MISSION STATEMENT

Believing that youth represent the community's future, the Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation is committed to serving the greater Jacksonville area through strategic financial, networking and volunteer support benefitting economically and socially disadvantaged youth and families. By building upon our city's strengths, we seek to realize the positive potential of our young people in need. In doing so, we aim to serve as a model to other sports franchises.

PROGRAMS:

GRANTMAKING: When the Jaguars were named as the 36th franchise in 1993, the Weavers' vision was to give back to the community in a substantive manner. The Foundation was announced on September 14, 1994, and awarded its first grants before the team played its first game. From March 1995 through June 2003, the Jaguars Foundation has allocated more than $6.5 million dollars in grants. This level of giving is among the top few in professional sports. Through a fair and objective evaluation process, grants have been allocated to serve the needs of economically and socially disadvantaged youth through northeast Florida.

STRAIGHT TALK: Straight Talk is a unique partnership with local media and Blue Cross Blue Shield of Florida to help prevent teen pregnancy, HIV/AIDS and other sexually transmitted infections. Under the leadership of Foundation Chair and CEO, and Jaguars co-owner, Delores Barr Weaver, all local television stations, along with other area media collaborate to produce an annual prime-time television town hall forum. The show offers candid information on teens and sex and the consequences faced by sexually active teenagers. The cornerstone of the Straight Talk Initiative, "Teens & Sex... the Real Truth," is broadcast each May and this year featured celebrity

Jonathan Wesley, Jaguars safety Donovan Darius, radio personalities Amadeus and DJ Dr. Doom, local favorite Jennifer Candelino, Delores Barr Weaver, a guest panel of professional counselors, and an all-teen studio audience. The Straight Talk program, in partnership with the Weaver Family Foundation, has awarded more than $750,000 in grants to local programs specifically dealing with this issue. For more information, log onto straighttalk.jacksonville.com, which was created in partnership with the Florida Times-Union.

HONOR ROWS: In partnership with Reebok and ALLTEL, this unique program, now in its ninth year, uses seats at Jaguars home games as incentives for youth to earn a seat to the game by setting and achieving ambitious but realistic goals for academic achievement, behavioral improvement and participation in community service projects. In addition, all Honor Rows youth pledge to remain free from drugs, alcohol and tobacco. For 2003, approximately 4,000 seats are being awarded to 41 agencies. Each agency has the flexibility and creativity necessary to determine how best to use seats as motivational goals. A volunteer committee reviews all applications. At the games, participants receive a meal, an Honor Rows T-shirt and hat, and special recognition by the Weavers and fans. The United Way of Northeast Florida provides volunteers who ensure the overall safety and enjoyment of the participants. In addition to the Honor Rows, Jaguars Foundation programs, using home game seats for charitable purposes include HabJax, for volunteer recognition; Sailors' Aweigh, for youth whose parents are on deployment with the Navy; youth football; and support for volunteerism and other charitable organizations. The Jaguars Foundation allocates approximately 11,800 seats each season for charitable purposes, with a total in-kind value exceeding $400,000.

PLAYBOOKS READING INITIATIVE: Through a partnership with Pepsi, Reebok and local libraries, this award-winning innovative program was begun to inspire young people to read. In The Official Playbooks, Jaguars owners, players, coaches, cheerleaders and staff recommend books they found particularly motivating as youth or as adults today. Youth can pick up The Official Playbooks during the football season at local libraries. Playbooks can also be accessed year-round at the interactive website: playbooks.org, where children can submit book reports and are eligible to win prizes. The Foundation also awarded approximately $300,000 annually to programs that promote literacy. In addition, players, cheerleaders and team mascot JAXSON de VILLE visit dozens of schools, libraries and youth-serving agencies to encourage reading.

ANTI-TOBACCO INITIATIVE: The team and the Foundation have taken a nationally recognized leadership position in the local and professional sports community against tobacco use. The signature Jaguars Don't Smoke logo, which shows a vibrant Jaguar squashing a pack of cigarettes under its paw, appears on the scoreboard and signage throughout ALLTEL Stadium; Jaguars publications and autograph cards; and on television. The stadium has never engaged in tobacco advertising or product sales. The Jaguars set an exceptional precedent as the first team in the NFL to have tobacco advertising removed from the back cover of the Jaguars GameDay program, since followed by the entire league.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITION: The Jaguars Foundation's innovative programs have been nationally recognized, including articles in the New York Times, Forbes, Grantmanship Center Magazine, St. Anthony Messenger, and on the "Osgood File" radio program. Awards include the Governor's Community Investment Award (1996) for the Honor Rows program; WTLV-12 Top of the Class Award (1996) for Playbooks; Bridge Builder Award (1997); Grantmakers in Health (1995 and 1996); and Florida Department of Education's Commissioner's Business Recognition Award (2001). Also, in 2001 the Jaguars Foundation was asked by The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation to serve as a national demonstration site for other professional teams' foundations in conjunction with a three-year initiative by the Sports Philanthropy Project to increase the level of philanthropy in professional sports.

SPONSORS: Many of the Jaguars Foundations programs and initiatives are funded in part by ALLTEL, Blue Cross Blue Shield of Florida, Pepsi, Reebok and The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.

DELORES BARR

WEAVER

CHAIR/CEO, JAGUARS FOUNDATION

Delores Barr Weaver, a native of Columbus, Ga., and co-owner/partner of the Jaguars, is a woman possessed by the opportunity to make a difference in her adopted hometown of Jacksonville. Delores has a sincere interest in many areas of need, and through the Weaver Family Foundation she and husband, Wayne, have supported the work of many local agencies. The Weavers have been married 48 years and have two children, Brad and Leigh, a 15-year-old granddaughter, Morgan, and an eight-month-old grandson, Nash. Leigh is the artist of TOUCHDOWN, the 16-foot-long and six-foot-high bronze Jaguar that stands outside the West Touchdown Club at ALLTEL Stadium.

Delores is committed to helping families and young people in the Jacksonville community lead self-sufficient, meaningful lives. Under her leadership, all seven local television stations and their affiliates, as well as the local newspaper, have joined in partnership to address the problem of teen pregnancy, AIDS, and increased male responsibility. Teen pregnancy is a major personal concern for Delores and is being addressed by the Foundation and local media in the effort to develop a quality prevention program for teens and to heighten awareness of adults in Jacksonville.

When asked about being a member of the public speaking circuit, Delores laughs and says, "It is interesting to note that until November 30, 1993, no one seemed to care what I was interested in, what good work I might be doing or what I had to say." Then she gives the credit to the Jaguars who "open the doors, and I must walk through as many as I can." As to accomplishments, Delores is most proud of the Jaguars Foundation and the impact it has made on behalf of economically and socially disadvantaged children in the greater Jacksonville area. For Delores, the Foundation was a dream come true in September 1994. In March 1995, six months before the Jaguars played their first game, the first grants to eight local agencies in the amount of $140,000 were made, and through June 2003, the Foundation had allocated more than $6.5 million in grants. When talking about the Foundation, she is quick to credit Jaguars partners for their generous financial support and staff for their commitment to supporting programs that will have a long-term impact.

In addition to her concerns for Jacksonville's children, Delores has set a personal goal to help level the playing field of life for women and minorities. She is dedicated to eliminating sexism, racism and classism from the hearts, minds and vocabulary of our society.

Locally, Delores serves on the Governing Boards of the Jacksonville Community Foundation, USO Council, WJCT Public Broadcasting, Ritz Theatre and LaVilla Museum, and she serves as Trustee of Fresh Ministries and the United Way of Northeast Florida. She also serves on the Advisory Boards of Ronald McDonald House and The Bridge of Northeast Florida, the Honorary Board of Dreams Come True, and the Edward Waters College Board of Visitors. Delores is a staunch supporter of the three local domestic violence shelters: Betty Griffin House, Hubbard House and Quigley House, as well as Planned Parenthood and is a member of The International Women's Forum. She is Chair of the Delores Barr Weaver Golf Tournament benefiting HablJax, Jacksonville's affiliate of Habitat for Humanity. The 2003 tournament will build seven houses, bringing the total houses built since 1996 to 38, which represents a cash contribution of $1.310 million to HablJax. In addition, she is the Founder of Friends of HablJax. Through the Florida Sales Tax Refund Program to build low-income housing, a total of 23 organizations have been designated Charitable Members of Friends in 2002 and 2003, and the 107th Friends' house will be completed by year's end, representing a cash contribution to HablJax of $3.6 million. Delores says, "We can build houses for children, but then we must pray they will have a family to make it a home."

Nationally, Delores is a member of the Governing Boards of Martha Graham Dance Company, and NFL Charities, both of New York, Taste of the NFL/Hunger Related Events of Minnesota, and the Dana-Farber Marathon Challenge and the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute of Boston, where Delores and Wayne have created the Claudia Adams Barr Program in Basic Cancer Research in memory and honor of her mother who lost her battle with cancer in 1957. Delores refers to cancer as her only known enemy and believes the answer to cures, and the eventual elimination of that dreaded disease, will be found at the workbench of research. The Weavers were instrumental in creating the Marathon Challenge, which provides an opportunity for participants in the Boston Marathon to raise funds for the work of the Barr Program. Since inception in 1990, the Challenge has raised over $18 million.

And, yes, Delores was a football fan long before the Jaguars. She attends every game, and readily admits she is both nervous and excited on game day.

PETER

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, JAGUARS FOUNDATION

Peter Racine joined the Jaguars Foundation in 2000 as director of programs and assumed the position of executive director in 2001.

For the past 20 years, he has developed and administered programs for abused, neglected, homeless and runaway children, including eight years as executive director of the Northeast Florida Exchange Club Center for the Prevention of Child Abuse. From 1987 to 1990, as executive director for Covenant House in Honolulu, he established the agency's programs for street children in that country. Prior to that, he worked at Covenant House in Houston, New York City and Toronto. Racine has been a partner in various national and international initiatives, including Community Partnerships for Protecting Children, sponsored by the Edna McConnell Clark Foundation; Early Childhood Violence Prevention Project, funded by the U. S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention; Outreach to Urban Street Children, supported by the European Economic Community; and the Sports Philanthropy Project, in partnership with The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.

Racine received a B.A. at Rutgers, and a M.T.S. at Catholic Theological Union in Chicago. He and his wife, Kelly, have a daughter, Miriam.

MARJORIE SABIO MARQUEZ PROGRAM OFFICER

Marjorie Sabio Marquez has been with the Jaguars Foundation since its inception in 1994. She served as coordinator of grants and special programs prior to being promoted to program officer in 2001. Her responsibilities include Straight Talk, the Foundation's teen pregnancy prevention initiative; Playbooks, the reading program; grantmaking and evaluation. Marquez received a B.A. degree in English with a concentration in communication from Boston College in 1990. She recently married Romualdo "Rodnie" Marquez Jr.

TAREK TABET PROGRAM OFFICER

Tarek Tabet joined the Jaguars Foundation as a program officer in 2001. His responsibilities include grantmaking and evaluation, as well as management of the Honor Rows and General Charitable Use seating programs. Before joining the Foundation, he served as program director and community planner at the Jacksonville Community Council Inc., where he managed the Forward initiative for emerging leaders. Tabet was born in Beirut, Lebanon. He earned a B.S. degree from Syracuse and a M.A. from Regent University. He and his wife, Iona, have three boys, Wesley, Christian and Jonathan.

WEAVERCHAIRMAN AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Wayne Weaver is a man driven by a challenge. When the 2002 season ended, he saw a need for change, and he was ready to meet his latest challenge. After three straight losing seasons, Weaver hired a new head coach and new vice president of player personnel to run his football team. He also assumed a greater role in running his organization. In the NFL, winning is all that matters, and Weaver wants to win again and guide the Jaguars back into the upper echelon of the NFL.

