IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

OFF THE FIELD IMPORTANCE

Robinson has emphasized the importance of getting involved in the community throughout his career, best displayed through his work with Minnie's Food Pantry, located in Plano, Texas.

The group's mission is to provide healthy meals and resources to those in need. Robinson opted to wear cleats dedicated to the charity during NFL's "My Cause, My Cleats" week.

His community involvement is not limited to Minnie's Food Pantry however, as the sixth year linebacker has also been involved in raising money and awareness for the Harvey Housing Project after Hurricane Harvey, and attended several United Way events during his time with the Giants.

During his time at Texas, Robinson served as a mentor at local middle schools in the Austin area as part of the Brothers and Brothers program and was an active member at several church functions.

PERSONAL

Robinson earned his degree in physical culture and sport and earned a minor in business. Him and his wife Lauren have a daughter named Kaidence.
