ROBERT IRSAY President and Treasurer

On July 13, 1972, Robert Irsay became owner of the Baltimore Colts in one of the most historic transactions in athletic history. Irsay purchased the Los Angeles Rams from the estate of the late Dan Reeves and exchanged them to Carroll Rosenbloom for the Baltimore Colts.

Extraordinary accomplishments, however, have been part of Robert Irsay's career for quite a while. A self-made man, he grew up in the tough "Bucktown" section of Chicago.

But even as a youngster in a rugged neighborhood he had the foresight to plan his future. He enrolled in the University of Illinois and graduated with a degree in mechanical engineering. While at Illinois Irsay wanted to be a part of Big Ten football.

"I guess I was a fourth or fifth or sixth string quarterback," he said.

From 1941 to 1945 he served in the U.S. Marine Corps with the First and Fourth Divisions. Following World War II and his discharge as a Lieutenant, he worked five years in the ventilating business.

In 1951 he began his own business and founded the Robert Irsay Company of Skokie, Illinois.

"I didn't have enough money to start a company," said Irsay, "but I came up with $800—I borrowed it from my wife."

Starting from scratch, in 20 years Irsay has built that investment into one of the most famous heating, ventilating and air conditioning firms in the world. His accounts include Disney World, Detroit's Cobo Arena, Chicago's First National Bank and many other recently constructed buildings in Chicago's Loop.

In June of 1971 Irsay sold his company to Zurn Industries, Inc. He did, however, retain management control of the firm.

Irsay was convinced that he had the executive force in Skokie to handle the operation consequently he decided to get involved with something that he could have fun with and enjoy. An avid football fan (he saw nearly every Chicago Bear game for years) he pursued the possibility of owning a professional football club. He is a close friend of George Halas of the Chicago Bears and William Bidwell of the St. Louis Cardinals.

"Professional football is one of the most exciting things in my life," Irsay says.

He has seen every pre-season and regular season game—home and away—since he purchased the Colts in 1972.

Irsay has a home in Winnetka, Ill., and a townhouse in Baltimore. His interests include a love of water sports—he owns a 65-foot yacht called "The Mighty I" which he keeps in Lake Michigan.

Owning the Colts is not Irsay's first venture into professional athletics. He was an original partner of the Montreal Expos baseball team in 1968.

Irsay is very active in civic affairs. He serves on the Board of Directors of the Eye Research Institute of Chicago and Michigan National Bank of Chicago. In addition, he is very active in fund raising for the Stritch School of Medicine of Loyola University of Chicago. His charity work is extensive and he is a sponsor of numerous scholarship funds.

Irsay was born March 5, 1923. He and his wife Harriet are the parents of two sons—Tom (19) and Jimmy (15).

JOE THOMAS

Vice President and General Manager

In two years Joe Thomas has brought 23 players to the Baltimore Colts—18 of them 26 years old or younger and all of them under 30.

The list includes All-Pro tight end Raymond Chester, quarterbacks Marty Domres and Bert Jones, defensive tackle Joe Ehrmann and running back Bill Olds.

It does not include the 19 rookies who will be joining the Colts in 1974—three of which are defensive ends John Dutton and Fred Cook and wide receiver Roger Carr.

Thirty-six of the 47 Colts who finished the '73 season are 27 or younger.

In 1973, sixteen of the rookies he brought to Baltimore made the ball club.

Thomas came to the Colts with impressive credentials. Twenty-one of the 22 Miami Dolphin starters in Super Bowl VIII were acquired by Joe along with several of the Minnesota players in that game (both starting QBs—Bob Griese and Fran Tarkenton), and most of the Minnesota players who played in Super Bowl IV.

Thomas, who was a Colts' assistant coach in 1954, was the first person hired by the Dolphins in the summer of 1965. As Player Personnel Director, he was the architect of a team that in the first eight years of its existence has won two Super Bowls, three American Conference Championships, three divisional titles and become the first National Football League team to achieve a 17-0 season.

In 1960, Thomas was also the first person hired by the expansion Minnesota Viking organization. In 1968 the Vikings won a divisional title and the following year they were in the Super Bowl.

His judgement of playing talent is based on years of experience as a player and coach, prior to moving into the front office of professional football.

"The building order is this," he says. "One, the draft. You have to do your best job there. Two, trades. Three, free agents and claims."

Some examples of Thomas' building:

—Paul Warfield, Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Larry Little, Mercury Morris, Manny Fernandez, Bill Stanfill, Jake Scott and Dick Anderson of Miami,

—much of the Baltimore Colts' 1955 draft, particularly the selection of Alan Ameche in the first round.

—and the young Colts he has now brought to Baltimore, including Chester, Domres, Jones, Ehrmann, Dutton and Carr.

Thomas was an end at Ohio Northern University (Ada, O.) and also played basketball there. Following graduation in 1943, Thomas served in the Navy, including training at Bainbridge and a tour at Great Lakes Naval Center, where he played football for Paul Brown.

He earned a Master's degree and credits toward a doctorate at Indiana University.

Thomas began his coaching career at New Albany and Rensselaer High Schools in Indiana followed by collegiate coaching experience at DePauw and the University of Indiana.

He was also Branch McCracken's basketball assistant coach at Indiana when the Hoosiers won the NCAA Championship in 1953.

Weeb Ewbank brought him to Baltimore as defensive line coach in 1954, where he also was a key factor in player personnel. He later coached on the staffs of the Los Angeles Rams and Toronto of the Canadian Football League.

He was among the NFL leadership in pushing for progressive rules changes and formally proposed several rules which were adopted by league club owners this past April 25th.

Born in Warren, O., on March 18, 1921, Thomas grew up in the rural areas of that city. He and his wife Judi are the parents of a four-year old daughter, Paige.

In his two years in Baltimore, Thomas has become quite active in civic work. He is on the Board of Directors of the Maryland Special Olympics, Honorary Chairman of the Maryland Boy Scouts of America membership drive, State Chairman of the Maryland Epilepsy Foundation and he is on the Board of Directors of Buddies, Inc., a foundation which provides recreational areas and boys clubs for needy children in the Baltimore area.

THE COACHING STAFF

HOWARD SCHNELLENBERGER Head Coach

Howard Schnellenberger begins his second season as Head Coach of the Baltimore Colts with the impetus of two inspiring victories which concluded the 1973 season.

After improving significantly the second half of the season but being deprived of victory by developments that might have demoralized many teams, the Colts came off the floor to stun Miami 16-3 and beat New England in a snowstorm 18-13.

"I am certainly proud of this football team," said Schnellenberger. "The two wins were an excellent way to finish what had been quite a disappointing season for us. The New England win was particularly big because we came from behind to beat a fine football team and it made the victory over Miami even more meaningful.

"This football team worked very hard and stayed together through some adversity last season. I think finishing the way it did will have an affect on training camp and the start of the 1974 season."

The victory over Miami was one of the greatest in the club's history.

"Coming after Miami had beaten us 44-0 earlier in the season and after all the bad things that happened to us last year it had to be a very rewarding victory," said Schnellenberger.

Schnellenberger's history gives every indication that he will win in Baltimore—his career is a study in winning tradition.

