INDIANAPOLIS COLTS OFFICERS

ROBERT IRSAY

President and Treasurer

"The greatest thrill I've had in football was on April 2, 1984, when I walked into the Hoosier Dome with Mayor (Bill) Hudnut in front of all those fans," says Robert Irsay of the 20,000 people who showed up to welcome the Colts to Indianapolis. "It is my intention," Irsay continues, "for the Colts to be a vital contributing member of the greater Indianapolis community."

Irsay became owner of the Colts on July 26, 1972, when he traded his recently-acquired Los Angeles Rams to Carroll Rosenbloom for the Colt franchise. Irsay had purchased the Rams from the estate of Dan Reeves.

Irsay was born on March 5, 1923, in Chicago's northern "Bucktown" section. He worked his way through the University of Illinois, where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in mechanical engineering. (While attending Illinois, he was an Illini football teammate of former Colt Alex Agase.)

From 1941 to 1945, he served in the United States Marine Corps., after which he worked for a mechanical contracting company in Chicago.

In 1952 he formed the Robert Irsay Company of Skokie, Ill. After building the business into one of the largest and most respected heating, ventilating and air conditioning companies in the world, Irsay sold his company to a firm listed on the New York Stock Exchange in 1971. He remained associated with the firm until 1978 when he formed Colt Construction and Development Co., and its affiliate, Colt Developers, Co., which are diversified construction and development companies.

Irsay is an active supporter of many charitable organizations. Among these are: Big Brothers, Little Sisters of the Poor, the Noble Center, Christamore House, Black Expo, the Mental Health Association and Cystic Fibrosis Foundation in Indianapolis; Foundation for Children with Learning Disabilities, New York, New York; Stritch School of Medicine at Loyola University in Chicago; and the Troubled Children's Foundation Center in Hialeah, Fla. He makes further donations through the Colts as a member of NFL Properties which dedicates a major portion of its earnings to NFL Charities.

Irsay has two sons, Tom (39) and Jim (34), the club's general manager.

JIM IRSAY

Vice President and General Manager

Dedication: The best description of Jim Irsay's commitment to bringing winning football to the City of Indianapolis. Irsay has been involved in all aspects of the day-to-day operation of the Colts since joining the club in January of 1982. Jim was added to the personnel department in 1983 and took over as general manager in early 1984, following the Colts move to Indianapolis. The 34-year old Irsay was instrumental in the return of Ted Marchibroda as the Colts' head coach.
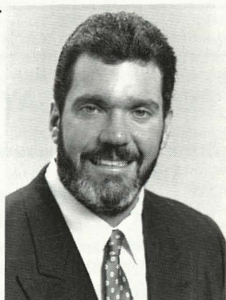

Irsay has served on the National Football League's Pro-College Relations Committee. He currently serves on the Working Club Executive Committee through the league.

Irsay received his bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism from Southern Methodist University, where he played linebacker for a year and a half as a walk-on, before an ankle injury ended his career. Jim was born on June 13, 1959 in Lincolnwood, Ill. He attended Loyola Academy in Wilmette, Ill., where he played golf, boxed and became an avid weight-conditioner. He ran in the Grandma's Marathon in Duluth, Minn. in July of 1991.

Jim is an active member of the Indianapolis community and is involved with Big Brothers of Indianapolis. He is a corporate member of the Indiana Sports Corporation, and he serves on the Board of Directors of the Noble Center for Retarded Citizens in Indianapolis. Additionally, in 1990, Irsay wrote and helped produce the song, ''Colors'', a musical tribute to Ryan White. Jim and his wife, Meg, have three daughters, Carlie (12), Casey (10) and Kalen (6).

MICHAEL G. CHERNOFF

Vice President and General Counsel

Since March of 1975, Michael Chernoff has been vice president and general counsel for Robert Irsay's various business concerns including the Colt football team.

The Glencoe, Ill. native received his bachelor's degree from the University of Chicago in 1956 and then stayed on at Chicago to receive his Doctor of Law degree in 1959. Chernoff was in private practice until 1974 when he became vice president and general counsel to a Fortune 500 company, one year before joining Irsay. Chernoff's legal background includes extensive work in corporate law, securities, real estate and taxes. He has also played a key role in negotiating commercial, player and other contracts, including the contract which put the Colts in Indianapolis.

TED MARCHIBRODA

Head Coach

Ted Marchibroda returned to the Colts organization as head coach on January 28, 1992. It was a return home for Marchibroda, who stood as the third-winningest coach in Colts history with a 41-36 overall record from 1975-79.

Marchibroda's return was as triumphant as his initial Colts season in 1975. He guided Indianapolis to a 9-7 record in 1992, an eight-game improvement from the previous season. The turnaround matched his efforts in 1975, and Marchibroda owns two of the four eight-game seasonal improvements ever earned in NFL history.

"It was great to return to the Colts. I have always wanted to come back since I was first head coach here. There is tremendous pride in the Colts horseshoe, and I have always felt I was a part of a great organization," said Marchibroda.

The 9-7 record gained by the Colts in 1992 included victories against each divisional foe, along with a five-game winning streak to conclude the season. The winning streak matches the longest for the Colts while in Indianapolis.

Marchibroda holds an overall record of 50-43 with the Colts. His career victories rank behind Don Shula (73, 1963-69) and Weeb Ewbank (61, 1954-62) for most in franchise history. His 93 games also mark the third-longest head coaching tenure in club history.

Marchibroda originally joined the Colts on February 15, 1975. He took the reigns of a Colts club that posted a 2-12 mark in 1974 and engineered then the greatest seasonal turnaround in NFL history by producing a 10-4 record in 1975, the first time in league annals a club moved from last to first. His three AFC Eastern Division championships (1975, 10-4; 1976, 11-3; 1977, 10-4) represent the most titles won by a Colts head coach. Ewbank (1958, 1959) and Shula (1964, 1968) each won two NFL Western Conference titles. The Colts posted a nine-game winning streak in 1975, the second-longest in team history, and won 29 of 33 regular season outings from October 26, 1975 through November 20, 1977. His 1976 team won eleven of 14 games and topped the NFL in total offense (5,236 net yards), passing (215-361-59.6%-209.1 yds./game-9.05 avg./att., 24 TDs and nine ints.) and scoring (417, 29.8 points/game). In regular season play (42 games) during the divisional title streak, the Colts were held in single digits only twice and under 20 points just 13 times, while exceeding 30 points in 18 contests. The Colts reached the AFC Divisional Playoffs, losing twice to eventual Super Bowl Champion Pittsburgh and to Oakland in a double-overtime thriller, 37-31, in 1977. Overall, Marchibroda's Colts squads are 41-33 in conference play, 9-7 versus the NFC and 28-20 in the division.

Marchibroda, 62, is a veteran of 31 NFL seasons. He spent 1987-91 with Buffalo, including the last three as offensive coordinator. His "no-huddle" attack helped Buffalo establish consecutive 13-3 records in 1990 and 1991, along with AFC Championships and berths in Super Bowls XXV and XXVI. The Bills scored more than 400 points each season from 1989-91, while their offense averaged 362.1 yards per game, 140.1 rushing yards, a 61.7% completion percentage and an 8.01 yards per attempt average over that span. The Bills sported a perfect rush-pass blend (1,516-1,516) in his years as coordinator.

