ROBERT IRSAY

President and Treasurer

On February 26, 1980, Robert Irsay brought to realization a long awaited dream of the Baltimore Colts, for it was on that date that the dedication of the Colts new five million dollar office/training complex was held.

"This building is a symbol of our dedication to bring winning football back to our fans in Baltimore. This facility is second to none in the NFL," stated Irsay at the dedication, "and we want our football team to match the standards set by this building."

Irsay became owner of the Colts on July 26, 1972, when he traded his recently acquired Los Angeles Rams to Carroll Rosenbloom for the Baltimore franchise. Irsay had purchased the Rams from the estate of the late Dan Reeves.

Irsay was born on March 5, 1923, in Chicago's northern "Bucktown" section. He worked his way through the University of Illinois where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in mechanical engineering. While attending Illinois, he was an Illini football teammate of former Colt Alex Agase.

After his graduation, he served from 1941 to 1945 in the United States Marine Corps as a member of the First and Fourth Divisions. He had attained the rank of lieutenant at the time of his discharge.

During the years following his discharge from the service, he worked for a ventilation company in Chicago until 1952.

Starting with $800 borrowed from his wife Harriet's savings account, he formed The Robert Irsay Company of Skokie, Illinois and built it into one of the largest and most respected heating, air conditioning and ventilating companies in the world. During its twenty plus years, The Robert Irsay Company completed contracts on some of the largest buildings in the famed Chicago "Loop." The company also includes Cobo Arena in Detroit, Disney World in Orlando and countless commercial and residential projects among its achievements.

In 1971, Irsay sold his company to a company listed on the New York Stock Exchange. He remained associated with the firm until 1978 when he formed Colt Construction and Development Company and its affiliate Colt Developers Co., diversified construction and development companies, with offices in Baltimore, Los Angeles, Denver and Chicago. These companies were responsible for the construction of the Colt complex.

His success in the business world has enabled him to make significant contributions of time and money to many charitable organizations. A strong supporter of the Colts Corrals, he has contributed heavily to their charities as well as to the Stritch School of Medicine at Loyola University. He is an active fund raiser for the Clearbrook Center for Retarded Children in Rolling Meadows, Illinois and for the Troubled Children's Foundation Center in Hialeah, Florida. For his community work in Baltimore, Irsay was honored by the Eastside Athletic Club as their "1978 Man of the Year." He is a member of the Executive Committee of NFL Properties, which dedicates a majority of its earnings to NFL Charities. He served the last two years as Tournament Chairman for the NFL/Colts Alumni Charity Golf Classic held in Baltimore for the benefit of the Maryland Special Olympics.

Irsay and his wife, Harriet, have two sons, Tom (28) and Jim (23), now working with the Colts as Assistant Business Manager. The Irsay's first grandchild, Carlie Margaret, was born on February 16, 1981 to Jim and his wife, Meg.

ERNIE ACCORSI

General Manager

After twelve years of service in the National Football League, including ten with the Baltimore Colts, 40-year old Ernie Accorsi was named the Colts' General Manager on May 16, 1982. In 1975 and 1976, Accorsi was on NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle's staff, serving as assistant to the President of the National Football Conference.

Accorsi joined the Colts in 1970 as Public Relations Director and returned in 1977 as Assistant General Manager. During the past five years, he has assisted in policymaking decisions involving all aspects of the Colts' organization. Accorsi directed the development of the Colts' 1981 off-season marketing campaign which increased season ticket sales. This was the first increase following a sub-.500 season in 25 years. He also participated in negotiation of player contracts and radio/TV agreements in addition to serving as liaison with the National Football League office.

The Colts won Super Bowl V in Accorsi's first year in the League and he was later selected to work five additional Super Bowls as a member of the League's staff. He was also on three Pro Bowl staffs.

A native of Hershey, Pennsylvania, Accorsi graduated from Wake Forest University in 1963. He worked as a sportswriter for the Charlotte News prior to service in the U.S. Army and then joined the staff of the Baltimore Evening Sun in 1964. He was the Sports Publicity Director at St. Joseph's College (Philadelphia) in 1965 when the Hawks were named the preseason number one college basketball team in the nation by Sports Illustrated. Accorsi returned to the newspaper business in 1966 with the Philadelphia Inquirer, where he covered football and basketball, including the regular assignment of the Philadelphia 76ers. In 1969 he was hired by current Athletic Director Jim Tarman as Assistant Sports Information Director at Penn State University. It was a year when Penn State finished number two in the country in both national wire service polls and produced five First Team All America selections.

LENNY MOORE

Community Relations Director

Lenny Moore, a former Colt and Hall of Famer, joined the Colts administrative staff in March 1975 and now serves as the Club's Community Relations Director. His responsibilities include acting as a liaison with the greater Baltimore community through numerous public appearances in addition to participating in a variety of civic, educational and fund-raising programs.

An active contributor to community affairs, Moore has served on the Board of Advisors for the Maryland Special Olympics and is a member of the Board of Trustees of Provident Hospital. He has served as chairman of several fund-raising projects in addition to contributing to a variety of youth education programs and senior citizen groups. He and his wife, Edith, reside in the Windsor Hill section of Baltimore.

FRANK KUSH HEAD COACH

As the tenth head coach in the Baltimore Colts thirty year National Football League history, Frank Kush represents a disciplined, fundamental approach to the game of football. "My coaching philosophy is a disciplined approach which emphasizes conditioning and the fundamentals of the game in addition to mental preparation," says Kush "but above all, everyone must be motivated toward the same objective... success." Kush's career record as a head coach is proof that his approach to the game is both sound and successful.

During his 22 year tenure (1958-79) as head coach at Arizona State University, Kush compiled one of the most impressive records in college football history. His career record of 176-54-1 (a .764 winning percentage) was ranked second only to Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant among active NCAA coaches at the time of his departure from ASU.

Last year, Kush entered the professional ranks for the first time when he was named head coach of the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Canadian Football League. He continued his success in the CFL by posting an 11-4-1 mark which earned a first place finish in the Eastern Conference.

Kush succeeded Dan Devine as head coach at Arizona State in 1958 after serving three years as the varsity line coach. He posted a winning record in 20 of 21 full seasons while moving the Sun Devils from the Border Conference to the Western Athletic Conference (1962) and then to the Pac-10 (1978). His clubs won two Border Conference titles and seven WAC titles in addition to posting a 6-1 mark in bowl competition.

One of Kush's most memorable bowl wins came in 1975 when the Sun Devils defeated heavily favored co-Big Eight champion Nebraska, 17-14, in the Fiesta Bowl. The victory concluded a perfect 12-0 campaign for Arizona State and earned the team a number two ranking in both national wire service polls and a number one national ranking by the Sporting News. For his efforts with the '75 club, which contained only eight seniors, Kush was named "Coach of the Year" by the American Football Coaches Association and by the Walter Camp Foundation.

One of fifteen children, Kush was born on January 20, 1929 in Windber, Pennsylvania. He won All State honors on the Windber High football team and was elected class president three times. In 1948, he enrolled at Washington and Lee but transferred to Michigan State after one semester. He earned All American honors as a 175 pound defensive guard and played in only one losing effort during his three year Spartan career.

After graduating from Michigan State in 1953, Kush spent two years in the Army at Fort Benning, Georgia where he served as player-coach of the post's championship football team before joining the staff at ASU in 1955.

Kush has earned a Master's Degree in Education from ASU. He and his wife, Fran, have three sons. Dan (27) hold several ASU placekicking records and works as an engineer in Arizona. David (25) is a second year medical school student at the University of Arizona. Damian (21) is a junior at ASU majoring in architectural design.

ZEKE BRATKOWSKI, Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

The most experienced NFL coach on Frank Kush's staff is Zeke Bratkowski who will serve as the Colts offensive coordinator and quarterback coach. Bratkowski has worked as an assistant in the National Football League for 12 seasons including the last three years as offensive backfield coach for the Green Bay Packers. He began his NFL coaching career in 1969-70 as Green Bay's backfield coach before serving as an assistant on the Chicago Bears staff from 1972-74. In 1975, he rejoined the Packers as quarterback coach. Bratkowski played 14 seasons in the NFL at quarterback beginning in 1953 when he was the Bears number two draft choice. After one season with Chicago, he spent two years in the Air Force before returning to the Bears from 1957-60. He played with the Los Angeles Rams from 1961-63 and then moved to Green Bay where he played from 1963-68 and 1971. Bratkowski was born on October 20, 1931 in Danville, Illinois. He and his wife, Mary Elizabeth have three children, Robert (25), Steve (22) and Kassie (20).

