ROBERT IRSAY

President and Treasurer

"The greatest thrill I've had in football was on April 2, 1984, when I walked into the Hoosier Dome with Mayor (Bill) Hudnut in front of all those fans," says Robert Irsay of the 20,000 people who showed up to welcome the Colts to Indianapolis. "It is my intention," Irsay continues, "for the Colts to be a vital contributing member of the greater Indianapolis community."

Irsay became owner of the Colts on July 26, 1972, when he traded his recently-acquired Los Angeles Rams to Carroll Rosenbloom for the Colt franchise. Irsay had purchased the Rams from the estate of Dan Reeves.

Irsay was born on March 5, 1923, in Chicago's northern "Bucktown" section. He worked his way through the University of Illinois, where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in mechanical engineering. (While attending Illinois, he was an Illini football teammate of former Colt Alex Agase.)

From 1941 to 1945, he served in the United States Marine Corps., after which he worked for a mechanical contracting company in Chicago.

In 1952 he formed the Robert Irsay Company of Skokie, Ill. After building the business into one of the largest and most respected heating, ventilating and air conditioning companies in the world, Irsay sold his company to a firm listed on the New York Stock Exchange in 1971. He remained associated with the firm until 1978 when he formed Colt Construction and Development Co., and its affiliate, Colt Developers, Co., which are diversified construction and development companies.

Irsay is an active supporter of many charitable organizations. Among these are: Big Brothers, Little Sisters of the Poor, the Noble Center, Christamore House, Black Expo, the Mental Health Association and Cystic Fibrosis Foundation in Indianapolis; Foundation for Children with Learning Disabilities, New York, New York; Stritch School of Medicine at Loyola University in Chicago; and the Troubled Children's Foundation Center in Hialeah, Fla. He makes further donations through the Colts as a member of NFL Properties which dedicates a major portion of its earnings to NFL Charities.

Irsay has two sons, Tom (41) and Jim (36), the club's general manager.

OFFICERS

JIM IRSAY

Vice President and General Manager

Jim Irsay is in his twelfth season as Vice President and General Manager of the Colts. Irsay has been involved in all aspects of the day-to-day operations of the Colts since joining the club in January of 1982.

Irsay, 36, was added to the personnel department in 1983 and took over as general manager in early 1984, following the Colts move to Indianapolis. Irsay was instrumental in hiring Ted Marchibroda in 1992 to return as head coach.

Irsay is dedicated to bringing winning football to the City of Indianapolis and is very involved in many National Football League circles. Irsay currently is a member of the league's eight-man Realignment Working Group and the Super Bowl Policy Committee. He has also participated on the Working Club Executive and Pro-College Relations Committees with the NFL.

Irsay received his bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism from Southern Methodist University, where he played linebacker for a year and a half as a walk-on before an ankle injury ended his career. Jim was born on June 13, 1959 in Lincolnwood, Ill. He attended Loyola Academy in Wilmette, Ill., where he played golf, boxed and became an avid weight-conditioner. He ran in the Grandma's Marathon in Duluth, Minn. in July of 1991.

Jim is an active member of the Indianapolis community and is involved with Big Brothers of Indianapolis. He is a corporate member of the Indiana Sports Corporation, and he serves on the Board of Directors of the Noble Center for Retarded Citizens in Indianapolis. Additionally, in 1990, Irsay wrote and helped produce the song, "Colors," a musical tribute to Ryan White.

Jim and his wife, Meg, have three daughters, Carlie (14), Casey (12) and Kalen (8).

MICHAEL G. CHERNOFF

Vice President and General Counsel

Since March of 1975, Michael Chernoff has been vice president and general counsel for Robert Irsay's various business concerns including the Colt football team.

The Glencoe, Ill. native received his bachelor's degree from the University of Chicago in 1956 and then stayed on at Chicago to receive his Doctor of Law degree in 1959. Chernoff was in private practice until 1974 when he became vice president and general counsel to a Fortune 500 company, one year before joining Irsay. Chernoff's legal background includes extensive work in corporate law, securities, real estate and taxes. He has also played a key role in negotiating commercial, player and other contracts, including the contract which put the Colts in Indianapolis.

