also set the franchise record for fewest interceptions thrown in a single-season with just five. Smith's five interceptions are tied for third in NFL history (min. 400 atts.) and his interception percentage of 1.1 also ranks third in NFL history (min. 400 atts.). Most importantly, he posted a 14-4 overall record as the starter, in 2011.

With 22 years of coaching experience, including 20 years in the NFL, Chryst most recently served as the tight ends/offensive quality control coach for the Carolina Panthers (2006-10). In 2009, Chryst was part of an offensive coaching staff that helped the Panthers become the first team in the history of the NFL to garner two running backs with more than 1,100 yards rushing in the same season. His tight end unit also posted the most productive receiving season for Panthers tight ends in a decade that year.

Before joining Carolina in 2006, Chryst served as the Arizona Cardinals quarterbacks coach (2001-03) and San Diego Chargers offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (1999-2000). Chryst implemented the no-huddle offense in San Diego in 1999, which led to Harbaugh enjoying the second-highest passing output (2,761 passing yards) of his 15-year career. The Chargers also completed the most passes (332) in 13 years with Chryst directing the offense and Harbaugh became the first quarterback in team history since Hall of Famer Dan Fouts to pass for 400 yards in a game, that year.

Chryst spent three seasons with the Cardinals, serving as the team's tight ends coach from 1996-97 before becoming the quarterbacks coach in 1998. He began his NFL coaching career with the Chicago Bears in 1991 as the director of research/quality control, a position he held until 1995. In the spring of 1992, Chryst, after being out of uniform for eight years, took a 15-day hiatus from the Bears to long snap in three playoff games for the short-handed Orlando Thunder of the World League. Interestingly, he had made his professional coaching debut with the Thunder in 1991, serving as the wide receivers/running backs coach.

Chryst began his coaching career at University of Wisconsin-Platteville in 1987 before moving over to the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1988. Chryst then spent two years at the University of Wyoming, serving as the offensive line coach in 1989 and the quarterbacks coach in 1990.

A three-year starter at linebacker for Princeton University, Chryst also played baseball for two seasons for the Tigers. He earned a bachelor's degree in history from Princeton as well as a master's degree in educational administration from the University of Wisconsin.

4TH NFL SEASON	4TH WITH 49ERS

Greg Jackson is in his fourth season as secondary coach for the 49ers.

Working alongside secondary coach Ed Donatell, San Francisco's secondary allowed just 221.0 passing yards per game in 2013, ranking 4th in the NFC and 7th in the NFL. The secondary accounted for 14 interceptions, ranking t-7th in the NFL and t-3rd in the NFC. Rookie S Eric Reid was selected to the Pro Bowl, becoming the first 49ers rookie safety to be selected to the Pro Bowl in franchise history.

Jackson helped guide the 49ers to the best pass defense in the NFC and the fourth-best in the NFL, in 2012, allowing just 200.2 yards per game. That total is the lowest given up by the 49ers since 1997 (165.4 yards per game). The 49ers secondary also boasted two Pro Bowl selections (S Donte Whitner and S Dashon Goldson) and a First-Team All-Pro (Goldson).

In 2011, the 49ers secondary tallied 22 interceptions, which ranked second among all NFL secondaries. Goldson and CB Carlos Rogers each recorded a career-high six interceptions, and were both selected to the Pro Bowl for the first time in their careers. Rogers was named a starter in Hawaii, while also being selected Second-Team All-Pro. The defense finished the season ranked fourth in the NFL in percentage of pass attempts intercepted (3.9).

Jackson joined San Francisco after having spent eight years coaching in the collegiate ranks. In 2010, he was the nickel back/assistant linebackers coach for a University of Wisconsin team that finished the year ranked seventh in the nation with an 11-2 record.

Prior to joining the Badgers, Jackson coached at Tulane University, serving as the linebackers/kickoff team coach (2009), the safeties/kickoff team coach (2008) and the defensive backs coach (2007). Jackson spent three seasons as the defensive backs coach at Louisiana-Monroe (2004-06), where he coached All-Sun Belt Conference defensive back Chris Harris, who led the country with seven interceptions, in 2004. He also spent one year as the defensive backs coach for the University of Idaho (2003).

Jackson enjoyed a 12-year career as a NFL safety. He originally entered the league as a third-round draft choice of the New York Giants in 1989, with whom he played until 1993. Jackson then went on to play for the Philadelphia Eagles (1994-95), New Orleans Saints (1996) and San Diego Chargers (1997-2000). He was a teammate of 49ers head coach Jim Harbaugh during his final two years with the Chargers. In his career, Jackson played in 168 games (129 starts) and registered 32 interceptions.

Jackson enjoyed a productive collegiate career at LSU from 1985-88, helping the Tigers to a combined 36-10-2 record over that span. LSU won the Southeastern Conference championships in 1986 and 1988, and played in bowl game every year.

Jackson, a safety, was a first-team All-American in 1988, leading the nation with seven interceptions. His 219 interception return yards is the second-highest single-season total in SEC history.

A native of Miami, FL, Jackson earned a bachelor's degree in communications broadcasting from Fairleigh Dickinson University, in 2004.

Jackson and his wife, Dina, have two children, Greg Jr. and Jayden, while his oldest son, Jamal, is a football student-athlete at Appalachian State University.

JIM LEAVITT

LINEBACKERS

4TH NFL SEASON	4TH WITH 49ERS

With over 30 years of coaching experience in the collegiate ranks, Jim Leavitt is now in his fourth season as the linebackers coach for the 49ers.

In 2013, Leavitt led a linebacking corps that featured NFL Defensive Player of the Year Candidate, AP First-Team All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection LB NaVorro Bowman. Bowman led the team with a career-high 192 tackles, while adding a career-high 5.0 sacks and two interceptions. LB Patrick Willis ranked second on the team with 147 tackles and was selected to his seventh consecutive Pro Bowl.

In 2012, Leavitt oversaw a linebacking corps that featured two, First-Team All-Pro middle linebackers in Willis and Bowman. Both Willis (starter) and Bowman were also selected to the Pro Bowl. Bowman led the team with 183 tackles and Willis added 171 tackles.

In his first season in San Francisco, Leavitt's unit featured two, First-Team All-Pro selections in Willis and Bowman. Bowman, in his first year as a starter, led the team with 173 tackles, while adding two sacks and two fumble recoveries. Willis ranked second on the team with 121 tackles and set career-highs with four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and 12 passes defensed. The 49ers also ranked first in the NFL in run defense, in 2011.

Prior to joining San Francisco, Leavitt was the head coach at the University of South Florida, a position he held since the program's inception in 1995. In 13 seasons, he led the Bulls to a 95-57 record.

The program began play in 1997 at the division I-AA level and immediate success propelled the Bulls to a national ranking for 24 consecutive weeks. In 2001, South Florida became a Division I-A independent before moving to Conference USA, in 2003. Leavitt's continued success helped South Florida move into the Big East prior to the 2005 season. That year, Leavitt led the Bulls to their first ever Bowl appearance.

Since becoming a member of the Big East Conference in 2005, Leavitt led the Bulls to a 40-24 record, including five consecutive Bowl appearances, posting a 3-2 record in those games. South Florida's ascension into the top 25 from entry into I-A/FCS was the fastest in NCAA history, surpassing Boise State's rise by a mere seven weeks. The Bulls achieved another record on September 30, 2007, when they became the fastest program of the modern era to reach the top 10, landing at No. 6 in the AP Poll and No. 9 in the Coaches' Poll. On October 14, 2007, South Florida received its first ever BCS ranking as the No. 2 team in the nation behind only the Ohio State Buckeyes. That week, the team was also ranked No. 2 in the AP Poll and No. 3 in both the Coaches' and the Harris Interactive Poll.

Prior to becoming the head coach at South Florida, Leavitt worked under legendary coach Bill Snyder at Kansas State from 1990-95. Leavitt served as the linebackers coach for two seasons before becoming the defensive coordinator. He was instrumental in building a Wildcat defense that improved from 93rd in the nation in 1993 to the number one ranked unit in 1995.

His coaching career began as a graduate assistant at the University of Missouri (1978-79). Leavitt followed that by serving as the defensive coordinator at the University of Dubuque (IA) from 1980-81. He then spent five seasons at Morning Side College (IA), working as the special teams coordinator for one year before being named the defensive coordinator in 1983.

In 1988, Leavitt turned his attention towards obtaining his PhD in psychology from the University of Iowa, an endeavor he had been pursing sporadically since 1982. By 1989, Leavitt simply needed to complete his dissertation when Iowa head coach Hayden Fry offered him a graduate position. With the coaching bug in his blood, Leavitt jumped at the opportunity and was able to fast track his coaching career in I-A football. Following the '89 season, Leavitt was named to Bill Snyder's staff at Kansas State.

A native of Harlingen, TX, Leavitt is married to his wife, Jody, and the couple has two daughters, Sofia and Isabella. Leavitt also has another daughter, Deandra.

ERIC MANGINI

TIGHT ENDS

18TH NFL SEASON	2ND WITH 49ERS

Eric Mangini is in his second season with the 49ers and first as the tight ends coach. Mangini spent the 2013 season as the team's senior offensive consultant.

Mangini's wealth of football coaching experience, including stints as a head coach with the Cleveland Browns (2009-10) and New York Jets (2006-08), has been evident in his time with the team. In his 18 years as an NFL coach, he has been a part of seven teams that qualified for the playoffs, including five division titles and three Lombardi trophies. Prior to joining the 49ers, Mangini worked as an NFL analyst at ESPN since 2011.

As a NFL rookie head coach with the New York Jets in 2006, Mangini took a team that went 4-12 the previous season and directed it to a 10-6 regular season record and a playoff appearance. He was later recognized as AFC Coach of the Year by the Kansas City Committee of 101. Eight different Jets earned Pro Bowl honors over the three years that Mangini was head coach. Of the eight, three were drafted in Mangini's first two seasons with the team (C Nick Mangold, CB Darrelle Revis and KR Leon Washington), while four others (DT Kris Jenkins, QB Brett Favre, RB Thomas Jones and G Alan Faneca) were acquired while he was the head coach.

Prior to being named head coach of the Jets, Mangini spent six seasons with the New England Patriots as their defensive backs coach (2000-04) and defensive coordinator (2005), where he was part of three Super Bowl Championships. In Mangini's five seasons in charge of the team's secondary, the unit earned five Pro Bowl selections and evolved into one of the NFL's most successful defensive backfields. The Patriots recorded 99 interceptions from 2000-04, the fifth-highest total in the NFL over that span. Their 14 interception returns for touchdowns in those five seasons tied with Tampa Bay for the most in the NFL.

Mangini served as a defensive assistant with the Jets from 1997-99, after spending 1996 as an offensive assistant with the Baltimore Ravens. He began his NFL coaching career with the Browns as a coaches assistant in 1995, after serving as a ball boy and public relations intern with the team the previous year.

A native of Hartford, CT, Mangini played collegiately at Wesleyan University and graduated with a degree in political science. A nose tackle on the football team, Mangini still holds school records for single-season (11.5) and career (36.5) sacks.

A true philanthropist, Mangini has had a hand in helping out his community everywhere he has coached. In 2002, he along with his brother, Kyle, founded the Carmine & Frank Mangini (CFM) Foundation to benefit under-resourced children. Funds from the foundation are put towards computer scholarships for students and mini grants for teachers and coaches to pursue projects that may be beyond their current budget.

During his time in New York, Mangini hosted the Charity Bowl at Chelsea Piers in New York City in May of 2007 and then again in 2008. The proceeds benefited non-profit organizations committed to providing athletic and academic opportunities to deserving children.

The Mangini's have also been involved with many other charitable endeavors, including the Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeast Ohio and the Adopt-A Family Program through The Littlest Heroes.

He and his wife, Julie, have three sons, Jake, Luke and Zack.

JOHN MORTON

WIDE RECEIVERS

12TH NFL SEASON	4TH WITH 49ERS

John Morton is in his fourth year with the 49ers as the team's wide receivers coach.

The wide receiving corps continued to take great stride in 2013 under the tutelage of Morton. WR Anquan Boldin set the franchise record for most receiving yards in a season-opener in his first game with the team after recording 208 yards vs. Green Bay. Boldin went on to register his sixth-career 1,000-yard season, and first since 2009. It marked the first time since 2002-03 that the 49ers had a 1,000-yard reciever in consecutive seasons.

The 2012 season was a season of firsts in a decade as WR Michael Crabtree became the first 49ers wide receiver to surpass the 1,000-yard mark since 2003, notching career highs in receptions (85), receiving yards (1,105) and touchdowns (9).

Under Morton's direction in 2011, Crabtree led the team with then career-highs in receptions (72) and receiving yards (874), while adding four touchdowns.

Morton spent the previous four years at the University of Southern California as the school's wide receivers coach. He also held the position of the Trojans passing game coordinator in 2007-08 and 2010, while serving as the school's offensive coordinator in 2009. Under Morton's tutelage, WR Damian Williams earned All-Pac-10 First-Team honors and, along with WR Patrick Turner, was a third round draft pick in the 2009 NFL Draft.

Prior to joining USC, Morton served at the passing game coordinator/offensive assistant with the New Orleans Saints in 2006, helping the Saints earn a berth in the NFC Championship Game that season.

Morton worked under Jim Harbaugh at the University of San Diego as the passing game/wide receivers coach in 2005. That year, QB Josh Johnson set school records in completions (260), completion percentage (70.1) and passing yards (3,256), while WR Adam Hannula set a school record with 73 receptions.

From 1997-2004, Morton worked for the Oakland Raiders in several capacities and served alongside Harbaugh for two years (2002-03). He began in the Raiders personnel department and then worked as an offensive assistant, coaching the wide receivers for two years (1998-99). Morton then became the offensive quality control coach in 2000 and again worked with the wide receivers until 2001. He was then elevated to senior offensive assistant/wide receivers coach in 2002, where he coached Jerry Rice, who earned Pro Bowl honors, and Tim Brown, on a team that earned a trip to the Super Bowl. Morton was later named the team's tight ends coach in 2004.

Morton originally signed with Oakland as an undrafted rookie wide receiver in 1993, and spent part of the next two seasons (1993-94) on the Raiders practice squad. He also spent time with Green Bay in 1993 and was in training camp with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 1995. Morton returned to training camp with the Raiders again in 1996. He played for the CFL's Toronto Argonauts in 1995 and 1996, and later with the World League's Frankfurt Galaxy in the spring of 1997.

Morton played at Western Michigan for two seasons (1991-92), where he finished 10th on the school's all-time receiving list (78 receptions) and eighth in receiving yards (1,278), earning All-Mid-American Conference honors as a senior, in 1992. He later received a bachelor's degree in general studies from Western Michigan in 1997. Morton came to Western Michigan after two years (1989-90) at Grand Rapids (MI) Community College, where he received his associate's degree in 1990.

Morton and his wife, Shannon, have two daughters, Tierney Rose and Sage Marie.

TOM RATHMAN

RUNNING BACKS

17TH NFL SEASON	12TH WITH 49ERS

Tom Rathman rejoined the 49ers as the team's running backs coach, in 2009, after serving the previous two seasons in the same capacity with the Oakland Raiders. It marks Rathman's second coaching stint in San Francisco, having also coached the running backs for the team from 1997 to 2002.

Under Rathman's tutelage, RB Frank Gore has solidified his reputation as one of the NFL's premier backs after being selected to his fifth-career Pro Bowl, in 2013. Gore owns many of the franchise rushing records including rushing yards (9,967), attempts (2,187) and touchdowns (60). In 2013, Gore recorded his franchise-record seventh, 1,000-yard season finishing with 1,128 yards on the ground which ranked 9th in the NFL. Gore's nine rushing touchdowns were his highest since 2009 and his 71 career touchdowns rank 3rd in franchise history. The rushing offense ranked in the top 5 in numerous categories in the NFL including 1st in 20-plus yard runs (20), 3rd in rushing yards per game (137.6) and 4th in rushing touchdowns (18).

In 2012, Gore finished the season with 1,214 rushing yards to rank 5th in the NFC and 10th in the NFL. The team finished the year ranked 4th in the NFL with 2,491 rushing yards (155.7/game) behind Gore, FB Bruce Miller and the league's best offensive line.

In 2011, Gore was selected to his third career Pro Bowl as he became the franchise's all-time leading rusher, again surpassing Hall of Famer Joe "The Jet" Perry. Gore also became the first player in franchise history to rush for over 100 yards in five consecutive games. Rathman also played a key role in developing starting FB Bruce Miller as he made the transition to the offensive side of the ball after starring at defensive end in college. The offense finished the season with the league's eighth-best run game.

Gore was having one of the best seasons of his career in 2010 before being placed on Injured Reserve with a hip injury. Despite playing in only 11 games, he earned Pro Bowl recognition as an alternate at season's end. At the time of his injury, Gore ranked fifth in the NFC in rushing yards (853) and second in yards from scrimmage (1,305).

A year prior, Gore became the first player in 49ers history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in four seasons (2006-09), as the fifth year veteran posted 1,120 rushing yards and a career-high 10 rushing touchdowns on the season, despite missing two games due to injury. For his efforts, Gore was named an alternate for the 2010 Pro Bowl, and eventually played in the honorary game. He also was twice named NFC Offensive Player of the Week (2 & 14).

While with the Raiders, Rathman oversaw a rushing attack that ranked 10th (124.2 ypg) in the NFL in 2008 after ranking 6th (130.4 ypg) a year prior. Rathman played an instrumental role in developing RB Justin Fargas, who rushed for 1,009 yards in 2007 and 853 yards in 2008.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Rathman served as the running backs coach for the Detroit Lions from 2003 to 2005. In 2004, Rathman tutored RB Kevin Jones, who rushed for 1,133 yards, including an NFL-leading 825 yards on 153 attempts (5.4 avg.) over the final seven games of the season. Jones' performance in his first NFL season was tops among rookies in the NFL that year and the best rookie season by a Lions running back since RB Barry Sanders in 1989.

During Rathman's first coaching stint with the 49ers, San Francisco's rushing attack finished in the top 10 among NFL teams in five of the six seasons under his guidance, including top-ranked seasons in 1998 (159.0 ypg) and 1999 (130.9 ypg), to go along with a 2nd ranked unit in 2001 (140.3).

In 2001, Rathman was instrumental in guiding RB Garrison Hearst, the two-time NFL Comeback Player of the Year, to his second career Pro Bowl selection. He coached RB Charlie Garner to his second consecutive 1,000-yard season and his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2000 after gaining 1,142 yards on 258 carries and a career-high seven touchdowns. Garner also eclipsed his career-highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns.

Prior to his coaching career, Rathman enjoyed an NFL playing career of his own that spanned nine seasons (1986-94) as a fullback. He entered the league as a third round pick by San Francisco, where he spent the first eight years of his career helping the 49ers capture two World Championships (Super Bowl XXIII and XXIV) and seven NFC West titles. In 1989, he led all NFL running backs in receiving with 73 receptions for 616 yards. Rathman played his final season in the NFL with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1994, closing out his NFL career with 2,020 rushing yards, 320 receptions for 2,684 yards and 34 total touchdowns.

In between his playing and coaching career in the NFL, the Grand Island, NE native helped rebuild the Menlo College (CA) program by serving as the team's offensive coordinator in 1996 after serving as the running backs coach at Serra High School in San Mateo (CA) in 1995.

A three-year letterman at Nebraska, Rathman rushed for 1,425 yards and averaged more than six yards per carry.

Rathman and his wife, Holly, have three daughters: Nicole, Alexandra, and Samantha.

MIKE SOLARI

OFFENSIVE LINE

26TH NFL SEASON	10TH WITH 49ERS

Mike Solari rejoined the 49ers in 2010 as the team's offensive line coach after having previously served as the tight ends/assistant offensive line coach for San Francisco from 1992-96 under legendary coach Bobb McKittrick. In his role, Solari works closely with first-year offensive line coach Reggie Davis.

Under the direction of Solari, the offensive line has established itself as one of the best groups in the league. The rushing offense ranked in the top 5 in numerous categories in the NFL including 1st in 20-plus yard runs (20), 3rd in rushing yards (2,201) and 4th in rushing touchdowns (18). T Joe Staley was named AP Second-Team All-Pro in addition to being named to his third consecutive Pro Bowl.

In 2012, all five offensive linemen started every game, one of only three teams to do so, and each was selected to the Pro Bowl as a participant or an alternate. G Mike Iupati was named First-Team All-Pro, T Joe Staley was named Second-Team All-Pro and the entire O-Line earned the Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award. The team finished the season ranked 4th in the NFL with 2,491 rushing yards (155.7).

The 49ers offensive line showed stability and growth in 2011. T Joe Staley, G Mike Iupati, C Jonathan Goodwin and T Anthony Davis started every game that season, while G Adam Snyder started the final 13 regular season games and both postseason contests. Staley was named Second-Team All-Pro and was selected to his first Pro Bowl as a starter, while Iupati and Goodwin were named Pro Bowl alternates.

The offensive line led the way for RB Frank Gore as he became the franchise's all-time leading rusher, surpassing Hall of Famer Joe "The Jet" Perry. Gore, who was also selected to the Pro Bowl, set the franchise record rushing for over 100 yards in five consecutive games. He finished the season ranked sixth in the NFL with 1,211 rushing yards in 2011. The offense finished the season with the league's eighth-best run game.

In 2010, Solari relied on his extensive experience as he helped shuffle an offensive line that was plagued by injury, while also integrating first round draft picks T Anthony Davis and G Mike Iupati into the starting lineup. After a season-ending injury to starting center Eric Heitmann in training camp, Solari was able to quickly find a replacement in David Baas, who hadn't started a game at center since college. Baas went on to start all 16 games for the 49ers and earned the coveted Bobb McKittrick Award as voted upon by his teammates.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Solari spent two seasons (2008-09) as the offensive line coach for the Seattle Seahawks. Under his direction, tackle Walter Jones was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2008.

Following his initial stint with the 49ers, Solari spent nine seasons as the offensive line coach for Kansas City (1997-2005). With Solari directing the Kansas City offensive line, the team averaged 126.8 rushing yards per game, ranking fourth in the NFL during that time span.

Solari's line produced a trio of Pro Bowl offensive linemen in 2004 and 2005, in guards Will Shields and Brian Waters, as well as tackle Willie Roaf. Kansas City became the first club to accomplish that feat since Dallas from 1993-96. As a result of his offensive line's dominance, the Chiefs offense led the league in total offense in 2004 (franchise-record 418.4 ypg) and 2005 (387.0 ypg).

The Daly City, CA, native was later promoted by the Chiefs to offensive coordinator in 2006. During his 11-year tenure in Kansas City, the team finished in the top 10 in rushing on seven occasions, in the top five four times, and ranked 6th in the NFL in total offense (359.2 yards per game) over that span. Solari was one of just six assistant coaches in team history to record more than a decade of service with the franchise.

While with the 49ers from 1992 to 1996, Solari was largely responsible for the development of tight end Brent Jones, who made four Pro Bowl appearances, and was instrumental in the team's successful Super Bowl XXIX season.

Solari began his NFL coaching career with the Dallas Cowboys in 1987, where he was the assistant offensive line/special teams coach for two seasons. He moved on to the Phoenix Cardinals to work with Gene Stallings for one season, before joining him at the University of Alabama (1990-91).

In 1976, Solari's coaching career began at Mission Bay (CA) High School, followed by stints at Mira Costa Junior College (1978) and U.S. International (1979). The following year, he helped lead Boise State to the NCAA Division I-AA Championship. He spent additional time on the collegiate level at Cincinnati (1981-82) and Kansas (1983-85), and later served as the offensive coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh (1986).

A former offensive lineman at San Diego State, Solari was a teammate of former Chiefs head coach and current ESPN analyst Herm Edwards, as well as Denver Broncos head coach John Fox.

Solari is married to wife, Patti, and the couple has three children, Tamara, Stephanie and Michael.

JIM TOMSULA

DEFENSIVE LINE

8TH NFL SEASON	8TH WITH 49ERS

Jim Tomsula is in his eighth season with the 49ers as the team's defensive line coach, after having also served as San Francisco's interim head coach for the final game of the 2010 season.

Since Tomsula's arrival, the 49ers run defense and pass rush have evolved into one of the most feared in the NFL. During his seven seasons with the team, the defense has allowed a mere 3.68 yards per carry, to rank second in the NFL during that span. In terms of yards per carry allowed, San Francisco's defense ranked 5th (3.8) in 2007, 8th (3.8) in 2008, 3rd (3.6) in 2009, 2nd (3.5) in 2010, 1st (3.5) in 2011, 3rd in 2012 (3.7) and 9th in 2013 (3.9), a notable improvement from ranking 16th (4.1) in 2006 prior to Tomsula's arrival.

San Francisco's run defense was one of the toughest in the NFL in 2013, allowing just 95.9 yards per game, ranking fourth in the league. The 49ers were the only team not to allow a 100-yard rusher in the regular season. The defensive line was anchored by Second-Team All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection DT Justin Smith. Tomsula was instramental in developing DL Glenn Dorsey into one of the top nose tackles in the NFL.

In 2012, Tomsula led a defensive line that was anchored by Smith. Smith was named to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl as a starter, in 2012, and was named Second-Team All-Pro at both defensive tackle and defensive end. In 2011, Smith became the first player ever named First and Second-Team All-Pro at different positions in the same phase of the game, earning First-Team All-Pro at defensive tackle and Second-Team All-Pro at defensive end.

The 49ers set the NFL record, in 2011, by not allowing a rushing touchdown in their first 14 games of the season. The team only allowed three rushing touchdowns all year, the fewest allowed in the NFL since the league went to a 16 game schedule in 1978. The 49ers finished the season ranked first in the NFL against the run (77.3 yards per game), first in yard per carry allowed (3.5) and fourth overall, allowing just 308.2 yards of offense per game. The unit also finished second in the league in points allowed per game (14.3 and tied for seventh in sacks (42).

In 2010, the 49ers ranked 6th in the NFL in run defense, allowing just 1,547 rushing yards (96.7 ypg), marking the lowest rushing total allowed by the team since 1997 (1,366 yards). DT Justin Smith was named to the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive year after recording 8.5 sacks, the most since his rookie season.

A year prior, the 49ers ranked 6th (97.0 ypg) in the NFL against the run, as Smith finished the year among the team leaders in tackles (90), while also posting 6.0 sacks, 2 FFs and 2 FRs. For his efforts, he appeared in the 2010 Pro Bowl as an alternate.

Also charged with the development of the team's pass rush, Tomsula has helped the 49ers increase their sack totals from 65 over his first two seasons to 80 the past two years. After ranking tied for 3rd in 2009 with 44 sacks, the 49ers posted 36 in 2010 for a two-year total that ranked 7th in the NFL over that span.

The epitome of a journeyman, Tomsula has coached 28 seasons of football at the high school, college and professional levels since the Fall of 1989. During that span he spent one entire year out of football (1996) and has held a multitude of coaching titles including - head coach, assistant head coach, defensive coordinator, special teams coach, linebackers coach, defensive line coach and strength and conditioning coach.

Tomsula joined the 49ers after enjoying one of the most successful stints in NFL Europa history. Prior to being named the head coach of the Rhein Fire in 2006, which made him the youngest coach in NFLE history at age 38, Tomsula served as the Berlin Thunder's defensive coordinator for two seasons, winning World Bowl XII in his first season with a defense that ranked first in the NFLE against the run.

Tomsula joined the NFLE in 1998 as the defensive line coach of the England Monarchs. He then went on to serve in the same capacity for five seasons with the Scottish Claymores, where he established a reputation for producing some of the league's most dominant lines. He also played a leading role in mentoring and teaching young talent in the league's National Player Development program.

Between NFL Europa seasons, Tomsula spent each fall as a member of Division II Catawba College's coaching staff, as coaching in the NFLE was not a year-round post. While at Catawba, he was part of numerous college all-star games in a coaching capacity.

Tomsula was a defensive lineman at Catawba College in Salisbury, NC, after transferring from Middle Tennessee State. In 1989, he started his coaching career as an assistant at his alma mater after a knee injury ended his playing career. He went on to coach the defensive line coach at Woodland Hills (PA) High School in 1990.

Interestingly, Tomsula spent two seasons out of football. He served as a sales rep for Thera-Kinetics, a medical equipment company, in 1991, until he landed a job as an assistant at Charleston Southern University, SC, (1992-95). In order to make ends meet in Charleston, Tomsula held many odd jobs such as delivering newspapers for The Post and Courier, serving as a night janitor at an insurance agency, and cutting firewood. After his stint at Charleston Southern, he returned to his hometown of Pittsburgh, PA, where he cleaned the floors at a department store until landing a job as a sales rep at Cisco Foods. Tomsula returned to the coaching ranks in 1997, as the volunteer assistant defensive line coach at Catawba. With no income from his coaching passion, he again picked up a part-time job as an entry-way carpeting salesman and even lived out of his car at times.

He and his wife, Julie, reside in San Jose with their daughters Britney and Brooke, and son, Bear.

ANQUAN

WR

| HT 6-1 | WT 220 | COLLEGE FLORIDA STATE |

BORN 10.3.80 // PAHOKEE, FL // PAHOKEE HS, PAHOKEE, FL
FLORIDA STATE // 12TH YEAR // ACQUIRED TRADE IN '13 - BAL.

Anquan Boldin made an immediate impact after joining the 49ers in 2013. In his first season with the club, Boldin was selected by the coaches as the team's Bill Walsh Award recipient, given to the 49ers team MVP. He led the team in receptions (85) and receiving yards (1,179) and provided veteran leadership to many of the team's younger players. Boldin, originally a second-round draft selection in 2003 by the Arizona Cardinals, returned to the NFC West in 2013 after spending three seasons in the AFC with the Baltimore Ravens. The 12-year veteran and three-time Pro Bowl selection quickly became a fan favorite in Week 1 by recording 208 yards to break Jerry Rice's franchise record for the most receiving yards on opening day. Boldin has always had a knack for starting fast, exemplified by his possession of multiple NFL rookie records, including most receptions in a season (101) and most receiving yards in the first game of a career (217). He was named the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year in 2003 and selected to the Pro Bowl that season for his efforts. He is the fastest player in NFL history to haul in his 400th, 500th and 600th career receptions and notched his 800th career reception on a 7-yard pass by QB Colin Kaepernick vs. Arizona (10/13/13) to become the fourth fastest in NFL history to accomplish the milestone (146 games).

- Established the Anquan Boldin Foundation in 2004, which is dedicated to expanding the educational and life opportunities of underprivileged children. Core services of the foundation support after-school programs, full-time scholarships with the support of the University of Phoenix, and dental care and food programs. "For me it was something that I always wanted to do," said Boldin. "Even if I didn't make it into the NFL, giving back is something that is close to my heart." More information on the Anquan Boldin Foundation is available at www.Q81.org.
- He was named the Baltimore Ravens 2010 and 2012 Walter Payton Man of the Year, as well as the Arizona Cardinals Walter Payton Man of the Year in 2004 for his efforts on and off the field.

- The NFL Players Association awarded Boldin $100,000 to the Anquan Boldin Foundation for winning the prestigious Byron "Whizzer" White Award, the highest honor given to a player by the NFL-PA. The award honors the player who serves his team, community and country in the spirit of Byron Raymond "Whizzer" White.
- In April of 2014, Boldin hosted the 10th annual Q-Festival with proceeds benefiting his foundation. The weekend-long event took place at the world renowned PGA National Resort & Spa located in Palm Beach Gardens, FL. This year's activities included a golf tournament, a celebrity basketball game at his alma mater, Pahokee High School, and a "Fun Day in the Park." "It's exciting to enter 10 years for the Q81 Foundation and for Q-Festival Weekend," states Boldin. "QFest is more than just a fun time for me; it is also dear to my heart, because I always wanted to give back to my community that was kind to me when growing up. We are proud of the learning experiences and growth of this decade and look forward to more years to come."
- In March of 2013, Boldin went on a trip to Senegal with Arizona Cardinals WR Larry Fitzgerald to try to help understand and change the mining policies that stripped the natives of their land and left them with nothing. "We wanted to go over there, see the entire process, see how things are run and just come back to the U.S. and advocate for the people who really don't have a voice. We have a trip scheduled to Washington D.C. so that we can actually talk to congress and try to get the policies changed."
- Boldin was inducted into the Palm Beach County Sports Hall of Fame on March 25, 2012, and was honored as a 2012 Distinguished Alumni by the Education Foundation of Palm Beach County, Inc. Another special honor that Boldin has earned in his hometown of Pahokee, FL, is the name of Pahokee High School's football stadium, Anquan Boldin Stadium.
- In April 2012, Boldin made a mission trip to Ethiopia along with Arizona Cardinals WR Larry Fitzgerald to bring attention to the horrible drought in East Africa. "One of the villages that we went to had a canal around their crops and they had a huge problem with hippos," he said. "So they needed some kind of protection to keep the hippos out. We went there, bought fences, and built fences around the crops so that the hippos couldn't damage the crops anymore." He also helped build retaining walls in one village so that when it did eventually rain, the villagers could catch the water and grow vegetation.
- After the destruction of Hurricane Katrina in 2005, Boldin, along with several teammates, visited displaced hurricane refugees in Phoenix, AZ. He served food and drinks to the Louisiana residents, while donating money to the Hurricane Relief Disaster Fund.
- Boldin has displayed toughness and tenacity throughout his lenghty NFL career. He credits his parents and hometown. "Both of my parents are strong. They are the type of people that don't let anything get to them. Also being a product of my environment. Growing up in Pahokee (Florida) you have to be tough. It is a place of poverty. It is a place that lacks opportunity. So in order to make it you have to be tough. That probably had a lot to do with it."

BOONE

G/T

HT 6-8 | WT 300 | COLLEGE OHIO STATE

BORN 5.4.87 // LAKEWOOD, OH // ST. EDWARD HS, CLEVELAND, OH
5TH YEAR // ACQUIRED FA IN '09

After joining the 49ers as an undrafted free agent in 2009 and spending the length of the season on the practice squad, Alex Boone has blossomed into a Pro Bowl alternate. When he reported to mini-camp in 2010, he was in the best shape of his life, replacing 40 pounds of fat with 25 pounds of lean muscle. He competed at right and left tackle, and eventually proved worthy of a spot on the 53-man roster. In 2011, Boone entered each game in jumbo packages and short-yardage situations, and also contributed on special teams. For his efforts, he was rewarded with a four-year contract extension on December 8, 2011, that runs through the 2015 season. In 2012, Boone earned his role as the starting right guard and was part of a 49ers offensive line that used the same five starters for all 16 regular season games and was widely regarded among the best units in the NFL. In 2013, Boone started all 16 regular season games for the second consecutive year and was selected by his teammates as the recipient of the Bobb McKittrick Award, given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best exemplifies the dedication, excellence and commitment of its namesake.

- For fans traveling to the San Francisco Zoo, they can keep an eye out for the zoo's endangered black rhinoceros named Boone, whom the zoo chose to name after the 49ers guard. In January of 2013, the San Francisco Zoo invited Alex to be the zookeeper for a day, where he fed giraffes, polar bears and other animals, learned the tools of the trade and met the black rhino who now shares his name. The black rhinos are the most aggressive species of rhinoceros. Black rhinos are known for their power in plowing through and running over things, which matches Boone's playing style on the gridiron. "We're very similar. It's very fitting. I'm very humbled and very honored to have a rhino named after me," Boone said. "I got to feed him, got to pet him, a very soft face, the horn, unbelievable to touch that. It's an honor and a blessing to have such a beautiful animal named after me." This also earned Boone the nickname "The Rhino."

- In the offseason following his rookie season, Boone returned home to Lakewood, OH, where he began working out with former NFL O-lineman LeCharles Bentley. With Bentley's help and guidance, Alex returned for training in the best shape of his life. He dropped 40 pounds of fat before putting 25 pounds of muscle back on. "LeCharles helped me realize what it takes to be successful in the NFL," Boone said. "He has helped me with my footwork, my initial burst and my quickness. I know I'll be ready for whatever the coaches throw at me this season."

- The one person Boone always admired and wanted to be like was his grandfather. "My grandfather raised my brother and I with good morals and good values," said Boone. "He was always there for us." Alex saw him as a smart person who everyone looked up to. A very religious man, the two of them prayed together regularly and attended church every Sunday. His grandfather passed away when he was young, which left a void in his life. "It crushed me. I never really had to be by myself." Boone vividly remembers the moment he heard the news. "I remember I was eating pizza and I was 13 years old." Talking to his grandmother about him has been a breath of fresh air, reassuring Boone that his grandfather will always be with him. "He was a funny guy who loved to laugh. He was real jokester. I try to be like him every day."

- Boone remains very active in the Bay Area community. In late November 2013, Boone participated in the 7th annual tree lighting ceremony in San Francisco.

Talent, hustle, toughness and determination are all attributes 49ers linebacker NaVorro Bowman has displayed during his first four seasons in the NFL. He was selected First-Team All-Pro in 2011, 2012 and 2013, and was named to his first two Pro Bowls in 2013 and 2014. A rock in the middle of the 49ers defense, he led the team in tackles in each of the past three seasons. Creating his own special moment in the storied history of Candlestick Park, Bowman intercepted Falcons QB Matt Ryan late in the 4th qtr., and returned the pick 89 yds. for a game-sealing touchdown in the final game ever at The Stick. The following week at Arizona (12/29/13), Bowman had arguably the best game of his career, becoming the first 49er since LB John Johnson (10/31/93) to record one sack, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one interception in the same game, en route to earning NFC Defensive Player of the Month honors in December. On November 27, 2012, Bowman was rewarded with a five-year extension through 2018, solidifying one of the league's most talented linebacking corps for years to come.

// GOLDMINE

• Bowman was born and raised just outside of Washington D.C. in a high-crime area. It was a tough environment to avoid, but sports became his outlet from the streets and drugs. "My parents had been with me since day one. Also, having a support system like my high school coach. He really let me know early on that I had something special and I shouldn't mess it up."

• He earned his degree in criminal law and justice and one day would like to use that to help out his hometown. With all of the violence and drugs in District Heights, MD, he believes being from the area will help others listen to him. "That's one of the reasons I got in that field - to open doors and possibly be able to get into a young child's head from my neighborhood."

• Bowman works with the Bayview Hunters Point YMCA and recently received an award for his efforts in the program. He has participated in numerous events, including a night of bowling to benefit children, and a toy drive during the holiday season.

• Two important and influential people in Bowman's life abruptly passed away. His father passed away from a blood clot that reached his heart, while his high school coach died in a car accident before Penn State's bowl game in 2009. "Dealing with as much adversity as I have in a short period of time has made me the man I am today. It's made me stay on track and strive to do those things that will possibly help me be successful, not just on the football field, but off the field also."

TRAMAINE
BROCK

CB

| HT 5-10 | WT 197 | COLLEGE BELHAVEN |

BORN 8.20.88 // GULFPORT, MS // LONG BEACH SENIOR HS, LONG BEACH, MS
5TH YEAR // ACQUIRED FA IN '10

Tramaine Brock made the 49ers opening day roster in 2010, as the first undrafted rookie free agent to do so in five seasons. Just four seasons later, Brock started the final six regular season games at cornerback and all three postseason contests and enters 2014 as the incumbent at one of the 49ers starting cornerback spots. Brock's performance during the 2013 season earned him a four-year contract extension, keeping him in the red and gold through the 2017 season. A converted strong safety out of Belhaven University, Brock only played a dozen snaps at cornerback during his collegiate career, which also included stops at Mississippi Gulf Coast Junior College and the University of Minnesota.

2013: USA Today All-Joe Team, NFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 5)

// GOLDMINE

- Brock's path to the NFL was not an easy one by any means. From the small country town of Gulfport, MS, he traveled 30 miles north to Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College in Perkinston, MS, where he spent two seasons before transferring to the University of Minnesota. Why would a southern boy decide on Minnesota? "I wanted to see what a big city felt like," Brock said. After one year, he transferred back down south to Belhaven University in Jackson, MS, a small Christian NAIA school.
- In February of 2011, Belhaven retired Brock's jersey for his accomplishments on both the collegiate and professional levels. He is the only player in the history of the school's program to have played in the NFL.
- Brock's passion for sports was developed at an early age and he would like to remain in athletics either as a coach or personal trainer after his playing career is through. "I want to teach people what I know and watch them perform and compete," Brock said. His father encouraged him to join a football league in elementary school, and he also played basketball and ran track for his school's team. Recreationally, he played kick ball and baseball in his neighborhood. "My friends were all competitive with each other," he said. "We all wanted to be the best in the group."