BUD CARSON, Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Backs

One of the most successful assistant coaches in the NFL, Bud Carson will serve as the Colts defensive coordinator and defensive backfield coach. In ten seasons of NFL coaching, he has been to the playoffs nine times and made three Super Bowl appearances. For the past three seasons, he served as defensive coordinator of the Los Angeles Rams after joining the club as defensive backfield coach in 1978. Before joining the Rams, Carson was the defensive coordinator at Pittsburgh from 1972-77 when the Steelers made six playoff appearances and won Super Bowls IX and X. His collegiate coaching career began at North Carolina where he served as an assistant (1957-64) before moving to South Carolina (1965) as head defensive coach. In 1966 he was named defensive coordinator at Georgia Tech and served as head coach for the next five years. Born on April 28, 1931 in Freeport, Pa., he and his wife, Linda, have four children, Dana (22), Clifford (21), Gary (20) and Cathy (6).

GUNTHER CUNNINGHAM, Defensive Line

Gunther Cunningham will be in charge of the Colts defensive line after handling the defensive lineman and linebackers for Frank Kush's Hamilton Tiger-Cat club of the CFL last season. Before joining Kush at Hamilton, he served four seasons (1977-80) at the University of California where he worked with the defensive secondary in 1977 and then served as defensive coordinator in his final three years under Colts runningback coach Roger Theder. After his graduation from the University of Oregon in 1968, Cunningham coached the Ducks defensive line for three seasons (1969-71) before moving to Arkansas as defensive secondary coach (1972) and then to Stanford to handle the linemen (1973-76). He lettered for three seasons at linebacker at Oregon. Born on June 19, 1946 in Munich, Germany, Cunningham was raised in Lompac, California. He and his wife, Rene reside with their daughter, Natalie (6) in Reisterstown, Md.

HAL HUNTER, Offensive Line

Hal Hunter brings 24 years of coaching expertise to his new post as the Colts offensive line coach. Last year, he served on Frank Kush's Hamilton staff as both offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. Hunter started his collegiate coaching career at Richmond where he handled the defensive line from 1958-61. He then served as offensive line coach at West Virginia (1962-63), Maryland (1964-65), Duke (1966-70), Kentucky where he was also offensive coordinator (1971-72) and Indiana University in Bloomington, Ind. (1973-76). In 1977, he was named head coach at California (Pa.) State College where he spent four years before joining Kush in the CFL last season. Hunter was a three year starter at Pitt as a linebacker and offensive guard in addition to participating on the wrestling squad. He played offensive guard briefly for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1956 before entering coaching. Born on June 3, 1934 in Canonsburg, Pa., he and his wife, Eileen have two daughters, Heidi (26) and Heather (25) and one son, Hal (22) and reside in Pikesville, Md.

RICHARD MANN, Wide Receivers

A former player and coach under Frank Kush at Arizona State, Richard Mann enters his first year in the professional coaching ranks in charge of the Colts receiving corps. He brings a total of eight years of collegiate coaching experience to the position. For the past two years, Mann served as receivers coach at Louisville. Prior to his stay at Louisville, he coached for six seasons under Kush at Arizona State in charge of the receivers. As a player, Mann earned three varsity letters at Arizona State under Kush. He started as a flanker but moved to the starting tight end position for his final two seasons. He caught 28 passes for 340 yards during his collegiate career. Mann was born on April 20, 1947 in Aliquippa, Pennsylvania. He and his wife, Karen, have two children, Deven (4) and Richard (2).

ROGER THEDER, Runningbacks

Roger Theder will be in charge of the Colts runningbacks after serving the last four years as head coach at the University of California. He compiled an 18-27 record at Cal after handling the Golden Bears' quarterbacks and receivers from 1972-77. During his collegiate coaching career, Theder contributed to the development of All American quarterbacks such as Rich Campbell, Steve Bartkowski and Jim Plunkett. He started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Bowling Green in 1963 before moving to Northern Illinois as quarterbacks and receivers coach (1964-67). He served as quarterbacks coach at Stanford from 1968-71 and the Cardinals were Rose Bowl winners in each of his last two seasons. Theder is a graduate of Western Michigan where he lettered three years at quarterback and earned All Conference honors as a senior. He was also a catcher on the baseball team for three seasons. Theder was born on September 22, 1939 in Wauertown, Wisconsin. He and his wife, Marie, have three children, Rick (16), Denae (14) and Monique (9).

BOB VALESENTE,

Special Teams/Linebackers/Defensive Backs

Bob Valesente makes his professional debut as coach of the Colts special teams, linebackers and defensive backs after serving the last two years as defensive coordinator at Mississippi State. He began his collegiate coaching career at Cornell in 1964 where he handled both the linebackers and defensive secondary in ten seasons. He then moved to the University of Cincinnati where he coached the defensive secondary (1976-77) before taking the same position at Arizona (1978-80). Valesente was a four year letterman at running back and defensive back at Ithaca where he also earned All America honors as a centerfielder on the baseball squad. After graduation, he played two seasons (1963-64) of Class A baseball in the Chicago Cubs organization before earning his Master's Degree in Physical Education from Ithaca in 1965. He was inducted into the Ithaca College Hall of Fame in 1975. Valesente was born on July 19, 1940 in Seneca Falls, N.Y. He and his wife, Joan, have three children, Ginger (16), Bobby (13) and Michelle (2).

RICK VENTURI, Linebackers

Entering this first years of coaching at the professional level, Rick Venturi will handle the Colts linebacking unit. He joins the Baltimore staff after serving as a guest linebacker coach for Frank Kush's Hamilton club during training camp last season. Venturi has coached for 13 years at the collegiate level including three seasons (1978-80) as head coach at Northwestern. He began his coaching career at his alma matter serving as the freshman coach in 1968-69 before taking charge of the defensive secondary (1970-72) at the varsity level. In 1973 he moved to Purdue where he handled the linebackers for four seasons before taking the defensive backfield post at Illinois in 1977. He lettered three years at Northwestern as quarterback, defensive back and linebacker. Born on February 23, 1946 in Taylorville, Illinois, Venturi was raised in the Decatur, Rockford and Pekin sections of Illinois. He and his wife, Cheri, have two children, Marin (11) and Jason (9) and reside in Reisterstown, Md.

MIKE WESTHOFF, Asst. Offensive Line/Weight Training

The youngest member of Frank Kush's nine man staff, Mike Westhoff will serve as the Colts assistant offensive line coach and weight training coordinator. The 34 year old Westhoff worked as offensive line coach at Texas Christian last year after working three seasons in the same capacity at Northwestern under Colts linebacker coach Rick Venturi. While at Northwestern, he also assisted in the weight training program. Westhoff initially entered the college ranks in 1974 as a graduate assistant and later a part-time coach at Indiana University in Bloomington, Ind. where he handled the linebackers and defensive line. He moved to a full-time post as offensive line coach at Dayton in 1976 before taking over the defensive line and linebackers at Indiana State in 1977. Westhoff was a starting tight end for three years at Wichita State, earning MVP honors as a junior. Born on January 10, 1948 in Pittsburgh, he was raised in Bethel Park, Pa. He and his wife, Marilyn, have one son, John (1).

ED BLOCK, Trainer Emeritus

For the past 27 years he has been known as "Ed Block of the Colts", and has served as friend, confidant, and healer for the players of the Blue and White. Due to a severe heart attack before the '77 season "Ed Block of the Colts" was named Trainer Emeritus. A member of the Citizens Savings Athletic Trainers Hall of Fame, Block has been associated with the Colts since 1954. He joined the Baltimore organization from the physical education staff of Washington University in St. Louis. A native of St. Louis, Block attended the University of Missouri where he earned his Bachelor and Masters degrees in Physical Education. Following World War II, in which he served as an executive officer for a tank outfit and was decorated with a Purple Heart, he continued his education while on the staff at Washington University and later earned his doctorate from Columbia. In addition to his work with the Colts, Block has worked with the Kernan's Children's Hospital, Johns Hopkins Hospital and with the in-space conditioning program for NASA. In 1978, the Ed Block Courage Award was established by the Eastside Athletic Club to honor a Colts player who demonstrates the characteristics of courage and dedication.

