INDIANAPOLIS COLTS OFFICERS

ROBERT IRSAY

President and Treasurer

"The greatest thrill I've had in football was on April 2, 1984, when I walked into the Hoosier Dome with Mayor (Bill) Hudnut in front of all those fans," says Robert Irsay of the 20,000 people who showed up to welcome the Colts to Indianapolis. "It is my intention," Irsay continues, "for the Colts to be a vital contributing member of the greater Indianapolis community."

Irsay became owner of the Colts on July 26, 1972, when he traded his recently-acquired Los Angeles Rams to Carroll Rosenbloom for the Colt franchise. Irsay had purchased the Rams from the estate of Dan Reeves.

Irsay was born on March 5, 1923, in Chicago's northern "Bucktown" section. He worked his way through the University of Illinois, where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in mechanical engineering. (While attending Illinois, he was an Illini football teammate of former Colt Alex Agase.)

From 1941 to 1945, he served in the United States Marine Corps., after which he worked for a mechanical contracting company in Chicago.

In 1952 he formed the Robert Irsay Company of Skokie, Ill. After building the business into one of the largest and most respected heating, ventilating and air conditioning companies in the world, Irsay sold his company to a firm listed on the New York Stock Exchange in 1971. He remained associated with the firm until 1978 when he formed Colt Construction and Development Co., and its affiliate, Colt Developers, Co., which are diversified construction and development companies.

Irsay is an active supporter of many charitable organizations. Among these are: Big Brothers, Little Sisters of the Poor, the Noble Center, Christamore House, Black Expo, the Mental Health Association and Cystic Fibrosis Foundation in Indianapolis; Foundation for Children with Learning Disabilities, New York, New York; Stritch School of Medicine at Loyola University in Chicago; and the Troubled Children's Foundation Center in Hialeah, Fla. He makes further donations through the Colts as a member of NFL Properties which dedicates a major portion of its earnings to NFL Charities.

Irsay has two sons, Tom (37) and Jim (32), the club's general manager.

OFFICERS

JIM IRSAY

Vice President and General Manager

Dedication: The best description of Jim Irsay's commitment to bringing winning football to the City of Indianapolis. Irsay has been involved in all aspects of the day-to-day operation of the Colts since joining the club in January of 1982. Jim was added to the personnel department in 1983 and took over as general manager in early 1984, following the Colts move to Indianapolis. The 32-year old Irsay was instrumental in the hiring of Ron Meyer as the Colts' head coach.

Irsay has served on the National Football League's Pro-College Relations Committee for the past three years.

He also serves on a working club executive committee through the league.

Irsay received his bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism from Southern Methodist University, where he played linebacker for a year and a half as a walk-on, before an ankle injury ended his career. Jim was born on June 13, 1959 in Lincolnwood, Ill. He attended Loyola Academy in Wilmette, Ill., where he played golf, boxed and became an avid weight-conditioner.

Jim is an active member of the Indianapolis community and is involved with Big Brothers of Indianapolis. He is a corporate member of the Indiana Sports Corporation and he serves on the Board of Directors of the Noble Center for Retarded Citizens in Indianapolis. Additionally, in 1990, Irsay wrote and helped produce the song, "Colors", a musical tribute to Ryan White. Jim and his wife, Meg, have three daughters, Carlie (10), Casey (8) and Kalen (4).

MICHAEL G. CHERNOFF

Vice President and General Counsel

Since March of 1975, Michael Chernoff has been vice president and general counsel for Robert Irsay's various business concerns including the Colt football team.

The Glencoe, Ill. native received his bachelor's degree from the University of Chicago in 1956 and then stayed on at Chicago to receive his Doctor of Law degree in 1959. Chernoff was in private practice until 1974 when he became vice president and general counsel to a Fortune 500 company, one year before joining Irsay. Chernoff's legal background includes extensive work in corporate law, securities, real estate and taxes. He has also played a key role in negotiating commercial, player and other contracts, including the contract which put the Colts in Indianapolis.

Chernoff, who resides in Chicago with his wife, Eunice, has three children, Susan, Steven and Robert.

RON MEYER

Head Coach

Looking for the final touch to cap a commitment of bringing winning football to Indianapolis, the Colts hired Ron Meyer as head coach on December 1, 1986.

What many believed would be a major overhauling of a talented, but struggling team turned out quite the opposite. Instead, Meyer stressed intangibles such as unity, spirit and attitude. He used his tactician's knowledge of the game. The result was three consecutive victories to close the 1986 season.

In becoming the first coach in Colts history to win his first three games, Meyer established a winning foundation which produced an AFC Eastern Divisional title in 1987. Under his guidance, the Colts posted records of 9-7 in 1988 and 8-8 in 1989, remaining in playoff contention until the final week of each season. The Colts earned a 7-9 record in 1990.

Meyer has guided Indianapolis to a 36-30 regular season record since his arrival. The record is tied for fourth-best in the AFC during that time. The divisional title for the club was its first in a decade, and he gleaned recognition for his efforts by being selected AFC Coach of the Year by the Professional Football Writers Association, UPI, the Football News and the Kansas City Committee of 101. Meyer's 36 career wins with the Colts stand as fourth-most in club history, just five short of Ted Marchibroda's 41.

That winning came under Meyer's leadership was not surprising. He has resurrected every football program he has led during a 17-year coaching career.

Meyer entered the coaching ranks following his career as a defensive back at Purdue. He assumed his first post as the head coach at Penn High School in Mishawaka, Indiana in 1964. His team produced a 5-4 mark that year.

In 1965, Meyer returned to Purdue as an offensive assistant in charge of the backfield, receivers and overall passing game. While on the staff of Jack Mollenkopf, the Boilermakers notched an overall mark of 44-16-1. Purdue won the 1967 Rose Bowl, 14-13, over Southern California, in Meyer's second year, and shared the Big Ten Championship with Minnesota the following season.

Meyer accepted his first professional position as a scout for the Dallas Cowboys upon leaving Purdue. Meyer's two years with Dallas were highlighted by a Super Bowl VI Championship, a 24-3 win over Miami. Dallas boasted a 21-7 record during Meyer's time with the club.

Meyer obtained his first collegiate head coaching position at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas, a school which had finished 1-10 immediately prior to his arrival. Meyer applied the winning touch to the Rebel program and led his teams to a 27-8 record over a three-year period from 1973-75. His 1974 Rebel unit posted an 11-0 regular season record. A testament of his leadership at UNLV was the program sporting a 25-6 mark over the three seasons following his departure.