Marchibroda launched his NFL career as backfield coach for Bill McPeak and the Washington Redskins in 1961. He joined the staff of George Allen with the Los Angeles Rams in 1966. He moved with Allen to the Redskins in 1971, where he served as offensive coordinator through the 1974 season. Marchibroda was a member of the staff that helped Washington reach Super Bowl VII in 1973. His duty with the Redskins included work with veterans Sonny Jurgensen and Billy Kilmer. Jurgensen was the NFC passing leader in 1974. Marchibroda served in 1981 as quarterbacks coach with Chicago, then moved to Detroit as offensive coordinator from 1982-83 and to Philadelphia in the same role from 1984-85. Marchibroda's first two seasons with Buffalo (1987-88) were as quarterbacks coach/passing game coordinator. Under Marchibroda's guidance, Roman Gabriel (Rams, 1969) and Bert Jones (1976) won NFL Most Valuable Player honors.

Marchibroda quarterbacked collegiately at St. Bonaventure in 1950 and 1951 before the football program was dropped. He finished at the University of Detroit in 1952, where he led the nation in total offense. He was the first draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1953. Marchibroda played one year before serving in the Army. He returned to play 1955-56 with the Steelers. His top season was 1956, hitting 124 of 275 passes for 1,585 yards and 12 touchdowns. Marchibroda's playing career ended with the Chicago Cardinals in 1957.

Marchibroda was born March 15, 1931 in Franklin, Pa. He resides with his wife, Ann, in Indianapolis. They have two daughters, Jodi and Lonni, and two sons, Ted, Jr. and Robert.

RON BLACKLEDGE, Offensive Line

Ron Blackledge enters his second season with the Colts, his first as offensive line coach. Blackledge joined the Colts in 1992 as an offensive assistant after spending the last 10 seasons as offensive line coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Blackledge, 55, entered the coaching ranks as an assistant coach at Canton (OH) South High School in 1960. He moved to Timken (1963-65) and Glenwood (1966-67) High Schools in Canton before assuming offensive line coaching duties at Ashland College in 1968. Blackledge served in the same capacity at the University of Cincinnati (1970-72), Kentucky (1973-75) and Princeton (1976) before taking the offensive coordinator position at Kent State in 1977. He was head coach at Kent State from 1979-81 before joining Chuck Noll's Pittsburgh staff in 1982.

Blackledge was a tight end and defensive end at Bowling Green from 1957-59 and is a member of the school's Hall of Fame. He has a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in guidance and physical education from Ohio University.

Blackledge was born April 15, 1938 in North Canton, Ohio. He is married to the former Linda Saccucci of Canton, Ohio. They have three children, Todd (33), Michelle (29) and Traci (22).

FRED BRUNEY, Offensive Assistant

Fred Bruney enters his first season as an offensive assistant with the Colts. Bruney spent the last two seasons as defensive backfield coach of the New York Giants.

Bruney, 61, brings 30 years NFL coaching experience to the Colts. He entered the coaching ranks as a freshman coach at Ohio State in 1959. His pro start came in 1962 as a player/coach with the Boston Patriots (AFL). Bruney was the secondary coach with Philadelphia (1964-68) and Atlanta (1969-76) before rejoining the Eagles as assistant head coach/secondary from 1977-85. He earned a 37-35 win over Minnesota as interim head coach for the final game of 1985. Bruney returned to Atlanta as assistant head coach from 1986-89 before landing the same role and defensive coordinator duties with Tampa Bay in 1990.

Bruney was a running back and defensive back at Ohio State from 1950-52. He was All-Big Ten and the team's MVP as a senior. Bruney was a third-round draft choice of Cleveland in 1953. He played with San Francisco (1953-56), Pittsburgh (1957), the Los Angeles Rams (1958) and Boston (1960-63). Bruney was an All-AFL defensive back in 1961 and 1962.

Bruney was born December 30, 1931 in Martins Ferry, Ohio. He is married to the former Louise Freeman of Martins Ferry. They have five children, Chuck (37), Susan (29), Lori (26), Rebecca (23) and Richard (21).
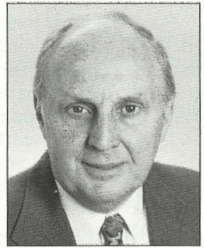

GEORGE CATAVOLOS, Secondary

George Catavolos enters his tenth season as secondary coach of the Colts. Catavolos joined Indianapolis in May of 1984, and he stands to become just the sixth of 115 coaches in team history to have a ten-year tenure.

Catavolos, 48, spent two seasons (1982-83) as secondary coach under Johnny Majors at Tennessee prior to coming to the Colts. He served in the same role at Kentucky (1977-81) and was part of the staff that guided the Wildcats to a 10-1 record in 1977.

Catavolos initiated his career as a graduate assistant at Purdue in 1967, under Jack Mollenkopf. He worked there for two seasons before taking his first full-time assistantship at Middle Tennessee State in 1969. Catavolos joined Louisville as secondary coach in 1970, then landed the same position with Purdue in 1971. He coached at Purdue for six years under head coaches Bob DeMoss and Alex Agase.

Catavolos starred as a defensive back at Purdue. He was co-captain of the 1967 Purdue squad that defeated USC, 14-13, in the Rose Bowl. He received a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in education from Purdue. He was a senior recipient of the Nobel E. Kizer Award for academic excellence.

Catavolos was born May 8, 1945 in Chicago, Ill. He is married to the former Tona Jones of Royal Center, Ind. They have two daughters, Lindsay Marie (10) and Stephanie Lynn (9).
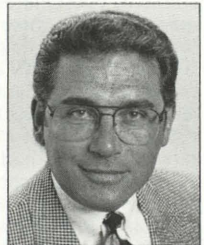

GENE HUEY, Running Backs

Gene Huey enters his second season as running backs coach of the Colts. Huey joined the Colts after spending the previous four seasons as an assistant at Ohio State. Huey tutored wide receivers for three seasons before working with the running backs in his final year with the Buckeyes.

Huey, 46, first gained experience with Indianapolis as the recipient of the fifth annual Robert Irsay Black Coaching Fellowship. He worked during the 1991 Colts training camp at Anderson University. Huey participated in practice management duties, along with assisting in staff meetings and personnel evaluations.

Huey began his coaching career at Wyoming, his alma mater, as a graduate assistant in 1970. He was named head freshman coach in 1972. Huey moved to New Mexico in 1974 as receivers coach, then joined the staff of Tom Osborne at Nebraska following the 1977 season. Huey coached receivers at Nebraska until joining John Cooper's staff at Arizona State in 1987. He then moved with Cooper to Ohio State in 1988.

Huey played both defensive back and wide receiver at Wyoming, setting 13 receiving records. He is the only player in Western Athletic Conference history to win all-conference offensive and defensive honors. He was a co-captain and played on three conference championship teams.