JOHN LOPEZ, Head Trainer

John Lopez joined the Colts training staff in June of 1979 after serving as assistant trainer for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers since 1976. Before joining the Buccaneers, he worked six years as assistant, then head trainer at the University of Tampa. He started his training career while a student at Tampa. He graduated in 1971 with a degree in Physical Education.

A life long resident of Tampa, he has served as head trainer for the Lions American Bowl and the Can-Am Bowl which were played annually in Tampa during January.

He is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Associations and the American College of Sports Medicine. He has also served as a member of the Committee on Sports Eye Safety of the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

JOHN KASIK, Assistant Trainer

John Kasik joined the Colts staff in May, 1981 as assistant trainer. His association with the Colts began in 1979 when he worked on the Colts training staff during summer training camp. He remained on the staff as an intern during the '79 season under head trainer John Lopez. One year later, he earned a degree in Education and Athletic Training from West Virginia University. In June, 1981 he received a Masters degree in Athletic Training from the University of Miami while working on the college's training staff. A Certified Athletic Trainer, Kasik is a native of the Parkville section of Baltimore. He is a 1975 graduate of Loyola High School.

FRED SCHUBACH, Player Personnel Director

Fred Schubach has been with the Baltimore Colts since the club's inception in 1953, serving the past eight years as Player Personnel Director. In those eight drafts the Colts added 20 players who were starters last season. A Philadelphia native, Schubach joined the Colts as equipment manager, after working for his father, Fred, who served 27 years as the Philadelphia Eagles equipment manager. In 1967, he was asked to join the personnel staff on a part-time basis, while continuing his equipment duties. He became a full-time member of the personnel department in 1971, and in 1973 was named director. Schubach has also spent time in professional baseball, as a catcher in the Philadelphia Athletics farm system and as bullpen catcher for the A's. He served in the Army Medical Corps during the Korean War and was stationed at the Osaka Army Hospital. Fred and his wife, Hazel, have two sons, Fred, Jr., and Richard, and reside in Lutherville, Md.

BOB TERPENING, Pro Personnel Director

Bob Terpening was named the Colts Pro Personnel Director in January of 1982 after serving five years as a College Scout in the Colts Personnel Department. His major area of responsibility will now be National Football League personnel although he will continue his involvement with college scouting. Before joining the Colts on a full-time basis in February of 1977, he worked in both the Colts and New England Patriots Scouting Departments. A former high school football coach in the Baltimore area, he graded films of college talent for the Colts in 1970-71 before joining the Patriots on a full-time basis in '71. He continued his work with the Patriots Scouting Department on a part-time basis from 1974-77 when he resumed his duties as a high school football coach in Baltimore. Terpening received his Bachelor's degree from Shepherd College and earned his Master's degree at West Virginia University. He and his wife, Virginia, and two sons, Chris and Matt, reside in Reisterstown, Md.

CLYDE POWERS, College Scout

Clyde Powers joined the Colts Personnel Staff as a College Scout in January of 1982 after serving two years as an assistant coach for special assignments. While working on the Colts coaching staff, his responsibilities included on the field coaching, scouting the Colts next opponent and assisting in the breakdown of offensive game films. He joined the Colts after playing six years in the NFL as a defensive back. Selected in the fifth round of the '74 draft by the N.Y. Giants, he played four seasons with the Giants until his release at the start of the '78 season. He played the final '78 game with the KC Chiefs and reported to their training camp in '79. A knee injury ended his playing career. He was a three-year letter winner at Oklahoma and earned All Big-8 honors at safety in his senior year. Born on August 19, 1951 in Pascagoula, Mississippi, he grew up in Lawton, Oklahoma and lived there during his off-season as a player. He is single and resides in Randallstown, Md.

GAME ONE—September 6

Baltimore 29—New England 28

Schaefer Stadium

49,977

The Colts opened the 1981 regular season with a 29-28 upset victory over the New England Patriots at Schaefer Stadium. Rookie fullback Randy McMillan, the Colts number one draft choice from Pitt, led the Baltimore attack which gained 346 total yards including 249 yards on the ground. McMillan had the second best debut for a runningback in Colts history as he gained 146 yards on 16 carries and scored 2 TDs. His backfield mate, Curtis Dickey, added 80 yards on 22 rushing attempts and scored one TD. Baltimore jumped to a 10-0 first quarter lead on a career-long 48 yard field goal by Mike Wood and Dickey's 19 yard TD run but the Patriots bounced back to take a 14-13 halftime lead. The Colts regained the lead that they would never relinquish, 16-14, on Wood's third field goal of the afternoon in the third quarter. McMillan added to the Colts lead with two fourth quarter TD runs of 35 and 2 yards before sealing the victory with a 42 yard run in the final two minutes of play to allow Baltimore to maintain ball control as time ran out. Colts QB-Bert Jones completed 12 of 20 passes for 113 yards for the day. His favorite targets were Dickey and McMillan with 3 catches apiece. Defensively, Baltimore was led by free safety Nesby Glasgow who recorded 8 tackles and 3 assists and LB-Ed Smith who had 7 tackles and 2 assists. The Colts recorded 3 QB sacks and 2 interceptions. The kicking game got off to a fast start as placekicker Mike Wood booted three field goals and punter Mike Garrett averaged 44.2 yards on four punts.

GAME TWO—September 13

Buffalo 35—Baltimore 3

Memorial Stadium

45,772

The Colts lost their first contest of the '81 campaign, 35-3, to the defending AFC Eastern Division champion Buffalo Bills at Memorial Stadium. The Bills dominated the game during the entire afternoon both offensively and defensively as Colts head coach Mike McCormack noted afterwards: "We got whipped in every way especially on the line of scrimmage." Buffalo opened the scoring on a 33 yard TD pass from Joe Ferguson to Joe Cribbs early in the first quarter. The Colts came back with their only score of the game on a 22 yard field goal by Mike Wood midway through the second quarter. The Bills then ran off 28 unanswered points including 3 TD passes by Ferguson. Buffalo won the statistical battle as decisively as the scoreboard result compiling 430 yards to the Colts 147. The big edge came in the passing department with the Bills gaining 261 net yards through the air to Baltimore's 74. Offensively, the Colts were limited to an average of only 2.5 yards per offensive play. Colts quarterbacks completed 12 of 28 passes for 120 yards and were intercepted twice. Bert Jones completed 5 of 11 for 30 yards in the first half before sitting out the second half with a bruised right elbow. Roger Carr led all Colt receivers with 4 receptions for 50 yards. Baltimore's leading tacklers were LB-Ed Smith with 8 and 2 assists and DT-Herb Orvis with 7 tackles and one assist.

GAME THREE—September 20*Denver 28—Baltimore 10*Mile High Stadium*74,804

For the second consecutive week, the Colts defensive secondary gave up 4 touchdown passes as Baltimore dropped its second game of the season, 28-10, to Denver in Mile High Stadium. Bronco QB-Craig Morton threw for 291 yards and 4 TDs including three to WR-Steve Watson. Denver compiled a total of 442 total net yards including 315 yards through the air compared to Baltimore's 209 yards total offense including 48 yards passing. The Broncos had 27 first downs to Baltimore's 10 while controlling the football for 38:04 minutes compared to the Colts 21:56 possession time. The Colts trailed 14-0 at halftime but pulled to a 14-10 deficit in the third period on a 21 yard Mike Wood field goal and a 63 yard TD jaunt by Curtis Dickey. Denver responded with two scoring strikes from Morton to Watson in less than a minute to seal the victory. Watson caught a career high 7 passes for 143 yards for the afternoon. Baltimore was led by Curtis Dickey who had the second 100 yards rushing game of his career by gaining 115 yards on 12 carries. The Colts defense intercepted 4 Morton aeriels and recorded 3 quarterback sacks. The defense was led by free safety Nesby Glasgow who recorded 15 tackles and linebacker Ed Smith who had 12 tackles and 3 assists.

