INDIANAPOLIS COLTS OFFICERS

ROBERT IRSAY

President and Treasurer

"The greatest thrill I've had in football was on April 2, 1984, when I walked into the Hoosier Dome with Mayor (Bill) Hudnut in front of all those fans," says Robert Irsay of the 20,000 people who showed up to welcome the Colts to Indianapolis. "It is my intention," Irsay continues, "for the Colts to be a vital contributing member of the greater Indianapolis community."

Irsay became owner of the Colts on July 26, 1972, when he traded his recently-acquired Los Angeles Rams to Carroll Rosenbloom for the Colt franchise. Irsay had purchased the Rams from the estate of Dan Reeves.

Irsay was born on March 5, 1923, in Chicago's northern "Bucktown" section. He worked his way through the University of Illinois, where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in mechanical engineering. (While attending Illinois, he was an Illini football teammate of former Colt Alex Agase.)

From 1941 to 1945, he served in the United States Marine Corps, after which he worked for a mechanical contracting company in Chicago.

In 1952 he formed the Robert Irsay Company of Skokie, Ill. After building the business into one of the largest and most respected heating, ventilating and air conditioning companies in the world, Irsay sold his company to a firm listed on the New York Stock Exchange in 1971. He remained associated with the firm until 1978 when he formed Colt Construction and Development Co., and its affiliate, Colt Developers, Co., which are diversified construction and development companies.

Irsay is an active supporter of many charitable organizations. Among these are: Big Brothers, Little Sisters of the Poor, the Noble Center, Christamore House, Black Expo, the Mental Health Association and Cystic Fibrosis Foundation in Indianapolis; Foundation for Children with Learning Disabilities, New York, New York; Stritch School of Medicine at Loyola University in Chicago; and the Troubled Children's Foundation Center in Hialeah, Fla. He makes further donations through the Colts as a member of NFL Properties which dedicates a major portion of its earnings to NFL Charities.

Irsay has two sons, Tom (34) and Jim (29), the club's general manager.

OFFICERS

JIM IRSAY

Vice President and General Manager:

Dedication: The best description of Jim Irsay's commitment to bringing winning football to the City of Indianapolis. Irsay has been involved in all aspects of the day-to-day operation of the Colts since joining the club in January of 1982. Jim was added to the personnel department in 1983 and took over as general manager in early 1984, following the Colts move to Indianapolis. The 29-year old Irsay was instrumental in the hiring of Ron Meyer as the Colts' head coach.

Irsay received his bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism from Southern Methodist University, where he played linebacker for a year and a half as a walk-on, before an ankle injury ended his career. Jim was born on June 13, 1959 in Lincolnwood, Ill. He attended Loyola Academy in Wilmette, Ill., where he played golf, boxed and became an avid weight-conditioner.

Jim is an active member of the Indianapolis community and is involved with Big Brothers of Indianapolis. He is a corporate member of the Indiana Sports Corporation and he serves on the Board of Directors of the Noble Center for Retarded Citizens in Indianapolis. Jim and his wife, Meg, have three daughters, Carlie (7), Casey (5) and Kalen (1).

MICHAEL G. CHERNOFF

Vice President and General Counsel

Since March of 1975, Michael Chernoff has been vice president and general counsel for Robert Irsay's various business concerns including the Colt football team.

The Glencoe, Ill. native received his bachelor's degree from the University of Chicago in 1956 and then stayed on at Chicago to receive his Doctor of Law degree in 1959. Chernoff was in private practice until 1974 when he became vice president and general counsel to a Fortune 500 company, one year before joining Irsay. Chernoff's legal background includes extensive work in corporate law, securities, real estate and taxes. He has also played a key role in negotiating commercial, player and other contracts, including the contract which put the Colts in Indianapolis.

Chernoff, who resides in Chicago with his wife, Eunice, has three children, Susan, Steven and Robert. Steven and his wife, Michelle, made Chernoff a grandfather recently.

RON MEYER

Head Coach

Looking for the final touch to cap a commitment of bringing winning football to Indianapolis, the Colts hired Ron Meyer as head coach on December 1, 1986.

What many believed would be a major overhauling of a talented, but struggling team turned out quite the opposite. Instead, Meyer stressed intangibles such as unity, spirit and attitude. He used his tactician's knowledge of the game. The result was three consecutive victories to close the 1986 season.

In achieving this successful finish with the club, Ron Meyer had done two things. He had become the first coach in Colts history to win his first three games, more importantly, however, he had laid a foundation of winning.

Dismissed by observers as challengers for the AFC Eastern Division Championship in 1987, Meyer guided the team to a share of first place following six weeks of play. The Colts would never relinquish at least a share of the lead thereafter. Winners of just two inter-division games in the last two seasons, the Colts rolled to five victories over AFC East foes. Among the nine wins for the season were victories in five of seven road games.

As the season concluded, the Colts had won three of their last four games, but needed a final win at home against Tampa Bay to secure their first division title since 1977. Behind the passing of Jack Trudeau and 196 rushing yards by Eric Dickerson, the Colts bested the Bucs, 24-6, for the crown.

Meyer gleaned recognition for having turned the Colts into winners. He was selected AFC Coach of the Year by the Professional Football Writers Association, UPI, the Football News and the Kansas City Committee of 101.

That winning came under Meyer's leadership was not surprising. He has resurrected every football program he has directed during a 14-year coaching career.

Meyer entered the coaching ranks following his career as a defensive back at Purdue. He assumed his first post as the head coach at Penn High School in Mishawaka, Indiana in 1964. His team produced a 5-4 mark that year.

In 1965, Meyer returned to Purdue as an offensive assistant in charge of the backfield, receivers and overall passing game. While on the staff of Jack Mollenkopf the Boilermakers notched an overall mark of 44-16-1. Purdue won the 1967 Rose Bowl, 14-13, over Southern California, in Meyer's second year, and shared the Big Ten Championship with Minnesota the following season.