He was named coach of the Colts on Feb. 14, 1973 after three years as Don Shula's head offensive coach with the Miami Dolphins.

Previous to his time with the Dolphins, who went to two Super Bowls and won one while he was there, he was an offensive coach for four years under George Allen in Los Angeles.

The 40-year old native (born March 16, 1934) of Louisville, Ky., was an All-America end at the University of Kentucky under Bear Bryant and Blanton Collier.

Schnellenberger began his coaching career at Kentucky on Collier's staff. He joined Bear Bryant at Alabama and helped coach National Championship teams in 1961, 1964 and 1965.

He accepted the position in Los Angeles in 1966 and remained there until he joined Shula in 1970.

"Both Don Shula and I came up through the Paul Brown system," said Schnellenberger. "I have been very fortunate to be under coaches like Collier, Bryant, Allen and Shula. Each is extremely organized and disciplined but in his own style.

"I'm anticipating the 1974 season with optimism," he said. "We're young but we came together at the end of last season, proved we could beat quality teams and I think we are ready to come of age in the National Football League."

Schnellenberger and his wife Beverlee Ann have three sons—Stephen, Stuart and Tim.

"Both Don Shula and I came up through the Paul Brown system," said Schnellenberger. "I have been very fortunate to be under coaches like Collier, Bryant, Allen and Shula. Each is extremely organized and disciplined but in his own style.

DON DOLL, Defensive Coordinator and Defensive Secondary Coach

Don Doll joined the Colts' coaching staff this year after three seasons as defensive secondary coach of the Green Bay Packers, where he molded one of the top units in the National Football League. Prior to Green Bay, Doll served five years as the Washington Redskins' defensive backfield coach under three different head coaches—Otto Graham, Vince Lombardi and Bill Austin. The 47-year old native of Los Angeles also coached the defensive backs in Los Angeles (1965) and Detroit (1963-64). From 1959 through 1962 he was the offensive and defensive backfield coach at Notre Dame. Don played collegiately at the University of Southern California. He became a regular defensive back for four years with the Detroit Lions (1949-52) and later played with the Washington Redskins and Los Angeles Rams. Don and his wife, Diana, have five children.

FRANK LAUTERBUR, Linebacker Coach

Frank Lauterbur, one of the most successful collegiate coaches in the country from 1963 to 1970 at the University of Toledo, has joined the Colts' staff as linebacker coach. He was defensive line coach of the Colts in 1955 and 1956. As head coach at Toledo, Lauterbur won 23 straight games (the longest winning streak in college football at that time) and designed two straight perfect seasons—11-0 in 1969 and 12-0 in 1970. At the conclusion of both seasons his teams won the Tangerine Bowl. He was the Mid-American Conference coach of the year three times and led his team to the highest national ranking in its history—12th in 1970. He comes to the Colts following three years as head coach at Iowa. Lauterbur, 48, is a native of Cincinnati but went to high school at the University of Detroit High School. He is a graduate of Mt. Union College in Alliance, O., and a Second World War veteran of the Marine Corps. Following his two years as line coach of the Colts, Lauterbur served on Earl Blaik's staff at West Point (1957-61) and the year before he became head coach and athletic director at Toledo as defensive coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh. Frank and his wife, Mary, have four children.

JERRY SMITH, Defensive Line Coach

The Colts' new defensive line coach brings 14 years of National Football League and American Football League coaching experience to his job. He was most recently on the staff of the Cleveland Browns and the year before with the Houston Oilers. Following a year as line coach at the University of Dayton (1959) Jerry joined Lou Saban with the Boston Patriots in 1960. He moved with Saban to Buffalo in 1962 where he remained through 1968. In 1969 he coached at New Orleans then rejoined Saban in Denver in 1970. Jerry was the head coach of the Broncos for the last five games of the 1971 season after Saban resigned and won two of five games. Smith began his football career at Dayton Chaminade High School as a tight end and played collegiate football at the University of Wisconsin. He played two years as a guard with the San Francisco 49ers and following military duty played with San Francisco and Green Bay before launching his coaching career at Dayton. Smith is 43 years old. He and his wife, Shirley, have five children.

GEORGE YOUNG, Offensive Line Coach, Offensive Coordinator

George Young is beginning his second consecutive and third year overall, as the Colts' offensive line coach. Young joined the Colts' organization in 1968 as an assistant in the Personnel Department. He remained in that position until the 1970 Super Bowl season, when he coached the offensive line. In 1971 he was named Player Personnel Director, a position he held until moving back to offensive line coach and offensive coordinator in 1973. Young, who was born in Baltimore on September 22, 1930, was a successful head football coach at Calvert Hall and City College high schools. He achieved Little All-American honors as a lineman at Bucknell and was drafted by the Dallas Texans in 1952. George and his wife, Katheryn, live in Baltimore.

PETE McCULLEY, Receivers Coach

Pete McCulley is entering his second season with the Colts as receivers coach. A former quarterback at Louisiana Tech, McCulley coached receivers and quarterbacks at Navy from 1970 to 1972 before joining the Colts' staff. Following an All-Conference collegiate career, McCulley entered coaching with stints at Stephen F. Austin College, Houston and Baylor, in addition to Navy. During his seven years at Baylor, he coached quarterback Terry Southhall and receiver Larry Elkins, both school record holders. Pete and his wife, Nettie, have two children.

GEORGE SEFCIK, Offensive Backfield Coach

George Sefcik, who played and coached at Notre Dame, was the University of Kentucky's receivers coach for four years before joining the Colts' staff in 1973. The 34-year old native of Cleveland, O., was an offensive halfback for the Fighting Irish from 1959 through 1961. Following graduate school and a year as head coach at Niles (Ill.) High School, Sefcik joined Ara Parseghian's first Notre Dame staff in 1964 and had a hand in two national championship teams—1964 and 1966. He left Notre Dame in 1969 to join Johnny Ray at Kentucky. George and his wife, Loretta, are the parents of three children.

COLTS TO TRAIN AT MCDONOGH SCHOOL

The Baltimore Colts will hold their 1974 training camp at McDonogh School in Suburban Baltimore County. The private school has been the site of Colt regular season practices prior to the availability of Memorial Stadium for several years. The Colt rookies are scheduled to report to pre-season training July 20; the veterans July 24. The Colts will be housed during training camp at the Quality Court on Reisterstown Road and The Beltway, a few miles from McDonogh.

THE PLAYER PERSONNEL DEPARTMENT

FRED SCHUBACH, Player Personnel Director

Fred Schubach, the man who has been with the Baltimore Colts for the longest period of time, is in his second year as Player Personnel Director.

Schubach joined the Colts in 1953 as equipment manager after working with his father, the Philadelphia Eagles equipment manager, for many years. In his early years with the Colts, Fred worked in the ticket department along with handling his duties as equipment manager. In 1967 then-personnel director Upton Bell asked Fred to join the personnel staff on a part-time basis while still continuing his other duties. In 1971 Fred became a full-time member of the personnel department.

Schubach spent some time in professional baseball as well. He played in the Philadelphia Athletics farm system as a catcher and later served as batting practice and bull pen catcher for the A's. He served in the Army Medical Corps during the Korean War and was stationed at the Osaka Army Hospital.