- Brock finished the regular season with a career-high 5 INTs, ranking t-5th in the NFL.
- In his first career start, Brock registered 4 tackles, 2 PDs and his first-career multi-INT game, picking off Texans QB Matt Schaub. It marked the first multi-INT game by a 49ers player since 1/1/12 (CB Tarell Brown – 2 INTs at StL) vs. Hou. (10/6). His performance earned him NFC Defensive Player of the Week for week 5. Brock picked off Texans QB Matt Schaub and returned it 18 yds. for a TD on the third play of the game, marking his first career pick-six and 3rd career INT. It is the first INT returned for a TD by the 49ers since 11/25/12 [S Donte Whitner (42-yd. return) and LB Ahmad Brooks (50-yd. return) at NO]. Brock notched his second INT of the day in the 2nd qtr., picking off Schaub and returning it 13 yds. The INT led to a 2-yd. TD run by RB Anthony Dixon.
- Tallied his 3rd INT of the season and 5th of his career at Ten. (10/20). The INT led to a 1-yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore.
- Registered his 4th INT of the season vs. Car. (11/10). It was the 6th of his career, picking off Panthers QB Cam Newton and returning it for a career-long 41 yds. The INT led to a 25-yd. FG by K Phil Dawson.
- The 49ers defense held Was. (11/25) to just 76 net yds. passing, the fewest net passing yds. San Francisco has allowed since 11/19/12 vs. Chi. (58 net yds. passing).
- On the final play of the game vs. Atl. (12/23), Brock registered his team-high 5th INT of the season, intercepting QB Matt Ryan in the end zone.

// 2012

- Forced a fumble on Rams RB Isaiah Pead on a KR late in the 4th qtr. that the 49ers recovered vs. StL (11/11), marking his first career special teams FF.
- Finished the season tied for the team lead with 15 special teams tackles (FB Bruce Miller - 15).

- Registered his first career INT vs. Sea. (9/11 - QB Tarvaris Jackson), leaping into the air on a hail mary pass to end the first half.
- With an INT vs. Dal. (9/18), Brock became the first 49er to register an INT in consecutive games (9/11 vs. Sea.) since CB Dre' Bly (12/20/09 at Phi. and 12/27/09 vs. Det.).

- Made his NFL debut vs. Den. (10/31).
- Saw extended action at defensive back in season finale vs. Arz. (1/2/11), posting 3 tackles.

// COLLEGE

Played at one of the nation's top junior college programs, Mississippi Gulf Coast, helping the Bulldogs to a perfect 12-0 record and a share of the NJCAA National Championship as a sophomore. Totaled 72 tackles, 7 INTs and 2 FFs in 17 games at MGC. Spent his junior season at Minnesota, totaling 73 tackles, 6 PDs, 1 INT, 3 FFs and 1 FR, before transferring to Belhaven. In 11 games as a senior at Belhaven, posted 51 tackles, 13.5 TFLs, 2.5 sacks, 6 INTs, 10 PDs and 1 FR, while also returning 29 kicks for 505 yds.

- Enjoys playing "Call of Duty: Black Ops" on PlayStation 3.
- Son of Marsha Gardner.
- Born Tramaine Brock (8/20/88) in Gulfport, MS.

BROOKS

BORN 3.14.84 // FAIRFAX, VA // C.D. HYLTON HS, WOODBRIDGE, VA
9TH YEAR // ACQUIRED WAI. IN '08 - CIN.

Now a two-time All-Pro, Ahmad Brooks established himself as a full-time starter at outside linebacker in 2011 by working his way up the depth chart since joining the 49ers as a middle linebacker in 2008. He earned his first career Pro Bowl selection following the 2012 season, and followed it up with his second in 2014. In each of his last five seasons, he has tallied at least 5.0 sacks, and his 33.0 sacks as a 49er rank third most in franchise history among linebackers. During the 2013 postseason, Brooks recorded 4.5 sacks and is now tied for the second most career postseason sacks in franchise history with 6.5. Originally selected in the third round of the 2006 supplemental draft by the Cincinnati Bengals, Brooks joined the 49ers late in the 2008 season. After not dressing that season, he had a breakthrough year in 2009, when he registered 6.0 sacks and five forced fumbles, despite only playing in 14 games as a reserve. His five FFs also set a single-season team record among linebackers and ranked tied for second among NFL linebackers that year. Brooks followed up his solid '09 campaign by posting 5.0 sacks in 2010.

- When Bykowski was drafted by the 49ers, he knew the San Francisco offensive line had won the Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award in 2012. The unit used the same five starters all season, with each player being selected to the Pro Bowl. Working with the unit is Bykowski's driving motivation. "Everyone at this level wants to be the best. Every day I come here, I'm trying to emulate them, trying to be like them and eventually become the best at my craft," he said. "At this level everyone has that same mentality, it's even more intense. You can see it just walking into the building. It's a different atmosphere and it's really cool to be a part of."

- Growing up in Minnesota, Carter took up outdoor activities such as fishing, biking, hiking as well as bowling and playing pool. D.J. Campbell joins the 49ers for his third season in the NFL after spending the majority of the 2013 season with the Miami Dolphins. Originally a seventh-round (216th overall) draft choice of the Carolina Panthers in the 2012 NFL Draft, Campbell appeared in five games (four starts) and tallied 17 tackles during his rookie season. Earning All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention as a senior for the Cal Golden Bears, Campbell started all 13 games, totaling 71 tackles, two interceptions, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries.

// TRANSACTIONS

He also recorded a 4.51 40-yard dash and 38-inch vertical leap that would have ranked 2nd among safeties, and a 10' 7" broad jump that would have finished t-2nd.

- Campbell believes he is where he is today because of his ability to stay focused on football even when he's not on the field. "A lot of people tend to lose focus and lose sight of the goal they're trying to reach, which is making it into the NFL. So I tried to stay focused and surround myself with the people who had the same common goal. Things like constantly eating right, getting my rest, not going out much, getting treatment, keeping my mind fresh and my body right."

BORN 2.18.90 // CINCINNATI, OH // TAFT HS, CINCINNATI, OH
2ND YEAR // ACQUIRED D-2A IN '13

Nicknamed "Tank" at a young age by his mother, Carradine spent his rookie season recovering from a knee injury suffered during his final season at Florida State. A Third-Team All-American and consensus First-Team All-ACC selection as a senior, he helped lead a Seminoles defense that ranked second in total defense and third in rush defense in 2012. // GOLDMINE

- Born Cornellius Carradine, he was given the nickname "Tank" from his mom. He always used to have a little toy army tank with him. "I could never go anywhere without that army tank," he said. "I just had to have it with me, and I used to always push people over, try to run over people." His mom still has the original toy tank.

- Carradine grew up in a rough neighborhood in Cincinnati, where many of the people he knew got into bad situations with drugs and violence. He grew up without much money and his family struggled to put food on the table. Through it all, he learned to walk the other way. "I saw how certain situations can end up. Talking to the older people and coaches, they told me to do the right thing," he said. "Good things happen when you try to do the right things. That was the biggest thing I learned." Football was the biggest opportunity which propelled Carradine out of the area, receiving a college scholarship and earning a degree in sociology from Florida State. "People kept telling me, 'Man, I wish I had that opportunity to play this sport.' I'd seen my opportunity and knew the chances I had, knew what I would be doing if I didn't accomplish these goals. That's why I thrive on football. I give it all I've got and I try to play every play like it's my last. I respect this game because of what this game has gotten me through. I take advantage of it by doing the right thing, being a positive player and being good to my teammates and for the organization."

- After going through a rough childhood, Carradine has a passion for telling his story to kids. He volunteers his time at charity foundations and football camps. "If kids can hear the importance of doing the right thing, if I can help them succeed in life, if they can get it when they're young, they'll live up to those things instead of trying to get knowledge as they got older," he said. "Then it might be too late, because they've already been on their own in certain situations."

- Carradine loves animals and has a large collection of exotic pets, including snakes, lizards, ferrets, a monkey, a bird, piranhas and a shark. "I could see myself doing animal research working in a zoo," he said.

- Just prior to entering high school, Carradine, a Cincinnati native, frequented Bengals games every chance he could. "At the time, I was playing Pee-Wee football and I was also a big fan of Justin Smith. I remember many of the players, including Justin, came and painted our youth center, so I got a chance to meet him." Carradine continued, "He was my favorite player, first-round draft pick. It's crazy that I'm playing with him now. I always wanted to talk football with him and ask him questions, but I never had the chance to. Now that I'm on the same team as him, I can ask him anything I want. I'm always asking him about how to identify run or pass, tips that the offensive line give away, things like that." Carradine also believes he can help him learn a great deal about how to make the transition from a speed-rushing defensive end to a power-rushing defensive tackle, a change that Justin Smith had to make earlier in his career as well.

BORN 5.29.88 // CINCINNATI, OH // LA SALLE HS, CINCINNATI, OH
3RD YEAR // ACQUIRED FA IN '12

Garrett Celek was the only undrafted free agent to make the 49ers 2012 opening day roster, and he went on to play in 13 games during the regular season and all three postseason contests. In 2013, Celek appeared in 12 games, including his first career start at Seattle (9/15). The brother of Philadelphia Eagles TE Brent Celek, he became just the fifth undrafted free agent to make the 49ers opening day roster since 2005.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally signed as an undrafted free agent by SF on 5/4/12.

// GOLDMINE

- Football runs in the bloodlines of the Celek family. Garrett's older brother, Brent, plays tight end for the Philadelphia Eagles. Growing up, the brothers were constantly involved in athletics. "My dad was always pushing us just to be into sports. It didn't matter if it was soccer, baseball, football or basketball. As long as we were doing something and we were having fun with it, he was the happiest guy in the world," Garrett said. He didn't begin playing football until high school, but Brent's success became a driving motivation for him. "He got a scholarship to Cincinnati my freshman year in high school," Garrett said. "Right then I had my goals set. I needed to make it to college, and once I got to college, my brother got drafted in the NFL. There's my next goal. I've got to make it to the NFL, I've got to do what my brother did. Honestly, I've been trying to follow in his footsteps and because of him I'm here today. I wouldn't be who I am without him."
- The Celek family has a lake house in Northern Michigan where everyone gathers on vacation, cooks out and goes jet skiing. Closer to the Bay Area, Celek is a dog owner with a Chesapeake Bay retriever that occupies most of his current free time. "I love playing with her and teaching her tricks."
- Celek has a strong passion for the packaging industry, which he majored in at Michigan State and plans to go into after his football career. The growing industry looks to cut shipping costs on products and is commonplace in the food and medical fields. "There's so many different areas you can get into, it's crazy. I enjoy the science behind it. It was a great major for me to choose and the possibilities are endless."

CHRIS

CB

| HT 6-2 | WT 212 | COLLEGE VIRGINIA |

BORN 2.15.87 // LYNCHBURG, VA // HERITAGE HS, LYNCHBURG, VA
5TH YEAR // ACQUIRED FA IN '14

Originally a second-round pick of the Vikings in the 2010 NFL Draft, cornerback Chris Cook joins the 49ers after appearing in 34 games with Minnesota over the past four seasons. A tall, physical defensive back, Cook led the Vikings with 14 passes defensed in 2012 and made a career-high 11 starts last season. A former stand-out at the University of Virginia, Cook was named a team captain his senior season and registered a team-high four interceptions.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 2nd-round (34th overall) draft choice by Min. in the 2010 NFL Draft... Signed a one-year contract with SF on 3/14/14.

// GOLDMINE

- Despite working as a professional athlete, Cook believes in the power of graduating college. He spent time during the 2013 off-season on campus at the University of Virginia in order to get closer to attaining his degree. "That's one of the big things for me, to finish my degree," explained Cook. "I feel like a lot of guys that get to the NFL, NBA, MLB, any professional sport, feel that it's not important to go back and get their degree because they reach a point where they don't need it. I feel that it is important because there is life after football. When we're done, we're going to be in our early-to-mid 30s and it's important to have a degree and be able to go into other avenues in life."
- Cook enjoys working with kids and has participated in tutoring programs at middle schools and volunteered at a local recreation center in Charlottesville, VA. "Coming from where I came from, there's not a lot of opportunity for kids to see guys like myself, guys that actually made it to the NFL, to the next level, and actually get to live out their dreams," said Cook. "It's important for me to go back and tell them that it is possible to live out out your dreams and be able to do what you want to do if you stay focused and have that dream in mind."

- When Costanzo isn't on the football field, he commits himself to mentoring kids and volunteering. "There is nothing more rewarding to me than working with kids, so I would definitely be a coach and a teacher," he said when asked what career path he would take if he wasn't a football player. "My best friend, former teammate, and coach at Lafayette (Franklin Lakes, NJ), coaches at Paramus High School in New Jersey. I spend every summer and winter with his team coaching and helping mentor the kids." Costanzo also volunteered on the hit show, ABC-TV Extreme Makeover Home Edition. After receiving his hard hat, T-shirt and safety glasses, he assisted in building a new house for a deserving family in northeast Ohio. The most meaningful thing to me is being involved in the community and being a role model. It is a blessing and an honor to be in a position to influence others."

Crabtree has caught a pass in each of his 63 NFL games played, which includes recording at least three receptions in 53 of those contests. He set career highs in 2012 with 85 receptions for 1,105 yards and nine touchdowns, becoming the first 49ers wide receiver to record a 1,000-yard season since Terrell Owens in 2003. In 2013, Crabtree missed the first 11 games of the regular season recovering from an Achilles injury. Widely considered one of the most prolific receivers in college football history, Crabtree earned the coveted Biletnikoff Award - given to the nation's best receiver - in each of his two seasons played at Texas Tech, becoming the first player in college football history to win the award twice.

// GOLDMINE

- In 2012, Crabtree teamed with the video game "The Hip-Hop Dance Experience," to create a new touchdown dance, the 'Crab Shake.' Each time Crabtree performed the routine in a game, the gaming company donated $1,000 to Crabtree's favorite charity, the Boys & Girls Club. With help from Bay Area musician Too Short, he worked with a choreographer to perfect his dance moves. "Gotta show the Bay Area some love. I'm from Texas and the Crab Shake is straight from the south side, but the music, that's the Bay right there," Crabtree said. "The south side mixed with the Bay Area, to me, that's the best of both worlds." He also competed with Broncos LB Von Miller and Eagles RB LeSean McCoy to win fan votes on Twitter for the best dance moves.

  With every Crab Shake touchdown dance, he chose to donate $1,000 to the Boys & Girls Club because the organization meant so much to him from his own personal experiences. Growing up, Crabtree found refuge at his local Boys & Girls Club in Dallas. "This is real, because every day when I was growing up, I was at the Boys & Girls Club just playing everything," he said. "We played pool and ping pong. We were running and racing, playing football and basketball and boxing. I just grew up there, and they were even there for me when I needed tutoring, so I felt it was only right that I support them back. That's what's so great about this, I'm dancing and celebrating in the end zone, and I'm giving back at the same time. It really means a lot to me." In 2012, he rewarded the club with a career-high 9 touchdowns.

- A Jordan Brand athlete, Crabtree knows fashion and really gives his input on the details of the shoe design, "I tell them what material and color I want and where. I may tell them that I want this leather, this part suede and this part mesh." He hopes to set his own trends, "If everybody is doing it, then I'm not going to wear it."

- Crabtree received a basketball scholarship as well as football coming out of high school, so it's understandable how humbling it is to wear the Jordan brand. "It's the best of both worlds right now. Jordan is real big on who represents him with his brand. He looks for sharp guys with good character."

- A nationally-ranked basketball player at Carter HS in Dallas, TX, Crabtree was rated among the top 50 prospects in Texas and received several scholarship offers from major colleges. As a senior, he averaged 20.8 points, 6.7 rebounds and 3.1 assists per game. Crabtree limited his college options to those that would allow him to play both basketball and football. He chose Texas Tech because both Bob Knight and Mike Leach recruited him.

- Crabtree has so many pairs of shoes, he can't put a number on it. Shoes take up his parents' garages, his house in Dallas, and any other place he can store them. Some may say that's excessive, but they may not know the real reason behind his shoe collection. "Growing up I didn't have many shoes. I used to love shoes and cherish the ones that I had. I'd clean them up every day and polish them." Crabtree has big plans for a shoe rack at his home in the Bay Area so he can put them all on display. The shoes are not in boxes though, "I want to see them, my closet is going to look like Niketown."

- His desire to play football can be traced to video games when he was young. "Growing up, all I did was play video games. I was a big Madden fan, and even before that, I was a big Tecmo Bowl guy," Crabtree said. "Tecmo Bowl, that was the game. It was so simple, but at the same time, I think that's what made it so much fun. There weren't even any flags, you could run all around the field with Bo Jackson. I love that game." Even now, he'll have fans come up to him to talk not just his play on the football field, but Crabtree's digital character in the video game and in fantasy football. He said he'd like to have the Crab Shake dance be used in Madden and laughed about being rated higher in the game. "They need to give me some more speed in there. I check the ratings, and I couldn't believe my score. My speed is a little suspect in that game, but I'm going to keep my cool [laughing]," he said jokingly.

- Anthony got his first tattoo when he was 15 and has added many more to his arms. "The eye on my hand means wisdom and protection." His favorite tattoo is on the inside of his left forearm, "Wealth is of the heart and the mind, not the wallet." BORN 1.31.84 // WASHINGTON, D.C. // DUNBAR HS, WASHINGTON, D.C.
9TH YEAR // ACQUIRED D-1A IN '06

Vernon Davis has established himself as one of the most versatile and explosive tight ends in the game. Drafted by the 49ers with the 6th overall pick in the 2006 NFL Draft, Davis hauled in 13 touchdown receptions in 2013, becoming the first tight end in NFL history to register 13-or-more touchdowns in two seasons (13 in 2009). His performance last season earned him his second career Pro Bowl selection. During the 2011 NFL playoffs, Davis registered 10 catches for 292 yards and four touchdowns, becoming just the fifth player in the Super Bowl era to register at least two receiving touchdowns in consecutive postseason games in the same season. Davis followed up his first trip to the playoffs with 254 receiving yards in the 2012 postseason, joining Cardinals WR Larry Fitzgerald as the only two players in NFL history to register four, 100-yard receiving games in their first five playoff contests. In the 2013 postseason, Davis hauled in a touchdown at Green Bay (1/5/14), and another at Carolina (1/12/14) the following week. He is currently tied for the most postseason touchdown receptions among all tight ends in NFL history with seven. Davis led the team in both receiving yards and touchdowns in 2009 and 2010, and was rewarded with a five-year contract extension on September 11, 2010. Davis is just as active off the field as he is on it, pursuing everything from curling and painting to humanitarian trips overseas.

- Davis opened his own Jamba Juice location in Santa Clara, CA, on March 1, 2013. "Not only are you helping people with a job opportunity, you are helping them to stay healthy and live an active and healthy lifestyle," Davis said about his business.

- On December 10, 2012, Davis celebrated the grand opening of his new art gallery, Gallery 85, which is located in San Jose's upscale Santana Row and features pieces by Davis himself. Vernon has always had an affinity for art and is an avid admirer of Michelangelo and the Renaissance period. In 2010 and 2011, he got the opportunity to give back to his passion for art. Director of Cultural Affairs for the San Francisco Arts Commission Luis R. Cancel, in conjunction with the Young at Art Festival, a project of the San Francisco Unified School District and the Fine Arts Museum of San Francisco, announced the launch of "Art Impact." Vernon was the inaugural speaker for Art Impact, and the San Francisco Unified School District created a scholarship in Davis' name, called the Vernon Davis Visual Arts Scholarship, which will provide tuition support to a San Francisco youth interested in pursuing a career in the visual arts. In May of 2011, he handed out his first scholarship to San Francisco high school student, Sheryl Quock, a promising fashion designer.

- After a breakout season in 2009, Davis was named the recipient of the Len Eshmont Award, the 49ers most prestigious annual honor. The Len Eshmont Award honors the player who best exemplifies the "inspirational and courageous play" of Len Eshmont and is voted on by the players.

- Davis was named an honorary captain of the USA Curling Team at the 2010 Winter Olympics in Vancouver, BC, Canada. He attended the games and served as an ambassador for the team in order to help gain support for the sport.

- During the 2010 offseason, Davis traveled to Afghanistan with five fellow NFL players as part of the NFL-USO tour. They first stopped at Al Udeid Air Force Base, 40 miles outside of Doha, Qatar, then traveled on to Bagram Air Force Base in Afghanistan. The trip gave him perspective and knowledge of the efforts being put forth by our military in the Middle East.

- Davis is not one to sit back and relax during the offseason. In March of 2010, he joined his younger brother, Vontae, and six other NFL players on a humanitarian trip to Uganda and Rwanda. The crew spent 10 days distributing 22,000 hearing aids throughout the African regions as part of the Pros for Africa organization. "It was amazing. It was breathtaking because you look at these kids who can't hear anything and you plug these hearing aids in their ears and all of a sudden they're responding. You can't do anything but be thankful to be able to help them hear and respond. It brought a lot of emotion. I'm already an emotional guy."

- During the 2010 offseason, Davis and his brother, Vontae, hosted a football and mentoring clinic at Howard University in their native Washington, D.C. "It means a lot to me, because I know how important it is to go out and give back and share some of the lessons and just the gifts that you always wanted as a kid," Davis said. "Growing up in a low-income, poverty area in the inner city of Washington, D.C., I know what it's like. When I think of the kids, it touches me in ways you can't even imagine."

- When he was a freshman in college, he wanted to honor the person who raised him to be the person he is today, his grandmother, Adaline. He decided to get a tattoo on the inside of his left arm with her name. His grandmother's reaction wasn't a good one at first, but she understood why he did it because in Davis' words, he could look onto the inside of his left arm just to think of her. "She's really influenced me and really pushed me, made me open my eyes and see that besides football, there are other things that I can get involved with if I don't make it." Adaline was the one who raised most of his siblings and gave Vernon direction in his life, teaching him to set goals and molding him into the person he is today.

| HT 5-11 | WT 200 | COLLEGE TEXAS |

16TH YEAR // ACQUIRED FA IN '13

Coming off the first Pro Bowl selection of his career in 2012, Phil Dawson joined the 49ers in 2013 after spending the previous 14 seasons with the Cleveland Browns. He finished the 2013 regular season with the second most made field goals (32) and points scored (140) in 49ers history. After Dawson kicked the game-winning 33-yard field goal in the Wild Card round at Green Bay (1/5/14), linebacker Patrick Willis couldn't contain his appreciation for the 49ers kicker, "I don't think you realize, I'm one of his biggest fans. That guy is amazing, and I'm so blessed to have him on this team." Dawson made the move to San Francisco after establishing himself as one of the most accurate kickers in NFL history, ranking 8th all-time with a field percentage of 84.5% (337 of 399) and 4th in NFL history from 50-plus yards, making 70.0% (28 of 40) of his kicks. Dawson has proven himself to be one of the most reliable kickers in extreme weather conditions in NFL history, registering a single-season career-high with 140 points in 2013.

- During the 2008 and 2011 seasons, Dawson teamed up with the Adoption Network to invite families who have recently adopted children to each Browns home game so they can form new memories as a family. "The reason behind all this is my wife was adopted so we have a pretty special place in our hearts for families trying to adopt," Dawson said.
- Was active in the Cleveland community and founded the "Dawson's 4 Adoption" season ticket program which provided tickets, apparel and food for the Adoption Network Cleveland organization.
- His wife, Shannon, is a professional singer, who performed as a backup singer for Wayne Newton in Las Vegas. She released her country/contemporary Christian mix album titled Redemption on September 11, 2013.

- Dawson's two main hobbies now are actually his first two part-time jobs growing up. His first official job in middle school was driving the tractor that picks up the golf balls at the driving range. "For every tray of balls I would bring in and pour in the washer, I'd get $3," said Dawson. "The busier the driving range, the more money I made." His other job was mowing lawns. He and a friend would mow about 30 lawns every week during the summers. "I love golf and I love yard work," he said.

DEMARCUS

TE/DT

| HT 6-2 | WT 282 | COLLEGE GEORGIA |

BORN 11.30.87 // SAVANNAH, GA // CALVARY BAPTIST HS, SAVANNAH, GA
3RD YEAR // ACQUIRED FA IN '11

Demarcus Dobbs was one of three players to make the 2011 opening day roster as an undrafted rookie free agent, marking the first time since 2001 that the 49ers had at least three undrafted rookie free agents make the team (4 in 2001 - DT John Schlect, LB Quincy Stewart, LB Shane Elam and P Jason Baker). A versatile player, Dobbs has contributed on offense, defense and special teams during his career. In 2013, he tallied a career-high 37 tackles on defense, while adding two tackles on special teams.

// TRANSACTIONS
Originally signed as an undrafted free agent with SF on 7/27/11.

// GOLDMINE
- After growing up in foster care and overcoming a multitude of obstacles that would discourage almost anyone, Dobbs poured himself into his schoolwork and vowed to graduate high school – something no one in his family had yet accomplished. While working diligently in school, he managed to shine on the football field as well, earning a football scholarship to the University of Georgia. Dobbs excelled academically at Georgia, just as he had done his whole life. He majored in consumer economics and earned his degree a year early so that he would be able to have internships and job experience during his final year of football eligibility. After graduation, Dobbs was hopeful – but always realistic – about his chances of playing in the NFL. Many speculated he would be drafted, but when he did not receive a phone call from a team on draft night, Dobbs did not give up. He and his agent looked over NFL rosters and decided that he would fit best in San Francisco. They could not have been more accurate. Dobbs worked tirelessly during 49ers training camp and preseason. He impressed players, coaches and staff with his determination and athletic ability. "I've always been a guy to work hard," Dobbs said. "I was voted the Defensive Leadership Award by the coaches at Georgia. I've always been a guy that gave great effort on the field. When I got here, I knew each day I was going to push hard and whatever happens, happens. As long as I can say that I gave my all and I did all I could do."

// 2013
- Part of a defense that held the Rams offense to only 18 yds. rushing on 19 carries at StL (9/26). It was the 7th-best single-game defensive rushing performance in franchise history.

// 2012
- Placed on the Injured Reserve List on 12/11, after appearing in 12 games, primarily on special teams.

// 2011
- Made NFL debut vs. TB (10/9) at DT.
- Saw extended action on defensive line vs. Cle. (10/30) in place of injured DT Ray McDonald.
- Notched his first tackle of his career vs. StL (12/4), posting 2 stops.

// COLLEGE
Saw action in 52 games (27 starts) for the Bulldogs, accumulating 78 tackles, 41 QB pressures, 11 TFLs, 7.5 sacks, 6 PDs, 4 FFs and 2 INTs. As a senior, appeared in 13 games (10 starts), recording 28 tackles and 15 QB pressures. In 2009, started all 13 games, notching 39 tackles including 4.5 sacks and 14 QB pressures. Also was the recipient of Joseph E. Espy Football Scholarship. As a sophomore, appeared in 13 games (4 starts), recording 19 tackles, eight quarterback hurries and an INT (returned for a TD). As a freshman, appeared in 13 games providing depth on the defensive line and played on special teams. Redshirted in 2006.

// PERSONAL
- Attended Calvary Baptist (Savannah, GA) HS and was a first-team all-state selection by The Atlanta Journal-Constitution and Super Southern 100.
- Born Demarcus Dobbs (11/30/87) in Savannah, GA.
- Graduated with a degree in consumer economics.

// INJURY REPORT
2012: Suffered a knee injury vs. Mia. (12/9) and was placed on Injured Reserve, missing the final 3 games of the season.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2013: 49ers Blue Collar Player of the Year - Defense

// GOLDMINE

- Growing up, Dorsey's grandmother, Pearl Nabor, introduced him to the San Francisco 49ers, foreshadowing his future with the team, "I used to watch the 49ers all the time when they had WR Jerry Rice and all of those great players. I used to watch them with my grandma. That was her favorite team. When I came here, it was like, 'Wow, I used to watch these guys all the time.' This was my favorite team and now I get to play for them. My grandmother passed away a few years ago, but she was the person that turned me on to the 49ers."
- In 2011, Dorsey teamed up with PETA, urging dog owners across the country to protect their pets during harsh weather conditions by bringing them indoors. "I love my dog. I don't have any kids, so he's like my best friend. PETA came to my house and did a photo shoot with myself, and my three-year-old English Bulldog, Bugsy. It was cool. It was a good deal working with PETA. It was for a good cause and it was fun."
- Had the nickname 'Putt' as an infant because he would only get up and walk when a Putt-Putt commercial would come on TV.

BORN 5.14.83 // CORAL GABLES, FL // CORAL GABLES HS, CORAL GABLES, FL
10TH YEAR // ACQUIRED D-3A IN '05

Frank Gore embodies what it means to do things the Forty Niner Way. As the heart and soul of the 49ers offense for the past nine seasons, the five-time Pro Bowl running back has established himself as one of the premier running backs in the NFL. The franchise's all-time leading rusher (9,967 yards), Gore tallied his team-record seventh 1,000-yard season in 2013, rushing for 1,128 yards, becoming the 20th player in NFL history to record at least seven 1,000-yard rushing seasons during a career. He also holds the team records for career rushing attempts (2,187), rushing touchdowns (60) and 100-yard rushing games (35). Gore and teammate LB Patrick Willis are the only two-time recipients of the Bill Walsh Award, which is voted on by the coaches, and given to the 49ers team MVP.

// GOLDMINE

• In 2006 and 2010, Gore was named the recipient of the 49ers Bill Walsh Award. The Bill Walsh Award is voted on by the coaches and awarded to the 49ers team MVP. He is one of two players in franchise history to win the award twice (LB Patrick Willis).

• Gore was named 15th winner of the annual Garry Niver Award by reporters covering the team who represent the SF Chapter of the Pro Football Writer's Association in December of 2007. The award is given in honor of the late Garry Niver, the San Mateo Times reporter, and goes to the player who shows "cooperation and professional style" in dealing with Pro Football writers on the job.

• During the 2010 offseason, Gore tried his hand at coaching for the first time as the defensive coordinator of the Little 49ers in a Miami youth league. Although his players were only 4 years old, Gore was still teaching them what's important. "The most important part is that the kids enjoy it. You can see how excited they get when they do something right."

• Gore's determination to run over defenders comes from his tough upbringing in Miami, FL. Some considered his football career over when he suffered two serious knee injuries at the University of Miami; however, he relied on his mother Liz's strength to help him through. "She had been on dialysis (awaiting a kidney transplant) since I was in the 11th grade and raised three kids as a single woman," Gore said. Unfortunately, Liz lost her battle with kidney disease before the 49ers second game of the 2007 season against the St. Louis Rams. Playing with a heavy heart, Frank responded by rushing for 81 yds. and 2 TDs, including a 43-yd. score on a 4th-and-1 carry, helping the 49ers to a 17-16 victory.

// CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

• Ranks first in 49ers history in rushing yds. (9,967), atts. (2,187) and TDs (60).

• Ranks 2nd in franchise history in yds. from scrimmage (12,739), trailing only WR Jerry Rice (19,872).

• Logged seven, 1,000-yd. rushing seasons (2006-09, 11-13), the most 1,000-yd. seasons in 49ers history. Gore's seven, 1,000-yd. rushing seasons rank 2nd among all active players (StL RB Steven Jackson - 8).

• In 2009, Gore and TE Vernon Davis (13 rec. TDs) became just the 2nd set of 49er teammates to each have at least 13 TDs in a season. In 1995, WR Jerry Rice had 17 and RB Derek Loville had 13.

• Since his rookie season in 2005, the 49ers are 36-7-1 when Gore has 20+ carries and 28-7 when he breaks the 100-yd. plateau.

BORN 12.23.89 // INDIANAPOLIS, IN // WARREN CENTRAL HS, INDIANAPOLIS, IN

Jewel Hampton spent the 2013 season on the 49ers practice squad after originally signing with the team as an undrafted free agent in 2012. He was placed on the Reserve/Non-Football Injury List at the end of training camp that year and promoted to the active roster on November 27, 2012 where he was inactive for the final five regular season games and three postseason contests.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally signed as an undrafted free agent by SF on 5/4/12... Placed on Reserve/Non Football Injury List by SF on 8/27/12... Signed to SF active roster on 11/27/12...Released by SF on 8/31/13... Signed to SF practice squad on 9/2/13...Signed to Reserve/Future contract by SF on 1/22/14.

// GOLDMINE

• Jewel picked up football when he was six years old in large part to his father, who played in a semi-pro league for the Indianapolis Tornados. When Jewel saw his father on the football field, he knew he wanted to follow in his path. "He's been shaping me and molding me my whole life," Hampton said. "He's taught me everything I know about the game and he's still teaching me, giving me little pointers." Since that time, he's been working to play at the highest level. "There's really nothing I'm as passionate about than football because I've been doing it my whole life," he said. "It's what I've always wanted to do. I always strived for completing my goal. Football's always a team builder, teaching you how to communicate and get along with other people."

• Hampton has persevered through two knee injuries in college from 2009 to 2010, one in each knee. He transferred from Iowa to Southern Illinois after the second injury and eventually was invited to the NFL Combine. He signed with the 49ers and found RB Frank Gore's story an inspiration to him. "The Niners showed a lot of interest in me, more than any other team. I felt like they liked me a lot out here and would give me a real shot. They had a lot to offer." Like Hampton, Gore suffered knee injures to both knees while at Miami. "I heard that he had a story that was similar to mine. It gave me a lot of optimism to know that he'd done it and I could have that longevity over my career."

• Spent the entire 2013 season on the practice squad.

MIKE

G

| HT 6-5 | WT 331 | COLLEGE IDAHO |

BORN 5.12.87 // AMERICAN SAMOA // WESTERN HS, ANAHEIM, CA
5TH YEAR // ACQUIRED D-1B IN '10

One of the top guards in the National Football League, fifth-year pro Mike Iupati has been a staple on year-end award lists. He was named First-Team All-Pro in 2012 and was also selected to the 2013 and 2014 NFC Pro Bowl rosters. A mild-mannered native of American Samoa, Iupati plays with a nasty streak on the field. Selected 17th overall in the 2010 NFL Draft, Iupati showcased his rare combination of size and athleticism as he was named the team's starting left guard during rookie training camp.

// GOLDMINE

- Growing up in the village of Nuuli in American Samoa, Iupati took English as a second language, but was still way behind the curve when he arrived in the United States prior to his freshman year of high school. When it came time to head to college and pursue a football career, he was behind academically due to the language barrier. Iupati began looking into junior colleges. While at a recruiting barbecue at Cerritos College, he met Johnny Nansen, an assistant coach at Idaho, who later convinced him to sign with the Vandals as a Prop 48. Four years later, Iupati was a first round NFL draft pick.

- Although Iupati has not lived in American Samoa for several years, his mother will never let him forget his culture. "My mom was tough on us, but it's discipline. That's why a lot of Polynesians are disciplined when they come to the U.S. You have to always respect your elders. It's our culture."

- When Iupati entered the NFL, his hair was very long, reaching the middle of his back. He had not cut it since the summer before his sophomore year at Idaho. When he returned to the Bay Area to begin the 2012 offseason program, he was sporting a buzz cut. "I needed a new start and thought now was the right time. I donated my hair to Locks of Love so that some kid would be able to make good use of it."

- Iupati's brother did all of the tattoos on his arm and leg. All of the art on his body is reflective of Samoan culture. "Some of them are Fala, the centipede, the waves, the ocean, fish. It goes back to what we normally use." The lion on his leg was artwork that Iupati liked and asked his brother to put a Polynesian design around it.

- Was part of an offensive line that helped amass the 2nd most total net yds. on opening day in 49ers franchise history with 494 yds. (404 passing yds. and 90 rushing yds.) vs. GB (9/8).

- Helped pave the way for 219 yds. rushing at StL (9/26). It marked the first time the 49ers had three different RBs score a rushing TD in the same game since 12/2/01 vs. Buf. (Garrison Hearst, Fred Beasley and Paul Smith).

- The offensive line did not allow a sack on 17 total atts. by QB Colin Kaepernick and QB Colt McCoy at Jax (10/27). The last time the 49ers did not allow a sack was 11/25/12 at NO. The 49ers also rushed for 221 yds. and 4 TDs on 38 carries at Jax, the most rushing yds. in a game by the team during the 2013 season. The 4 rushing TDs tied for the most by any team in a game in the NFL in 2013.

- Provided great running lanes for the offense to gain 199 rushing yds. on 30 atts. vs. Atl. (12/23). The 6.6 yds. per carry avg. was team's highest in any game during the 2013 season. It also marked just the second time in the season that the team had three players rush for over 50 yds. (Gore - 97; Kaepernick - 51; Hunter - 51).

- Iupati and the 49ers O-Line won the 2012 Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award, recognizing the best O-Line in the NFL.

- The 49ers were one of just three teams to have the same five starting offensive linemen for every game this season (Was. & NYJ).

- Paved the way as the team rushed for a then season-high 245 yds. on 44 carries as nine different players had a carry at NYJ (9/30).

- Helped the 49ers offense set a team record with 621 total yds. (311 rushing, 310 passing) vs. Buf. (10/7), surpassing the 49ers previous franchise record of 598 vs. Buf. (9/13/92). San Francisco became the first team in NFL history to post 300-or-more yds. rushing and passing in the same game. For the first time in 49ers history since 11/19/61 vs. Chi., San Francisco posted a 300-yd. passer (QB Alex Smith 303 yds.), two 100 yd-receivers (WR Michael Crabtree – 113 yds.; TE Vernon Davis – 106 yds.) and a 100-yd. rusher (RB Frank Gore – 106 yds.) in the same game. The offensive line did not allow a sack and was awarded the Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award for Week 5.

- Against the Packers, San Francisco amassed 579 total yds. of offense (323 rushing and 256 passing), setting a new single-game postseason franchise record. The previous record was 537 yds. (211 rushing and 326 passing) vs. Mia. (1/20/85) in Super Bowl XIX. The 49ers rushed for 323 yds. on the night, setting the franchise single-game postseason rushing record.
- Iupati and the 49ers offense became the first team in Super Bowl history to have a 300-yd. passer, a 100-yd. rusher and two 100-yd. receivers in a single game. QB Colin Kaepernick threw for 302 yds., RB Frank Gore added 110 yds. rushing, WR Michael Crabtree tallied 109 rec. yds. and TE Vernon Davis recorded 104 rec. yds. vs. Bal. (2/3/13 - SB XLVII).

LaMICHAEL JAMES

RB

HT 5-9 | WT 195 | COLLEGE OREGON

BORN 10.22.89 // NEW BOSTON, TX // LIBERTY-EYLAU HS, TEXARKANA, TX
3RD YEAR // ACQUIRED D-2 IN '12

Speed and elusiveness are staples in LaMichael James' skill set which have made him a threat coming out of the backfield and in the return game. In college, James became the first two-time consensus All-America selection in Oregon history. In 2011, he led the nation in rushing yards per game (150.4), and ranked second in the NCAA in rushing yards (1,805). The recipient of the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back in 2010, James became just the third player in Pac-12 Conference history to rush for over 5,000 yards in his career.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 2nd-round (61st overall) draft choice by SF in 2012.

// GOLDMINE

• One of James' biggest loves is building and restoring classic cars. In his collection, he owns a 1972 Impala, 1977 Chevelle and 1984 Monte Carlo. "It was just something that people do back in Texarkana," he said. "Everybody likes to trick their cars out, and bringing them up from nothing is a big thing there." It's become a hobby that he said relaxes him when he's away from football.

• Away from the gridiron, James has a passion for working in juvenile justice. "Hopefully, I'll be able to work with troubled kids that might not have a great background or a great home front," he said. "Hopefully I can make a difference in their lives."

• LaMichael James grew up in Texarkana, Texas, on the border of Texas and Arkansas. He described it as a tight-knit community with an emphasis on having a family atmosphere. All of his friends lived in the same neighborhood and pushed each other to stay active and involved. "We all played every sport. 'You do it, I do it.' It was one of those type of deals," James said. "That really kept me out of trouble and kept me focused with an eye on the prize." During the 2012 NFL Draft, James was invited to take part in the league's primetime event at New York's Radio City Music Hall, but James opted to stay home in Texarkana and witness the event with all the people he grew up with. "I'm never going to be bigger than the situation," James said. "I never want to turn my back on where I come from. That's where I've been my whole life. The people that have been there for me my whole life and have seen me grow up from a little boy, I wanted to share those moments with them."