Meyer accepted his first professional position as a scout for the Dallas Cowboys upon leaving Purdue. Meyer's two years with Dallas were highlighted by a Super Bowl VI Championship, a 24-3 win over Miami. Dallas boasted a 21-7 record during Meyer's time with the club.

Meyer obtained his first collegiate head coaching position at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas, a school which had finished 1-10 immediately prior to his arrival. Meyer applied the winning touch to the Rebel program and led his teams to a 27-8 record over a three-year period from 1973-75. His 1974 Rebel unit posted an 11-0 regular season record. A testament of his leadership at UNLV was the program sporting a 25-6 mark over the three seasons following his departure.

Meyer took charge of a struggling Southern Methodist University program in 1976, and soon transformed it into a powerful national contender. Building a foundation during his first four years, Meyer's teams went 8-4 in 1980 and 10-1 in 1981. SMU won the Southwest Conference Championship in 1981 and came within two points of a perfect season. Meyer ascended to the NFL with New England following that season, but the winning continued at SMU as the three subsequent Mustang teams amassed a 31-4-1 combined record.

The task Meyer faced at New England was no different than those at UNLV or SMU. Nor were the results.

Meyer took a Patriots club which was 2-14 in 1981 to the playoffs with a 5-4 record during the strike-shortened 1982 season. The Patriots lost a playoff duel to Miami, 28-13. He then guided his injury-riddled club to an 8-8 record in 1983, staying in playoff contention until the final weekend of the campaign. During his career with New England, Meyer posted a 18-15 regular season mark.

Meyer was born on February 17, 1941 in Westerville, Ohio. He earned ten prep letters in football, basketball and baseball, and won all-conference honors in each as a senior.

Meyer entered Purdue as a football walk-on in 1959 and quickly won a scholarship in the second semester of his freshman year. As a defensive back he led the Boilermakers in minutes played as a junior and senior. Meyer was selected to the Big Ten All-Academic Team and won the Big Ten Medal of Honor. In addition, he was tabbed for Purdue's Nobel Kizer Award for athletic and academic achievement in 1963.

Meyer and his wife, Cindy, have two daughters, Kathryn and Elizabeth. Ron's two sons, Ron, Jr. and Ralph, reside in Dallas.

TOM LOVAT, Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Line

Tom Lovat enters his fourth season in charge of the Colts' offensive line. He joined Indianapolis in 1985 after serving as the offensive line coach for the St. Louis Cardinals since 1981. Lovat also was the line coach for Green Bay in 1980, giving him eight years NFL experience among his 27-year coaching career. He has also held the Colts' assistant head coaching title for the past three seasons.

During Lovat's tenure with the Colts, the offensive line has paved the way for the AFC's leading ground attack in 1985. This past season Lovat saw Chris Hinton, Ray Donaldson and Ron Solt earn Pro Bowl honors.

Lovat, 49, began his coaching in 1961, after his playing career as a guard and linebacker at Utah. Lovat's first collegiate job was at his alma mater in 1967 as an assistant coach. He moved to Idaho State as the offensive line coach from 1968-70, before serving for one year (1970) as the defensive coordinator of the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the CFL. Lovat returned to Utah as a defensive coach in 1972, and was named head coach two years later.

He served in that capacity at Utah from 1974-76, then joined Bill Walsh's staff at Stanford. He was a coaching member of the Cardinal teams which defeated Georgia in the Bluebonnet Bowl and LSU in the Sun Bowl.

Lovat was born December 28, 1938 in Bingham, Utah. He is married to the former Lyn Boren of Bingham. They have three children, Johna (24), Matthew (21) and Mark (18).

JOHN BECKER, Offensive Coordinator

John Becker enters his second year as offensive coordinator of the Colts after serving the 1985 and 1986 seasons as the club's quarterback coach.

Under Becker's tutelage in 1987, Gary Hogeboom and Jack Trudeau each possessed winning records as starters while the club's rushing attack was sixth-best in the NFL.

Becker has coached in the NFL for eight seasons. He served with Buffalo in 1984 as quarterback coach. Prior to that he spent four seasons with Philadelphia in charge of the Eagles' wide receivers (1983), running backs (1981-82) and research and quality control (1981).

Becker began his coaching career at Crespi Carmelite High School (Encino, Calif.) in 1965, while attending Cal State-Northridge. He joined the staff at UCLA in 1970 as a freshman coach. Becker was an assistant at New Mexico State in 1971, and at New Mexico (1972-73), before taking the head coaching position at Los Angeles Valley College in 1974. He compiled a three-year 17-10-1 record, then moved to Oregon as the offensive coordinator. He remained there for three years before entering the NFL with Philadelphia.

Becker was born February 16, 1943 in Alexandria, Va. He has three children, Kristine (23), Karen (22) and John (21).

LEON BURTNETT, Running Backs

Leon Burtnett enters his second season as Colts running back coach. This is his first professional coaching post.

Burtnett spent the last five seasons (1982-86) as the head coach at Purdue. He joined the Boilermakers in 1977 as defensive coordinator and was given the additional title of assistant head coach in 1979, the capacity he remained in until being tabbed head coach.

Burtnett landed his first collegiate post as secondary coach at Montana State in 1970. He held the same position at Washington State in 1971 and at Wyoming in 1972. He was elevated to defensive coordinator with Wyoming in 1973. Burtnett moved to San Jose State (1974-75) as linebacker coach, then entered the Big Ten at Michigan State to tutor Spartan linebackers in 1976.

Burtnett graduated from Southwestern (Kansas) University in 1965 with degrees in business and physical education. He was a fullback who earned honorable mention All-America honors.

Burtnett was born May 30, 1943 in Fresno, Calif. He is married to the former Cecilia Johnson of Sonora, Texas. They have three children, Kyle (12), Ryan (9) and Brooke (6).

COACHES

GEORGE CATAVOLOS, Secondary

George Catavolos joined the Colts in May of 1984 as the defensive secondary coach, his first professional position after a successful collegiate career.