A master improviser of equipment, uniforms, and protective gear, Fred now uses his sharp judgment in the scouting and drafting areas. He and his wife Hazel live with their two sons—Fred, Jr. and Richard—in Lutherville, Md.

DICK SZYMANSKI, Director of Pro Personnel

Dick Szymanski is in his first year as the Colts Director of Pro Personnel. Sizzy had served as Assistant Personnel Director in 1973 after four years as a personnel assistant. As a Colts' player, Dick earned Pro Bowl honors three times as a center and in addition recently was named to John Steadman's Baltimore News American All-Time Colt Team as a linebacker. He came to the Colts in 1955, played through the 1968 season, and was a member of three NFL championship teams. A number two draft choice from Notre Dame in 1955, Sizzy joined the Colts the same year that George Shaw, Alan Ameche, Raymond Berry and L. G. Dupre joined the club. Ameche and Szymanski were named to the Pro Bowl as rookies.

MILT DAVIS, Personnel Assistant

An astute judge of player talent entering his sixth year as a personnel assistant is former All-Pro defensive halfback Milt Davis. Milt intercepted 27 passes during four seasons as a regular for the Colts and twice tied for the NFL lead in that department. He patrols the West Coast for the Colts while residing in Los Angeles with his wife Yvonne and children Allison, Brian and Hillary. Milt also teaches at Los Angeles Community College.

THE MEDICAL CORPS

ED BLOCK, Head Trainer

Dr. Edward Block, B.S., M.S., Ed. D., R.P.T., F.A.C.S.M., gained yet another honor this year—election to the Citizens Savings Athletic Trainers Hall of Fame. Starting his 21st year as head trainer of the Colts, Ed brings more to his job than bandages and liniment—he's knowledgeable in sciences as diverse as physics and endocrinology and there's nobody more dedicated to the team. Previously a trainer and instructor in physical education at Washington University (St. Louis), his alma mater, and coach, physical education and social studies teacher at a St. Louis high school, he spent five years in the Army, serving as a tank officer during World War II until he was wounded and later became chief of physical training and corrective exercises at Army convalescent hospitals in France and Germany. He later taught at Brooklyn College and did rehabilitation work at York hospitals. In May 1971 Ed received the first annual athletic Award presented by William Patterson College (N.J.) for dedicated service and contributions to sports.

MIKE O'SHEA, Assistant Trainer

Mike O'Shea is in his second year as the assistant trainer of the Colts.

He served four years active duty in the Air Force as the assistant trainer at the Air Force Academy before joining the Colts. The 29-year old native of Brenham, Tex., received his undergraduate degree from the University of Texas and a master's in physical education from Kent State University. He served on the Texas athletic training staff as an undergraduate and was a graduate assistant trainer at Kent State.

Mike and his wife Annette have a son.

MIKE McVEAN, Equipment Manager

Mike McVean enters his fourth year as the Colts' equipment manager after eight years assisting in the Washington Redskins' locker room. His brother Tom is the equipment manager of the Redskins. Mike, 31, is a native of Arlington, Va., and graduated from Wakefield High School, where he was a 154-pound wrestler. McVean served three years in the Navy and was aboard the Coral Sea in Southeast Asia during the early stages of the Viet Nam War in 1963. Mike and his wife Audrey reside in Baltimore County.

WJZ-TV AGAIN TELECASTS
COLTS' PRE-SEASON

WJZ-TV, Channel 13 in Baltimore, will televise live the Baltimore Colts' three away pre-season games this summer. Dick Stockton will handle the play-by-play for the second straight year. The telecast schedule with Baltimore times in parenthesis: Aug. 17—Cleveland Browns from Tampa, Fla. (8 P.M.), Aug. 31—at Atlanta (6 P.M.), Sept. 6—at Washington (8 P.M.).

COLTS' CORRALS

Perhaps the most unique fan group in professional sports are the Colts' Corrals. The Corrals are a group of associated fan clubs with a total membership in excess of 1800. They started as a single club, Corral #1, sixteen years ago. Since then, they have been continually expanding—#23, located in Annapolis, Maryland, was the most recent to be chartered in 1973.

In addition to attending all the Colts' home games and many of the road contests, the Corrals are engaged in numerous activities which promote the Colts and football in the Maryland-Delaware area. They also are active in charity fund raising and for the past six years have conducted a Veterans Day program at one of the Colts' home games. The Corrals have participated in the enshrinement of three Colts—Gino Marchetti, 1972 and Jim Parker and Raymond Berry, 1973—into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Probably the best known activities of the Corrals are their honoring Colts' coaches and players at their individual dinners each year and their annual convention in Ocean City, Maryland. The convention is the largest gathering of the membership, and at the 1974 event held in early June, former Colt Fred Miller served as honorary chairman.

The coordinating body of the Corrals is the Council, which meets monthly. Chairman of the Council for 1974 is Joe Matthews. He is assisted by Vice Chairman Sam Cimino. Other officers are John Hoffman, treasurer; Hurst Loudensinger, secretary; and Bill Isaacson, sergeant at arms. The executive board is comprised of Bill Barger, Jack Hurst, Don Louey, Jean Lukabaugh, Roy Mills and Ron Sablowski.

The presidents of the respective Corrals are: 1—Jean Lukabaugh; 2—Marty Ferris; 4—Don Kraeuter; 5—Roy Mills; 6—Paul Loverde; 7—Bill Kees (Hagerstown); 8—Len Hennenlein; 9—Wayne Thayer; 10—Bill Isaacson; 11—Alex Ilczuk (Salisbury); 12—Kirk Craemer (Thurmont); 14—Jim Gambacorta (New Castle, Del.); 15—Earl Kropf; 18—Paul Thompson (Glen Burnie); 19—Al Korman; 20—Howard Cregger (Aberdeen); 21—Jack Hurst; 22—Andy Carr; 23—Bill Carbo (Annapolis); 954—Mose Fisher (Maryland State Penitentiary).

THE BALTIMORE COLTS' MARCHING BAND

In recent years, the Baltimore Colts' Marching Band has taken on an increased role at all Colt home games. It is featured during four halftimes, performs a pre-game show before every game and provides all music during timeouts. In addition, the band will entertain at the Colts' two home pre-season games this summer.

The band was founded for the All-American Conference Colts in 1947. It was the first pro football band to have majorette and color guard units. This group of volunteer musicians stayed together in 1951 and 1952, when Baltimore had no franchise and played a major part in bringing pro football back to Baltimore in 1953. In 1954, the band added the first cheerleader unit in pro football.

Twice the band has donated items to the Professional Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. In 1966 the band presented its first bass drum to the Hall and in 1971 a number of items of Colts' Band memorabilia.