Huey was born July 20, 1947 in Uniontown, Pa.
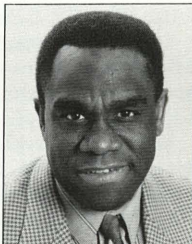

NICK NICOLAU, Offensive Coordinator

Nick Nicolau enters his second season as offensive coordinator of the Colts. Nicolau spent the prior three seasons as receivers coach at Buffalo, helping the Bills to berths in Super Bowls XXV and XXVI. Bills receivers were an element that helped Buffalo score more than 400 points annually from 1989-91, while the offense averaged 362.1 yards per game, had a 61.7% completion percentage and sported an 8.01 yards per attempt during that span.

Nicolau entered the NFL as running backs coach with New Orleans in 1980. He landed the running backs coaching slot with Denver in 1981 and served with the Broncos through the 1987 season. He was part of staffs that guided Denver to appearances in Super Bowls XXI and XXII. Nicolau coached wide receivers with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1988 before moving to Buffalo.

Nicolau, 60, entered the coaching ranks at Southern Connecticut State in 1960 before moving as an assistant to Springfield College in 1961. He spent eight seasons (1962-69) at the University of Bridgeport, including the final five as head coach. He served other collegiate assistantships at Massachusetts (1970), Connecticut (1971-72), Kentucky (1973-75) and Kent State (1976) before taking an assistant role for one season with Hamilton of the Canadian Football League. He moved to Montreal (1978-79) of the CFL and served as Director of Player Personnel/running backs coach. During those seasons, Montreal made two Grey Cup appearances.

Nicolau was a running back at Southern Connecticut (1951-53, 56). He earned a master's degree at Indiana University and a doctorate from Springfield College.

Anthero "Nick" Nicolau was born May 5, 1933 in New Bedford, Mass. He is married to the former Eleanor Weiss of Stratford, Conn. They have six children, Tracey (34), Duane (33), Shari (31), Vicki (30), Wendy (27) and Randy (22).
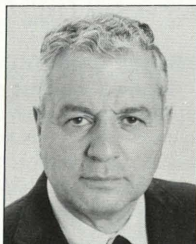

DWAIN PAINTER, Receivers

Dwain Painter enters his second season as receivers coach of the Colts. Painter spent the four prior seasons as receivers coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers. Painter, 51, has 28 years coaching experience, including 17 on the collegiate level. He joined the Steelers from the University of Illinois, where he was offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 1987.
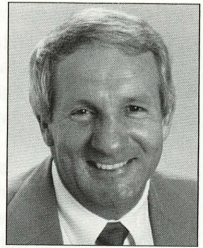

Painter launched his career as head coach at Wall (NJ) High School in 1965. He landed the offensive coordinator role at San Jose State under DeWayne ''Dewey'' King in 1971. Painter moved to the College of San Mateo two years later (1973), then spent a two-year stint as quarterbacks and receivers coach at Brigham Young under LaVell Edwards. Following his 1974-75 stint at Brigham Young, Painter landed the same role at UCLA and remained there three seasons (1976-78). He became the head coach at Northern Arizona University in 1979. Painter compiled a 16-17 record during his 1979-81 tenure. Painter moved to Georgia Tech (1981-85) and Texas (1986) as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach before landing at Illinois. Painter tutored a red-shirted Jeff George at Illinois.

Painter played quarterback and defensive back at Rutgers from 1961-64, earning a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's in education.

Painter was born February 13, 1942 in Monroeville, Pa. He has two children, Deborah (30) and Doug (21).

FRANCIS PEAY, Defensive Line

Francis Peay enters his second season as defensive line coach of the Colts. Peay, 49, spent the six prior seasons as head coach at Northwestern. He originally joined Northwestern in 1981. Peay served as defensive coordinator through the 1985 season before succeeding Dennis Green. Peay was interim head coach in 1986, then was promoted prior to the 1987 campaign.
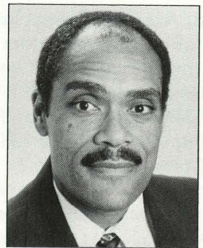

Peay entered the coaching ranks as defensive coordinator at University City High School in St. Louis, Mo. in 1975. He moved to Notre Dame in 1976, serving as assistant offensive line and junior varsity coach. He was a coach for the 1977 Irish club that won the national championship following a 38-10 Cotton Bowl win over Texas. He moved to the University of California as outside linebackers coach in 1978. California earned its first bowl bid in 20 years by appearing in the 1979 Garden State Bowl.

Peay earned All-America honors as an offensive tackle at Missouri. He played professionally with the New York Giants (1966-67), Green Bay (1968-72) and Kansas City (1973-74). He appeared in 103 career games.

Peay was born May 23, 1944 in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is married to the former Patricia Atkins of Pittsburgh. They have twin daughters, Aryca and Aisha (12).

JAY ROBERTSON, Defensive Assistant

Jay Robertson enters his second season as a defensive assistant of the Colts. Robertson spent the eight prior seasons as linebacker coach at the United States Military Academy.

Robertson, 53, entered the coaching ranks as an assistant at Northwestern in 1967. Over a nine-year stint at Northwestern (1967-75), he coached the offensive and defensive lines, outside linebackers and receivers. He moved to Northern Illinois in 1976 as defensive coordinator and secondary coach. Robertson tutored tight ends and receivers at Wisconsin from 1980-81. He was defensive line coach at Notre Dame from 1982-83 before moving to West Point.

Robertson was a three-year letterman at center at Northwestern. He was a senior captain for Ara Parseghian in 1962 when Northwestern posted a 7-2 record, the school's best mark since 1948. He played in the East-West Shrine Game and the Southwest Challenge Bowl. Robertson holds a bachelor's degree in history and master's degree in business administration from Northwestern. He entered the U.S. Marine Corps following graduation and was a player/coach for the Quantico Marines. He attained a captain's rank and served a one-year stint in Vietnam as a rifle platoon and infantry company commander.

Robertson was born February 20, 1940 in Chicago, Ill. He is married to the former Kathy Aluise of Huntington, West Virginia. They have one son, William (6).
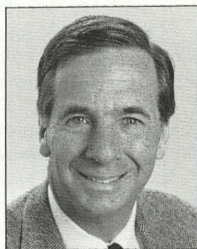

BRAD SEELY, Special Teams/Tight Ends

Brad Seely enters his fifth season as special teams/tight ends coach of the Colts. Seely has helped P-Rohn Stark and PR-Clarence Verdin earn Pro Bowl spots following the 1990 and 1992 seasons, while the Colts sported one of the league's stingiest overall units last year.

Seely served for five seasons as offensive line coach at Oklahoma State prior to joining Indianapolis. Seely managed blocking schemes that allowed Barry Sanders to set 23 NCAA rushing records and win the Heisman Trophy in 1988. Seely also coached Thurman Thomas at Oklahoma State. The Cowboys notched three 10-win seasons during Seely's stay.

Seely landed his first duty as an assistant at South Dakota State in 1978. He moved to Colorado State as a graduate assistant in 1979, then was elevated to offensive line coach in 1980. Seely joined Southern Methodist in 1981 as offensive line coach. The Mustangs produced a 10-1 record that season. Seely took the same roles at North Carolina State (1982) and at the University of the Pacific (1983) prior to entering his stint at Oklahoma State. Seely, 36, was an all-conference grid performer as a senior at South Dakota State in 1976. He was an all-state prep pick as an offensive lineman and a forward in basketball. He holds a bachelor's degree in economics and physical education.