• Registered career-highs with 5 punt returns for 72 yds., including a long return of 40 yds. at Was. (11/25).

A former product of then-head coach Jim Harbaugh at the University of San Diego, Josh Johnson is in his sixth pro season. Johnson spent the entire 2013 season on the Cincinnati Bengals active roster and appeared in two games. - Says Johnson of his time playing for Jim Harbaugh at the University of San Diego. "He started it for me. He took me from playing the quarterback position to a different level. He opened my mind up a lot on how to play the position. He taught me how to play the position. He showed me so many different things that I didn't even know I was capable of doing. He always challenged me daily." While he was there, Johnson set four USD passing records in touchdown passes (113), completions (724), attempts (1,065) and passing yards (9,699). Johnson took over as USD's starter his sophomore season in 2005 and earned consensus first-team All-America recognition in 2006. When Harbaugh was first hired by USD in 2003, the first player he recruited was Johnson. When Johnson left USD four years later, he was the all-time NCAA pass efficiency leader and a Walter Payton Award finalist.

- As with most major cities, Oakland has some rough neighborhoods to navigate, but Johnson wouldn't change his hometown for anything. "It's hard, but it makes you get on that right path right away or you have to go the other way. It's that simple. Now as an adult, I appreciate that. There are no gray areas, you can't play both sides. You have to decide from an early age what path you want. For me, it kept me on the straight and narrow. It kept me focused and pursuing all of the dreams I wanted." Those dreams fueled the fire in him to work hard and pursue his lifelong goal of playing in the NFL.

- Josh helped his mom at a summer camp for 4-12 year olds each summer growing up. He started as a counselor's aid which ignited his passion for developing the Josh Johnson Youth Center. The Center will help teach kids to develop various necessities in life including how to open a bank account, learning to read and write and other opportunities for all age groups. "It will be a one-stop-shop for these kids because they don't always have a place to go. We want the kids to be able to come to one place to explore and open up their minds to more." The plan is to open this youth center by 2014 after the necessary funds are raised.

WR

| HT 6-2 | WT 207 | COLLEGE KENTUCKY |

BORN 7.22.86 // SAN FRANCISCO, CA // ANGELO RODRIGUEZ HS, FARIFIELD, CA
7TH YEAR // ACQUIRED TRADE IN '14 - BUF.

A native of Fairfield, CA, Stevie Johnson joins the 49ers in 2014 via a draft-day trade with the Buffalo Bills. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL in Buffalo, Johnson became the first player in Bills history to register consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons, reaching the milestone in three straight years (1,073 in 2010; 1,004 in 2011; 1,046 in 2012). Johnson has developed into a consistent threat, recording more than 50 receptions in each of the past four seasons. The former Kentucky Wildcat and 2007 First-Team All-SEC selection provides the 49ers with another experienced scoring threat as he has recorded 28 career receiving touchdowns.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally drafted in the 7th round (224th overall) by Buf. in 2008... Signed a five-year extension with Buf. on 3/5/12...Traded to SF on 5/9/14.

// GOLDMINE

- During his time with Buffalo, Johnson was very active in the community. He attended the 8th annual Play 60 Challenge Kickoff Event and spoke to 2,500 elementary school students about the importance of eating healthy and exercising. He was also a celebrity judge in the Tim Horton's Donut Duel contest, which raised money to keep Luna the polar bear in the Buffalo Zoo.

- To many, selecting a jersey number seems like a rather unimportant part of sports. However, for some players like Stevie Johnson, the number they wear can mean much more. On his first day at the University of Kentucky, Johnson was offered several number options in the 80s, a typical choice for a wide receiver. But when the equipment manager also mentioned that 13 was available, he jumped on it. "I felt like it was a number that people thought was irrelevant," Johnson said. "And I wanted to make a name for that 13." In addition to serving as a reminder of where he came from, 13 is important to him for another reason. His wife, Britney, also likes it. "I call her 'B.' And you take a 1 and a 3 and slide them together. That's a B," he explained. "And now I'm representing my family."

- Stevie Johnson has a passion for music and even released a rap song himself by teaming up with popular musician, The Game. He has bloodlines to the music industry as his cousin is Bay Area rapper Ya Boy and his stepfather, Andre Lewis, is a music producer.

COLIN

QB

| HT 6-4 | WT 230 | COLLEGE NEVADA |

BORN 11.3.87 // MILWAUKEE, WI // PITMAN HS, TURLOCK, CA
4TH YEAR // ACQUIRED D-2 IN '11

Colin Kaepernick quickly grew into one of the most exciting and explosive players in the NFL after taking over the reins of the 49ers offense in Week 11 of the 2012 season. He continued that trend in 2013, rushing for second most yards (524) by a quarterback in a single season in franchise history, while becoming the first 49ers quarterback to throw 20 touchdown passes in a season since 2002 (Jeff Garcia). Kaepernick is just the fourth quarterback in NFL history to win each of his first three playoff starts on the road. In six postseason starts, he has registered the second most career rushing yards (507) by a quarterback in NFL postseason history, and also holds three of the top five postseason single-game rushing marks by a quarterback. Kaepernick guided the 49ers to the NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XLVII in just his 10th career start, the third fewest of any starting Super Bowl quarterback. In 2012, he went 7-3 as a starter and posted a QB rating of 90.0-or-better in 8 of his 10 games started. Kaepernick also tallied three rushes of 50-or-more yards, including the postseason, and had 22 completions of at least 25 yards. He set the all-time single-game rushing record (regular or postseason) for a QB with 181 yards against the Green Bay Packers (1/12/13) in the NFC Divisional Playoff game.

- In July of 2013, Kaepernick held his first annual Against All Odds golf tournament at Del Rio Country Club in Modesto, CA, to benefit Camp Taylor, a camp for children with heart defects. The inaugural event raised over $200,000 to assist children and their families through Camp Taylor.
- In the summer of 2010, Kaepernick was drafted by the Chicago Cubs in the 2009 MLB Draft and was offered $30,000 to go to Arizona for a month and throw a few bullpen sessions. Looking ahead to his senior season as Nevada's quarterback, he declined the offer saying, "What would that say about me as a leader of the team?".

- One of Kaepernick's hobbies and favorite activities off the field is collecting and watching movies. "I own around 250 movies," said Kaepernick. His favorites are no surprise; action and comedy, specifically the movie Step Brothers. What might be a surprise to some people is that the 6-4, 250 lb QB also enjoys watching cartoons and Disney movies. "Some movies I own that most people wouldn't think I like are The Incredibles, Finding Nemo, Despicable Me and How To Train Your Dragon."
- Even as a 4th grade student at Dutcher Elementary School in Turlock, CA, Kaepernick knew he was going to play for the 49ers. In a letter that students had to write to their future selves, despite his small stature at the time, he saw something special in himself. He wrote, "I'm 5-2, 91 lbs and a good athlete. I think in 7 years i will be between 6 ft. to 6-4, 140 lbs. I hope I go to a good college in football, then go to the pros and play on the Niners or the Packers, even if they aren't good in seven years."

- As Daniel was preparing for the NFL Draft in 2011, he was also serving as a student-teacher at Hardin Park Elementary School working with special-education students in adaptive physical education classes. The day following his graduation from Appalachian State, Daniel hosted a field trip for his special-education students at ASU. The field trip included a tour of the school's athletic facilities, activities in the Sofield Family Indoor Practice Facility, lunch on the club level of the Appalachian Athletics Center and taking in a few innings of the Appalachian State-Western Carolina baseball game. While football is Daniel's next chapter in life, he aspires to be a coach and special-education teacher following his NFL career. "I'm very happy that I was drafted, but I absolutely love working with these kids," said Daniel. "I have had a great student-teaching experience and I know when my NFL career is over, I will get to work in another field that I love and that is working with special-education students and coaching."

Even when he went on to become a standout punter on the collegiate level at the University of Pittsburgh, he was still a stranger to live NFL action. The first professional game he ever witnessed in person was as a player with the 49ers in 2004. In fact, Andy didn't even set out to play football at all. "I was more of a baseball guy growing up. I actually wanted to be a Major League Baseball player. I played quarterback in 8th grade, and the coach asked, 'Who wants to try out for the punting position?' I didn't know you were supposed to spiral a punt, or turn it over, or any of that."

LB

| HT 6-3 | WT 255 | COLLEGE AUBURN |

BORN 11.19.91 // HIALEAH, FL // HIALEAH HS, HIALEAH, FL
2ND YEAR // ACQUIRED D-3 IN '13

Entering his second season with the 49ers, Corey Lemonier looks to increase his role in the 49ers defense. Seeing action in every game of his rookie season, Lemonier recorded 14 tackles, one sack, one forced fumble, one safety and three passes defensed, while adding six tackles on special teams. The speedy linebacker attended Auburn University where he finished his Tigers career ranked seventh in school history with 17.0 career sacks. A two-time All-SEC honoree, he led the team in sacks (9.5) and quarterback pressures (15) as a sophomore and added 12 quarterback pressures for the Tigers in 2012.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 3rd-round (88th overall) draft choice by SF in 2013.

// GOLDMINE

- Lemonier has traveled to Haiti multiple times, where both of his parents were born. Following hurricanes and earthquakes in Haiti, a few members of Lemonier's family on his father's side were hit hard, but they all remained safe. When the Lemoniers moved to Florida, many sports, including football, were new to them. Corey started out watching football and basketball on television. He played hoops through his sophomore year of high school before switching to football when he was a junior.

- Despite the fact that his parents knew little about football, his father, a former offshore welder, and his mother, a nurse, instilled the value of hard work on Lemonier through their example and have supported him throughout his career. When confronting his parents about the possibility of playing football, his father's advice was consistent with his hard-work mentality. He said, "I told him, 'OK, that's your choice. You can do whatever you want as long as you give it all you have.'"

- Made his NFL debut vs. GB (9/8).

- Recorded 4 tackles and 1 PD at StL (9/26). Part of a defense that held the Rams offense to only 18 yds. rushing on 19 carries, the 7th best single-game defensive rushing performance in franchise history.

He also registered his first career FF, jarring the ball loose from Arz. RB Alfonso Smith. The fumble was picked up by LB NaVorro Bowman, and the turnover led to a 44-yd. FG by K Phil Dawson.

- Following the conclusion of his football career, Lloyd wants to pursue a career in broadcasting. He majored in speech communications with an emphasis in journalism and interned with Fox Sports Midwest. He had his own show called "Big Man on Campus."
- During the NFL lockout in 2011, Lloyd worked as a sales representative for Re-Steel in Commerce City, CO, a company that sells specialty metals to the aerospace industry.
- In addition to football, Lloyd has displayed a love for music and has even attempted to start a rap career. In 2008, one of his singles made the Billboard R&B chart and another was featured on the Spike TV show Blue Mountain State. He's also made a brief appearance on film, starring in the direct-to-DVD movie "After Effect."
- While in kindergarten, Lloyd was asked what he aspired to do when he was older and he said he wanted to be a professional football player. Unwilling to change his answer, he was sent to the principal's office because his response was deemed "unrealistic."
- While out of football in 2013, Lloyd started working full-time for a specialty metal service center that supplies airplane components. He has worked at his friend's company over the last four offseasons, starting with the NFL's lockout in 2010, while calling the aerospace sector "dynamic."

RAY

DT

HT 6-3 | WT 290 | COLLEGE FLORIDA

BORN 9.2.84 // PAHOKEE, FL // GLADES CENTRAL HS, BELLE GLADE, FL
8TH YEAR // ACQUIRED D-3B IN '07

Ray McDonald has been a consistent force on the 49ers defensive line over the last three seasons, having started 45 of 48 regular season games in that span. Whether it's stopping the run or rushing the passer, McDonald's abilities makes him an integral piece of the defense. His 3.5 sacks in 2013 trailed only DT Justin Smith for most sacks by a defensive lineman. A model of determination and resiliency, he has missed just four games because of injury during his seven-year career, after having overcome multiple knee injuries while in college.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the second of two 3rd-round (97th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2007...Signed a five-year deal with SF on 7/29/11.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2012: Hazeltine Iron Man Award, 49ers Blue Collar Player of the Year - Defense

// GOLDMINE

- McDonald's durability and toughness earned him the 49ers Hazeltine Iron Man and Blue Collar Defensive Player of the Year Awards for the 2012 season. During the year, McDonald started all 16 games and recorded 2.5 sacks, while taking on constant double teams to free up his teammates. The Hazeltine Iron Man Award is given annually to the most courageous and inspirational defensive player as voted upon by the defensive coaches.

- Ray comes from an athletic family as his father, Ray Sr., played wide receiver for the Florida Gators in the mid-80s and was featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated (Nov. 11, 1985) after catching both scores in a 14-10 victory at Auburn in 1985. Ray's grandfather, Willie McDonald, played running back at Bethune Cookman, and his uncle was a cornerback at UCF. Ray didn't have strong aspirations of playing football professionally until later in high school, when his father began to prepare him for the pro game. "He didn't really push me into playing football when I was growing up, but I told him I really wanted to take off with football. So he dedicated his whole year to working me out."

- Ray has had his share of success growing up playing football. While in high school, he won a state championship four straight years, and then a national title at Florida, but still strives to achieve the ultimate prize of an NFL championship. "I have individual goals, but it all comes down to winning. I come from a winning tradition. All I'm missing out on is an NFL Championship."

- Since the 2008 offseason, Ray has looked for other ways to improve himself as a pass rusher. He has been boxing with the 49ers strength and conditioning staff in order to add more moves to his pass rushing repertoire. "It's something that I can add to my tray with hand-eye coordination. It helps with my endurance and my hand placement and I have enough force to knock someone off balance."

- Despite entering the NFL with great concerns regarding the health of his knees, which hurt his draft stock and forced him to be selected in the 3rd round in 2007, McDonald has missed just 2 games in his 5-year career to injury.

// CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Recorded his first career TD after scooping up a QB Kyle Boller fumble on the Rams 11-yd. line and returned it for the score vs. StL (10/4/09).

| HT 6-4 | WT 267 | COLLEGE RICE |

BORN 6.13.90 // BEAUMONT, TX // EAST CHAMBERS HS, WINNIE, TX
2ND YEAR // ACQUIRED D-2B IN '13

A second-round draft pick (55th overall) by the 49ers in 2013, Vance McDonald appeared in 15 games (four starts) as a rookie. A two-time First-Team All-Conference USA selection at Rice University, he finished his collegiate career ranked in the top 10 in receptions (7th), touchdowns (t-5th) and receiving yards (6th) in school history. // GOLDMINE

- Vance grew up in Winnie, Texas, which was discovered to have a large oilfield and currently has about 3,500 residents. "We have three stop lights and any fast food restaurant you can possibly imagine and a bunch of hotels," McDonald said to describe Winnie. "It's a place for truckers to stop off and get some rest and a bite to eat driving off to Louisiana. The whole town is just one highway. Everyone knows everyone's business."

- McDonald spent draft day at home in Winnie with his family and closest family friends. "It was a big thing for the small town," he said. When 49ers head coach Jim Harbaugh called, McDonald slipped into his parents room and jokingly didn't tell the rest of his family that the 49ers were on the other line until he got off the phone. "They kept asking me, 'Who is it? Who is it?' It was just an unbelievable time, surrounded by the people that I care about most. It was finally here," McDonald said. "The people I was around made it that much better."

- Growing up, Vance spent a lot of his time at the Drake Plantation in Winnie, a large open land full of wildlife such as ducks, geese and deer, which his uncle owned. He went fishing, caught crawfish and rode four-wheelers. "I loved just being an outdoorsman," he said. "It's a big agricultural town."

- Made his 49ers debut vs. GB (9/8), notching his first career recept. on a 25-yd. pass from QB Colin Kaepernick.

| HT 6-2 | WT 248 | COLLEGE CENTRAL FLORIDA |

BORN 8.6.87 // CANTON, GA // WOODSTOCK HS, WOODSTOCK, GA
4TH YEAR // ACQUIRED D-7A IN '11

Moving from one job to another is difficult in any profession, but Bruce Miller welcomed a new challenge. Drafted by the 49ers in the seventh round (211th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft, Miller immediately made the transition from college defensive end to NFL fullback. The Central Florida product caught on so quickly that he earned a starting role by Week 3 of his rookie season, a role he has owned since. In 2013, Miller continued his development at fullback and set single-season career-highs in both receptions and receiving yards, and paved the way for a San Francisco rushing attack which ranked third in the NFL, averaging 137.6 rushing yards per game.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the first of three 7th-round (211th overall) draft choices by SF in 2011...Placed on the Injured Reserve List on 12/18/13... Signed a three-year contract extension on 3/20/14.

- Miller hopes to go back and coach his high school's football team. He said high school is the most crucial time where athletes need good coaches. "There's a big development stage between freshman and senior year of high school," he said. "Many important parts of kids' lives happen in that time. When you get to college, pretty much what you come in with is what you have. It'd be fun to be a part of." However, Miller described himself as a late bloomer who really developed athletically in college rather than in high school. "My coaches were very influential and played a big role in my life."

- Bruce wasn't the most highly recruited player coming out of high school. In fact, saying he was under the radar was an understatement; Bruce wasn't even on the radar. UCF defensive coordinator Dave Huxtable, however, was evaluating other Georgia players and noticed Bruce on film. "He was playing tight end," Huxtable said. "Running and catching balls and making players miss. He was on the kickoff cover team and he was the first one down there on the kickoff cover team plays. Then I got to watch him play basketball. He's a 6-2 center, but he's underneath there just battling on the boards. He's a special guy." Huxtable was one of Bruce's major influences in becoming the two-time Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year. "He played a huge role for me," said Bruce. "I always looked at him for motivation and help. I went to Coach Hux because of the bond we made during recruiting and then playing for him at linebacker."

- Miller has been one of the 49ers most active players at community events in the Bay Area. "They're a lot of fun to take part in," he said. "Just having something to give and talking to people is my favorite part."

- Was the lead blocker, paving the way for 219 net yds. rushing at StL (9/26), and also added 3 recepts. for 22 yds. It marked the first time the 49ers had three different RBs score a rushing TD in the same game since 12/2/01 vs. Buf. (Garrison Hearst, Fred Beasley and Paul Smith).
- Set a career-high with 56 rec. yds. at Jax. (10/27). He hauled in a 43-yd. recept. on the first pass of the game, setting a new career-long. His previous career-long came on a 30-yd. TD recept. at Was. (11/6/11).
- Tied his single-game career-high with 4 recepts. at TB (12/15).
- Set single-season career-highs in both recepts. (25) and rec. yds. (243).

A native of Rohnert Park, CA, Al Netter spent the 2012 season on the 49ers practice squad after being signed as an undrafted rookie free agent. In 2013, Netter spent the first five weeks of the season on the Tennessee Titans practice squad before rejoining the 49ers practice squad for the remainder of the season. A co-captain for two seasons at Northwestern, Netter tied the Wildcats school record with 52 career starts.

The field's 100-yards everywhere."

- Netter wasn't your typical college student when it came to taking trips on spring break. Instead of relaxing or hanging out with friends, he visited Guatemala and volunteered his time at a local orphanage. With the community short on fruit, he scooped manure into a wheelbarrow to transport the waste for 30 minutes a day which helped grow specific fruit trees.

QUINTON

WR

| HT 6-0 | WT 204 | COLLEGE LOUISIANA TECH |

BORN 8.9.90 // NASHVILLE, TN // LAVERGNE HS, LAVERGNE, TN
2ND YEAR // ACQUIRED D-4A IN '13

Quinton Patton showed flashes of his athleticism during his rookie season after being drafted by the 49ers in the fourth round of the 2013 NFL Draft. He earned First-Team All-WAC honors in each of his two seasons at Louisiana Tech and finished his collegiate career ranked seventh in school history in receptions (183) and receiving yards (2,594). He also hauled in 24 touchdown receptions for the Bulldogs. Patton served as team captain in 2012, while being nicknamed "The General."

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the first of two 4th-round (128th overall) draft choices by SF in 2013.

// GOLDMINE

- Patton grew up in a couple of rough neighborhoods around Nashville, Tennessee, where drug use and violence ran rampant "I probably have seen everything, people getting shot, all of it," he said. Quinton's friends realized his athletic abilities and made sure he stayed on the proper path. "They'd always tell me, 'No, you're not going to get into anything because we can see you have something that we don't.'"

- In addition, football helped Quinton stay out of trouble. "I put so much time, so much effort in, believed in myself, and wasn't afraid to take a chance," he said."My chance is football and I always have fun." Patton lives by advice he received from his junior college football coach: "When hard work becomes fun, success will follow. If you aren't working hard and having fun, you're not going to get anything out of it." It's evident on the practice field and in the locker room. Patton makes his friends, teammates and anyone else he encounters, put on a smile and laugh. "That's what I always go by, that's why you always see me with a smile out here, working, running with a smile, cracking jokes, but I'm still working hard, I'm still getting into it."

- Patton learned to cook from his father, Herman, who worked as a chef at Country Pride, a truck stop restaurant in Antioch, Tennessee. "I always used to be in the kitchen, watching and learning them cook everything." Quinton's favorite dish to make is baked chicken with yams, sweet potatoes and brownies for dessert.

- At the 2011 Poinsettia Bowl, Patton showed leadership and maturity when he selflessly gave his bowl gift (a $300 Best Buy gift card) to a Make-A-Wish Foundation kid during the bowl's community service event. Why? The child's wish was to go on a shopping spree and Patton was happy to be able to grant that child's wish.

- Made his NFL debut vs. GB (9/8).
- Patton registered 2 recepts. for 34 yds. and 1 carry for 26 yds. at Arz. (12/29). In a tie game with :18 left in the 4th qtr., Patton hauled in an acrobatic 29-yd. recept. down the sideline to setup a game-winning FG by K Phil Dawson.
- Patton recorded his first career recept. in the postseason for 23 yds. at Car. (1/12/14 - NFC-D).

// COLLEGE

Began his collegiate career at Coffeyville Community College in Kansas before finishing at Louisiana Tech. Played in 45 career games (44 starts) and registered 261 recepts. for 3,689 yds. and 33 TDs. In two seasons at Louisiana Tech, started all 25 games and tallied 183 recepts. for 2,594 yds. and 24 TDs. His 24 career TD recepts. ranked 3rd in school history. As a senior, selected Second-Team All-America from the Associated Press, First-Team All-WAC and was named WAC Offensive Player of the Year. Started all 12 games and led the Bulldogs with 104 recepts. for 1,392 yds. and 13 TDs. Ranked 4th in the nation with an avg. of 116.0 rec. yds. per game. In 2011, was a First-Team All-WAC and All-Louisiana selection and was also named the state of Louisiana Newcomer of the Year. Started all 13 games and led the team with 79 recepts. for 1,202 yds. and 11 TDs. At Coffeyville Community College, played in 20 games (19 starts) and recorded 78 recepts. for 1,095 yds. and 9 TDs. Also added 9 carries for 103 yds., and punted 70 times for 2,731 yds. (39.0 avg.) and a net avg. of 37.5 yds. In 2010, was named the team MVP and earned First-Team All-Kansas Jayhawk Community College honors as a receiver and Second-Team honors as a punter. ERIC

| HT 6-1 | WT 213 | COLLEGE LOUISIANA STATE |

BORN 12.10.91 // BATON ROUGE, LA // DUTCHTOWN HS, GEISMAR, LA
2ND YEAR // ACQUIRED D-1 IN '13

As a first-round pick in the 2013 NFL Draft, Eric Reid did everything the 49ers were looking for when they selected the LSU safety as the 18th overall draft choice. Reid earned his starting spot in training camp and carried his momentum into the season as he started all 16 regular season games and all three games in the postseason. He quickly made a name for himself as a rookie, finishing the season as the only player in the NFC to record four interceptions and two fumble recoveries. He became the first 49ers rookie safety to be named to the Pro Bowl in franchise history. Reid was the recipient of the Thomas Herrion Memorial Award given by the 49ers coaches to the rookie or first-year player who has taken advantage of every opportunity and turned it into a positive situation.

// GOLDMINE

- Jim Harbaugh not only wanted to draft Reid to the 49ers roster coming out of college, but Harbaugh had his eyes on the safety when he was still in high school. As Stanford's head coach, Harbaugh tried to recruit Reid to play college football for the Cardinal. Harbaugh exchanged a few phone calls with Eric and his father, Eric Sr., as well as many emails with his mother, Sharon. Reid chose LSU to remain close to home. "[Stanford] was actually the only school that recruited me as hard as LSU did. All of the other schools pretty much gave up knowing that I was an in-state guy, but it said a lot about how much [Harbaugh] wanted me to go to Stanford and I appreciated it."

- Ironically, after choosing to stay local for college, Reid hoped to be drafted by the 49ers so he could be in Northern California's Bay Area. Eric's mother, Sharon Guillory-Reid, works as a traveling nurse. Since Eric was in middle school in 2004, she has been traveling back and forth from Baton Rouge, LA, and the Bay Area, working in hospitals in Oakland, San Jose and San Leandro, staying in each state two to three weeks at a time. Now, Eric remains close to his mother and has insight on the area.

- Growing up, Eric's parent's taught him the importance of hard work, the value of money and focusing on strong academics. His mother expected him to earn straight A's. When Reid wanted money to buy things, his parents made him get a job. He worked at a water park when he was 15 and at Wal-Mart at age 16. He would work four to eight hours a week, even between his regular high school football practices. Sharon bought him a 2001 Honda Civic, which the family still owns. But Eric had one ultimatum, if he wanted gas to be able to drive the car, he'd have to learn to budget his expenses.

- In addition to instilling high character into Eric, his mother made an impact on the gridiron. Sharon also played tackle football, spending one season for the Baton Rouge Wildcats of the Women's American Football League. She played tight end and defensive end in the full-contact, tackle league. However, the Wildcats only lasted one season when the team folded due to Hurricane Katrina.

- Made his NFL debut vs. GB (9/8), recording 7 tackles, 1 INT, 1 PD and 1 special teams tackle. His first career INT came off of Packers QB Aaron Rodgers. Reid became the first 49ers rookie to intercept a pass on opening day since both DB Don Griffin and CB Tim McKyer each registered an INT at TB (9/7/86).

- Registered his 2nd INT of the season, picking off a pass by Seahawks QB Russell Wilson vs. Sea. (9/15). According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Reid is the only 49ers rookie, since the merger in 1970, to register an INT in each of the team's first 2 games. The last rookie in the NFL to register an INT in the team's first 2 games was Phi. S Nate Allen in 2010.

- Notched a single-game career-high 9 tackles vs. Hou. (10/6), and also added 1 PD.

- Tallied 1 INT vs. Arz. (10/13), his 3rd of the season, picking off QB Carson Palmer and returning it 53 yds to the Cardinals 7-yd. line. Also recorded his first career FR, recovering a fumble by Arz. WR Larry Fitzgerald. The takeaway led to a 6-yd. TD run by RB Kendall Hunter.

- Recorded his first career special teams FR, picking up the loose ball after it was touched by Panthers CB Drayton Florence vs. Car. (11/10). The takeaway led to a 43-yd. FG by K Phil Dawson.

- The 49ers defense held Was. (11/25) to just 76 net yds. passing, the fewest net passing yds. San Francisco has allowed since 11/19/12 vs. Chi. (58 net yds. passing).

- Picked off QB Mike Glennon at TB (12/15), registering his 4th INT of the season. He also added 5 tackles and 1 PD.

ADAM

G

| HT 6-6 | WT 325 | COLLEGE OREGON |

BORN 1.30.82 // FULLERTON, CA // LA SERNA HS, WHITTIER, CA
10TH YEAR // ACQUIRED FA IN '13

Adam Snyder returned to the 49ers in 2013 after spending the 2012 season with the Arizona Cardinals. Originally a third-round draft pick by the 49ers in the 2005 NFL Draft, the 10-year veteran has the ability to play every position on the offensive line and has made starts at each. In 2013, Snyder played in all 16 games (four starts), filling in for Pro Bowl G Mike Iupati while he recovered from an injury. In 2012, Snyder started 14 total games during the regular season, making 11 starts at right guard and his first three career starts at center. His versatility, experience and knowledge of the game provides the 49ers with a valuable resource on the offensive line.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the second of two 3rd-round (94th overall) draft choices by SF in the 2005 NFL Draft...Signed a five-year unrestricted free agent contract with Arz. on 3/14/12...Waived by Arz. on 4/29/13... Signed two-year deal with SF on 5/6/13.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2011: Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award (Week 5)

// GOLDMINE

- During his first stint with the 49ers, Snyder partnered with the Canine Companions for Independence, a non-profit organziation which provides assistant and service dogs. Adam and his family hosted a fund raising party at his home, where he invited the people who used the service dogs. The Snyder family also owns two retired service dogs as pets.
- Ever since his freshman year in high school, Adam has made annual camping trips into the middle of the desert with his family and friends. "We've been setting up camp at the same place near Chiriaco Summit for years. It's basically in the middle of nowhere and we just ride 4x4's and enjoy one another's company."
- Growing up in Whittier, CA, Adam lived a short distance from the coast. He and his friends would often make the short drive to the beach, where they'd spend some time soaking in the rays and surfing. Due to the cold water in Oregon, Adam didn't surf in college, but he picked the sport back up when he was drafted by the 49ers in 2005. "On one of my first trips to Santa Cruz, I met a local shaper named Doug Haut. He shaped me a board and it kind of took off from there. I surfed quite a bit my first couple years in the league and try to get out there when I can these days." Adam now has a collection of five surfboards – three 10-footers, a nine-footer and a seven-foot fish – that he rides at the local breaks. His wife, Erika, learned how to surf in Hawaii and the couple enjoys the sport together.

- Since his early childhood, Adam has had aspirations to one day become a police officer. "It's been a line of work that has interested me for a long time. I imagine the camaraderie you build between your fellow officers is similar to the solidarity that's created among teammates on a football team. Everyone has each other's back." If Adam has any questions about joining the force, he doesn't need to turn far. His good friend and former 49ers teammate, Patrick Estes, joined the Santa Clara Police Department. Adam went on ride-alongs to get an up-close understanding of what being a police officer entails.
- Adam gained good work experience growing up in Whittier. He briefly served as a doughnut filler at Krispy Kreme Doughnuts before working a seasonal job at Honey Baked Hams, where he unloaded 50-60 pound boxes of meat into the freezer. Adam's most enjoyable job was at Rockview Dairy. "It wasn't your ordinary dairy, like milk and eggs. It was actually like a grocery store, it had everything. The coolest part was that it was a drive-thru. You'd just drive up, place your order and I'd go pick out the items from the back. I think it's weird that I haven't seen a similar type of place anywhere else."

| HT 6-5 | WT 315 | COLLEGE CENTRAL MICHIGAN |

BORN 8.30.84 // ROCKFORD, MI // ROCKFORD HS, ROCKFORD, MI
8TH YEAR // ACQUIRED D-1B IN '07

Tasked with the duty of protecting the quarterback's blind side, three-time All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection Joe Staley has excelled in his role since being selected as the second of San Francisco's two, first round draft picks in 2007. In addition to being named All Pro in 2011, 2012 and 2013, he was also selected to three consecutive Pro Bowls (2012-14). In 2013, Staley helped pave the way for a rushing attack that ranked 3rd in yards (2,201) and 4th in touchdowns (18). A product of Central Michigan, Staley became the first player in school history to be drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft. On July 17, 2014, Staley signed a two-year contract extension to keep him with the 49ers through the 2019 season.

// GOLDMINE

- Entering his sophomore season at Central Michigan, Staley and the football program experienced a coaching change. New head coach Brian Kelly and offensive line coach Jeff Quinn asked the young tight end to make the switch to offensive tackle. He agreed and the transformation began. The 250-pound tight end began to wake up at 2 a.m. to consume a 2,000 calorie weight-gaining shake and would later work out twice a day to prepare his body for its new life in the trenches. In the first offseason, Staley added 20 pounds to his lean frame. By the time he was a senior, he reached 290 pounds and went on to become the first Chippewa to be drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft.
- In 2013, Joe was an ambassador for San Francisco's first Electric Run, a 5K race that benefits Smile Train, the world's largest cleft lip and palate charity. The race, which was held at Candlestick Park, raised $10,000 for Smile Train and more than 8,000 people participated in the event. "Anything that benefits children is just a great cause and I was very excited to put my name down for the charity and the event itself," Staley said.

// CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Became the first 49ers rookie O-lineman to start every single game in a season since Cas Banaszek (1968-77), who started all 14 contests in 1968.
- Was 1 of only 3 NFL rookies (49ers LB Patrick Willis and Browns LT Joe Thomas) to line up for every single snap in 2007, and was 1 of 35 NFL players overall to accomplish the feat out of 1,898 total players.
- When Staley recovered a fumble for a TD [vs. NYJ (12/7/08)], he became the 6th offensive lineman in 49ers history to register a TD.

- Was part of an offensive line that helped amass the 2nd most total net yds. on opening day in 49ers franchise history with 494 yds. (404 passing yds. and 90 rushing yds.) vs. GB (9/8).
- Helped pave the way for 219 net yds. rushing at StL (9/26). It marked the first time the 49ers had three different RBs score a rushing TD in the same game since 12/2/01 vs. Buf. (Garrison Hearst, Fred Beasley and Paul Smith).
- The offensive line did not allow a sack on 17 total atts. by QB Colin Kaepernick and QB Colt McCoy at Jax. (10/27). The last time the 49ers did not allow a sack was 11/25/12 at NO. The 49ers also rushed for 221 yds. and 4 TDs on 38 carries at Jax., the most rushing yds. in a game by the team during the 2013 season. The 4 rushing TDs tied for the most by any team in a game in the NFL in 2013.
- Provided great running lanes for the offense to gain 199 rushing yds. on 30 atts. vs. Atl. (12/23). The 6.6 yds. per carry avg. was team's highest in any game during the 2013 season. It also marked just the second time in the season that the team had three players rush for over 50 yds. (Gore - 97; Kaepernick - 51; Hunter - 51).
- Staley hauled in his 2nd career recept. on a 14-yd. pass from QB Colin Kaepernick at Arz. (12/29). His first career recept. was on 10/30/11 vs. Cle. (17 yds.).

// 2012

- Staley and the 49ers O-Line won the 2012 Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award, recognizing the best O-Line in the NFL.
- The 49ers were 1 of just 3 teams to have the same 5 starting offensive linemen for every game in 2012 (Was. & NYJ).
- Paved the way as the team rushed for a season-high 245 yds. on 44 carries as 9 different players carried the ball at NYJ (9/30).
- Helped the 49ers offense set a team record with 621 total yds. (311 rushing, 310 passing) vs. Buf. (10/7), surpassing the 49ers previous franchise record of 598 vs. Buf. (9/13/92). San Francisco became the first team in NFL history to post 300-or-more yds. rushing and passing in the same game.
- Aided the 49ers offense as the team rushed for 175 yds. on 32 carries (5.5 avg.) vs. Sea. (10/18).
- Staley and the 49ers offensive line did not allow a sack on 25 pass attempts by QB Colin Kaepernick at NO (11/25). The performance earned the O-Line the Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award for Week 12.

- Part of offensive line vs. GB (1/12/13 - NFC-D) that helped the 49ers become the first team in NFL history to ever have two, 100-yd. rushers [QB Colin Kaepernick (181 yds. rushing), RB Frank Gore (119 yds. rushing)] and one, 100-yd. receiver [WR Michael Crabtree (119 yds. receiving)] in a playoff game in NFL history.
- Against the Packers, San Francisco amassed 579 total yds. of offense (323 rushing and 256 passing), setting a new single-game postseason franchise record. The previous record was 537 yds. (211 rushing and 326 passing) vs. Mia. (1/20/85) in Super Bowl XIX. The 49ers rushed for 323 yds. on the night, setting the franchise single-game postseason rushing record. The previous rushing record was also set in Super Bowl XIX (211 yds.).
- Staley and the 49ers offense became the first team in Super Bowl history to have a 300-yd. passer, a 100-yd. rusher and 2, 100-yd. receivers in a single game. QB Colin Kaepernick threw for 302 yds., RB Frank Gore added 110 yds. rushing, WR Michael Crabtree tallied 109 rec. yds. and TE Vernon Davis recorded 104 rec. yds vs. Bal. (2/3/13 - SB XLVII).

- Part of an offensive line that helped pave the way for RB Frank Gore to gain 100-plus rushing yds. in 5 consecutive games, setting a new franchise record.
- Staley and the 49ers offensive line did not allow a sack on 20 pass atts. by QB Alex Smith vs. Sea. (9/11).

- Off the football field, Tukuafu has a passion for construction. He has been active in the commercial construction industry since college and says that once his playing days are over, he'd like to have a more active role in it. He has completed several internships for a construction company and worked closely with an engineer and project manager to learn the inner workings of the business. He continues to stay in contact with them and plans to work with them during the offseason. He says one of the reasons that he enjoys construction so much is that he likes to see things built from the beginning to the end, and then being able to have a finished project to show for it.

The award is presented annually to a rookie or first-year player who has taken advantage of every opportunity, turned it into a positive and made their dream come true like Thomas Herrion, and is voted on by the coaches.

- Tukuafu takes great pride in his family and says if it wasn't for them, he wouldn't be where he is today. "My parents came here from Tonga in 1979 and worked as janitors to support our family. It's seeing the sacrifices that they made for us that motivates me to work hard and always give my best."

MICHAEL WILHOITE

LB

| HT 6-0 | WT 240 | COLLEGE WASHBURN |

BORN 12.7.86 // TOPEKA, KS // HIGHLAND PARK HS, TOPEKA, KS
3RD YEAR // ACQUIRED FA IN '11

Michael Wilhoite took advantage of his opportunities in 2013, starting two games in place of injured LB Patrick Willis, registering 19 tackles in those games. He began his professional football career with the Omaha Nighthawks of the UFL as an undrafted free agent in 2011. A short time later, the 49ers added him to the practice squad in December of 2011. Wilhoite attended training camp with the Niners in 2012, and was later signed to the team's practice squad where he spent the first 11 games of the season. He was promoted to the 49ers active roster for the final five games of 2012 and all three postseason contests. Wilhoite was the recipient of the team's Thomas Herrion Memorial Award in 2012, which is presented to a rookie or first-year player who best represents the dream of Thomas Herrion and makes the most of their opportunities.

// AWARDS & HONORS

2012: Thomas Herrion Award

// GOLDMINE

- Wilhoite took an interesting road to the NFL that began at Division II Washburn University in Topeka, KS. With two redshirt years, one due to an injury, Wilhoite spent six years developing his skills as a safety. Despite playing in the Cactus Bowl, the Division II all-star game, he did not latch on with a NFL team following his final season, in 2010. He later signed with the nearby Omaha Knighthawks of the UFL. "I had never played linebacker in my life until I got to the UFL. I used that experience as a research project. There were former first round picks on the team that I could learn what the NFL was like. The coaches had all worked in the NFL, so I made sure to pay attention to them in case I ever got a shot."

- He was the recipient of the 2012 Thomas Herrion Award. The award is presented annually to a rookie or first-year player who has taken advantage of every opportunity, turned it into a positive and made their dream come true like Thomas Herrion and is voted on by the coaches. After signing with the 49ers as an undrafted free agent from Washburn, Wilhoite made the 49ers practice squad and became a special teams captain after he was promoted to the team's active roster in December.

- A mass media major at Washburn, Wilhoite would one day like to be a sports commentator. While in school, he completed an internship at WIBW radio where he did everything from pre- and post-production to occasionally participating on air.

- He worked several part times jobs growing up, including Red Lobster. "I loved the job. I got to talk to people and I really wanted to make sure that their experience was really nice. They were spending good money, so I wanted to take care of them."

// 2013 (SAN FRANCISCO)

- Recorded 5 tackles in his first career start at StL (9/26). Part of a defense that held the Rams offense to only 18 yds. rushing on 19 carries, the 7th-best single-game defensive rushing performance in franchise history.
- Registered a single-game career high 14 tackles vs. Hou. (10/6), and also added 1 PD.

// 2012 (SAN FRANCISCO)

- Promoted to SF active roster on 11/30 after spending the first 12 weeks of the season on the SF practice squad.
- Made his NFL debut at StL (12/2) and tied the team lead with 2 special teams tackles.
- In just 5 games, recorded 7 special teams tackles, to rank 7th on the team.
- Tallied 4 special teams tackles in the postseason, tied for the team lead (TE Delanie Walker - 4).