COACHES

Meyer took charge of a struggling Southern Methodist University program in 1976, and soon transformed it into a powerful national contender. Building a foundation during his first four years, Meyer's teams went 8-4 in 1980 and 10-1 in 1981. SMU won the Southwest Conference Championship in 1981 and came within two points of a perfect season. Meyer ascended to the NFL with New England following that season, but the winning continued at SMU as the three subsequent Mustang teams amassed a 31-4-1 combined record.

The task Meyer faced at New England was no different than those at UNLV or SMU. Nor were the results.

Meyer took a Patriots club which was 2-14 in 1981 to the playoffs with a 5-4 record during the strike-shortened 1982 season. The Patriots lost a playoff duel to Miami, 28-13. He then guided his injury-riddled club to an 8-8 record in 1983, staying in playoff contention until the final weekend of the campaign. During his career with New England, Meyer posted a 18-15 regular season mark.

Meyer was born on February 17, 1941 in Westerville, Ohio. He earned ten prep letters in football, basketball and baseball, and won all-conference honors in each as a senior.

Meyer entered Purdue as a football walk-on in 1959 and quickly won a scholarship in the second semester of his freshman year. As a defensive back he led the Boilermakers in minutes played as a junior and senior. Meyer was selected to the Big Ten All-Academic Team and won the Big Ten Medal of Honor. In addition, he was tabbed for Purdue's Nobel Kizer Award for athletic and academic achievement in 1963.

Meyer and his wife, Cindy, have two daughters, Kathryn and Elizabeth. Ron's two sons, Ron, Jr. and Ralph, reside in Dallas.

LEON BURTNETT, Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Leon Burtnett enters his fifth season with the Colts, his first as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach. He spent the past four seasons as running backs coach, his first professional post.

Burtnett spent five seasons (1982-86) as the head coach at Purdue. He joined the Boilermakers in 1977 as defensive coordinator and was given the additional title of assistant head coach in 1979, the capacity he remained in until being tabbed head coach.

Burtnett landed his first collegiate post as secondary coach at Montana State in 1970. He held the same position at Washington State in 1971 and at Wyoming in 1972. He was elevated to defensive coordinator with Wyoming in 1973. Burtnett moved to San Jose State (1974-75) as linebacker coach, then entered the Big Ten at Michigan State to tutor Spartan linebackers in 1976.

Burtnett graduated from Southwestern (Kansas) University in 1965 with degrees in business and physical education. He was a fullback who earned honorable mention All-America honors.

Burtnett was born May 30, 1943 in Fresno, Calif. He is married to the former Cecilia Johnson of Sonora, Texas. They have three children, Kyle (15), Ryan (12) and Brooke (9).

GEORGE CATAVOLOS, Secondary

George Catavolos joined the Colts in May of 1984 as the defensive secondary coach, his first professional position after a successful collegiate career.

Catavolos moved to the Colts after serving as the secondary coach under Johnny Majors at Tennessee (1982-83). Prior to 1982, Catavolos worked as the secondary coach at Kentucky (1977-81). He was part of the staff which guided Kentucky to a 10-1 record (6-0 in the Southeastern Conference) in 1977.

Catavolos began coaching as a graduate assistant at Purdue in 1967, under Jack Mollenkopf. He worked there for two years before taking his first full-time assistantship at Middle Tennessee State in 1969. Catavolos joined the Louisville staff as a defensive back coach in 1970, then landed the same position at Purdue in 1971. He coached at Purdue for six years under head coaches Bob DeMoss and Alex Agase.

Catavolos received his bachelor's and master's degree from Purdue, where he starred as a defensive back. He was co-captain for the 1967 Purdue squad which defeated USC, 14-13, in the Rose Bowl. He also received that year's Nobel E. Kizer Award for academic excellence.

Catavolos was born May 8, 1945 in Chicago, Ill. He is married to the former Tona Jones of Royal Center, Ind. They have two daughters, Lindsay Marie (8) and Stephanie Lynn (7).

SYLVESTER CROOM, Running Backs

Sylvester Croom enters his first season as running backs coach of the Colts. Croom, 36, served for the past four years in the same capacity with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Croom entered the NFL after serving as outside (1977-81, 1984-86) and inside (1982-83) linebackers coach at Alabama from 1977-86. He tutored five players who were NFL first-round draft choices, including Colts' selectees Jon Hand (1986) and Cornelius Bennett (1987) along with E.J. Junior (1981), Mike Pitts (1983) and Derrick Thomas (1989). During two of his seasons, 1979 and 1980, Alabama led the Southeastern Conference in total defense. Croom also was employed as a graduate assistant coach with the Crimson Tide in 1975-76.

Croom graduated from Alabama in 1975 after helping lead the Crimson Tide to three consecutive SEC Championships. A three-year letterman for Paul "Bear" Bryant, Croom was named Kodak All-America and first-team all-SEC as a center in 1974, while also earning the Jacobs Award as the best down lineman in the SEC. Alabama compiled a 32-4 record during Croom's three years as a starter and were named national champions in 1973 by UPI. He played professionally with New Orleans in 1975.

Croom received a bachelor's degree in history with a minor in biology from Alabama in 1975. He earned his master's degree in educational administration two years later.

Croom was born on September 25, 1954 in Tuscaloosa, Ala. He is married to the former Jeri Ingram of Tuscaloosa. They have one daughter, Jennifer (18).

COACHES

STEVE FURNESS, Defensive Line

Steve Furness enters his first season as defensive line coach of the Colts. Furness, 40, joined Indianapolis after serving eight years as defensive line coach with Michigan State.

Furness, a standout defensive tackle over a 10-year career with the Pittsburgh Steelers and Detroit Lions, is in his second professional coaching position. He served as defensive line coach under George Perles with the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL in 1982.

Furness was a fifth-round selection of Pittsburgh in 1972. He was a defensive tackle on the Steelers' 1974, 1975, 1978 and 1979 Super Bowl championship teams. Furness was a defensive lineman and hammer thrower at the University of Rhode Island. His position coach at URI was Bill Muir, the Colts' assistant head coach/offensive line. Furness declined Olympic trials to pursue his career with the Steelers.

Furness received his bachelor's degree from the University of Rhode Island in 1972. He was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 1987, the same year he earned a master's degree in athletic administration.

Furness was born on December 5, 1950 in Warwick, Rhode Island. He is married to the former Deborah Lewis of Warwick. They have two sons, Zachary (14) and Zaban (8).