Chernoff, who resides in Chicago with his wife, Eunice, has three children, Susan, Steve and Robert.

BILL TOBIN

Vice President and Director of Football Operations

Bill Tobin is in his second season as Vice President and Director of Football Operations of the Colts. Tobin joined the Colts on January 7, 1994 following 18 seasons with the Chicago Bears from 1975-93.

Tobin's duties with the Colts encompass all football operations, including evaluating personnel, conducting the annual draft, monitoring waivers and free agent availabilities and overseeing the coaching staff.

His first season in Indianapolis saw the Colts post an 8-8 record, doubling their win total from the previous season. Tobin was instrumental in the club's acquisition of key free agents Tony Bennett, Jim Harbaugh, David Tate and Floyd Turner. He also oversaw the club's 1994 draft, a selection process which resulted in seven of the club's eight picks concluding the season on the team's active roster, including running back Marshall Faulk. Faulk was named 1995 Pro Bowl MVP and earned consensus NFL Rookie-of-the-Year honors, marking the third time a running back drafted in the first round earned Rookie-of-the-Year honors in Tobin's initial season with a club (1971, John Brockington, Green Bay; 1975, Walter Payton, Chicago).

Tobin, 54, brought 23 years of NFL scouting and personnel experience to the Colts. He played an active part in selection processes that landed 15 Bears draft choices and three free agents in the Pro Bowl since 1980. Tobin's accomplishments received special acknowledgement in an April, 1992 article in The Wall Street Journal.

Tobin joined Chicago under the leadership of Jim Finks as Director of Pro Scouting in 1975 and held that post until being named Director of Player Personnel in 1984. Tobin was promoted to Vice President of Player Personnel following the 1986 season. Seven of the last nine Bears teams during Tobin's tenure participated in the playoffs. The 1985 Chicago squad posted a 15-1 regular season record prior to defeating New England, 46-10, in Super Bowl XX.

During Tobin's stint in Chicago, all 20 of the club's top draft picks were productive, with nine earning Pro Bowl nominations. The 1975 draft netted running back Walter Payton as the fourth overall pick. Payton played with Chicago through 1987, finishing with an NFL-record 16,726 career rushing yards and nine Pro Bowl nominations. The thrust to sign 1990 first-round choice Mark Carrier, who earned defensive rookie of the year and Pro Bowl honors, during the draft was a Tobin idea that has become a practice by several clubs in subsequent drafts.

Prior to joining Chicago, Tobin spent four years with Green Bay. He was a regional scout during 1971-72 and Director of Pro Scouting during 1973-74. Working under his college coach, Dan Devine, Tobin assisted in drafting four Rookies of the Year: John Brockington, Chester Marcol, Willie Buchanon and Don Woods.

Tobin excelled as a running back at Missouri from 1959-62. He was tabbed MVP of the 1962 Bluebonnet Bowl, a 14-10 Missouri victory over Georgia Tech. Tobin was the Houston Oilers' Rookie of the Year in 1963 before joining Edmonton (CFL) for three seasons. He was a graduate assistant at Missouri (1964-66), where he earned a masters in education. Tobin's final playing stop was with Orlando of the old Continental League.

Tobin was born on February 16, 1941 in Burlington Junction, Missouri. Bill and his wife, Dusene, have three children, Laurie (27), Kerry (26) and Duke (24).

COACHES

TED MARCHIBRODA

Head Coach

Ted Marchibroda is in his ninth season as head coach of the Colts. He returned to the Colts organization as head coach on January 28, 1992. It was a return home for Marchibroda, who stood as the third-winningest coach in Colts history with a 41-36 overall record from 1975-79.