In eight years under Weaver's ownership, the Jaguars grew from an expansion team into one of the most successful franchises in professional sports history. The club's losing records in each of the last three seasons re-ignited Weaver's fire. The 2003 offseason saw the greatest changes since the franchise was born. He is a man who does not like to lose. And he sees better days ahead ... just like in days past, the days of 1996 to '99, when the Jaguars were the winningest franchise in the NFL.

"After three losing seasons, it became obvious that we needed to make a change," Weaver said. "It was a very difficult decision to make, but it was the right one. We brought in Jack Del Rio and James Harris, and they had fresh ideas and new approaches. Clearly it has re-energized the organization. It has re-energized the city. And I see a new spirit in the players. We're excited about the upcoming season. I think we can surprise some people this year. It's always nice when people don't have great expectations for you, and you then overachieve."

Surprising the skeptics is nothing new for the Jaguars. In 1993, Weaver surprised everybody by winning an NFL expansion franchise for the city of Jacksonville. In 1995 he presided over the building of one of the NFL's showpiece stadiums and four victories for his inaugural team. In 1996 he watched his second-year dream team win two playoff games — the victory over the Denver Broncos is one of pro football's biggest upsets ever — and reach within one game of the Super Bowl. In 1997 Weaver saw his Jaguars win 11 games, more than any third-year NFL team has ever won. In 1998, the Jaguars won their first division championship and the franchise hosted its first-ever home playoff game. In 1999, the Jaguars finished with the NFL's best record, a 14-2 mark that is tied for the fourth-most victories ever in league history, as the Jaguars hosted the AFC Championship game. And in 2000, Weaver helped bring a Super Bowl to Jacksonville, as the city was selected by his fellow owners to host Super Bowl XXXIX on February 6, 2005.

"I think we can surprise some people this year. It's always nice when people don't have great expectations for you, and you then overachieve. We're excited about the chances of this football team being very competitive. We'll take one game at a time and see what happens."

— Wayne Weaver

As the Jaguars head into their ninth season, they are still the most successful expansion franchise in NFL history. Champions of the AFC Central Division in 1998 and '99, they qualified for the playoffs four straight seasons from 1996 to '99. Those kinds of milestones are the result of Weaver's commitment to winning. Every year a new mountain to climb. Every year a new success. Every year even higher dreams. One goal remains: a Super Bowl championship. But first, he knows, is to get back into playoff contention.

One of the nation's most successful entrepreneurs, Weaver brought his enthusiasm and business acumen to Jacksonville, a city that was yearning for professional football. He wanted a model franchise and a team that would contend for the playoffs in a short time. He also wanted success both on and off the field, with players whose character is the pride of the city and a charitable Foundation that was chosen by The Robert Wood Foundation as a demonstration site model for major league sports foundations and teams.

Weaver serves as the Jaguars' chairman and chief executive officer, overseeing the day-to-day operations of the team while allowing his hand-picked staff the autonomy to do its jobs. That's the Weaver way, and it has long proven to be a winning way.

But if football is his passion, Weaver also takes pride and joy in his other businesses. He is chairman and the Weaver family is majority owner of Shoe Carnival, Inc., one of the nation's fastest-growing shoe retailers that is based in Evansville, Ind. He also serves as chairman and CEO of Liz Claiborne Shoes, a wholesale distributor to upscale department stores across the country that is headquartered in Jacksonville. Previously, Weaver was co-owner, president and CEO of Nine West Group, Inc., the leading designer and marketer of women's footwear.

Throughout his business career, Weaver has maintained a commitment to philanthropic endeavors. Since the awarding of the Jaguars franchise, Wayne and Delores Weaver have focused their charitable efforts through the Weaver Family Foundation and the Jaguars Foundation, in addition to their long-standing commitment to the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute in Boston. Wayne and Delores serve on the Institute's Board of Directors, and they support the Boston Marathon Challenge, which has raised over $18 million for the Claudia Adams Barr Program in Basic Cancer Research. The Barr Program is named in memory of Delores' mother.

Weaver is a member of four NFL committees: Finance, Audit, Business Ventures and the Pro Football Hall of Fame Board of Trustees. He is past chairman of the Fashion Footwear Association of New York, and also serves on the boards of Stein Mart, the Cummer Museum of Arts and Gardens, the Jacksonville Zoo and the Alliance for World Class Education.

Weaver was born on January 14, 1935 in Columbus, Ga. A high-school graduate, he rose through the ranks of Brown Group, Inc., a major St. Louis-based shoe company. After serving as senior vice president, he departed in 1978 to become president and CEO of Nine West. Wayne and Delores live in Jacksonville. They have been married for 48 years and have a daughter Leigh, a son Bradley, a 13-year-old granddaughter Morgan, and an eight-month-old grandson Nash.

PAUL

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, FOOTBALL OPERATIONS/ GENERAL COUNSEL

Paul Vance has served as senior vice president of football operations since 2001, after serving for seven years as the Jaguars' general counsel and vice president of administration. He oversees all football operations for the Jaguars, with primary responsibility for negotiating player contracts and administering the salary cap, as well as overall football budget and administration. He also manages the team's video, training and equipment departments. As the franchise's general counsel, he oversees all Jaguars legal matters, including business contracts, licensing and litigation.

Vance has been with the Jaguars since July 1994, following 21 years with a large Stamford, Conn., law firm. While there, he represented Wayne Weaver and Touchdown Jacksonville during the expansion process. Since coming to Jacksonville, Vance has been of counsel with the Jacksonville office of Foley & Lardner, which serves as the primary law firm of the Jaguars. In private practice, Vance emphasized corporate and transactional work.

Vance did his undergraduate studies at the University of Rochester, where he received a bachelor's degree in economics in 1969. While at Rochester, he played baseball and was captain of the school's basketball team. He received his juris doctor degree in 1973 from Columbia, where he was a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar.

He serves on the board of Jacksonville's Museum of Science and History and the MalVal Washington Kids Foundation. Vance is a member of the Business Advisory Council of the University of North Florida School of Business. He has served as a member of the steering committee of Downtown Visions, Inc., which successfully organized a business improvement district in downtown Jacksonville. He is admitted to practice law in Connecticut and Florida, and is a member of the Connecticut, Florida and Jacksonville Bar Associations. Vance was born November 12, 1947 in Buffalo, N.Y. He and his wife, Jane, live in Jacksonville. They have four children: daughters Kerry and Jamie and sons Jordan and Derek.

DAN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, SALES AND MARKETING

Dan Connell oversees all of the Jaguars' for-profit and marketing efforts, including corporate sponsorship, ticket operations and ticket sales, creative services and special events, as well as interaction with the NFL office on marketing issues and city public relations.

Connell and the Jaguars' marketing department were featured in a 2000 issue of Sports Business Journal. "The integrated marketing approach the Jaguars have wielded is a textbook description that any professional sports entity would be wise to emulate."

Connell joined the Jaguars on March 16, 1994, but his involvement with the team predated his hiring. As executive vice president of First Union Bank of Jacksonville, he was instrumental in rallying the Jacksonville business community in support of the city's expansion bid. His creativity and effort were instrumental in making possible Jacksonville's club seat drive in which NFL NOW! sold more than 10,000 premium seats in just 10 days in August 1993, a $75 million show of community support that the NFL expansion committee was not able to overlook.

During his 33 years as a resident of Jacksonville, Connell has been deeply involved in the community, serving on various boards. In 1997, he was chairman of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce and a commissioner on the Jacksonville Economic Development Commission. He presently serves as a member of the Wachovia Bank Advisory Board and is a trustee of Longleaf Partners Fund Trust. He is director emeritus and past president of the University of North Florida Foundation, Inc.

Connell received a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Florida in 1970. He and his wife, Mary, have two sons, Andrew and Russell, and a daughter-in-law Meredith (Andrew's wife).

BILL

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT/ CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Bill Prescott is the senior vice president of stadium operations/chief financial officer for the Jaguars. He oversees the financial operations and information technology of the team. He is responsible for managing the Jaguars' portion of ALLTEL Stadium year-round, as well as the relationships with SMG (facility and game day operations) and Volume Services and Levy Restaurants (concession operations). Prescott also interacts with the NFL and city of Jacksonville on financial matters.

For the last year, Prescott's major responsibility has been overseeing the design and construction of a $40 million renovation of ALLTEL Stadium in time for the 2003 season. For the 2004 season, he will oversee $5 million of stadium renovations in preparation for Super Bowl XXXIX in February 2005.

Prescott is also responsible for the financial operations of other Wayne Weaver-related entities, such as Liz Claiborne Shoes, the DAR Group, the Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation and the Weaver Family Foundation. He has been involved with the Jaguars since their inception and has also handled the Weavers' finances since 1980. Prescott met Weaver while he worked as a tax manager for Deloitte & Touche. In 1989, Prescott joined Grill, Gilhuly, Prescott & Co. CPAs as a partner, where he continued to work with Wayne and Delores Weaver.

A native of the Bronx, N.Y., Prescott is a graduate of Pace University with a degree in accounting and a master's degree in taxation. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Connecticut Society of CPAs and the Financial Executive Institute. He holds CPA licenses in both Connecticut and Florida. Prescott was recently appointed vice chairman for the Mohawk District of the Boy Scouts of North Florida. His hobbies include tennis, sailing and skiing. Prescott was born May 7, 1956. He has two sons, Christopher and Michael. He and his wife, Kim, live in Ponte Vedra Beach.

HARRISVICE PRESIDENT, PLAYER PERSONNEL

James Harris was named vice president of player personnel for the Jaguars on January 23, 2003. Harris came to Jacksonville from the Baltimore Ravens, where he played an important role in all aspects of the team's personnel decisions and acquisitions. With the Jaguars, Harris — known as "Shack" to just about everyone who knows him — is responsible for all player acquisitions, including the annual college draft, unrestricted free agents, veteran free agents, trades and undrafted rookies.

In his short time with the team, Harris and the player personnel staff have made significant contributions through the acquisition of first-round draft choice QB Byron Leftwich and several veteran free agents, including All-Pro DE Hugh Douglas. In May 2003, Sports Illustrated named him the 36th most influential minority person in sports, writing that his background as one of the first black quarterbacks in the NFL, as well as being the first to start a playoff game "groomed Harris as a leader." It further described him as "a terrific talent evaluator."

Harris was the director of pro personnel for the Ravens from 1997 until joining the Jaguars, working closely with Baltimore's executive vice president/general manager Ozzie Newsome. Harris was a key component in the Ravens' success in acquiring key free agents, including Pro Bowlers such as QB Jeff Blake (1995 Pro Bowl) and TE Shannon Sharpe (eight Pro Bowls). During his first two seasons with Baltimore, Harris recommended DE Michael McCrary (1998-99 Pro Bowls), DT Tony Siragusa and S Rod Woodson (1999-2001 Pro Bowls). The Ravens also signed key free agents DT Sam Adams from Seattle (2000-01 Pro Bowls) and QB Trent Diller from Tampa Bay prior to the team's Super Bowl run in 2000.

Newsome said "I am happy he gets this opportunity that he so much deserves. For us, James was our veteran presence in the personnel department... much like Rod Woodson and Shannon Sharpe were to our Super Bowl team. He was a voice of reason in all of our personnel decisions for the last six years."

Harris was the New York Jets' assistant general manager for four years (1993-96) after scouting for six seasons for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-92). A former quarterback, he played for three teams: Buffalo Bills (1969-71), L.A. Rams (1972-76) and San Diego Chargers (1977-81). He was drafted in the eighth round by the Buffalo Bills (1969) out of Grambling. During his 12-year career in the NFL as a quarterback, Harris led the NFL with an 89.8 passer rating in 1976 and was named MVP of the 1975 Pro Bowl when he rallied the NFC to a 14-13 victory with two touchdown passes. His best day came against Miami in 1976 with 17 completions in 29 attempts for 436 yards and two touchdowns.