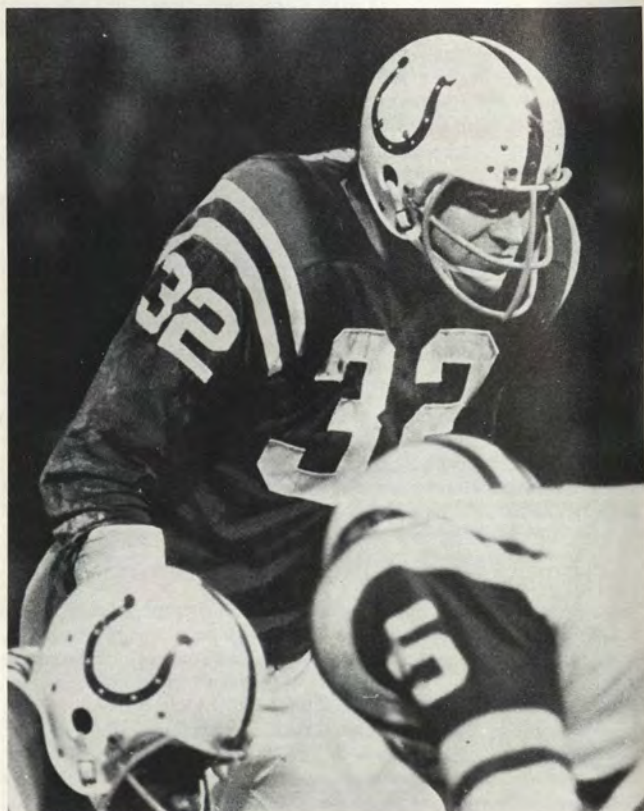

The band numbers 160, begins rehearsal in late spring and makes appearances at parades and special events. This year marked its 12th consecutive year as the "Official Band of the Preakness" at Pimlico Race Track. The band also performed at the National Football League championship games in 1958, 1959, 1964 and 1968.

The 1974 band staff includes Arthur H. Schmersal, Director; Richard E. DiStefano, Business Manager; Sam Orofino, Personnel Director; David B. Cook, Property Manager; Bonnie Peddicord, Choreographer and Head Majorette; Carol Nicholson, Assistant Choreographer; H. Erich Koch, Librarian; Richard H. Westermeyer, Sr., Drum Instructor; J. Danny O'Toole, Drill Instructor; Hugh B. McNally, Jr., Photographer; Richard E. Otto, Drum Major; Richard I. Hill, Assistant Director; and John W. Ziemann, Publicity Director and Drum Captain.

THE QUARTERBACK CLUB

The Quarterback Club of Baltimore meets the Monday evening following each Colts home game. They view films and get a game report from a Colts player or coach. The club, founded in 1960, awards a $2500 college scholarship to Maryland's Scholar-Athlete of the Year and co-sponsors with the National Football Foundation the annual Baltimore Scholar-Athlete banquet honoring the top student-football player from each high school in Baltimore and the surrounding counties.

Officers for the 1974 season are: Bob Watson, president; Larry Ricketts, vice president; Jack Kyle, treasurer; Pat O'Malley, secretary. John McGeehan is immediate past president.

1973 SEASON—GAME BY GAME

Sept. 16, 1973 Cleveland Stadium 74,303

CLEVELAND 24, BALTIMORE 14—Cleveland defeated Baltimore 24-14 before 74,303 in Cleveland Stadium. Mike Phipps (12-26-150, 2 TDs, 0 int., 0 sacks) hit Frank Pitts for a 26-yard TD pass to open the scoring. Bert Jones (6-22-56, 1 TD, 1 int., 5 sacks for 52 yards) countered with a 33-yard scoring shot to Cotton Speyrer in the second quarter. Don Cockroft's 14-yard field goal came after Cleveland DT Jerry Sherk broke through and dropped Colt punter David Lee on the Baltimore seven-yard line. Before the half was over Clarence Scott made it 17-7 by returning a Jones' interception 45 yards for a TD. Ted Hendricks made it 17-14 when he blocked Cockroft's third-quarter punt, picked it up on the two-yard line and went into the end zone. Phipps concluded a 68-yard, 20-play drive for the final score by hitting Pitts again for eight yards. Early in the drive Cleveland escaped a third down and 28 situation on their own 32 when Baltimore was hit with an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty which gave the Browns an automatic first down. The Colts held Leroy Kelly to six yards on nine carries. Don Nottingham gained 64 yards; Don McCauley 53-50 in the first half.

NY JETS 34, BALTIMORE 10—The Baltimore Colts saw a 10-3 halftime lead evaporate with seven second half interceptions as the New York Jets rocked to a 34-10 victory before 55,947 at Baltimore Memorial Stadium. Baltimore's starting QB Bert Jones staked the Colts to a first half advantage with 9-15-144 passing figures. But he ran into three more second half interceptions and Marty Domres threw four himself for a club record of eight to shatter any hopes of a Baltimore victory. Glenn Doughty had the biggest day of his Colt career with five catches for 105 yards and Tom Mitchell caught three for 50 yards. Al Woodall, in relief of Joe Namath (shoulder separation), was 17-21-149 and two touchdowns.

BALTIMORE 14, NEW ORLEANS 10—The Colts received 100-yard games from two backs in one game for the first time in 17 years to defeat New Orleans 14-10 for their first win of the season. Lydell Mitchell had the biggest day of his career with 133 yards in 22 carries. Don McCauley had the second 100-yard game of his career with 109 in 20 rushes. Bert Jones, who had an excellent start with 7-14-91 yards and a TD, ran into trouble later and threw four interceptions. Mike Curtis intercepted Archie Manning in the third quarter.

NEW ENGLAND 24, BALTIMORE 16—New England defeated the Colts 24-16 before 57,044 at Schaefer Stadium in Foxboro, Mass. John Tarver (14 carries for 55 yards) scored two touchdowns and Jim Plunkett was 6-13-73 yards. The Patriots fumbled seven times (lost three of them) but turned one of them into a break when Randy Vataha picked up Mack Herron's fumble and dashed 46 yards for a touchdown with less than six minutes remaining in the game to give New England a 24-9 advantage. Bert Jones (8-19-109) connected with Cotton Speyrer for a 22-yard TD for the final score of the day.

BUFFALO 31, BALTIMORE 13—The Baltimore Colts were defeated 31-13 by the Buffalo Bills before a sellout crowd of 80,020 in the Bills' new stadium in Orchard Park, N.Y. Baltimore, after holding O. J. Simpson to 26 yards in the first half, was unable to contain the great Buffalo back in the final two periods. Simpson finished with 166 yards, including a thrilling 78-yard flash through the Colts. The Colts got 58 yards (13 carries) from Don McCauley and 56 from Lydell Mitchell (16 carries). Tom Mitchell, starting at tight end for the first time this season after a pre-season and first four regular season games as a starting wide receiver, caught five passes for 59 yards. Bert Jones, who went the whole way at quarterback, was 7-15-71 yards and two interceptions. Mike Curtis intercepted a Joe Ferguson pass but on the play prior to the interception suffered a shoulder separation and after grabbing the pass missed the rest of the game.