Seely was born September 6, 1956 in Vinton, Iowa. He is married to the former Patricia Racine of Holyoke, Mass. They have three children, Sarah (6), Hannah (3) and Brynn (1).

RICK VENTURI, Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

Rick Venturi enters his twelfth season with the Colts, tying the fourth-longest coaching tenure in club history. Venturi's service is exceeded only by Don McCafferty (14 years), Dick Bielski (14) and John Sandusky (14) among 115 coaches ever associated with the Colts. Charles Winner spent 12 seasons with the club.

Venturi serves as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach, the role he held to open the 1991 season. Venturi succeeded Ron Meyer as head coach for the final eleven games of 1991. He additionally held the coordinator title in 1984. Venturi, 47, entered the coaching ranks as a freshman coach at Northwestern from 1968-69. He took charge of the secondary there from 1970-72. Venturi spent 1973-76 as linebackers coach at Purdue, working along with George Catavolos, the Colts' secondary coach. Venturi was the secondary coach at Illinois in 1977, then landed the head coaching position at Northwestern, where he remained for three seasons. Venturi earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and history and a master's degree in education from Northwestern. He served a stint as guest coach with Frank Kush for Hamilton of the Canadian Football League in 1981 just before joining the Colts.

Venturi was born February 23, 1946 in Taylorville, Ill. He is married to the former Cheri Rotello of Rockford, Ill. They have two children, Marin (22) and Jason (20).
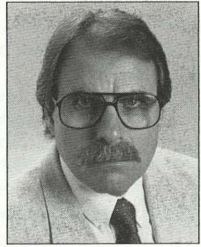

TOM ZUPANCIC, Strength and Conditioning

Tom Zupancic enters his tenth season as strength and conditioning coach of the Colts.

A fixture in Indianapolis for years as the owner and operator of his own gymnasium, he came to the club after being a finalist in the 1984 U.S. Olympic Wrestling Trials. Zupancic, a product of Cathedral High School (1973) and Indiana Central University (1978), was a three-time collegiate wrestling champion and a four-year grid letterman.

Zupancic has been a part of four USA National Wrestling Teams to Europe. He was a member of two USA World Teams, while also winning Canadian, AAU and USWF National Wrestling Championships. He was a 1980 alternate to the USA Greco Roman Wrestling Olympic Team. Zupancic owns an undefeated record in 86 state, regional and national power-lifting exhibitions since 1974.

In addition, Zupancic, 37, ranks 14th in the world among alltime super heavyweights with a 600-pound bench press (set in 1988). He won the WPF World Bench Press Championships in 1990 with a 600-pound lift. He finished second last April in the Strongest Man in America competition. Zupancic is active in charitable and public appearances. Along with lifting demonstrations, he gives talks on goal-setting and positive thinking. He was also a feature subject on HBO's "Inside the NFL" during the 1986 season.

Zupancic was born September 14, 1955 in Indianapolis. He is married to the former Carrie Oldham of Shelbyville, Ind. They have three children, Katie Elizabeth (4), Jacob August (3) and John Thomas, born May 24, 1993.

ADMINISTRATION

BOB TERPENING, Assistant General Manager

Bob Terpening, whose association with the Colts goes back to 1970, was promoted to assistant general manager of the club in May of 1984.

Terpening began working with the Colts in 1970 grading films during his tenure as the head football coach at Baltimore City College H.S. In 1971 he joined the New England Patriots' scouting department. In 1977 Terpening returned to the Colts as a college scout and in January of 1982 was named Director of Pro Personnel. He held that position until his elevation to assistant general manager.

Terpening received his bachelor's degree from Shepherd College in West Virginia and then earned his master's degree from the University of West Virginia. He also did additional graduate study at John's Hopkins.

Terpening and his wife, Virginia, have two sons, Chris (21) and Matt (17). The family resides in Carmel.
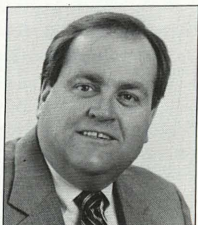

JACK BUSHOFSKY, Player Personnel Director

Jack Bushofsky was named the Colts Player Personnel Director in June, 1983 and is responsible for directing the college scouting aspects of the Colts personnel department. Bushofsky served the previous four years as a college and pro personnel scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Before joining the Bucs in 1979, he worked two years as a BLESTO combine scout. The 55-year old Pittsburgh native has had an extensive career in football serving as head coach at his alma mater, Austin Peay (1973-76), assistant coach at Villanova (1968-72), and several years in the Pittsburgh high school system. After serving in the Marine Corps, he earned Little All-America honors as a guard and linebacker at Austin Peay from 1959-61 where he received a bachelor's degree in health and education and a master's degree in administration. WEEK ONE: Indianapolis Colts 14, Cleveland Browns 3
September 6, 1992   Hoosier Dome (50,766)   12:00 p.m.

Indianapolis recorded its first opening game victory in nine years with a 14-3 verdict over Cleveland. LB-Chip Banks had four sacks to lead a club record tying eleven sack assault on Cleveland QB-Bernie Kosar, while QB-Mark Herrmann totaled 15-24-177, one TD, one int., in relief of injured QB-Jeff George. RB-Rodney Culver posted 130 total yards (78 receiving/52 rushing). Banks was named AFC Defensive Player-of-the-Week. LB-Quentin Coryatt added two sacks as Indianapolis matched the previous franchise high established November 22, 1964 at the L.A. Rams.

WEEK FIVE: Indianapolis Colts 6, New York Jets 3 (OT)
October 11, 1992   Hoosier Dome (48,393)   3:00 p.m.

K-Dean Biasucci's 47-yard field goal 3:01 into overtime gave Indianapolis a 6-3 decision over the New York Jets. Six Colts penetrations inside the Jet 25 in regulation produced only three points. At halftime, Indianapolis topped the Jets in total yardage (175-29) and in first downs (14-1) yet led only 3-0. Jets K-Cary Blanchard hit from 35 yards with :30 remaining in regulation to send the game to overtime. Indianapolis won the coin toss and marched 34 yards in eight plays to set up the game winning kick. The Jets penetrated the Colt 20 only once the entire contest. DE-Steve Emtman paced the Colts defense with 10 tackles and one sack (14 yards).

WEEK SIX: San Diego Chargers 34, Indianapolis Colts 14
October 18, 1992   Hoosier Dome (48,552)   12:00 p.m.

RB-Rod Bernstine rushed for 150 yards and two TDs and San Diego capitalized on five Indianapolis turnovers in defeating the Colts, 34-14. For the second consecutive week, Indianapolis failed to convert on opportunities. A second quarter penetration to the Charger eight resulted in a George interception. K-Dean Biasucci later misfired from 44 yards. Trailing 17-7 in the third quarter, Indianapolis drove to the Charger three but suffered another George interception. The Colts finally scored on a three-yard George toss to tackle-eligible OL-Bill Schultz. San Diego responded with 17 fourth quarter points, ten following Colt fumbles, to ice the contest.