MILT JACKSON, Receivers

Milt Jackson enters his third season as receivers coach of the Colts. He joined Indianapolis from Houston, where he held the same position for three seasons. Jackson has 11 years NFL coaching experience.

Jackson first entered the NFL with San Francisco (1980-82) as receivers/special teams coach. He moved on to tutor the same position with Buffalo (1983-84), then joined Philadelphia as running backs coach for the 1985 season.

Jackson, 47, was selected in the seventh-round of the NFL draft by the 49ers and the first-round of the baseball draft by the Philadelphia Phillies in 1967. He spent the 1967 season on the 49ers' taxi squad. Jackson gained his first coaching position as a graduate assistant at Oregon State (1973), where he earned his master's degree in education. He joined Rice (1974) as running backs coach, then moved to Cal-Berkeley (1975-76) as linebackers coach. Jackson served as defensive backs coach at Oregon (1977-78) and as offensive line coach with UCLA (1979).

Jackson was born October 16, 1943 in Groesbeck, Texas. He played baseball and football at Tulsa University. He is married to the former Brenda Gibson of Sacramento, Ca. They have three children, Shelly Ann (18), Garrett (9) and Stephen II (3).

BILL MUIR, Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Line

Bill Muir enters his third season with the Colts. He served the past two seasons as defensive coordinator before gaining the title of assistant head coach. Muir also tutors the club's offensive linemen.

Muir, 48, joined Indianapolis after serving four years as offensive line coach with Detroit. Muir is a veteran of 14 NFL seasons, having spent time with New England (1982-84) as offensive line coach under Ron Meyer. He was a scout with Tampa Bay in 1978 before spending 1979-81 as the Bucs' Director of Pro Personnel.

Prior to entering the NFL, Muir was an assistant coach at Susquehanna (1965), Delaware Valley (1966-67), Rhode Island (1970-71), Idaho State (1972-73) and Southern Methodist (1976-77). He was associated with Meyer in the Mustang program and coached fellow staffer Steve Furness while at Rhode Island. Muir also served as offensive coordinator with Orlando in the Continental Football League (1968-69) and with Houston-Shreveport in the World Football League (1974-75).

Muir played collegiately at Susquehanna as a tackle from 1962-64. He was inducted into the School's Hall of Fame in 1990.

Muir was born October 25, 1942 in Pittsburgh, Pa. He is married to the former Barbara Waddell of Munhall, Pa. They have two children, Kellan (22) and Brady (20).

BRAD SEELY, Special Teams/Tight Ends

Brad Seely enters his third season with Indianapolis, after having spent five seasons as offensive line coach at Oklahoma State. Seely managed blocking schemes which allowed running back Barry Sanders to set 23 NCAA rushing records and win the Heisman Trophy in 1988. This is his first professional coaching position.

Seely landed his first duty as a graduate assistant at South Dakota State in 1978. He moved to Colorado State as a graduate assistant in 1979, then was elevated to offensive line coach in 1980. Seely joined Ron Meyer at Southern Methodist in 1981 as offensive line coach. The Mustangs posted a 10-1 mark that season. Seely took the offensive line coaching positions at North Carolina State in 1982 and at the University of Pacific in 1983 before entering his stint at Oklahoma State.

Seely, 34, was an all-conference grid performer as a senior at South Dakota State in 1976. He was an all-academic choice for his final two seasons. Seely was an all-state prep pick in football and basketball.

Seely was born September 6, 1956 in Vinton, Iowa. He is married to the former Patricia Racine of Holyoke, Mass. They have two children, Sarah (4) and Hannah (1).

RICK VENTURI, Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

Rick Venturi joined the Colts in 1982 as the linebacker coach, making him the senior member of the coaching staff in terms of service to the club. He enters his second term as defensive coordinator. He served in that capacity with the club in 1984. He also continues to tutor linebackers.

Venturi entered the coaching ranks as a freshman coach for Northwestern from 1968-69. He took charge of the defensive secondary there from 1970-72. Venturi spent 1973-76 handling the linebacking coaching chores at Purdue, working along with George Catavolos, the Colts' secondary coach. Venturi left his Purdue post for the same position at Illinois in 1977. In 1978, Venturi landed the head coaching job at his alma mater, Northwestern, where he coached for three seasons. Venturi received both his graduate and undergraduate degrees at Northwestern. Venturi also served a stint as guest coach for Hamilton of the Canadian Football League in 1981 just before joining the Colts.

Venturi was born February 23, 1946 in Taylorville, Ill. He is married to the former Cheri Rotello of Rockford, Ill. They have two children, Marin (20) and Jason (18).

TOM ZUPANCIC, Strength and Conditioning

Tom Zupancic joined the Colts staff in 1984 as the strength and conditioning coach. A fixture in Indianapolis for years as the owner and operator of his own gymnasium, he came to the club after being a finalist in the 1984 U.S. Olympic Wrestling Trials.

A hometown product of Cathedral High School (1973) and Indiana Central University (1978), Zupancic was a three-time Indiana State College wrestling champion and a four-year grid letterman. As a power lifting competitor since 1974, he owns an undefeated record in 86 state, regional and national exhibitions to date.

Zupancic has been a part of four USA National Wrestling Teams to Europe. He was a member of two USA World Teams, while also winning Canadian, AAU and USWF National Wrestling Championships. In 1980, he was an alternate to the USA Greco Roman Wrestling Olympic Team.

In addition, Zupancic ranks 14th in the world among alltime super heavyweights with a 600-pound bench press (set in 1988). In 1990, he won the WPF world bench press championships with a 600-pound lift. Zupancic is one of the most active staffers for charities and public appearances. Along with lifting demonstrations, he gives talks on goal-setting and positive thinking. He was also a feature subject on HBO's "Inside the NFL" during the 1986 season.

Zupancic was born September 14, 1955. He is married to the former Carrie Oldham of Shelbyville, Ind. They have two children, Katie Elizabeth (2) and Jacob August.

The Colts' home is located on 32 acres of land just west of I-465 on 56th Street. Built at a cost of over $4 million, the complex features three practice fields including two natural-turf fields and one AstroTurf surface.

The 43,500 square foot structure includes: spacious locker rooms; a steam room; a sauna; a 12' x 12' sunken hydrotherapy tank; a 24' x 78' training room; a 34' x 23' vestibule and lobby; and a 20' X 17' working press area. Three racquetball courts and a quarter-mile outdoor running track provides for cardiovascular exercise. The Colts moved into the facility in August of 1985.