BALTIMORE 29, DETROIT 27—The Colts outlasted the Detroit Lions 29-27 before 53,688 at Tiger Stadium after leading 29-13 and withstanding two late Lion TDs. Marty Domres made his first 1973 start at quarterback and was 9-13-177 yards. He threw a 66-yard touchdown pass to Glenn Doughty (his longest Baltimore completion) and was not intercepted. Doughty caught three passes for 109 yards; Cotton Speyrer grabbed four for 46 yards. Lydell Mitchell rushed 84 yards on 24 carries and Don McCauley 56 on 12 carries. Baltimore's rookie placekicker George Hunt kicked three more field goals to run his string to eight in a row. Ray Chester replaced Tom Mitchell (pulled stomach muscle) on the first series of the game and played the rest of the way. Ed Mooney played middle linebacker for the injured Mike Curtis.

OAKLAND 34, BALTIMORE 21—The Colts surged back from a 27-7 deficit to score two late touchdowns and slice Oakland's lead to 27-21 with 2:55 left in the game. The Raiders, however, recovered an on-side kick attempt and slipped down the field on five running plays to complete a 34-21 victory before 59,008 at Baltimore Memorial Stadium. Raider QB Ken Stabler broke Sammy Baugh's 28-year old NFL passing efficiency record with 25-29—304 and two touchdowns for a percentage of 86.21. He also hit 14 straight passes during the contest, coming within one completion of the league mark of 15 shared by Joe Namath and Len Dawson. Marty Domres had a 15-26—224 yard day (two touchdowns), hitting Don McCauley (72 yards in receptions) and Ray Chester (46) five times each and Glenn Doughty three times for 85 yards. Lydell Mitchell continued to lead Baltimore rushers with 57 yards. The Colts had a season high of six sacks (two on blitzes by linebackers) but in the final analysis it was their lack of consistent pass rush which proved costly.

HOUSTON 31, BALTIMORE 27—Baltimore, down 21-3 at halftime, recovered to take late leads of 24-21 (9:22 left in game) and 27-24 (two minutes left) but permitted Houston to drive 85 yards in 1:32 to steal victory away before 52,707 in Baltimore Memorial Stadium, 31-27. The Oilers snapped an 18-game losing streak dating back to the third game of 1972 when they defeated the New York Jets. Lynn Dickey had a big day for Houston with 22-32—340 and three touchdowns. Marty Domres, playing much of the game with a broken nose suffered in the second period, was 12-26—177 and a touchdown. Lydell Mitchell carried 22 times for 83 yards. Ray Chester caught three passes for 68 yards and Don McCauley caught four for 15 yards. Stan White scored the first touchdown of his pro career when he picked off a pass and lashed 19 yards into the end zone. He intercepted another pass and recovered a fumble. Ted Hendricks recovered two fumbles and intercepted a pass.

Nov. 11, 1973 Orange Bowl 80,047

MIAMI 44, BALTIMORE 0—Miami defeated the Colts 44-0 in the Orange Bowl, striking twice within the first seven minutes of the game. Mercury Morris dashed 48 yards for a touchdown before five minutes had elapsed and Tim Foley picked up a blocked punt and went in from eight yards less than two minutes later. Foley scored the second touchdown of his pro career in the third quarter, again going five yards with a blocked punt. Marty Domres started for Baltimore and played a half; Bert Jones played the second half. Lydell Mitchell, the Colts' leading rusher, carried eight times for 31 yards. Rex Kern made his first interception of the season and Ted Hendricks his second in the game. Hubert Ginn experienced his first significant playing time and rushed eight times for 25 yards.

WASHINGTON 22, BALTIMORE 14—Washington defeated the Baltimore Colts for the first time in 14 years 22-14 before 52,675. The Colts were in it until Curt Knight's 29-yard field goal with 1:10 left in the game pulled the Redskins ahead by eight. That late drive kept Baltimore (trailing 19-14) from getting another shot at a score. The Colts came back from a 13-0 halftime deficit with a long drive at the beginning of the third quarter. Baltimore, down 19-7, surged back to within five points when Marty Domres (14-30-137) hit Cotton Speyrer with a four-yard scoring pass with 6:05 left in the game. Lydell Mitchell carried 17 times for 54 yards and Tom Mitchell caught four passes for 48 yards, all in the second half. Rookie linebacker Mike Kaczmarek, starting only the second game of his career, intercepted his first pass.

BUFFALO 24, BALTIMORE 17—The Colts appeared primed for their third victory of the season. They had the ball (third down and three yards to go) on their own 18-yard line at the two minute warning with a 17-10 lead. But in a startling span of 23 seconds the Buffalo Bills struck for two touchdowns and won at Baltimore Memorial Stadium 24-17. Following a third down play that fell a yard short, a bad snap from center forced Baltimore punter David Lee to amazingly jab a kick out to the Baltimore 37-yard line. On Buffalo's first play quarterback Joe Ferguson hit Bob Chandler for a touchdown to tie the score. After two incomplete passes from the Colts' 24, Marty Domres tried to hit Sam Havrilak along the right sideline. It was intercepted by Dwight Harrison and returned 31 yards for a winning touchdown. Earlier highlights were Cotton Speyrer's 101-yard kickoff return to place Baltimore in front 7-3 and O. J. Simpson's (15-124 yards) exciting 58-yard touchdown run which gave Buffalo a 10-7 halftime advantage. The Colts go-ahead score was an 11-yard pass from Domres to Tom Mitchell (2-44) with 8:49 left in the game.

NY JETS 20, BALTIMORE 17—The Colts surged back from a 17-0 deficit after three quarters to within 20-17 and the ball on the New York Jets' 25-yard line with over three minutes to play. A holding penalty moved the ball back to the 40 and George Hunt's attempt at a 46-yard, game-tying field goal fell short. Lydell Mitchell, who now had rushed for 717 yards and had been in the AFC's top 10 for several weeks, had another solid game with 86 yards in 20 carries. Don McCauley had 55 yards on 16 carries. Glenn Doughty caught three passes for 72 yards and the other starting wide receiver Cotton Speyrer had two receptions for 56 yards—and they hooked up on the most exciting play of the game. Speyrer caught what looked like a wide receiver screen pass from Marty Domres (10-20—124 yards) and then lofted a 54-yard touchdown pass to Doughty who was wide open. That made the score 20-10. Moments later Ted Hendricks set up another TD with his third interception of the season.

BALTIMORE 16, MIAMI 3—The Baltimore Colts struck for one of the greatest victories in their history, defeating the Miami Dolphins 16-3 at Memorial Stadium in Baltimore. Deprived of three running backs by halftime (Hubert Ginn was deactivated prior to the game because of an injured leg; Don McCauley re-injured his shoulder after the first carry of the game, and Bill Olds, who started, suffered bruised ribs and only played the first half after rushing for 50 yards on 11 carries), Baltimore inserted their third tight end, John Andrews, at fullback and ran Lydell Mitchell (104 yards) 35 times. Marty Domres hit Tom Mitchell for a one-yard TD pass on fourth down for the second touchdown and the Colts' defense intercepted two passes (Rick Volk and Rex Kern), sacked Earl Morrall twice (Mike Barnes and Joe Schmiesing) and played overall excellent football all day. Domres was 5-8—35 yards.