WEEK SEVEN: Indianapolis Colts 31, Miami Dolphins 20
October 25, 1992   Joe Robbie Stadium (61,117)   4:00 p.m.

QB-Jeff George dived for a one yard touchdown with 1:32 remaining and DE-Steve Emtman returned a fourth down interception for a 90-yard touchdown on the game's final play as Indianapolis upset previously unbeaten Miami, 31-20. Trailing 24-20, QB-Dan Marino marched the Dolphins to the Indianapolis seven with :32 remaining. Emtman's interception return iced the contest and tied for the third longest in team history and the longest in league history by a defensive lineman. Emtman (five tackles, one forced fumble, one interception, one sack) earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors. LB-Quentin Coryatt was lost for the season after suffering a displaced bone in his left wrist.

WEEK EIGHT: San Diego Chargers 26, Indianapolis Colts 0
November 1, 1992 San Diego Jack Murphy Stadium (40,324) 4:00 p.m.

QB-Stan Humphries tossed two scoring passes to WR-Nate Lewis, and San Diego's defense limited Indianapolis to 99 net yards in defeating the Colts, 26-0. DE-Burt Grossman opened the scoring by sacking QB-Jeff George for a safety. K-John Carney's 33-yard field goal gave San Diego a 5-0 halftime lead. DB-Mike Prior's interception at the Colts 24 and LB-Chip Banks' fumble recovery at the Colts three thwarted additional Charger scoring drives. RB-Marion Butts (27-120) closed the scoring with a three-yard TD rush in the fourth quarter. Indianapolis, playing with a patchwork offensive line, failed to cross midfield until the fourth quarter and totaled only 12-30 rushing.

November 8, 1992   Hoosier Dome (59,892)   1:00 p.m.

QB-Dan Marino tossed two touchdown passes and RB-Mark Higgs rushed for 107 yards as Miami shutout Indianapolis, 28-0. Miami rolled up 453 net yards, while Indianapolis was held to 19-68 rushing and 193 net yards. The Colts failed to penetrate the Miami 30-yard line in being shutout two consecutive games for the first time since 1982. DE-Steve Emtman's rookie campaign came to an end after suffering damage to the anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee.

WEEK TEN: New England Patriots 37, Indianapolis Colts 34 (OT)
November 15, 1992   Hoosier Dome (42,631)   1:00 p.m.

K-Charlie Baumann's 18-yard field goal 3:25 into overtime gave New England a 37-34 verdict over Indianapolis. Baumann's 44-yard field goal as time expired in regulation sent the contest to overtime and capped a 10-play, 67-yard drive that began at the New England six-yard line with 1:39 remaining. The game featured six ties, and the Colts never trailed until Baumann's OT kick. New England turned four Colts turnovers into 20 points. Indianapolis RB-Anthony Johnson established a franchise record with 240 total yards (7-163 receiving, 20-77 rushing).

WEEK ELEVEN: Pittsburgh Steelers 30, Indianapolis Colts 14
November 22, 1992   Three Rivers Stadium (51,101)   1:00 p.m.

RB-Barry Foster rushed for 168 yards and two touchdowns as Pittsburgh defeated Indianapolis, 30-14. Foster's 20-yard scoring rush in the first quarter and a pair of second quarter K-Gary Anderson field goals staked Pittsburgh to a 13-0 halftime lead. Colts QB-Jack Trudeau hit WR-Jessie Hester for 81 yards to the Steeler three-yard line on the first play of the second half, and RB-Rodney Culver ran over from a yard out one play later to cut the deficit to 13-7. Following DB-Darren Perry's 22-yard interception return, Foster rambled for a 13-yard score to give Pittsburgh a 20-7 cushion and thwart the Colts rally.

WEEK TWELVE: Indianapolis Colts 16, Buffalo Bills 13 (OT)
November 29, 1992   Hoosier Dome (50,221)   4:00 p.m.

K-Dean Biasucci's 40-yard field goal 3:51 into overtime climaxed a second half comeback and gave Indianapolis a 16-13 victory over Buffalo. Biasucci's heroics, which ended Buffalo's five game winning streak, were set up by a 10-point fourth quarter Colts rally. Indianapolis TE-Charles Arbuckle, who entered the game with zero career receptions, totaled 9-106 receiving. His yardage output was the highest by a Colts tight end in 228 games (Raymond Chester, 4-122, 12-18-77). Buffalo entered the game with the AFC's top-rated offense, but failed to cross the Indianapolis 19 with the exception of Kelly's 65-yard third quarter TD strike to WR-Don Beebe.

WEEK THIRTEEN: Indianapolis Colts 6, New England Patriots 0
December 6, 1992   Foxboro Stadium (19,429)   1:00 p.m.

K-Dean Biasucci hit first half field goals of 30 and 48 yards and Indianapolis posted its first shutout since 1988 in defeating New England, 6-0. Indianapolis' defense limited New England to 94 total net yards and 23 net passing yards, the fewest totals since October 3, 1976 when Tampa Bay totaled 89 total net yards and 13 net passing yards. New England's best scoring threat ended when K-Charlie Baumann's 37-yard field goal fell short in the second quarter. Colts LB-Duane Bickett had 10 tackles and 3.5 sacks (23.5 yards). The Colts last shutout occurred October 23, 1988 at San Diego (16-0), a span of 68 games.

WEEK FOURTEEN: Indianapolis Colts 10, New York Jets 6
December 13, 1992   Giants Stadium (33,684)   1:00 p.m.

QB-Jack Trudeau hit TE-Charles Arbuckle on a 23-yard TD pass with 2:29 remaining as Indianapolis rallied to defeat the Jets, 10-6. Trudeau, who replaced starting QB-Jeff George with 8:23 remaining, guided the Colts 71 yards in five plays for the winning score. His 41-yard pass to TE-Kerry Cash from the Colts 29 kept the drive alive. The Jets failed to score a touchdown despite penetrating the Indianapolis 30 four times. The Colts held the Jets to a field goal after facing first-and-goal from the two-yard line late in the first half. George saw his first action in four weeks after returning from a broken metacarpal bone in his right hand.

WEEK SIXTEEN: Indianapolis Colts 21, Cincinnati Bengals 17
December 27, 1992   Riverfront Stadium (47,837)   1:00 p.m.

QB-Jack Trudeau led Indianapolis to three consecutive second-half touchdowns as the Colts posted their largest comeback victory since 1977 with a 21-17 win over Cincinnati. Trudeau, replacing injured starting QB-Jeff George, entered the contest with 6:06 remaining in the third quarter and Cincinnati leading, 17-0. He marched the Colts on three consecutive TD drives. Indianapolis' defense limited Cincinnati to 31 net yards on its final three possessions. WR-Jessie Hester caught a pass in his 46th consecutive game, breaking the club record of 45 held by Lenny Moore since 1961. The Colts' victory marked the club's greatest comeback since a 30-24 victory over New England after trailing 21-3 on December 18, 1977.