GAME FOUR—September 27*Miami 31—Baltimore 28*Memorial Stadium*42,452

A holding penalty nullified a potential game-winning touchdown pass with less than a minute remaining in the game and cost the Colts their second victory of the young season against the undefeated Miami Dolphins at Memorial Stadium. The division leading Dolphins were able to hold on for a 31-28 victory when a 47 yard TD pass from Bert Jones to Ray Butler was called back with 31 seconds remaining. The Colts had battled back from deficits of 14-0, 21-14 and 28-21 throughout the contest only to fall to their third consecutive defeat of the season. After sluggish performances the past two weeks, Baltimore's offense exploded for a season high 514 yards, the most gained by the club since 1967. QB-Bert Jones threw for 357 yards, the second highest total of his career, and his first 3 touchdown passes of the season. His favorite target was WR-Ray Butler who caught 2 TD tosses and gained a career high 145 yards on 4 receptions. The Colts ground attack made its third strong showing in four games totalling 166 yards and averaging 5.2 yards per attempt. Curtis Dickey rushed for 77 yards and one TD and Randy McMillan added 73 yards on the ground. Miami QB-David Woodley had the first 100 yard passing day of his career completing 19 of 30 passes for 309 yards and 2 TDs. Baltimore's defense was led by tackles Mike Barnes with 10 tackles and Herb Orvis with 6 tackles and 4 assists.

GAME FIVE—October 4 Buffalo 23—Baltimore 17

Rich Stadium

77,811

The Colts record dropped to one win and four losses after the club's second defeat of the season at the hands of the Buffalo Bills, 23-17, at Rich Stadium. For the third consecutive week the Colts fell behind 14-0 before getting on the scoreboard and the early deficit was again too much to overcome. Baltimore made several defensive changes for the game moving free safety Nesby Glasgow to left cornerback and inserting Kim Anderson into the free safety spot and moving defensive tackle Herb Orvis to left defensive end. The changes were designed to strengthen the left side of the defense against the run but failed to do so as Joe Cribbs gained 159 of the Bills 229 total rushing yards. After falling behind by two touchdowns early in the game, the Colts pulled to within seven points at 17-10 early in the final period when Bert Jones hit Roger Carr with a 6 yard TD pass. But Bills placekicker Nick Mike-Mayer put the game out of reach with field goals of 44 and 45 yards. The Colts attack was led by Curtis Dickey who gained 158 of the club's 206 first half yards before being sidelined for the entire second half with an ankle injury. Dickey carried 10 times for 78 yards and caught 3 passes for 80 yards. Jones finished with 275 yards passing. Defensively, the Colts were led by Kim Anderson who was making his first career start at free safety and LB-Ed Smith who each recorded 8 tackles and one assist.

GAME SIX—October 11*Cincinnati 41—Baltimore 19*Memorial Stadium*35,881

Baltimore lost its fifth consecutive game, 41-19, to the Cincinnati Bengals at Memorial Stadium in a game which marked the fifth time that the Colts were not able to get on the scoreboard before their opponent. The Colts trailed 3-0 at the end of the first quarter but came back to take a 5-3 lead on Mike Wood's seventh consecutive field goal of the season and a safety on a blocked punt out of the endzone by rookie Hosea Taylor. The Bengals responded with three unanswered TD tosses by Ken Anderson to take a commanding 24-5 lead in the third period. The two teams then exchanged touchdowns for the remainder of the game with Cincinnati adding a field goal to attain its final 22 point margin of victory. Baltimore again made defensive lineup changes with the insertion of newly acquired linebacker Joe Federspiel in the middle and moving the incumbent Ed Smith to the left side in addition to moving Herb Orvis to the starting left tackle spot. Federspiel led all Colt tacklers with 14. The Colts offense was led by Bert Jones who had his second 300 yard passing day in the last three games. He completed 22 of 30 passes for 310 yards and one touchdown. His favorite target was Curtis Dickey who caught a career high 11 passes for 88 yards.

GAME SEVEN—October 18*San Diego 43—Baltimore 14*Memorial Stadium*48,679

The Colts got on the scoreboard first for only the second time in seven games but the Chargers responded with 30 unanswered points on their way to posting a 43-14 victory at Memorial Stadium. For the third consecutive week, the Colts attempted changes to bolster a struggling defense by opening the contest in a 3-4 alignment. The adjustments were not beneficial, however, as the Colts defense surrendered a total of 470 net yards and a season high 43 points. Baltimore's only scores came on two Bert Jones TD tosses of 29 yards to Roger Carr and 5 yards to Curtis Dickey. Jones completed 20 of 37 passes for 255 yards for the afternoon and was sacked a season high six times. His top receiver was Randy McMillan who grabbed 6 passes for 60 yards. The Colts ran the football a season low 16 times for 68 yards. Dickey's 32 yards on 6 attempts led the rushing attack. San Diego was led by QB-Dan Fouts who completed 26 of 43 passes for 298 yards and 3 touchdowns. Rookie runningback James Brooks led all rushers with 72 yards on 14 carries. Baltimore's defense was led by Bruce Laird with 9 tackles and one assist.

GAME EIGHT—October 25

Cleveland 42—Baltimore 28

Cleveland Stadium

78,986

Baltimore's defense surrendered over 40 points for the third week in a row as the club lost its seventh consecutive contest to the Browns at Cleveland Stadium. Browns QB-Brian Sipe threw for a club record 444 yards and 4 touchdowns to lead an attack which compiled another club mark of 562 yards total offense. The Colts defense allowed season high totals in several passing categories including gross passing yardage (444), pass completions (30) and first downs passing (19). Cleveland took a 21-0 lead midway through the second quarter on three Sipe TD tosses and maintained the same margin at halftime, 28-7. The Colts pulled to within seven points of the lead twice in the second half on two TD passes from Bert Jones to Ray Butler but Cleveland extended its final margin of victory to 14 points on a TD run by Mike Pruitt. The game marked the return of Colts MLB-Ed Simonini to the starting lineup after missing 9 weeks with a broken collarbone. Simonini had 8 tackles and 2 assists and recovered one fumble before leaving the game in the third quarter when he bruised the collarbone. The Colts defense had a season high six turnovers including four fumble recoveries and two interceptions. Linebacker Joe Federspiel led the defense with 11 tackles and 2 assists.

GAME NINE—November 1*Miami 27—Baltimore 10*Orange Bowl*46,061

The Colts established a new club record for consecutive losses in a season by losing their eighth straight contest, 27-10, to the AFC Eastern Division leading Miami Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. Miami QB-David Woodley threw two TD passes and ran for another and rookie fullback Andra Franklin had the first 100 yard rushing game of his career to lead the Dolphins attack. After starting the last two games with the 3-4 defense, the Colts went back to the 4-3 alignment and made some changes at linebacker and in the secondary. Barry Krauss was inserted at right linebacker in place of Ed Smith and Derrick Hatchett was reinstated at the left cornerback spot while Nesby Glasgow moved from left corner to his original free safety position. The defensive effort was improved as the Colts allowed the second lowest yardage total of the season (310) and season low figures for total plays (58) and first downs (19). The Dolphins held a 14-10 lead at halftime and then ran off 13 unanswered points in the second half on two field goals by Uwe von Schamann and a 7 yard TD pass from Woodley to Ron Lee. Bert Jones completed 23 of 37 passes for 248 yards and one TD while Randy McMillan caught 9 passes for a season-high 78 yards. Joe Federspiel led the defense with 13 tackles and 2 assists.

Jets quarterback Richard Todd threw for 277 yards and 3 touchdowns as New York handed the Colts their ninth consecutive defeat, 41-14, at Memorial Stadium. Todd completed passes to ten different receivers and WR-Wesley Walker led the group with 3 receptions for 94 yards and one TD. The Colts trailed 14-10 early in the second quarter before the Jets ran off 31 unanswered points to seal the victory. In this contest, the Colts made an offensive lineup change on the club's third possession by inserting halfback Zachary Dixon in place of Curtis Dickey. Dixon ended up the game's leading rusher with 54 yards on 9 carries in addition to catching a career high 3 passes for 53 yards. Bert Jones completed 24 of 33 passes for 243 yards. His favorite target was fullback Randy McMillan who caught a season high 11 passes for 68 yards including the first TD of his career. McMillan also scored the Colts only other touchdown on a one yard run. The Colts defense was led by strong safety Bruce Laird who recorded 12 tackles and one assist. Defensive tackle Herb Orvis had Baltimore's lone quarterback sack.