Harris was coached by college football's winningest coach, Grambling's Eddie Robinson. The Tigers won or shared the SWAC title in each of his four seasons with the team from 1965 to '68. He was named MVP of the 1967 Orange Blossom Classic and was named Pittsburgh Courier Player of the Year in 1968. Harris earned a bachelor's degree in education and was subsequently nominated as a distinguished alumnus for his contributions to American society during his NFL career. Harris was a legendary athlete at Carroll High School in his hometown of Monroe, La., which won 39 consecutive games. He has been inducted into the SWAC Hall of Fame, the Grambling Athletic Hall of Fame and the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame.

He and his wife, Vicki, now reside in Jacksonville.

"The most effective way to achieve sound results is for ownership, coaching, personnel and cap management to work together in a cohesive manner, understanding that the foundation of the team is built through the draft. Our ultimate success will be accomplished through the skilled talent evaluations of our player personnel staff coupled with sound decisions that enhance our overall team concept."

— James Harris

TIM

VICE PRESIDENT/ DEVELOPMENT

Long-time football executive Tim Connolly joined the Jaguars on March 31, 2003 as the team's vice president of development. He is primarily responsible for the Jaguars' Super Bowl XXXIX project, an initiative to help fund the capital improvements to ALLTEL Stadium to prepare for the 2005 Super Bowl.

Connolly previously spent two years with the Minnesota Vikings and seven years with the Kansas City Chiefs. He served as executive vice president and general manager of the Vikings in 1998 and '99. The Vikings posted a 15-1 record and played in the NFC Championship game in his first season. In his nine years of working in a managerial role in the National Football League, seven with the Chiefs (1989-95) and two with the Vikings (1998-99), Connolly has been with teams that have posted a 97-46-1 record on the field, and he has never been with a club that had a losing record. Connolly is best known for building strong front office teams and delivering record-level stadium revenues.

In 1999, the Vikings sold the most season tickets in the franchise's 39-year history, 16,000 more than the previous season. In Kansas City, Connolly served as the Chiefs' executive vice president and chief operating officer. He was a key element of the franchise's turnaround effort, helping position the Chiefs as one of the dominant teams of the 1990s on and off the field. When Connolly arrived in Kansas City, the Chiefs had 25,000 season ticket-holders and had participated in only one playoff game in 17 years. In Connolly's first year in Kansas City, the team's attendance rose 55 percent, and the Chiefs led the NFL in home attendance in 1994 and '95. During Connolly's tenure with the Chiefs, they missed the playoffs only once in seven years. The Chiefs organization became a model of consistency, ranking near the top of the league in wins, attendance, revenue and profit.

Connolly has held executive positions with IBM, Bell Atlantic and Ameritech, and he worked directly for Chiefs owner Lamar Hunt as president of the Hunt Sports Group. Connolly arrived in Kansas City after serving as president and chief executive officer of two Bell Atlantic subsidiaries. He began his business career in 1971 with the IBM Corporation, where he served in various sales, staff and management positions. Connolly graduated from George Washington University. He was born July 20, 1948 in San Diego. He has three children, Jennifer, Brie and John, and resides in Jacksonville.

DAN

VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS AND MEDIA

Dan Edwards was promoted to vice president of communications and media on May 9, 2003. He is responsible for overseeing all aspects of the Jaguars' internal and external communications, including media relations, community relations, publications, the team's award-winning web site (jaguars.com) and the team's Emmy-winning in-house broadcasting department. The broadcasting department received a 2002 regional Emmy Award for its special "Making of an NFL Broadcast" and is eligible for more Emmys in 2003.

Hired more than a year before the team's first game, Edwards is now in his 20th season in the NFL and his 10th year with the Jaguars. He was named executive director of communications on May 4, 1994, and he took over responsibility for the broadcasting department in 2001. Formerly the public relations director for the Pittsburgh Steelers (1987-93), he brought to the Jaguars 10 years of NFL experience working with the Pittsburgh Steelers, Miami Dolphins and the league office.

After receiving a scholarship from NFL Charities and serving as a public relations intern in the NFL office in 1984, Edwards spent the 1984 season working in publicity for the Miami Dolphins, who played in Super Bowl XIX that year. In 1985 Edwards joined the Steelers as assistant public relations director, and in 1987 he was named director of public relations. In 1991, the Steelers' public relations department received the coveted Pete Rozelle Award, which is presented annually by the Pro Football Writers of America to the NFL's top PR staff. Edwards' Jaguars staff in both 1996 and '98 was voted one of three finalists for the award. He has also worked for the NFL Super Bowl staff at 15 Super Bowls in addition to the 1990 Pro Bowl.

Prior to entering the NFL, Edwards worked in professional baseball, spending one season as an administrative assistant with the Eugene (Ore.) Emeralds, a single-A affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds. He played football and baseball for Montgomery College (Md.) before transferring to the University of Oregon. Edwards received his undergraduate degree in business administration/management from the Charles H. Lundquist College of Business at the University of Oregon in 1981 and a master's degree in sports administration/facility management from Ohio University in 1984.

Edwards currently serves as chairman of the communications strategy committee for the Jacksonville Super Bowl Host Committee. He is a past member of the board of directors for the Florida Sports Awards, and he also served on the Sport Management Advisory Council for Flagler College. He was born January 15, 1959 in Denver, and he grew up in the Washington, D.C. area. Edwards and his wife Tricia have four children: sons Christian and Preston and daughters Danielle and Victoria.

SCOTT

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, TICKET SALES AND SERVICE

Scott Loft was named executive director of ticket sales and service for the Jaguars in August 2002. He is responsible for all aspects of ticket sales, including season and group ticket sales, sales management, ticket operations, customer service, premium seat sales and service, and creative services.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Loft was vice president of sales for the Nashville Predators of the National Hockey League. He was one of the first employees of the expansion team and was responsible for forming the ticket sales and service departments in an attempt to sell 12,000 season tickets in six months to gain the NHL franchise. The Predators sold more than 12,000 tickets in that time, the first NHL or NBA franchise to do so. The Predators played to more than 90 percent capacity and received a 95 percent "outstanding" or "good" customer service rating from their fans during Loft's four seasons with the franchise. Before joining the NHL, he spent one season as vice president of ticket sales for the Chicago Wolves of the International Hockey League, and nine seasons as director of ticket sales of the NBA's Philadelphia 76ers.

Loft received a bachelor's degree in sports administration from Ball State in 1998 and a master's degree in sports management from Temple in 1990. He lives in Fleming Island, Fla. with his wife Cathy and six-year old son Josh.

TIMOTHY

BISHKO

DIRECTOR, TICKET OPERATIONS

Timothy Bishko has been the director of ticket operations for the Jaguars since 2000. He is responsible for ticket operations and ticket distribution. Bishko joined the Jaguars in September 1994 as a ticket specialist, and he worked his way up the ranks to his current position. Prior to joining the Jaguars, he was an intern in the athletic department at Jacksonville University.

Bishko received an associates degree in sports administration from Becker College in 1991 and a bachelor's degree in sport management from the University of Massachusetts in 1994. He was born November 3, 1971 in Hadley, Mass. Bishko is single and lives in Jacksonville.

EDWINA

DIRECTOR, FINANCE

Edwina Britton was named director of finance for the Jaguars on March 10, 2003. She oversees the organization's finance department and is responsible for budgeting, financial statements, collective bargaining agreement statements and special reports to the NFL.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Britton worked as business manager for the Mobile Revelers, an NBA-owned development league team. She has also worked as finance manager of the Birmingham Thunderbolts of the XFL, and as finance director for both the Birmingham Barons and the Alabama Symphony Orchestra. Before moving to the United States in 1996, she worked for Price Waterhouse Coopers and for Wise Speke (stockbrokers). A native of Ireland, Britton has a masters' degree in business studies from Trinity College in Dublin. She was born on April 3, 1963 and resides in Jacksonville.

JENNIFER

DIRECTOR, CREATIVE SERVICES

Jennifer Johnston was promoted to director of creative services on May 2, 2002. She had been the Jaguars' manager of creative services for the previous two years. She is responsible for advertising and marketing initiatives for ticket sales, corporate sponsorship and event promotions, as well as brand management for the team.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, she worked for Cook Marketing Communications for seven years. She was an account executive for the last four years and handled the Jaguars' account from 1997 to 2000 until joining the team.

Johnston graduated from Hollins College in Roanoke, Va. in 1993 with a degree in communications. She was born on July 24, 1971 in Rochester, Minn. and grew up in Jacksonville.

BO

DIRECTOR, SPECIAL EVENTS/PROMOTIONS

Bo Reed has been the Jaguars' director of special events and promotions since 2001. He is responsible for all Jaguars game enhancement, stadium Jumbotron, audio and matrix board operations, the team mascot and cheerleading programs, game day promotions, fan interactive areas and corporate and ticketing hospitality areas, as well as most non-game events.

He came to the Jaguars on June 30, 1997 and previously served as a coordinator (1997) and manager (1998-2001) in special events. Prior to joining the Jaguars, he worked as event services manager for SMG-Memphis (1996-1997) and SMG-Jacksonville (1995-1996). He has assisted with the pregame and postgame production of the last five Super Bowls.

Reed attended Virginia Tech before transferring to Illinois State and graduating in 1994 with degrees in commercial recreation and program management. He was born on September 16, 1971 in Virginia Beach, Va. He and his wife, Elizabeth, have twin sons Brooks and Davis.

SKIP

DIRECTOR, FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

After serving four years as director of security for the Jaguars, Skip Richardson was named director of football operations in 1999. He oversees all administrative matters for the football operations department, including player programs, team travel and security, as well as coordination and management of the team's facilities. He is a member of the NFL security task force that was established after September 11, 2001.

In 2000, the Jaguars were honored with the "Most Outstanding Player Development Program" award at NFL meetings in San Diego.

A veteran of 23 years in law enforcement, Richardson joined the Jaguars on July 21, 1995. He still directs every phase of security for the team, as well as handling security matters involving the NFL office. He works closely with local, state and federal law enforcement agencies. Richardson was previously a police S.W.A.T. team supervisor for the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and planned security for all special events held in Jacksonville, such as the annual Florida-Georgia game, the Gator Bowl and the Jazz Festival. Richardson retired as a supervisor from the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office in 1995.

He received a degree in criminology from Florida State. A native of Jacksonville, Richardson is active in the Police Athletic League, Big Brothers/Big Sisters and the Jacksonville Symphony Guild. He is a member of the American Society for Industrial Security, National Association of Chiefs of Police, and the Florida Association of Licensed Investigators.

Richardson was born December 31, 1953. He and his wife, Ann, have a son, Brett, and a daughter, Kristen.

BRUCE

DIRECTOR,
INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

As director of information technology, Bruce Swindell is responsible for the development, procurement, implementation and management of computer-related technology and training within the Jaguars organization. This support extends to all facets of the organization, and includes database and application development and support, network administration, help desk support and hardware maintenance. Swindell guided the development of the team's award-winning website (www.jaguars.com) when it went online in 1995. He serves as the AFC South Division representative on the NFL's technical advisory committee.

Swindell joined the Jaguars on November 29, 1994, following 21 years of service in the U.S. Navy. Prior to joining the Jaguars, he managed a software development and maintenance facility and served as a database administrator in Charleston, S.C. During his Naval career, he served in various locations throughout the United States and the world, including Iceland, Puerto Rico and the British Indian Ocean Territories.

Swindell was born December 1, 1954 in Woodbury, N.J., and received a degree in business administration from Limestone College in Gaffney, S.C. He and his wife, Jane, have a son, Wade, and a daughter, Erica.