The Colts' home is located on 32 acres of land just west of I-465 on 56th Street. Built at a cost of more than $4 million, the complex features three practice fields including two natural-turf fields and one AstroTurf surface.

The 43,500 square foot structure includes: spacious locker rooms; a steam room; a sauna; a 12' x 12' sunken hydrotherapy tank; a 24' x 78' training room; a 34' x 23' vestibule and lobby; and a 20' x 17' working press area. Three racquetball courts and a quarter-mile outdoor running track provides for cardiovascular exercise. The Colts moved into the facility in August of 1985.

HISTORY OF THE COLTS

Professional football came to Indianapolis March 28, 1984, when Colts owner Robert Irsay moved the historic NFL franchise from Baltimore to Indianapolis—the friendly heart of the midwest.

The roots of the franchise go back to December 28, 1946, when the bankrupt Miami Seahawks of the All-America Football Conference were purchased and relocated in Baltimore by a group headed by Bob Rodenberg. As the result of a contest in Baltimore, won by Charles Evans of Middle River, Md., the team was renamed the "Colts."

On September 7, 1947, wearing green and silver uniforms, the Colts under Head Coach Cecil Isbell (formerly an All-American player and coach at Purdue University) won their initial AAFC game, 16-7, over the Brooklyn Dodgers. The team concluded its inaugural season before a record Baltimore crowd of 51,583 losing to the New York Yankees, 21-7. The Colts finished the year with a 2-11-1 record good for a fourth place finish in the Eastern Division.

The Colts completed the 1948 season with a 7-8 record, tying the Buffalo Bills for the division title. The Colts compiled a 1-11 slate in 1949. The All-American Football Conference and the National Football League merged in 1950 and the Colts became a member of the NFL. After posting a 1-11 record for the second consecutive year, the franchise was dissolved by the league on January 18, 1951 because of its failing financial condition.

After two full seasons without professional football, NFL Commissioner Bert Bell challenged the franchise in December of 1952 to sell 15,000 season tickets within six weeks in order to re-enter the NFL. That 15,000-ticket quota was reached in four weeks and three days.

On January 23, 1953, under the principal ownership of Carroll Rosenbloom, the NFL's Dallas Team franchise was moved to Baltimore where, keeping the "Colts" nickname, the Texas team colors of blue and white were inherited.

Before their first NFL season, the "new" Baltimore Colts engineered one of the biggest trades in sports history. In a deal with the Cleveland Browns involving 15 players, Baltimore received 10 Browns in exchange for five Colts. Among the players who came to Baltimore in the deal were Don Shula, Bert Rechichar, Carl Taseff and Art Spinney. These players helped the Colts open the 1953 NFL season with a 13-9 upset of the Chicago Bears in a game where Bert Rechichar set a then-NFL record with a 56-yard field goal.

In 1954, the Colts hired Weeb Ewbank as head coach. Ewbank would guide the Colts for the next nine seasons (the longest tenure of any Colts head coach) and lead the club to its first divisional and world championships.

On November 30, 1958, the Colts clinched their first Western Division title with a 35-27 win over San Francisco before a record home sellout crowd of 57,557. Four weeks later, Baltimore won its first World Championship, downing the New York Giants, 23-17, in the fabled "sudden-death" overtime contest at Yankee Stadium. The Colts repeated as champion in 1959, clinching their second Western Division crown and defeating the Giants, 31-16 in Baltimore for the World Title.

In January 1963, Don Shula replaced Weeb Ewbank as the team's third head coach since 1953. During the 1963 campaign, quarterback John Unitas led the Colts offense to eight team records and set a then-NFL individual passing mark of 237 completions. The Colts won a club record eleven consecutive games in 1964, enroute to clinching their third Western Conference title and first under Shula. During that campaign, Raymond Berry caught his 506th career pass and Lenny Moore scored 20 touchdowns, both NFL records at the time. The following year, Baltimore tied Green Bay for the Western Conference title. With halfback Tom Matte quarterbacking the club because of injuries to John Unitas and Gary Cuozzo, the Colts lost a controversial 13-10 "sudden-death" playoff contest to the Packers.

Under Shula, Baltimore made its first Super Bowl appearance in 1968. The club finished first in the Coastal Division with a 13-1 mark, then defeated Minnesota, 24-14, in the Western Conference Championship game and blanked Cleveland, 34-0, for the NFL Championship. The team went on to face the American Football League Champion New York Jets in Super Bowl III, losing a 16-7 upset.

In May of 1969, the NFL merged with the AFL and Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Cleveland joined the old AFL teams to form the American Football Conference of the NFL. For the 1970 season, the Colts were situated in the Eastern Division of the AFC and on September 20, the club won its first AFC game, 16-14, over San Diego. In mid-December, Baltimore clinched its first Eastern Division Championship with a 20-14 win at Buffalo, then defeated Cincinnati and Oakland in the playoffs to win the AFC Championship. On January 17, 1971, the Colts defeated the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl V, 16-13, on Jim O'Brien's 32-yard field goal with five seconds remaining in the game.

In July, 1972, the Colts came under new ownership as Robert Irsay acquired the club from Carroll Rosenbloom in exchange for the Los Angeles Rams.

In 1974, two young Colt stars established NFL records as running back Lydell Mitchell carried the ball 40 times against the New York Jets at Shea Stadium and quarterback Bert Jones completed 17 consecutive passes against the same Jet club later in the season. Mitchell set another mark that season, winning the league pass receiving title with 72 receptions.

In 1975, Mitchell would continue his record-setting pace by becoming the first running back in Colt history to rush for 1,000 yards, gaining 1,193 yards on 289 carries.

After posting a 2-12 record in 1974, Baltimore's fortunes began to change with the hiring of Ted Marchibroda as head coach in February, 1975. Marchibroda lead the Colts to three consecutive Eastern Division titles before posting back-to-back 5-11 seasons in 1978-79.

The Colts named Mike McCormack to replace Marchibroda as head coach in January, 1980. The Colts improved to a 7-9 record in 1980 before recording the worst record in Club history with a 2-14 slate in 1981.

On December 21, 1981, the Colts named Frank Kush to replace McCormack as Head Coach. In addition, Club owner Robert Irsay announced the appointment of Ernie Accorsi as General Manager on May 16, 1982.

Under Kush's guidance, the Colts recorded their first winning preseason record (3-2) since 1970. After two weeks of regular season play, a players' strike resulted in the loss of seven games per team from the 1982 schedule and each team played a nine game schedule. The Colts finished the season with a record of 0-8-1.

The Colts received the first selection in the April 26, 1983 NFL draft and selected Stanford quarterback John Elway. Six days later on May 2, the Colts traded Elway to Denver in exchange for the Broncos' 1983 first round choice, offensive tackle Chris Hinton, along with quarterback Mark Herrmann and Denver's first round choice in the 1983 NFL draft.

In 1983, the Colts forged the biggest turnaround in NFL history for a team that had gone winless the previous season. The 1983 Colts were 6-4 after week 10 and then went 7-9 on the season. The Chris Hinton acquisition proved successful as the rookie earned a starting berth at offensive guard for the AFC in the Pro Bowl. The Colts' running game came together as Curtis Dickey and Randy McMillan combined for just shy of 2,000 yards rushing to rank first in the AFC and second in the NFL.