// 2011 (SAN FRANCISCO)

- Spent the remainder of the season on the 49ers practice squad after signing on 12/14/11.

// 2011 UFL (OMAHA NIGHTHAWKS)

- Signed with the Nighthawks as an undrafted free agent and appeared in 4 games.

// COLLEGE

Played in 44 games (35 starts) at Washburn University and recorded 211 tackles and 3 INTs. A three-year captain (2008-10), was an honorable-mention all-conference pick in 2010. As a senior, he posted 81 tackles for the Ichabods after missing the 2009 season due to a stress fracture in his right shin. In 2008, he started 11 games recording 57 total tackles en route to Honorable Mention All-MIAA honors. Started all 12 games in 2007 and recorded 58 tackles, 3 INTs, 3 PDs, 2 FRs and 1 FF. He became the first Ichabod to return an INT for a TD in a post-season game as he picked off a pass returning it 27 yds. against West Texas A&M. Played in 9 games after making the switch from free safety to outside linebacker in 2009, recording 6 stops. Sat out the season as a redshirt freshman in 2005.

// PERSONAL

- Graduated from Highland Park (KS) HS.
- Awarded Six-Second Competitor of the Year (2008) at Washburn for his strong work ethic.
- Following his junior year in high school, Michael decided to move to Topeka to live with his grandparents, Shirley and Orville Buchheim, so that he could play basketball at highly rated Highland Park HS for head coach Ken Darding.
- As a senior in college, helped coach a high school girls basketball team.

- Enjoys reading the Bible and non-fiction books.
- Had a paper route in the first grade.
- While in high school, his baseball coach, Gwynn Riffel, gave him a part-time job handling landscaping at his home. To this day, Wilhoite leans on Riffel for life advice.
- Born Michael Wilhoite (12/7/86) in Topeka, KS.
- Majored in mass media with a minor in sociology.

IAN

DT

| HT 6-1 | WT 305 | COLLEGE NOTRE DAME |

BORN 8.31.89 // ALTAMONTE SPRINGS, FL // LYMAN HS, LONGWOOD, FL
4TH YEAR // ACQUIRED FA IN '11

Ian Williams has continued to grow and develop since signing with the 49ers as an undrafted free agent out of Notre Dame in 2011. After beginning 2013 as the 49ers starting nose tackle, his season was prematurely ended by a broken ankle suffered in Week 2. The team rewarded Williams with a two-year contract extension on March 7, 2013, keeping him in the red and gold through 2015. While at Notre Dame, former 49er Bryant Young coached Williams during his junior year and still talks to Young regularly, seeking his advice.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally signed as an undrafted free agent with SF on 7/27/11... Signed a two-year contract extension with SF on 3/11/13...Placed on the Injured Reserve List on 9/17/13.

// GOLDMINE

• Ian learned that one of the most important things you have to learn when entering the NFL is time management, and attributes much of the early lessons he's learned to the older veteran players. "Just seeing the older players has helped me. You'd think once you've been in the L=league for a few years, guys start to relax, but that's not the case here, especially with Justin Smith. Those are the guys who I'm around every day, Justin and Ray McDonald. Those guys are going hard every single day. They're coming in and doing extra stuff all the time."

• Ian values having relationships with people who have played in the league. Former 49er Bryant Young coached Ian during his junior year at Notre Dame. "Just to have him as a reference and to be able to talk to him about stuff is huge, especially since he was out here for so long. He's like a legend and is going to be a Hall-of-Famer. It's great to have somebody like that who you're able to talk to and just run things by him."

// 2013

• Made his first career start at Sea. (9/15), suffering a season-ending ankle injury, and was subsequently placed on Injured Reserve on 9/17.

// 2012

• Appeared in 3 games and tallied 6 tackles.

// 2011

• Made his NFL debut vs. TB (10/9) and recorded 1 tackle.

// COLLEGE

Played in 45 games (25 starts) for the Irish, registering 161 tackles, 1.5 sacks, 2 INTs, 13 TFLs and 3 PDs. As a senior, started all 8 games he appeared in, notching 37 tackles, 1.5 sacks, 1 INT, 3.5 TFLs and 1 PD. In 2009, played in 12 games (8 starts) and recorded 39 tackles, 1 INT, 6 TFLs and 1 PD. Played in 13 games (7 starts) as a sophomore and tallied 40 tackles, 2 TFLs and 1 PD. In 2007, named Second-Team Freshman All-American by The NFL Draft Report after registering 45 tackles and 1.5 TFLs in 12 games (2 starts).

// PERSONAL

• Attended Lyman (Longwood, FL) HS and was named first-team all-state as an offensive lineman by the Florida Sports Writers Association.

• Also named First-Team All-Central Florida as a defensive lineman by The Orlando Sentinel.

8TH YEAR // ACQUIRED D-1 IN '07

Arguably the greatest linebacker in the game to-day, Patrick Willis' sheer athleticism and knack for getting to the football make him an annual candidate for NFL Defensive Player of the Year. His superman-like performances week-in and week-out have contributed to the six-time All-Pro leading the NFL in tackles on multiple occasions. As the 11th overall selection in the 2007 NFL Draft, Willis made an immediate impact as a rookie, earning First-Team All-Pro, Pro Bowl and NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors. He has continued to build a resume that is destined for Canton. Not only has Willis been named All-Pro six times, but he has also earned Pro Bowl recognition every year, becoming the only 49er to earn Pro Bowl honors in each of their first seven seasons, and just the seventh player since the merger in 1970, to accomplish that feat. A team captain in 2013, he ranked 2nd on the team in tackles (147) and finished the season with 3.0 sacks, two forced fumbles and three passes defensed. The leader of the 49ers defense was rewarded with a five-year contract extension that will keep him in the Bay Area through 2016.

- Willis and his siblings were separated from his biological father when he was 16. He moved in with his guardians, the Finleys, who were in their 20's when they took in Patrick and his three other siblings. Chris Finley was a math teacher and Patrick's basketball coach in high school. Julie Finley taught 5th grade. He refers to Chris and Julie as mom and dad.

- Willis believes several of the jobs he held as a youth have made him into the hard-working person he is today. At the ripe age of 10, Patrick worked in a cotton field to help financially support his family. "My grandmother got me a job chopping cotton. I got $110 a week for chopping the weeds around the cotton so it could grow." Patrick's next job was in masonry, where he would mix mortar for the building of structures. He then worked alongside his father, who was a logger. "I would use a chainsaw and cut the limbs off. It was a pretty crazy job, I would get cut up all over." When Willis was a sophomore and junior in high school, he would perform general maintenance around the school, which included waxing all the floors on the property.

- Willis was a standout basketball player at Central High School, where he averaged close to 20 points and 10 rebounds per game throughout his career. An all-district, all-region and All-West Tennessee selection, Willis played every position on the court and was named the district's Most Valuable Player. It wasn't on the black-top where he crafted his game, but rather on the dirt in front of his house. At the age of 7, Willis, his brother and his dad constructed a basketball hoop from cedar planks. For the next 10 years, one could often find Willis and his family playing toe-to-toe on that very same hoop. "That's what kept me busy. We didn't have sport clubs, malls or movie theatres nearby. All we had was each other."

- Competition is what has driven Willis throughout his life. "I love to compete, no matter what sport it is. Basketball, baseball, football, golf, bowling, fishing, whatever. Basketball was my first love. I played everything, guard, forward, center. In baseball, I played everything too, except for catcher." Willis set the record for most home runs in his Little League. He started playing golf with his dad, Chris Finley, when he was 16. "Even though I'm not too good, I love to compete."

- One of Willis' biggest influences growing up was his uncle, Arthur Joe Willis, who was a professional light-heavyweight boxer from 1989-2000, and competed in 33 pro fights. Willis looked up to his uncle because he was able to make a name for himself as a successful boxer. Arthur matched up against James "Lights Out" Toney in 1990, and Toney later went on to beat former heavyweight champion Evander Holyfield in 2003.

- Since moving to the Bay Area, Willis has been able to purchase a house of his own. "Buying my house in the Bay Area was awesome, truly a blessing. To grow up in a house like I grew up in and then now to have my real, own house that I can call home feels amazing. I'm truly grateful." Having his own house has served as a great place for his family to come and visit. Pat, being the leader he is both on the field and off, also uses his house to host team get-togethers to bring the guys closer together. "I think having get-togethers at my house, hanging out with teammates and getting to know them off-the-field is big. At the end of the day, one or two guys don't win as a team, three guys don't win as a team, the whole group does. And I think we've built a camaraderie hanging out like we did last year, having get-togethers, just bonding time because it's like family."

- Willis has a variety of tattoos, with each carrying its own special meaning. One of his most inspirational tattoos is the word 'Believe' on his forearm. "When a person says 'I think,' I feel that leaves room for doubt. If I want to do something, I want to 'believe' I can do it, not just think." Willis has three tear drop tattoos, which signify three significant people that have passed away in his life – his grandfather, uncle and brother.

- Tragedy struck Willis' family right before his senior year at Ole Miss. His brother, Detris, drowned in a swimming hole when he was just 17 years old. Detris was a talented FB/LB who was heading into his senior year at Central High School and was a Division I-A prospect. In memory of his late brother, Willis had the Superman shield tattooed on his chest. "We both loved Superman growing up. We were strong no matter what, but also had our weaknesses." Below Willis' Superman tattoo reads, "My brother shall rise again." "I believe someday when my time on earth is over, I'll see him again."

- In 2007 and 2009, Willis was named the recipient of the 49ers Bill Walsh Award. The Bill Walsh Award is voted on by the coaches and awarded to the 49ers team MVP. He is 1 of 3 players in franchise history to win the award twice (RB Frank Gore, DT Justin Smith).

WARD

DB

HT 5-11 | WT 193 | COLLEGE NORTHERN ILLINOIS

BORN 7.18.91 // MOBILE, AL // W.P. DAVIDSON HS, MOBILE, AL
ROOKIE // ACQUIRED D-1 IN '14

Jimmie Ward, a two-time First-Team All-Mid-American Conference selection, is a versatile defensive back from Northern Illinois University. One of two defensive backs to amass over 300 career tackles, he has the ability to play both safety and corner. As a senior, Ward ranked 7th in the nation with seven interceptions, en route to earning Second-Team All-America and First-Team All-MAC honors. In 2010, he made an immediate impact for the Huskies, being named the team's Special Teams Player of the Year and Freshman of the Year.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally a 1st-round (30th overall) draft choice by SF in 2014.

// GOLDMINE

- Growing up in Mobile, AL, Ward knew when to separate himself from others in his neighborhood. Said Ward, "From where I come from, the neighborhood that I grew up in, a lot of people don't make it out. There's a lot of stuff. They either flunk out of school, end up having a child so they have to drop out of school and raise that child, or end up going to jail. It really just made me want to do something more than what my peers were doing." Ward would surround himself with positive influences to help combat the negative. "As I got older I hung out with positive guys. The guys I was hanging with, they wanted to do something with their life too. That really helped me out."

- On draft day, Ward drove several hours for the opportunity to do something for his mother that he never had before; buy her a luxurious gift. He said, "I never really bought her anything expensive, because you're a kid. Growing up you would write a card, color a card or just buy a card or simple flowers. That's the most I ever did. She likes purses, so I just decided to get her a purse. It really didn't matter how much it cost, you just wanted to see that smile." His act of generosity shows his true character. "I'm not a selfish person. I just like to see and make other people smile too. It makes me feel better as a person."

- While playing youth football, Ward went by the nickname 'Nico' and was teammates with former Alabama QB AJ McCarron with the Mobile Youth Football's Municipal Raiders. He played linebacker for the team that won multiple Youth Bowl Championships in Mobile.

- Ward's family is no stranger to professional athletics. He is the cousin of current NBA player, Caron Butler.

- Hyde credits three people in particular for helping him achieve success. "I credit my mom, my grandmother and Bill Kramer, my high school coach. He is basically the one that got me on the right path. Coming from Cincinnati, I wasn't on the right track grade-wise. So, he got me on the right track and got me caught up with my grades." In addition to helping him with everything off the field, he is directly responsible for how Hyde lines up on the grid-iron. "I was actually trying to play defense in high school and he let me play running back. He's just always been there for me. He's a real good guy."

- After spending his first year of high school in Cincinnati, he moved to Naples, FL, to live with his grandparents. "It was definitely for the better. I was headed down the wrong route in Cincinnati. Moving to Naples got me on the right route and back into sports and I was fortunate enough to earn a scholarship."

- Hyde has always been a competitive person and that's helped him get to where he is today. "I think that my competitiveness came from having best friends that played the same sports. So, it's like you want to be the best at those sports because everybody recognizes the best."

A team captain and First-Team All-Pac-12 selection for the Trojans in 2013, Marcus Martin proved he could play both center and guard during his three-year collegiate career. He anchored Southern California's offensive line in 2013, helping the Trojans rushing attack score 29 touchdowns on the ground. In 2011, the Los Angeles native become the first true freshman lineman to start at offensive guard at USC since 2004.

- Martin grew up in a large family with two brothers and two sisters. Despite being the youngest of the five children, Martin is the first member of his family to go to college. He credits two of his family members in particular for making him the man he is today, "Having the guidance and the leadership that I had from my brother and my father, they kept me off the streets, they kept me from doing everything that was wrong and doing positive things."

- Martin has a passion for charity work and believes in giving back. Although he's in just his rookie season, he's already got big plans for community work in his hometown of Crenshaw, CA. "I plan on opening up my non-profit and I want to help as many people as I can, touch as many lives as I can," explained Martin. "Coming from where I come from, there's not a lot of hope. So, if I can do anything, I'll pass on some words of advice to the youngsters." He continued, "It's a non-profit that's going to facilitate tutoring and mentorship and kind of act as a safe haven for kids to come after school."

- One particular charitable organization caught the attention of Martin back in college. "I did something a few months ago with the Starkey Foundation. The Starkey Foundation is an organization that creates hearing aids for kids that are deaf. They go around the country doing that and also out of the states. In the United States, they do digital, and out of the states, they do analog because it's easier to maintain. I got the opportunity to do something at USC with the Starkey Foundation and I had a great time."

- Despite being an All-American linebacker at the University of Wisconsin, Borland was a spectator to the game until the 9th grade, as his father didn't want his son playing youth football and suggested he play soccer instead. "Dad just made us wait to play tackle football until high school. I don't think he saw a lot of benefit in youth football." In addition to soccer, he played a lot of basketball as well as sports other than football.

- There always seemed to be competition in the Borland household. The fifth of six boys in the family, three of Chris' older brothers each played college athletics. BORN 2.8.91 // SPARTANBURG, SC // PAUL M. DORMAN HS, SPARTANBURG, SC

Brandon Thomas was a mainstay on the offensive line at Clemson, helping pave the way for the Tigers offense as they amassed over 6,000 yards from scrimmage in each of the past three seasons. He was named First-Team All-ACC in 2013, and Second-Team All-ACC in 2012. Thomas was also selected to the ACC Academic Honor Roll twice during his collegiate career.

// TRANSACTIONS

Originally the third of three 3rd-round (100th overall) draft choices by SF in 2014.

- The word versatile has been used frequently to describe Thomas on the football field. During his days at Paul M. Dorman (Spartanburg, SC) High School, Thomas played guard his freshman and sophomore years, tackle his junior year and tight end/fullback his senior year. He took that versatility with him to Clemson, where he predominantly played tackle, starting 30 games at the position, but he also started nine games at guard for the Tigers. Through all of his experience, Thomas knows what it takes to be successful at both the tackle and guard positions and will use that to his advantage with the 49ers. "Basically, out there (at tackle) you have to have quick feet and good hips," Thomas said. "But inside (at guard), you have to be strong and have a solid base."

- Despite a knee injury late in the draft process, Thomas is aware of the positive situation that surrounds him with the Niners. He understands that there is an established offensive line that will work with him to improve. "This injury could be a blessing in disguise," Thomas said. "To take a year to learn from those guys, and get stronger, get better, get my knee stronger. So, it's going to be a fun process."

- Johnson, a sports management and business administration major, spent the summer prior to his senior year as a sports marketing intern with French West Vaughan, a marketing/public relations firm based out of Raleigh, NC. During his internship, he worked with some high-profile athletes and clients which provided great experience. "I actually got to do a few things with MoGo, the flavored mouthpiece that [49ers QB] Colin [Kaepernick] actually wears. I did that and then I did a few things for [Cincinnati Bengals DT] Geno Atkins, getting him some suits for the ESPY's." Johnson believes if he weren't a professional football player, that he had found his calling in sports marketing. He said, "That was definitely something I would do. Just the interaction with players and businesses, I felt like that was cool."
- Hauling in 50 passes for 600 yards and 13 touchdowns is an impressive stat-line for a two-way player, which is exactly what Johnson was in high school. He split time as a receiver and defensive back during his time at Pennington Prep (NJ) High School. What made Johnson focus his attention on the defensive side of the ball moving forward? He credited a defensive mentality. Johnson said, "I was more of a physical player. Just the fact that I liked playing defense better. Playing basketball, I had a defensive mindset. So, I guess it just translated to football. I always had a defensive mindset."

Dawson connected from 33–yds., ex–tending the 49ers lead to 34–28 with just 26 seconds remaining. SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 15
SAN FRANCISCO 3, SEATTLE 29
CENTURYLINK FIELD

The 49ers played in a hostile environment at CenturyLink Field and departed from Seattle with their first loss of the 2013 season. On their first drive of the day, San Francisco went three–and–out but the defense forced Seattle into a three–and–out as well. As the Seahawks lined up for their first punt of the day, S Craig Dahl came flying from the left side to register his first–career blocked punt. It marked the first blocked punt by the 49ers since LB Larry Grant blocked P Robert Malone's punt at NYJ (9/30/12). After moving the ball to the Seahawks 5–yd. line, QB Colin Kaepernick's pass was tipped into the air by CB Walter Thurmond and intercepted by S Earl Thomas. Just five plays later, Seahawks QB Russell Wilson threw a deep ball that was inter–cepted by 49ers rookie S Eric Reid. On the play, Reid became the first rookie since the merger in 1970 to record interceptions in each of the team's first two games. Neither team managed to put together a scoring drive during the first quarter, which was temporarily suspended due to severe weather with 3:13 remaining. After a one–hour delay, play resumed at 7:05 PM PDT. With 10:44 remaining in the second quarter, 49ers FB Bruce Miller was flagged for holding in the end zone, resulting in a safety. The Seahawks received the punt and quickly were forced into another three–and–out. Choosing not to punt, QB Russell Wilson was stopped for no gain and the ball was turned over on downs. Two plays later, QB Colin Kaepernick had the ball stripped from behind by DE Cliff Avril, which was recovered by LB K.J. Wright at the SF 29–yd. line. The 49ers defense stalled the Seattle offense forcing a 30–yd. FG by K Steven Hauschka, extending Seattle's lead to 5–0. On the opening possession of the second half, Seattle went on a 10–play, 80–yd. drive highlighted by a 51–yd. pass to WR Doug Baldwin, with RB Marshawn Lynch capping off the drive with a 14–yd. TD run. San Francisco responded with a 9–play, 71–yd. drive of their own, but was forced to settle for a 21–yd. FG by K Phil Dawson. Seattle moved right back downfield, aided by two 49ers penalties totaling 54 yds. With 13:51 left in the game, QB Russell Wil–son connected with RB Marshawn Lynch on a 7–yd. TD pass, extending the Seahawks lead to 19–3. Following an INT by CB Richard Sherman, K Steven Hauschka made a 37–yd. FG. After a Seattle punt, QB Colin Kaepernick was intercepted by S Kam Chancellor, who returned it to the SF 2–yd. line. RB Marshawn Lynch found the end zone on the next play with a 2–yd TD run, making it 29–3 with 4:26 remaining in the game.

NOTES: S Eric Reid registered his 2nd INT of the season, picking off a pass by Seahawks QB Russell Wilson. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Reid is the only 49ers rookie, since the merger in 1970, to register an INT in each of the team's first two games. The last rookie in the NFL to register an INT in the team's first two games was Phi. S Nate Allen in 2010...DL Glenn Dorsey notched his first sack as a member of the 49ers, and the 5th of his ca–reer, bringing down Seahawks QB Russell Wilson...LB Aldon Smith brought down Wilson two times, giving him 3.5 sacks on the season and 37.0 for his career. This marked Smith's 10th career game, and first of the season, with 2.0–or–more sacks. Since 2011, Smith's 37.0 sacks rank first in the NFL... LB Ahmad Brooks tallied his first sack of the season, 27.5 for his career, as he also brought down Wilson...S Craig Dahl registered his first–career blocked punt on Seahawks P Jon Ryan. It marked the first blocked punt by the 49ers since LB Larry Grant blocked P Robert Malone's punt at NYJ (9/30/12)...QB Colin Kaepernick set a regular season career–high with 87 yds. rushing on 9 atts...TE Garrett Celek and NT Ian Williams each made their first–career start.

The 49ers rebounded on the road with a rout of the St. Louis Rams, 35–11, on Thursday Night Football. The Rams got on the board first when K Greg Zuerlein converted a 40–yd. FG att. with 7:13 remaining in the 1st qtr. Fol–lowing several punts back and forth, the 49ers responded with a lengthy 80–yd. TD drive. A 27–yd. rush by RB Frank Gore and a 42–yd. pass from QB Colin Kaepernick to WR Anquan Boldin helped move the 49ers within striking distance of the end zone. On 3rd and 19, Kaepernick found Boldin, who tiptoed the sideline and lunged into the end zone, giving the 49ers a 7–3 lead with 6:22 remaining in the 2nd qtr. On the ensuing possession, Rams QB Sam Bradford threw a deep ball into the end zone that was tipped into the air by CB Tramaine Brock and intercepted by S Donte Whitner for a touchback. Kaepernick connected with four different receivers as the 49ers moved the ball into Rams territory. After a first–down run on 3rd and 1 by Frank Gore was reversed, the 49ers chose not to kick on 4th down. Instead, the ball was handed off to Gore, who received great blocking and outran the defense 34 yards to the corner of the end zone to give the 49ers a 14–3 lead. The Niners forced a very quick three–and–out and received the ball at the SF 39–yd. line. With 0:04 remaining in the first half, K Phil Dawson attempted a free–kick 71–yd. FG, which missed wide left. On the second play from scrimmage in the second half, RB Frank Gore was stripped by Rams LB Alec Ogletree and the ball was recovered by S Rodney McLeod at the SF 44–yd. line. Despite the great field position, the Rams offense was stifled and was forced to punt. The Niners then went on an 11–play, 88 yd. TD drive, capped off with a 12–yd. pass from QB Colin Kaepernick to TE Vernon Davis to extend the lead to 21–3. With 11:18 remaining in the game, 49ers LB NaVorro Bowman sacked QB Sam Bradford forcing a fumble. After a scramble to recover the loose ball, 49ers DT Tony Jerod–Eddie pounced on it at the StL 3–yd. line. Two plays later, RB Anthony Dixon found the end zone from 1–yd. out. The Rams scored their first TD of the game four plays after a 49ers turnover when Bradford connected with TE Lance Kendricks for a 6–yd. score. After a successful two–point conversion, the 49ers lead was trimmed to 28–11. The 49ers were handed great field position af–ter the onside kick attempt went out of bounds. The 49ers extended the lead to 35–11 when RB Kendall Hunter found the end zone with a 29–yd. TD run, marking the first time the 49ers have had three different running backs score a rushing TD in the same game since 12/2/01 vs. Buf. (Garrison Hearst, Fred Beasley, Paul Smith). CANDLESTICK PARK

The 49ers defeated division–rival Arizona 32–20 to earn their third con–secutive victory. On just the Cardinals third pass attempt of the game, 49ers rookie S Eric Reid jumped a short route over the middle to record his 3rd INT of the season. Reid returned the pick 53 yds. to the ARZ 7–yd. line and K Phil Dawson converted a 35–yd. FG att. four plays later to give the 49ers a 3–0 lead. Later in the 1st qtr., the 49ers defense stepped up with another takeaway as CB Carlos Rogers intercepted a deep pass over the middle and returned it 11 yds. to the ARZ 11. The Niners extended their lead to 6–0 when K Phil Dawson made a 26–yd. FG with 4:35 remaining in the 1st qtr. The Cardinals took the lead just 1:25 later when QB Carson Palmer connected with WR Larry Fitzgerald on a 75–yd. catch–and–run TD. The 49ers then engineered a lengthy drive, but QB Colin Kaepernick has his pass intercepted by Cardinals S Yeremiah Bell in the end zone and fell forward to the 1 yd.–line. Three plays later, the Niners regained the lead when rookie LB Corey Lemonier came on a speed rush and sacked Palmer in the end zone for a safety. Just two plays after receiving the ball following the safety, the 49ers extended their lead to 15–7 as Kaepernick found TE Vernon Davis sprinting downfield for a 61–yd. TD. On the ensuing posses–sion, the Cardinals answered with a TD drive of their own. Arizona used two long pass plays to get into the red zone and RB Andre Ellington capped it off with a 15–yd. TD run to make the score 15–14 with 7:09 remaining in the first half. Late in the 2nd qtr., the 49ers put together the final scoring drive of the first half. After receiving the ball to start the second half, the 49ers punted to the Cardinals who produced a nine–play, 61–yd. scoring drive. Carson Palmer connected with WR Michael Floyd for a 10–yd. TD pass , but a failed two–point conversion left the score 22–20. Despite a 32–yd. run by Frank Gore on the first play of the next series, the 49ers were forced to punt. The Car–dinals used their next possession to drive again, but 49ers LB Patrick Willis stripped Fitzgerald at the SF 23–yd. line. The loose ball was scooped up by Niners S Eric Reid at the SF 11. After getting the ball back, the 49ers used an efficient pass game and a powerful run game to march downfield. On the eighth consecutive run of the drive, RB Kendall Hunter scored from 6 yds. out to extend the lead to 29–20. The 18–play, 89–yd. drive lasted an NFL season–long 9:32. The Niners defense forced the Cardinals' 4th turnover of the game just two plays into their next drive when Lemonier stripped Cardi–nals RB Alfonso Smith, which was recovered by 49ers LB NaVorro Bowman. K Phil Dawson made a 44–yd. FG, his 3rd FG of the game, to give the 49ers a 32–20 lead with 4:20 remaining in the game. Despite LB Patrick Willis recovering the loose ball, the turnover was negated due to a penalty for a blow to the head and neck area of the quarterback. The Saints retained possession and tied the game with a 42–yd. FG from K Garrett Hartley. San Francisco was forced to punt on the next series and the Saints began from the NO 40. The 49ers dropped a hard–fought battle with the Seahawks in the NFC Championship Game, 23–17. The 49ers punted on the opening series of the second half. Seattle then drove 60 yds. in 4 plays, including a 40–yd. TD run by RB Marshawn Lynch, to tie the game at 10–10. San Francisco responded with a 6–play, 83–yd. drive that was capped off with a 26–yd. TD pass from Kaepernick to WR Anquan Boldin, giving the Niners a 17–10 lead. Seahawks WR Doug Baldwin took the ensuing kickoff 69 yds., which set up a 40–yd. FG six plays later to make the score 17–13 with 3:55 remaining in the 3rd qtr. Following a punt by the 49ers, Seattle put together an 8–play, 62–yd. drive that resulted in points when QB Russell Wilson found WR Jermaine Kearse in the end zone for a 35–yd. TD pass to give Seattle a 20–17 lead. Following a turnover on each of the next three series, Seahawks K Steven Hauschka made the score 23–17 with 3:37 remaining in the game by connecting on a 47–yd. QB Joe Montana capped a brilliant day with a six–yard touchdown pass to WR Dwight Clark late in the fourth quarter to overcome a six–point deficit. "The Catch," as it would come to be known, capped a 13–play, 89–yard drive that took over four minutes off the clock. Montana finished the day with 286 yards on 22–of–35 passing and three touchdowns. Clark posted eight receptions for 120 yards and two touchdowns.

(Pontiac, MI)

QB Joe Montana accounted for two first half touchdowns and K Ray Wersching added two field goals as San Francisco built a 20–0 lead at the half and held on for a 26–21 victory over the Bengals for its first Super Bowl Championship. Montana scored on a one–yard run in the first quarter and in the second he led the team on a 12–play, 92–yard drive that resulted in an 11–yard scoring toss to FB Earl Cooper. For the game, Montana completed 14–of–22 passes for 157 yards. Wersching also had an impressive outing. The veteran kicker connected on all four field goal attempts in the game, hitting from 22, 26, 40 and 23 yards. The 49ers defense kept the potent Bengals attack in check for much of the game. Cincinnati QB Ken Anderson warmed up in the second half with three touchdowns, two of them on pass plays to TE Dan Ross, but two fourth quarter field goals by Wersching put the game out of reach. LB Jack Reynolds keyed the 49ers defense with seven tackles and one sack. LB Bob Leopold also recorded seven tackles and NT Archie Reese added six stops.

January 8 at RFK Stadium
(Washington, DC)

Mark Moseley connected on a 25–yard field goal with 40 seconds remaining to hand San Francisco a heartbreaking 24–21 defeat in the NFC Championship Game at RFK Stadium. The defeat was especially hard to swallow after the 49ers fought back from a 21–0 deficit with 21 fourth–quarter points. QB Joe Montana hit WR Mike Wilson on a five–yard scoring strike 30 seconds into the fourth, snapping the shutout. On the next 49ers possession, Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 76–yard bomb to pull within seven at 21–14. The Redskins went three–and–out on their next possession, which led to another Montana–to–Wilson touchdown and a tie ballgame. Unfortunately for the 49ers, the Redskins would launch a six–minute drive that led to the Moseley field goal and the end of the season. Montana finished the game with his typically excellent numbers: 27–of–48 for 347 yards and three touchdowns. Solomon caught eight passes for 106 yards and one touchdown. DT Pete Kugler led the defensive charge with 10 tackles. He was joined by S Carlton Williamson with eight tackles and LBs Riki Ellison and Keena Turner had six stops each.

On the Giants next possession, it was S Ronnie Lott who intercepted a QB Phil Simms pass and returned it 38 yards to the New York 12–yard line. Two plays later, Montana hit TE Russ Francis on a nine–yard strike to extend the lead to 14–0. New York would pull within three following LB Harry Carson's interception and touchdown return off a tipped Montana pass seven minutes into the second quarter. 49ers 20, Cincinnati Bengals 16
Super Bowl XXIII
(Miami, FL)

In what proved to be the most exciting Super Bowl game of the decade, it was the play of a collected veteran that delivered San Francisco its third NFL Championship. QB Joe Montana connected on 23–of–36 passes for 357 yards, but no completion would be more important than his last. The game opened at a stand still with neither team having any ability to move the ball offensively. San Francisco opened the scoring on a 41–yard field goal by K Mike Cofer late in the first quarter. The Bengals responded with K Jim Breech's 34–yard field goal and the teams headed to the half locked in a 3–3 tie. The third quarter began with the teams trading field goals before the Bengals broke the touchdown draught. Following a 49ers field goal, Cincinnati KR Stanford Jennings took the Cofer kickoff and returned it 93 yards for a touchdown. It didn't take long for San Francisco to respond. Montana hit WR Jerry Rice for a 31–yard completion and followed that with a swing pass that RB Roger Craig turned into a 40–yard gain. Two plays and 16 seconds later, Montana found Rice in the corner of the end zone for a 10–yard touchdown. An 11–play, 46–yard drive by the Bengals resulted in a 46–yard field goal by Breech, giving Cincinnati a 16–13 lead and leaving the 49ers just 3:20 on the clock. San Francisco received the kickoff and returned it to the 20, but a penalty moved the ball back to the eight–yard line. What happened next is legendary. Montana connected on five consecutive passes to move the ball to the Bengals 35. A holding penalty moved the ball back 10 yards, but Montana responded with a 27–yard completion to Rice and another first down. A quick hit to Craig followed by a timeout left the Niners with second and two from the Bengals 10–yard line. Following the timeout, Montana hit WR John Taylor in the middle of the end zone for a touchdown and San Francisco had its third Super Bowl title of the decade.

The 49ers erupted for 28 consecutive points before halftime to put the game away early. Just 20 seconds after the Vikings initial score, Montana connected with WR Jerry Rice for the first of his four touchdown passes of the afternoon. The play started simply enough before, in true Rice fashion, he turned a seven–yard gain into a 72–yard touchdown. Following an interception by S Chet Brooks, Montana hit TE Brent Jones for an eight–yard touchdown pass and the rout was on. Montana would add touchdown passes to WR John Taylor and another to Rice before handing the game over to reserve QB Steve Young. On the day, Montana completed 17–of–24 passes for 241 yards. The 49ers defense would also contribute a score, courtesy of S Ronnie Lott, who intercepted a QB Tommy Kramer pass and returned it 58 yards for a touchdown.

FB William Floyd rushed for three touchdowns and the 49ers defense held Chicago to just 247 yards in a 44–15 rout of the Bears. Floyd's three scores established him as the first rookie to hit paydirt three times in an NFL playoff game. The Bears actually took an early 3–0 lead on a 39–yard field goal by K Kevin Butler. The Niners bounced back, however, lighting up the scoreboard for 37 unanswered points to put the game away. San Francisco's first points were the result of a 13–play, 68–yard drive that ended with a two–yard run by Floyd. CB Eric Davis then intercepted QB Steve Walsh on the Bears next possession and moments later, QB Steve Young connected with TE Brent Jones for an eight–yard scoring play. The Niners continued to roll in the second quarter, increasing the lead to 30–3 at the half on touchdown runs by Floyd and Young, sandwiched around a K Doug Brien field goal. Floyd's third touchdown of the game midway through the third quarter increased the lead to 37–3 and completed the afternoon's work for many of the San Francisco starters. Five plays later, QB Steve Young hit FB Ricky Watters in the flat on a play that produced a 29–yard touchdown and a 14–0 lead. The ensuing kickoff saw 49ers RB Adam Walker jar the ball loose from Dallas returner Kevin Williams and K Doug Brien recovered the fumble. It took seven plays before FB William Floyd plunged in from the one to make it 21–0 with 7:33 remaining in the first quarter. Dallas began its comeback on the next series. Facing third and 23 from the San Francisco 44, Aikman hit Irvin for a touchdown that cut the score to 21–7. Following a Brien field goal of 34 yards, RB Emmitt Smith capped a 63–yard drive with a four–yard run that narrowed the gap to 24–14. The crucial point in the game came seconds before the first half expired. With eight seconds remaining, Young found WR Jerry Rice for a 28–yard score, giving the 49ers a 31–14 lead heading into the locker room. The teams traded touchdowns in the second half with the 49ers holding off a strong Dallas charge in the fourth quarter. Young completed 13–of–29 passes for 155 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed for 47 yards and another score. Watters led the ground game, compiling 72 yards, while TE Brent Jones and Floyd each had three receptions. Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. paced the squad with 10 tackles, while Davis and McDonald added seven. Davis also had two interceptions and a forced fumble. CB Deion Sanders had an interception, along with five passes defensed, while DT Rhett Hall and DE Tim Harris each had two sacks.

49ers 49, San Diego Chargers 26
Super Bowl XXIX
(Miami, FL)

QB Steve Young set a Super Bowl record with six touchdown passes and WR Jerry Rice hauled in three scoring passes for the second time in his career in the world championship game. The 49ers stars led an offensive explosion that carried the team to a 49–26 win over San Diego. San Francisco wasted little time getting on the scoreboard as it took just three plays following the game's opening kickoff to crack the Chargers end zone. Following a FB William Floyd four–yard run and an 11–yard pass from Young to WR John Taylor, Young connected with Rice streaking down the middle of the field for a 44–yard scoring strike. Following a San Diego punt, San Francisco was back in the end zone again after only three plays as Young, once again, challenged the middle of the Chargers defense, this time with a pass to RB Ricky Watters, which netted a 51–yard score. The Chargers made things close for awhile, however, putting together a 13–play, 78–yard drive that concluded with a RB Natrone Means one–yard touchdown plunge to make it 14–7 after one quarter of play. The 49ers began to break the game open in the second quarter. They followed the San Diego touchdown with a 70–yard drive that culminated with a five–yard scoring pass from Young to Floyd. Two possessions later, following a partially blocked punt by RB Adam Walker, the Niners drove 49 yards for another score on an eight–yard toss from Young to Watters. K John Carney's 31–yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining in the half closed the margin at intermission to 28–10. The Niners put the game away in the third quarter, running the lead to 42–10 on a pair of long drives that ended with Watters' third score of the evening, a nine–yard blast up the middle, and a 15–yard pass from Young to Rice. Rice caught his third touchdown of the night on a seven–yard toss from Young in the fourth quarter, enabling Young to break QB Joe Montana's record of five Super Bowl touchdown passes. Young was named the game's Most Valuable Player, while Rice turned in the second best receiving performance in Super Bowl history with 10 catches for 149 yards, while tying his own record with three scoring receptions.

Green Bay Packers 27, 49ers 17
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 6 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

Aided by a swarming defense that caused four turnovers, the Green Bay Packers defeated the 49ers 27–17 at 3Com Park. A record crowd of 69,311 saw the Packers advance to the NFC Championship Game, while the 49ers one–year reign as world champions ended with an overall record of 11–6. Green Bay took its opening drive and marched to the San Francisco 26 before settling for a field goal attempt. However, K Chris Jacke's 44–yard attempt was blocked by S Tim McDonald and the 49ers took over at their 34. On the first play from scrimmage, QB Steve Young hit FB Adam Walker in the flat, but LB Wayne Simmons jarred the ball loose and CB Craig Newsome returned the fumble 31 yards for the touchdown. Green Bay also scored on its next two possessions, a three–yard pass from QB Brett Favre to TE Keith Jackson and a 13–yard toss from Favre to TE Mark Chmura. San Francisco scored its first points of the game late in the half when K Jeff Wilkins nailed a 21–yard field goal with two minutes remaining. The 49ers took their first possession of the third quarter and marched 80 yards for a touchdown, when Young plunged in from the one, cutting the deficit to 21–10. On the 14–play drive, Young was 9–of–10 and ran the ball twice. Again, the Packers responded to the challenge, using a pair of Jacke field goals (27 yards in the third quarter, 26 yards in the fourth quarter), and boosted Green Bay's lead to 27–10. San Francisco's final score of the season came on a two–yard plunge by RB Derek Loville with 50 seconds remaining in the game. Young completed 32 passes in an NFL postseason record 65 attempts, for 328 yards and two interceptions. He also led the 49ers in rushing, gaining 77 yards in nine attempts, including a 40–yard sprint after he was flushed from the pocket. WR Jerry Rice led the receivers with 11 catches for 117 yards, while TE Brent Jones gained 112 yards on eight receptions. Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield recorded a team–high 10 tackles and a sack for a loss of five yards, while LB Ken Norton Jr. added nine tackles.

49ers 14, Philadelphia Eagles 0
NFC Wild Card
December 29 at 3Com Park
(San Francisco, CA)

On a wet and windy Sunday at 3Com Park, San Francisco opened its 1996 postseason by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles 14–0 in the NFC Wild Card Game. Led by their marquee players QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice on offense, and a defense that recorded the team's first postseason shutout since the 1984 NFC Championship Game, the 49ers advanced to the NFC Divisional Playoff round. Following a scoreless first quarter, Young led the offense on a 10–play, 74–yard drive that concluded with the Pro Bowl quarterback scoring on a gutty nine–yard run off a quarterback draw. On that play Young broke four tackles while fighting his way to paydirt. Twice in the second quarter the Eagles mounted long drives only to be denied just short of the endzone by Niners interceptions. Philadelphia's first trip ended with CB Marquez Pope intercepting a QB Ty Detmer pass on San Francisco's seven–yard line. Late in the quarter the Eagles marched 59 yards on 10 plays moving to the 49ers five–yard line. Facing third and four, Detmer's attempt to WR Chris T. Jones was picked off by DE Roy Barker, who had dropped off into zone–blitz coverage. The only scoring in the second half occurred on the Niners second possession of the third quarter. On that drive, Rice made a spectacular one–handed catch that resulted in a 36–yard gain. He scored on a three–yard pass from Young on the next play from scrimmage. Young finished as the game's leading rusher with 65 yards, while also completing 14–of–21 tosses for 161 yards. Rice had four catches for 50 yards and his 19th career postseason touchdown (17th receiving). RB Terry Kirby added 43 yards rushing. The Niners defense, which held Eagles RB Ricky Watters to 57 rushing yards, was led by LB Ken Norton Jr.'s team postseason–record 12 solo tackles. DT Bryant Young registered two sacks and LB Lee Woodall added a sack among his six total stops.