JACK

HEAD COACH

NFL: 18TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Jack Del Rio was named head coach of the Jaguars on January 17, 2003, becoming the second head coach in franchise history. Del Rio was the defensive coordinator of the Carolina Panthers in 2002, his sixth season as an NFL assistant coach. He previously spent 11 years as an NFL linebacker and had a standout college career at the University of Southern California. At 40, Del Rio is the second-youngest head coach in the NFL, just four months older than Tampa Bay's Jon Gruden.

Del Rio has learned from some of the best coaches in all of football. He was recruited to USC and played for John Robinson, and in the NFL he played under Bum Phillips, Jim Mora, Frank Gansz, Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Green. As an assistant coach, he has worked for Hall of Famer Mike Ditka and Super Bowl winner Brian Billick, as well as John Fox.

Del Rio is now the head coach, the most visible person in the organization. But he knows it will take a team effort to help his team win games.

"You can't be a good coach without good players," Del Rio said. "Having (vice president of player personnel) James Harris here helping acquire a talent base is huge for us. Second, you have to have a staff that can teach those players and take them to another level. Third, you need a little good fortune. You have to catch some breaks and get hot at the right time. The key for us is to build a team that can find its way into the playoffs and give us an opportunity to compete for a title.

"This year, first and foremost, we want to establish an identity. We want to win our fair share of football games. But the most important thing we can do is establish what the Jacksonville Jaguars are all about and re-establish this franchise as one of the top franchises in the league. We want to be explosive on offense, attacking, swarming and physical on defense, and opportunistic in all three phases."

Del Rio joined the Carolina Panthers' staff on January 27, 2002 as the team's defensive coordinator. In his only season with Carolina, the defense improved to second in the league from 31st in 2001. Despite coming off a 1-15 season, the Panthers' defense allowed only 290.4 yards per game, behind only the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Carolina led the NFL in fewest rushing yards per attempt (3.7) and were second in three other categories: fewest yards per play, third down efficiency and sacks (52). The Panthers allowed only 302 points, fourth fewest in the league. They did not allow a 300-yard passer and didn't yield a 100-yard rusher until the season finale. The Panthers' Julius Peppers was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year.

From 1999 to 2001, Del Rio was the linebackers coach of the Baltimore Ravens, helping the team win Super Bowl XXXV over the New York Giants. For those three years, all of which the Ravens finished second in total defense, Del Rio coached the Ravens' talented linebackers, overseeing the development of Peter Boulware, Jamie Sharper and Ray Lewis, the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year in 2000 and the MVP of Super Bowl XXXV. During the Ravens' Super Bowl championship season in 2000, Baltimore's defense set the NFL 16-game record by allowing only 165 points and recording four shutouts, one shy of the post-1970 record. The

"In coming to Jacksonville, I clearly understand that Wayne Weaver wants to win a championship. I recognize that there is a lot of hard work to do to get there, and I respect the fact that 31 other teams have the same goal. Our focus is to take this group of players and mold them into a team that will perform at the highest level each week. Establishing our 'mindset' is our No. 1 priority. We will work hard and we will compete."

— Jack Del Rio

group also led the NFL with 49 forced turnovers. The defense continued its domination in the playoffs, allowing just one touchdown in four games. The lone score allowed in the Ravens' 34-7 Super Bowl win over the New York Giants came on a kickoff return.

Del Rio coached two seasons in New Orleans, as the linebackers coach in 1998 and the assistant strength coach in 1997.

An 11-year NFL veteran, Del Rio was a third-round choice by the New Orleans Saints in 1985. He was named to the NFL's All-Rookie team and earned the Saints' Rookie of the Year award in 1985. Following two seasons in New Orleans, Del Rio played for the Kansas City Chiefs (1987-88), Dallas Cowboys (1989-91) and Minnesota Vikings (1992-95). He led the Vikings in tackles three straight years (1992-94) and played in the Pro Bowl following the 1994 season. During his career, Del Rio recorded 1,078 tackles, registered 12 quarterback sacks, made 13 interceptions and started more than 100 consecutive games between 1989 and 1994. He went to the playoffs once with the Cowboys and three times with the Vikings.

Del Rio was a four-year starter from 1981 to '84 at Southern California, where he earned consensus All-America honors as a senior and was runner-up for the Lombardi Award. The Trojans were 30-15-1 during his four seasons, three times ranked among the top 15 teams in the country. He played in the 1982 Fiesta Bowl and was co-MVP of the 1985 Rose Bowl. He led the Trojans in tackles for a loss three years in a row and played in the East-West Shrine Game and the Japan Bowl. Del Rio finished his career with 340 tackles, 58 for a loss, five fumble recoveries and one interception.

Drafted out of high school by the Toronto Blue Jays in 1981, Del Rio batted .340 while playing catcher on Southern California's baseball team in 1983 and '84. He was a teammate of current Arizona Diamondbacks pitcher Randy Johnson and former major league slugger Mark McGwire.

Del Rio graduated from Hayward (Calif.) High School and holds a political science degree from the University of Kansas, which he finished while playing for the Chiefs. Born April 4, 1963 in Castro Valley, Calif., he and his wife, Linda, have three daughters: Lauren, Hope and Aubrey, and a son: Luke.

STEVE

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH

NFL: 19TH SEASON

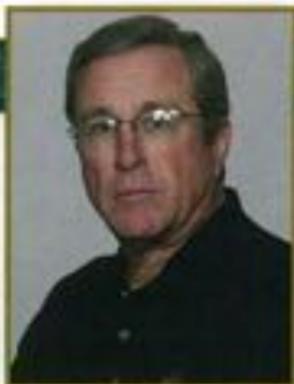

JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Steve Shafer was called out of retirement this year by Jaguars head coach Jack Del Rio to serve as the team's assistant head coach. Shafer, 62, also helps coach the defensive backs. Shafer is in his 35th year of coaching, after taking all of 2002 off. As the Jaguars' assistant head coach, he helps Del Rio in various administrative roles. He also assists defensive backs coach Alvin Reynolds.

In his 18 years coaching defensive backs in the NFL, Shafer has helped his players reach the Pro Bowl 14 times. He spent three seasons in Baltimore (1999-2001) as the Ravens' assistant head coach/secondary coach, including the 2000 season when the Ravens were Super Bowl champions. That year, Baltimore's defense set an NFL 16-game record for fewest points allowed (165). Shafer's secondary, led by future Hall of Famer Rod Woodson, set a team record with 23 interceptions and led the NFL with 49 takeaways. The Ravens allowed only 11 TD passes in 20 games, tops in the NFL. Before joining Brian Billick's staff, Shafer coached the Carolina Panthers' defensive backs in 1998, and the Panthers tied for fourth in the NFL that season with 19 interceptions. He coached the Oakland Raiders' secondary for three seasons (1995-97) after serving as defensive coordinator at San Diego State in 1994. Shafer coached the defensive backs for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1991 to '93 and the Los Angeles Rams' defensive backs from 1983 to '90.

Shafer began his coaching career in 1968 at San Mateo (Calif.) Junior College, where he was defensive coordinator for five seasons before taking over as head coach for the 1973-74 seasons. He then coached defensive backs at San Diego State from 1975 to '82 before going into the NFL. He was drafted in the 11th round in 1963 by the San Francisco 49ers, and he played defensive back for the British Columbia Lions in the Canadian Football League for five seasons (1963-67). He was a quarterback and defensive back for two seasons at College of the Sequoias and two seasons at Utah State after graduating from Burbank (Calif.) High School. Shafer was born December 8, 1940 in Glendale, Calif. He and his wife, Jane, live in Jacksonville. They have a son, Don (5/15/64) and a daughter, Shawn (5/6/87).

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1968-74 San Mateo (Calif.) Junior College (head coach 1973-74), 1975-82 San Diego State, 1983-90 Los Angeles Rams, 1991-93 Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 1994 San Diego State, 1995-97 Oakland Raiders, 1998 Carolina Panthers, 1999-2001 Baltimore Ravens, 2003 Jacksonville Jaguars

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

NFL: 11TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Bill Musgrave is the fourth offensive coordinator in Jaguars history and also the youngest, at 35. One of the brightest young offensive minds in the game, Musgrave brought an impressive resume to Jacksonville. He has worked closely with some of the top quarterbacks and offensive coaches in the college and pro game. Musgrave spent six years as a quarterback in the NFL, four years as an NFL assistant coach and two years coaching on the collegiate level. Musgrave returned to the NFL this year following two successful seasons as the offensive coordinator at the University of Virginia. Previously, he served as the offensive coordinator for the Carolina Panthers and Philadelphia Eagles.

Musgrave was a fourth-round draft choice of the Dallas Cowboys in 1991. He played for the San Francisco 49ers from 1991 to '94, backing up Steve Young and playing in the 49ers' Super Bowl XXIX victory over San Diego. He spent 1995 and '96 with the Denver Broncos, playing behind another future Hall of Famer in John Elway.

Musgrave's coaching career began before his playing days were over. He was released by the Broncos during the 1997 preseason and was quickly hired by the Oakland Raiders as quarterbacks coach. That year, he helped guide Jeff George to a league-leading 3,919 yards passing and an AFC-best 29 touchdown passes. In 1998, Musgrave went to training camp with the Indianapolis Colts. After being released, he joined the Philadelphia Eagles' coaching staff as offensive coordinator for the final 10 games of the season. He joined the Carolina Panthers as quarterbacks coach in 1999, playing an instrumental role in a Pro Bowl season for Steve Beuerlein, who passed for nearly 4,500 yards and 36 touchdowns, as the Panthers' had the NFL's No. 2-ranked passing offense. Musgrave was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2000.

He spent the last two years as the offensive coordinator at the University of Virginia under head coach Al Groh. Named the "Best Coordinator" in the ACC by The Sporting News in 2002, he was instrumental in the development of quarterback Matt Schaub. One of a host of players who flourished under Musgrave's innovative schemes, Schaub almost completely rewrote the Virginia record book for passing and was named ACC Player of the Year. Overall, Virginia threw 32 touchdown passes in 2002, including a record 28 by Schaub. Five different players threw at least one TD pass in Musgrave's innovative offense. Tight end Heath Miller was named a Freshman All-America, and running back Will Lundy set a school record for rushing by a freshman and tied the ACC record for receptions by a freshman. In Musgrave's first year at Virginia in 2001, wide receiver Billy McMullen caught a school-record 83 passes. With the Jaguars.

Musgrave was a four-year starting quarterback and three-year football captain at Oregon. He finished his collegiate career as the Ducks' all-time leading passer while setting a total of 15 school records. His 60 career passing touchdowns ranked second only to John Elway in Pac-10 history. He was a three-time All-Academic selection and was the nation's All-Academic Player of the Year as a senior. He received a bachelor's degree in finance in 1990. Musgrave was born November 11, 1967 in Grand Junction, Colo. He was a standout athlete at Grand Junction High School and was named the Colorado High School Athlete of the Year in 1985. He and his wife, Neely, have two sons, Carter (6/17/97) and Eli (9/22/00), and a daughter, Miranda (4/9/02). They reside in Jacksonville.

MIKE

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

NFL: 6TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Mike Smith was named the Jaguars' defensive coordinator on January 21. A veteran of 22 years of coaching, Smith, 43, has experience in one form or another with almost every position on defense and on special teams.

He spent the last four seasons with the Baltimore Ravens, helping them to their Super Bowl championship in 2000. The Ravens' 2000 defense set an NFL 16-game record by allowing only 165 points. From 1999 to 2001, Smith was the Ravens' defensive assistant/defensive line coach, and in 2002 he was the linebackers coach, replacing Jack Del Rio, who became defensive coordinator of the Carolina Panthers. In 2002, Smith coached All-Pro Ray Lewis and Pro Bowler Peter Boulware, who had his finest NFL season, and he was instrumental in the development of second-year pro Ed Hartwell, who made a team-leading 196 tackles. From 1999 to 2001, Smith worked on all aspects of the defensive game plan and also assisted with special teams.