Following the 1984 season, President Robert Irsay and General Manager Jim Irsay appointed Rod Dowhower as Head Coach on January 28, 1985. Dowhower posted a 5-11 mark that season with a club which rushed for a conference-leading 2,439 yards, fifth-best in the NFL. The team averaged 5.0 yards per attempt to lead the NFL, while marking the first time in a decade that an AFC team achieved that feat.

On December 1, 1986, Ron Meyer succeeded Dowhower as Head Coach. Meyer earned a 36-35 regular season record with the club before being succeeded by Rick Venturi on October 1, 1991. Ted Marchibroda returned to the Colts as Head Coach on January 28, 1992. Marchibroda led the Colts to a 9-7 record in 1992, the second time he has guided the team to an NFL-best eight-game one season turnaround.

In more than 30 years of National Football League competition, the Colts have achieved a 287-289-7 record, including three World Championships and 10 Conference or Division titles. The Colts' regular season victory total of 276 is among the highest of any NFL club over the last three decades.

The success of the Colts franchise is exemplified by the number of Colts who have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. A total of nine Colts have been selected for enshrinement including Raymond Berry, Art Donovan, Ted Hendricks, John Mackey, Gino Marchetti, Lenny Moore, Jim Parker, John Unitas and Head Coach Weeb Ewbank.

JOHN UNITAS, QB, 6-1, 196, Louisville

1973 was the end of an era in the NFL. John Unitas, the greatest quarterback ever to put on shoulder pads, retired. After 18 years, Unitas left the game with a helmet full of records.

He was the first quarterback to pass for more than 40,000 yards. His NFL records include most consecutive seasons leading the league in touchdown passes (4) and most consecutive games with a TD pass (47), a feat that rivals Joe DiMaggio's 56-game hitting streak.

He ended his career ranked number one in NFL history in six categories: most passes attempted (5,186), most passes completed (2,830), most yards gained passing (40,239), most seasons 3,000 yards or more passing (3), most games with 300 yards or more passing (26) and most touchdown passes (290).

He also set several post-season marks including highest career completion percentage (62.9) and most yards gained in championship play (1,177).

In his 17 seasons with the Colts, he established 22 records. During his stay in Baltimore, Unitas was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player three times and played in 10 Pro Bowls, the most ever by a Colt. He was 5 times named All-Pro.

With Unitas calling signals, the Colts won World Championships in 1958 and 1959 and the Super Bowl title in 1970.

Unitas opened his quarterback career with the Colts throwing an interception for a TD to J.C. Caroline of the Bears on October 21, 1956. He ended his career with the Colts by throwing a TD to Eddie Hinton on December 3, 1972. Between those two passes he provided an entire generation of football fans with memories and moments that they will never forget.
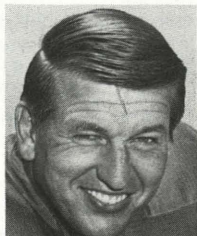

1956	Called the "Cinderella Kid" sets NFL mark for completion percentage by a rookie 55.6%
1957	Throws for 2,550 yds and 24 TDs and is named NFL MVP.
1958	Led Colts to 23-17 overtime win against N.Y. Giants for World Championship.
1959	Throws record 32 TDs and leads team to second World Championship.
1960	Streak of 47 consecutive games with a TD pass ends. Sets an NFL record of 3,099 yds passing.
1963	Completes 237 passes for NFL record.
1964	Named the NFL's MVP, had only 6 of 305 pass attempts intercepted.
1966	Tops NFL record for career TDs with 232 and most yards gained passing 29,539.
1967	Leads the team to a 11-1-2 record and wins his third MVP award in the NFL.
1969	Named the NFL's greatest quarterback in honor of the 50th Anniversary of the league. Named the player of the decade by the Associated Press.
1970	Leads the team to its first AFC championship. Suffers a rib injury in the first half of the Colts 16-13 Super Bowl win over the Dallas Cowboys.
1973	Career ends with 40,239 yds passing on 5,186 attempts and 2,830 completions with 290 TDs, all NFL records.

COLTS CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP
DEC. 28, 1958 YANKEE STADIUM

BALTIMORE 23, NEW YORK 17—Quarterback Johnny Unitas took the Colts 80 yards in 13 plays, the last a one-yard carry by Alan Ameche through the right side of the Giant line at 8 minutes, 15 seconds of sudden death overtime. The regulation game ended 17-17 when Baltimore's Steve Myhra booted a 20-yard field goal seconds from the gun. It has been called "the greatest game ever played" and the 64,185 who watched it at Yankee Stadium agree.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP
DEC. 27, 1964 CLEVELAND STADIUM

CLEVELAND 27, BALTIMORE 0—Both teams drew blanks in the first half but the Browns nailed down the World Championship with a 17-point third quarter. Quarterback Frank Ryan and fullback Jim Brown made the Cleveland attack click, as it rolled up 20 first downs to Baltimore's 11 and outgained the Colts, 339 to 171 yards. Ryan completed 11 of 18 passes for 206 yards and three touchdowns—all to end Gary Collins from distances of 18, 42 and 51 yards, while the brilliant Brown bulled for 114 yards on 27 shots as Cleveland controlled the ball. GREEN BAY 13, BALTIMORE 10—A courageous effort by the undermanned Colts was doomed by a pair of Don Chandler field goals—one with 1:58 remaining from 22 yards to tie the score and a second of 25 yards to conclude 13:39 of "sudden-death" action. The Colts had jumped ahead 7-0, after 21 seconds of play when Don Shinnick scooped up Bill Anderson's fumble and trudged 25 yards to the end zone. They protected their edge tenaciously until the finish as Tom Matte went the route at quarterback, rushing for 57 yards and passing for 40. Zeke Bratkowski, subbing for the injured Bart Starr, completed 22 of 39 aerials for 248 yards. The Packers ran 80 plays to the Colts' 59 and led in first downs, 23-9. Attendance was 50,484.

NFL PLAYOFF
DEC. 22, 1968 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 24, MINNESOTA 14—It was a cold, rainy day when the Colts tucked away the Western Conference championship of the National Football League. Just as they had done earlier in the season, the Vikings provided some uncomfortable moments after the Colts managed to obtain a big lead. It wasn't until late in the first half that the Colts were able to nab a 7-0 lead on Earl Morrall's pass to Tom Mitchell after Willie Richardson's diving catch of a 33-yard aerial put the ball at the three. John Mackey's touchdown reception and Mike Curtis' 60-yard return of a fumble made it 21-0 after three quarters. Viking quarterback Joe Kapp refused to give up and fired TD passes to Bill Martin and Bill Brown before time ran out on him. Attendance was 60,238.