BOB TERPENING, Assistant General Manager

Bob Terpening, whose association with the Colts goes back to 1970, was promoted to assistant general manager of the club in May of 1984.

Terpening, 48, began working with the Colts in 1970 grading films during his tenure as the head football coach at Baltimore City College H.S. In 1971 he joined the New England Patriots' scouting department. In 1977 Terpening returned to the Colts as a college scout and in January of 1982 was named Director of Pro Personnel. He held that position until his elevation to assistant general manager.

Terpening received his bachelor's degree from Shepherd College in West Virginia and then earned his master's degree from the University of West Virginia. He also did additional graduate study at Johns Hopkins.

Terpening and his wife, Virginia, have two sons, Chris (19) and Matt (15). The family resides in Carmel.

JACK BUSHOFSKY, Player Personnel Director

Jack Bushofsky was named the Colts Player Personnel Director in June, 1983 and is responsible for directing the college scouting aspects of the Colts personnel department. Bushofsky served the previous four years as a college and pro personnel scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Before joining the Bucs in 1979, he worked two years as a BLESTO combine scout. The 53-year old Pittsburgh native has had an extensive career in football serving as head coach at his alma mater, Austin Peay (1973-76), assistant coach at Villanova (1968-72), and several years in the Pittsburgh high school system. After serving in the Marine Corps, he earned Little All-America honors as a guard and linebacker at Austin Peay from 1959-61 where he received a bachelor's degree in health and education and a master's degree in administration. Born October 8, 1937 in Pittsburgh, he and his wife, Mary Ann, have three children, Danielle (23), Jeffery (21) and Bryne Marie (16).

PETE WARD, Director of Operations

Entering his tenth year with the Colts, Pete Ward is responsible for various operational and administrative functions. Ward joined the Colts in 1981 as an intern in the public relations department, and was named Administrative Assistant in 1982 following his graduation from the University of Virginia. He was named Director of Operations shortly after the Colts' arrival in Indianapolis in April, 1984. Born in New Orleans, Louisiana, Ward is single and resides in Zionsville.

ADMINISTRATION

HUNTER SMITH, Head Trainer

In his ninth year with the Colts, Hunter Smith was named the club's head athletic trainer in June of 1984. He served as the Colts' assistant trainer during the 1983 season following a one-year stint as the head trainer at William and Mary in 1982.

Prior to joining the staff at William and Mary, Smith served 10 years as an assistant professor in physical education and head athletic trainer at Salisbury State College. A Certified Athletic Trainer, he was one of the founding leaders of the Maryland State Certified Athletic Trainers Association. Smith earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Florida State University in 1971 and a master's degree in physical education and health from Tennessee Technological University one year later. He served on the Board of Directors of the National Athletic Trainers Association from 1982 to 1984. Smith and Dave Hammer were honored as the 1990 Pro Football Athletic Training Staff of the Year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society. Born August 5, 1949, in Salisbury, Md., he and his wife, Susan, have three children, Kelly (9), Brian (7) and Kevin (7).

DAVE HAMMER, Assistant Trainer

Dave Hammer is entering his eighth season as assistant trainer, having joined the club in July of 1984. Hammer earned a master's degree in Physical Education at Syracuse in 1984, and served as a graduate assistant trainer. He also attended West Virginia University from 1977-82, as a member of the undergraduate athletic training curriculum. Hammer spent the 1981 training camp as a member of the Colts' summer staff, along with serving with the club during parts of the 1981-83 seasons. Hammer and Hunter Smith were honored as the 1990 Pro Football Athletic Training Staff of the Year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society. Born in Pittsburgh, Pa. on May 10, 1959, Dave and his wife, Sharon, reside with their son, Christopher (2), in Indianapolis.

JON SCOTT, Equipment Manager

Jon Scott joined the Colts in March, 1982 as assistant equipment manager and was elevated to head of the club's equipment staff in November of the same year. Before joining the Colts on a full-time basis, Scott worked as assistant equipment manager at Arizona State University for two years. His association with the Colts began when he worked as an assistant to the equipment manager during the club's 1979 and 1980 summer training camps. Scott received a bachelor's degree in Physical Education from Michigan State University in 1979 where he served as a student equipment manager for six years (1975-80). Born on December 18, 1956, Scott is a native of East Lansing, Michigan. Jon and his wife, Mischelle, reside with their daughters, Amber (12) and Brooke (11), in Indianapolis.

CLYDE POWERS, College Scout, Southwest

Clyde Powers is in his ninth season as a member of the Colts' Personnel Department, after working for two seasons as an assistant coach for special assignments. He served from 1982 to 1985 as a College Scout before being named Director of Pro Personnel on May 31, 1985. He remained in that capacity until 1987. As Director of Pro Personnel, Powers was responsible for personnel assessment within the league and assisting Jack Bushofsky in collegiate scouting. Powers joined the Colts after six years in the NFL as a defensive back with the New York Giants and Kansas City. He was a fifth round 1974 draft pick of the Giants. He played four seasons with the Giants and briefly for the Chiefs in 1978. Powers lettered three years at Oklahoma and earned All-Big Eight honors at safety as a senior. Mike Butler is entering his fifth season with the Colts. He joined the club in 1987 from the Pittsburgh Steelers, where he was a member of the personnel department since 1983. Butler was a fullback and defensive end at Massanutten Academy and West Virginia, where he was converted to center. He also attended Villanova and received his bachelor's degree in fine arts at Indiana University (Pa.) in 1983. Butler, 32, is the son of Jack Butler, a former Pittsburgh Steelers defensive back and current director of the BLESTO Scouting Combine. Butler is married to the former Regina Wiecheld of West Mifflin, Pa.

ADMINISTRATION/SCOUTS

JOHN GOELLER, College Scout, South

John Goeller joined the Colts in June of 1985 as a college scout after serving as a regional scout for BLESTO since 1983. Goeller entered scouting after serving eight years as a coach on the high school and collegiate level. He was an assistant at Austin Peay (1976-78) where he was associated with Jack Bushofsky, now the Colts' Director of Player Personnel. Goeller served a graduate assistantship at Florida State in 1978, then moved to Monroe (N.C.) High School as head football coach from 1979-83. Goeller, 37, was a three-year starter at defensive tackle at North Carolina State. He was tabbed defensive MVP in the 1973 Liberty Bowl against Kansas. Goeller is married to the former Caryl Schratz of Pittsburgh.