A native of Daytona Beach and a player in the Canadian Football League, Smith had a 12-year stint at Tennessee Tech (1987-98), the last three as the defensive coordinator. He joined the Tennessee Tech staff as defensive line coach, then served as special teams coordinator from 1988 to '95. He tutored the line for nine seasons before being promoted to defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 1996. With Smith as defensive coordinator, the Golden Eagles' defense finished in the top 10 in the nation in both 1997 and '98. In 1996, Smith was promoted to defensive coordinator/assistant head coach.

Before joining Tennessee Tech, Smith was the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Morehead (Ky.) State. He served as a part-time assistant coach at San Diego State in 1982, and then spent the next three seasons (1983-85) coaching the Aztecs' linebackers. It was at San Diego State where he worked with Brian Billick, who brought him to Baltimore in 1999.

Smith played linebacker for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the CFL in 1982. He played collegiately at East Tennessee (1977-81), where he was named defensive MVP twice at linebacker. As a senior, he led the team with 186 tackles. Smith was a star athlete at Father Lopez High School in Daytona Beach and earned All-State honors as a linebacker in 1975. He was born November 30, 1959 in Chicago. He and his wife, Julie, have a daughter, Logan (5/13/00), and live in Jacksonville.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1982-85 San Diego State, 1986 Morehead (Ky.) State, 1987-98 Tennessee Tech, 1999-2002 Baltimore Ravens, 2003 Jacksonville Jaguars.

BILL

BATES

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

NFL: 21ST SEASON
JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Bill Bates, one of the most popular and productive players in the history of the Dallas Cowboys, was named the Jaguars' special teams coordinator on January 21. Bates, 42, spent the last 20 seasons with the Cowboys, 15 as a player and the last five as an assistant coach. He was hired by his former Cowboys teammate, Jack Del Rio, for not only his knowledge of special teams, but also his tremendous competitive spirit.

In 2001 and '02, Bates oversaw the Cowboys' defensive nickel package and assisted with the special teams units. He was the team's secondary coach in 2000. He made the transition from player to assistant coach during the 1998 training camp, working with both the secondary and special teams.

One of the NFL's true success stories, Bates' playing career (1983-1997) was characterized by persistence and an ability to overcome the odds. Starting in 1983, when he made the Dallas roster as a long-shot rookie free agent, he became a visible figure with his ferocious special teams play. His production as a special teams standout helped propel the NFL into adding a spot on the Pro Bowl teams for special teams coverage players. Bates was the first NFL player selected to the Pro Bowl based on special teams coverage ability, representing the NFC in that capacity in 1984. A three-year starter at safety (1986-88), Bates was named the Cowboys' special teams captain in 1990, a title he held proudly through the franchise's three Super Bowl seasons of the 1990s. He finished his career with 701 tackles, and he shares the club record for years of service (15) with Mark Tuinei and Ed Jones. Bates played in 217 regular-season games, second only to Jones (224) in Cowboys annals.

As a safety, and later as a middle linebacker in nickel packages, Bates made 14 career interceptions and 18 sacks.

Bates was a four-year starting safety at Tennessee, where he intercepted nine passes and recovered six fumbles during his career and was named second-team All-Southeastern Conference as a junior and senior. Bates was born June 6, 1961 in Knoxville, Tenn. He starred in football, basketball and as a sprinter on the track team at Farragut High School and was All-State in football and basketball. A 1985 NFL Man of the Year finalist, he started The Bill Bates Foundation in 1996 to aid various Dallas-area charities. He and his wife, Denise, have triplets Graham, Brianna and Hunter (5/24/89), and sons Tanner (2/18/91) and Dillon (7/5/95). They reside in Jacksonville.

KEN

QUARTERBACKS COACH

NFL: 27TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

One of the top quarterbacks in NFL history, Ken Anderson was named the Jaguars' quarterbacks coach on January 22. With 26 years of experience as a player and coach in the NFL, he will tutor Mark Brunell, first-round draft choice Byron Leftwich and second-year pro David Garrard.

Anderson, 54, played for the Cincinnati Bengals for 16 seasons and was an assistant coach for the last 10 years. He joined the team's staff in 1993 and was the quarterbacks coach for three seasons, offensive coordinator from 1996 to 2000, and then quarterbacks coach in 2001-02. Nearly two decades since retiring as a player, Anderson still continues to dominate the Bengals' record book with his career passing marks. He holds the club's all-time marks in completions (2,654), passing yards (32,838) and touchdown passes (197). Twice he has been among the 15 finalists for election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He still holds the NFL record for highest completion percentage in a season: 70.55 in 1982. He won four NFL passing titles, which is tied for third most in NFL history behind Sammy Baugh and Steve Young, and was named four times to the Pro Bowl. He led the league three times in lowest interception percentage, which is tied for second most all time behind Baugh. Anderson played in 192 games and led the Bengals to an appearance in Super Bowl XVI against the San Francisco 49ers. He had career totals of 2,654 completions in 4,475 attempts for 32,838 yards and 197 touchdowns. He also rushed for 2,220 yards and 20 touchdowns. He is the 19th ranked passer in NFL history (he ranked 10th when he retired).

When Anderson joined the pro-coaching ranks as Bengals quarterbacks coach in 1993, he helped quarterback Jeff Blake chip away at a few of his own Cincinnati marks. In 1995, Blake supplanted Anderson in the categories of most completions in a season (325) and most consecutive games with a TD pass (21). The last two years, he guided Jon Kitna to a single-season record for pass attempts (581 in 2001) and more than 3,000 yards passing in back-to-back seasons.

Until joining the Jaguars, Anderson had played and coached for only the Bengals since completing a record-setting college career at Augustana (Ill.) in 1970. He was a third-round pick from the small school, the 67th selection in the draft. His 16 years of service as a player (1971-86) are the most in Bengals history. Prior to joining the Bengals as a coach, he worked six years in Cincinnati as a sportscaster. Anderson was born February 15, 1949 in Batavia, Ill. He has a son, Matt (6/5/75), and two daughters, Megan (10/28/78) and Molly (2/27/83). He and his wife, Cristy, live in Jacksonville.

MARK

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

NFL: 9TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Mark Asanovich is in his first season as the strength and conditioning coach for the Jaguars and his ninth season as an NFL coach.

In 2002, Asanovich was the assistant strength and conditioning coach of the Baltimore Ravens. He was the head strength and conditioning coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1996 through 2001 working under former coach Tony Dungy.

Asanovich, 44, brought to the Jaguars a new strength and conditioning regime that emphasizes individual supervision of player workouts. The cornerstone of his program is to "coach reps rather than merely count reps." It is his belief that players who are coached in the weightroom will develop better results from what is inspected rather than what is expected. With the support of Jaguars owner Wayne Weaver, Asanovich oversaw a $260,000 renovation of the Jaguars weightroom before the start of the 2003 offseason conditioning program. "Wayne Weaver has given us the resources to win and Jack Del Rio and his staff have given us their support," Asanovich said. "The players have responded and have garnered the results."

Asanovich spent the 1995 season as assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Minnesota Vikings. From 1987 to '95, he was the strength and conditioning coach at Anoka High School (Minneapolis, Minn.). In 1984, he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Ohio State, staying there two years. In 1986 he coached at The Citadel. Asanovich has published several articles in his field of study and served as a member of the Minnesota Governor's Council on Health & Physical Fitness. He earned a bachelor's degree in education from St. Cloud State and a master's degree in exercise science from Ohio State. Asanovich was born May 20, 1959 in Duluth, Minn. He played guard and linebacker at Duluth East High School and attended St. Cloud State. He and his wife, Allison, have two daughters, Haley (8/25/00) and Gracie (11/1/02). They live in Orange Park.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1984-85 Ohio State, 1986 The Citadel, 1987-95 Anoka High School (Minn.), 1995 Minnesota Vikings, 1996-2001 Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 2002 Baltimore Ravens, 2003 Jacksonville Jaguars

PAUL

OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

NFL: 17TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Only the second offensive line coach in Jaguars history, Paul Boudreau was hired on January 27 and brings a reputation as one of the outstanding offensive line coaches in the NFL. He joined the Jaguars from the Carolina Panthers, where he spent the last two seasons. Under his tutelage, the Panthers set a club record of only 31 sacks allowed in 2001 after giving up 69 the previous year. Last year, Carolina allowed 44 sacks for the season but none in four games (something the Jaguars have done only five times in eight seasons).

In addition to working with the Panthers, Boudreau, 53, has overseen stellar offensive lines in New Orleans, Detroit, New England and Miami. He has coached lines that blocked for seven 1,000-yard rushers, including Barry Sanders and Curtis Martin.

His NFL run of success began in 1987 in New Orleans, where the Saints were perennially ranked among the league leaders in fewest sacks allowed. Overall, the Saints placed in the top three in that category four times in Boudreau's seven seasons. In those seven years, New Orleans allowed a total of only 167 sacks (23.9 per season), third lowest in the NFL. In 1992, they surrendered a league-low 15 sacks.

A move to Detroit in 1994 resulted in more success, as the Lions led the NFL in total offense in 1995, and running back Barry Sanders attained the 1,500-yard rushing plateau all three of Boudreau's seasons. During Boudreau's stay in Detroit, offensive tackle Lomas Brown and center Kevin Glover were Pro Bowl selections. Boudreau moved to New England in 1997 and coached two seasons with the Patriots. In his first season, he helped the Patriots win their second consecutive division title, a first in franchise history. His offensive line allowed just 30 sacks and ranked fourth in the NFL in sacks allowed per pass attempt (18.7 pass plays/sack). As coach of Miami's offensive line (1999-2000), he developed a unit that paved the way for Lamar Smith to rush for 1,139 yards, giving the Dolphins their first 1,000-yard rusher since 1996, and surrendered just 28 sacks, tied for the fourth-lowest total in the NFL.

Prior to entering the NFL, Boudreau was the offensive line coach for the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League from 1983 to '86. As a college coach, he worked at Boston College, Maine, Dartmouth, and Navy. He also spent a season coaching at Oxford (Mass.) High School.

Boudreau was born December 30, 1949 in Arlington, Mass. He was a letterman in both football and baseball at Boston College (1971-73). He and his wife, Joan, have a son, Paul (6/2/75), and a daughter, Jill (8/22/77). Paul is an assistant football coach at Brown University.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1973 Oxford (Mass.) High School, 1974-75 Boston College, 1976-78 Maine, 1979-81 Dartmouth, 1982 Navy, 1983-86 Edmonton Eskimos (CFL), 1987-93 New Orleans Saints, 1994-96 Detroit Lions, 1997-98 New England Patriots, 1999-2000 Miami Dolphins, 2001-2002 Carolina Panthers, 2003 Jacksonville Jaguars

LINEBACKERS COACH

NFL: 18TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Mike Haluchak was named the Jaguars' linebackers coach on January 22. He is one of the most experienced linebackers coaches in all of football, having tutored the position for 25 consecutive seasons — four of them in college football, three in the USFL and now 18 straight years in the NFL.

Haluchak, 53, joined the Jaguars from the St. Louis Rams, where he coached the last three seasons, including an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVI. He guided Rams' second-round draft choice Tommy Pooley to the All-Rookie team in 2000. In addition, he has coached players to six Pro Bowls: Jessie Armstead (1997-99), Ken Harvey (1995-96), and Junior seau (1991). Haluchak began his NFL coaching career with the San Diego Chargers in 1986, staying there six seasons. He has also coached with the Cincinnati Bengals (1992-93), Washington Redskins (1994-96) and New York Giants (1997-99).