Catavolos moved to the Colts after serving as the secondary coach under Johnny Majors at Tennessee (1982-83). Prior to 1982, Catavolos worked as the secondary coach at Kentucky (1977-81). He was part of the staff which guided Kentucky to a 10-1 record (6-0 in the Southeastern Conference) in 1977.

Catavolos began coaching as a graduate assistant at Purdue in 1967, under Jack Mollenkopf. He worked there for two years before taking his first full-time assistantship at Middle Tennessee State in 1969. Catavolos joined the Louisville staff as a defensive back coach in 1970, then landed the same position at Purdue in 1971. He coached at Purdue for six years under head coaches Bob DeMoss and Alex Agase.

Catavolos received his bachelor's and master's degree from Purdue, where he starred as a defensive back. He was co-captain for the 1967 Purdue squad which defeated USC, 14-13, in the Rose Bowl. He also received that year's Noble E. Kizer Award for academic excellence.

Catavolos was born May 8, 1945 in Chicago. He is married to the former Tona Jones of Royal Center, Ind. They have two daughters, Lindsay Marie (5) and Stephanie Lynn (4).

GEORGE HILL, Defensive Coordinator

George Hill enters his fourth season as defensive coordinator for Indianapolis. The 1988 season will mark Hill's tenth season as a defensive strategist in the NFL. He worked as the linebackers coach for Philadelphia for six years prior to joining the Colts.

Hill's deployments have earned the Colts respect throughout the league as a stingy defensive club. In 1987, the Colts allowed just 238 points, the fewest in the NFL. With five former number one draft picks manning the defensive front, the Colts' 1988 unit is comparable with any in the league.

Hill initiated his coaching career at Findlay (Ohio) College in 1959. From 1960-64, Hill coached at Denison University, then he moved to Cornell in 1965. He served 1966-70 as an assistant at Duke, then joined Woody Hayes' staff at Ohio State for eight seasons (1971-78) as defensive coordinator. While at Ohio State, Hill saw the Buckeyes win six consecutive Big Ten Championships and earn four Rose Bowl appearances.

Hill was born April 28, 1933 in Bay Village, Ohio. He is married to the former Cloyde Ray of Altoona, Pa. They have two children, Greg (23) and Tammy (19).

JOHN MARSHALL, Defensive Line

John Marshall joined the Colts in 1986, after serving as the defensive coordinator with Atlanta from 1983 to 1985. Prior to his stint with the Falcons, Marshall spent two seasons as linebacker coach with Green Bay, and coached the Pack's special teams in 1980.

Marshall, 42, also possesses eleven years as a coach on the collegiate level. He entered coaching after a neck injury during his freshman year at Washington State halted his career as a linebacker. His first post came at Hancock Junior College where he worked under Ernie Zampese. Marshall then took the head freshman coaching position at Oregon, where he instructed from 1969-71. Marshall moved to coach the offensive line at Oregon from 1972-76, before he advanced to Southern Cal as the linebacker coach. During Marshall's 1977-79 term at USC the Trojans won two Rose Bowls and a national championship.

Marshall was born October 2, 1945 in Arroyo Grande, Calif. He is married to the former Becky Hanen of Coos Bay, Oregon. They have two daughters, Sarah (14) and Meg (12).

CHIP MYERS, Receivers

Chip Myers came to the Colts in 1985 as receivers coach, bringing nine years of league receiving experience to the team. With two years as the receivers coach at Tampa Bay (1983-84), Myers possesses six years coaching experience in the NFL.

Myers has been partially responsible for the development of standout receiver Bill Brooks in 1986 and 1987.

Prior to Tampa Bay, he served for three years at Illinois as receivers coach under Mike White. Myers began his coaching career as a special training camp assistant with San Francisco in 1979.

Myers' playing career started with the 49ers in 1967. He played for Cincinnati from 1969-75, where Bill Walsh was the receivers coach. Under Walsh's guidance, Myers earned Pro Bowl honors following the 1972 season when he caught 57 passes for 792 yards and three touchdowns.

Myers was born July 9, 1945 at Panama City, Fla. He is married to the former Susie Lovatt of Cincinnati, Ohio. They have five children, Adam (20), Brian (18), and Chris (14) Bortz; Adam (14) and Elizabeth (11) Myers.

COACHES

KEITH ROWEN, Special Teams/Assistant Offensive Line

For the fourth year the Colts' special teams will be directed by Keith Rowen, who also helps instruct the offensive line and tight ends. At 35, Rowen has 13 years experience. In addition to working with Indianapolis he served as the running back coach with Cleveland in 1984.

Former Browns head coach Sam Rutigliano states emphatically that Keith "is one of the finest young coaches in football today."

Rowen began his career as the assistant defensive line coach at Stanford from 1975-76. He moved to Cal State-Long Beach from 1977-79 as the offensive line coach, before taking the same position at Arizona in 1979. After five seasons at Arizona, Rowen landed his first professional job as the offensive line coach/offensive coordinator with the Boston/New Orleans Breakers (1983-84).

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Stanford with a Ph. D. from USC, Rowen has authored several articles on football, two of which, "Pass Protection" and "Utilizing the Tight End in the Passing Attack", were published by the Athletic Journal.

Rowen was born September 2, 1952 in New York, N.Y. He is married to the former Sheri Andrews of Laguna Beach, Calif. They have three daughters, Mandee (7), Holly Nicole (4) and Kelly.

RICK VENTURI, Linebackers

Rick Venturi joined the Colts in 1982 as the linebacker coach, making him the senior member of the coaching staff in terms of service to the club. While with the Colts in 1984, he served additionally as defensive coordinator.

During the past three seasons each of the Colts' top three tacklers have been linebackers, models of the club's philosophy of pursuit and containment. With potentially the same corps of performers for 1988, this area remains a strength of the club.

Venturi entered the coaching ranks as a freshman coach for Northwestern from 1968-69. He took charge of the defensive secondary there from 1970-72. Venturi spent 1973-76 handling the linebacking coaching chores at Purdue, working along with George Catavolos, the Colts' secondary coach. Venturi left his Purdue post for the same position at Illinois in 1977. In 1978, Venturi landed the head coaching job at his alma mater, Northwestern, where he coached for three seasons.