DON JOYCE, College Scout, North

Don Joyce is entering his third season as a member of the Colts' collegiate scouting staff. He joins the club after spending more than 22 years as a regional and national scout for the BLESTO National Scouting Combine. He reunites with the team after putting in seven years with the Colts as a defensive end from 1954 to 1960. Joyce was the 15th player selected in the 1951 NFL Draft by the Chicago Cardinals. He was traded to the Colts in 1954, and was later traded to Minnesota and Denver. Joyce was an All-America defensive lineman at Tulane University and is a member of the school's football Hall of Fame. After retiring from professional football with the Denver Broncos in 1962, Joyce remained in touch with the game by serving as head coach at De La Salle High School in Minneapolis, Minnesota for five years. He was born October 8, 1929 in Steubenville, Ohio. He is married to the former Sharon Booth of Minneapolis, Minn., and they have two children, Don Jr. and Cathy.

HOME GAMES

WEEK ONE: Buffalo 26, Colts 10

September 9, 1990

Rich Stadium

3:00 p.m.

Indianapolis dropped a season opener for the seventh consecutive season in falling at Buffalo, 26-10. QB-Jeff George (13-24-160, one TD) teamed with WR-Stanley Morgan on a 25-yard scoring toss in the third quarter as the Colts attempted a comeback, but George left the contest in the fourth quarter with a concussion. QB-Jim Kelly (28-37-293, one TD) completed his first 14 passes and guided the Bills to a 16-3 halftime advantage. Momentum eventually swung Buffalo's way in the final period when K-Dean Biasucci misfired on a 29-yard field goal with the score 16-10 and 14:30 remaining.

WEEK TWO: New England 16, Colts 14

September 16, 1990

Hoosier Dome

12:00 p.m.

The Colts fell to 0-2 and dropped their second consecutive divisional game, 16-14, to New England. A QB-Jeff George (12-24-160, one TD, four ints.) 68-yard scoring pass to WR-Bill Brooks narrowed the deficit late in the contest, but the Colts could not overcome five turnovers. Patriots QB-Steve Grogan hit 16 of 24 passes for 187 yards and one touchdown, including a 27-yarder to WR-Hart Lee Dykes. Grogan totaled eleven first downs passing as New England converted 10 of 17 third-down situations. The Patriots outgained the Colts, 310-207.

1990 REVIEW

WEEK FOUR: Colts 24, Philadelphia 23

September 30, 1990

Veterans Stadium

12:00 p.m.

QB-Jack Trudeau hit WR-Bill Brooks on a six-yard scoring toss as time expired to give the Colts a 24-23 win in Philadelphia. The drive capped a 14-play, 82-yard march in the game's final two minutes. Trudeau (19-40-329, two TDs and one int.) started in place of injured Jeff George. RB-Albert Bentley (3-104) had his first career 100+ receiving game, while Brooks was 8-94 and WR-Jessie Hester was 4-85, one TD. The win snapped a 10-game September road losing streak, dating back to the 1984 season.

WEEK SEVEN: Miami 27, Colts 7

October 28, 1990

Hoosier Dome

1:00 p.m.

Miami dominated Indianapolis in every phase of play to score a 27-7 decision in the Hoosier Dome. The Dolphins rolled to 206 yards rushing, while holding the ball for 41:05 and limiting the Colts to 132 net yards offense. QB-Jack Trudeau suffered torn knee ligaments in the second quarter and was lost for the rest of the season. QB-Jeff George, playing for the first time in a month, bruised a knee and veteran Joe Ferguson finished for the Colts. QB-Dan Marino clicked on 21 of 29 passes for 161 yards, while three Miami rushers topped 50 yards. Indianapolis was victimized by four turnovers.

WEEK EIGHT: New York Giants 24, Colts 7

November 5, 1990

Hoosier Dome

9:00 p.m.

The New York Giants punched their way to a 17-0 halftime advantage to earn an eventual 24-7 nod over the Colts. QB-Phil Simms (17-21-172) directed a Giants attack which controlled the ball for more than 20 minutes of the first half while outdistancing the Colts 13-1 in first downs and 206-45 in net yards during that span. Colts QB-Jeff George, starting for the first time since week two, hit 23 of 37 passes for 160 yards, but his fumble on a sack produced the Giants final touchdown for the victory. Indianapolis fell to 2-6, 1-4 at home. The Colts mustered 181 net yards for the contest, with 55 coming on the ground. Giants RB-Ottis Anderson had two rushing touchdowns.

WEEK TWELVE: Phoenix 20, Colts 17

December 2, 1990

Sun Devil Stadium

4:00 p.m.

The Colts' three-game winning streak came to an end with a 20-17 loss to Phoenix. Indianapolis gained a 17-6 advantage in the third period when QB-Jeff George (13-28-168, 2 TDs and 1 int.) teamed with WR-Jessie Hester on a six-yard scoring play. Phoenix rallied for two final scores to gain the victory. The deciding play was a George interception by CB-Cedric Mack in the fourth period. Mack lateraled his theft to CB-Marcus Turner who completed the scoring return. Indianapolis produced 109 rushing yards and 251 net yards. The loss snapped a three-game road winning streak for Indianapolis.

HISTORY OF THE COLTS

Professional football came to Indianapolis March 28, 1984, when Colts owner Robert Irsay moved the historic NFL franchise from Baltimore to Indianapolis—the friendly heart of the midwest.

The roots of the franchise go back to December 28, 1946, when the bankrupt Miami Seahawks of the All-America Football Conference were purchased and relocated in Baltimore by a group headed by Bob Rodenberg. As the result of a contest in Baltimore, won by Charles Evans of Middle River, Md., the team was renamed the "Colts."

On September 7, 1947, wearing green and silver uniforms, the Colts under Head Coach Cecil Isbell (formerly an All-American player and coach at Purdue University) won their initial AAFC game, 16-7, over the Brooklyn Dodgers. The team concluded its inaugural season before a record Baltimore crowd of 51,583 losing to the New York Yankees, 21-7. The Colts finished the year with a 2-11-1 record good for a fourth place finish in the Eastern Division.

The Colts completed the 1948 season with a 7-8 record, tying the Buffalo Bills for the division title. The Colts compiled a 1-11 slate in 1949. The All-America Football Conference and the National Football League merged in 1950 and the Colts became a member of the NFL. After posting a 1-11 record for the second consecutive year, the franchise was dissolved by the league on January 18, 1951 because of its failing financial condition.