Haluchak was a starting linebacker and safety at Southern California during one of the most memorable periods in the storied history of USC football. He played in the 1969 and 1970 Rose Bowl games against Ohio State and Michigan. He was a high school coach in Southern California from 1972 to '75 and entered the collegiate ranks as a graduate assistant at USC (1976-77). He moved to Cal State-Fullerton in 1978 as defensive backfield coach. Haluchak's first tour as a linebackers coach was at Pacific in 1979 and '80. He coached at California (1981), North Carolina State (1982) and then coached three seasons with the Oakland Invaders of the USFL (1983-85).

Haluchak was born November 28, 1949 in Concord, Calif. He holds a degree in history from Southern California and a master's degree in secondary education from California Lutheran. Haluchak and his wife, Carol, live in Jacksonville.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1972 Royal High School (Simi Valley, Calif.), 1973 Elsinore (Calif.) High School, 1974 Durate (Calif.) High School, 1975 Royal High School, 1976-77 Southern California, 1978 Cal State-Fullerton, 1979-80 Pacific, 1981 California, 1982 North Carolina State, 1983-85 Oakland Invaders (USFL), 1986-91 San Diego Chargers, 1992-93 Cincinnati Bengals, 1994-96 Washington Redskins, 1997-99 New York Giants, 2000-2002 St. Louis Rams, 2003 Jacksonville Jaguars

RAY

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

NFL: 26TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

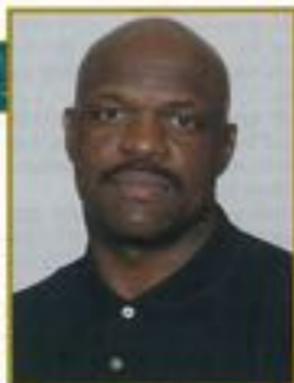

Ray Hamilton is the Jaguars' new defensive line coach, being hired on January 27, and the former NFL star has lots of talent to work with in youngsters Marcus Stroud and John Henderson and veterans Hugh Douglas and Marco Coleman.

A longtime NFL veteran who played nine years for the New England Patriots and coached 16 years in the NFL before coming to Jacksonville, Hamilton, is the team's first defensive line coach who has played in the NFL. Hamilton, 52, joined the Jaguars after coaching the defensive line for the Cleveland Browns the last two seasons. In his first season in Cleveland, the Browns tied for fourth in the AFC with 43 sacks. He spent three seasons as the New England Patriots' defensive line coach (1997-99), and then joined the Jets for the 2000 season. His 1998 defensive line tallied 25 of the team's 36 sacks, the seventh best total in the NFL, and New England's 1997 defense registered 45 sacks, eighth in the NFL.

Hamilton, 52, served a prior stint as defensive line coach with the Jets (1995-96), where he was instrumental in the development of defensive end Hugh Douglas, who was named the 1995 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Hamilton spent the 1993 and '94 seasons as defensive line coach for the Los Angeles Raiders, where he helped develop Chester McGlockton and the front line of a defense that combined for 83 sacks in his two seasons with the Raiders. In 1992, Hamilton was the defensive line coach at the University of Tennessee, following stints as defensive line coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1991) and head coach of the Bay State Titans (1990), a semipro team that featured defensive tackle Eric Swann, the sixth overall choice in the 1991 NFL draft (Swann didn't play college football). Hamilton began his coaching career in 1985, spending five seasons as an assistant defensive line coach with the New England Patriots. He helped the Patriots to their first AFC Championship title and a Super Bowl XX appearance in his first season as a New England coach.

Hamilton was a 14th-round draft choice by the Patriots and a fixture on New England's defensive line from 1973 to '81. He established a Patriots rookie record with seven sacks while starting every game in his first season. Known affectionately as "Sugar Bear" Ray Hamilton during his playing career, he went on to start a team-record 110 consecutive games and currently ranks fifth on the Patriots' all-time sack list with 54. He played in 132 games in nine seasons.

Hamilton was born January 20, 1951 in Omaha, Neb. He excelled as both a student and an athlete at the University of Oklahoma, making the dean's list and graduating with a degree in business. He was named All-Conference as a defensive tackle as a senior in 1972. Hamilton received a master's degree in public administration in 1977 from Suffolk University while playing for the Patriots.

He has two sons: Kadar (8/24/76) and Damon (6/5/79). Kadar graduated from Stanford on a football scholarship, attended two NFL training camps (St. Louis and New England) and played in NFL Europe; Damon graduated from the Wharton School of Business at the University of Pennsylvania. Hamilton lives in St. Augustine.

TODD

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

NFL: 5TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Todd Howard was hired as the Jaguars' defensive assistant on February 3. He assists the defensive coaching staff in all aspects of game preparation, including scouting reports, the statistical analysis of opponents' tendencies and the preparation of playbooks. He also helps coach the defensive line.

Howard, 36, has 10 years of experience coaching in college and two in the NFL, in addition to having played in the NFL. He spent the last three seasons as the linebackers coach at Louisiana Tech, following two years (1998-1999) as a defensive assistant with the St. Louis Rams, who won the Super Bowl in Howard's second season. With the Rams, he assisted with the linebackers in the area of pass-rushing techniques, as well as working on defensive game preparation, film evaluation and quality control. For one month before joining the Jaguars, Howard was the associate head coach/co-defensive coordinator at Southwest Texas State. He began his coaching career in 1991 at Texas A&M and was a member of three Southwest Conference champion coaching staffs. He was the defensive coordinator at Grinnell (Iowa) College from 1994 to '97, and was a member of the NFL's minority coaching program with the Washington Redskins in their 1997 training camp, helping on defense.

Howard was a third-round draft choice of the Kansas City Chiefs in 1987, and he played in the NFL for two seasons as an inside linebacker and special teams player. He also played for the Barcelona Dragons of the World League in 1991 and '92. Howard was All-Conference and honorable mention All-America at Texas A&M, where he started for three seasons (1984-86). He received a degree in sociology in 1991 and a master's in human resources in 1995.

Howard was born February 18, 1965 in Bryan, Texas. He and his wife, Susan, have three children: Trey (10/11/91), David (8/10/93) and Ava (8/29/96). They live in Jacksonville.

LARRY

WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

NFL: 9TH SEASON
JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Larry Kirksey joined the Jaguars as wide receivers coach on January 27. A veteran of eight years of coaching in the NFL and 21 in college football, Kirksey coaches perennial Pro Bowler Jimmy Smith, as well as newcomers J.J. Stokes and Donald Hayes and several young players.

Kirksey, 52, spent the 2001 and '02 seasons with the Detroit Lions and 1994 to '99 coaching Jerry Rice and the San Francisco 49ers' wide receivers. That was sandwiched around a one-year stint as the assistant head coach/wide receivers coach at Texas A&M. While in San Francisco, Kirksey guided one of the most productive wide receiving corps in the league and was instrumental in the development of Terrell Owens (third round, 1996) and J.J. Stokes (first round, 1996). Also notable in his time in San Francisco was the team's victory in Super Bowl XXX over the San Diego Chargers, as his group of receivers were instrumental in setting a Super Bowl record with six touchdown receptions.

Before jumping to the professional coaching ranks, Kirksey spent the first 20 years of his coaching career at seven different colleges. From 1980 to '93, he was the running backs coach at Alabama, helping the school to four straight bowl appearances and the 1992 national championship. Kirksey spent one season in the same role at the University of Pittsburgh (1989). Prior to that stint, he worked five seasons (1984-88) as the running backs coach at Florida, where he tutored future NFL standouts Neal Anderson, Emmitt Smith and John L. Williams. Before his tenure with the Gators, he was the head coach at Kentucky State in 1983. He coached wide receivers/tight ends at Kansas in 1982 and held the same position at Kentucky from 1977 to '81. Kirksey began his coaching career at Miami (Ohio) from 1974 to '76 coaching wide receivers.

While attending Eastern Kentucky from 1969 to '72, Kirksey was a four-year letterman and a three-year starter, earning All-Conference honors as a senior. He graduated from Eastern Kentucky in 1973 with a degree in education.

Kirksey was born January 6, 1951 in Harlan, Ky. He and his wife, Anita, have two children: Jessica (1/22/82) and Jared (7/29/85). They live in Jacksonville.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1974-76 Miami (Ohio), 1977-81 Kentucky, 1982 Kansas, 1983 Kentucky State (head coach), 1984-88 Florida, 1989 Pittsburgh, 1990-93 Alabama, 1994-99 San Francisco 49ers, 2000 Texas A&M, 2001-02 Detroit Lions, 2003 Jacksonville Jaguars

RUNNING BACKS COACH

NFL: 10TH SEASON
JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Anthony Lynn is only the second running backs coach in Jaguars history. He was hired on January 28 and brings to Jacksonville nine years of experience in the NFL — six as a player and three as a coach.

Lynn, 34, spent the last three seasons as an offensive assistant/assistant special teams coach with the Denver Broncos. He joined the Broncos' staff in August 2000 after his playing career was cut short because of repeated occurrences of neck stingers. Lynn was one of the NFL's top special teams players during his six-year career as a running back with the Denver Broncos and San Francisco 49ers. He entered the NFL as a undrafted rookie with the New York Giants in 1992 and made his first NFL roster with the Broncos in 1993. He was out of football in 1994, then played for the San Francisco 49ers in 1995 and '96. He re-joined the Broncos in 1997 for his final three seasons before turning to coaching. Lynn was a member of the Broncos' back-to-back Super Bowl champions in 1997 and '98. During his playing career, Lynn appeared in 83 games and made one start, rushing 28 times for 177 yards and catching three passes for 35 yards. He recorded 45 career special teams tackles and had one forced fumble and one fumble recovery on special teams. Lynn also played in nine postseason games and made six special teams tackles with one forced fumble.

Lynn was standout at Texas Tech, rushing for 1,911 yards and 17 touchdowns on 481 carries in his career. He earned All-Southwest Conference honors as a junior, when he ran for 884 yards and eight touchdowns on 224 carries. He graduated with a degree in exercise sports science in 1992. A native of Celina, Texas, Lynn was born December 21, 1968 in McKinney, Texas. He and his wife, Cynda, have two children, D'Anton (10/24/89) and Danielle (12/31/93). They live in Jacksonville.

PAUL

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS/ ASSISTANT STRENGTH COACH

NFL: 1ST SEASON

JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Paul McCord was hired on January 27 and serves as the assistant special teams coach and as the assistant strength coach.

McCord, 31, spent six years coaching at his alma mater, Western Maryland (now McDaniel College), then spent one year (2001) at Hofstra as the special teams coordinator and wide receivers coach. He returned to the school as assistant head coach/defensive backfield coach in 2002. During the 2000 season and after Hofstra's 2001 season ended, McCord assisted the Baltimore Ravens on special teams, overseeing computer scouting, video breakdowns and working with the specialists. As a coach at Western Maryland, McCord was the architect of one of Division III's top special teams units. In 1997, the school had the the top kick return and punt return units in Division III. Western Maryland won five conference championships and made four NCAA appearances with McCord on the staff. McCord began his coaching career at Mount Pleasant High School in Wilmington, Del., in 1994.

As a player at Western Maryland, McCord was a first-team All-Conference punter in 1991 and '93, finishing 17th in NCAA Division III. He was named second-team GTE Academic All-America as a senior. He started at quarterback in 1991 and '92 and at receiver in 1993. Prior to attending Western Maryland, he played special teams at Delaware in 1990 after a red-shirt season. He received degrees in both exercise science and history from Western Maryland. McCord was in two NFL training camps (1995 Dallas Cowboys, 1999 Baltimore Ravens) and played semipro football for the Ohio Cannon in 1998. He has written two books: 101 Special Teams Drills and Championship Special Teams from A-Z, and an accompanying set of four videos. He has run numerous punting and kicking camps.