Green Bay Packers 35, 49ers 14
January 4 at Lambeau Field
(Green Bay, WI)

Missed opportunities, including a total of five turnovers, spelled defeat for the San Francisco 49ers in their NFC Divisional Playoff Game with the Green Bay Packers. Played before a record Lambeau Field crowd of 60,787, the 49ers fell 35–14 in a game that featured 34–degree weather (with a wind chill of nine–degrees) and driving rain. It didn't take long for the Packers to take a lead. After forcing San Francisco to punt on its first series, WR Desmond Howard took P Tommy Thompson's punt, split the coverage down the middle of the field and raced for a 71–yard touchdown. Then, with seven minutes remaining in the opening stanza, Howard struck again. He returned a punt 46 yards to the San Francisco seven, and two plays later, QB Brett Favre threw a four–yard scoring pass to WR Andre Rison to make it 14–0. San Francisco then mounted a comeback in the second quarter. Trailing 21–0, the tide began to turn when 49ers special teams standout Curtis Buckley recovered a muffed punt at the Green Bay 26. Moments later, QB Elvis Grbac, replacing the injured QB Steve Young (ribs), hit RB Terry Kirby with an eight–yard pass, cutting the deficit to 21–7 at the half. On the opening kickoff of the third quarter, San Francisco CB Steve Israel recovered a loose ball on the Packers four, setting the stage for Grbac's scamper into the end zone. The 49ers fate was sealed, however, on the ensuing Packers drive. Marching 72 yards in 12 plays (10 of which were runs), Green Bay scored when FB Edgar Bennett fumbled before crossing the goal line; but before the 49ers defenders could react, WR Antonio Freeman fell on the loose ball, giving the hosts a 28–14 advantage. Bennett scored on an 11–yard run, and two more fumbles in the fourth quarter snuffed out any hope the 49ers had in getting back into the game. Young played the first nine plays at quarterback before giving way to Grbac late in the first quarter. Grbac completed 19–of–36 passes for 125 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions and led the team in rushing with 32 yards. Backfield mates Kirby and RB William Floyd had six receptions each, while WR Jerry Rice had a team–high 36 yards receiving. Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. posted eight tackles and LB Gary Plummer added seven. All–Pro DT Bryant Young left the game late in the first quarter because of a neck injury. He was taken to the hospital for tests, which were negative.

49ers 38, Minnesota Vikings 22
NFC Divisional Playoff
(San Francisco, CA)

RB Terry Kirby rushed for a career–high 120 yards and scored two touchdowns, leading the San Francisco 49ers to a 38–22 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Divisional Playoffs at 3Com Park. In addition to Kirby's heroics, QB Steve Young completed 21–of–30 passes for 224 yards and a touchdown, WR J.J. Stokes had 101 yards receiving and LB Ken Norton Jr. returned an interception 23 yards for a touchdown. San Francisco's first score came compliments of a Minnesota special teams miscue. P Mitch Berger's punt sailed off the side of his foot and into the crowd after going only 12 yards. The 49ers took over on the Vikings 26, and four plays later, FB William Floyd scored from the one and the 49ers led 7–0. Less than a minute later, the visitors tied the game on a 66–yard scoring pass from QB Randall Cunningham to WR Cris Carter. In the second quarter, the 49ers again took advantage of a poor kick by Berger — this time a punt of 29 yards — to take a 14–7 lead. Moving 61 yards in only four plays, and aided by three Minnesota penalties, Kirby scored the first of his two touchdowns on a one–yard plunge. The game–breaker occurred two plays later when the San Francisco defense flushed Cunningham out of the pocket and forced him to throw a pass over an onrushing DE Roy Barker and into the hands of Norton, who ran untouched into the end zone. In the third quarter, K Gary Anderson connected on a 34–yard field goal to build the lead to 24–7, but Cunningham and Carter hooked up again for a score, closing the gap to 24–14. On the ensuing series, the 49ers marched 75 yards in seven plays, highlighted by two Kirby runs of 22 and 14 yards. Young then hit WR Terrell Owens with one of the prettiest touchdowns of the year, as the second–year receiver shook off a defender then dove into the end zone for the score. Kirby finished the scoring in the fourth quarter with another one–yard run. CB Tyronne Drakeford had six tackles and a pair of passes defensed to pace the defense. Barker also recorded San Francisco's only sack of the game.

RB Dorsey Levens rushed for 114 yards and WR Antonio Freeman caught four passes for 104 yards and a touchdown to lead visiting Green Bay to a 23–10 win in the NFC Championship Game. The game was played before 68,987 under windy and rainy conditions at 3Com Park. The Packers opened the scoring late in the first quarter. After San Francisco punted on its first series, QB Brett Favre led Green Bay on a 10–play, 76–yard drive that resulted in a K Ryan Longwell 19–yard field goal. Favre completed three–of–four passes for 37 yards in the series. Green Bay continued its scoring in the second quarter. S Eugene Robinson intercepted a QB Steve Young pass and returned it 58 yards to the San Francisco 28. Two plays later, Favre threw a 27–yard scoring pass to Freeman to make the score 10–0. San Francisco then broke the drought with a scoring drive beginning with 4:23 remaining in the second quarter. Following a missed field goal by Longwell, the 49ers took possession at their own 38. A pair of Young completions for 32 yards had the Niners in Packers territory, but two holding penalties brought the ball back to the original line of scrimmage. On a key third down with 26 yards to go, Young completed a 48–yard pass to WR Terrell Owens to the Packers 10–yard line. The drive resulted in a 28–yard field goal by K Gary Anderson. Green Bay answered on its next possession. Freeman returned the kickoff 18 yards to the Packers 27. Two plays later, Favre hit Freeman for a 40–yard completion to the San Francisco 25. Longwell connected on a 43–yard field goal to make the halftime score 13–3. After a scoreless third quarter, Green Bay extended its lead to 16–3 on a 25–yard field goal by Longwell. The Packers added seven more after a five–yard touchdown run by Levens to make the score 23–3. San Francisco closed out the game by scoring on the ensuing kickoff. Chuck Levy returned Longwell's kick 95 yards for a touchdown. Levy's return was the second longest postseason return for San Francisco, trailing the 97–yard touchdown return by Vic Washington vs. Dallas in 1972. Young completed 23–of–38 passes for 250 yards and one interception. RB Terry Kirby ran for a team–high 21 yards on six carries. WR J.J. Stokes caught six passes for 87 yards, including a long of 43. Defensively, San Francisco was led by S Merton Hanks with eight tackles. LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Lee Woodall, LB Gary Plummer and S Tim McDonald had seven tackles each.

QB Steve Young threw three touchdown passes, including a 25–yard strike to WR Terrell Owens with three seconds remaining, as San Francisco edged Green Bay, 30–27. On a crystal clear day in the Bay Area, it was the Packers who opened the scoring on a 23–yard field goal from K Ryan Longwell midway through the first quarter. San Francisco answered with help from a big play on defense. S Merton Hanks forced a fumble by RB Dorsey Levens and the ball was recovered by DE Chris Doleman at the Green Bay 19–yard line. Three plays later Young connected with TE Greg Clark from one yard out for the touchdown and a 7–3 lead. Just four seconds into the second quarter, the Packers regained the lead on a two–yard scoring toss from QB Brett Favre to WR Antonio Freeman. San Francisco tied the score on the first of three K Wade Richey field goals, this one from 34 yards out with 6:53 remaining in the half. The Packers surged back ahead with 36 seconds remaining when Levens bowled into the end zone from two yards out to take a 17–10 halftime lead. The third quarter opened with Favre being pressured into an errant pass that was intercepted by LB Lee Woodall. Five plays later, the score was tied for a third time when Young hit Clark from eight yards out for the score. The 49ers reclaimed the lead midway through the quarter on a team postseason record and career–long 48–yard field goal from Richey. In a game that saw five lead changes and three ties, the fourth quarter became particularly dramatic. Longwell answered Richey's 48–yard kick with a 37–yard effort of his own to tie the game at 20–20 at the beginning of the fourth. On the ensuing possession, San Francisco marched 51 yards in 10 plays and capped the drive with a 40–yard field goal by Richey to reclaim the lead at 23–20. With 4:19 remaining in the game, Green Bay took over at its own 11–yard line. From there, Favre would lead his team on a nine–play, 89–yard scoring drive. The drive was capped when Favre hit Freeman from 15 yards out for the touchdown and a 27–23 lead with 1:56 remaining in the game. The Packers touchdown set up one of the most memorable sequences in 49ers history. San Francisco took possession at its own 24–yard line with 1:50 remaining and three timeouts to its credit. On the final play, Young dropped back, stumbled and threw a 25–yard touchdown strike to Owens who was sandwiched in the end zone by S Pat Terrell and S Darren Sharper.

With San Francisco's NFL–leading run game a mere shell of itself, the Atlanta Falcons forced three turnovers and held off the 49ers, 20–18, in the NFC Divisional Playoff at the Georgia Dome. San Francisco's hope of controlling the game on the ground came to a screeching halt on the first play of the game when RB Garrison Hearst fractured the tibia in his left leg on an inside run that had gained seven yards. With Hearst out and RB Terry Kirby hobbled with a bruised leg, the 49ers managed just 46 yards on the ground. Atlanta's rushing attack flourished in the first half thanks to the power running of RB Jamal Anderson, who scored on a two–yard run in the first quarter to give the Falcons a 7–0 lead. Atlanta increased its lead to 14–0 when Anderson finished off a 34–yard run with a spread eagle dive into the end zone with 3:12 left in the second quarter. The touchdown run capped a seven–play, 82–yard drive. San Francisco snatched the momentum from the Falcons by putting together a pair of scoring drives just before the half. The 49ers answered Atlanta's second touchdown march with a nine–play, 80–yard drive that concluded with the familiar end zone combination of QB Steve Young to WR Jerry Rice from 17 yards out. It was Rice's 20th career postseason touchdown. With just under one minute to play in the first half, DE Charles Haley chased QB Chris Chandler and deflected his pass into the waiting arms of DT Junior Bryant, who returned it four yards to the Atlanta 36–yard line. K Wade Richey made it a 14–10 game at the half with a 36–yard field goal as time expired. The 49ers carried that momentum into the third quarter, nearly tripling Atlanta's offensive output in the second half (187 yards to 68). But turnovers did not allow them to complete the comeback. The Falcons thwarted two drives with a pair of interceptions, including one by S Eugene Robinson that was returned 77 yards to set up a K Morten Andersen 29–yard field goal. Leading 17–10, Andersen added another 32–yard field goal to give the Falcons a 10–point edge with 10:33 remaining. San Francisco responded to Atlanta's three pointer with a 13–play, 87–yard drive that Young finished himself with an eight–yard touchdown run. A two–point pass from QB Ty Detmer to TE Greg Clark made it 20–18 with 2:57 left. After Atlanta used up 2:19 of the clock, the 49ers got the ball back at their own four–yard line but were only able to move to the 26 before Young's hail mary attempt was intercepted as time expired. After rushing for 83 yards on 13 carries in the first half, Anderson was limited to 30 yards on 16 carries in the second half by San Francisco's defense. LB Winfred Tubbs made a game–high 10 tackles, while DE Chris Doleman made six stops and one sack.

NFC Wild Card
January 13 at Lambeau Field
(Green Bay, WI)

In their first postseason appearance since 1998, the 49ers dropped a hard–fought 25–15 decision to the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Wild Card Game at Lambeau Field. With a game–time temperature of 28 degrees, the 49ers won the opening coin toss and elected to receive. The two teams traded punts until Green Bay marched 40 yards in seven plays to score the first points of the game when QB Brett Favre hooked up with WR Antonio Freeman on a five–yard touchdown pass. DT Dana Stubblefield blocked the extra point to keep the score 6–0. After another 49ers punt, the Packers began their third possession of the game from their own 19–yard line. On the second play from scrimmage, Favre was intercepted by CB Ahmed Plummer, who returned it to the Green Bay 22. San Francisco K Jose Cortez had his 34–yard field goal attempt blocked and the score remained 6–0. After the Packers were forced to punt, San Francisco took possession at its own 14 with 7:06 remaining in the half. QB Jeff Garcia went 6–of–9 for 61 yards and RB Garrison Hearst had a two–yard touchdown plunge with 15 seconds remaining in the half, to cap off a 15–play, 86–yard drive. After a Cortez extra point, the 49ers went in with a 7–6 halftime lead. On their first possession of the second half, the Packers moved the ball down to the San Francisco eight–yard line where K Ryan Longwell nailed a 26–yard field goal for the 9–7 lead. After the 49ers couldn't get anything going on offense, they punted back to Green Bay. It took only four plays for the Packers to take advantage with a 19–yard touchdown pass from Favre to TE Bubba Franks. The two–point conversion failed and the score remained 15–7. Two series later, the 49ers marched 61 yards in six plays, culminating with Garcia hitting WR Tai Streets on a 14–yard touchdown strike and again on the two–point conversion to tie the score at 15. The Packers answered on their next possession with a 10–play, 45–yard drive as Longwell connected on a 45–yard field goal to push the score to 18–15. With 5:03 remaining in the game, the 49ers had moved the ball down to the Green Bay 41, when Garcia's pass intended for WR Terrell Owens was tipped by CB Mike McKenzie into the hands of CB Tyrone Williams at the Green Bay seven–yard line. Favre led the Packers on an eight–play, 93–yard drive ending with an RB Ahman Green nine–yard touchdown run and the 25–15 lead. RB Paul Smith took the ensuing kickoff on the 13–yard line and ran it back 16 yards before being hit by WR Cory Bradford and fumbling. The Packers recovered the fumble and ran out the clock for the 25–15 victory.

49ers 39, New York Giants 38
NFC Wild Card
(San Francisco, CA)

Buried in a 24–point playoff hole, the 49ers exploded to record the second largest comeback in postseason history with a dramatic 39–38 victory over the New York Giants in the NFC Wild Card Game. The 49ers trailed 38–14 with four minutes left in the third quarter, but scored 25 straight points on two touchdown passes and a scoring run by QB Jeff Garcia, as well as two, two–point conversion catches by WR Terrell Owens. The game ended just as exciting. After Garcia drove his team 68 yards in just over two minutes for the winning score, QB Kerry Collins got New York to the San Francisco 28 with six seconds left. LS Trey Junkin, signed earlier in the week, made a low snap that P Matt Allen couldn't handle. Allen then threw a desperate pass that fell incomplete. The 49ers rally was the biggest in NFC playoff history. Garcia finished the day 27–of–44 for 331 yards and three touchdowns. He rushed for 60 yards, including a 14–yard score on the first play of the fourth quarter. Two of Garcia's touchdown throws went to Owens, who had nine catches for 177 yards. Collins was 29–of–43 for 342 yards and four touchdowns, and expertly guided New York to a lead that seemed insurmountable. WR Amani Toomer caught eight passes for 136 yards and three touchdowns and RB Tiki Barber added 115 yards rushing and 62 yards receiving. San Francisco rallied with purpose and poise. Owens caught a 26–yard touchdown pass late in the third quarter to start the rally and made big catches on every drive— right up to the final minutes, when Garcia found WR Tai Streets for the winning score. After Owens caught a 26–yard touchdown pass and a two–point conversion with 2:03 left in the third, Garcia rushed for a 14–yard score and threw another conversion pass to Owens five seconds into the fourth quarter. K Jeff Chandler added a 25–yard field goal with 7:49 left. Collins responded and drove New York 38 yards, but Bryant – kicking out of a poor hold thanks to a poor snap by Junkin—missed a 42–yard field goal with 3:01 left. Garcia took over, converting two straight third downs for the NFL leaders in that category. TE Eric Johnson caught a 25–yard pass to the New York 25 and Garcia scrambled 12 yards to set up his winning pass to Streets.

NFC Divisional Playoff
January 12 at Raymond James Stadium
(Tampa, FL)

San Francisco's Super Bowl hopes ended with a 31–6 loss against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game on the road at Raymond James Stadium. 49ers 36, New Orleans Saints 32
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 14 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

A 14–yd. TD pass from Alex Smith to TE Vernon Davis with 0:09 left in the game capped off one of the most memorable games in postseason history, as the 49ers defeated the New Orleans Saints, 36–32. Powered by Smith, who threw for 299 yds., three TDs and added another one on the ground, the 49ers triumphed in its first playoff game in nine years, moving within one win of the Super Bowl. The Niners scored on their second drive of the game, on a 49–yd. TD pass from Smith to Davis. On the Saints next drive, QB Drew Brees committed his first postseason INT in five years, thanks to S Dashon Goldson, giving San Francisco the football deep in New Orleans' territory. Scoring on a TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree, Smith took advantage of the costly turnover, making the score 14–0. On the ensuing kickoff return, S Madieu Williams stripped the ball away from Saints WR Courtney Roby and the loose ball was recovered by LB Blake Costanzo. The takeaway led to a 25–yd. FG by K David Akers. The Saints answered, scoring two TDs before half time, on a 14–yd. pass to TE Jimmy Graham and a 25–yd. pass to WR Marques Colston, making the score 17–14 at the half. San Francisco scored the only points of the 3rd qtr. on a 41–yd. FG by David Akers. The 4th qtr. started out with each team trading FGs. Then would come the four lead changes in the last five minutes of the game. New Orleans struck first on a 44–yd. TD pass to RB Darren Sproles, with 4:02 left on the clock. With the 49ers trailing 24–23, down for the first time in the entire game, Smith scored on a 28–yd. rushing TD. A missed two–point conversion put the 49ers up 29–24 with just 2:11 remaining. Brees took the lead back on a 66–yd. score to TE Jimmy Graham with 1:37 left. RB Darren Sproles then made a catch out of the backfield for the two–point conversion to give the Saints a 32–29 advantage. Facing elimination, Smith connected with Davis twice on their final drive, with the last throw jetting through double coverage for a game–winning 14–yd. TD.

New York Giants 20, 49ers 17 (OT)
NFC Championship
January 22 at Candlestick Park
(San Francisco, CA)

When asked what his message was to his players after falling short to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship game, Harbaugh stated, "As Sir Andrew Barton said, `Fight on my men, we're hurt but not slain. We'll lay down and bleed a while. Then we'll rise and fight again.'" Harbaugh, of course was referring to his team's blue–collar mentality after the Giants escaped rain–soaked Candlestick Park with a 20–17 overtime victory. Harbaugh got the Niners to the brink of the Super Bowl in his rookie year, taking over a 6–10 team and going 13–3 to win the NFC West. The extra minutes at Candlestick Park went in favor of the opponent in a year where most didn't expect a storybook season. The 49ers defense played stoically, recording six sacks on Giants QB Eli Manning, which ranked t–2nd for the most sacks in a postseason game in franchise history (6 – four times, last vs. Den. – 1/29/90). TE Vernon Davis gave the 49ers a 7–0 lead with 7:11 remaining in the 1st qtr. after running a pattern down the right sideline and outracing the secondary for a 73–yd. TD recept. from QB Alex Smith. On their ensuing drive, the Giants drove from their own 31 to the San Francisco 34–yd. line. On 3rd–and–1, Manning and the Giants failed to get a first down despite two opportunities. The Giants eventually evened the score on a 10–play, 69–yd. drive when TE Bear Pascoe caught Manning's short pass at the 6–yd. line and stepped into the end zone for the TD. The Giants added a FG with two seconds remaining in the 2nd qtr. to give them a 10–7 edge going into the locker room. Davis' second TD of the game, gave the lead back to the Niners at 14–10 with 5:18 remaining in the 3rd qtr. San Francisco's 3–play, 54–yd. TD drive was set up by a short pass to RB Frank Gore, who turned it into a 24–yd. gain. On the next play, Davis went in motion from right to left and caught a lofted pass to the end zone by Smith. The Giants took the lead back after the ball inadvertently glanced off WR Kyle Williams on a punt, giving the ball back to the Giants on their 29 yard line. Manning connected a 17–yard pass to WR Mario Manningham to give the Giants a 17–14 lead with 8:41 remaining. Williams' 40–yd. return on the ensuing kickoff enabled the 49ers to start their next possession at their own 45. On consecutive plays, Smith scrambled for 17 yds. and RB Kendall Hunter ran for 18 more, resulting in a K David Akers game–tying FG with 5:39 to go, 17–17. After both teams went 3–and–out on their first overtime possession, a Giants takeaway on a Williams fumble, forced by LB Jacquian Williams on a punt return, gave the Giants possession at their own 36 with 9:32 remaining. After converting one first down, K Lawrence Tynes sent the season–ending 31–yd. FG through the uprights.

49ers 45, Green Bay Packers 31
(San Francisco, CA)

With the win against the Green Bay Packers, the San Francisco 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the second year in a row, marking the first time San Francisco has reached the NFC Championship Game in consecutive seasons since 1992–94. The Packers got off to a quick start after QB Colin Kaepernick threw an INT on just the fourth play of the game that was returned for a TD by Packers CB Sam Shields. Kaepernick responded immediately like he has all season and turned in one of the best performances by a 49ers QB in franchise history. Kaepernick led the offense on an 8–play, 80–yd. drive that he capped off with a 20–yd. TD run to tie the score at 7 apiece early in the 1st qtr. The team converted on two 3rd and longs on the drive, setting the tone for the day by finishing 8 of 13 on 3rd down (62%). With 11:52 remaining in the 2nd qtr., Green Bay WR Jeremy Ross muffed a punt that was recovered by S C.J. Spillman at the Packers 9–yd. line. The takeaway led to a 12–yd. TD pass from Kaepernick to WR Michael Crabtree just three plays later. On the ensuing Green Bay possession, CB Tarell Brown picked off QB Aaron Rodgers pass and returned his 2nd career postseason INT. The Kaepernick to Crabtree connection continued to be successful as they connected for a 20–yd. TD strike, making the score 21–14. Crabtree led the team with 9 recepts. for 119 yds. and 2 TDs on the day. On the third play of San Francisco's second possession of the 3rd qtr., Kaepernick kept the ball on a zone read around the right side and dashed 56–yds. to the end zone for his 2nd rushing TD of the game. The 56–yd. TD run marked the longest run by a QB in franchise postseason history and the 3rd longest overall. Kaepernick also set the NFL single–game record for a QB with 181 rushing yds. on 16 carries. RB Frank Gore finished off the following drive on the first play of the 4th qtr., punching it in from 2 yds. out, stretching the 49ers lead to 38–24. Gore notched his first career 100–yd. game in the postseason, rushing for 119 yds. on 23 carries. The 49ers became the first team in NFL history to ever have two, 100–yd. rushers [QB Colin Kaepernick (181 yds. rushing), RB Frank Gore (119 yds. rushing)] and one, 100–yd. receiver [WR Michael Crabtree (119 yds. receiving)] in a playoff game. RB Anthony Dixon found the end zone on a 2–yd. TD run to finish off the 11–play, 93–yd. drive to make the score 45–24. San Francisco rushed for 323 yds. on the night, setting the franchise single–game postseason rushing record.

49ers 28, Falcons 24
January 20 at Georgia Dome
(Atlanta, GA)

The 49ers started slow, spotting Atlanta a 17–0 lead after the Falcons scored on their first three possessions. On San Francisco's third possession the 49ers offense began to click. TE Vernon Davis hauled in a pinpoint pass from QB Colin Kaepernick for 27 yds. down to the Atlanta 15–yd. line. Davis had 3, 25+ yd. recepts. in the game, giving him 9 in 4 postseason games, which ranks 2nd in 49ers postseason history, trailing only WR Jerry Rice (14, 25+ yd. recepts. in 23 games). Two plays following Davis' catch, the 49ers got on the scoreboard with a 15–yd. TD run by RB LaMichael James. It was James' first–career TD. The 49ers next possession began on their own 18–yd. line with 6:24 remaining in the 2nd qtr. Vernon Davis stepped up once again, accounting for 48–yds. on 3 recepts., including a 4–yd. TD catch to finish the drive and pull the 49ers within 3, as the score read 14–17 at the 2–minute warning. Davis' 5 career postseason TDs rank t–4th in franchise history. With the Falcons scoring right before the half, it was important the 49ers came out of halftime with an answer, and answer they did. Kaepernick marched the 49ers offense right down the field, driving 82 yds. on 7 plays capped off on a 5–yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore to make the score 21–24 with 10:51 remaining in the 3rd qtr. The San Francisco defense also had answers, forcing turnovers on the Falcons first two possessions of the 2nd half. CB Chris Culliver picked–off QB Matt Ryan and LB Aldon Smith recovered a muffed snap to stymie the Falcons offense during the 3rd qtr. With 11:59 left in the 4th qtr. WR Ted Ginn returned a Matt Bosher punt 20 yds. to the Atlanta 38–yd. line, giving the 49ers offense good starting field position. San Francisco's physical offensive line began to take over and wear down the Atlanta defense, opening big holes for Gore, James and RB Anthony Dixon as they gained all but 8 yds. on the go–ahead drive. Gore registered his 2nd TD run of the game on a 9–yd. burst to the end zone to give San Francisco the lead 28–24 with 8:27 remaining in the game. The Falcons took over after the Gore TD and sustained a 14–play drive down to the 49ers 10–yd. line. On the 14th play of the drive, the Falcons faced a 4th and 4 with 1:13 remaining. WR Roddy White was unable to hang onto the ball due to LB NaVorro Bowman's blanketing defense. The Falcons got the ball back following an Andy Lee punt and had one last shot with :06 ticks left on the clock, but CB Perrish Cox tackled WR Julio Jones at San Francisco's 35–yd. line before he could attempt a lateral as the clock struck :00. The 17–point comeback led by Kaepernick was the 2nd largest deficit overcome to win a conference championship (2006 – Indianapolis trailed New England by 18 points).

Baltimore 34, 49ers 31
Super Bowl XLVII
February 3 at Superdome
(New Orleans, LA)

The San Francisco 49ers and the Baltimore Ravens squared off in one of the most extraordinary Super Bowls where two brothers squared off as head coaches. The 49ers found themselves facing an early deficit, which would eventually be too much to overcome. Early in the 1st qtr., San Francisco answered a Ravens TD drive with a scoring drive of their own as QB Colin Kaepernick engineered a 12–play 62–yd. drive that was finished off by K David Akers' 36–yd. FG, making the score 7–3. After 2 more TD passes by QB Joe Flacco, the 49ers found themselves in a 21–3 hole with 1:45 left in the 2nd qtr. Kaepernick showed poise and led the 2–minute drill efficiently by completing 4 of 5 pass atts. for 56 yds. to move the 49ers into FG position. Akers added 3 more points with a 27–yd. FG as time expired in the half with San Francisco trailing Baltimore 21–6. Following a Ravens kickoff return for a TD to open the 2nd half, the Superdome went dark with 13:28 remaining in the 3rd qtr. A power failure at 7:38 p.m. CT caused a 30–minute delay and was not resolved until 8:08 p.m. On the Niners' next possession, Kaepernick tossed a 31–yd. TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree, making the score 28–13. San Francisco forced Baltimore into a 3–and–out with a sack by LB Ahmad Brooks on 3rd–and–10. P Sam Koch's 43–yd. punt was returned 32 yds. by WR Ted Ginn Jr., setting up the 49ers offense to takeover at the Ravens 20–yd. line. Two plays later, RB Frank Gore capitalized on the short field with a 6–yd. TD run. On the second play of Baltimore's ensuing possession, CB Tarell Brown forced and recovered a fumble that he jarred loose from RB Ray Rice on the Ravens' 24–yd. line. The takeaway led to a 34–yd. FG by Akers, his 3rd of the game. With their next possession, WR Randy Moss hauled in a 32–yd. recept., followed by a 21–yd. run by Gore, which led to a 15–yd. TD run by Kaepernick. An incomplete pass on the 2–point try made the score 31–29 with the Ravens still hanging on as San Francisco continued its fierce comeback. Kaepernick's 15–yd. TD run marked the longest TD run by a QB in Super Bowl history. With 4:23 remaining in the game, Baltimore's K Justin Tucker tacked on a 38–yd. FG to extend their lead to 34–29. A 24–yd. completion to Crabtree and a 33–yd. rush by Gore put the 49ers offense in position for the go–ahead TD with 2:39 remaining, on the Ravens' 7–yd. line. The 49ers were unable to get into the end zone and turned the ball over on downs. After taking a safety to run the game clock down to :04, the Ravens were forced to punt to the 49ers. Ginn returned the kickoff 31–yds.to the 50–yd. line as time expired for the last play of the game.

NFC Wild Card
(Green Bay, WI)

The 49ers defeated the Green Bay Packers, 23–20, in the NFC Wild Card round of the NFL playoffs. The game went down as one of the coldest games in NFL history, with a kickoff temperature of 5 degrees and a wind chill of –10. The 49ers won the coin toss and deferred to the second half. The 49ers defense forced a three–and–out by the Packers on their opening series of the game. QB Colin Kaepernick and the 49ers offense drove 69 yds. in 13 plays as K Phil Dawson made a 22–yd. The second half began with the teams exchanging multiple punts as neither team was able to put points on the board in the third quarter. FB John Kuhn ended the scoring draught for Green Bay, putting the Packers on top 17–13 early in the 4th quarter. The 49ers responded immediately with a 4–play, 63–yd. drive as Kaepernick connected with TE Vernon Davis for a 28–yd. TD pass to regain the lead 20–17 with 10:37 remaining. The Packers countered with an 11–play, 61–yd. drive as K Mason Crosby tied the score at 20–20 with a 24–yd. FG. San Francisco turned the takeaway into points when Dawson made a 33–yd. FG with 4:38 remaining in the 1st qtr. The Panthers put together an 8–play, 65–yd. drive before the 49ers made a spectacular goal–line stand and forced a turnover on downs at the SF 1–yd. line. Seahawks WR Doug Baldwin took the ensuing kickoff 69 yds., which set up a 40–yd. FG six plays later to make the score 17–13 with 3:55 remaining in the 3rd qtr. Following a punt by the 49ers, Seattle put together an 8–play, 62–yd. drive that resulted in points when QB Russell Wilson found WR Jermaine Kearse in the end zone for a 35–yd. TD pass to give Seattle a 20–17 lead. Following a turnover on each of the next three series, Seahawks K Steven Hauschka made the score 23–17 with 3:37 remaining in the game by connecting on a 47–yd. FG. San Francisco proceeded to drive down the field before Kaepernick's pass intended for WR Michael Crabtree in the corner of the end zone was deflected and intercepted.

Two of the best teams in the NFL faced off in an inter conference battle as the Denver Broncos visited Candlestick Park. The 49ers started the scoring with a 37–yard Mike Cofer field goal with 4:52 remaining in the first quarter. The Broncos answered early in the second with a 27–yard field goal by Rich Karlis to knot the game at three. With San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Joe Montana opened up the offense and led the 49ers 95 yards and capped it off with a six–yard quarterback sneak for a 10–3 lead at halftime. The only scoring in the third quarter came on Karlis' 27–yard field goal with five minutes remaining, cutting the 49ers lead to 10–6. Cofer quickly answered with a 27–yard field goal with one minute on the clock in the third quarter for the 13–6 lead. After an injury, John Elway returned to hit Vance Johnson with an eight–yard touchdown pass. Neither team could score in the final minutes of regulation and headed into overtime. On San Francisco's first possession, Andre Townsend sacked Montana, injuring his ribs. Steve Young took over, and on his first play threw an interception to Mark Haynes ending the threat. After a five–and–out drive by the Broncos, the 49ers took over on their own five–yard line. Philadelphia 37, San Francisco 34

Turnovers and an ill–timed penalty marred the 49ers first overtime game in four years. The Philadelphia Eagles struck early and often, first on a 34–yard Roger Ruzek field goal five minutes into the game. On San Francisco's first possession, Steve Young was hit and fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Byron Ev–ans who returned it 30 yards for a touchdown and a 10–0 lead. With Bubby Brister at the helm, the Eagles drove 76 yards in the opening minutes of the second quarter and connected with Calvin Williams for a 13–yard touchdown to push the lead to 17–3. Brister again guided Philadelphia to an eight–play, 64–yard touch–down scoring drive to take a commanding 21–point lead. The 49ers end zone drought ended with just less than two minutes remaining in the half when Young hit Jerry Rice for a three–yard touchdown that brought the score to 24–10 at halftime. San Francisco started the second half with a 60–yard kickoff return by Dexter Carter to give the 49ers the ball on Philadelphia's 38–yard line. Capping off a punishing 38–yard, nine–play drive, Ricky Watters ran 11 yards for the score. After a Philadelphia punt, John Taylor caught a 38–yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 24. Philadelphia took advantage of a Young injury by intercepting a Steve Bono pass. The Eagles worked quickly, moving 69 yards in just two plays to take a 31–24 lead. San Francisco gave Philadelphia good field position again with a fum–ble on its own 40, allowing the Eagles to increase their lead to 10 with a Ruzek 32–yard field goal in the third quarter. Set up by a Don Griffin interception, Bono drove the 49ers 42 yards and scored on a one–yard keeper that closed the gap to 34–31. After a Philadelphia punt, the Niners drove down and tied the game on a Cofer 29–yard field goal with 15 seconds left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive, but failed to score on two overtime posses–sions. On Philadelphia's second possession of overtime, they drove to San Francisco's 20–yard line. With four seconds showing on the clock, the Eagles set up for a 38–yard field goal. Ruzek missed the field goal wide right, but Merton Hanks was flagged for roughing the kicker. After a 10–yard penalty, Ruzek hit a 28–yarder with no time left on the clock for the 37–34 win.

After an unsuccessful first possession, the Packers scored on a 30–yard field goal by Chris Jacke with just over five minutes remaining in the first quar–ter for the 3–0 lead. They took a 6–0 lead on another Jacke 25–yard field goal. On San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Grbac led a six–play, 36–yard drive that resulted in a Jeff Wilkins 48–yard field goal. Dallas 20, San Francisco 17

The two most dominating teams in the NFL met in a mid–season battle for NFC supremacy as the Dallas Cowboys traveled to 3Com Park. The 49ers jumped out to a quick lead after a Jeff Wilkins 28–yard field goal. They extended their lead to 10–0 on a 29–yard touch–down strike from Steve Young to Iheanyi Uwaezuoke. Quiet for most of the first half, the Cowboys finally got on the board with a 72–yard scoring drive that ended on a Troy Aikman three–yard touchdown run, which cut the deficit to 10–7 at halftime. Defenses dominated in the third quarter with neither team allowing a score. Dallas ended the scoring drought with a Chris Boniol 26–yard field goal four seconds into the fourth quarter to tie the game at 10. With Young out in the second half after sustaining a concussion, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco on a nine–play, 68–yard scoring drive on its next possession. Terry Kirby capped it off with a 27–yard touchdown run. After Fred Strickland intercepted a Grbac pass at the 49ers 15–yard line, Troy Aikman hit Eric Bjornson for a six–yard touchdown pass, knot–ting the game at 17 and forcing overtime. The Cow–boys won the overtime coin toss and wasted no time marching down the field. After 12 plays, Chris Boniol hit the game–winning 29–yard field goal for the 20–17 victory.

San Francisco 36, New York Jets 30

In the opening weekend of the 1998 season, fans were treated to one of the most exciting games and one of the most exciting plays in NFL history. After a fast–paced first half, the 49ers found themselves trailing 17–14 at halftime after Glen Foley hit Wayne Chrebet from six–yards out for the score with 32 seconds re–maining in the second quarter. On its first possession in the second half, San Francisco evened the score at 17 with a 22–yard field goal by Wade Richey. On the following possession, Foley found Keyshawn Johnson for a 21–yard touchdown and a 24–17 lead. The extra point was blocked and the score remained 24–23 heading into the fourth quarter. New York extended its lead to 27–23 after a John Hall 32–yard field goal. San Francisco took pos–session with 3:38 left in regulation and went on a 76–yard, five–play drive that was capped by a 38–yard touchdown pass from Young to J.J. Stokes, giving the 49ers the lead 30–27 with just over one minute re–maining in regulation. New York then drove the ball to the 49ers 13–yard line, where John Hall tied the game at 30 with just three seconds on the clock. Both New York and San Francisco went three–and–out on their first possessions of overtime. The Jets moved to mid–field on their second possession before being forced to punt, pinning the 49ers on their own four–yard line. Oakland 34, San Francisco 28

In a game for the ages, the 49ers fell in overtime to the visitors from across the Bay, the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders jumped out to the early 6–0 lead on two Sebastian Janikowski field goals. The 49ers answered back, scoring 14 unanswered points to close out the first half. The Raiders dominated the third quarter, holding onto the ball for more than 11 minutes and scoring two touchdowns. After another score by the Raiders to start the fourth, the 49ers started their comeback. After a Jeff Garcia–to–Terrell Owens scoring toss and another score on a nine–yard touchdown run by Charlie Garner, San Francisco tied the game at 28. On their next possession, the Raiders drove down to San Francisco's 23–yard line, but on fourth–and–10, Janikowski missed a 41–yard field goal wide left. The 49ers, with a chance to win the game, took possession and moved the ball down to the Oakland 29–yard line. On fourth–and–one, the Raiders defense stiffened and stopped a leaping Charlie Garner for no gain. The Raiders took over on downs, but couldn't get their offense going and were forced to punt back to the 49ers, who ran out the clock and forced the game into overtime. The Raiders won the toss and marched down to the 49ers 25–yard line. Janikowski came on to attempt the game–winning field goal, but missed wide right, his second missed field goal of the day. The 49ers took over and drove all the way to the Raiders 11–yard line. On first down, Wade Richey attempted the game–winning field goal, but was blocked and possession went back to the Raiders. Following two pass completions and a pass interference call on the 49ers, the Raiders finally put the game away with a 31–yard scoring toss from Rich Gannon to Tim Brown for the win.

San Francisco 25, Carolina 22

In their fourth overtime game of the season, setting a new team record, the 49ers pulled out an exciting 25–22 victory over the Carolina Panthers. The game was a see–saw battle with each team going back and forth until the fourth quarter. The Panthers went ahead late in the fourth quarter after a Jeff Garcia interception. Wesley Walls scored on a 24–yard pass, but the two–point conversion failed, leaving the Panthers with a slim 19–14 lead. On the next 49ers drive, Garcia was intercepted again, this time deep in 49ers territory. The San Francisco defense held Carolina to only a field goal and the 49ers were down 22–14 with just 1:52 remaining in the game. Garcia started the offense on its own 34–yard line and began the two–minute drill. The 49ers moved down the field to the Panthers seven–yard line, where Garcia threw a fade route to Terrell Owens, who snatched it out of the air with one second remaining on the clock to cut the score to 22–20. Garcia then found Eric Johnson in the end zone for the two–point conversion to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won the coin toss and started its drive at its own 26–yard line. Garcia completed three–of–four passes for 27 yards, while Garrison Hearst rushed twice for 34 yards to bring the 49ers down to Carolina's nine–yard line. Oakland converted a crucial fourth–and–three play to maintain possession and ended the drive with a 10–yard touchdown run by Charlie Garner with just over six minutes remaining. The 49ers then ate up the clock with an impressive 13–play drive into scoring position, where Jose Cortez missed a 27–yard field goal at the end of regulation to send the game into overtime. In an early–season division battle, the St. Louis Rams prevailed over the 49ers in overtime in a back and forth battle. The Rams went ahead late in the fourth quarter, 24–17, with 3:20 remaining. Undaunted, Jeff Garcia calmly led his team down the field for the game–tying 13–yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens with 19 seconds remaining in regulation. The 49ers recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and had the ball at midfield. After an incomplete pass, Garcia connected with Cedrick Wilson on a 29–yard pass on second down with nine seconds remaining. Instead of falling to the ground and taking a timeout, Wilson kept running and was tackled as time ran out and the game headed into overtime. The Rams won the toss and received the kickoff, which they returned to their 48–yard line. After a one–yard run by Marshall Faulk, the 49ers were pe–nalized 15 yards for a face mask penalty. In another division battle, the 49ers had their second overtime game of the season, this time at Arizona. The field goal kicking was the story of this game as the 49ers missed both field goal attempts and made only 1–of–2 PATs and the Cardinals made only 3–of–6 field goal attempts. The Cardinals had the lead 13–6 in the fourth quarter when the 49ers tied the game on one of the most improbable touchdowns in team history. Jeff Garcia fumbled at the one–yard line and the ball was recovered by offensive lineman Kwame Harris, who scored his first career touchdown. The game was tied at 13 with 2:25 left to play. The Cardinals had another shot to get into scoring position, but were forced to punt and gave the 49ers one more shot for the victory with almost six minutes remaining in regulation. San Fran–cisco then launched a drive that put the offense at the Arizona 16–yard line. But Owen Pochman missed the potential game–winning field goal, his second missed field goal of the day, this time from 35 yards out. This breathed new life into Arizona, who drove down to the San Francisco 32–yard line. With five seconds remain–ing in regulation, Tim Duncan attempted the game–winning 50–yard field goal, which was short, and the game headed to overtime. In overtime, the Cardinals won the toss and drove down to the 49ers 22–yard line in eight plays. Duncan set up for another chance at a game–winning field goal, this one from 39 yards out. QB Tim Rattay joined an elite group of quarterbacks who have led the 49ers to come from behind victo–ries in a 31–28 overtime victory against the visiting Arizona Cardinals at Monster Park. Rattay coolly di–rected two late fourth–quarter scoring drives that sent the game into overtime after trailing by 16 points with 8:19 remaining. In overtime, Rattay again led the team downfield and buoyed by a roughing the passer pen–alty, put them into scoring position where K Todd Pe–terson banged home the game–winning 32–yard field goal. Rattay finished the game with a CAREER–HIGH 417 yards passing and a quarterback rating of 99.8. He was an impressive 14 of 20 for 115 yards and two touchdowns in the fourth quarter. He also broke QB Joe Montana's team record by completing 38 passes. Montana held the previous mark of 37. Rattay's favor–ite target on the day was TE Eric Johnson who hauled in a career–high 13 receptions for 162 yards and one touchdown. Johnson caught a six–yard touchdown from Rattay with 4:35 remaining in the game that pulled the 49ers within 10 points. Rattay ran in the two–point conversion and suddenly the 49ers were within eight points. Now they needed a stop and the defense was up to the task, forcing a Cardinals punt. Taking over at the 49ers 28–yard line, Rattay started off with a nine–yard pass to WR Curtis Conway, then scampered 15 more yards before hitting Conway on a 14–yard pass to get the 49ers to the Cardinals 23. From there Rattay found WR Brandon Lloyd in the corner of the end zone and the 49ers were within two points. Lloyd then slipped in front of the defender and caught Rattay's two–point offering sending the game into overtime. The 49ers won the overtime coin toss and never relinquished the ball. A roughing the passer penalty on Arizona's DT Dar–nell Dockett helped the 49ers cause and Rattay took advantage as he quickly moved the team into scor–ing position where Peterson knocked home the game–winner.