The Colts posted an 8-8 ledger in 1994, including the club's first seasonal sweep of Buffalo since 1980. Marchibroda's 125 games are the most ever by a Colts head coach, and he holds a regular season record of 62-60 with the Colts. His career victories rank behind only Don Shula (73, 1963-69) for most in franchise history. He surpassed Weeb Ewbank (61, 1954-62) in the Colts 10-9 victory over Buffalo in the 1994 regular season finale. The 1995 season will mark Marchibroda's ninth as field leader of the Colts, tying Ewbanks for most in team history.

Marchibroda's return in 1992 was as triumphant as his initial Colts season in 1975. He guided Indianapolis to a 9-7 record, an eight-game improvement from the previous season. The turnaround matched his efforts in 1975, and Marchibroda owns two of the four eight-game seasonal improvements ever earned in NFL history.

"It was great to return to the Colts. I have always wanted to come back since I was first head coach here. There is tremendous pride in the Colts horseshoe, and I have always felt I was a part of a great organization," said Marchibroda.

Marchibroda originally joined the Colts on February 15, 1975. He took the reigns of a Colts club that posted a 2-12 mark in 1974 and engineered then the greatest seasonal turnaround in NFL history by producing a 10-4 record in 1975, the first time in league annals a club moved from last to first. His three AFC Eastern Division championships (1975, 10-4; 1976, 11-3; 1977, 10-4) represent the most titles won by a Colts head coach. Ewbank (1958, 1959) and Shula (1964, 1968) each won two NFL Western Conference titles. The Colts posted a nine-game winning streak in 1975, the second-longest in team history, and won 29 of 33 regular season outings from October 26, 1975 through November 20, 1977. His 1976 team won eleven of 14 games and topped the NFL in total offense (5,236 net yards), passing (215-361-59.6%-209.1 yds./game-9.05 avg./att., 24 TDs and nine ints.) and scoring (417, 29.8 points/game). In regular season play (42 games) during the divisional title streak, the Colts were held in single digits only twice and under 20 points just 13 times, while exceeding 30 points in 18 contests. The Colts reached the AFC Divisional Playoffs, losing twice to eventual Super Bowl Champion Pittsburgh and to Oakland in a double-overtime thriller, 37-31, in 1977. Overall, Marchibroda's Colts squads are 53-47 in conference play, 9-13 versus the NFC and 35-29 in the division.

Marchibroda, 64, is a veteran of 33 NFL seasons. He spent 1987-91 with Buffalo, including the last three years as offensive coordinator. His "no-huddle" attack helped Buffalo establish consecutive 13-3 records in 1990 and 1991, along with AFC Championships and berths in Super Bowls XXV and XXVI. The Bills scored more than 400 points each season from 1989-91, while their offense averaged 362.1 yards per game, 140.1 rushing yards, a 61.7% completion percentage and an 8.01 yards per attempt average over that span. The Bills sported a perfect rush-pass blend (1,516-1,516) in his years as coordinator.

Marchibroda launched his NFL career as backfield coach for Bill McPeak and the Washington Redskins in 1961. He joined the staff of George Allen with the Los Angeles Rams in 1966. He moved with Allen to the Redskins in 1971, where he served as offensive coordinator through the 1974 season. Marchibroda was a member of the staff that helped Washington reach Super Bowl VII in 1973. His duty with the Redskins included work with veterans Sonny Jurgensen and Billy Kilmer. Jurgensen was the NFC passing leader in 1974. Marchibroda served in 1981 as quarterbacks coach with Chicago, then moved to Detroit as offensive coordinator from 1982-83 and to Philadelphia in the same role from 1984-85. Marchibroda's first two seasons with Buffalo (1987-88) were as quarterbacks coach/passing game coordinator. Under Marchibroda's guidance, Roman Gabriel (Rams, 1969) and Bert Jones (Colts, 1976) won NFL Most Valuable Player honors.