Venturi was born February 23, 1946 in Taylorville, Ill. He is married to the former Cheri Rotello of Rockford, Ill. They have two children, Marin (17) and Jason (15).

COACHES/TRAINING FACILITY

TOM ZUPANCIC, Strength and Conditioning

Tom Zupancic joined the Colts staff in 1984 as the strength and conditioning coach. A fixture in Indianapolis for years as the owner and operator of his own gymnasium, he came to the club after being a finalist in the 1984 U. S. Olympic Wrestling Trials.

A hometown product of Cathedral High School (1973) and Indiana Central University (1978), Zupancic was a three-time Indiana State College wrestling champion and a four-year grid letterman. As a power lifting competitor since 1974, he owns an undefeated record in 48 state, regional and national exhibitions to date.

Zupancic has been a part of four USA National Wrestling Teams to Europe. He was a member of two USA World Teams, while also winning Canadian, AAU and USWF National Wrestling Championships. In 1980, he was an alternate to the USA Greco Roman Wrestling Olympic Team.

In addition, Zupancic ranks 14th in the world among alltime super heavyweights with a 600-pound bench press (set in 1988).

Zupancic is one of the most active staffers for charities and public appearances. Along with lifting demonstrations, he gives talks on goal-setting and positive thinking. He was also a feature subject on HBO's "Inside the NFL" during the 1986 season.

Zupancic was born September 14, 1955. He is married to the former Carrie Oldham of Shelbyville, Ind.

The Colts' new home is located on 32 acres of land just west of I-465 on 56th Street. Built at a cost of over $4 million, the complex features three practice fields including two natural-turf fields and one AstroTurf surface.

The 43,500 square foot structure includes: spacious locker rooms; a steam room; a sauna; a 12' x 12' sunken hydrotherapy tank; a 24' x 78' training room; a 34' x 23' vestibule and lobby; and a 20' x 17' working press area. Three racquetball courts and a quarter-mile outdoor running track provides for cardiovascular exercise. The Colts moved into the facility in August of 1985.

ADMINISTRATION

BOB TERPENING, Assistant General Manager

Bob Terpening, whose association with the Colts goes back to 1970, was promoted to assistant general manager of the club in May of 1984.

Terpening, 46, began working with the Colts in 1970 grading films during his tenure as the head football coach at Baltimore City College H.S. In 1971 he joined the New England Patriots' scouting department. In 1977 Terpening returned to the Colts as a college scout and in January of 1982 was named Director of Pro Personnel. He held that position until his elevation to assistant general manager.

INSTANT REPLAY APPROVED FOR 1988

For the third consecutive year, NFL clubs have approved a limited system of Instant Replay on a one-year basis.

The system basically stays the same as in 1987 with the exception that the Replay Official will now be assigned to a regular officiating crew and will attend crew meetings the day before each game. League office personnel will no longer be used as Replay Officials. In 1987, there were 490 plays closely reviewed (defined as a contact to the field, but not necessarily stoppage of play). There were 57 reversals in 210 games for an average of one reversal in each four games. In 1986, there were 374 plays closely reviewed resulting in 38 reversals in 224 games.

In 1986, the system was approved by a 23-4-1 vote. In 1987, the vote was 21-7. In 1988, replay was cleared by a 23-5 margin.

The NFL has discussed Instant Replay in some degree or other since the early 1970s. The League experimented in 1976 and 1978 using two basic frameworks—an independent system using cameras, replay machines, and technicians separate from the network covering the game, and a "no frills" approach using existing television coverage.

In 1985, the NFL used the network feed of nine nationally televised pre-season games to experiment with the basic system that later was adopted for 1986 and 1987. A total of 28 plays were examined closely in 1985 (17 confirmed call, 4 were inconclusive, 1 was reversed, and 6 had no replay shown).

What is the objective of this system?

The clubs feel that on certain plays the telecast viewed by the general public should be used to correct an indisputable error. The system will be used to reverse an on-field decision only when the Replay Official has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

Is the television network carrying the game part of the review process?

No. Although the Replay Official will be viewing the live network feed, there is no communication to television personnel as to what plays to show or not to show.

What is the step-by-step procedure of play review?

The Replay Official will view game action and a play will be replayed immediately on one of the two monitors, while the other monitor continues to record the live feed.

The Replay Official makes a determination if further study of the play is needed. If not, there is no contact with the field and play continues without interruption.

If the Replay Official believes an error may have been made, the Umpire will be contacted via a headset.

The Replay Official will watch replay(s) on one or both monitors and complete his review within a reasonable period after the play is over.

The Replay Official will inform the Umpire of his decision, and the Referee will make the appropriate announcement on the wireless microphone.

The limited Instant Replay system concentrates on plays of possession or touching (e.g., fumbles, receptions, interceptions, muffs) and most plays governed by the sidelines, goal lines, end lines, and line of scrimmage (e.g., receiver or runner in or out of bounds, forward or backward passes, breaking the plane of the goal line).

However, the Instant Replay system will not include the following fouls: clipping; encroachment and offsides; grasp of facemask; false start; defensive pass interference; offensive pass interference; offensive holding and illegal use of hands; illegal batting or punching ball; illegal block on free kick or scrimmage kick; illegal crackback; illegal motion; illegal use of forearm or elbow; illegal use of hands by defense; illegally kicking the ball; illegally snapping the ball; intentional grounding; member of the punting team downfield early; illegal formation; palpably unfair act; piling on; roughing the passer; running into or roughing the kicker; striking, kicking, or kneeling; unnecessary roughness; unsportsmanlike conduct; and use of the helmet as a weapon.

WEEK TWELVE: Colts 9, Cleveland 7

December 6, 1987

Cleveland Stadium

1:00 p.m.