After two full seasons without professional football, NFL Commissioner Bert Bell challenged the franchise in December of 1952 to sell 15,000 season tickets within six weeks in order to re-enter the NFL. That 15,000-ticket quota was reached in four weeks and three days.

On January 23, 1953, under the principal ownership of Carroll Rosenbloom, the NFL's Dallas Team franchise was moved to Baltimore where, keeping the "Colts" nickname, the Texan team colors of blue and white were inherited.

Before their first NFL season, the "new" Baltimore Colts engineered one of the biggest trades in sports history. In a deal with the Cleveland Browns involving 15 players, Baltimore received 10 Browns in exchange for five Colts. Among the players who came to Baltimore in the deal were Don Shula, Bert Rechichar, Carl Taseff and Art Spinney. These players helped the Colts open the 1953 NFL season with a 13-9 upset of the Chicago Bears in a game where Bert Rechichar set a then-NFL record with a 56-yard field goal.

In 1954, the Colts hired Weeb Ewbank as head coach. Ewbank would guide the Colts for the next nine seasons (the longest tenure of any Colt head coach) and lead the club to its first divisional and world championships.

On November 30, 1958, the Colts clinched their first Western Division title with a 35-27 win over San Francisco before a record home sellout crowd of 57,557. Four weeks later, Baltimore won its first World Championship, downing the New York Giants, 23-17, in the fabled "sudden-death" overtime contest at Yankee Stadium. The Colts repeated as champion in 1959, clinching their second Western Division crown and defeating the Giants, 31-16 in Baltimore for the World Title.

In January 1963, Don Shula replaced Weeb Ewbank as the team's third head coach since 1953. During the 1963 campaign, quarterback John Unitas led the Colts offense to eight team records and set a then-NFL individual passing mark of 237 completions. The Colts won a club record eleven consecutive games in 1964, enroute to clinching their third Western Conference title and first under Shula. During that campaign, Raymond Berry caught his 506th career pass and Lenny Moore scored 20 touchdowns, both NFL records at the time. The following year, Baltimore tied Green Bay for the Western Conference title. With halfback Tom Matte quarterbacking the club because of injuries to John Unitas and Gary Cuozzo, the Colts lost a controversial 13-10 "sudden-death" playoff contest to the Packers.

Under Shula, Baltimore made its first Super Bowl appearance in 1968. The club finished first in the Coastal Division with a 13-1 mark, then defeated Minnesota, 24-14, in the Western Conference Championship game and blanked Cleveland, 34-0, for the NFL Championship. The team went on to face the American Football League Champion New York Jets in Super Bowl III, losing a 16-7 upset.

In May of 1969, the NFL merged with the AFL and Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Cleveland joined the old AFL teams to form the American Football Conference of the NFL. For the 1970 season, the Colts were situated in the Eastern Division of the AFC and on September 20, the club won its first AFC game, 16-14, over San Diego. In mid-December, Baltimore clinched its first Eastern Division Championship with a 20-14 win at Buffalo, then defeated Cincinnati and Oakland in the playoffs to win the AFC Championship. On January 17, 1971, the Colts defeated the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl V, 16-13, on Jim O'Brien's 32-yard field goal with five seconds remaining in the game.

In July, 1972, the Colts came under new ownership as Robert Irsay acquired the club from Carroll Rosenbloom in exchange for the Los Angeles Rams.

In 1974, two young Colt stars established NFL records as running back Lydell Mitchell carried the ball 40 times against the New York Jets at Shea Stadium and quarterback Bert Jones completed 17 consecutive passes against the same Jet club later in the season. Mitchell set another mark that season, winning the league pass receiving title with 72 receptions.

In 1975, Mitchell would continue his record-setting pace by becoming the first running back in Colt history to rush for 1,000 yards, gaining 1,193 yards on 289 carries.

After posting a 2-12 record in 1974, Baltimore's fortunes began to change with the hiring of Ted Marchibroda as head coach in February, 1975. Marchibroda led the Colts to three consecutive Eastern Division titles before posting back-to-back 5-11 seasons in 1978-79.

The Colts named Mike McCormack to replace Marchibroda as head coach in January, 1980. The Colts improved to a 7-9 record in 1980 before recording the worst record in Club history with a 2-14 slate in 1981.

On December 21, 1981, the Colts named Frank Kush to replace McCormack as Head Coach. In addition, Club owner Robert Irsay announced the appointment of Ernie Accorsi as General Manager on May 16, 1982.

Under Kush's guidance, the Colts recorded their first winning preseason record (3-2) since 1970. After two weeks of regular season play, a players' strike resulted in the loss of seven games per team from the 1982 schedule and each team played a nine game schedule. The Colts finished the season with a record of 0-8-1.

The Colts received the first selection in the April 26, 1983 NFL draft and selected Stanford quarterback John Elway. Six days later on May 2, the Colts traded Elway to Denver in exchange for the Broncos' 1983 first round choice, offensive tackle Chris Hinton, along with quarterback Mark Herrmann and Denver's first round choice in the 1983 NFL draft.

In 1983, the Colts forged the biggest turnaround in NFL history for a team that had gone winless the previous season. The 1983 Colts were 6-4 after week 10 and then went 7-9 on the season. The Chris Hinton acquisition proved successful as the rookie earned a starting berth at offensive guard for the AFC in the Pro Bowl. The Colts' running game came together as Curtis Dickey and Randy McMillan combined for just shy of 2,000 yards rushing to rank first in the AFC and second in the NFL.

Following the 1984 season, President Robert Irsay and General Manager Jim Irsay appointed Rod Dowhower as Head Coach on January 28, 1985. Dowhower posted a 5-11 mark that season with a club which rushed for a conference-leading 2,439 yards, fifth-best in the NFL. The team averaged 5.0 yards per attempt to lead the NFL, while marking the first time in a decade that an AFC team achieved that feat.

On December 1, 1986, Ron Meyer succeeded Dowhower as Head Coach. Meyer was instrumental in the Colts winning their final three games of the season to finish with a 3-13 record. He then led the Colts to the AFC Eastern Division title with a 9-6 record in 1987, and to a 9-7 mark in 1988. The Colts earned an 8-8 record in 1989. Indianapolis produced a 7-9 record in 1990.

In more than 30 years of National Football League competition, the Colts have achieved a 277-267-7 record, including three World Championships and 10 Conference or Division titles. The Colts' regular season victory total of 266 is among the highest of any NFL club over the last three decades.