BALTIMORE 18, NEW ENGLAND 13—Lydell Mitchell dashed for 142 yards in a snow storm to break Alan Ameche's club season rushing mark of 961 yards and pull the Colts to a season-ending victory over New England 18-13. Baltimore needed a nine-point fourth quarter—18-yard touchdown pass from Marty Domres (11-20—131 yards) to Tom Mitchell and a 32-yard field goal by George Hunt—to overcome the Patriots. The Colts posted a nine-point first quarter—they mis-handled two extra point snaps during the game—to take the lead on a 17-yard Domres to Cotton Speyrer touchdown pass and Hunt's 16-yard field goal. Jim Plunkett (13-27—164 yards) hit Randy Vataha for 25 yards in the second quarter and Mack Herron for 15 yards in the third for a 13-9 New England advantage. Tom Mitchell led the Colt receivers with five catches for 57 yards while Glenn Doughty caught three for 39. Ray Oldham, Stan White and Ted Hendricks intercepted passes for the Colts.

JOHN ANDREWS (88) 3 Yr. TE 6-3 227 Indiana
No. 5-'71 Age: 25

PRO: Was reverse tight end in 1973 and caught one pass for one-yard touchdown against Houston . . . perhaps greatest contribution to Colts came in final two games of the season—victories over Miami and New England—when injuries sidelined every Baltimore running back but Lydell Mitchell and Andrews had to be used as the up-back in the I formation . . . he learned most of his fullback plays on the sidelines during the first half of the Miami game, played the second as an effective blocker for Mitchell (104 yards) then started against New England at fullback and Lydell smashed for 142 yards . . . was also used during season in double-tight end alignment . . . returned a kickoff in first New England game for 13 yards . . . was active for eight games in '73 . . . Colts traded John to San Diego along with 1973 first round selection (Washington's) for Marty Domres in August of 1972 but re-signed him in winter of '73 after he was released by the Chargers . . . after drafting him fifth in 1971 John spent that season on Baltimore's taxi squad . . . caught three passes for 41 yards for Colts in '71 pre-season.

COLLEGE: Caught 65 passes for 685 yards in two seasons at Indiana . . . best year was in 1970 with 36 grabs for 417 yards . . . eighth best receiver in Indiana history at time of his graduation . . . played in '71 College All-Star Game against Colts.

PERSONAL: Born Nov. 2, 1948 . . . lives in Cockeysville, Md.

JIM BAILEY (79) 5 Yr. DT 6-6 255 Kansas
No. 2-'70 Age 26

PRO: Started every regular and pre-season game at left defensive tackle . . . has played in 42 straight games and started 28 in a row . . . made 65 solo stops, 35 assists and sacked the quarterback four times . . . also blocked two passes and an extra point against New England in the final game of the season . . . made nine solo stops (and four assists) in second Buffalo game, eight in first New England game . . . started every game in '72 and was in on 76 tackles, tackled passer six times and blocked a field goal and a punt . . . made 13 tackles in '72 San Francisco game . . . knee problems in 1971 kept him from starting early in season but played substantially after midway point and played well . . . started three games his rookie year (1970) until first knee injury (Nov. 29, 1970) ended his season . . . had surgery that night . . . played in 11 games in '70 . . . has also been used at defensive end.

COLLEGE: Didn't become regular until his senior year at Kansas but led Jayhawks in tackles that season.

PERSONAL: Born June 9, 1948 in Kansas City . . . was a three-sport high school star—football, track and wrestling . . . he and his wife Cindy live in Lawrence, Kan.

MIKE BARNES (63) 2 Yr. DE 6-6 255 Miami (Fla.)

No. 2-'73 Age: 23

PRO: Started 12 of 14 games in his rookie season, made 41 tackles and got to the quarterback four times . . . also recovered two fumbles . . . made 12 stops in win over Miami and sacked Earl Morrall . . . he started first nine games, played but did not start in next two (Washington and 2nd Buffalo) and regained starting berth for final three games . . . his play improved substantially as the season progressed . . . "He played the run well all year," said Howard Schnellenberger. "The phase of the game that really improved last year was his pass rush."

COLLEGE: Three-year starter at Miami (Fla.) . . . made 177 tackles . . . had 3.0 academic average majoring in art studies . . . some of his sketches and sculpture work have been exhibited . . . his 1971 play was limited by illness.

PERSONAL: Born Dec. 24, 1950 in Pittsburgh, Pa. . . . played high school football under former Colt George Radosevich . . . single.

STAN CHERRY (59) 2 Yr. LB 6-5 200 Morgan State

FA-'73 Age: 23

PRO: Signed as free agent in spring of 1973 after initially signing with the New England Patriots as free agent . . . released by Patriots after spring camp . . . placed on waivers by Colts Sept. 11 and re-signed Oct. 16 and put on 47-man roster . . . was active for seven games in '73 and played on special teams in three of them.

COLLEGE: Outstanding linebacker at Morgan State 1970-72.

What is the most asked question of the Baltimore Colts' past?

It would have to be the Colts' famous five for 10 trade engineered in 1953 with the Cleveland Browns.

The Colts received quarterback Harry Agganis, defensive backs Bert Rechichar, Don Shula and Carl Taseff, end Gern Nagler, guards Elmer Willhoite, Ed Sharkey and Art Spinney and tackles Dick Batten and Stu Sheetz. In exchange, the Browns obtained linebacker Tom Catlin, guard Hershel Forrester, halfback John Petibon and tackles Don Colo and Mike McCormick (now head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles).

RULES CHANGES

Three years of investigation, study and discussion were culminated April 25 in adoption by National Football League clubowners of a nine-part interrelated package of rules changes for the 1974 season. The package was drawn and recommended by the NFL Competition Committee. Members of the committee are Tex Schramm, Dallas Cowboys, chairman; Paul Brown, Cincinnati Bengals; Al Davis, Oakland Raiders; and Jim Finks, Minnesota Vikings.

SUDDEN DEATH

For all games, but duration limited to 15-minute overtime in pre-season and regular season games.

THE KICKING GAME

1. Move goal posts to end line.
2. Kickoff from 35-yard line.
3. Missed field goals returned to line of scrimmage or 20-yard line whichever is farther from goal line.
4. Members of a team kicking from scrimmage (punt or field goal) cannot cross line of scrimmage until ball is kicked.

THE PASSING GAME

Afford wide receivers better opportunity to get downfield by:

1. Eliminating roll blocking and cutting of wide receivers.
2. Restricting extent of downfield contact defender permitted to have with eligible receivers.

PENALTY CHANGE

Penalty for offensive holding, illegal use of hands and tripping reduced to 10 yards from 15 yards, when infraction occurs in area of line of scrimmage and three yards beyond.

BLOCKING CHANGE

Wide receivers blocking back toward the ball three yards from the line of scrimmage cannot block below the waist.

NOTES ABOUT THE NEW RULES: If a pre-season or regular season NFL game is tied after regulation play, there will be a three-minute timeout before the overtime begins with the receiving team and kicking team determined by a coin toss. A game would end with any score and would finish in a tie only if neither team scored during the 15-minute period . . . Post-season games will continue until there is a winner . . . Items 3 and 4 under "Kicking Game" are related because one objection in the past to returning the ball to the line of scrimmage following missed field goals was that it would only result in more punts. Because of Item 4, freezing the kicking team at the line of scrimmage until the ball is kicked, the feeling is more punt returns and fewer fair catches would result. Incidentally, the penalty for crossing the line of scrimmage before the ball is kicked is 5 yards . . . Passing Item 2 limits to once the number of times a defender can "check" a receiver after he has advanced three yards beyond the line of scrimmage . . . The last time an official NFL game was played with the goal post at the end line was in 1932. The rule was changed prior to the 1933 season—to encourage more scoring via kicking . . . The blocking change reduces any crackback blocking by wide receivers flanked more than two yards outside the offensive tackles to contact above the waist. Penalty for violation is 15 yards.

