GOLDMINE

- In October of 2015, Johnson took time to visit patients at University Hospitals Seidman Cancer Center in Cleveland, OH. He spent time encouraging patients and dropped off goody bags filled with memorabilia, including warm blankets to keep the patients warm in the blistering Cleveland winter. Johnson's mother, Genesis, is a breast cancer survivor and he learned perseverance at a young age by watching her battle cancer.

He now tries to give back and uplift other women dealing with the very same battle he saw his mother go through, motivating them so they know they can win the battle.

JOHNSON'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Played tight end during his entire career at Mississippi State before converting to fullback in the NFL.
- While attending Northridge (Tuscaloosa, AL) HS, was a stand-out basketball player in addition to football for the Jaguars.