The success of the Colts franchise is exemplified by the number of Colts who have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. A total of eight Colts have been selected for enshrinement including Raymond Berry, Art Donovan, Ted Hendricks, Gino Marchetti, Lenny Moore, Jim Parker, John Unitas and Head Coach Weeb Ewbank.

HALL OF FAME

JOHN UNITAS, QB, 6-1, 196, Louisville

1973 was the end of an era in the NFL. John Unitas, the greatest quarterback ever to put on shoulder pads, retired. After 18 years, Unitas left the game with a helmet full of records.

He was the first quarterback to pass for more than 40,000 yards. His NFL records include most consecutive seasons leading the league in touchdown passes (4) and most consecutive games with a TD pass (47), a feat that rivals Joe DiMaggio's 56-game hitting streak.

He ended his career ranked number one in NFL history in six categories: most passes attempted (5,186), most passes completed (2,830), most yards gained passing (40,239), most seasons 3,000 yards or more passing (3), most games with 300 yards or more passing (26) and most touchdown passes (290).

He also set several post-season marks including highest career completion percentage (62.9) and most yards gained in championship play (1,177).

In his 17 seasons with the Colts, he established 22 records. During his stay in Baltimore, Unitas was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player three times and played in 10 Pro Bowls, the most ever by a Colt. He was 5 times named All-Pro.

With Unitas calling signals, the Colts won World Championships in 1958 and 1959 and the Super Bowl title in 1970.

Unitas opened his quarterback career with the Colts throwing an interception for a TD to J.C. Caroline of the Bears on October 21, 1956. He ended his career with the Colts by throwing a TD to Eddie Hinton on December 3, 1972. Between those two passes he provided an entire generation of football fans with memories and moments that they will never forget.

1956	Called the "Cinderella Kid" sets NFL mark for completion percentage by a rookie 55.6%
1957	Throws for 2,550 yds and 24 TDs and is named NFL MVP.
1958	Led Colts to 23-17 overtime win against N.Y. Giants for World Championship.
1959	Throws record 32 TDs and leads team to second World Championship.
1960	Streak of 47 consecutive games with a TD pass ends. Sets an NFL record of 3,099 yds passing.
1963	Completes 237 passes for NFL record.
1964	Named the NFL's MVP, had only 6 of 305 pass attempts intercepted.
1966	Tops NFL record for career TDs with 232 and most yards gained passing 29,539.
1967	Leads the team to a 11-1-2 record and wins his third MVP award in the NFL.
1969	Named the NFL's greatest quarterback in honor of the 50th Anniversary of the league. Named the player of the decade by the Associated Press.
1970	Leads the team to its first AFC championship. Suffers a rib injury in the first half of the Colts 16-13 Super Bowl win over the Dallas Cowboys.
1973	Career ends with 40,239 yds passing on 5,186 attempts and 2,830 completions with 290 TDs, all NFL records.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP DEC. 27, 1964 CLEVELAND STADIUM

CLEVELAND 27, BALTIMORE 0—Both teams drew blanks in the first half but the Browns nailed down the World Championship with a 17-point third quarter. Quarterback Frank Ryan and fullback Jim Brown made the Cleveland attack click, as it rolled up 20 first downs to Baltimore's 11 and outgained the Colts, 339 to 171 yards. Ryan completed 11 of 18 passes for 206 yards and three touchdowns—all to end Gary Collins from distances of 18, 42 and 51 yards, while the brilliant Brown bulled for 114 yards on 27 shots as Cleveland controlled the ball. Attendance was 79,544.

NFL WESTERN DIVISION PLAYOFF DEC. 26, 1965 LAMBEAU FIELD

GREEN BAY 13, BALTIMORE 10—A courageous effort by the undermanned Colts was doomed by a pair of Don Chandler field goals—one with 1:58 remaining from 22 yards to tie the score and a second of 25 yards to conclude 13:39 of "sudden-death" action. The Colts had jumped ahead 7-0, after 21 seconds of play when Don Shinnick scooped up Bill Anderson's fumble and truded 25 yards to the end zone. They protected their edge tenaciously until the finish as Tom Matte went the route at quarterback, rushing for 57 yards and passing for 40. Zeke Bratkowski, subbing for the injured Bart Starr, completed 22 of 39 aerials for 248 yards. The Packers ran 80 plays to the Colts' 59 and led in first downs, 23-9. Attendance was 50,484.

NFL PLAYOFF DEC. 22, 1968 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 24, MINNESOTA 14—It was a cold, rainy day when the Colts tucked away the Western Conference championship of the National Football League. Just as they had done earlier in the season, the Vikings provided some uncomfortable moments after the Colts managed to obtain a big lead. It wasn't until late in the first half that the Colts were able to nab a 7-0 lead on Earl Morrall's pass to Tom Mitchell after Willie Richardson's diving catch of a 33-yard aerial put the ball at the three. John Mackey's touchdown reception and Mike Curtis' 60-yard return of a fumble made it 21-0 after three quarters. Viking quarterback Joe Kapp refused to give up and fired TD passes to Bill Martin and Bill Brown before time ran out on him. Attendance was 60,238.

JAN. 12, 1969 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

NEW YORK JETS 16, BALTIMORE 7—At Miami Orange Bowl Stadium, attendance 75,337. Jets' quarterback Joe Namath "guaranteed" victory on the Thursday before the game, then went out and led the AFL to its first Super Bowl victory over a Baltimore team that had lost one of 16 games all season. Namath, chosen the outstanding player, completed 17 of 28 passes for 206 yards and directed a steady attack that dominated the NFL champions after the Jet defense had intercepted Colt quarterback Earl Morrall three times in the first half. The Jets had 337 total yards, including 121 yards rushing by Matt Snell. John Unitas, who had missed most of the season with a sore elbow, came off the bench and led Baltimore to its only touchdown late in the fourth quarter after New York led 16-0.