HALL OF FAME COLTS

Four Colts have been enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Defensive tackle Art Donovan was the first Colt honored. He was followed by defensive end Gino Marchetti, receiver Raymond Berry and Jim Parker, who split his career between offensive tackle and guard. Berry and Parker are the most recent inductees, having entered the Hall in 1973.

COLT PLAYOFF GAMES

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP

DEC. 28, 1958 YANKEE STADIUM

BALTIMORE 23, NEW YORK 17—Quarterback Johnny Unitas took the Colts 80 yards in 13 plays, the last a one-yard carry by Alan Ameche through the right side of the Giant line at 8 minutes, 15 seconds of sudden death overtime. The regulation game ended 17-17 when Baltimore's Steve Myhra booted a 20-yard field goal seconds from the gun. It has been called "the greatest game ever played" and the 64,185 who watched it at Yankee Stadium agree.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP

DEC. 27, 1959 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 31, NEW YORK 16—The Giants led 9-7 after three periods by virtue of three field goals by Pat Summerall, but Baltimore's crack defensive backfield took charge in the final quarter, three times making interceptions that resulted in scores. Colt quarterback Johnny Unitas scored one TD and passed for two before a home crowd of 57,545 in Memorial Stadium.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP

DEC. 27, 1964 CLEVELAND STADIUM

CLEVELAND 27, BALTIMORE 0—Both teams drew blanks in the first half but the Browns nailed down the World Championship with a 17-point third quarter. Quarterback Frank Ryan and fullback Jim Brown made the Cleveland attack click, as it rolled up 20 first downs to Baltimore's 11 and outgained the Colts, 339 to 171 yards. Ryan completed 11 of 18 passes for 206 yards and three touchdowns—all to end Gary Collins from distances of 18, 42 and 51 yards, while the brilliant Brown bulled for 114 yards on 27 shots as Cleveland controlled the ball. Attendance was 79,544.

NFL WESTERN DIVISION PLAYOFF

DEC. 26, 1965 LAMBEAU FIELD

GREEN BAY 13, BALTIMORE 10—A courageous effort by the undermanned Colts was doomed by a pair of Don Chandler field goals—one with 1:58 remaining from 22 yards to tie the score and a second of 25 yards to conclude 13:39 of "sudden-death" action. The Colts had jumped ahead 7-0, after 21 seconds of play when Don Shinnick scooped up Bill Anderson's fumble and trudded 25 yards to the end zone. They protected their edge tenaciously until the finish as Tom Matte went the route at quarterback, rushing for 57 yards and passing for 40. Zeke Bratkowski, subbing for the injured Bart Starr, completed 22 of 39 aerials for 248 yards. The Packers ran 80 plays to the Colts' 59 and led in first downs, 23-9. Attendance was 50,484.

NFL PLAYOFF

DEC. 22, 1968 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 24, MINNESOTA 14—It was a cold, rainy day when the Colts tucked away the Western Conference championship of the National Football League. Just as they had done earlier in the season, the Vikings provided some uncomfortable moments after the Colts managed to obtain a big lead. It wasn't until late in the first half that the Colts were able to nab a 7-0 lead on Earl Morrall's pass to Tom Mitchell after Willie Richardson's diving catch of a 33-yard aerial put the ball at the three. John Mackey's touchdown reception and Mike Curtis' 60-yard return of a fumble made it 21-0 after three quarters. Viking quarterback Joe Kapp refused to give up and fired TD passes to Billy Martin and Bill Brown before time ran out on him. Attendance was 60,238.

SUPER BOWL III

JAN. 12, 1969 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

NEW YORK JETS 16, BALTIMORE 7—At Miami Orange Bowl Stadium, attendance 75,337. Jets' quarterback Joe Namath "guaranteed" victory on the Thursday before the game, then went out and led the AFL to its first Super Bowl victory over a Baltimore team that had lost one of 16 games all season. Namath, chosen the outstanding player, completed 17 of 28 passes for 206 yards and directed a steady attack that dominated the NFL champions after the Jet defense had intercepted Colt quarterback Earl Morrall three times in the first half. The Jets had 337 total yards, including 121 yards rushing by Matt Snell. John Unitas, who had missed most of the season with a sore elbow, came off the bench and led Baltimore to its only touchdown late in the fourth quarter after New York led 16-0.

AFC PLAYOFF

DEC. 26, 1970 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 17, CINCINNATI 0—Attendance 51,127. John Unitas connected with TD passes to Roy Jefferson and Ed Hinton in the first and fourth quarters and led the Colts into the AFC title game by defeating Cincinnati. The Baltimore defense came through on a cold, windy day and limited Cincinnati to 63 yards rushing and 76 yards passing. Norm Bulaich, Colts' rookie rusher, picked up 116 yards on 25 carries. Jim O'Brien, Colts' rookie kicker and leading scorer, connected with a 44-yard FG, missed one from the same distance. A 49-yard FG try by Horst Muhlmann was blocked by Ray May. Mike Curtis, Colts' middle linebacker, made the game's only interception, picking off one of Virgil Carter's fourth-period passes, to set up an eventual final Colt score.

JAN. 3, 1971 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 27, OAKLAND 17—At Memorial Stadium, Baltimore, Md., attendance 56,368. Johnny Unitas' passing and play calling, and the running of rookie Norm Bulaich, powered the Colts to the first AFC Championship. Bulaich scored twice and Unitas picked up 245 yards on 11 completions, with his key one coming in the fourth quarter on a 68-yard touchdown reception by Ray Perkins out of a formation of four wide receivers. George Blanda (who at 43 became the oldest player to perform in a title game when he replaced injured Daryle Lamonica in the second period) threw TD Passes to Fred Biletnikoff and Warren Wells, but was intercepted three times. Ed Hinton caught five passes for the Colts for 115 yards.

SUPER BOWL V

JAN. 17, 1971 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

BALTIMORE 16, DALLAS 13—At Miami Orange Bowl Stadium, attendance 80,055. Colts' rookie Jim O'Brien climaxed one of the zaniest professional football games ever played by lofting a 32-yard field goal through the Orange Bowl uprights with five seconds left in regulation time to give Baltimore 16-13 Super Bowl win. The brutal defensive struggle resulted in 11 turnovers, which prevented a fluid, artistic performance but contributed to the drama of the contest. Dallas nearly put the game away early in the third period when, leading 13-6, the Cowboys recovered Jim Duncan's fumble on the 2nd half kickoff and zipped to the Colts' two in five plays. Duane Thomas, however, fumbled on the next play. Rick Volk provided Baltimore with the opportunity to tie halfway through the fourth period when he intercepted Craig Morton on the Dallas 33 and returned it to the three. Tom Nowatzke punctured into the end zone and after O'Brien's PAT it was 13-13. Mike Curtis intercepted another Morton pass on the Dallas 41 in the final minute and ran it back to the 28. The Colts stopped the clock with nine seconds left in the game and O'Brien made history. Morton's desperation pass on the final play of the game was intercepted by Jerry Logan.