First–year RB Maurice Hicks earned the game ball af–ter an inspiring 139–yard performance on 34 attempts. The Cardinals staged a furious rally and almost answered the 49ers overtime win earlier in the season at Monster Park. But some key plays from the defense and the legs of Hicks proved the difference of the day. Hicks, making his first career NFL start, had four carries for 42 yards in overtime including a significant 17–yard gain that set–up K Todd Peterson's game–winning field goal. Fac–ing 2nd and 3 from the Cardinals 30–yard line, Hicks took the handoff from Dorsey, cut off the tackle to his right and raced downfield before he was knocked out of bounds at the 13. Dorsey finished the game completing 18 of 34 passes for 191 yards and three scores for a passer rating of 99.0. Starting for the injured QB Tim Rattay, Dorsey threw his first career touchdown to WR Brandon Lloyd for the first score of the day. He then connected twice with WR Cedrick Wilson for scores as Wilson led the receiving efforts with five receptions for 83 yards and two scores, including a 19–yard catch to keep the 49ers game–winning drive alive. The San Francisco 49ers rallied from a 10–0 first quarter deficit for a 20–17 overtime victory over the Houston Texans to close out the 2005 campaign with two consecutive wins for a 4–12 record. The 49ers dominated the line of scrimmage, gaining 182 yards on the ground and controlling the clock for 44:03. The 49ers used a combination of RB Frank Gore (108 yards) and RB Maurice Hicks (64 yards) to take control on the ground. S Mike Adams was the star of the game on defense after finishing with two interceptions, one that was returned for a touchdown and the other that led to the game–winning field goal in overtime. QB Alex Smith helped lead the 49ers to a touchdown at the end of the first half by converting a key third–and–13 situation with a 14–yard strike to WR Brandon Lloyd and then three plays later threw his first NFL touchdown pass when he rolled to his right and found Lloyd in the back of the end zone for a 14–yard score. The 49ers took the second half kick and went on a 14–play, 56–yard drive that ended with a 42–yard field goal by Nedney to tie the game at 10–10. The San Francisco 49ers overcame a 13–0 deficit to pull out a 26–23 win over the Denver Broncos at Invesco Field at Mile High. The 49ers played the role of spoilers when the victory knocked the Broncos out of the playoffs. The 49ers come–from–behind win was led by three outstanding individual efforts: RB Frank Gore gained 153 rushing yards, PK Joe Nedney kicked four field goals along with the game winner in overtime, and CB Walt Harris snagged two interceptions, including a 28–yard touchdown return in the third quarter. WR Bryan Gilmore had two key plays in overtime to advance the 49ers into field goal range for the game winning kick. During the first half, strong 49ers goal–line defense helped limit Denver to a pair of field goals on drives that were stopped when the Broncos were in first–and–goal situations. The 49ers defense again held Denver to a field goal in the third quarter when the Broncos had a first–and–goal inside the five–yard line. Denver went ahead 13–0 in the second quarter when CB Champ Bailey took a deflected theft 70 yards into the end zone. Nedney booted a 46–yard field goal to put the score at 13–3 in Denver's favor at the end of the half. San Francisco rallied in the second half, converting its first series into a 12–play, 76–yard touchdown drive. FB Moran Norris caught a short pass from Smith and weaved in and out of traffic for a 32–yard touchdown. The 49ers took the lead on the ensuing drive when Harris picked off QB Jay Cutler and went 28 yards untouched for a touchdown that gave the 49ers a 17–13 lead. Denver responded with a field goal on the next series, but the 49ers added two field goals in the fourth quarter for a 23–16 advantage with 6:14 to play in regulation. Cutler completed a nine–yard touchdown pass to TE Tony Scheffler to tie the game at 23–23 and send it into overtime. Denver won the coin toss, but was forced to punt on two drives before a 12–yard return by PR Brandon Williams allowed the 49ers to start their game–winning drive at their own 39–yard line. Gilmore gained 20 yards on an end route and then caught a 14–yard pass from QB Alex Smith for a first down at the Denver 25–yard line. The San Francisco 49ers completed a series sweep of the Arizona Cardinals with a 37–31 overtime victory to snap an eight–game losing streak at the University of Phoenix Stadium. DE Ron Fields forced QB Kurt Warner to fumble on a sack in the end zone, and LB Tully Banta–Cain recovered the ball for a touchdown in overtime to seal the win. The play was set up after PK Neil Rackers missed a 32–yard field goal in overtime. Rackers was successful on a field goal from the San Francisco nine–yard line, but the Cardinals were penalized for a delay of game penalty, moving the ball back to the 14–yard line where Rackers was wide to the left. A 59–yard punt by P Andy Lee followed by an Arizona penalty forced the Cardinals to begin their next drive at the three–yard line, setting up the 49ers defensive touchdown to get the win. RB Frank Gore went over the 100–yard mark for the first time in 2007, finishing with 116 yards and two touchdowns, including a 35–yard touchdown run with 1:25 to play to give the 49ers a 31–28 lead. Warner completed five passes on the ensuing drive to get Arizona to the one–yard line with six seconds to play. CB Donald Strickland broke up a pass in the end zone to force Arizona to settle for a 19–yard field goal as time expired in regulation. In overtime, Warner completed a short pass to WR Sean Morey, who raced down the sidelines for a 62–yard gain before LP Patrick Willis caught up with him to make a game–saving tackle at the 14–yard line. That set up Rackers game–winning field goal attempt. The 49ers had three first half turnovers with two CB Walt Harris interceptions and a strip by CB Nate Clements to lead to 14 points. San Francisco had a 17–7 lead and appeared to be in position to take a 17–14 halftime lead after Harris' second interception gave the 49ers a first down at their own 41–yard line. QB Trent Dilfer moved the team inside Arizona territory to the 37–yard line with 11 seconds to go to set up a field goal attempt. PK Joe Nedney attempted a 55–yard field goal that went wide, leaving six seconds on the board for the Cardinals. Warner completed a short pass to the sideline and then with two seconds left completed a 48–yard Hail Mary pass to WR Larry Fitzgerald for a touchdown and a 21–17 halftime lead. A 57–yard touchdown pass from Dilfer to WR Arnaz Battle in the third quarter pushed the 49ers back in front, 24–21, heading into the final quarter. Cardinals backup QB Tim Rattay completed a two–yard touchdown on a fourth–down play midway in the fourth quarter to take a 28–24 lead. The San Francisco 49ers overcame a 14–point first quarter deficit to win 33–30 in overtime after PK Joe Nedney nailed a 40–yard game–winning field goal. After closing the gap to 20–13 at halftime, the 49ers intercepted Seattle on the first two drives of the second quarter, including one that was returned for a touchdown. On the first series of the second half, CB Walt Harris tipped a QB Matt Hasselbeck pass that was picked off and returned 86 yards for a touchdown by LB Patrick Willis to tie the game at 20–20. On the next series, DE Ray McDonald tipped a pass that was intercepted by Harris at the Seattle 41–yard line to help set up the go–ahead touchdown. QB J.T. O'Sullivan completed back–to–back passes to WR Bryant Johnson to move the 49ers to the 22–yard line to help get into position for a two–yard touchdown run by RB Frank Gore to lift the 49ers in front, 27–20. Seattle responded with a 15–play, 74–yard drive that ended in a touchdown to tie the game at 27–27. After both teams exchanged field goals to get the score tied at 30–30, the 49ers forced Seattle to punt from its own 12–yard line and the 49ers began a drive at the Seattle 49–yard line with 1:09 to play in regulation. The team moved to the 23–yard line with three seconds to play to set up a game–winning field goal attempt. Nedney's 41–yard attempt sailed wide to the right to send the game to overtime. The 49ers won the toss and elected to receive. O'Sullivan completed a 33–yard pass to WR Isaac Bruce on third–and–seven and a five–yard pass to WR Arnaz Battle on a third–and–two situation to push the 49ers to the 23–yard line where Nedney connected on a 40–yard field goal to give San Francisco the win. O'Sullivan registered his first 300–yard game, finishing 20–of–32 for 321 yards with one touchdown. Bruce had his first 100–yard game as a member of the 49ers with 153 yards on four catches, including a 63–yard catch in the second quarter to help get the 49ers in position for O'Sullivan's three–yard touchdown pass to Johnson. Seattle jumped to a 14–0 first quarter after taking advantage of two miscues by the 49ers. LB Manny Lawson blocked a Seattle punt early in the game, however Seattle recovered the loose ball and converted it into a first down inside San Francisco territory on a drive that ended with a Seattle touchdown. On the next series, Seattle forced Gore to fumble deep in Seahawks territory on a play that resulted in a 10–yard touchdown return by DT Craig Terrill.

San Francisco 23, St. Louis 20

The San Francisco 49ers Week 10 matchup would be a battle between NFC West foes as they hosted the division leading St. Louis Rams at Candlestick Park. With the chance to get back into the hunt for the NFC West and compile back–to–back wins for the first time this season, the 49ers would take a big step and put the game in the hands of former Heisman Trophy winner QB Troy Smith. Along with late game heroics that came down to the first overtime contest for the 49ers this season, the game proved to be a classic NFC West shootout. The Rams would also rely on a former Heisman Trophy winner in QB Sam Bradford to come in and test the 49ers at home. With two quarterbacks of storied pasts, the game turned out to be an offensive showcase as both teams would throw for a combined 607 yds., as well as 753 yds. of total offense. All would come down to an overtime FG off the foot of K Joe Nedney, who connected on a 29–yd. game win-ning kick that gave the 49ers the 23–20 win. With St. Louis winning the toss and electing to receive, Bradford started things off, marching his team down the field. The drive ultimately would be halted, but not before a K Josh Brown's 42–yd. FG put the Rams on the board 3–0 to start the game. Coming off a bye and an ex-tra week to prepare, the 49ers picked up right where they left off in London, as they were able to effectively spread the ball down the field, putting up 421 yds. of total offense. Smith proved to be a major part of the offensive onslaught as he completed 17 of 28 pass atts. for a career–high 356 yds. and 1 TD through the air. Smith's 356 yds. were the most by a 49ers QB since QB Tim Rattay threw for 417 yds. on 38 of 57 pass atts. vs. Arz. (10/10/04). From start to finish, the 49ers found ways to get the ball to multiple players throughout the offense as Smith connected with 5 different receivers who registered 60 yds. rec. or more. It marked the first time in franchise history that at least 5 receivers to-taled 60 yds. rec. or more. Smith started the carousel of offensive production with a 32–yd. pass to TE Vernon Davis. On the very next offensive drive, Smith hooked up with WR Josh Morgan for a 65–yd. pass deep down the right side that brought him to the 1–yd. line, set-ting up a 1–yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore and giving the 49ers a 7–3 lead. The 49ers offense would continue to pour on the yards as they successfully moved the ball down field and allowed Nedney to connect on a 26–yd. FG to put the home team up 10–3 with 12:04 left to go in the half. The Rams eventually would find their way into the end zone as QB Sam Bradford connected with WR Danny Amendola for a 5–yd. TD pass to tie the game at 10 a piece heading into halftime. The 49ers found themselves down heading into the 4th qtr. after Rams RB Steven Jackson scampered for a 13–yd. TD to bring the score to 10–17. With the home team down 13–17 late in the 4th qtr. the 49ers would once again turn to their quarterback. With 2:30 remaining on the clock, the 49ers faced a 3rd and 32 situation at the SF 47–yd. line. Smith then connected on back–to–back passes to Gore of 14 and 23 yds. to move the chains, before firing a 16–yd. TD strike to WR Michael Crabtree to give the 49ers the lead. Rams marched right back down the field and scored off of a 33–yd. FG by Brown, forcing overtime. After St. Louis won the toss, the 49ers defense made a crucial 3 and out stop, which included a 3rd down sack by DT Justin Smith that allowed the 49ers to get the ball back and set up the game win-ning FG.

Dallas 27, San Francisco 24

San Francisco's regime led by Jim Harbaugh and his new but experienced staff, entered the historic rivalry match against the Dallas Cowboys with something to prove at Candlestick Park. The 49ers started off as they had hoped, scoring 2 first–half TDs and blanking America's Team, but big pass plays late in the game would ultimately cause the Niners to fall short as they were edged 27–24 in overtime. Dallas opened the 1st qtr. marching down the field, but came up short after a failed 21–yd. FG attempt by K Dan Bailey. After ex-changing the next couple of possessions, QB Alex Smith led the Niners on a 68–yd. drive, capped off by a 1–yd. TD by RB Frank Gore in the 2nd qtr. The 49ers front seven played strong, swarming and stopping the run, allowing Smith and the Niners to regain possession to take a 14–0 lead. The 12–yd. throw from Smith marked the first TD of WR Kyle Williams' career and the team's first passing TD of 2011. QB Tony Romo and the Cowboys answered before the half on a 71–yd. drive, capped off by a 53–yd. TD slant to WR Miles Austin, making it a one score game heading into the half. Dallas lost its starting QB for a brief stretch in the 3rd qtr., when it appeared Romo's rib injury – occurring on the 3rd play of the game – had become too much of a hindrance. Backup QB Jon Kitna started the 3rd qtr. and threw a tying TD pass and 2 INTs in relief. Displaying good ball skills and awareness, CB Tramaine Brock came up with his 2nd INT of the season in as many weeks, reacting to a Kitna tipped pass and coming up with the turnover. Smith and the 49ers took advantage of the Cowboys turnover with a deep pass down the right sideline to TE Delanie Walker for 29 yds. and the go–ahead TD enter-ing the 4th qtr. K David Akers connected on a 55–yd. FG, marking the longest FG in Candlestick Park history, and the Niners built up a 10–pt. cushion. The Cow-boys charged back from the 24–14 deficit when Romo hit Austin for a leaping 25–yd. TD, and then directed a 10–play, 44–yd. drive in the final 4 minutes that ended with an overtime–forcing, 48–yd. field goal. After the Cowboys' defense forced a punt on the 49ers first OT drive, Romo found backup WR Jesse Holley in stride for a 77–yd. gain that set up 19–yd. game–winning FG.

New York Giants 20, San Francisco 17
NFC Championship Game

When asked what his message was to his players after falling short to the New York Giants in the NFC Cham-pionship game, Harbaugh stated, "As Sir Andrew Bar-ton said, `Fight on my men, we're hurt but not slain. We'll lay down and bleed a while. Then we'll rise and fight again.'''" Harbaugh, of course was referring to his team's blue–collar mentality after the Giants escaped rain–soaked Candlestick Park with a 20–17 overtime victory. "They stand toe–to–toe and fight every time they go out onto the field," added Harbaugh. "Be for-ever proud of our players and coaches the way they compete." Harbaugh got the Niners to the brink of the Super Bowl in his rookie year, taking over a 6–10 team and going 13–3 to win the NFC West. The extra minutes at Candlestick Park went in favor of the opponent in a year where most didn't expect a storybook season. The 49ers defense played stoically, recording six sacks on Giants QB Eli Manning, which ranked t–2nd for the most sacks in a postseason game in franchise history (6 – four times, last vs. Den. – 1/29/90). TE Vernon Davis gave the 49ers a 7–0 lead with 7:11 remaining in the 1st qtr. after running a pattern down the right sideline and outracing the secondary for a 73–yd. TD recept. from QB Alex Smith. On their ensuing drive, the Giants drove from their own 31 to the San Francisco 34–yd. line. On 3rd–and–1, Manning and the Giants failed to get a first down despite two opportunities. The Giants eventually evened the score on a 10–play, 69–yd. drive when TE Bear Pascoe caught Manning's short pass at the 6–yd. line and stepped into the end zone for the TD. The Giants added a FG with two seconds remaining in the 2nd qtr. to give them a 10–7 edge going into the locker room. Davis' second TD of the game, gave the lead back to the Niners at 14–10 with 5:18 remain-ing in the 3rd qtr. San Francisco's 3–play, 54–yd. TD drive was set up by a short pass to RB Frank Gore, who turned it into a 24–yd. gain. On the next play, Davis went in motion from right to left and caught a lofted pass to the end zone by Smith. The Giants took the lead back after the ball inadvertently glanced off WR Kyle Williams on a punt, giving the ball back to the Giants on their 29 yard line. Manning connected a 17–yard pass to WR Mario Manningham to give the Giants a 17–14 lead with 8:41 remaining. Williams' 40–yd. return on the ensuing kickoff enabled the 49ers to start their next possession at their own 45. On consecutive plays, Smith scrambled for 17 yds. and RB Kendall Hunter ran for 18 more, resulting in a K David Akers game–tying FG with 5:39 to go, 17–17. After both teams went 3–and–out on their first overtime possession, a Giants takeaway on a Williams fumble, forced by LB Jacquian Williams on a punt return, gave the Giants possession at their own 36 with 9:32 remaining. After converting one first down, K Lawrence Tynes sent the season–ending 31–yd. FG through the uprights.

The 24–24 stalemate marked the 14th tie for the 49ers since joining the NFL in 1950 and first since 1986 [10–10 at Atl. (10/19)]. It also marked the 49ers first tie at Candlestick Park since 1972 [20–20 vs. NO (10/22)]. St. Louis got off to a fast start, scoring on a 36–yd. TD pass from QB Sam Bradford to WR Brian Quick. The Rams next possession went 7–plays, for 93–yds., ending with a 7–yd. TD run by RB Steven Jack–son to make the score 14–0 at the end of the 1st qtr. The 49ers answered on their next possession, driving 78–yds. on 12–plays, capped off by QB Alex Smith's 14–yd. TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree. Crabtree's TD recept. came on 3rd–and–7, marking his 3rd TD on 3rd down this season, ranking t–3rd in the NFL. Crabtree has tallied a TD in each of his last 5 games against St. Louis. Following the TD drive, Smith left the game due to injury. The San Francisco defense stiffened follow–ing the offense's TD, forcing two consecutive three–and–outs and what would have been a third if not for P Johnny Hekker's 1st down completion on a Rams fake punt. Three plays after the fake punt, LB Aldon Smith ended the Rams drive and the 1st half with his first of 2.0 sacks in the game. Smith has recorded 9.5 sacks for the season and 23.5 for his career. Smith's 9.5 sacks ranks 3rd in the NFL and 1st in the NFC. The first possession for each team to start the 3rd qtr. resulted in no change on the scoreboard. With 8:43 remaining in the 3rd qtr., St. Louis began a 16–play drive that milked 8:25 off the clock and resulted in a 27–yd. FG by K Greg Zuerlein, stretching the lead to 17–7. On the 49ers next possession, Alex Smith's backup, QB Colin Kaepernick, led the Niners down the field, completing 5 of 5 pass attempts for 67–yds. Kaepernick finished the drive with a 7–yd. TD run, as he successfully dove in–side the pylon with 8:48 remaining in the 4th qtr. On the ensuing kickoff, RB Isaiah Pead fumbled the ball at the St. Louis 28–yd. line. CB Tramaine Brock (1st career FF) forced the fumble, it was recovered by S Darcel McBath (1st career FR) and returned 8–yds. to the Rams 20–yd. line. The 49ers first play following the fumble resulted in a 20–yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore. Gore rushed for 97–yds. on 21 carries. The 20–yd. TD run marked his 5th TD of the season and 48th of his career. He cur–rently trails just RB Joe Perry (50) and RB Roger Craig (50) for the most rushing TDs in franchise history. The TD made the score 21–17 in San Francisco's favor with 8:29 left in the 4th qtr. The Rams answered the 49ers score with a score of their own, going 14–plays, for 81–yds. capped off by a 2–yd TD pass from Bradford to WR Austin Pettis. The long St. Louis drive left only 1:13 on the clock, as the 49ers trailed 24–21. Kaepe–rnick engineered an 8–play, 63–yd. drive under pres–sure, accounting for 54 yds. to set K David Akers up for a 33–yd. game–tying FG to force overtime. In the extra period, St. Louis won the toss and elected to re–ceive. On the Rams first play, Amendola recorded an 80–yd. recept. down to the 49ers 2–yd. line, but an illegal formation penalty against the Rams erased the long catch and brought the ball back to the St. Louis 13–yd. line. A few plays later, San Francisco forced a Rams punt, setting up good field position for the 49ers offense. The 49ers drove down to the St. Louis 23–yd. line, to set Akers up for a 41–yd. FG attempt that was wide left. The Rams took the ball, drove to the San Francisco 40–yd. line and Zuerlein also missed the potential game–winning FG as neither team was able to score before the clock ran out, resulting in a tie.

St. Louis 16, San Francisco 13

The 49ers and Rams had to play deep into overtime for the second time this season, as St. Louis outlasted San Francisco in a tough divisional matchup. Both defenses played well, resulting in only one scoring play during the 1st half. After forcing a Rams 3–and–out, the 49ers took over on their own 40–yd. line. On the first play of the drive, RB Frank Gore gained 23–yds. on the ground, putting the ball at the St. Louis 37–yd. line. The of–fensive line continued to open up holes for Gore, as he ran for 18 more yds. on 3 carries and capped off the drive with a 1–yd. TD run, making the score 7–0 with 3:01 remaining in the 1st qtr. After the San Francisco TD, the Rams offense was held to its second consecu–tive 3–and–out. With 2:31 remaining in the 2nd qtr., the 49ers defense recorded its third 3–and–out in four defensive series, with LB Aldon Smith forcing a long 3rd down after registering his 17.5 sack of the season. His 17.5 sacks ties the 49ers single–season franchise re–cord (Fred Dean – 1983). Smith now has 31.5 career sacks, surpassing Hall of Fame DE Reggie White (31.0) for the most sacks by a player in their first two years in NFL history. On the 49ers second possession of the 3rd qtr., Kaepernick was flagged for intentional grounding in the end zone, which resulted in a safety making the score 7–2 with 4:36 left in the 3rd qtr. San Francisco answered with its next offensive possession, marching 94–yds. on 13 plays to setup K David Akers for a 23–yd. FG. WR Michael Crabtree caught 4 passes for 69 during the drive. For the game, Crabtree tallied 7 recepts. for 101 yds., marking his 2nd 100–yd. game of the sea–son and 5th of his career. The Rams were unable to get on the scoreboard with their next offensive possession, but they did after recovering a fumble by Kaepernick on 3rd–and–3 and CB Janoris Jenkins returned the loose ball 2 yds. for a TD. QB Sam Bradford completed the 2–point conversion attempt to TE Lance Kendricks to knot the score at 10 apiece with 3:04 remaining in the 4th qtr. Kaepernick showed poise on the next pos–session, following the fumble, as he rushed for 50 yds. down to the St. Louis 14–yd. line. Kaepernick rushed for 84 yds. on 9 carries. His 84 yds. on the ground are the most by a 49ers quarterback since Steve Young rushed for 102–yds. vs. NO (12/23/90). Akers was able to put the 49ers up by 3 with a 33–yd. FG with 1:38 re–maining. The Rams managed to drive 45 yds. on 7 plays to set Zuerlein up for a 53–yd. FG that sailed through the uprights as the clock expired to send the game into overtime. In overtime, it took 14:30 of 15 minutes to decide the outcome of the game, as Zuerlein made a 54–yd. FG to end the game with a final score of 16–13.

Playoff Team

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS FOUNDER
Anthony J. (Tony) Morabito
(1910-1957)

Tony Morabito dedicated his life to bringing an idea to fruition that others thought preposterous – the membership of the West Coast, in general, and San Francisco, in particular, in a nation–wide professional football league.

Morabito was the sports pioneer of the West, bringing San Francisco its first major league professional team, the San Francisco 49ers, in a professional sports business that was dominated by the East Coast. Before World War II, Morabito was convinced the San Francisco Bay Area was ready for a franchise in the National Football League. The Bay Area was a mecca for college football. Fans came in droves to Kezar Stadium to see the Wonder Teams of California–Berkeley and the Wow Boys of Stanford, led by Frankie Albert. St. Mary's, Santa Clara and the University of San Francisco were also area powerhouses that regularly defeated the University of Washington and Southern California inside the walls of Kezar.

Morabito saw the rise of football in the area and presented a case to birth a professional football team in 1942 to National Football League officials, but he was quickly ushered out of the meeting room with firm politeness. In the spring of 1944, he took another crack, filing an application for an expansion team in the NFL. Morabito and some of his business associates went to Chicago to present their plan in front of League Commissioner, Elmer Layden. The NFL had no teams west of Chicago, and had no plans of changing their geographical structure. Morabito was again shunned.

He was then put in touch with Arch Ward, sports editor of The Chicago Tribune who was trying to organize a rival league, the All–America Football Conference. Morabito told Ward to count him in.

The new league's first meeting was held on June 6, 1944 in St. Louis, D–Day in Europe. Morabito agreed to form a San Francisco franchise in a league that would not begin operations until the end of the war.

It was the right time, and Morabito knew it.

A native of San Francisco, Morabito learned the game of football on vacant lots in the North Beach sector and had some success later as a halfback at St. Ignatius High School. He went on to play for the University of Santa Clara as a freshman in 1927 but his playing career was ended shortly after by a shoulder injury. He received his diploma in 1931 at the height of the Great Depression. He got a job driving a truck for $80 a month while his father, an immigrant from Italy, had built up a flourishing ship's service business on the San Francisco waterfront, only to see it fold in the wake of the depression years.

As the country's economic state began to improve, so did Morabito's. By 1940, when he was 30 years old, he became a success in the lumber carrier business. The army turned him down for duty in 1942 because of partial deafness, which later forced him to wear a hearing aid.

By 1946, the San Francisco 49ers first year of operation, the Bay Area was in the middle of a postwar economic surge. Morabito's lumber yard was in huge demand as houses were springing up to shelter the fast–growing population that was migrating to California.

Morabito owned the new All–America Football Conference franchise with his partners in the Lumber Terminals of San Francisco – Allen E. Sorrell and E.J. Turre – and his younger brother, Victor.

Sorell suggested the team be named "49ers" after the voyagers who had rushed the West for gold. It is the only name the team has ever been affiliated with and

49ers Founder, Tony Morabito

San Francisco is the only city in which it has resided. The original team logo depicted San Francisco's wild beginnings. It was a goldminer in boots and a lumberjack shirt, firing a pair of pistols. One shot just missed the miner's head, while the other missed his foot. The logo was taken from a design seen on the side of railway freight cars.

With a charter, name and logo, the group recruited Lawrence "Buck" Shaw, Santa Clara's famous "Silver Fox," as the 49ers first head coach. The organization spent $250,000 to get structured before the team even took their first snap. Morabito's approach was considered "first class," by most, and a financial risk by many.

But Morabito charged on, hand–picking an inaugural roster comprised of 32 players including Frankie Albert, Norm Standlee and Bruno Banducci, all from Stanford, and stars from Santa Clara, including Alyn Beals, an end who scored 46 pro touchdowns in four years. Other known players on the roster were Len Eshmont, Johnny "Johnny Strike" Strzykalski and Joe "The Toe" Ventrano.

Morabito watched as his 49ers played their first game on August 24, 1946, a 17–7 exhibition win over the Los Angeles Dons at Balboa Park in San Diego. The 49ers first home game was played at Kezar Stadium on September 1, 1946, a 34–14 exhibition win over the Chicago Rockets in front of 45,000 fans made up of longshoremen, draymen, mechanics and waterfront workers.

The first regular season league game was on September 8, 1946 against the New York Yankees. The 49ers scored first, but lost 21–7 in a game that began in sunshine and ended in the famous Kezar fog.

The 49ers finished 9–5 in their first season under Shaw, and went on to have an 8–4–2 record in 1947, 12–2 finish in 1948 and 10–4 record, including a trip to the Championship Game, in their final season in the AAFC.

At the end of 1949, it was announced that the AAFC had run its course. San Francisco, Cleveland and Baltimore received NFL franchises and would begin play in the NFL in 1950. The merger was what Morabito had hoped for all along as he, his brother Victor and general manager Lou Spadia, continued to hold the reins.

The 49ers struggled during their first season among the NFL elite, finishing with a 3–9 record. The following year though, the 49ers went 7–4–1.

As the seasons went on, Morabito was the heart and soul of the organization, signing on greats like The Million Dollar Backfield: Joe "The Jet" Perry, Hugh "The King" McElhenny and John Henry Johnson. He also attracted some of the NFL's most renowned talents in R.C. Owens, Bob St. Clair, Leo Nomellini, John Brodie and Y.A. Tittle.

The players appreciated his honesty, and trusted his every move and word.

As the 1950's progressed, Morabito was warned by his doctors that a bad heart and the rigors of football were not a healthy combination. But Morabito wasn't going to let a health scare get in the way of his passion. "What the hell, if I'm going to die, I might as well die at a football game," he said.

On October 27, 1957, the 49ers hosted the Chicago Bears at Kezar. The 49ers entered the game with a 3–1 record behind the talents of Owens, Perry, Tittle, McElhenny, Billy Wilson, and others. The Bears had a 14–0 advantage in the first quarter before the 49ers scored to close the deficit at 14–7. Just as the 49ers lined up for the next kickoff, Morabito, who was sitting next to his wife, Josephine, and his brother, Victor, in the guest box, suddenly collapsed. The great heart that had been with the 49ers since the franchise's inception had failed.

Father Bill McGuire of St. James parish was summoned to the guest box and pronounced Morabito his final absolution. Morabito looked up at him and smiled.

"Thank you father," he said.

Those were his last words.

The 49ers were behind 17–7 in the third quarter when the team learned of Morabito's death. His players rallied and came back to defeat Chicago, 21–17, in an emotional last win for their owner. The 49ers finished the season with three straight victories and an 8–4 record, tying Detroit for the NFL Western Division title.

Victor, Tony's younger brother, kept the team in the family until 1964, when he too died of a heart attack. Both Victor and Tony's wives, Jane and Josephine, retained control of the 49ers with Lou Spadia as team president until 1977, when a new team owner, Edward DeBartolo Jr. of Youngstown, Ohio emerged to buy the franchise.

Morabito's conviction, passion and character birthed and kept an NFL franchise in San Francisco, and laid the sturdy foundation that enabled the 49ers to become one of the NFL's premier football powers over the past 60 years.

BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD

This award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best exemplifies the dedication, excellence and commitment of offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick, a five–time Super Bowl champion.

In 1999, the San Francisco 49ers, under the direction of Bill Walsh, established the Bobb McKittrick Award. The award is meant to honor those offensive linemen who have best represented the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by the late McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers.

"Bobb gave distinguished service to the organization since our renaissance in 1979," Walsh said. "He was a vital factor in five Super Bowl championships, the evolution of a dynasty and in the production of some of the finest offensive linemen in football. Offensive linemen don't receive the recognition they so richly deserve. This gives us a venue to honor their sacrifices and achievements."

A bronze plaque of McKittrick hangs in the 49ers locker room surrounded by the photographs of the McKittrick Award winners.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

The Ed Block Courage Award is named after Ed Block, the former head athletic trainer of the Baltimore Colts of 23 years. Block was a pioneer in his profession and a respected humanitarian whose most passionate cause was helping children of abuse. The award is presented in his name each year to the player that exemplified a commitment to sportsmanship and courage. Ed Block Courage Award winners from each of the 32 NFL teams are honored at a banquet in Baltimore, MD. All proceeds from the event benefit the Ed Block Courage Award Foundation's Courage House National Support Network. Named after the NFL team in a respective NFL city, a Courage House is a facility that provides support and quality care for abused children and their families in that community. The 49ers dedicated their Courage House in October 2003 at the Edgewood House in San Francisco.

EDWARD J. DeBARTOLO SR. 49ERS HALL OF FAME

The San Francisco 49ers are arguably one of the most fabled sports franchises in history. With the multitude of memories that the team's history holds, a place to honor and capture these tremendous times and legendary figures only seems appropriate.

During the 2009 offseason, the San Francisco 49ers and the York family proudly introduced the creation of the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame, named in honor of the beloved patriarch of the storied franchise. The 49ers Hall of Fame was established to recognize players, administrators and coaches who have made exceptional contributions to the organization.

A week after the creation of the new 49ers Hall of Fame, team President & CEO Jed York announced the name of its inaugural inductee, his uncle, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr., known as "Mr. D" to most close to the 49ers family. He was then officially inducted during halftime of the team's home opener versus the Seattle Seahawks on September 20, 2009.

Being inducted into the 49ers Hall of Fame is no easy task, and the selection process reflects the level of honor which it bestows. As a prerequisite for induction, all 49ers Hall of Fame candidates must have displayed one or more of the following qualifications: outstanding production and performance on the field, key contributions to the team's success, and/or the embodiment of the spirit and essence of the San Francisco 49ers.

A number of players and coaches have already been recognized in various ways throughout the years for their contributions to the game of professional football and the 49ers organization. Accordingly, the franchise has automatically enshrined members of the 49ers family who have either had their jersey numbers already retired by the organization or have been selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. These players include: John Brodie, Dwight Clark, Fred Dean, Jimmy Johnson, John Henry Johnson, Charlie Krueger, Ronnie Lott, Hugh McElhenny, Joe Montana, Leo Nomellini, Joe Perry, Bob St. Clair, Y.A. Tittle, Bill Walsh, Dave Wilcox and Steve Young.

Members of the 49ers Hall of Fame were recognized at Candlestick Park, in a special display highlighted by plaques designed in each inductee's likeness.

The 49ers organization will enshrine new members each season.

R.C. OWENS
Wide Receiver, 1957–61
49ers Hall of Fame Inductee: 2011

An eight–year NFL veteran, R.C. "Alley Oop" Owens spent his first five seasons as a member of the 49ers, totaling 177 receptions for 2,939 yards and 20 touchdowns with San Francisco. His most productive year came in 1961 when he started all 14 games, caught 55 passes for 1,032 yards and scored five touchdowns. A former college basketball star, Owens transferred his skills over to the football field and was notorious for out–leaping defensive backs for high arching passes from QB Y.A. Tittle. Thus, the origin of the term "Alley Oop" was created, and later became more well–known from its use in basketball. A free agent in 1962, Owens went on to play with the Baltimore Colts and New York Giants, before retiring following the 1964 season. After his playing career ended, Owens spent more than two decades working for the 49ers. In that time, he held various positions for the team, including Director of Training Camp and Director of Alumni Relations.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

December 10, the NFL and AAFC announced that the two leagues will merge. The NFL agrees to adopt Baltimore, Cleveland and San Francisco as new franchises.

1950

The 49ers struggled in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951

In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race until the season's final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by LB Hardy Brown and his famed shoulder tackle, the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the League. QB Y.A. Tittle and E Billy Wilson began their great 49er careers.

1952

After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in mid–season. HB Hugh "The King" McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become the NFL PLAYER OF THE YEAR and the most feared runner in football.

1953

The 49ers had their best NFL showing posting a 9–3 record, normally good enough for a championship. Detroit, however, was 10–2. Two of San Francisco's losses came with QB Y.A. Tittle sidelined because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. FB Joe "The Jet" Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. E Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954

The 49ers jumped out to a blazing start, posting a 4–0–1 record through the season's first five games. However the early momentum was slowed by injuries to three key members of the legendary "Million Dollar Backfield." QB Y.A. Tittle, HB Hugh McElhenny and FB Joe Perry all missed action with different injuries, but Perry returned to become the first player to record 1,000 yards rushing in consecutive seasons.

1955

With HB Hugh McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second–worst season in history under Norman P. Strader, who succeeded Buck Shaw as head coach.

1956

In head coach Frankie Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were in last place at mid–season with a 1–6 record. They went 4–0–1 in their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957

This undoubtedly was one of the most emotional and dramatic seasons in 49ers history. Every game was a cliffhanger and the Alley Oop pass from QB Y.A. Tittle to rookie HB R.C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing 17–7, the 49ers fought back for a great victory, 21–17. The magnificent E Billy Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8–4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31–27, after holding a 27–7 lead in the third quarter.

1958

An up–and–down season finished on a high note with victories over Green Bay and Baltimore. The 6–6 record, however, was blackened by the 33–3 and 56–7 lacings at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams. Head coach Frankie Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959

With Howard W. "Red" Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and QB John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21–20 upset of Cleveland. HB J.D. Smith, a converted defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960

Howard W. "Red" Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his shotgun attack and the club captured four of its last five games, including a 30–22 upset of Baltimore.

1961

The success of Howard W. Hickey's shotgun amazed the football world, especially in a 49–0 victory over Detroit. QB Billy Kilmer, a passing–running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the shotgun stopped, QB John Brodie took over again in the T formation and had the finest season in 49ers QB annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second–place tie, plus a trip to the Runner–up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth–place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 will remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49ers history.

1962

For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished a frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at Kezar Stadium, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963 – A multitude of injuries to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2–12 season. One of the victories, however, was a 20–14 upset of ultimate world champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

Club Chief Executive Victor P. Morabito died of a heart attack in May. Injuries to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season despite having one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Outstanding rookie performances by E Dave Parks, QB George Mira and LB Dave Wilcox also took some of the sting from the 4–10 record.

1965

Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. QB John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, E Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie FB Ken Willard and veteran HB John David Crow, acquired in an offseason trade, led a strong ground game. The 7–6–1 record included a season–opening 52–24 victory over the Chicago Bears, marking the most points scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

1966

After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before the midway point and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual world champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they finished with a respectable 6–6–2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. G John Thomas and E Dave Parks were All–Pro, and they joined G Howard Mudd, C Bruce Bosley, FB Ken Willard and LB Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

1967

An auspicious start (5–1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six–game losing streak took them out of the running. QB George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season–ending victories and salvage a 7–7 record. There were bright spots, however, as QB John Brodie and the 49ers were the only team to beat the power–laden Rams in a league game. G Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season.

1968

Under new coach Dick Nolan, the 49ers posted a 7–6–1 record. The season turned on key wins over the New York Giants, 26–10, and Green Bay, 27–20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, WR Clifton McNeil and RB Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while DT Charlie Krueger, LB Dave Wilcox and DB Kermit Alexander sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and G Howard Mudd were chosen All–NFL and were joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.