The Colts pushed their record to 7-5 with a hard-fought victory in Cleveland Stadium over the Browns, 9-7. K-Dean Biasucci nailed field goals of 33, 37 and 41 yards during the second quarter, then the Colts' defense shut down Cleveland in the final half for the win. FS-Mike Prior recovered a Browns fumble at the Indianapolis 4 in the fourth quarter to spark the club.

WEEK FIFTEEN: Colts 24, Tampa Bay 6

December 27, 1987

Hoosier Dome

1:00 p.m.

The Colts captured their first division championship in a decade, topping Tampa Bay, 24-6, before a Hoosier Dome record crowd of 60,468. RB-Eric Dickerson rushed 33 times for 196 yards, the second-highest rushing day in Colts history. Dickerson's rushing total with Indianapolis reached 1,011 yards for the season, the fifth 1,000 yard rushing season in team history. QB-Jack Trudeau completed 17 of 27 passes for 246 yards without throwing an interception. A stingy Colts defense limited Bucs QB-Vinny Testaverde to eight completions in 31 attempts and the Tampa Bay offense to 232 total net yards.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS: Cleveland 38, Colts 21 January 9, 1988

Cleveland Stadium

12:30 p.m.

The Colts matched the Browns score for score during a tremendous first half before Cleveland posted a strong finish to gain victory in the AFC Divisional Playoff tilt, 38-21. Cleveland moved 86 yards on its first possession, scoring on a 10-yard toss from Bernie Kosar to RB-Earnest Byner. On the Colts' ensuing drive, Jack Trudeau found TE-Pat Beach on a two-yard scoring pass to tie the score. Cleveland appeared to have moved into a lead at intermission when WR-Reggie Langhorne snared a 39-yard pass from Kosar with 1:51 remaining, but Trudeau guided the Colts 59 yards to tie the game again. The payoff was a 19-yard toss to RB-Eric Dickerson with :42 remaining in the half. Indianapolis moved to the Browns 20 on an eleven-play drive, but Trudeau was intercepted at the Cleveland 14. Cleveland rallied from the turnover and moved 86 yards in 13 plays to assume a 21-14 lead. The Browns converted their next two possessions into 10 points to secure the win. RB-Albert Bentley scored from one yard with less than two minutes to play in the game. CB-Frank Minnifield intercepted a QB-Sean Salisbury pass in the final minute and returned it 48 yards for a touchdown.

HISTORY OF THE COLTS

Professional football came to Indianapolis March 28, 1984, when Colts owner Robert Irsay moved the historic NFL franchise from Baltimore to Indianapolis—the friendly heart of the midwest.

The roots of the franchise go back to December 28, 1946, when the bankrupt Miami Seahawks of the All-America Football Conference were purchased and relocated in Baltimore by a group headed by Bob Rodenberg. As the result of a contest in Baltimore, won by Charles Evans of Middle River, Md., the team was renamed the "Colts."

On September 7, 1947, wearing green and silver uniforms, the Colts under Head Coach Cecil Isbell (formerly an All-American player and coach at Purdue University) won their initial AAFC game, 16-7, over the Brooklyn Dodgers. The team concluded its inaugural season before a record Baltimore crowd of 51,583 losing to the New York Yankees, 21-7. The Colts finished the year with a 2-11-1 record good for a fourth place finish in the Eastern Division.

The Colts completed the 1948 season with a 7-8 record, tying the Buffalo Bills for the division title. The Colts compiled a 1-11 slate in 1949. The All-America Football Conference and the National Football League merged in 1950 and the Colts became a member of the NFL. After posting a 1-11 record for the second consecutive year, the franchise was dissolved by the league on January 18, 1951 because of its failing financial condition.

After two full seasons without professional football, NFL Commissioner Bert Bell challenged the franchise in December of 1952 to sell 15,000 season tickets within six weeks in order to re-enter the NFL. That 15,000-ticket quota was reached in four weeks and three days.

On January 23, 1953, under the principal ownership of Carroll Rosenbloom, the NFL's Dallas Team franchise was moved to Baltimore where, keeping the "Colts" nickname, the Texan team colors of blue and white were inherited.

Before their first NFL season, the "new" Baltimore Colts engineered one of the biggest trades in sports history. In a deal with the Cleveland Browns involving 15 players, Baltimore received 10 Browns in exchange for five Colts. Among the players who came to Baltimore in the deal were Don Shula, Bert Rechichar, Carl Taseff and Art Spinney. These players helped the Colts open the 1953 NFL season with a 13-9 upset of the Chicago Bears in a game where Bert Rechichar set a then-NFL record with a 56-yard field goal.

In 1954, the Colts hired Weeb Ewbank as head coach. Ewbank would guide the Colts for the next nine seasons (the longest tenure of any Colt head coach) and lead the club to its first divisional and world championships.

On November 30, 1958, the Colts clinched their first Western Division title with a 35-27 win over San Francisco before a record home sellout crowd of 57,557. Four weeks later, Baltimore won its first World Championship, downing the New York Giants, 23-17, in the fabled "sudden-death" overtime contest at Yankee Stadium. The Colts repeated as champion in 1959, clinching their second Western Division crown and defeating the Giants, 31-16 in Baltimore for the World Title.

In January 1963, Don Shula replaced Weeb Ewbank as the team's third head coach since 1953. During the 1963 campaign, quarterback John Unitas led the Colts offense to eight team records and set a then-NFL individual passing mark of 237 completions. The Colts won a club record eleven consecutive games in 1964, enroute to clinching their third Western Conference title and first under Shula. During that campaign, Raymond Berry caught his 506th career pass and Lenny Moore scored 20 touchdowns, both NFL records at the time. The following year, Baltimore tied Green Bay for the Western Conference title. With halfback Tom Matte quarterbacking the club because of injuries to John Unitas and Gary Cuozzo, the Colts lost a controversial 13-10 "sudden-death" playoff contest to the Packers.

Under Shula, Baltimore made its first Super Bowl appearance in 1968. The club finished first in the Coastal Division with a 13-1 mark, then defeated Minnesota, 24-14, in the Western Conference Championship game and blanked Cleveland, 34-0, for the NFL Championship. The team went on to face the American Football League Champion New York Jets in Super Bowl III, losing a 16-7 upset.