GAME ELEVEN—November 15

Philadelphia 38—Baltimore 13

Veterans Stadium

72,200

The Colts dropped their tenth consecutive game, 38-13, to the NFC Eastern Division co-leading Eagles at Veterans Stadium. The loss equaled the club record for consecutive losses over one or more seasons established during the 1978-79 campaigns. Philadelphia quarterback Ron Jaworski threw for 294 yards and 2 TDs and runningback Wilbert Montgomery ran for 115 yards and 2 scores to pace the Eagle victory. Baltimore's last-ranked AFC defense surrendered a season high 574 yards and 34 first downs (an Eagle club record). Conversely, the Eagles top-ranked NFC defense held the Colts attack to season low totals in first downs (9), first downs rushing (one) and net yards rushing (36). Philadelphia opened the scoring on a 15 yard TD pass from Jaworski to Keith Krepfle but the Colts bounced back on a one yard TD run by Curtis Dickey. The PAT attempt failed and the Colts trailed 7-6 at the end of the first period. The Eagles then ran off 24 unanswered points in the second and third quarters to take a commanding 31-6 lead. The teams exchanged TDs in the final period to conclude the scoring. Colts QB-Bert Jones completed 8 of 17 passes for 93 yards and one TD. Reserve QB-Greg Landry played parts of the fourth quarter, alternating with Jones, and completed 4 of 9 passes for 79 yards. Baltimore's top tacklers were linebackers Sanders Shiver (7-5) and Joe Federspiel (8-2). Rookie defensive end Hosea Taylor recorded his first career QB sack.

GAME TWELVE—November 22*St. Louis 35—Baltimore 24*Memorial Stadium*32,782

St. Louis runningback Ottis Anderson rushed for 130 yards and scored 2 touchdowns to lead the Cardinals to a 35-24 victory over the Colts at Memorial Stadium. The Colts were never able to gain the lead in the contest although they did cut the Cardinals margin to four points on two occasions. For the tenth time in twelve games, Baltimore's opponent jumped to an early lead as Anderson scored on a 4 yard run to give the Cards a 7-0 advantage in the first quarter. The Colts responded with a 36 yard TD jaunt by Curtis Dickey to tie the score but bruised his hip on the run and missed the remainder of the game. Cardinals linebacker Dave Ahrens scored on a 14 yard interception return and the Colts Mike Wood booted a 40 yard field goal to complete the first period scoring with St. Louis ahead, 14-10. The Cardinals took a 21-10 advantage with 10 seconds remaining in the half when rookie QB-Neil Lomax scored on a 10 yard run. In the second half, the Colts cut the lead to 21-17 and 28-24 on two Bert Jones TD tosses to Roger Carr and Ray Butler but the Cards sealed the victory on an 11 yard TD run by Anderson in the final minute of play. Jones threw a season high 45 passes in the game and completed 23 for 230 yards. His favorite target was Butler who made a career high 7 receptions for 56 yards. Zachary Dixon led all Colts rushers with a career high 64 yards on 12 carries. Baltimore's defense allowed a season high 4 TDs on the ground while Cards WR-Pat Tilly had the top receiving effort against the Colts for the season gaining 158 yards on 5 receptions. Barry Krauss was the Colts top tackler with 10 and one assist.

GAME THIRTEEN—November 29*New York Jets 25—Baltimore 0*Shea Stadium*53,593

Baltimore's losing streak was extended to twelve games as the New York Jets downed the Colts, 25-0, at Shea Stadium. The shutout was the first sustained by the Colts since November 11, 1979 when the club lost to the Dolphins in the Orange Bowl, 19-0. Nearly half of the Jets scoring was contributed by placekicker Pat Leahy who booted four field goals of 37, 22, 27 and 27 yards. Jet touchdowns were scored by rookie runningback Freeman McNeil on runs of 30 yards and one yard. McNeil was the game's top ground gainer with 93 yards on 24 carries. Jet QB-Richard Todd completed 16 of 28 passes for 143 yards. The Colts defense surrendered a season-low 300 yards to the New York attack. Conversely, Baltimore's offense was limited to only 152 yards (only 54 in the second half), their second-lowest output of the season. The Colts attack was weakened by the loss of starting OG-Robert Pratt (hamstring) and OT-Wade Griffin (shoulder) to injury. They were replaced by first year pro Jim Moore and rookie Randy Van Divier who both made their first career starts. Ray Butler was the game's top receiver with 5 catches for 88 yards. Sanders Shiver was the Colts defensive leader with 12 tackles and 3 assists.

GAME FOURTEEN—December 6

Dallas 37—Baltimore 13

Memorial Stadium

60,586

The Cowboys made their first visit to Baltimore since 1972 and made it one to remember as Tony Dorsett rushed for 175 yards in leading Dallas to a 37-13 victory at Memorial Stadium. Runningback Ron Springs scored 3 touchdowns to fuel a Cowboy attack which established a new club record of 354 yards on the ground. The starting signal callers for both clubs did not play a single down at quarterback because of injury. The Colts Bert Jones (shoulder) was replaced by David Humm while Dallas starter Danny White (ribs) gave way to Glenn Carano. Baltimore's lone bright spot was the running of Curtis Dickey who gained a career high 130 yards on 15 carries and scored both Colt touchdowns. The Cowboys opened a 17-0 lead in the first quarter on two TD runs by Springs and a field goal by Rafael Septien. Curtis Dickey's 67 yard TD jaunt, the longest of his career, and a missed extra point made the score 17-6 at the end of the first period. A Springs TD reception and another Septien field goal gave Dallas a 27-6 halftime lead. Dickey got the Colts final score of the afternoon on a 20 yard TD run midway through the third quarter before Dallas closed out the contest with 10 fourth quarter points. The Cowboys final points came on Septien's third field goal of the game and a 59 yard TD run by James Jones. The top tackling effort of the season was turned in by Colts linebacker Ed Smith who recorded 19 tackles and 4 assists. Mistakes hampered Baltimore's efforts throughout the afternoon as the club was penalized a season high 11 times for 87 yards. Five of the Cowboys seven scoring drives were set up by a Colt fumble, interception or aided by penalty.

GAME FIFTEEN—December 13*Washington 38—Baltimore 14*RFK Stadium*55,045

The Colts sustained their 14th consecutive loss, to tie an NFL record, when they dropped a 38-14 decision to the Redskins at Washington's RFK Stadium. Redskins quarterback Joe Theismann became the third passer to throw for over 300 yards against the Colts '81 defense as he completed 23 of 36 passes for 339 yards and 2 touchdowns. Washington opened the scoring early on a 38 yard TD pass from Theismann to WR-Virgil Seay. The Colts responded late in the first quarter on Ray Butler's 7th TD reception of the season to knot the score at 7-7. The Redskins then went on to score 28 unanswered points on two John Riggins TD runs and a Theismann TD run and pass. Baltimore got back on the scoreboard in the middle of the third quarter on a 6 yard TD pass from Bert Jones to Reese McCall to make the score 35-14. The Redskins concluded the scoring on a 32 yard Mark Moseley field goal. In addition to Theismann's effort, the Redskins got standout performances from RB-Joe Washington who accounted for 134 yards total offense, and wide receivers Art Monk and Virgil Seay who each had 7 receptions for over 100 yards and one touchdown. Baltimore's attack was led by Roger Carr who had his best day of the season with 6 receptions for 114 yards. The Colts leading tackler was linebacker Ed Smith with 13 while strong safety Bruce Laird contributed 11 tackles and 2 assists.

GAME SIXTEEN—December 20*Baltimore 23—New England 21*Memorial Stadium*34,127

Bert Jones threw for three touchdowns and the Colts defense forced four turnovers as Baltimore snapped a 14 game losing streak and recorded its second victory in the season's final game, 23-21, over the Patriots at Memorial Stadium. It was also the Colts second victory over a New England club which they defeated in the season opener, 29-28, in Foxboro. Baltimore scored first for only the third time of the season on a 30 yard field goal by Mike Wood early in the first quarter. The Patriots countered with a 4 yard TD run by Sam Cunningham before the Colts took a 10-7 lead on a 5 yard TD pass from Jones to Don McCauley. New England jumped to a 4 point lead midway through the second quarter on a 15 yard TD pass from Tom Owen to Don Westbrook but the Colts recaptured the lead, 17-14 when Jones hit Ray Butler with a 53 yard TD strike. Baltimore added to its lead in the third quarter when Jones again found Butler on a 37 yard TD play. The Patriots closed the final margin of victory to two points when Matt Cavanaugh hit Westbrook on a two yard TD toss with less than two minutes remaining in the game. Baltimore's offense had its third best effort of the season gaining a total of 383 yards. Jones completed 17 of 28 passes for 267 yards. His favorite targets were Randy Burke who had career high totals of 5 catches for 69 yards and Ray Butler who caught 2 passes for 90 yards, both for touchdowns. Zachary Dixon was the Colts leading rusher with 52 yards while Randy McMillan added 48. The Colts defense was led by linebacker Joe Federspiel who recorded 6 tackles and 6 assists. Ed Smith, Derrick Hatchett and Reggie Pinkney each had an interception while Donnell Thompson recorded the first QB sack of his career.