McCord was born September 23, 1971 in his native Wilmington, Del. He attended Brandywine High School, where he earned first-team All-State honors and USA Today honorable mention All-America. He was voted Brandywine's Outstanding Male Athlete and earned 11 letters in three sports. McCord runs the Jim & Walt Foundation for fatherless students seeking college education. He and his wife, Mindy, reside in St. Augustine.

DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

NFL: 11TH SEASON
JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Alvin Reynolds has a decade of NFL coaching experience, developing his craft in Denver, Baltimore and Carolina since 1993. He was hired as the Jaguars' defensive backs coach on January 22.

Reynolds, 44, spent the last four seasons (1999-2002) as a defensive assistant with the Panthers. He was in Baltimore for the first three seasons of the Ravens franchise (1996-1998), serving as secondary coach. He began his coaching career as a defensive assistant in Denver, spending three seasons with the Broncos (1993-95). During his career, Reynolds has worked with some of the top defensive backs in the NFL, including safeties Steve Atwater and Dennis Smith in Denver and Rod Woodson in Baltimore. Last season in Carolina, he worked with then-defensive coordinator Jack Del Rio, helping with tape breakdown, game plan preparation and statistical tendencies. He also assisted with the Panthers' secondary. Reynolds began his coaching career at his alma mater, Indiana State, in 1982 as a graduate assistant. He was named the team's secondary coach in 1983, and in 1990 became assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator, in addition to serving as secondary coach. He coached two All-America players, including former NFL star Vencie Glenn.

As a player at Indiana State (1978-81), Reynolds starred at strong safety and received two votes for the Heisman Trophy as a senior. His four-year career statistics included 225 tackles, 21 passes defensed, five fumble recoveries and five interceptions. In addition to his football accomplishments, Reynolds was president of the University Club and served as a member of several groups, including the President's Committee on Ethnic Diversity, the Indiana Black Expo, the Charles T. Hyle University Center and the Minority Students Retention Program Committee. While in Denver, he was active in 100 Black Men of America, which emphasizes education and job training. Reynolds was born June 24, 1959, in Pineville, La. He attended West Jefferson High School in Harvey, La., and was an All-America football player and two-time Most Valuable Player on the track team. He received a degree in business management from Indiana State in 1982 and a master's degree in political science from the school in 1990. Reynolds and his wife, Carla Antonia, reside in St. Augustine with son Alvin Jr. (9/2/85) and daughter Ana Gabriella Naomi (6/12/02).

ALFREDO

TIGHT ENDS COACH

NFL: 6TH SEASON
JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Alfredo Roberts was named the Jaguars' tight ends coach on January 28 and brings a championship resume with him to Jacksonville. Considered one of the best blocking tight ends in the NFL during his six-year career with the Kansas City Chiefs and Dallas Cowboys, Roberts was a member of two Super Bowl championship teams in Dallas and two NCAA national championship teams in college at Miami (Fla.).

Roberts, 38, coached at Florida Atlantic University under Howard Schnellenberger from 1999 through 2002. He was part of the first group of coaches hired for the Boca Raton school's inaugural football team and was instrumental in the first class of recruits. He coached the school's receivers in 2001 and '02.

Roberts was recognized as one of the NFL's top blocking tight ends and was a key figure in Emmitt Smith's rise to the NFL rushing title in 1991. Originally selected in the eighth round of the 1988 draft by Kansas City, he played for the Chiefs for three seasons. He joined Dallas in 1991 and was a member of the Cowboys' two Super Bowl champion teams under Jimmy Johnson in 1992 and '93. He played in all 16 games for five straight seasons, catching 48 passes and scoring two touchdowns, though he was noted more for his blocking prowess. His career ended following a foot injury in 1993.

Roberts was also a member of two national championship teams at Miami (Fla.), in 1983 under Schnellenberger and again in 1987 under Johnson. He was on five bowl teams (two Orange, two Fiesta and one Sugar). Roberts graduated with a degree in criminal justice. After ending his NFL career in 1994, Roberts was part owner of a Dallas restaurant until starting his coaching career in 1999. Born March 17, 1965 in Fort Lauderdale, Roberts attended South Plantation High, where he was second-team All-State in both football and baseball. He and his wife, Angel, have three children: twin sons Avery and Austin (12/3/95) and daughter Alyssa (6/10/00). They live in Jacksonville.

CHARLES

DIRECTOR, PRO PERSONNEL

Charles Bailey brought 23 years of scouting and front office experience with him when he was named the Jaguars' director of pro personnel on May 13, 2003. He is responsible for overseeing the scouting and evaluation of all pro personnel, as well as advance scouting. He spent the previous 14 seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers and New Orleans Saints, helping both of those teams to several playoff appearances.

Bailey was the Saints' assistant general manager of football operations from 1999 to 2001, and spent last season as the organization's director of community affairs/assistant director of government affairs. As the Saints' assistant general manager, Bailey was responsible for scouting and evaluating talent on the Saints and around the NFL, as well as college scouting and other administrative duties. He also served as a member of the executive board for the 2002 Super Bowl Host Committee in New Orleans.

Bailey was with the Steelers from 1989 to '99 and was an integral part of the club's Super Bowl XXX appearance after the 1995 season. In his 10 years with the Steelers, he served three years in college scouting and seven years as the club's pro personnel coordinator. Bailey joined the Steelers following eight years of scouting with National Football Scouting, Inc. (1981-88). A native of Winston-Salem, N.C., Bailey spent six years on the coaching staff at Winston-Salem State (1975-1980). He attended North Carolina Central, where he was a scholarship student-athlete from 1969 to '73. After graduation, he earned his master's degree from North Carolina A&T. Bailey and his wife, Carolyn, have three children, daughters Kahmil and Aundrea, and a son, Charles.

GENE

DIRECTOR, COLLEGE SCOUTING

After six years as a college scout for the Jaguars, Gene Smith was promoted to director of college scouting on May 8, 2000, and he has guided the team's NFL draft for the last three years. His responsibilities include the scouting and evaluation of hundreds of college players on an annual basis, as well as directing a staff of seven college scouts. Smith will also have some additional pro personnel responsibilities, including the evaluation of selected unrestricted free agents.

Smith was previously the team's college scout responsible for the southeast United States. He joined the Jaguars on May 1, 1994 and was originally the team's scouting representative for the northeast with the BLESTO scouting combine, which he joined in February 1994. He was the southeast regional scout for BLESTO in 1995 before becoming a college scout for the Jaguars. Smith had previously been an assistant coach at the college level for eight years. He worked at Edinboro University from 1989 to 1994, serving as an assistant coach, recruiting coordinator, and strength and conditioning coordinator. From 1986 to '88 Smith worked at Ohio University, where he began his college coaching career as a graduate assistant and later served as an assistant coach.

Smith graduated from Heidelberg University, serving as captain of the football team while playing as a defensive lineman. He graduated in 1986 with a degree in education and in 1987 received his master's degree with emphasis in athletic administration from Ohio University. He has completed post-graduate work as well.

Born December 31, 1963, Smith is a native of Monroeville, Ohio. He and his wife, Debbie, have two daughters, Alana Rose and Carrie Grace. They live in Fleming Island, Fla.

LOUIS

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, PRO PERSONNEL

Louis Clark was promoted to assistant pro personnel director on May 13, 2003 after serving as a college scout for the Jaguars since 1997. A former wide receiver for the Seattle Seahawks and Green Bay Packers, Clark will assist Charles Bailey in the scouting and evaluation of pro personnel. He will do the advance scouting, and also assist in college player evaluation.

Clark attended Mississippi State, where he played tight end from 1983 to '86. He graduated with a degree in educational psychology in 1994. Clark was selected in the 10th round of the 1987 college draft by the Seahawks. He played six seasons in Seattle, making 67 receptions for 798 yards and five touchdowns while starting 15 of 55 games played. In 1993, Clark signed with Green Bay as an unrestricted free agent and spent his final season with the Packers.

Following his playing career, he spent four years in private business. Clark was born July 3, 1964 in Tupelo, Miss. He and his wife, Carla, have a son, Antonio, and a daughter, Antonece. They live in Jacksonville.

TERRY

EXECUTIVE SCOUT

Terry McDonough was named the Jaguars' executive scout on May 13, 2003. He will scout the top collegiate players throughout the entire country. Additionally, McDonough will do crosschecks, attend all major all-star practices and selective spring player workouts of the top draft-eligible players. He will also have some additional pro personnel responsibilities.

McDonough joined the Jaguars from the Baltimore Ravens, for whom he scouted the eastern half of the country for the previous three years as the Ravens' eastern college supervisor. He also helped evaluate free agent prospects for the pro personnel department during the free agency period, working with James Harris.

A Boston native, McDonough began his NFL scouting career with an internship with the San Francisco 49ers in 1989. Following his graduation from Massachusetts with a sports management degree, he was named player personnel director of the Barcelona Dragons of the World League in 1990. While with the Dragons (1990-92), McDonough handled a variety of personnel assignments, serving as West Coast scout for the league (helping each team prepare for the WFL drafts). McDonough toured both NFL and CFL training camps to grade potential WFL Players. The 1991 Barcelona team finished with a 9-3 record, losing the league title to London in the World Bowl. The following season, the Dragons captured the European title.

In 1992, he was hired by the Cleveland Browns as the southeast area scout, and he moved to Baltimore with the franchise in 1996.

At Hingham (Mass.) High School, McDonough was All-Conference as a running back in football as well as in baseball (he also lettered in basketball). He transferred to Bridgton Academy, where a serious knee injury that required reconstructive surgery ended his playing career. McDonough has three children, Patrick, Caroline, and Brendan, and lives in Raleigh, N.C.

TIM

EXECUTIVE SCOUT

Tim Mingeey has been with the Jaguars since 1994, serving as a college scout for nine years. This year, he will have the responsibility of scouting the southeast region of the United States. Additionally, Mingeey will do selective crosschecks and attend all major all-star practices and spring player workouts of the top draft-eligible players. He also coordinates the post-draft college free agency process and has some additional pro personnel responsibilities.

Before joining the Jaguars, Mingeey spent 11 years as a college assistant coach and then 10 years as a recruiting coordinator. His college coaching career began in 1973 as defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach at St. Joseph College (Ind.), where he had been a three-year varsity letterman as a defensive back. He was a graduate assistant at Western Michigan from 1974 to '75, then served as defensive coordinator at Loyola Academy in 1976 before returning to Western Michigan as an assistant coach from 1977 to '81. In 1982, Mingeey was coach of the secondary at East Carolina, and in 1983 he coached at Miami (Ohio) University as defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach.

In 1984, he was named the recruiting coordinator at the United States Military Academy. He served there until 1987, and then spent 1988 to '90 as recruiting coordinator at Tennessee. In 1991, Mingeey returned for three more years at the U.S. Military Academy before joining the Jaguars.

Mingeey received a bachelor of science degree in physical education from St. Joseph College in 1972 and a master of arts in physical education in 1976 from Western Michigan. Mingeey was born January 1, 1950 in Chicago.

ANDY

BLESTO SCOUT

David Dougherty was hired on June 15, 2001 as the southeast area scout for the BLESTO scouting organization. He spent 2000 with the Philadelphia Eagles as a scouting administrative assistant, working with the team's scouts and covering five states, while also doing various research projects, attending college all-star games and the NFL combine, and participating in the NFL draft. He was the Eagles' draft representative in New York in both 1999 and 2000 and a training camp intern in 1998 and '99.

Dougherty taught at Annandale High in Fairfax County (Va.) from 1996 to 2000. He graduated from Indiana University (Pa.) in 1995. His father, Owen, was the head football coach at IUP from 1979 to '81. Dougherty was born July 25, 1967. He and his wife, Stephanie, live in St. Augustine, Fla.

