AWARDS & HONORS

2017: Thomas Herrion Memorial Award

GOLDMINE

- During all Week 13 games in 2017, NFL players had the chance to share the causes that are important to them as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. Colbert is supporting Silicon Valley FACES for My Cause, My Cleats. Dedicated to creating and promoting an empathetic and inclusive community free of bias, bigotry and violence through programs and advocacy, he chose Silicon Valley FACES to support social equality and teach the Golden Rule. "My cause is Social Equality," said Colbert. "I want to help make a positive change in the world and find a solution to the issues I dealt with growing up."

- As part of Salute to Service Month, Colbert, along with his teammates and general manager, John Lynch, visited the USO office at the San Jose Military Entrance Processing Station to spend time with military applicants and their families as they took the Oath of Enlistment and shipped off to basic training.

COLBERT'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- In 2017, named the recipient of the 49ers Thomas Herrion Memorial Award, which was established in 2005 by 49ers owners Denise and John York and is presented to a rookie or first-year player who best represents the dream of Thomas Herrion. The recipient has taken advantage of every opportunity, turned it into a positive situation and made their dream turn into a reality. The award is voted on by the coaches.
- After spending four years (2012-15) and graduating from the University of Texas, Colbert transferred to the University of Miami to further his education and secured a final season of eligibility.
- Colbert has been an active volunteer in his communities. In previous years, he's volunteered for the Salvation Army and youth football camps in addition to working at concession stands at youth football games.
- In the spring of 2013 at Texas, Colbert was named a member of the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- Colbert overcame adversity at age 10 when he was living in Wichita Falls, TX. While racing a friend on his bike, Colbert ran a stop sign and was hit by a car, went through the windshield and suffered life-threatening injuries, falling into a coma for more than a week. His father, Adrian Sr., became motivated to make a change and moved them 90 miles south to Mineral Wells, TX, to escape from the gang environment that Adrian Sr. was apart of in Wichita Falls. After moving to Mineral Wells, Colbert didn't quite feel at home, but found additional support from the Clarke family, who treated him like a son of their own. Colbert was introduced to the family when he was approached by one of the three daughters in the family, Katy, asking if he needed a ride while walking the three miles home from school. He became part of their family, referring to them as parents and sisters, and even put his number in Mrs. Clarke's phone as 'Adrian - my adopted son.' "It made it easier for me to call [Mineral Wells] home," Colbert said. "Not only having my family, but a family that was already established here that loved me just like my family loved me."