HISTORY OF THE COLTS

Professional football came to the city of Baltimore when it was awarded a franchise in the All-America Football Conference on December 28, 1946. Bob Rodenberg headed a purchasing group which acquired the bankrupt Miami Seahawks and after a contest among the Baltimore fans, won by Charles Evans of Middle River, Maryland, the team was renamed the "Colts."

On September 7, 1947, wearing green and silver uniforms, the Colts under head coach Cecil Isbell won their initial AAFC game, 16-7, over the Brooklyn Dodgers. The team concluded its inaugural season before a record Baltimore crowd of 51,583 losing to the New York Yankees, 21-7. The Colts finished the year with a 2-11-1 record good for a fourth place finish in the Eastern Division.

Baltimore completed the 1948 season with a 7-8 record, tying the Buffalo Bills for the division title. The Colts compiled a 1-11 slate in 1949. The All-America Football Conference and the National Football League merged in 1950 and the Colts became a member of the NFL. After posting a 1-11 record for the second consecutive year, the franchise was dissolved by the league on January 18, 1951 because of its failing financial condition.

After two full seasons without professional football, the people of Baltimore were challenged by NFL Commissioner Bert Bell in December of 1952 to purchase 15,000 season tickets within six weeks in order to re-enter the NFL. The ticket drive was initiated on December 8, 1952 and the 15,000 ticket quota was attained in four weeks and three days.

On January 23, 1953, under the principle ownership of Carroll Rosenbloom, Baltimore was awarded the NFL's Dallas Texan franchise. The Baltimore team continued to use the name "Colts" and inherited the blue and white team colors worn by the Texans.

Before their first NFL season, the "new" Baltimore Colts engineered one of the biggest trades in sports history. In a deal with the Cleveland Browns involving 15 players, Baltimore received 10 Browns in exchange for 5 Colts. Among the players who came to Baltimore in the deal were Don Shula, Bert Rechichar, Carl Taseff and Art Spinney. These players helped the Colts open the 1953 NFL season with a 13-9 upset of the Chicago Bears in a game where Bert Rechichar set a then NFL record with a 56 yard field goal.

In 1954, Baltimore hired Weeb Ewbank as head coach. Ewbank would guide the Colts for the next nine seasons (the longest tenure of any Colt head coach) and lead the club to its first divisional and World Championships.

On November 30, 1958, the Colts clinched their first Western Division title with a 35-27 win over San Francisco before a record home sellout crowd of 57,557. Four weeks later, Baltimore won its first World Championship, downing the New York Giants, 23-17, in the fabled "sudden-death" overtime contest at Yankee Stadium. The Colts repeated as champions in 1959, clinching their second Western Division crown and defeating the Giants, 31-16 in Baltimore for the World Title.

In January 1963, Don Shula replaced Weeb Ewbank as the team's third head coach since 1953. During the 1963 campaign, quarterback John Unitas led the Colt offense to eight team records and set a then NFL individual passing mark of 237 completions. The Colts won a club record eleven consecutive games in 1964, enroute to clinching their third Western Conference title and first under Shula. During that campaign, Raymond Berry caught his 506th career pass and Lenny Moore scored 20 touchdowns, both NFL records at the time. The following year, Baltimore tied Green Bay for the Western Conference title. With halfback Tom Matte quarterbacking the club because of injuries to John Unitas and Gary Cuzzo, the Colts lost a controversial 13-10 "sudden-death" playoff contest to the Packers.

Under Shula, Baltimore made its first Super Bowl appearance in 1968. The club finished first in the Coastal Division with a 13-1 mark then defeated Minnesota, 24-14, in the Western Conference Championship game and blanked Cleveland, 34-0, for the NFL Championship. The team went on to face the American Football League Champion New York Jets in Super Bowl III, losing a 16-7 upset.

In May of 1969, the NFL merged with the AFL and Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Cleveland joined the old AFL teams to form the American Football Conference of the NFL. For the 1970 season, the Colts were situated in the Eastern Division of the AFC and on September 20, the club won its first AFC game, 16-14 over San Diego. In mid-December, Baltimore clinched its first Eastern Division Championship with a 20-14 win at Buffalo, then defeated Cincinnati and Oakland in the playoffs to win the AFC Championship. On January 17, 1971, the Colts defeated the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl V, 16-13, on Jim O'Brien's 32-yard field goal with five seconds remaining in the game.

In July, 1972, the Colts came under new ownership as Robert Irsay acquired the club from Carroll Rosenbloom in exchange for the Los Angeles Rams.

In 1974, two young Colt stars established NFL records as runningback Lydell Mitchell carried the ball 40 times against the New York Jets at Shea Stadium and quarterback Bert Jones completed 17 consecutive passes against the same Jet club later in the season. Mitchell set another mark that season, winning the league pass receiving title with 72 receptions.

In 1975, Mitchell would continue his record-setting pace by becoming the first runningback in Colt history to rush for 1,000 yards, gaining 1,193 yards on 289 carries.

After posting a 2-12 record in 1974, Baltimore's fortunes began to change with the hiring of Ted Marchibroda as head coach in February, 1975. Marchibroda led the Colts to three consecutive Eastern Division titles before posting back-to-back 5-11 seasons in 1978-79.

The Colts named Mike McCormack to replace Marchibroda as head coach in January, 1980. Shortly thereafter, the Club moved its headquarters to a new $5 million office/training complex in Owings Mills, Maryland. The Colts improved to a 7-9 record in 1980 before recording the worst record in Club history with a 2-14 slate last season.

On December 21, 1981, the Colts named Frank Kush to replace McCormack as Head Coach. In addition, Club owner Robert Irsay announced the appointment of Ernie Accorsi as General Manager on May 16, 1982.

In 29 years of National Football League competition, the Colts have posted a 215-177-6 record, including three World Championships and ten Conference or Divisional titles. Baltimore's victory total for that period is the third highest of any NFL club.

The success of the Baltimore franchise is exemplified by the number of Colts who have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. A total of six players have been selected for enshrinement including Raymond Berry, Art Donovan, Gino Marchetti, Lenny Moore, Jim Parker, John Unitas and head coach Weeb Ewbank.

JOHN UNITAS, QB, 6-1, 196, Louisville
 1973 was the end of an era in the NFL. John Unitas, the greatest quarterback ever to put on shoulder pads retired. After 18 years Unitas left the game with a helmet full of records.

He was the first quarterback to pass for more than 40,000 yards. His NFL records include most games with 300 yards or more passing (26), most seasons leading the league in touchdown passes (4) and his mark of most consecutive games with a TD pass (47) is a feat that rivals Joe DiMaggio's 56 game hitting streak.

He ended his career ranked number one in NFL history in five career categories: most passes attempted (5,186), most passes completed (2,830), most yards gained passing (40,239), most seasons 3,000 yards or more passing (3) and most touchdown passes (290).

He owns a Super Bowl record for the longest TD pass completing a 75 yarder in Super Bowl V to John Mackey. Holds NFL championship records for highest career completion percentage (62.9) and most yards gained in championship play (1,177).

In his 17 seasons with the Colts, he established 22 records. During his stay in Baltimore, Unitas was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player three times and played in 10 Pro Bowls, the most ever by a Colt. He was 5 times named All-Pro.

With Unitas calling signals, the Colts won World Championships in 1958 and 1959 and the Super Bowl title in 1970.

Unitas opened his quarterbacking career with the Colts throwing an interception for a TD to J.C. Caroline of the Bears on October 21, 1956. He ended his career with the Colts by throwing a TD to Eddie Hinton on December 3, 1972. Between those two passes he provided an entire generation of football fans with memories and moments that they will never forget.