1969

Beset by injuries that nearly decimated the defensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season. They went winless in their first five games before beating Baltimore, the first time they had beaten the Colts in 13 previous games. The 49ers finished 4–8–2 and five players—HB Jimmy Johnson, LB Dave Wilcox, G Elmer Collett, RB Ken Willard and rookie WR Gene Washington—were selected to the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also All–Pro and winner of the Len Eshmont Award.

1970

This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The team recorded a 10–3 record and captured the Western Division (NFC) Championship. QB John Brodie was the NFL'S Player of the Year, CB Bruce Taylor was NFC Rookie of the Year and Coach Dick Nolan was a near–unanimous choice as NFC Coach of the Year. Brodie, WR Gene Washington, LB Dave Wilcox and HB Jimmy Johnson were All–Pro and joined T Len Rohde in the Pro Bowl.

1971

The 49ers forged a 9–5–0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, clinching the crown on the final day by beating Detroit, 31–27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in 1957. The season also was the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. C Forrest Blue, LB Dave Wilcox and CB Jimmy Johnson were All–Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington, RB Vic Washington, DE Cedrick Hardman and CB Bruce Taylor.

1972

Early–season inconsistency, compounded by an injury to QB John Brodie in the fifth game of the season, cast appall on the 49ers prospects for a third–straight NFC Western Division title, but QB Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game against Minnesota, the recovered Brodie relieved Spurrier and threw two TD passes in a 20–17 win over the Vikings. The victory clinched divisional title number three, but Spurrier's nine–game contribution was the key. C Forrest Blue, DB Jimmy Johnson, TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington and LB Dave Wilcox were All–Pro selections.

1973

In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5–9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule, a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of QB John Brodie and DT Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. C Forrest Blue and LB Dave Wilcox were voted All–Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, G Woody Peoples and P Tom Wittum.

1974

The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter QB Steve Spurrier, a week before the season opened, sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games, the club lost a team–record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of its last five to finish the season 6–8. RB Wilbur Jackson was named The Sporting News ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and was named to the NFL All–Rookie team along with QB Tom Owen and DB Mike Holmes. C Forrest Blue and P Tom Wittum were All–NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with HB Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced perennial All–Pro LB Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11–year career with the 49ers.

1975

A strong defensive performance throughout the season couldn't offset an erratic offense troubled by an unsettled quarterback situation and a rebuilding offensive line. The high point of the 5–9 season was a 24–23 win over Los Angeles to end a 10–game losing streak to the Rams. At season's end, DE Cedrick Hardman was the club's first ever two–time Len Eshmont Award winner.

1976

A turnaround year for the 49ers as the team, under coach Monte Clark, posted an 8–6 record, their first winning season since 1972. With new QB Jim Plunkett at the controls, the 49ers got off to their best start ever (6–1), before hitting a mid–season four–game losing streak knocking the club out of playoff contention. The season saw the emergence of a powerful defensive unit that led the league in quarterback sacks with 61. RB Delvin Williams set a 49ers single–season rushing record with 1,203 yards. DE Tommy Hart was named All–Pro and played in the Pro Bowl along with Williams, DE Cleveland Elam and LB Dave Washington. C Randy Cross was an All–Rookie team selection. Hart became a two–time winner of the Len Eshmont Award and CB Jimmy Johnson retired after a brilliant 16–year career with the 49ers.

1977

In the 32nd year of their existence, the 49ers began a new era. On March 31, 1977, the club became the property of Edward J. DeBartolo Jr. and came under the guidance of Joe Thomas as general manager. The changeover was made more dramatic because the San Francisco 49ers were one of the few NFL franchises which had never previously changed ownership or location. On the field, under Coach Ken Meyer, the 49ers ran hot and cold. The club lost its first five games, then won five of the next six before dropping the final three contests to finish 5–9. SS Mel Phillips was named winner of the coveted Len Eshmont Award. DE Cleveland Elam was selected All–Pro and played for the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

1978

The 49ers suffered through their longest season as the club fell to 2–14 and three coaches were hired and fired in less than 12 months. First Head Coach Pete McCulley departed after nine games with a 1–8 record, and his replacement, Fred O'Connor, was let go at the end of the year as the team won just one of its final seven contests. Bill Walsh was hired as the new coach and general manager. RB Paul Hofer, who replaced RB O.J. Simpson when the newly–acquired star went to the sidelines for the year with a shoulder injury, was named recipient of the Len Eshmont award.

1979

The 49ers suffered through their second consecutive 2–14 season, but there were several indications of improvement. San Francisco went from virtually the worst–ranked offensive team in the league in '78 to one of the most productive in '79, ranking first in passing offense in the NFC and sixth in total offense in the NFL. RB Paul Hofer again was the Len Eshmont Award recipient and individual leader, racking up 615 yards rushing and an additional 662 yards receiving on 58 catches in only seven starts. QB Steve DeBerg broke Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for completions by connecting on 347 passes. K Ray Wersching set a club record with an 83.3 field goal percentage and also led the league with that mark. RB O.J. Simpson retired from the 49ers and the NFL, finishing as the second leading rusher of all time with 11,236 yards.

1980

In their second season of the Bill Walsh era, the 49ers showed gradual improvement in their rebuilding program. A three–game winning streak to open the season, combined with a three–game victory string from Week 12 through Week 14, enabled the Niners to post a 6–10 season, tripling the number of victories from each of the previous two 2–14 campaigns. Week 14 was a day when the 49ers made NFL history. That December 7 at Candlestick Park, the 49ers overcame a 35–7 halftime deficit to win over the New Orleans Saints to win in overtime, 38–35. The 28–point comeback was the biggest comeback in NFL history. E Jim Stuckey and P Jim Miller were named to All–Rookie teams, while another rookie, FB Earl Cooper, led the NFC in receptions with 83, the most catches ever by an NFL rookie. WR Dwight Clark caught 82 passes to break the team wide receiver mark, and QB Joe Montana set the club passing percentage record at 64.5 with 176 completions in 273 attempts.

It was a year of firsts and bests for the 49ers in 1981. In his third season as head coach and general manager, Bill Walsh guided San Francisco to a 16–3 record (best record in the league that year), the NFC Western Division title (first since '72), the NFC Championship crown (first ever for the 49ers) and the World Championship/Super Bowl XVI win (first ever for the 49ers). Walsh earned every possible NFC Coach of the Year award and all seven NFL Coach of the Year honors, while six 49ers were named to the Pro Bowl—WR Dwight Clark, C Randy Cross, QB Joe Montana, DE Fred Dean, S Ronnie Lott and S Dwight Hicks. Three San Francisco players were selected to All–Pro teams as recognized by the NFL—Cross, Lott and Dean. Montana, who led the NFC in passing in '81, was named MVP of Super Bowl XVI (for leading his team to a 26–21 win over the Cincinnati Bengals of the AFC). Dean was picked UPI NFL Defensive Player of the Year, NFL Outstanding Defensive Lineman of the Year (NFL Players Association) and NFC Defensive Player of the Year (Kansas City Committee of the 101). San Francisco opened and closed the season in Pontiac, MI in drastically different styles. The 49ers lost two of their first three games of 1981, including the season opener on the road against Detroit, then ran off seven wins—before a loss to Cleveland 15–12—and ran off eight more wins (including playoffs, the NFC Champion– ship and Super Bowl XVI). The 49ers won 15 of their last 16 games, beat five opponents twice—including all three postseason foes—and became the first team since Chicago in 1945–47 to go from the worst NFL record (2–14 in 1979) to the league's best (13–3 in '81) in just three seasons. All this happened with three rookies (S Carlton Williamson, CB Eric Wright and Lott) starting in the defensive secondary. Those three rookies, along with Montana, Clark, Cross, WR Freddie Solomon and Hicks, combined with "old veterans" Dean and LB Jack "Hacksaw" Reynolds, formed a nucleus of world championship vintage.

As defending world champions, the San Francisco 49ers did not enjoy the 1982 season, but then not many NFL fans, coaches and players throughout the league did either (except maybe in Washington, where the Redskins were Super Bowl XVII champs). The Niners fell to 3–6 and missed out on the play-offs. In the strike–shortened season, San Francisco went winless at home (0–5) but did manage a 3–1 road record (the Niners were 0–2 prior to the 57-day players' strike and 3–4 following it). WR Dwight Clark had an outstanding season, leading the NFL with 60 receptions and being named consensus All–Pro and NFL Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated. LB Keena Turner (second–team All–Pro), S Ronnie Lott (Pro Bowl), C Randy Cross (Pro Bowl), S Dwight Hicks (Pro Bowl), T Keith Fahnhorst and QB Joe Montana (NFL record for five straight 300–yard passing games) were bright spots in an otherwise disappointing season.

1983

For the second time in three seasons, San Francisco played in the NFC Championship Game. The '83 49ers were 10–6 (third best regular season victory total in club history) and NFC Western Division Champions (fifth time since 1970, second time since 1981). In the playoffs, San Francisco squeezed past Detroit, 24–23, but lost to Washington, 24–21, in the NFC Championship contest. Individual standouts included QB Joe Montana (the league's No. 1 all–time QB entering the 1984 season), S Ronnie Lott (making his third Pro Bowl appearance in as many years), DE Fred Dean (leading the NFC in sacks with 17.5), DE Dwaine Board (second in sacks with 13), CB Eric Wright (team leader in interceptions with seven, two for scores), WR Dwight Clark (team leader with 70 receptions and eight TDs), WR Freddie Solomon (club record 21.4 yards per catch), K Ray Wersching (team–record 126 points, including a perfect 51–of–51 PATs), offensive linemen C Randy Cross, T Keith Fahnhorst and G John Ayers, RB Roger Craig (752 yards rushing, 427 receiving), RB Wendell Tyler (856 rushing yards, 285 receiving) and NFL All–Rookie team pick LB Riki Ellison.

The 49ers experienced the most successful regular season in NFL history by winning a league record 15 games, including all eight road contests—setting yet another NFL standard. The Niners broke 14 team records in '84, while becoming the first NFC team to sweep all of its conference games, and the first NFC West unit to win all contests within the division. Led by RB Roger Craig and QB Joe Montana, San Francisco capped the year by routing the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XIX, 38–16. The win was the 18th victory of the '84 campaign, establishing an NFL standard for wins in a single season (including playoffs). San Francisco scored a then team–record 475 points. The 49ers defense was the stingiest in the NFL in '84, allowing a league–low 227 points scored. Honors were numerous, including Pro Bowl recognition for 10 of Bill Walsh's charges—Montana, RB Wendell Tyler, T Keith Fahnhorst, C Randy Cross and C Fred Quillan on offense and S Dwight Hicks, S Ronnie Lott, S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright (the entire Niners secondary), and LB Keena Turner on defense.

At 10–6, San Francisco qualified for postseason play for the fourth time since 1981. Offensively, RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice emerged as potent weapons in the attack. Craig became the first NFL player to surpass 1,000 yards rushing and receiving in the same season. Rice was named NFC ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and set the team record for first–year players with 927 receiving yards. The defense experienced the influx of four new starters in '85 (NT Michael Carter, LB Todd Shell, LB Michael Walter and DE John Harty). Carter won a berth on the Pro Bowl team, as did DBs Eric Wright and Carlton Williamson.

1986

The 49ers captured their fourth NFC Western Division title since 1981. Offensively, the team was led by All–Pro wide receiver WR Jerry Rice, who paced the NFL with 1,570 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns. Those marks established club standards in addition to Rice's team–record 16 total scores. The defense managed 49 takeaways, tying the Kansas City Chiefs for NFL leadership. San Francisco's 39 interceptions and 578 return yards set team records, while five scores on interceptions returns tied another club mark. S Ronnie Lott tied HB Dave Baker's 1960 team record with 10 interceptions. The output by young players was vital due to major injuries suffered by many starting veterans. San Francisco made 20 roster moves during the season, shuffling players in and out of action. QB Joe Montana missed Weeks 2–9 due to back surgery, while backup signal–caller Jeff Kemp did not play Weeks 8–11 due to a hip injury.

1987

The San Francisco 49ers marched to an NFL regular season best 13–2 record. It marked a league–leading third time in the decade of the '80s that the team either tied or posted the best win–loss percentage during the regular season. San Francisco led the NFL with 5,987 total yards and was best among league defenders allowing 4,095 total yards. It was the first time in Niners history that the team led the league in fewest total yards allowed. WR Jerry Rice set NFL records with 22 receiving touchdowns and scoring receptions in 13 consecutive games. The durable wide out received postseason Most Valuable Player awards from nearly every news agency and sports publication. QB Joe Montana won the first NFL passing title of his nine–year career and set a team record with 31 touchdown passes. S Ronnie Lott, Montana and Rice were joined by NT Michael Carter and RB Roger Craig on the NFC squad in the 1988 Pro Bowl.

1988

The 49ers climaxed their 1988 season in thrilling fashion with a dramatic touchdown drive in the waning seconds of Super Bowl XXIII. QB Joe Montana's 10–yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor with 34 seconds remaining in the contest gave the Niners their third Super Bowl win of the decade and the rights to the title "Team of the 1980s." The world championship game against the Cincinnati Bengals was a microcosm of the entire '88 campaign. San Francisco opened the year strong with a 5–2 record, but by Week 12 were 6–5, two games out of first place with only five contests to play. That week's victory over Washington launched a four–game winning streak that resulted in the Niners moving up from third to first place in the NFC West standings and earning a third consecutive NFC Western Division title. As the season ended RB Roger Craig broke the team's single season rushing record (finishing with 1,502 yards) and K Mike Cofer established new Niners single–season standards for field goals attempted (38) and made (27). WR Jerry Rice went on a playoff tear that included: an NFL postseason record–tying three touchdown receptions against Minnesota, the Montana–to–Rice battery hooked–up on first half touchdowns of 61 and 27 yards at Chicago, and concluded with a Super Bowl XXIII MVP performance of 11 receptions for a Super Bowl record 215 yards and a touchdown. Defenders S Ronnie Lott, DE Charles Haley, NT Michael Carter, along with Rice, Taylor and Craig, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

George Seifert was named head coach of the San Francisco 49ers just four days after the team had won its third World Championship under retiring head man Bill Walsh. Seifert's quest for the title was tested early and often as the 49ers endured nail–biting wins at Indianapolis (30–24) and Tampa Bay (20–16) to open the season. QB Joe Montana threw for 428 yards and five touchdowns, including a team–record four TD tosses in the fourth quarter resulting in a 10–point victory (38–28) in Philadelphia. Under first–year offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren, the Niners accumulated more yardage than any other NFL team. WRs Jerry Rice and John Taylor, RB Roger Craig, G Guy McIntyre and QB Joe Montana were 1990 Pro Bowl participants. Rice's 1,483 receiving yards paced the league. Craig exceeded 1,000 yards rushing for the second consecutive season and running mate FB Tom Rathman led NFC running backs with 73 receptions. Montana had the best season of his career. A consensus Player of the Year, Montana's 112.4 quarterback rating set a then NFL single–season record. Montana was selected by his teammates as the '89 recipient of the Len Eshmont Award. Fueled by Rice's 72–yard first quarter catch–and–run for a score, the 49ers exploded for 27 first half points and cruised to a 41–13 victory against Minnesota in their opening '89 playoff contest. The 49ers faced Los Angeles in the NFC Championship Game. The Niners started slowly, however. Two long, second–quarter scoring drives and a touchdown set up by an interception gave San Francisco a 21–3 lead at intermission. Cofer's three field goals cushioned San Francisco's lead as the team advanced to Super Bowl XXIV with a satisfying 30–3 win. The 49ers displayed optimal performance at the highest level of competition while securing their second consecutive World Championship. The resounding 55–10 defeat of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV was a convergence of talent and technique, planning and purpose. San Francisco tied or set nearly 40 Super Bowl records and Montana was honored with the game's MVP award for an unprecedented third time.

The Niners finished the season with an NFL–best 14–2 mark and came within four seconds (in a 15–13 loss to the NY Giants) of earning their third consecutive trip to the Super Bowl. In addition to recording the NFL's best win–loss mark for the second straight season, the 49ers captured the NFC Western Division title for the fifth consecutive year and the eighth time since 1981 ('81, 1983–84, 1986–90). San Francisco claimed its 11th Division crown since the NFL/AFL merger of 1970, more than any NFC Western Division opponent (the Rams were second with eight), and second most in NFL history (behind Miami's 13 AFC East titles).

San Francisco opened the 1990 season with a team–record 10 consecutive victories. The 49ers also posted an 8–0 mark on the road, giving them the longest road winning streak in league history (19 games, including postseason) heading into '91. QB Joe Montana and WR Jerry Rice again formed one of the most prolific aerial combinations in pro football. Montana, who was named 1990 Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated, finished his 12th NFL season by throwing for a then team–record 3,944 yards. He also tossed 26 touchdown passes (second in the NFC) and finished as the third highest rated quarterback in the conference. On the receiving end of many of those Montana passes was Rice, who became only the fourth player in league history to reach the century mark in receptions for a single season. Rice hauled in 100 passes for 1,502 yards and 13 TDs, and earned his fifth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl.

In one of the most memorable performances of the season (if not team history), Rice tied an NFL record with five TD receptions in a 45–35 victory at Atlanta, October 14. The defensive side of the ball was led by LB–DE Charles Haley's 58 tackles and an NFC–high 16 sacks. For his efforts, the fourth–year player from James Madison University was named as a starter in the 1991 Pro Bowl. LB Bill Romanowski led the team in tackles with 79, while CB Darryl Pollard registered 74, including a team–high 72 solo stops. A number of team career records fell by the wayside in '90. Montana slipped past QB John Brodie to take over the career passing lead (34,998 yards), while RB Roger Craig became the all–time team record holder in career receptions with 508, moving ahead of WR Dwight Clark's total of 506. The 49ers placed five players on the 1991 NFC Pro Bowl squad, four as starters. Representing the 49ers were Haley, Rice, S Ronnie Lott and G Guy McIntyre, while Montana, selected as a starter, was unable to participate because of a finger injury suffered in the NFC Championship Game.

It was a classic case of "too little...too late" for the San Francisco 49ers in 1991. After losing six of their first 10 games by a total of 26 points, the Niners won their remaining six contests (by a total of 95 points) but missed the playoffs for the first time since 1982.

The 49ers finished the 1991 campaign in impressive fashion during that final six–game span, with a margin of victory that averaged almost 16 points. During that final six–game span, the Niners defeated three playoff teams (New Orleans, Kansas City and Chicago) while averaging 31.5 points per game in the process. WR Jerry Rice continued to register his place in club and league history taking over the club's career receiving record with 525 catches. Rice finished third in the NFC with 80 receptions and 1,206 yards, surpassing 1,000 receiving yards for a club–record sixth consecutive season, and he led the NFL with 14 TD receptions. QB Steve Young won the NFL passing title, despite missing six games due to a knee injury. Young, who passed for 2,517 yards and 17 TDs, finished with a 101.8 rating, besting Washington's Mark Rypien (97.9) for the title.

When Young was injured at Atlanta November 3, QB Steve Bono (1,617 yards, 11 TDs) came off the bench to rally the team to five consecutive victories. On the defensive side of the ball, S Dave Waymer finished as the leader in total tackles (86), solo tackles (77), interceptions (4), interception return yards (78) and passes defensed (16) and tied CB Kevin Lewis for the lead in forced fumbles (3). LB–DE Charles Haley and DE Larry Roberts each posted seven sacks, while CB Don Griffin's 99–yard fumble return against the Bears set a team record and was the third longest return in league history. San Francisco placed three players on the 1992 NFC Pro Bowl squad, two as starters, as Rice, Guy McIntyre and Haley were all selected (Rice and McIntyre as starters). It was the sixth time in Rice's seven–year career that he was selected to play on the islands. McIntyre and Haley were each selected for the third time.

The San Francisco 49ers continued their winning tradition as they once again posted the NFL's best regular season record (14–2), while winning their sixth NFC Western Division title in seven years, and advancing to the NFC Championship Game for the second time in three seasons. In the NFC Divisional Playoffs, the 49ers defeated defending Super Bowl Champion Washington (20–13). However, San Francisco fell to Dallas, 30–20, in the NFC Championship Game at Candlestick Park the following week.

WR Jerry Rice continued to etch his name in football history, becoming the NFL's all–time touchdown reception leader with 103. He tied Steve Largent's mark of 100 in Week 13 against the Philadelphia Eagles (11–29), then broke the record the following week vs. the Miami Dolphins (12–6). QB Steve Young, who harvested a total of 34 awards, including the NFL's Most Valuable Player Award, won the NFL passing title for the second straight year, finishing an amazing 16.3 points ahead of his closest competitor. Young, who passed for 3,465 yards and 25 TDs, finished with a 107.0 rating. Following his 101.8 rating in 1991, it marked the first time in league history that anyone had posted back–to–back seasons with ratings higher than 100 each year. RB Ricky Watters gained 1,013 yards to establish a team rushing record for first–year backs. K Mike Cofer's 107 points led the 49ers in scoring for the fifth consecutive year.

On the defensive side of the ball, linebacking led the charge as LB Bill Romanowski finished as the leader in total tackles (80) and assists (15). LB Mike Walter (67 solo stops) and LB Tim Harris (17 sacks for 116 yards) also led defensive categories. CB Don Griffin paced the defensive backfield with five interceptions and 19 passes defensed.

Fans at Candlestick saw the Niners rewrite part of the team's record book in '92 as they set team marks for total offense (598 yards) vs. the Buffalo Bills (Sept. 13) and points (56) in their win over the Atlanta Falcons (56–17, 10–18). San Francisco placed seven players on the 1993 NFC Pro Bowl squad, including four starters and five first–time participants. Rice, G Guy McIntyre, DT Pierce Holt and Young were all named as starters. TE Brent Jones, Watters and T Steve Wallace were also selected. It was the seventh time in Rice's eight–year career that he was selected to play on the islands and McIntyre was named for the fourth time, while the others made their first visits.

The 1993 season was another in a long line of successes for the San Francisco 49ers. Among the team's accomplishments were: a 10–6 record, marking an NFL–record 11th consecutive season with 10 or more victories, the team's 10th NFC West title in 13 seasons and a third appearance in four years in the NFC title game. In addition, San Francisco led the National Football League in scoring and total offense and established or tied five of the team's nine major offensive records. The marks set included most net offensive yards (6,435), most TDs (61), most first downs (372) and highest average gain per play (6.3). The Niners also tied the team mark for net passing yards in a season with 4,302, equaling the record set in 1989.

Individually, QB Steve Young became the first player in NFL history to lead the NFL in passing three consecutive seasons, when he posted a 101.5 rating in 1993. In addition, it was his third consecutive season with a rating over 100, also a league first. Young completed 68 percent of his passes (second highest in team history) for a then club–record 4,023 yards. His 29 scoring passes in '93 ranked third on the team's single–season charts.

RB Ricky Watters led the ground game for the second consecutive season, narrowly missing the 1,000–yard mark with 950 yards. Watters posted 10 rushing TDs during the season and set an NFL single–game playoff record with a five–touchdown outburst vs. the New York Giants. WR Jerry Rice posted one of his best seasons, recording 98 receptions for 1,503 yards and 15 touchdowns on his way to being named NFL OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR by Associated Press. He also received the team's Len Eshmont Award. Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield was named the NFL DEFENSIVE ROOKIE OF THE YEAR, capping a season in which he registered 10.5 sacks. LB Bill Romanowski (105) and S Tim McDonald (91) topped the team in tackles. Young, Rice and McDonald were selected to the Pro Bowl, joining T Harris Barton, G Guy McIntyre, TE Brent Jones and C Jesse Sapolu with that honor.

The 1994 San Francisco 49ers completed one of the most impressive seasons in NFL history by capturing their NFL–record fifth Super Bowl Champion– ship at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami. San Francisco defeated the San Diego Chargers 49–26 in Super Bowl XXIX to put the finishing touches on a 16–3 season and win an unprecedented fifth Vince Lombardi Trophy.

The offseason started on a high note. Despite facing an NFL–imposed salary cap in 1994, the 49ers still managed to sign such veteran free agents as LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Gary Plummer, DE Tim Harris, DE Charles Mann, DE Richard Dent, LB Rickey Jackson, C Bart Oates, WR Ed McCaffrey and CB Toi Cook. Then, after some draft day maneuvering, San Francisco came away with two first–round picks in DT Bryant Young and FB William Floyd. Injuries, however, played a key factor early in the campaign. By the end of the second game in Kansas City, the 49ers had lost most of their starting offensive line, as well as the services of Dent, their top pass–rusher, to various injuries. Despite signing CB Deion Sanders prior to Week 3, the problems continued. Still playing with a decimated line, San Francisco suffered its worst loss in almost 14 years when it dropped a 40–8 decision to the Philadelphia Eagles in Week 5 at Candlestick Park. The season turned around the following Sunday at Detroit when the 49ers, trailing 14–0 at one point, rallied to defeat the Lions 27–21. That win started a winning streak that extended 10 games and saw the 49ers finish 13–3 and win the Super Bowl. Among the other highlights from the 1994 season, the 49ers offense was one of the most potent ever. During the 16–game regular season, the 49ers scored a team–record 505 points, a total that ranks as the fourth–highest total in NFL history. The 31.6 points per game average also established a team record. In addition, San Francisco scored 66 touchdowns, shattering the previous team mark of 61.

QB Steve Young recorded one of the finest seasons in NFL history. He set a league record with a QB rating of 112.8 and became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in passing four consecutive seasons. He also set team records for completion percentage (70.2) and touchdown passes (35). In Super Bowl XXIX, he passed for a record six touchdowns, while being named the game's MVP.

Rookie Floyd emerged as one of the league's brightest young stars, rushing for 305 yards and six TDs. The 49ers went 10–1 after he was named to the starting lineup in Week 6 at Detroit. Young finished third on the team in rushing with 293 yards and led the team with seven rushing touchdowns. WR Jerry Rice set a team record with 112 receptions for 1,499 yards and 13 touchdowns. However, his shining moment came in Week 1 vs. the Los Angeles Raiders when he eclipsed Jim Brown's all–time touchdown mark with 127. Norton Jr. led the 49ers with 92 total tackles and 79 solo stops. S Merton Hanks placed second with 79 tackles (66–13) while leading the team with seven interceptions. DT Dana Stubblefield's 8.5 sacks and 53.5 sack yards led the squad for the second consecutive season. And finally, Sanders, who joined the team in Week 3, shattered the team record with an NFL–high 303 interception return yards on six thefts. Among his three returns for touchdowns (tying a team mark) were efforts of 93, 90 and 74 yards. He was named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year as well as a starter in the Pro Bowl. Other Pro Bowl selections included Young, Rice, TE Brent Jones, Oates, G Jesse Sapolu, Hanks, Stubblefield, S Tim McDonald and RB Ricky Watters. CB Eric Davis had a team–leading 22 passes defensed during the regular season and four interceptions in the playoffs.

San Francisco once again captured the NFC West Championship, despite battling through a season in which injuries wreaked havoc time and again. Among the key contributors who were sidelined during the campaign were starting FB William Floyd, whose season ended with a severe knee injury in the October New Orleans game, and QB Steve Young, who missed five games with a shoulder injury. Those injuries, in addition to several others in the offensive line throughout the season, would have crippled most teams; however, the 1995 49ers established a reputation as one of the grittiest in team history.

The defensive unit created a new aggressive identity, finishing the season ranked number one in the NFL. Not only did it lead the league in scoring defense, it set team records for fewest rushing yards allowed (1,061) and fewest rushing yards per game (66.3). San Francisco's defense also excelled in takeaways, forcing a total of 34, including a team–record seven (five interceptions, two fumbles) that resulted in touchdowns.

Among the standout performers were Pro Bowl selections CB Eric Davis, FS Merton Hanks and SS Tim McDonald, marking the second consecutive season the 49ers secondary included three Pro Bowl picks. LB Ken Norton Jr. racked up 127 tackles and set a team single–game record by returning two interceptions for touchdowns at St. Louis. LB Lee Woodall and DT Dana Stubblefield rounded out the Niners Pro Bowl defensive players. Offensively, WR Jerry Rice posted the finest of his legendary 11 seasons with the 49ers. He became the NFL's career leader with 942 receptions and 15,123 yards, while also establishing the league's single–season standard with 1,848 yards. He was named as a starter in the Pro Bowl for the 10th consecutive season.

Young, who returned to quarterback the team for the final four regular season games, was also selected to the Pro Bowl, as was TE Brent Jones, who made the squad as an alternate. One of the highlights of the season was the emergence of QB Elvis Grbac. Playing in place of the injured Young, he directed the Niners to three of their biggest wins of the season at St. Louis, at eventual world champion Dallas and at Miami. Floyd was the recipient of the team's Len Eshmont Award.

One streak continued and another ended for San Francisco in 1996. With a 12–4 record, the 49ers reached double digits in the win column for the 14th consecutive season, the longest streak in the NFL. However, the upstart Carolina Panthers unseated the Niners as NFC West Champions, ending their four–year reign. San Francisco remained one of the league's most dangerous teams with an aggressive defense and a productive offense. Despite losing QB Steve Young for four full games and parts of four others with various injuries, the 49ers offense ranked second in the NFC with 398 points and sixth in the NFL in total offense.

WR Jerry Rice became the first player in NFL history to record four 100–catch seasons after making a league–high 108 receptions for 1,254 yards. The 12–year veteran earned his NFL record–tying 11th Pro Bowl invitation and was a first–team All–Pro selection. Young won his fifth NFL passing title with a QB rating of 97.2 and was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive season.

Defensively, the 49ers had the league's most imposing pass rushing trio in DE Roy Barker, DT Bryant Young and DE Chris Doleman. Barker finished fourth in the NFC with 12.5 sacks, while Doleman's 11 sacks moved him into seventh on the NFL's career list with 115.5. Young was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl team and earned first–team All–Pro honors after posting 11.5 sacks and 85 tackles. He also claimed the 49ers Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational and courageous player. The third–year veteran was joined on the Pro Bowl team by FS Merton Hanks, who was invited for the third consecutive season. As usual, Rice's assault on the record books continued. He became the first player in NFL history to register 1,000 career receptions and 16,000 receiving yards. Rice also surpassed K Ray Wersching as the team's all–time leading scorer with 982 points.

Although they appeared vulnerable after first week injuries to QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice, the San Francisco 49ers rallied under the direction of rookie head coach Steve Mariucci, reclaimed the NFC West title and advanced to the NFC Championship Game. The 49ers finished with a 13–3 mark, including an 11–game winning streak, despite losing Rice for all but two games. They did it behind a new-found running attack and the league's top–ranked defense.

Mariucci became one of 13 head coaches since the NFL–AFL merger in 1970 to lead his team to a division title in his rookie season, and he was the fourth to do it directly out of the college ranks. The former University of California skipper established an NFL record for consecutive wins by a rookie head coach with an 11–game streak (games 2–12). The 49ers claimed their 13th NFC West title in 17 years and posted 10–or–more wins for the 15th consecutive season. Young suffered a concussion against Tampa Bay on opening day, but remained healthy throughout the season and claimed his NFL record–tying (Sammy Baugh) sixth league passing title with a rating of 104.7. The 13–year veteran showed consistency while getting adjusted to a new coach, new running back and two young receivers.

The 49ers made a commitment to a power rushing attack by signing G Kevin Gogan during the offseason. The additional size up front allowed the 49ers to finish fourth in the NFC in rushing yards. RB Garrison Hearst (1,019 yards) became the first 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards since 1992. With Rice out, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes became the primary receiving targets. Owens led the team with 63 receptions for 936 yards and eight touchdowns, while Stokes posted 58 receptions for 733 yards and four touchdowns. Rice returned for one game against Denver (12–15) and helped the 49ers clinch home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 34–17 win. Rice became the first non–kicker in league history to reach 1,000 points with a 14–yard touchdown catch in the second quarter of the Broncos contest.

The 49ers defense led the league in total yards allowed (250.8), finished second in takeaways (41) and was tied for third in sacks (54). They helped carry the burden as the offense adjusted to new personnel. For the second consecutive season, the 49ers had three players reach double figures in sacks. DT Dana Stubblefield (15.0), DE Chris Dole–man (12.0) and LB Kevin Greene (10.5) led the sack attack. Stubblefield finished second in the league in sacks and was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year by Associated Press and earned the Len Esh–mont Award as the team's most inspirational player. Of the seven 49ers named to the Pro Bowl, five were from the defense. Stubblefield was joined by Dole–man, FS Merton Hanks, LB Lee Woodall and LB Ken Norton Jr. Gogan and Young were San Francisco's offensive selections.

Led by one of the most productive offenses in team and league history, San Francisco posted its 16th consecutive winning season and remained one of the NFL's elite teams. Behind the strong arm of QB Steve Young, the powerful legs of RB Garrison Hearst and the triple–threat receiving corps of WR Jerry Rice, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes, the 49ers rolled to a 12–4 regular season mark and an ap–pearance in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game. Young opened the season in sizzling fashion. The 14–year veteran established an NFL record by throwing for over 300 yards in six consecutive games, breaking the previous record of five held by former 49ers QB Joe Montana. Young finished the season complet–ing 322–of–517 (62.3) passes for 4,170 yards and 36 touchdowns. His final passing rating of 101.1 marked the seventh consecutive season he has sur–passed the 100–point barrier and earned him his seventh consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl.

The 49ers offensive line, led by Pro Bowl G Kevin Gogan, paved the way for Hearst's record–setting season. Hearst, and his team–record and career–high 1,570 yards rushing, were a major reason the 49ers led the NFL in rushing. His 198–yard per–formance against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football also set a then team–record and was a personal–best. His four plays of 70 yards or more led the league and helped earn him his first career Pro Bowl selection.

The 49ers receiving corps was in the capable hands of Rice, Owens and Stokes. Rice, return–ing from a serious knee injury in 1997, earned his 12th career Pro Bowl nomination and finished with a team–high 82 receptions for 1,157 yards and nine touchdowns. The athletic Owens asserted himself among the league's best receivers and brightest young stars by catching 67 passes for 1,097 yards and 14 touchdowns. Stokes caught a career–best 63 passes for 770 yards and eight touchdowns.

The 49ers defense was paced by the inspiring play of DT Bryant Young. Young was having an exceptional season with 54 tackles and 9.5 sacks before suf–fering a season–ending leg injury against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football. Young was still named Eshmont Award winner although missing the final four regular season games. LB Winfred Tubbs, in his first season with the 49ers, earned his first career Pro Bowl nomination after finishing with 112 tackles. CB Darnell Walker, FS Merton Hanks, S Zack

San Francisco had a streak of 16 consecutive winning seasons snapped, after finishing the 1999 season with a 4–12 record. A season–ending injury to QB Steve Young in Week 3 sent the 49ers into a tailspin from which they did not recover. Replacing Young proved to be quite a task for QBs Jeff Garcia and Steve Stenstrom. Garcia received the first try at the job and responded admirably, posting a 24–22 victory, with a QB rating of 106.0, over the Tennes–see Titans in his first NFL start. Garcia would start the next four games, but was replaced by Stenstrom in Week 10 at New Orleans. With Stenstrom struggling in starts against the Saints, Rams and Packers, the 49ers coaching staff returned Garcia to the start–ing lineup for a December 5 game at Cincinnati. And what a return it was. Garcia threw for a career–high 437 yards against the Bengals, including throwing two touchdown passes to WR Jerry Rice. The game proved to be an impetus for Garcia, who over the final five games of the season completed 121–of–182 passes for 1,441 yards, eight touchdowns and three interceptions for a quarterback rating of 98.3.

During that stint, Garcia completed 66.5 percent of his passes and was sacked just three times for 25 yards. San Francisco also was faced with the task of replacing 1998 Pro Bowl RB Garrison Hearst and his team–record 1,570 yards rushing. A key off–season acquisition of RB Charlie Garner proved more than an adequate replacement. Garner rushed for a career–high 1,229 yards, caught a career–high 56 passes for 535 yards and finished third in the NFL with 1,764 total yards.

The San Francisco running attack also was given a boost by second–year FB Fred Beasley's 276 yards rushing and 282 yards receiving, both marks were career–high's. Overall the 49ers led the NFL with 2,095 yards on the ground, becoming the first team to lead the league for consecutive seasons since Buffalo did it in 1991–92. The 49ers also led the league with a per–rush average of 5.0 yards.

The San Francisco receiving corps was once again paced by Rice. He finished the year with 67 receptions for 830 yards and five touchdowns. Cer–tainly not the kind of numbers that Rice is accus–tomed to, but over the final five games of the season, Rice caught 24 passes for 420 yards (17.5) and three touchdowns. In that span he posted two 100–yard games, including a six–reception, 143–yard ef–fort at Atlanta (1–3) in the season finale. WR Terrell Owens added 60 receptions for 754 yards and four touchdowns while J.J. Stokes totaled 34 grabs for 429 yards and two touchdowns, including a five–reception, 130–yard performance at Atlanta (1–3) in the season finale.

The 49ers defense struggled for much of the season, but was highlighted by several individual performances. DT Bryant Young was named the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year and earned a Pro Bowl selection. After overcoming a devastating leg fracture that ended his 1998 season and left his future clouded in doubt, Young answered all questions by earning a Pro Bowl nomination with his 11.0 sacks on the season. S Lance Schulters, in his first season as a starter, responded by finishing second in the NFC with six interceptions, including a game–winning 64–yard return against New Orleans

(9–19) in the second week of the season. Schulters was named as the starting free safety for the NFC squad in the 2000 Pro Bowl.

San Francisco opened its sixth decade in the NFL under new leadership. The transfer of ownership from Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. to his sister Denise DeBartolo York was approved by the NFL May 23, 2000. DeBartolo, Jr. ended his tenure after guiding the 49ers to five Super Bowl Championships and 16 postseason appearances. A young San Francisco team, which at one point started five rookies on de–fense, showed marked improvement throughout the season, winning four of the last six games, to finish 6–10.

The offense again was one of the best in the league, which led to three starters being named to their first Pro Bowl – QB Jeff Garcia, RB Charlie Gar–ner and WR Terrell Owens. Garcia, who was in his first season as the full–time starter, set the pace for the offense all season long. He set career–highs in every category, completing 355–of–561 passes for a team–record 4,278 yards, with 31 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions. He finished the year ranked fifth in the NFL with a 97.6 quarterback rating. Garcia started all 16 games and had six 300–yard passing games, including a 402–yard effort against Chicago in December, which was his third straight 300–yard passing performance and his sixth of the season. His productivity not only led to his first Pro Bowl appear–ance, but Football Digest also named him the NFL'S Most Improved Player.

WR Terrell Owens was one of the many benefac–tors of Garcia's success. Owens posted his second career 1,000–yard season, catching a career–high 97 passes for 1,451 yards, which ranked him fourth in the NFL. Owens, who only played in 14 games during the season, also had five 100–yard games and scored a team–high 13 touchdowns. Owens had his best performance of his career against Chicago in December, breaking a 50–year old NFL record with 20 receptions for 283 yards and one touchdown. Owens broke Tom Fears' NFL record of 18 recep–tions in a game, which he set back in 1950 with the Rams. The 49ers backfield was again in the capable hands of Garner and FB Fred Beasley. Garner earned his first Pro Bowl appearance and became the fourth 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards in back–to–back seasons. Garner, behind the stellar play of the 49ers offensive line, ran for 1,142 yards on 258 carries and seven touchdowns. Also a receiving threat, Garner set career–highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns. In addition, he established a team record with 201 yards rushing vs. Dallas. Beasley also had a solid year, rushing for 147 yards on 50 carries and three touchdowns, while catching 31 passes for 233 yards and three touch–downs.

The 49ers defense was young, but got better over the last half of the season. The defense was again paced by the efforts of DT Bryant Young, who posted 51 tackles and led the team in sacks with 9.5. LB Ken Norton Jr. was one of only three players to start all 16 games, extending his consecutive games streak to 160. The 49ers defense started five rookies in the final game at Denver and had seven different rook–ies start throughout the 2000 campaign. Rookies CB Ahmed Plummer, DE John Engelberger and CB Jason Webster all started at least 10 games. Six rookies—Plummer, Webster, Engelberger, LB Julian Peterson, DT Cedric Killings and S Ronnie Heard—participated in more than 20–percent of the total 1,096 plays.