Marchibroda quarterbacked collegiately at St. Bonaventure in 1950 and 1951 before the football program was dropped. He finished at the University of Detroit in 1952, where he led the nation in total offense. He was the first draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1953. Marchibroda played one year before serving in the Army. He returned to play 1955-56 with the Steelers. His top season was 1956, hitting 124 of 275 passes for 1,585 yards and 12 touchdowns. Marchibroda's playing career ended with the Chicago Cardinals in 1957.

HISTORY OF THE COLTS

Professional football came to Indianapolis March 28, 1984, when Colts owner Robert Irsay moved the historic NFL franchise from Baltimore to Indianapolis—the friendly heart of the midwest.

The roots of the franchise go back to December 28, 1946, when the bankrupt Miami Seahawks of the All-America Football Conference were purchased and relocated in Baltimore by a group headed by Bob Rodenberg. As the result of a contest in Baltimore, won by Charles Evans of Middle River, Md., the team was renamed the "Colts."

On September 7, 1947, wearing green and silver uniforms, the Colts under Head Coach Cecil Isbell (formerly an All-American player and coach at Purdue University) won their initial AAFC game, 16-7, over the Brooklyn Dodgers. The team concluded its inaugural season before a record Baltimore crowd of 51,583 losing to the New York Yankees, 21-7. The Colts finished the year with a 2-11-1 record good for a fourth place finish in the Eastern Division.

The Colts completed the 1948 season with a 7-8 record, tying the Buffalo Bills for the division title. The Colts compiled a 1-11 slate in 1949. The All-American Football Conference and the National Football League merged in 1950 and the Colts became a member of the NFL. After posting a 1-11 record for the second consecutive year, the franchise was dissolved by the league on January 18, 1951 because of its failing financial condition.

After two full seasons without professional football, NFL Commissioner Bert Bell challenged the franchise in December of 1952 to sell 15,000 season tickets within six weeks in order to re-enter the NFL. That 15,000-ticket quota was reached in four weeks and three days.

On January 23, 1953, under the principal ownership of Carroll Rosenbloom, the NFL's Dallas Team franchise was moved to Baltimore where, keeping the "Colts" nickname, the Texas team colors of blue and white were inherited.

Before their first NFL season, the "new" Baltimore Colts engineered one of the biggest trades in sports history. In a deal with the Cleveland Browns involving 15 players, Baltimore received 10 Browns in exchange for five Colts. Among the players who came to Baltimore in the deal were Don Shula, Bert Rechichar, Carl Taseff and Art Spinney. These players helped the Colts open the 1953 NFL season with a 13-9 upset of the Chicago Bears in a game where Bert Rechichar set a then-NFL record with a 56-yard field goal.

In 1954, the Colts hired Weeb Ewbank as head coach. Ewbank would guide the Colts for the next nine seasons (the longest tenure of any Colts head coach) and lead the club to its first divisional and world championships.

On November 30, 1958, the Colts clinched their first Western Division title with a 35-27 win over San Francisco before a record home sellout crowd of 57,557. Four weeks later, Baltimore won its first World Championship, downing the New York Giants, 23-17, in the fabled "sudden-death" overtime contest at Yankee Stadium. The Colts repeated as champion in 1959, clinching their second Western Division crown and defeating the Giants, 31-16 in Baltimore for the World Title.

In January 1963, Don Shula replaced Weeb Ewbank as the team's third head coach since 1953. During the 1963 campaign, quarterback John Unitas led the Colts offense to eight team records and set a then-NFL individual passing mark of 237 completions. The Colts won a club record eleven consecutive games in 1964, enroute to clinching their third Western Conference title and first under Shula. During that campaign, Raymond Berry caught his 506th career pass and Lenny Moore scored 20 touchdowns, both NFL records at the time. The following year, Baltimore tied Green Bay for the Western Conference title. With halfback Tom Matte quarterbacking the club because of injuries to John Unitas and Gary Cuozzo, the Colts lost a controversial 13-10 "sudden-death" playoff contest to the Packers.