- 1956 Called the "Cinderella Kid" sets NFL mark for completion percentage by a rookie 55.6%
- 1957 Throws for 2,550 yds and 24 TDs and is named NFL MVP.
- 1958 Led Colts to 23-17 overtime win against N.Y. Giants for World Championship.
- 1959 Throws record 32 TDs and leads team to second World Championship
- 1960 Streak of 47 consecutive games with a TD pass ends. Sets an NFL record of 3,099 yds passing.
- 1963 Completes 237 passes for NFL record.
- 1964 Named the NFL's MVP, had only 6 of 305 pass attempts intercepted.
- 1966 Tops NFL record for career TDs with 232 and most yards gained passing 29,539.
- 1967 Leads the team to a 11-1-2 record and wins his third MVP award in the NFL.
- 1969 Named the NFL's greatest quarterback in honor of the 50th Anniversary of the league. Named the player of the decade by the Associated Press.
- 1970 Leads the team to its first AFC championship. Suffers a rib injury in the first half of the Colts 16-13 Super Bowl win over the Dallas Cowboys.

COLT CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP DEC. 28, 1958 YANKEE STADIUM

BALTIMORE 23, NEW YORK 17—Quarterback Johnny Unitas took the Colts 80 yards in 13 plays, the last a one-yard carry by Alan Ameche through the right side of the Giant line at 8 minutes, 15 seconds of sudden death overtime. The regulation game ended 17-17 when Baltimore's Steve Myhra booted a 20-yard field goal seconds from the gun. It has been called "the greatest game ever played" and the 64,185 who watched it at Yankee Stadium agree.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP DEC. 27, 1964 CLEVELAND STADIUM

CLEVELAND 27, BALTIMORE 0—Both teams drew blanks in the first half but the Browns nailed down the World Championship with a 17-point third quarter. Quarterback Frank Ryan and fullback Jim Brown made the Cleveland attack click, as it rolled up 20 first downs to Baltimore's 11 and outgained the Colts, 339 to 171 yards. Ryan completed 11 of 18 passes for 206 yards and three touchdowns—all to end Gary Collins from distances of 18, 42 and 51 yards, while the brilliant Brown bulled for 114 yards on 27 shots as Cleveland controlled the ball. Attendance was 79,544.

NFL WESTERN DIVISION PLAYOFF
DEC. 26, 1965 LAMBEAU FIELD

GREEN BAY 13, BALTIMORE 10—A courageous effort by the undermanned Colts was doomed by a pair of Don Chandler field goals—one with 1:58 remaining from 22 yards to tie the score and a second of 25 yards to conclude 13:39 of "sudden-death" action. The Colts had jumped ahead 7-0, after 21 seconds of play when Don Shinnick scooped up Bill Anderson's fumble and trudged 25 yards to the end zone. They protected their edge tenaciously until the finish as Tom Matte went the route at quarterback, rushing for 57 yards and passing for 40. Zeke Bratkowski, subbing for the injured Bart Starr, completed 22 of 39 aerials for 248 yards. The Packers ran 80 plays to the Colts' 59 and led in first downs, 23-9. Attendance was 50,484.

DEC. 22, 1968 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 24, MINNESOTA 14—It was a cold, rainy day when the Colts tucked away the Western Conference championship of the National Football League. Just as they had done earlier in the season, the Vikings provided some uncomfortable moments after the Colts managed to obtain a big lead. It wasn't until late in the first half that the Colts were able to nab a 7-0 lead on Earl Morrall's pass to Tom Mitchell after Willie Richardson's diving catch of a 33-yard aerial put the ball at the three. John Mackey's touchdown reception and Mike Curtis' 60-yard return of a fumble made it 21-0 after three quarters. Viking quarterback Joe Kapp refused to give up and fired TD passes to Bill Martin and Bill Brown before time ran out on him. Attendance was 60,238.

NEW YORK JETS 16, BALTIMORE 7—At Miami Orange Bowl Stadium, attendance 75,337. Jets' quarterback Joe Namath "guaranteed" victory on the Thursday before the game, then went out and led the AFL to its first Super Bowl victory over a Baltimore team that had lost one of 16 games all season. Namath, chosen the outstanding player, completed 17 of 28 passes for 206 yards and directed a steady attack that dominated the NFL champions after the Jet defense had intercepted Colt quarterback Earl Morrall three times in the first half. The Jets had 337 total yards, including 121 yards rushing by Matt Snell. John Unitas, who had missed most of the season with a sore elbow, came off the bench and led Baltimore to its only touchdown late in the fourth quarter after New York led 16-0.

BALTIMORE 17, CINCINNATI 0—Attendance 51,127. John Unitas connected with TD passes to Roy Jefferson and Ed Hinton in the first and fourth quarters and led the Colts into the AFC title game by defeating Cincinnati. The Baltimore defense came through on a cold, windy day and limited Cincinnati to 63 yards rushing and 76 yards passing. Norm Bulaich, Colts' rookie rusher, picked up 116 yards on 25 carries. Jim O'Brien, Colts' rookie kicker and leading scorer, connected with a 44-yard FG, missed one from the same distance. A 49-yard FG try by Horst Muhlmann was blocked by Ray May. Mike Curtis, Colts' middle linebacker, made the game's only interception, picking off one of Virgil Carter's fourth-period passes, to set up an eventual final Colt score.

JAN. 3, 1971 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 27, OAKLAND 17—At Memorial Stadium, Baltimore, Md., attendance 56,368. Johnny Unitas' passing and play calling, and the running of rookie Norm Bulaich, powered the Colts to the first AFC Championship. Bulaich scored twice and Unitas picked up 245 yards on 11 completions, with his key one coming in the fourth quarter on a 68-yard touchdown reception by Ray Perkins out of a formation of four wide receivers. George Blanda (who at 43 became the oldest player to perform in a title game when he replaced injured Daryle Lamonica in the second period) threw TD passes to Fred Biletnikoff and Warren Wells, but was intercepted three times. Ed Hinton caught five passes for the Colts for 115 yards.

SUPER BOWL V
JAN. 17, 1971 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

BALTIMORE 16, DALLAS 13—At Miami Orange Bowl Stadium, attendance 79,204. Colts' rookie Jim O'Brien climaxed one of the zaniest professional football games ever played by lofting a 32-yard field goal through the Orange Bowl uprights with five seconds left in regulation time to give Baltimore a 16-13 Super Bowl win. The brutal defensive struggle resulted in 11 turnovers, which prevented a fluid, artistic performance but contributed to the drama of the contest. Dallas nearly put the game away early in the third period when, leading 13-6, the Cowboys recovered Jim Duncan's fumble on the 2nd half kickoff and zipped to the Colts' two in five plays. Duane Thomas, however, fumbled on the next play. Rick Volk provided Baltimore with the opportunity to tie halfway through the fourth period when he intercepted Craig Morton on the Dallas 33 and returned it to the three. Tom Nowatzke punctured into the end zone and after O'Brien's PAT it was 13-13. Mike Curtis intercepted another Morton pass on the Dallas 41 in the final minute and ran it back to the 28. The Colts stopped the clock with nine seconds left in the game and O'Brien made history. Morton's desperation pass on the final play of the game was intercepted by Jerry Logan.

BALTIMORE 20, CLEVELAND 3—Attendance 74,082. Don Nottingham, playing for the injured Norm Bulaich, scored two TDs and rushed for 92 yards while Baltimore's strong defense dominated play in a 20-3 Colt victory over the Cleveland Browns that sent Baltimore into the AFC finals. Jim O'Brien added two field goals for the Colts and Don Cockroft, who had two kicks blocked by Bubba Smith, produced the Brown's only points. Rick Volk intercepted two of Bill Nelsen's passes and Charlie Stukes picked off a third. John Unitas went all the way, blending the strong running of Nottingham with passes to his favorite target, tight end Tom Mitchell, who caught 5 for 73 yards.

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0—At Orange Bowl, attendance 75,629. The Colts, playing without their starting running backs Norm Bulaich and Tom Matte, still managed to compile 302 total yards to Miami's 286 but were damaged by the Dolphins' big plays—Bob Griese to Paul Warfield 75-yard pass for TD in first period and Dick Anderson's 62-yard interception return for a TD in the third quarter. Larry Csonka carried five yards to a fourth quarter touchdown for Miami. John Unitas completed 20 of 36 passes for 224 yards but Colts were shutout for the first time since Dec. 5, 1965 (0-13 by Chicago Bears). Another big play for Miami was stopping Colts fourth and one attempt at Dolphins' nine-yard line when lead was 7-0.