AFC PLAYOFF

DEC. 26, 1971 CLEVELAND STADIUM

BALTIMORE 20, CLEVELAND 3—Attendance 74,082. Don Nottingham, playing for the injured Norm Bulaich, scored two TDs and rushed for 92 yards while Baltimore's strong defense dominated play in a 20-3 Colt victory over the Cleveland Browns that sent Baltimore into the AFC finals. Jim O'Brien added two field goals for the Colts and Don Cockroft, who had two kicks blocked by Bubba Smith, produced the Brown's only points. Rick Volk intercepted two of Bill Nelsen's passes and Charlie Stukes picked off a third. John Unitas went all the way, blending the strong running of Nottingham with passes to his favorite target, tight end Tom Mitchell, who caught 5 for 73 yards.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

JAN. 2, 1972 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0—At Orange Bowl, attendance 75,629. The Colts, playing without their starting running backs Norm Bulaich and Tom Matte, still managed to compile 302 total yards to Miami's 286 but were damaged by the Dolphins' big plays—Bob Griese to Paul Warfield 75-yard pass for TD in first period and Dick Anderson's 62-yard interception return for a TD in the third quarter. Larry Csonka carried five yards to fourth quarter touchdown for Miami. John Unitas completed 20 of 36 passes for 224 yards but Colts were shutout for the first time since Dec. 5, 1965 (0-13 by Chicago Bears). Another big play for Miami was stopping Colts fourth and one attempt at Dolphins' nine-yard line when lead was 7-0.

THOMPSON—BRAASE COLTS' RADIO TEAM

Chuck Thompson and Ordell Braase will again broadcast all the Colts' games this season over the Colts' radio network, which is originated by WCBM in Baltimore.

Thompson, who came to Baltimore in the late forties to do the International League Orioles' and the All-American Conference Colts' games, has won practically every conceivable broadcasting honor. He has worked World Series and post-season National Football League games nationally, both on television and radio. He rejoined the Colts' broadcast crew last season as the play-by-play announcer after a brief absence.

Braase, who enjoyed an outstanding career with the Colts as a player, has been the Colts' radio analyst since 1970. He was a member of three of the Colts' National Football League championship teams during his 12-year career as a defensive end. Braase, who retired in 1968, played in the Pro Bowl in 1966 and 1967.

WAIVERS, CUTOFF DATES, INACTIVE LIST & -PLAYER LIMITS

Waivers

When a club asks waivers on a player during the period from July 4 through the end of the regular season, other clubs may claim that player from 4 p.m., New York Time, on the day of the request is made, until 4 p.m., the next day. This 24-hour waiver period expands to 10 days at other times of the year. Waivers are announced simultaneously to all 26 clubs with claims recognized in priority by conference. A 24-hour recall period follows the waiver period. If a player is awarded through waivers, his contract is assigned immediately to the acquiring club, except that awards due on the day to or day of a regular season game are postponed to the following working day. If a player clears regular waivers, he becomes a free agent. If he clears injured waivers, he remains under contract to his club and receives full salary and benefits.

Inactive List

In addition to its regular roster (Active List), clubs establish an Inactive List (commonly known as taxi squad) on the Thursday prior to the season opener and are allowed an unlimited number of changes during the year between Active and Inactive status without such player being subject to waivers. During the season a club may have a total of no more than 47 players on both lists. Players on the Inactive List fall into one of three categories:

1. De-activated (still under current contract and may be activated at any time), or
2. Under future contract (must be signed to 1974 contract before activation; also, players in this category may play for a minor league provided they are counted at all times on the Inactive List), or
3. Cleared injured waivers (must remain out 16 days or two games, whichever occurs first).

Players on the Inactive List may practice with their clubs.

Reserve List

The Reserve List is a special category of inoperative players who may be retired, in military, injured, etc. In most instances a Reserve List player must be subjected to no-recall waivers in order to be activated during a season.

Player Limits

Clubs are allowed to open training camp with an unlimited number of players but must, by August 6, 1974, establish a roster of no more than 60 active players. Thereafter a series of three player limit reductions must be met:

- August 27-49 or less on Active List
- September 3-44 or less on Active List
- September 9-40 or less on Active List

Once a club goes below 44, all waivers through 4:00 p.m., on September 13 are non-recallable. Claims on players waived after the Active List is reduced to 49 cannot be withdrawn.

However, any player waived during the reduction from 49 to 40 can be reactivated at any time by the waiving team. In all other cases—both prior to the mandatory cutoffs and after the start of the regular season—a period of 16 days or two games must elapse before a waived player can be reactivated by the waiving team.

College All-Star team players need not count as active players until the 44-player limit is reached, even if they play in pre-season games prior to the reduction to 44.

Following is a year-by-year listing of the NFL player limit:

|                      |                      |                      |
|----------------------|----------------------|----------------------|
| 1964-74 . . . . . 40 | 1951-56 . . . . . 33 | 1938-39 . . . . . 30 |
| 1963 . . . . . 37    | 1949-50 . . . . . 32 | 1936-37 . . . . . 25 |
| 1961-62 . . . . . 36 | 1948 . . . . . 35    | 1935 . . . . . 22    |
| 1960 . . . . . 38    | 1946-47 . . . . . 33 | 1930-34 . . . . . 20 |
| 1959 . . . . . 36    | 1943-45 . . . . . 28 | 1926-29 . . . . . 18 |
| 1957-58 . . . . . 35 | 1940-42 . . . . . 33 | 1925 . . . . . 16    |

NOTE: Prior to merger agreement in 1966, when limit for both AFL and NFL was placed at 40, following limits were in effect in AFL: 1960-61 (35); 1962-63 (33); 1964 (34); 1965 (38).

BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

Baltimore Memorial Stadium which seats 60,000 following the baseball season, was completed in 1954. The largest capacity the current stadium ever reached was 60,240 in 1970 but reconstruction to add comfort to some of the seating areas has reduced the figure to 60,000.

Construction of Memorial Stadium began in 1949, the final season of the Baltimore Colts participation in the All-America Conference, on the same site as the original Baltimore Stadium. Construction of the stadium continued through that season and the 1950 National Football League season without the Colts missing a home game.

The 1950 Colt franchise was discontinued as was stadium construction. Work on the stadium resumed in 1952 and when the Colts returned to the NFL in 1953 the season was again played with stadium construction continuing. The stadium in its present form was completed prior to the 1954 season with a capacity of 52,000. Additional seating the past 12 years has expanded the facility to its present capacity.

The original Baltimore Stadium was built with wood on mounds of dirt in 1922. It was completed in 1924 with a capacity of 80,000 and officially dedicated on Nov. 29, 1924 when a throng of 80,150 watched the Army-Navy game.

The capacity of the original stadium was eventually reduced to 66,000.