In May of 1969, the NFL merged with the AFL and Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Cleveland joined the old AFL teams to form the American Football Conference of the NFL. For the 1970 season, the Colts were situated in the Eastern Division of the AFC and on September 20, the club won its first AFC game, 16-14, over San Diego. In mid-December, Baltimore clinched its first Eastern Division Championship with a 20-14 win at Buffalo, then defeated Cincinnati and Oakland in the playoffs to win the AFC Championship. On January 17, 1971, the Colts defeated the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl V, 16-13, on Jim O'Brien's 32-yard field goal with five seconds remaining in the game.

In July, 1972, the Colts came under new ownership as Robert Irsay acquired the club from Carroll Rosenbloom in exchange for the Los Angeles Rams.

In 1974, two young Colt stars established NFL records as running back Lydell Mitchell carried the ball 40 times against the New York Jets at Shea Stadium and quarterback Bert Jones completed 17 consecutive passes against the same Jet club later in the season. Mitchell set another mark that season, winning the league pass receiving title with 72 receptions.

In 1975, Mitchell would continue his record-setting pace by becoming the first running back in Colt history to rush for 1,000 yards, gaining 1,193 yards on 289 carries.

After posting a 2-12 record in 1974, Baltimore's fortunes began to change with the hiring of Ted Marchibroda as head coach in February, 1975. Marchibroda led the Colts to three consecutive Eastern Division titles before posting back-to-back 5-11 seasons in 1978-79.

The Colts named Mike McCormack to replace Marchibroda as head coach in January, 1980. The Colts improved to a 7-9 record in 1980 before recording the worst record in Club history with a 2-14 slate in 1981.

On December 21, 1981, the Colts named Frank Kush to replace McCormack as Head Coach. In addition, Club owner Robert Irsay announced the appointment of Ernie Accorsi as General Manager on May 16, 1982.

Under Kush's guidance, the Colts recorded their first winning preseason record (3-2) since 1970. After two weeks of regular season play, a players' strike resulted in the loss of seven games per team from the 1982 schedule and each team played a nine game schedule. The Colts finished the season with a record of 0-8-1.

The Colts received the first selection in the April 26, 1983 NFL draft and selected Stanford quarterback John Elway. Six days later on May 2, the Colts traded Elway to Denver in exchange for the Broncos' 1983 first round choice, offensive tackle Chris Hinton, along with quarterback Mark Herrmann and Denver's first round choice in the 1983 NFL draft.

In 1983, the Colts forged the biggest turnaround in NFL history for a team that had gone winless the previous season. The 1983 Colts were 6-4 after week 10 and then went 7-9 on the season. The Chris Hinton acquisition proved successful as the rookie earned a starting berth at offensive guard for the AFC in the Pro Bowl. The Colts' running game came together as Curtis Dickey and Randy McMillan combined for just shy of 2,000 yards rushing to rank first in the AFC and second in the NFL.

Following the 1984 season, President Robert Irsay and General Manager Jim Irsay appointed Rod Dowhower as Head Coach on January 28, 1985. Dowhower posted a 5-11 mark that season with a club which rushed for a conference-leading 2,439 yards, fifth-best in the NFL. The team averaged 5.0 yards per attempt to lead the NFL, while marking the first time in a decade that an AFC team achieved that feat.

On December 1, 1986, Ron Meyer succeeded Dowhower as Head Coach. Meyer was instrumental in the Colts winning their final three games of the season to finish with a 3-13 record. He then led the Colts to the AFC Eastern Division title with a 9-6 record in 1987.

In more than 30 years of National Football League competition, the Colts have achieved a 253-243-7 record, including three World Championships and 10 Conference or Divisional titles. The Colts' regular season victory total of 242 is among the highest of any NFL club over the last three decades.

The success of the Colt franchise is exemplified by the number of Colts who have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. A total of six players have been selected for enshrinement including Raymond Berry, Art Donovan, Gino Marchetti, Lenny Moore, Jim Parker, John Unitas and Head Coach Weeb Ewbank.

HALL OF FAME

JOHN UNITAS, QB, 6-1, 196, Louisville
 1973 was the end of an era in the NFL. John Unitas, the greatest quarterback ever to put on shoulder pads, retired. After 18 years, Unitas left the game with a helmet full of records.

He was the first quarterback to pass for more than 40,000 yards. His NFL records include most consecutive seasons leading the league in touchdown passes (4) and most consecutive games with a TD pass (47), a feat that rivals Joe DiMaggio's 56 game hitting streak.

He ended his career ranked number one in NFL history in six categories: most passes attempted (5,186), most passes completed (2,830), most yards gained passing (40,239), most seasons 3,000 yards or more passing (3), most games with 300 yards or more passing (26) and most touchdown passes (290).

He also set several post-season marks including highest career completion percentage (62.9) and most yards gained in championship play (1,177).

In his 17 seasons with the Colts, he established 22 records. During his stay in Baltimore, Unitas was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player three times and played in 10 Pro Bowls, the most ever by a Colt. He was 5 times named All-Pro.

With Unitas calling signals, the Colts won World Championships in 1958 and 1959 and the Super Bowl title in 1970.

Unitas opened his quarterbacking career with the Colts throwing an interception for a TD to J.C. Caroline of the Bears on October 21, 1956. He ended his career with the Colts by throwing a TD to Eddie Hinton on December 3, 1972. Between those two passes he provided an entire generation of football fans with memories and moments that they will never forget.