AFC PLAYOFF
DEC. 27, 1975 THREE RIVERS STADIUM

PITTSBURGH 28, BALTIMORE 10—Attendance 49,053. The Colts were able to keep the game close with the defending Super Bowl champions until the final period even without the services of starting QB Bert Jones. Jones sustained a severe bruise to his throwing arm on the Colts first offensive series and was unable to return to action until the fourth quarter. Backup QB Marty Domres generated a second quarter score with a 5-yard TD toss to Glenn Doughty. The Colts trailed 14-10 after three quarters before Pittsburgh QB Terry Bradshaw scored on a 2-yard run midway through the final period. Steelers LB Andy Russell iced the victory in the final two minutes when he returned a Jones fumble 93 yards for a score.

DEC. 19, 1976 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

PITTSBURGH 40, BALTIMORE 14—Attendance 60,020. The Colts were playing "catch-up" ball all afternoon as the Steelers struck early and often. On the third play of the game, Pittsburgh stunned the Colts defense with a 76 yard TD bomb from Terry Bradshaw to Frank Lewis. Baltimore countered with a first quarter Bert Jones TD pass to Roger Carr covering 17 yards but it would be the Colts only score until the final period. A 60 yard kickoff return by Theo Bell and a 50 yard Franco Harris burst from scrimmage were key plays in building the Steelers 26-7 halftime lead. The Pittsburgh offense amassed 526 total yards as Bradshaw threw for 264 and Harris picked up 132 on the ground.

AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 37, BALTIMORE 31—Attendance 60,763. In one of the longest football games ever played, the Colts and Raiders needed six quarters to decide the winner of their AFC playoff game. An Errol Mann 22 yard FG with only 26 seconds left in regulation time put the game into overtime tied at 31. After a scoreless fifth quarter, Oakland ended the game when Ken Stabler hit TE Dave Casper for a 10 yard score. The lead changed hands nine times throughout the game. The Colts had some outstanding individual efforts in all facets of the game. On offense, Ron Lee came off the bench to rush for 46 yards on 11 carries and two TDs. Defensively, Bruce Laird intercepted two passes and returned one 61 yards for a TD. On special teams, Marshall Johnson raced 87 yards with a kickoff for a score.

COLTS RADIO-TV NETWORK

The Baltimore Colts 1982 Radio Network will cover a six state region plus the District of Columbia. WCBM-AM of Baltimore will continue to serve as the flagship station for the Colts 22 station network. Veteran play by play announcer Chuck Thompson will do the broadcasts and Vince Bagli will do the color.

Thompson has been doing play by play for Baltimore teams since the late 1940s when he moved to the Monument City from Philadelphia. He began his Baltimore career doing the Baltimore Orioles of the International League and the Baltimore Colts of the All American Football Conference. Nationally recognized and nationally honored, Thompson lists his 1958 broadcast of the Colts-Giants "sudden death" NFL championship game and the seventh game of the 1960 Pirates-Yankees World Series as his most memorable assignments.

Bagli has been associated with Baltimore sports for as many years as Thompson. He has worked in both the print media and the electronic media having worked as a sportswriter for the Baltimore News-American and for WBAL-Radio and TV. Twice nationally honored, Bagli is a Baltimore sports broadcasting institution.

WMAR-TV (Channel 2) will telecast four of the Colts pre-season games and all the regular season games.

THE BALTIMORE COLTS MARCHING BAND

The Baltimore Colts Marching Band, under the direction of Art Schmersal, will be celebrating its 36th anniversary this season. The band was founded in 1947 when the Colts played in the All American Football Conference. The band remained active in 1951-52 when Baltimore was without a professional football team and was a strong force in the city regaining an NFL franchise in 1953.

In addition to its pre-game and halftime performances, the band annually appears in local parades and has for the past 20 years served as the official Preakness band. The band is an all-volunteer group which starts practicing in late spring.

The band is represented at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio by its first bass drum donated in 1966. The Colts band was the first to incorporate a cheerleading unit into the band in 1954.

COLTS CORRALS

The Colts Corrals are probably the most unique fan club organization in professional sports. The first Corral was organized in 1957 and since then, 31 other Corrals have been formed covering Maryland, Delaware and Pennsylvania. Colts Corral 954 is the most unusual Corral being formed entirely of inmates at the Maryland Correctional Institute. This past year, Colts Corral #534 was also formed at the Correctional facility located in Jessup, Md.

The Council of Colts Corrals annually sponsors a convention in Ocean City, Maryland that attracts over 1,000 Colts fans for a football weekend. Other events hosted by the Council or the separate Corrals include award banquets, bull roasts, dinner-dances and golf outings with the proceeds from these events being donated to charitable organizations. Since their formation, the Corrals have contributed over $100,000 to charities.

The Corrals have been well represented at the Hall of Fame inductions of Gino Marchetti (1972), Jim Parker and Raymond Berry (1973), Lenny Moore (1975) and John Unitas (1979).

For information about the Corrals, write: H. C. Loudenslager, Secy., Council of Colts Corrals, 4436 Norfen Road, Baltimore, Md. 21227

BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

Baltimore Memorial Stadium was completed in 1954. Construction began in 1949, the final season of Baltimore's play in the All-America Football Conference, on the same site as the original Baltimore Stadium. Work continued through 1949 and the 1950 National Football League season without the Colts missing a home game.

Construction was suspended following the dissolution of the Baltimore NFL franchise in 1950, and did not resume until 1952. Work continued through the 1953 season, when the current Colt team moved to the city from Dallas.

The stadium, in its present form, was completed prior to the 1954 season with a capacity of 52,000. Additions brought the capacity up to a high of 60,240 in 1970. Comfort refinements have reduced the current capacity to 57,340 for Colt games played before conversion from the baseball configuration, and 60,586, when the football configuration is completed.

The original Baltimore Stadium was built of wood on mounds of dirt beginning in 1922. It was completed in 1924 with a seating capacity of 80,000 and officially dedicated on November 29, 1924, when 80,150 persons attended the Army-Navy game. Capacity later was reduced to 66,000.

COLTS OFFICE/TRAINING FACILITY

On February 26, 1980, the Colts hosted the grand opening of their new office/training facility located northwest of Baltimore City in Owings Mills, Maryland. The complex serves as the home of the football club and the entire administrative staff including the ticket office.

The facility features a two story office/training structure which covers approximately 43,000 square feet. It includes two and one half practice fields of natural turf and parking facilities to accommodate up to 140 vehicles. The total area of the complex proper which includes the building, practice fields and parking lots is 14 acres.

The facility, which was privately financed by the Baltimore Colts Football Club and owner Robert Irsay, was under construction for a total of ten months. Groundbreaking ceremonies were held on March 28, 1979. Colts administrative personnel moved into the new complex on January 28, 1980.

The two-story brick and glass structure is a multi-purpose building. The upper level contains offices for the entire administrative staff, ticket sales and player personnel. Offices for the head coach and each assistant coach are located in a separate section on this level with easy access to player meeting rooms on the lower level. Several conference rooms and a large reproduction center are also included on the upper level.

The lower level consists of a large locker room with 59 permanent lockers lining the walls and enough space to accommodate 36 additional temporary lockers. There are separate locker and shower areas for the coaching staff and administrative personnel. This level also includes a film processing lab which will enable the Colts coaching staff to view films of each day's practice within hours of its completion. There are a total of seven player meeting rooms and an equipment room with built-in laundry facilities.

The players' training room contains an area devoted exclusively to injury rehabilitation with a wide assortment of equipment used in physical therapy. There is also a sauna, a steam room and several whirlpool baths. A six foot jacuzzi enables an injured player to stand upright and run in place for therapeutic purposes. Other training facilities include two handball/racquetball courts and a large weight lifting room.

Adjacent to the building are two 120 yard practice fields of natural turf. The two fields are separated by a 50 foot tower which is used to film each practice session. There is also a 50 yard auxiliary field which will be utilized for practice drills requiring the use of heavy equipment. An outdoor shed, providing 2,880 square feet of storage space, is located adjacent to the practice fields.

The facility is located at 11001 Bonita Avenue just off of Reisterstown Road. It can be reached by taking Exit 20 North off the Baltimore Beltway (I-695) and following Reisterstown Road approximately five miles to Bonita Avenue.