The San Francisco 49ers made their return to the playoffs after a two–year absence, as the young and improving team posted a 12–4 record. The year marked the return of RB Garrison Hearst, who came back from a devastating ankle injury that kept him out of football for two seasons. Hearst rushed for 1,206 yards, was named Associated Press Come–back Player of the Year and also earned his second career Pro Bowl nomination. In total, the 49ers had six players travel to the islands for the annual all–star game. In addition to Hearst on offense, QB Jeff Garcia and WR Terrell Owens made their second straight appearances, C Jeremy Newberry played in his first Pro Bowl, G Ray Brown made the first Pro Bowl appearance in his 16–year career, and on defense DT Bryant Young made his third Pro Bowl appearance, anchoring the 49ers defense that im–proved from ranking 29th in 2000 to 13th in 2001.

The offense was again in the capable hands of Garcia. The Gilroy native proved that 2000 wasn't a fluke. He completed 316–of–504 passes for 3,538 yards. The third–year veteran also threw 32 touchdowns, becoming the first 49ers quarterback to throw for 30 or more touchdowns in consecutive seasons. Owens was one of Garcia's favorite tar–gets, especially when it came to the endzone. Owens caught 93 balls for 1,412 yards and a career–high and NFL leading 16 touchdowns. While Hearst was the big story, the offensive line, which returned all five starters from the 2000 season, proved to be vital to the team's success. For the fifth consecutive sea–son, San Francisco produced a 1,000–yard rusher, which set a new team record.

The defense was still young, but improved as the season progressed. The defensive line added two new starters to the mix, although one of them was not so new. DT Dana Stubblefield returned to the 49ers after spending three seasons with Washington and rookie DE Andre Carter made an impression, es–pecially in the last four weeks of the season when he was named NFC Rookie of the Month. Carter led the team in sacks with 6.5, adding 4.5 of those in the last five games. The unit as a whole improved over the last half of the season, posting a team–record three shutouts in the last month of the campaign. Another big addition was LB Derek Smith, who came over from the Redskins as well. Smith brought with him four consecutive seasons of 100 tackles or more. Smith kept that streak alive as he led the defense with 126 total tackles. Also helping the defense with its improvement was S Zack Bronson and CB Ahmed Plummer. Both players recorded career–highs with seven interceptions each. Bronson also returned two for touchdowns, including a career–high and team record 97–yard return at Chicago.

The San Francisco 49ers entered 2002 with hopes of advancing past the first round of the NFC play–offs. The team accomplished the mission finishing the season with 10 wins and advancing to the NFC Divisional Playoffs in grand fashion with the second largest playoff comeback in NFL history. The 49ers finished the season with a 5–1 division record and won their first division title since 1997. The team's success came from its ability to minimize turnovers, along with a strong running game. The 49ers gained 2,244 yards on the ground for the second consecu–tive season and RB Garrison Hearst established a career–high with eight rushing touchdowns. Helping Hearst were Pro Bowlers G Ron Stone and C Jeremy Newberry, who anchored an offensive line that was third in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed.

San Francisco had the least amount of turnovers in the NFC with 17. In his third season as director of the 49ers offense, QB Jeff Garcia earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl berth. He completed 62 per–cent of his passes and tied a team record by di–recting five fourth–quarter comebacks. WR Terrell Owens continued his dominance with a career–high 100 receptions and led the NFL with 13 receiv–ing touchdowns. Owens surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the third consecutive season and earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl bid.

Defensively, LB Julian Peterson had a breakout season with a career–high 104 tackles. He shut down several of the league's top tight ends and made history by playing four positions in a single game against Dallas (12–8). His effort earned him his first career Pro Bowl appearance. DT Bryant Young added an interior presence with his fourth ca–reer Pro Bowl nomination and S Tony Parrish proved to be an invaluable pickup with a career–high seven interceptions. He won the Len Eshmont and the Ed Block Courage Award, both firsts for a player in his inaugural season.

Head Coach Steve Mariucci was released from the final year of his contract on January 15, 2003. The 49ers conducted an extensive search for Mari–ucci's successor and in the end hired Dennis Er–ickson. Erickson was introduced as the 14th head coach in 49ers team history on February 12, 2003. The Erickson era started with a 7–9 record for the 49ers in 2003.

The team struggled on the road, winning only one game, but was impressive at home, scoring more than 45 points in two separate home games. The team was represented in the Pro Bowl, the 23rd consecutive year the 49ers had at least one team representative in the islands. In 2003, WR Terrell Owens made his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, LB Julian Peterson made his second consecutive trip and FB Fred Beasley made his first career appear–ance in Hawaii. On offense, QB Jeff Garcia missed three games due to injury, but threw for 2,704 yards and 18 touchdowns. In his place, QB Tim Rattay re–sponded admirably, throwing for 856 yards and sev–en touchdowns while posting a 2–1 record in those three games. RB Kevan Barlow recorded his first ca–reer 1,000–yard rushing season after becoming the main tailback after RB Garrison Hearst went down with a knee injury and missed the final four games. Owens recorded his fourth consecutive 1,000–yard season, amassing 1,102 yards despite missing the final game of the year.

The 49ers defense finished the year ranked 13th overall in the NFL and ninth against the run. The unit was led by Pro Bowler Peterson, who led the team in sacks with seven, and S Tony Parrish, who tied for the league lead with nine interceptions. The group as a whole recorded 42 sacks on the year, the high–est total since 1998, which was good for second in the NFC and tied for fourth in the NFL. In addition, the 49ers defensive unit allowed only 268 yards per game, the lowest total since 1997. San Francisco also caused turnovers as evidence by its 13 fumble recoveries, its highest total since 1997.

The San Francisco 49ers continued to build depth with a young squad of versatile and talented athletes in 2004. Despite a 2–14 overall record, the group was able to gain significant experience while individuals on both sides of the ball notched career milestones over the 16–game span. The 49ers also swept NFC West rival Arizona in two thrilling overtime battles in the confines of both Monster Park and on the road in Sun Devil Stadium. The team was also represented in the Pro Bowl for the 24th consecutive year as LS/TE Brian Jennings made his first trip to the Pro Bowl. Jennings was chosen to serve as a "need" player in Hawaii by the NFC coaching staff. On offense, TE Eric Johnson returned to the lineup after missing 2003 with a broken collarbone and paced the team with 82 receptions for 825 yards and two touchdowns. His performance was the best–ever by a 49ers' tight end.

WR Brandon Lloyd led the scoring attack with six touchdown receptions while RB Kevan Barlow steadied the ground game with 244 carries for 822 yards and seven touchdowns. Under center, QB Tim Rattay battled shoulder, forearm and foot injuries to play in nine games, including a career–best 417–yard performance in the 49ers first of two bouts against Arizona. Rattay rallied the offense from a 16–point fourth–quarter deficit to win 31–28 in overtime. In the process, he completed a team–re–cord 38 passes en route to his first 400–yard game.

DT Bryant Young's 11 years of NFL experience served as the veteran voice behind the defensive unit. Young led the line with 79 tackles and three sacks and enjoyed a career game against Chicago after notching 10 tackles and two sacks, his 17th career multi–sack game. For his efforts, Young was presented the team's Len Eshmont and Bill Walsh Awards. It was an unprecedented fifth Len Esh–mont award win for Young. DE John Engelberger responded with a career year, with a career–high 64 tackles. He led team with 6.0 sacks. Also a steady rock on defense was SS Tony Parrish, who started all 16 games to give him 112 consecutive career starts, the third–longest active streak at his position. LB Derek Smith also chipped in at the linebacker post, reaching the 100–tackle plateau for the eighth straight year. Smith and fellow LB Jeff Ulbrich led the team with 167 tackles. After a season–ending Achil–les injury to LB Julian Peterson, LB Jamie Winborn stepped up with 104 tackles, 4.5 sacks and three forced fumbles.

The 49ers also saw much promise from a handful of young participants. Second–year T Kwame Har–ris played in 14 contests and did not allow a sack in the last five games after returning to the start–ing lineup on the left side. Also gaining experience on the line was rookie G Justin Smiley who played in all 16 games with nine starts. On the opposite side of the ball, rookie RCB Shawntae Spencer fin–ished third in the league with 12 starts as a rookie.

He also led the defensive unit with 12 passes defensed. Second–year DT Anthony Adams continued to flourish in his role, registering a career–high nine stops against Washington. The special teams unit remained staunch, led by the efforts of rookie P Andy Lee. Lee finished the season with a 41.6–yard average, the highest since P Reggie Roby during the 1998 campaign. He led all rookies in the NFC in gross average and boomed an 81–yard punt against Tampa Bay (11–21–04) which was the longest of 2004 and the fourth–longest in team history. Another rookie, S Keith Lewis, also made his presence felt as he became the first player in 49er history to block a punt, force a fumble and recover a fumble in the same season. Lewis was able to accomplish this trifecta on only special teams plays.

The San Francisco 49ers faced a tremendous amount of adversity during the 2005 campaign under new Head Coach Mike Nolan, but utilized both the highs and lows as opportunities to grow and improve. With a mix of veteran experience and young talent, the team doubled their win total from 2004 with a 4–12 record, including a series sweep over NFC West division rival St. Louis, a home win against playoff contender Tampa Bay, and a nail–biting overtime victory in the 2005 season finale against Houston.

The 49ers also made a historic trip to Mexico City to play NFC West division rival Arizona in front of an NFL–record 103,467 fans. Even though the 49ers lost a league–high 101 games by starters, including three of the four starters in the secondary, there were many individual and team bright spots, including strong showings from five players who started every game in 2005 (LB Derek Smith, NT Anthony Adams, G Justin Smiley, T Kwame Harris and C/G Eric Heitmann). Of the 11 original 2005 draft selections, 10 went on to spend the 2005 season on the 49ers roster and contributed on offense, defense and special teams. Six of the 10 started in some capacity throughout the season (RB Frank Gore, QB Alex Smith, G David Baas, T Adam Snyder, TE Billy Bajema and CB Derrick Johnson).

On offense, four different quarterbacks saw time under center. The most experienced of the four in the quarterback rotation, Tim Rattay, took the initial starting reins and led the 49ers to a 28–25 opening day victory against St. Louis. Shortly after, first overall draft pick Alex Smith made his professional debut, stepping in to relieve Rattay at Arizona in Mexico City. With the eventual trade of Rattay in Week 7 to Tampa Bay, and a knee injury to Smith, both Ken Dorsey and Cody Pickett also stepped in to call plays in the pocket. Smith returned to the starting lineup and gained valuable playing experience, seeing action in nine games with seven starts while showing outstanding poise and maturity in the pocket.

WR Brandon Lloyd led the aerial attack with 48 catches for 733 yards including five touchdowns from four different quarterbacks. WR Arnaz Battle also gained ground after rebounding from a knee injury, averaging 11.3 yards per catch while snagging three touchdowns. On the ground, RB's Kevan Barlow, Frank Gore and Maurice Hicks all chipped in 100–yard single–game performances and three touchdowns each. Gore had a stellar first season while pacing all 49ers rushers with 127 carries for

Defensively, veteran leader DE Bryant Young led the team with eight sacks (including three multi–sack contests), his most since 2000. His 77.5 sacks put him into third place on the 49ers all–time sack leader list. For his stellar performance, Young was voted by his teammates as the 49ers recipient of the Len Eshmont and Ed Block Courage Awards. Also paving the way was LB Derek Smith, whose 163 tackles led the 49ers, his fifth straight time to pace the unit. The team's co–MVP/Bill Walsh Award winner also notched his ninth straight 100–yard campaign. In the absence of an injured Jeff Ulbrich, LB Brandon Moore responded by finishing second on defense with career highs in tackles (93), sacks (5), interceptions (1) and fumble recoveries (1). Before he was lost for the season with a fractured fibula, S Tony Parrish posted two interceptions, returning one for a touchdown. His teammates, CBs Mike Adams and Shawntae Spencer led the team with four interceptions and a touchdown return each.

The special teams unit played a big part in the team's scoring efforts as co–MVP Bill Walsh Award winner K Joe Nedney accounted for 97 49ers points off of 28 field goals (including a 56–yard career long) and 19 extra points. P Andy Lee's three touchbacks in 107 punts placed him with the third–best ratio of touchbacks–to–punts among punters with 30 or more kicks in 2005. Special teams ace Terry Jackson stayed true to his form by leading the coverage unit with 21 tackles. And rookie return man Otis Amey got the season off to an electrifying start after returning a 75–yard punt for a touchdown in the season opener against St. Louis. Amey became the fifth 49ers rookie to return a punt for a touchdown and the first to do so on his first–ever return. He also became the second 49ers player (behind WR Nate Singleton) to score a touchdown on his first touch.

Under the direction of second–year Head Coach Mike Nolan, the 49ers continued to build a framework for success – that included utilizing young talent sprinkled with enough veteran leadership to mentor and keep the group heading in the right direction. After a 4–12 campaign in 2005, the 49ers significantly increased their win total to seven and closed the year with two, morale–boosting road wins in Seattle and Denver to finish 7–9. The organization picked up some key free agents prior to the start of the 2006 season, including All–Pro and future Hall of Fame G Larry Allen, speedy playmaker CB Walt Harris and 13–year NFL veteran and proven Super Bowl winner QB Trent Dilfer. Their acquisitions paid immediate dividends. Allen and Harris joined second–year RB Frank Gore at the Pro Bowl to mark the 25th time in club history the team has been represented, and Dilfer served as a sturdy mentor to second–year starting QB Alex Smith.

The 49ers also added talent through the draft, picking up nine immediate contributors. Eight of the nine draft picks (TE Vernon Davis, LB Manny Lawson, WR Brandon Williams, RB Michael Robinson, DE/LB Parys Haralson, TE Delanie Walker, S Marcus Hudson and DE Melvin Oliver) saw action during the season while three (Davis, Lawson and Oliver) were starters.

Offensively, the 49ers grew by leaps and bounds, largely in part to the schemes and game plans run by new Offensive Coordinator Norv Turner. QB Alex Smith began to flourish under Turner's guidance and became the first–ever 49ers quarterback to take every snap for the entire regular season while showing dramatic improvement in year two. He set career highs in every offensive category and led the 49ers to a fourth–quarter comeback win (24–14) in Seattle in his first career primetime game. C Eric Heitmann held strong under center, serving as the line's vocal and emotional leader and Bobb McKittrick Award winner. Leading the offensive production was RB Frank Gore, who plowed behind the line and new free agent FB Moran Norris en route to setting a franchise–record 1,695 rushing yards, tops in the NFC, and another record 2,180 combined yards. His 212–yard performance against Seattle was the highest single–game rushing total in 49ers history and was one of nine 100–yard rushing performances on the season. Gore was voted the team's co–MVP/Bill Walsh Award winner and Ed Block Courage Award recipient. Also chipping in was rookie TE Vernon Davis, who scored on his first NFL touch, a 31–yard touchdown catch in the season opener at Arizona.

The defensive unit overcame some early struggles and improved significantly during the second half of the season. LB Brandon Moore led the unit in tackles (114) and sacks (6.5) in his first year as a full–time starter. Consummate veterans LB Derek Smith (93 tackles), DT Marques Douglas (75 tackles, three sacks) and seven–time Len Eshmont Award winner DE Bryant Young (60 tackles, 5.5 sacks) led the group up front while CB Walt Harris and S Keith Lewis (72 tackles, two interceptions, one sack) proved to be new, impact presences in the secondary. Harris finished with one sack and a career–high eight interceptions including a 28–yard touchdown return at Denver. Rookie LB Manny Lawson wrapped his inaugural campaign with 65 tackles, 2.5 sacks, one interception and a blocked punt while rookie DE Melvin Oliver had 50 stops, one sack and a 12–yard fumble return for a touchdown. On special teams, K Joe Nedney amassed 116 points, the second–highest total of his career and eighth most in team history. Nedney was also successful on three onsides kicks. RB Maurice Hicks continued to play a key role in the special teams effort. He led the unit with 20 tackles, one fumble recovery and also returned 57 kickoffs for a franchise record 1,428 yards, third best in the NFC. Also making a difference on the special teams unit was rookie RB Michael Robinson, who finished with 16 stops and a 33–yard return for a first down on a fake punt at Seattle.

Head coach Mike Nolan and his team entered the 2007 season believing that anything less than the playoffs would be a disappointment. Unfortunately, the team fell far short of that mark with an overall 5–11 record as four different quarterbacks took the helm of the 49ers offense. 49ers fans did experience some highlights in 2007, including another 1,000–yard rushing season for RB Frank Gore and a stellar season by LB Patrick Willis. The 49ers top pick out of

Ole Miss won Defensive Rookie of the Year and Pro Bowl honors. Willis was also the only NFL rookie to be named All–Pro in 2007, becoming the first 49ers defensive rookie to earn the honor since CB Ronnie Lott in 1981. His 226 tackles was an unofficial NFL record and Willis earned numerous additional accolades. P Andy Lee joined Willis at the Pro Bowl as he put together one of the greatest punting season in NFL history. Lee set an NFL record for punts downed inside the 20–yard line with 42, while ranking second in gross punting average (47.3) and net punting average (41.0) behind Oakland's P Shane Lechler.

The 49ers went 2–1 in primetime games in 2007, winning the season opener on Monday Night Football against the Arizona Cardinals and defeating the Cincinnati Bengals on a Saturday night game in December. QB Alex Smith started the season with a 2–1 record before experiencing a shoulder injury in the fourth game of the season against Seattle. He eventually was placed on Injured Reserve in December and underwent surgery. QB Trent Dilfer stepped in for Smith and led the team with 1,166 passing yards on 113–of–219 passing. Dilfer eventually would suffer a concussion vs. Minnesota (12–9), and QB Shaun Hill replaced the veteran in Week 13 of the season. Hill was sharp during his three games of action, completing 54–of–79 passes for 501 yards with five touchdowns and one interception. However, Hill would also succumb to injury, being sidelined with a back injury for the season finale. QB Chris Weinke saw action in the final game of the season.

Despite inconsistency on offense, the 49ers special teams unit was among the league's most elite in 2007. K Joe Nedney connected on 17–of–19 field goal attempts, while Lee booted 49 punts of 50 or more yards (16 more than any other punter). At the conclusion of the season, one of the all–time great 49ers, DT Bryant Young, retired from the NFL after 14 seasons with San Francisco. Young led the 49ers with 6.5 sacks and finished with 89.5 sacks for his career, which is third on the 49ers all–time sack list behind Cedrick Hardman and Tommy Hart. He earned his eighth Len Eshmont Award, given to the player who best exemplifies the inspirational and courageous play of Len Eshmont.

The San Francisco 49ers entered the 2008 season following a simple mantra, 'One game at a time.' Throughout the year, 49ers players and coaches experienced several transitions and tribulations, but did not allow their minds to linger in the past, nor venture too far into the future. The focused approach proved effective as the team won five of its final seven games to close out the season.

After a promising 2–1 start to the year, San Francisco dropped four straight contests before making a change at head coach. In his fourth season at the helm of the 49ers, Mike Nolan was replaced by assistant head coach/linebackers coach Mike Singletary. Upon accepting the position, Singletary said the foundation was in place to take the team to the 'next level.' The response by his players and staff proved positive as the 49ers finished with a 5–4 record under Singletary's direction. Immediately following the conclusion of the season finale against Washington, team President Jed York announced to onlooking players and coaches in the locker room that Singletary would remain the 49ers head coach moving forward. The quarterback position was one of the first areas that Singletary addressed when taking over midway through the 2008 season. QB J.T. O'Sullivan started the first eight games of the year and showed an ability to make big plays, but costly turnovers proved to be problematic for the signal caller. O'Sullivan was replaced at the end of the first half of Singletary's first game as head coach against Seattle. Singletary later announced QB Shaun Hill would take over the starting role for the remainder of the season. The move appeared to be the right one as Hill went on to post a 5–3 record and a 87.5 overall passer rating. While Hill made his season debut midway through the year, RB Frank Gore was once again the centerpiece of the 49ers offense.

Despite missing two games with an ankle injury, Gore became the first 49ers player to rush for over 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons, finishing the year with 1,036 rushing yards and 1,409 total yards from scrimmage. WR Isaac Bruce, who earned the team's coveted Len Eshmont Award in his first season in a 49ers uniform after spending 14 years with the Rams, recorded team–highs in receptions (61), receiving yards (835) and touchdown catches (7). TE Vernon Davis, who was named as an alternate for the Pro Bowl, finished the season ranked fourth on the team in receptions (31) and receiving yards (358).

On defense, Singletary consulted with defensive coordinator Greg Manusky and transitioned the unit into a more simplified, yet productive 3–4 alignment midway through the season. Over the final nine games of the year, the 49ers improved from 23rd in total defense to finish 13th (326.0) in the NFL. LB Patrick Willis earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl nod after totaling a team–high 185 tackles, while LB Takeo Spikes ranked second on the team with 122 tackles to go along with three interceptions in his first year with San Francisco. LB Parys Haralson had a breakout season with eight sacks, the most by a 49ers linebacker since Kevin Greene posted 10.5 in 1997. The 49ers defensive line got a boost with the offseason signing of DE Justin Smith, who ranked second on the team with seven sacks and fourth on the squad with 104 tackles.

As one of the most experienced units in the NFL, the 49ers secondary finished the season strong, allowing an average of 177.4 passing yards per game over the final five contests, which ranked third among NFL teams during that time span.

For the second year in a row, the 49ers special teams unit ranked among the best in the NFL. Led by special teams coordinator Al Everest, P Andy Lee, KR/PR Allen Rossum and RB Michael Robinson were all named alternates for the Pro Bowl. Lee finished the season ranked third in the NFL with a career–high and team–record 47.8 gross average.

The 49ers took a step forward in 2009, recording their best finish since 2002 with an 8–8 record in head coach Mike Singletary's first full season, which included a 5–1 record against the NFC West. The 49ers opened the season with a bang against the defending NFC Champion Arizona Cardinals. LB Patrick Willis, who was named to his 3rd consecutive Pro Bowl as a starter at year's end, recorded the first of his career–high 3 INTs on the year to propel his team to a 20–16 road victory. RB Frank Gore also played a large role in the win, scoring the go–ahead TD in the 4th qtr. as part of a 2–score performance. On the season, he went on to set personal bests with 10 rushing TDs and 13 total TDs, while becoming the only 49er ever to post four 1,000–yd. rushing seasons, despite missing two games to an ankle injury. Gore repeated his 2–TD performance the following week in a 23–10 victory at home against Seattle, running for scores of 79 and 80 yds. to join RB Barry Sanders as the only players in NFL history to register 2 TD runs of 75+ yds. in a single game.

With the momentum of a spotless division record, San Fran traveled to Minnesota for what would be an action–packed matchup. In a game where an ankle injury felled Gore on his first attempt, TE Vernon Davis rose to the occasion and recorded 2 TDs, one of which gave the 49ers a 4–point lead in the 4th qtr., which they held until Minnesota's last drive. Vikings QB Brett Favre milked every last second as he fired a 32–yd. TD pass with 2 seconds remaining, stabbing the hearts of 49ers fans. The 49ers bounced back the next week against St. Louis, defeating the Rams 35–0 to mark the first shutout by the team since 2002.

Following a crushing 45–10 loss to Atlanta at Candlestick Park, San Fran added another weapon to its arsenal as rookie WR Michael Crabtree joined the team over the bye weekend after missing the first 5 games of the season because of a contract impasse. Crabtree hit the ground running and went on to lead all NFL rookies with a 56.8 yds./game avg. over the final 11 contests. In his debut at Houston, the rookie dazzled the crowd with some acrobatic catches, but the show would eventually turn to two 49er veterans. After falling behind 21 points at halftime, Singletary made a change at quarterback, inserting Alex Smith into the lineup for Shaun Hill. Smith, who hadn't seen any action in nearly two years, responded by throwing a career–high 3 TDs in the final 2 qtrs., all of which were caught by Davis. Following the Texans game, Smith would go on to start the remainder of the season and register career–highs in passing TDs (18), completion pct. (60.5) and quarterback rating (81.5), while Davis proceeded to put up historic numbers on his way to being named a starter in his first Pro Bowl. The talented tight end finished the year with 965 yds. and tied the NFL single–season record for TD receptions (13) by a tight end. The next week at Indianapolis, the team lost starting LT Joe Staley on the first offensive play to a knee injury.

Behind the crafty play–calling of defensive coordinator Greg Manusky, the 49ers became the only team to hold NFL MVP QB Peyton Manning without a TD on the season. Despite the unit's valiant effort, the 49ers fell 18–14. A 34–27 loss to the Titans at home inspired the squad for a prime–time, Thursday Night Football showdown against Chicago. In what was a microcosm of the defense's season, the unit recorded 5 INTs, including SS Michael Lewis' victory–sealing pick in the end zone. After digging themselves a 23–3 hole at Green Bay, San Fran valiantly battled back in the final 2 qtrs., only to come up short by less than a TD in the 30–24 defeat.

The defense exacted revenge at home against Jacksonville the following week, allowing just 3 points as Davis and Gore each scored in the 20–9 victory. Despite a career–high 310 yds. passing from Smith, the 49ers lost in Seattle, 20–17, before returning home for a prime time, MNF rematch against Arizona. A statement game for the defense, the 49ers forced 7 turnovers (5 FRs, 2 INTs), including a franchise record 7 FFs, as the 24–9 win sealed the season sweep of the Cardinals. The Niners penchant for forcing turnovers allowed them to post the NFL's 5th–best turnover ratio in 2009 (33 takeaways; 24 giveaways). In the blizzard–beaten city of Philadel– phia the following Sunday, the Niners struggled with turnovers in a 27–13 loss to the Eagles. Facing De– troit a week later, TDs from Davis and Gore led the way as the 49ers outgunned the Lions 20–6.

San Fran would move toward its final game in St. Louis with a chance to secure its first non–losing season since 2002. Overcoming a slow 1st half, Alex Smith and Co. put up 28 points in the final half, in– cluding a 73–yd. TD catch by Davis to register his record–tying total. Gore capped off the day with 2 TDs and his 5th 100–yd. performance of the year, giving him 20 such career games and tying him with Joe Perry for the franchise record.

The San Francisco 49ers entered the 2010 sea– son with high hopes, having finished the previous season with their best record since 2002 and hav– ing five players named to the Pro Bowl. The 49ers dug themselves an insurmountable deficit with a 0–5 start that they ultimately could not overcome. San Francisco finished the year with a 6–10 record and a third place finish in the NFC West. The 49ers opened the season on the road against the Seattle Seahawks. With the arrival of former USC head coach Pete Carroll, the 49ers were not completely certain about what to expect and were stunned by a 31–6 loss.

The Niners opened their home slate on Monday Night Football against the Super Bowl Champion New Orleans Saints to Candlestick Park. RB Frank Gore rushed for 112 yds., and 1 TD on the ground and 1 through the air. 49ers QB Alex Smith passed for 275 yards, but his heroics were not enough as New Orleans posted a late FG giving the Saints a 25–22 victory. A dismal offensive performance in a 31–10 loss in Kansas City influenced head coach Mike Singletary to let offensive coordinator Jimmy Raye go and promote QBs coach Mike Johnson to the role of play–caller. In week 4 the Niners traveled to Atlanta. The 49ers started fast but their inability to finish, however, ultimately cost them a win as the Falcons edged them,16–14.

San Francisco returned home for its 2nd prime– time matchup in as many home games. NBC's Sun– day Night Football pitted them against the Philadel– phia Eagles. Again, San Francisco showed up under the brightest of lights, posting 309 yds. through the air including 3 TDs, but a late game INT gave the 49ers their 5th straight loss of the season, 27–24. The 49ers added some rays of hope against the vis– iting Oakland Raiders. Gore accounted for 149 yds.

rushing, leading the 49ers offense to 349 yds. of total offense and earning the Niners their first win of the season, 17–9.

The 49ers next test would be at Carolina. The Niners failed to capitalize on a late–game lead and allowed the Panthers to mount a 20–23 comeback victory on a game–winning FG as time expired. Starting QB Alex Smith suffered an injured shoulder during the 4th qtr. At 1–6, the team boarded a plane and traveled to London for a week–long road trip to square off with the Denver Broncos in the 2010 International Series game. With QB Troy Smith at the helm due to the injury to Alex Smith a week earlier, the "home team" defeated Denver, 24–16. After the bye week, the 49ers returned home to defeat divi– sion foe St. Louis 23–20 in OT, behind the big–play arm of Troy Smith and the Frank Gore run game.

The ensuing 21–0 shutout by Tampa Bay at Candlestick, the first home shutout since 1977, in– spired the squad for a prime–time, MNF showdown at Arizona. The defense held the Cardinals to just 13 yds. rushing and forced 2 turnovers. Unfortunately, perennial Pro Bowl RB Frank Gore suffered a frac– tured hip during the contest ending his season. After a forgettable 34–16 loss to Green Bay at Lambeau Field, San Fran erupted for a season–high 40 points against the visiting Seahawks. Mike Singletary had handed the started QB role back to Alex Smith after the GB loss, and he went on to throw for 255 yds. and 3 TDs in the 40–21 win. Despite the momentum the Niners seemed to gain they lost, 34–7, at San Diego in a Thurday night matchup.

Despite a 5–9 record, San Francisco was still in NFC West hunt. Looking for a spark Singletary once again switched QBs, this time to Troy Smith. The spark that was expected never came to be and the 49ers suffered a devastating, 25–17, loss at St. Louis. With the division title and all playoff hopes out of reach, team President and CEO Jed York relieved head coach Mike Singletary of his duties that eve– ning. Defensive line coach Jim Tomsula was later promoted to interim head coach for the final week of the season. The 49ers battled to finish the season with a favorable taste in their mouths vs. Arizona. RB Brian Westbrook notched 2 TDs while Alex Smith threw for 276 yds., 2 TDs and a QB rtg. of 107.8, in a 38–7 win.

The San Francisco 49ers 2011 season began with great hope surrounded by as much, if not more, uncertainty, due in large to the arrival of head coach Jim Harbaugh and the lack of an offseason for the new coaching staff to gel with its players. By sea– son's end, Harbaugh had led his team to a 14–4 record, a NFC West Division Title and a berth in the NFC Championship Game.

Although the 49ers became a blue collar unit fo– cused solely on wins, individual honors were plenti– ful for the team in 2011. Harbaugh was named AP Coach of the Year at season's end and the team boasted a league–high five First Team AP All–Pros – DT Justin Smith, LB Patrick Willis, LB NaVorro Bow– man, K David Akers and P Andy Lee (LT Joe Staley and CB Carlos Rogers were named to the Second Team). San Francisco also posted a NFL–high nine Pro Bowl selections – Smith, Willis, Akers, Lee, Rog– ers, Staley, S Dashon Goldson, RB Frank Gore, and LS Brian Jennings.

Led by Willis and Smith, both finalists for Defen– sive Player of the Year, the 49ers defense possessed the most dominant front seven in the game, a unit that produced 40 of the team's 42 sacks and a De– fensive Rookie of the Year finalist, LB Aldon Smith, who set the franchise's rookie sack record (14). The unit began the year without allowing a rushing TD in its first 14 games, a feat never before achieved in league history. The defense's NFL–high 38 take– aways allowed the 49ers to lead the league with a team–record turnover differential (plus–28). By the end of the year, the defense ranked 1st in the NFL against the run, 2nd in points allowed, and 4th in total defense.

The San Francisco offense played a physical brand that controlled the tempo of games, rarely made mistakes and made plays when it was ulti– mately needed. Six times in 2011, QB Alex Smith, RB Frank Gore and the Niners offense mounted come–from–behind wins. The offense tied NFL single–season records for fewest turnovers (10) and interceptions (5). Gore became the franchise's all–time leading rusher surpassing Joe "The Jet" Perry. Smith put together his finest year as a pro, finishing the season with a 90.7 QB rating, a 61.4 completion percentage and the NFL's lowest inter– ception percentage (1.1). The quarterback also tied the franchise record with four, 4th quarter come– from–behind wins on the road (QB Joe Montana – 4 in 1989).

Special teams lived up to its name for the 49ers in 2011, as the unit finished the season ranked atop the NFL. The team featured two record–setting specialists in Akers and Lee. Akers set the NFL re– cord for most field goals made (44) and most points in single–season, no touchdowns (166), while Lee registered a 44.0 net punt average, also setting a new NFL record. KR Ted Ginn Jr. became the first player in franchise history to record a punt return for a touchdown and a kickoff return for a touchdown in the same game in the season opener versus Seattle.

Inside the friendly confines of Candlestick Park, San Francisco posted a 7–1 record. The Niners never trailed by more than 3 points at home all sea– son and averaged 27.6 points per game, ranking 6th in the NFL. The 49ers also boasted a 6–2 record away from home. The 6 wins on the road were the most by the team since 1996 (6–2).

In the 49ers first postseason game since 2002, they defeated the New Orleans Saints, 36–32. TE Vernon Davis shined as he registered 7 receptions for 180 yards and 2 touchdowns, including the game–winning 14 yarder from Alex Smith with :09 remaining.

A magical season came to an end in the NFC Championship game, as the 49ers fell to the eventual Super Bowl Champion New York Giants in overtime, 17–20.

Carrying the heavy expectations from a trip to the NFC Championship in 2011, the 2012 San Francisco 49ers took a step further and won the NFC for the first time since the 1994 season. Head coach Jim Harbaugh led his team to a 11–4–1 regular season record, a second straight NFC West Title, and the sixth Super Bowl appearance in franchise history.

For the second consecutive season, accolades accompanied team achievement. The 49ers led the NFL with six First–Team AP All–Pro selections – LB Patrick Willis, LB NaVorro Bowman, LB Aldon Smith, G Mike Iupati, S Dashon Goldson, P Andy Lee and three Second–Teamers DT Justin Smith, LB Ahmad Brooks and T Joe Staley. In addition to the All–Pros, the 49ers also had nine players selected to the NFC Pro Bowl team – Bowman, Goldson, RB Frank Gore, Iupati, Aldon Smith, Justin Smith, Staley, S Donte Whitner and Willis. The Niners offensive line was also awarded the 2012 Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award, which recognizes the best offensive line in the National Football League.

The 49ers defense picked up where they left off in 2011, dominant. The unit, which returned 10 of 11 starters from 2011, finished 2nd in the NFL in total points allowed (17.1 pts. per game) and 3rd in total defense (294.4 yds. per game). Aldon Smith broke Hall of Fame DE Fred Dean's franchise sack record (17.5 in 1983), with 19.5. That mark was 2nd in the NFL in 2012 and t–10th in NFL history. A stone–wall rush defense held opponents to an average of just 94.2 yds. per game, which ranked 4th in the NFL and a pass defense that allowed 200.2 yds. per game that also ranked 4th. The defensive unit was one of two teams in the NFL to rank in the top five in all four categories (Denver).

A dynamic and physical rushing attack complimented the Niners defense in 2012. Gore surpassed RB Roger Craig and RB Joe Perry's franchise record of 50 career rushing TDs by punching in his 51st TD vs. Arz. (12/30). Entering the starting lineup in Week 11 due to an injured QB Alex Smith, QB Colin Kaepernick left opposing defenses in a daze with his versatility. In the Divisional Round of the playoffs vs. GB (1/12/13), Kaepernick set the NFL single–game rushing record by a quaterback with 181 yds. rushing and 2 TDs on 16 carries, as well as completing 17 of 31 atts. for 263 yds., and 2 TDs. Big plays from Kaepernick not only came on the ground, but through the air as he completed 21, 25+ yds. completions, which was good for 2nd in the NFL since taking over the starting job.

Special teams started the season off with K David Akers tying a NFL record long FG when he nailed a 63–yd. kick at GB (9/9). Andy Lee sat atop the NFL with a 43.2 net punting average and landed 36 punts inside the 20–yd. line, 3rd most in the NFL in 2012 and the second highest single season total of his career.

The 49ers were 6–1–1 at Candlestick Park this season, with the defense allowing just 9 TDs, the best in the NFL.

In addition to Kaepernick's record–breaking performance in the 49ers 45–31 Divisional Round victory vs. the Packers, San Francisco also became the first team in NFL history to ever have two, 100–yd. rushers [QB Colin Kaepernick (181 yds. rushing), RB Frank Gore (119 yds. rushing)] and one, 100–yd. receiver [WR Michael Crabtree (119 yds. receiving)] in a playoff game. The following week, the Atlanta Falcons jumped out to a 17–0 lead in the NFC Championship Game at the Georgia Dome and Kaepernick led the charge by hitting 16 of 21 passes for 233 yds. and 1 TD with a QB rating of 127.7 as the 49ers came back to win 28–24. It was the 2nd largest deficit overcome to win a conference championship in NFL history.

The curtains closed on the biggest stage for the 2012 49ers as they fell to the Baltimore Ravens 34–31 in Super Bowl XLVII. The 49ers became the first team in Super Bowl history to have a 300–yd. passer, a 100–yd. rusher and two, 100–yd. receivers in a single game. Kaepernick threw for 302 yds., RB Frank Gore added 110 yds. rushing, WR Michael Crabtree tallied 109 rec. yds. and TE Vernon Davis recorded 104 rec. yds.

Following a trip to Super Bowl XLVII in 2012, the San Francisco 49ers battled through adversity and high expectations to reach the NFC Championship Game for the third year in a row. Head coach Jim Harbaugh led his team to a 12–4 regular season record as the team closed out historic Candlestick Park and moves to its new home in 2014, Levi's® Stadium.

Possessing a deep, talented roster, the 49ers had nine players selected to the 2014 Pro Bowl, the second most in the NFL – LB NaVorro Bowman, LB Ahmad Brooks, TE Vernon Davis, RB Frank Gore, G Mike Iupati, S Eric Reid, DT Justin Smith, T Joe Staley and LB Patrick Willis. San Francisco also had one First–Team AP All–Pro selection – Bowman, and four Second–Teamers – Brooks, V. Davis, J. Smith and Staley.

The 49ers defense continued its dominance under defensive coordinator Vic Fangio. The unit finished 3rd in the NFL in scoring defense (17.0 pts.

per game), 4th in rushing defense (95.9 yds. per game), 5th in total defense (316.9 yds. per game) and 7th in passing defense (221 yds. per game). They were also the only team to not allow a 100–yd. rusher during the regular season.

In 2013, the Niners featured a balanced offensive attack. Frank Gore rushed for 1,128 yds. and 9 TDs, which ranked t–6th in the NFL, and WR Anquan Boldin registered team–highs in recepts. (85) and rec. yds. (1,179). It marked the first time since 2003 that the 49ers have had a 3,000–yd. passer, 1,000–yd. rusher and 1,000–yd. receiver in the same season. QB Colin Kaepernick passed for 3,197 yds., the most for a 49ers QB since 2002 (Jeff Garcia – 3,344). He also rushed for 524 yds. during the regular season, which is the 2nd highest single–season rushing total by a quarterback in franchise history (Steve Young, 1992 – 537). During the postseason, Kaepernick rushed for 98 yds. at GB (1/5/14 – NFC–WC) and 130 yds. at Sea. (1/19/14 – NFC–C). He now owns three of the top five rushing performances by a QB in NFL postseason history.

The 49ers special teams unit was spectacular all season long. Veteran K Phil Dawson made 32 of 36 FG atts., including a franchise–record 27 in a row, en route to recording the 2nd–most made FGs in franchise history. He made two game–winning FGs [vs. Sea. (12/8) and at Arz. (12/29)] and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Weeks 14 and 17 for both performances. Andy Lee finished the season with the 3rd–highest gross avg. (48.2 yds.) and 4th–highest net avg. (41.7 yds.) in the NFL.

San Francisco took part in the NFL International Series, defeating the Jacksonville Jaguars, 42–10, at Wembley Stadium in London. With the win, the 49ers became the second team to win multiple games at Wembley Stadium (New England).

The 49ers hosted the final regular season game at Candlestick Park against the Atlanta Falcons on Dec. 23. The game marked the 350th played by the 49ers in their longtime home, "It's an iconic venue," said Harbaugh when asked to sum up his feelings before the farewell game. "It'd be an honor to be on that sideline for the last game at Candlestick, and we want to win it." The 49ers would go on to win the game, 34–24, in epic fashion. In the 4th quarter, after closing the gap to 3 points and recovering a crucial onside kick, the Falcons seemed poised to score a go–ahead touchdown and threaten the festivities of the final game at Candlestick. However, The 'Stick had one last moment left when CB Tramaine Brock broke up a Matt Ryan pass and NaVorro Bowman made the interception and returned it 89–yds. for the score, sealing the legacy of the historic venue and sending the 49ers into the playoffs.

The season came to an end after dropping a back–and–forth contest with the division–rival Seattle Seahawks, 23–17, in the NFC Championship Game at CenturyLink Field. Jim Harbaugh became the first head coach in NFL history to lead his team to a conference title game in each of his first three seasons.