SUPER BOWL III
JAN. 12, 1969 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

NEW YORK JETS 16, BALTIMORE 7—At Miami Orange Bowl Stadium, attendance 75,337. Jets' quarterback Joe Namath "guaranteed" victory on the Thursday before the game, then went out and led the AFL to its first Super Bowl victory over a Baltimore team that had lost one of 16 games all season. Namath, chosen the outstanding player, completed 17 of 28 passes for 206 yards and directed a steady attack that dominated the NFL champions after the Jet defense had intercepted Colt quarterback Earl Morrall three times in the first half. The Jets had 337 total yards, including 121 yards rushing by Matt Snell. John Unitas, who had missed most of the season with a sore elbow, came off the bench and led Baltimore to its only touchdown late in the fourth quarter after New York led 16-0.

BALTIMORE 17, CINCINNATI 0—Attendance 51,127. John Unitas connected with TD passes to Roy Jefferson and Ed Hinton in the first and fourth quarters and led the Colts into the AFC title game by defeating Cincinnati. The Baltimore defense came through on a cold, windy day and limited Cincinnati to 63 yards rushing and 76 yards passing. Norm Bulaich, Colts' rookie rusher, picked up 116 yards on 25 carries. Jim O'Brien, Colts' rookie kicker and leading scorer, connected with a 44-yard FG, missed one from the same distance. A 49-yard FG try by Horst Muhlmann was blocked by Ray May. Mike Curtis, Colts' middle linebacker, made the game's only interception, picking off one of Virgil Carter's fourth-period passes, to set up an eventual final Colt score.

BALTIMORE 27, OAKLAND 17—At Memorial Stadium, Baltimore, Md., attendance 56,368. Johnny Unitas' passing and play calling, and the running of rookie Norm Bulaich, powered the Colts to the first AFC Championship. Bulaich scored twice and Unitas picked up 245 yards on 11 completions, with his key one coming in the fourth quarter on a 68-yard touchdown reception by Ray Perkins out of a formation of four wide receivers. George Blanda (who at 43 became the oldest player to perform in a title game when he replaced injured Daryle Lamonica in the second period) threw TD passes to Fred Biletnikoff and Warren Wells, but was intercepted three times. Ed Hinton caught five passes for the Colts for 115 yards.

SUPER BOWL V

BALTIMORE 16, DALLAS 13—At Miami Orange Bowl Stadium, attendance 79,204. Colts' rookie Jim O'Brien climaxed one of the zaniest professional football games ever played by lofting a 32-yard field goal through the Orange Bowl uprights with five seconds left in regulation time to give Baltimore a 16-13 Super Bowl win. The brutal defensive struggle resulted in 11 turnovers, which prevented a fluid, artistic performance but contributed to the drama of the contest. Dallas nearly put the game away early in the third period when, leading 13-6, the Cowboys recovered Jim Duncan's fumble on the 2nd half kickoff and zipped to the Colts' two in five plays. Duane Thomas, however, fumbled on the next play. Rick Volk provided Baltimore with the opportunity to tie halfway through the fourth period when he intercepted Craig Morton on the Dallas 33 and returned it to the three. Tom Nowatzke punctured into the end zone and after O'Brien's PAT it was 13-13. Mike Curtis intercepted another Morton pass on the Dallas 41 in the final minute and ran it back to the 28. The Colts stopped the clock with nine seconds left in the game and O'Brien made history. Morton's desperation pass on the final play of the game was intercepted by Jerry Logan.

BALTIMORE 20, CLEVELAND 3—Attendance 74,082. Don Nottingham, playing for the injured Norm Bulaich, scored two TDs and rushed for 92 yards while Baltimore's strong defense dominated play in a 20-3 Colt victory over the Cleveland Browns that sent Baltimore into the AFC finals. Jim O'Brien added two field goals for the Colts and Don Cockroft, who had two kicks blocked by Bubba Smith, produced the Brown's only points. Rick Volk intercepted two of Bill Nelsen's passes and Charlie Stukes picked off a third. John Unitas went all the way, blending the strong running of Nottingham with passes to his favorite target, tight end Tom Mitchell, who caught 5 for 73 yards.

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0—At Orange Bowl, attendance 75,629. The Colts, playing without their starting running backs Norm Bulaich and Tom Matte, still managed to compile 302 total yards to Miami's 286 but were damaged by the Dolphins' big plays—Bob Griese to Paul Warfield 75-yard pass for TD in first period and Dick Anderson's 62-yard interception return for a TD in the third quarter. Larry Csonka carried five yards to a fourth quarter touchdown for Miami. John Unitas completed 20 of 36 passes for 224 yards but Colts were shutout for the first time since Dec. 5, 1965 (0-13 by Chicago Bears). Another big play for Miami was stopping Colts fourth and one attempt at Dolphins' nine-yard line when lead was 7-0.

PITTSBURGH 28, BALTIMORE 10—Attendance 49,053. The Colts were able to keep the game close with the defending Super Bowl champions until the final period even without the services of starting QB Bert Jones. Jones sustained a severe bruise to his throwing arm on the Colts first offensive series and was unable to return to action until the fourth quarter. Backup QB Marty Domres generated a second quarter score with a 5-yard TD toss to Glenn Doughty. The Colts trailed 14-10 after three quarters before Pittsburgh QB Terry Bradshaw scored on a 2-yard run midway through the final period. Steelers LB Andy Russell iced the victory in the final two minutes when he returned a Jones fumble 93 yards for a score.

PITTSBURGH 40, BALTIMORE 14—Attendance 60,020. The Colts were playing "catch-up" ball all afternoon as the Steelers struck early and often. On the third play of the game, Pittsburgh stunned the Colts defense with a 76 yard TD bomb from Terry Bradshaw to Frank Lewis. Baltimore countered with a first quarter Bert Jones TD pass to Roger Carr covering 17 yards but it would be the Colts only score until the final period. A 60 yard kickoff return by Theo Bell and a 50 yard Franco Harris burst from scrimmage were key plays in building the Steelers 26-7 halftime lead. The Pittsburgh offense amassed 526 total yards as Bradshaw threw for 264 and Harris picked up 132 on the ground.

OAKLAND 37, BALTIMORE 31—Attendance 60,763. In one of the longest football games ever played, the Colts and Raiders needed six quarters to decide the winner of their AFC playoff game. An Errol Mann 22 yard FG with only 26 seconds left in regulation time put the game into overtime tied at 31. After a scoreless fifth quarter, Oakland ended the game when Ken Stabler hit TE Dave Casper for a 10 yard score. The lead changed hands nine times throughout the game. The Colts had some outstanding individual efforts in all facets of the game. On offense, Ron Lee came off the bench to rush for 46 yards on 11 carries and two TDs. Defensively, Bruce Laird intercepted two passes and returned one 61 yards for a TD. On special teams, Marshall Johnson raced 87 yards with a kickoff for a score.

COLTS INDIVIDUAL RECORDS

National Football League records are indicated by an asterisk. Every attempt has been made to compile as complete a table of records as possible. Errors will be corrected if documented. Since the Colts joined the NFL in 1953, the league has increased the number of games played each season from 12 in 1953 to the current 16 in 1978. Here are the dates that the league increased the number of games played each season:
1953-60   12 games   1961-77   14 games   1978-92   16 games
Note: The 1982 NFL regular season was reduced from 16 games to nine games because of a players' strike. The 1987 season was 15 games due to a players' strike.