Under Shula, Baltimore made its first Super Bowl appearance in 1968. The club finished first in the Coastal Division with a 13-1 mark, then defeated Minnesota, 24-14, in the Western Conference Championship game and blanked Cleveland, 34-0, for the NFL Championship. The team went on to face the

HISTORY OF THE COLTS

American Football League Champion New York Jets in Super Bowl III, losing a 16-7 upset.

In May of 1969, the NFL merged with the AFL and Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Cleveland joined the old AFL teams to form the American Football Conference of the NFL. For the 1970 season, the Colts were situated in the Eastern Division of the AFC and on September 20, the club won its first AFC game, 16-14, over San Diego. In mid-December, Baltimore clinched its first Eastern Division Championship with a 20-14 win at Buffalo, then defeated Cincinnati and Oakland in the playoffs to win the AFC Championship. On January 17, 1971, the Colts defeated the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl V, 16-13, on Jim O'Brien's 32-yard field goal with five seconds remaining in the game.

In July, 1972, the Colts came under new ownership as Robert Irsay acquired the club from Carroll Rosenbloom in exchange for the Los Angeles Rams.

In 1974, two young Colt stars established NFL records as running back Lydell Mitchell carried the ball 40 times against the New York Jets at Shea Stadium and quarterback Bert Jones completed 17 consecutive passes against the same Jet club later in the season. Mitchell set another mark that season, winning the league pass receiving title with 72 receptions.

In 1975, Mitchell would continue his record-setting pace by becoming the first running back in Colt history to rush for 1,000 yards, gaining 1,193 yards on 289 carries.

After posting a 2-12 record in 1974, Baltimore's fortunes began to change with the hiring of Ted Marchibroda as head coach in February, 1975. Marchibroda led the Colts to three consecutive Eastern Division titles before posting back-to-back 5-11 seasons in 1978-79.

The Colts named Mike McCormack to replace Marchibroda as head coach in January, 1980. The Colts improved to a 7-9 record in 1980 before recording the worst record in club history with a 2-14 slate in 1981.

On December 21, 1981, the Colts named Frank Kush to replace McCormack as Head Coach. In addition, Club owner Robert Irsay announced the appointment of Ernie Accorsi as General Manager on May 16, 1982.

Under Kush's guidance, the Colts recorded their first winning preseason record (3-2) since 1970. After two weeks of regular season play, a players' strike resulted in the loss of seven games per team from the 1982 schedule and each team played a nine game schedule. The Colts finished the season with a record of 0-8-1.

The Colts received the first selection in the April 26, 1983 NFL draft and selected Stanford quarterback John Elway. Six days later on May 2, the Colts traded Elway to Denver in exchange for the Broncos' 1983 first round choice, offensive tackle Chris Hinton, along with quarterback Mark Herrmann and Denver's first round choice in the 1983 NFL draft.

In 1983, the Colts forged the biggest turnaround in NFL history for a team that had gone winless the previous season. The 1983 Colts were 6-4 after week 10 and then went 7-9 on the season. The Chris Hinton acquisition proved successful as the rookie earned a starting berth at offensive guard for the AFC in the Pro Bowl. The Colts' running game came together as Curtis Dickey and Randy McMillan combined for just shy of 2,000 yards rushing to rank first in the AFC and second in the NFL.

Following the 1984 season, President Robert Irsay and General Manager Jim Irsay appointed Rod Dowhower as Head Coach on January 28, 1985. Dowhower posted a 5-11 mark that season with a club which rushed for a conference-leading 2,439 yards, fifth-best in the NFL. The team averaged 5.0 yards per attempt to lead the NFL, while marking the first time in a decade that an AFC team achieved that feat.

On December 1, 1986, Ron Meyer succeeded Dowhower as Head Coach. Meyer earned a 36-35 regular season record with the club before being succeeded by Rick Venturi on October 1, 1991. Ted Marchibroda returned to the Colts as Head Coach on January 28, 1992. Marchibroda led the Colts to a 9-7 record in 1992, the second time he has guided the team to an NFL-best eight-game one season turnaround. The Colts posted a 4-12 record in 1993 and a 8-8 mark in 1994.