- 1956 Called the "Cinderella Kid" sets NFL mark for completion percentage by a rookie 55.6%
- 1957 Throws for 2,550 yds and 24 TDs and is named NFL MVP
- 1958 Led Colts to 23-17 overtime win against N.Y. Giants for World Championship
- 1959 Throws record 32 TDs and leads team to second World Championship
- 1960 Streak of 47 consecutive games with a TD pass ends. Sets an NFL record of 3,099 yds passing.
- 1963 Completes 237 passes for NFL record.
- 1964 Named the NFL's MVP, had only 6 of 305 pass attempts intercepted.
- 1966 Tops NFL record for career TDs with 232 and most yards gained passing 29,539.
- 1967 Leads the team to a 11-1-2 record and wins his third MVP award in the NFL
- 1969 Named the NFL's greatest quarterback in honor of the 50th Anniversary of the league. Named the player of the decade by the Associated Press.
- 1970 Leads the team to its first AFC championship. Suffers a rib injury in the first half of the Colts 16-13 Super Bowl win over the Dallas Cowboys.
- 1973 Career ends with 40,239 yds passing on 5,186 attempts and 2,830 completions with 290 TDs, all NFL records.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP DEC. 28, 1958 YANKEE STADIUM

BALTIMORE 23, NEW YORK 17—Quarterback Johnny Unitas took the Colts 80 yards in 13 plays, the last a one-yard carry by Alan Ameche through the right side of the Giant line at 8 minutes, 15 seconds of sudden death overtime. The regulation game ended 17-17 when Baltimore's Steve Myhra booted a 20-yard field goal seconds from the gun. It has been called "the greatest game ever played" and the 64,185 who watched it at Yankee Stadium agree.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP DEC. 27, 1964 CLEVELAND STADIUM

CLEVELAND 27, BALTIMORE 0—Both teams drew blanks in the first half but the Browns nailed down the World Championship with a 17-point third quarter. Quarterback Frank Ryan and fullback Jim Brown made the Cleveland attack click, as it rolled up 20 first downs to Baltimore's 11 and outgained the Colts, 339 to 171 yards. Ryan completed 11 of 18 passes for 206 yards and three touchdowns—all to end Gary Collins from distances of 18, 42 and 51 yards, while the brilliant Brown bulled for 114 yards on 27 shots as Cleveland controlled the ball. ## NFL WESTERN DIVISION PLAYOFF DEC. 26, 1965 LAMBEAU FIELD

GREEN BAY 13, BALTIMORE 10—A courageous effort by the undermanned Colts was doomed by a pair of Don Chandler field goals—one with 1:58 remaining from 22 yards to tie the score and a second of 25 yards to conclude 13:39 of "sudden-death" action. The Colts had jumped ahead 7-0, after 21 seconds of play when Don Shinnick scooped up Bill Anderson's fumble and trudded 25 yards to the end zone. They protected their edge tenaciously until the finish as Tom Matte went the route at quarterback, rushing for 57 yards and passing for 40. Zeke Bratkowski, subbing for the injured Bart Starr, completed 22 of 39 aerials for 248 yards. The Packers ran 80 plays to the Colts' 59 and led in first downs, 23-9. Attendance was 50,484.

NFL PLAYOFF DEC. 22, 1968 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 24, MINNESOTA 14—It was a cold, rainy day when the Colts tucked away the Western Conference championship of the National Football League. Just as they had done earlier in the season, the Vikings provided some uncomfortable moments after the Colts managed to obtain a big lead. It wasn't until late in the first half that the Colts were able to nab a 7-0 lead on Earl Morrall's pass to Tom Mitchell after Willie Richardson's diving catch of a 33-yard aerial put the ball at the three. John Mackey's touchdown reception and Mike Curtis' 60-yard return of a fumble made it 21-0 after three quarters. Viking quarterback Joe Kapp refused to give up and fired TD passes to Bill Martin and Bill Brown before time ran out on him. Attendance was 60,238.

SUPER BOWL III

JAN. 12, 1969 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

NEW YORK JETS 16, BALTIMORE 7—At Miami Orange Bowl Stadium, attendance 75,337. Jets' quarterback Joe Namath "guaranteed" victory on the Thursday before the game, then went out and led the AFL to its first Super Bowl victory over a Baltimore team that had lost one of 16 games all season. Namath, chosen the outstanding player, completed 17 of 28 passes for 206 yards and directed a steady attack that dominated the NFL champions after the Jet defense had intercepted Colt quarterback Earl Morrall three times in the first half. The Jets had 337 total yards, including 121 yards rushing by Matt Snell. John Unitas, who had missed most of the season with a sore elbow, came off the bench and led Baltimore to its only touchdown late in the fourth quarter after New York led 16-0.

AFC PLAYOFF

DEC. 26, 1970 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 17, CINCINNATI 0—Attendance 51,127. John Unitas connected with TD passes to Roy Jefferson and Ed Hinton in the first and fourth quarters and led the Colts into the AFC title game by defeating Cincinnati. The Baltimore defense came through on a cold, windy day and limited Cincinnati to 63 yards rushing and 76 yards passing. Norm Bulaich, Colts' rookie rusher, picked up 116 yards on 25 carries. Jim O'Brien, Colts' rookie kicker and leading scorer, connected with a 44-yard FG, missed one from the same distance. A 49-yard FG try by Horst Muhlmann was blocked by Ray May. Mike Curtis, Colts' middle linebacker, made the game's only interception, picking off one of Virgil Carter's fourth-period passes, to set up an eventual final Colt score.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

JAN. 3, 1971 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 27, OAKLAND 17—At Memorial Stadium, Baltimore, Md., attendance 56,368. Johnny Unitas' passing and play calling, and the running of rookie Norm Bulaich, powered the Colts to the first AFC Championship. Bulaich scored twice and Unitas picked up 245 yards on 11 completions, with his key one coming in the fourth quarter on a 68-yard touchdown reception by Ray Perkins out of a formation of four wide receivers. George Blanda (who at 43 became the oldest player to perform in a title game when he replaced injured Daryle Lamonica in the second period) threw TD passes to Fred Biletnikoff and Warren Wells, but was intercepted three times. Ed Hinton caught five passes for the Colts for 115 yards.