DEC. 26, 1970 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 17, CINCINNATI 0—Attendance 51,127. John Unitas connected with TD passes to Roy Jefferson and Ed Hinton in the first and fourth quarters and led the Colts into the AFC title game by defeating Cincinnati. The Baltimore defense came through on a cold, windy day and limited Cincinnati to 63 yards rushing and 76 yards passing. Norm Bulaich, Colts' rookie rusher, picked up 116 yards on 25 carries. Jim O'Brien, Colts' rookie kicker and leading scorer, connected with a 44-yard FG, missed one from the same distance. A 49-yard FG try by Horst Muhlmann was blocked by Ray May. Mike Curtis, Colts' middle linebacker, made the game's only interception, picking off one of Virgil Carter's fourth-period passes, to set up an eventual final Colt score.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

JAN. 3, 1971 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

BALTIMORE 27, OAKLAND 17—At Memorial Stadium, Baltimore, Md., attendance 56,368. Johnny Unitas' passing and play calling, and the running of rookie Norm Bulaich, powered the Colts to the first AFC Championship. Bulaich scored twice and Unitas picked up 245 yards on 11 completions, with his key one coming in the fourth quarter on a 68-yard touchdown reception by Ray Perkins out of a formation of four wide receivers. George Blanda (who at 43 became the oldest player to perform in a title game when he replaced injured Daryle Lamonica in the second period) threw TD passes to Fred Biletnikoff and Warren Wells, but was intercepted three times. Ed Hinton caught five passes for the Colts for 115 yards.

SUPER BOWL V

JAN. 17, 1971 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

BALTIMORE 16, DALLAS 13—At Miami Orange Bowl Stadium, attendance 79,204. Colts' rookie Jim O'Brien climaxed one of the zaniest professional football games ever played by lofting a 32-yard field goal through the Orange Bowl uprights with five seconds left in regulation time to give Baltimore a 16-13 Super Bowl win. The brutal defensive struggle resulted in 11 turnovers, which prevented a fluid, artistic performance but contributed to the drama of the contest. Dallas nearly put the game away early in the third period when, leading 13-6, the Cowboys recovered Jim Duncan's fumble on the 2nd half kickoff and zipped to the Colts' two in five plays. Duane Thomas, however, fumbled on the next play. Rick Volk provided Baltimore with the opportunity to tie halfway through the fourth period when he intercepted Craig Morton on the Dallas 33 and returned it to the three. Tom Nowatzke punctured into the end zone and after O'Brien's PAT it was 13-13. Mike Curtis intercepted another Morton pass on the Dallas 41 in the final minute and ran it back to the 28. The Colts stopped the clock with nine seconds left in the game and O'Brien made history. Morton's desperation pass on the final play of the game was intercepted by Jerry Logan.

DEC. 26, 1971 CLEVELAND STADIUM

BALTIMORE 20, CLEVELAND 3—Attendance 74,082. Don Nottingham, playing for the injured Norm Bulaich, scored two TDs and rushed for 92 yards while Baltimore's strong defense dominated play in a 20-3 Colt victory over the Cleveland Browns that sent Baltimore into the AFC finals. Jim O'Brien added two field goals for the Colts and Don Cockroft, who had two kicks blocked by Bubba Smith, produced the Brown's only points. Rick Volk intercepted two of Bill Nelsen's passes and Charlie Stukes picked off a third. John Unitas went all the way, blending the strong running of Nottingham with passes to his favorite target, tight end Tom Mitchell, who caught 5 for 73 yards.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

JAN. 2, 1972 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0—At Orange Bowl, attendance 75,629. The Colts, playing without their starting running backs Norm Bulaich and Tom Matte, still managed to compile 302 total yards to Miami's 286 but were damaged by the Dolphins' big plays—Bob Griese to Paul Warfield 75-yard pass for TD in first period and Dick Anderson's 62-yard interception return for a TD in the third quarter. Larry Csonka carried five yards to a fourth quarter touchdown for Miami. John Unitas completed 20 of 36 passes for 224 yards but Colts were shutout for the first time since Dec. 5, 1965 (0-13 by Chicago Bears). Another big play for Miami was stopping Colts fourth and one attempt at Dolphins' nine-yard line when lead was 7-0.

AFC PLAYOFF

DEC. 27, 1975 THREE RIVERS STADIUM

PITTSBURGH 28, BALTIMORE 10—Attendance 49,053. The Colts were able to keep the game close with the defending Super Bowl champions until the final period even without the services of starting QB Bert Jones. Jones sustained a severe bruise to his throwing arm on the Colts first offensive series and was unable to return to action until the fourth quarter. Backup QB Marty Domres generated a second quarter score with a 5-yard TD toss to Glenn Doughty. The Colts trailed 14-10 after three quarters before Pittsburgh QB Terry Bradshaw scored on a 2-yard run midway through the final period. Steelers LB Andy Russell iced the victory in the final two minutes when he returned a Jones fumble 93 yards for a score.

DEC. 19, 1976 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

PITTSBURGH 40, BALTIMORE 14—Attendance 60,020. The Colts were playing "catch-up" ball all afternoon as the Steelers struck early and often. On the third play of the game, Pittsburgh stunned the Colts defense with a 76 yard TD bomb from Terry Bradshaw to Frank Lewis. Baltimore countered with a first quarter Bert Jones TD pass to Roger Carr covering 17 yards but it would be the Colts only score until the final period. A 60 yard kickoff return by Theo Bell and a 50 yard Franco Harris burst from scrimmage were key plays in building the Steelers 26-7 halftime lead. The Pittsburgh offense amassed 526 total yards as Bradshaw threw for 264 and Harris picked up 132 on the ground.

AFC PLAYOFF

DEC. 24, 1977 BALTIMORE MEMORIAL STADIUM

OAKLAND 37, BALTIMORE 31—Attendance 60,763. In one of the longest football games ever played, the Colts and Raiders needed six quarters to decide the winner of their AFC playoff game. An Errol Mann 22 yard FG with only 26 seconds left in regulation time put the game into overtime tied at 31. After a scoreless fifth quarter, Oakland ended the game when Ken Stabler hit TE Dave Casper for a 10 yard score. The lead changed hands nine times throughout the game. On offense, Ron Lee came off the bench to rush for 46 yards on 11 carries and two TDs. Defensively, Bruce Laird intercepted two passes and returned one 61 yards for a TD. On special teams, Marshall Johnson raced 87 yards with a kickoff for a score.

COLTS INDIVIDUAL RECORDS

National Football League records are indicated by an asterisk. Every attempt has been made to compile as complete a table of records as possible. Errors will be corrected if documented. Since the Colts joined the NFL in 1953, the league has increased the number of games played each season from 12 in 1953 to the current 16 in 1978. Here are the dates that the league increased the number of games played each season:

1953-60 12 games 1961-77 14 games 1978-89 16 games

Note: The 1982 NFL regular season was reduced from 16 games to nine games because of a players' strike. The 1987 season was 15 games due to a players' strike.