In more than 30 years of National Football League competition, the Colts have achieved a 299-310-7 record, including three World Championships and 10 Conference or Division titles.

The success of the Colts franchise is exemplified by the number of Colts who have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. A total of nine Colts have been selected for enshrinement including Raymond Berry, Art Donovan, Ted Hendricks, John Mackey, Gino Marchetti, Lenny Moore, Jim Parker, John Unitas and Head Coach Weeb Ewbank.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP – DEC. 28, 1958 YANKEE STADIUM

BALTIMORE 23, NEW YORK, 17 – Quarterback Johnny Unitas took the Colts 80 yards in 13 plays, the last a one-yard carry by Alan Ameche through the right side of the Giant line at 8 minutes, 15 seconds of "sudden death" overtime. The regulation game ended 17-17 when Baltimore's Steve Myhra booted a 20-yard field goal seconds from the gun. It has been called "the greatest game ever played" and the 64,185 who watched it at Yankee Stadium agree.

NFL PLAYOFF - DEC. 22, 1968 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 24, MINNESOTA 14 - It was a cold, rainy day when the Colts won the Western Conference championship. The Vikings provided some uncomfortable moments after the Colts obtained a big lead. It wasn't until late in the first half that the Colts were able to nab a 7-0 lead on Earl Morrall's pass to Tom Mitchell after Willie Richardson's diving catch of a 33-yard aerial put the ball at the three. John Mackey's touchdown reception and Mike Curtis' 60-yard return of a fumble made it 21-0 after three quarters. Viking quarterback Joe Kapp fired TD passes to Bill Martin and Bill Brown before time ran out of him. Attendance was 60,238.

NEW YORK JETS 16, BALTIMORE 7 - Attendance 75,337. Jets' quarterback Joe Namath "guaranteed" victory before the game, then led the AFL to its first Super Bowl victory over a Baltimore team that had lost one of 16 games all season. Namath completed 17 of 28 passes for 206 yards and directed a steady attack that dominated the NFL champions after the Jet defense had intercepted Colt quarterback Earl Morrall three times in the first half. The Jets had 337 total yards, including 121 yards rushing by Matt Snell. John Unitas, who had missed most of the season with a sore elbow, came off the bench and led Baltimore to its only touchdown late in the fourth quarter after New York led 16-0.

SUPER BOWL V – JAN. 17, 1971 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

BALTIMORE 16, DALLAS 13 – Attendance 79,204. Colts' rookie Jim O'Brien climaxed one of the zaniest professional football games ever played by lofting a 32-yard field goal through the uprights with five seconds left to give Baltimore a 16-13 Super Bowl win. The brutal defensive struggle resulted in 11 turnovers, which prevented a fluid, artistic performance but contributed to the drama of the contest. Dallas nearly put the game away early in the third period when, leading 13-6, the Cowboys recovered Jim Duncan's fumble on the 2nd half kickoff and zipped to the Colts' two. Duane Thomas, however, fumbled on the next play. Rick Volk provided Baltimore with the opportunity to tie halfway through the fourth period when he intercepted Craig Morton on the Dallas 33 and returned it to the three. Tom Nowatzke scored and it was 13-13. Mike Curtis intercepted another Morton pass on the Dallas 41 in the final minute and ran it back to the 28. The Colts stopped the clock with nine seconds left and O'Brien made history. Morton's desperation pass on the final play of the game was intercepted by Jerry Logan.

COLTS INDIVIDUAL RECORDS

National Football League records are indicated by an asterisk. Every attempt has been made to compile as complete a table of records as possible. Errors will be corrected if documented. Since the Colts joined the NFL in 1953, the league has increased the number of games played each season from 12 in 1953 to the current 16 in 1978. Here are the dates that the league increased the number of games played each season:

1953-60 12 games 1961-77 14 games 1978-1994 16 games

Note: The 1982 NFL regular season was reduced from 16 games to nine games because of a players' strike. The 1987 season was 15 games due to a players' strike.