SUPER BOWL V

JAN. 17, 1971 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

BALTIMORE 16, DALLAS 13—At Miami Orange Bowl Stadium, attendance 79,204. Colts' rookie Jim O'Brien climaxed one of the zaniest professional football games ever played by lofting a 32-yard field goal through the Orange Bowl uprights with five seconds left in regulation time to give Baltimore a 16-13 Super Bowl win. The brutal defensive struggle resulted in 11 turnovers, which prevented a fluid, artistic performance but contributed to the drama of the contest. Dallas nearly put the game away early in the third period when, leading 13-6, the Cowboys recovered Jim Duncan's fumble on the 2nd half kickoff and zipped to the Colts' two in five plays. Duane Thomas, however, fumbled on the next play. Rick Volk provided Baltimore with the opportunity to tie halfway through the fourth period when he intercepted Craig Morton on the Dallas 33 and returned it to the three. Tom Nowatzke punctured into the end zone and after O'Brien's PAT it was 13-13. Mike Curtis intercepted another Morton pass on the Dallas 41 in the final minute and ran it back to the 28. The Colts stopped the clock with nine seconds left in the game and O'Brien made history. Morton's desperation pass on the final play of the game was intercepted by Jerry Logan.

AFC PLAYOFF

DEC. 26, 1971 CLEVELAND STADIUM

BALTIMORE 20, CLEVELAND 3—Attendance 74,082. Don Nottingham, playing for the injured Norm Bulaich, scored two TDs and rushed for 92 yards while Baltimore's strong defense dominated play in a 20-3 Colt victory over the Cleveland Browns that sent Baltimore into the AFC finals. Jim O'Brien added two field goals for the Colts and Don Cockroft, who had two kicks blocked by Bubba Smith, produced the Brown's only points. Rick Volk intercepted two of Bill Nelsen's passes and Charlie Stukes picked off a third. John Unitas went all the way, blending the strong running of Nottingham with passes to his favorite target, tight end Tom Mitchell, who caught 5 for 73 yards.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

JAN. 2, 1972 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0—At Orange Bowl, attendance 75,629. The Colts, playing without their starting running backs Norm Bulaich and Tom Matte, still managed to compile 302 total yards to Miami's 286 but were damaged by the Dolphins' big plays—Bob Griese to Paul Warfield 75-yard pass for TD in first period and Dick Anderson's 62-yard interception return for a TD in the third quarter. Larry Csonka carried five yards to a fourth quarter touchdown for Miami. John Unitas completed 20 of 36 passes for 224 yards but Colts were shutout for the first time since Dec. 5, 1965 (0-13 by Chicago Bears). Another big play for Miami was stopping Colts fourth and one attempt at Dolphins' nine-yard line when lead was 7-0.

AFC PLAYOFF

DEC. 27, 1975 THREE RIVERS STADIUM

PITTSBURGH 28, BALTIMORE 10—Attendance 49,053. The Colts were able to keep the game close with the defending Super Bowl champions until the final period even without the services of starting QB Bert Jones. Jones sustained a severe bruise to his throwing arm on the Colts first offensive series and was unable to return to action until the fourth quarter. Backup QB Marty Domres generated a second quarter score with a 5-yard TD toss to Glenn Doughty. The Colts trailed 14-10 after three quarters before Pittsburgh QB Terry Bradshaw scored on a 2-yard run midway through the final period. Steelers LB Andy Russell iced the victory in the final two minutes when he returned a Jones fumble 93 yards for a score.

AFC PLAYOFF

DEC. 19, 1976 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

PITTSBURGH 40, BALTIMORE 14—Attendance 60,020. The Colts were playing "catch-up" ball all afternoon as the Steelers struck early and often. On the third play of the game, Pittsburgh stunned the Colts defense with a 76 yard TD bomb from Terry Bradshaw to Frank Lewis. Baltimore countered with a first quarter Bert Jones TD pass to Roger Carr covering 17 yards but it would be the Colts only score until the final period. A 60 yard kickoff return by Theo Bell and a 50 yard Franco Harris burst from scrimmage were key plays in building the Steelers 26-7 halftime lead. The Pittsburgh offense amassed 526 total yards as Bradshaw threw for 264 and Harris picked up 132 on the ground.

AFC PLAYOFF

DEC. 24, 1977 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

OAKLAND 37, BALTIMORE 31—Attendance 60,763. In one of the longest football games ever played, the Colts and Raiders needed six quarters to decide the winner of their AFC playoff game. An Errol Mann 22 yard FG with only 26 seconds left in regulation time put the game into overtime tied at 31. After a scoreless fifth quarter, Oakland ended the game when Ken Stabler hit TE Dave Casper for a 10 yard score. The lead changed hands nine times throughout the game. The Colts had some outstanding individual efforts in all facets of the game. On offense, Ron Lee came off the bench to rush for 46 yards on 11 carries and two TDs. Defensively, Bruce Laird intercepted two passes and returned one 61 yards for a TD. On special teams, Marshall Johnson raced 87 yards with a kickoff for a score.

COLTS INDIVIDUAL RECORDS

National Football League records are indicated by an asterisk. Every attempt has been made to compile as complete a table of records as possible. Errors will be corrected if documented. Since the Colts joined the NFL in 1953, the league has increased the number of games played each season from 12 in 1953 to the current 16 in 1978. Here are the dates that the league increased the number of games played each season:

1953-60 12 games 1961-77 14 games 1978-84 16 games

Note: The 1982 NFL regular season was reduced from 16 games to nine games because of a players' strike. The 1987 season was 15 games due to a players' strike.

INDIANAPOLIS COLTS CHEERLEADERS

For the fifth year, the Indianapolis Colts are pleased to present an exciting group of young ladies who are as talented as they are attractive. The Indianapolis Colts Cheerleaders have been training since April to prepare an exciting, dynamic dance group to entertain football fans and non-fans alike. The open auditions held on April 23 attracted girls from throughout Indiana and surrounding areas. Glemby Inc. provides make ups and hair services for the cheerleaders.

The 30-member cheerleading squad also participates in charitable appearances which benefit the community and the girls themselves. Anyone interested in securing an appearance may contact the Colts Public Relations Office.