CHRIS

REGIONAL SCOUT

Chris Driggers is in his sixth year in scouting with the Jaguars. He has been a college scout for four years following two years as a scouting assistant and four years in football operations. He scouts the southwest United States for the Jaguars and has some additional pro personnel responsibilities.

Driggers joined the Jaguars on October 11, 1994 as the salary cap administrator, assisting in preparing player contract proposals, salary cap administration and negotiating player contracts. He became a scouting assistant in 1998, assisting in the evaluation of free agents and college and pro players.

Driggers, a native of Jacksonville, graduated from the University of Alabama with a degree in finance. He and his wife, Alyson, have two sons, Thomas and Travis.

ART

Art Perkins joined the Jaguars as their West Coast region scout on May 13, 2003. He spent the last six years in the same capacity with the Baltimore Ravens. Perkins' experience as a professional football player, coach, and administrator spans more than 30 years. He also has some additional pro personnel responsibilities.

A fourth-round draft choice of the Los Angeles Rams in 1962, Perkins was named to the All-Rookie team as a running back. His playing career lasted nine years as a running back for the Rams (1962-64) and in the CFL with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1964-66) and Edmonton Eskimos (1967-70).

Following his playing days, Perkins landed his first coaching job in 1972 as offensive coordinator for the semipro Los Angeles Mustangs. Perkins directed all facets of the Mustangs' offense before joining Compton (Calif.) College, where he spent 24 years. Perkins climbed the ranks at Compton, starting out as an offensive coach (1974-77) in charge of quarterbacks, wide receivers, and running backs, before being promoted to director of cooperative education. In that position (1977-79), he coordinated a program between upper level management of large American companies and college students to provide the students with practical experience and training that would enhance their employment opportunities after graduation. Beginning in 1979, Perkins served as a physical education professor and head football coach at Compton College. He also held the title of athletic director from 1979 to '89. In addition to his duties as head coach at Compton, Perkins served as a personnel scout for the New York Jets (1994-96) before joining the Ravens in 1997. With both the Jets and Ravens, he worked closely with James Harris.

Perkins received a master's degree from Pepperdine University and also attended California State University at Dominguez Hills and North Texas State. He and his wife, Elise, have a 14-year old son, Jaques. They live in Los Angeles.

MARTY

SCOUT

Marty Miller is in his second season with the Jaguars, joining the organization on February 21, 2002 as the team's scouting assistant. This year, as a scout, he will work in college scouting working the northeast United States, as well as the scouting of players in the Canadian Football League and the NFL Europe League. Last year, Miller assisted in the pro scouting department, evaluating players in the NFLEL, the CFL, the Arena League and doing some advance scouting of NFL teams and their practice squads.

He previously worked as director of football administration for the Los Angeles Xtreme of the XFL. He has also worked as an administrative assistant for the San Diego Chargers and as a staff assistant for the Kansas City Chiefs. He is the son of Les Miller, a longtime NFL personnel director, and he has a brother, Matt, who coaches at Kansas State. A graduate of Pacific Christian College, Miller was born on February 28, 1968. He and his wife, Kerinda live in Jacksonville.

SCOUT

Larry Wright Jr. was hired as a scout on February 1, 2003. He assists in scouting college players in the northeast United States, evaluating players in the Arena League, scouting NFL restricted free agents and evaluating players on teams that the Jaguars will not play this year.

Wright was the head coach at Ringgold (La.) High School in 2001 and '02, and previously was a graduate assistant at Grambling, a scouting intern with the Baltimore Ravens, and a strength and conditioning coach for the Grambling basketball team.

He earned a degree in sociology at Louisiana Tech, where he was a three-year letterman and team captain, and received a master's degree in sports administration at Grambling. Wright and his wife, Vincincia, have a daughter, Victoria. They live in Jacksonville.

CHRIS

SCOUTING ASSISTANT

Chris Prescott was promoted to scouting assistant on May 13, 2003 after serving as a scouting intern for the previous year. He assists in the day-to-day operations of the scouting department, as well as some college scouting and the evaluation of unrestricted NFL free agents and players in the NFL Europe League, Canadian Football League and Arena League. He also works with and hosts unrestricted free agents in the spring.

Prescott played safety for four years at Western New England (Springfield, Mass.), where he received a degree in sport management. A native of Bridgeport, Conn., he interned for the Bridgeport Bluefish minor-league baseball team (1999) and for Madison Square Garden (2000), where he worked for the Hartford Wolfpack (New York Rangers minor-league hockey affiliate) and the New England Seawolves (Arena League). Prescott was born October 29, 1979. He is single and lives in Jacksonville.

VIDEO DIRECTOR

Mike Perkins is the Jaguars' video director, and his primary responsibilities include compiling and editing all game and practice tapes for coaches' analysis, cataloging NFL game tapes and producing "cut-ups." He also manages all video equipment and design of the Jaguars' video department, including implementing the team's state-of-the-art Pinnacle editing system.

Perkins was hired by the Jaguars on May 12, 1994 after serving as video coordinator for three years at Syracuse. Prior to that, he served with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as assistant video director from 1987 to '90. Perkins was born May 24, 1967 in Tuscaloosa, Ala. He lives in Jacksonville.

DREW

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Drew Hampton was named equipment manager on July 2, 1998 after serving one year as assistant equipment manager. His responsibilities include ordering, issuing and maintaining all uniforms and footwear, players' protective equipment, coaches' and support staff apparel, as well as ordering and maintaining all field equipment and supervising its transport for home and away games.

Before coming to Jacksonville, Hampton had worked in the New York Jets' equipment room on a part-time and full-time basis since he was 13 years old. His father, Bill Hampton, was the Jets' equipment manager for 39 years until retiring two years ago (he moved to Florida and now assists his son on game days). Drew's brother Bill Jr. is vice president of operations for the Cleveland Browns, and another brother, Clay, is the equipment manager for the Jets. Hampton was born July 29, 1966 in Long Island, N.Y. He and his wife, Janine, have three daughters: Paige, Peyton and Haley.

COACHES ASSISTANT/SPECIAL PROJECTS ADMINISTRATOR

Devin Bonik joined the Jaguars as a coaches assistant/special projects administrator on April 10, 2003. He will work directly with the coaching staff providing administrative support as well as acting as a liaison between coaching and other departments within the organization. He coordinates schedules for minicamps, training camp and the regular season, as well as the calendar for the entire year. He will also work with the coaches in providing statistical analysis and putting together the scouting reports for upcoming opponents.

Bonik came to the Jaguars from Forever Sports Inc., a company he founded in 1987 that operates residential youth football camps featuring instruction from NFL players and college coaches. In 14 years, more than 25,000 youth attended football camps held in 17 NFL cities. Bonik was an assistant coach at Oklahoma State in 1985 and '86, after serving as an administrative assistant at Conoco Oil from 1982 to '84. He received a degree in business administration in 1982 from Oklahoma State, where he played outside linebacker for three seasons under Jimmy Johnson. Bonik was born May 16, 1961 in Corning, N.Y. He is single and lives in Jacksonville.

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER/ PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Michael Ryan has been the Jaguars' head athletic trainer since June 1, 1994, after serving as assistant athletic trainer/physical therapist for the New York Giants since May 1988. This is his 16th season in the NFL.

Ryan is chairman of the Professional Football Athletic Trainer's Society research and education committee and the author of numerous sports medicine articles. He also lectures on various sports medicine topics throughout the United States and in Mexico and Europe, and he was the keynote speaker at the grand opening of the Kennedy Space Center Rehab and Fitness Center. His career has included working as an athletic training intern with the Giants during preseason training camps from 1984 to '86.

Ryan attended Central Connecticut State, where he received a bachelor's degree in athletic training in 1985. He was a scholar-athlete, earning six varsity letters in cross country, indoor and outdoor track, as well as being named an All-East miler. He also earned a degree in physical therapy from the University of Connecticut in 1988.

An avid runner, Ryan has participated in countless unique races and triathlons, including Ironman Triathlons in Hawaii (1994), New Zealand (1996), Canary Island (1996) and Brazil (2000), the 2001 and 2003 Escape from Alcatraz Triathlon, and the 2002 National Championship Duathlon, in which he finished 14th in his age group. Other races include the 1992 and '99 Running with the Bulls in Pamplona, Spain, and the Race Up the Empire State Building in New York in 1994, '96 and '97. He also ran in the 1996 Boston Marathon as a member of the Dana-Farber Marathon Challenge Team. Ryan was born February 5, 1963 in Frammington, Mass. He is single and has a daughter, Erin.

DR. CARLOS

HEAD TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Carlos Tandron is in his third season as the Jaguars' head team physician after serving as the Jaguars' associate orthopaedic surgeon from 1995 to 2000. He is responsible for all orthopaedic matters dealing with injuries to joints and muscles, as well as surgical procedures.

Dr. Tandron is a graduate of Georgia Tech University and Emory Medical School in Atlanta, and he did his internship and residency at Emory University Affiliated Hospitals. He maintains a private practice at Jacksonville Orthopaedic Institute and is a member of the active staff at Baptist Medical Center. He is a member of the NFL Team Physician Society, the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgeons and American Medical Association. Dr. Tandron is a team physician for Jacksonville University, Florida Community College-Jacksonville and Bishop Kenny High School. Dr. Tandron was born July 3, 1958 in Santa Clara, Cuba. He and his wife, Jenny, have two sons, Carlos and Max, and two daughters, Alexia and Marissa.

DR. DAVID

MURRAY

CHIEF MEDICAL OFFICER

Dr. David Murray is in his ninth season as the team's chief medical officer. He is responsible for all matters dealing with illnesses and non-orthopaedic injuries for the players, coaching and administrative staffs.

Dr. Murray is a graduate of Yale University and the West Virginia University School of Medicine. He did his internship and residency in internal medicine at Shands Jacksonville, and is board certified in internal medicine, sports medicine and geriatrics. A director of Emergency Resources Group, Dr. Murray actively practices emergency medicine at its nine hospitals in northeast Florida. Sports medicine has long been an interest of Dr. Murray. He was involved with the Jacksonville Tea Men of the North American Soccer League (1980 to '81) and the Jacksonville Bulls of the USFL (1984 to '86). Presently a member of the Jacksonville Sports Medicine program, he is involved in the pre-participation screening of public school athletes in the area, as well as college athletes at Jacksonville University and the University of North Florida.

Born July 7, 1947 in Spencer W. Va., Dr. Murray and his wife, Cynthia are active in the preservation of the historic San Marco section of Jacksonville. They are the parents of a son, David, and a daughter, Lida.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2003

- The Jaguars to have a winning season again for the fifth time in nine years in the NFL.
- Mark Brunell to lead the Jaguars in passing for the ninth consecutive season, which extend his NFL record for the longest streak of any NFL expansion team's quarterback.
- Jimmy Smith to reach the NFL's top 12 in all-time receptions and receiving yards. He enters the 2003 season with 664 career catches and 9,287 yards, ranking 19th in receptions and 21st in yardage all time. Smith averages 95 receptions and 1,327 yards per year since 1996, and another season like that would put him at about 12th in catches and 15th in yards. With 36 catches, he would become the 15th player in NFL history to surpass the 700-reception mark, and with 713 receiving yards, he would become the 18th player in NFL history with 10,000 yards receiving. Smith can also be voted to his sixth career Pro Bowl.
- Jimmy Smith needs 127 yards to surpass 10,000 all-purpose yards for his career. He heads into the 2003 season with 9,873 yards receiving, rushing and on kick returns.
- Fred Taylor needs 216 rushing yards to reach 5,000 for his career. He enters 2003 with 4,784 rushing yards.
- Chris Hanson to lead the NFL in punting. In 2002, Hanson led the AFC but ranked third in the NFL in net punting and second in gross punting.
- Kyle Brady to reach 300 receptions and 3,000 yards for his career. In his first eight seasons, he had 268 catches and 2,873 receiving yards.
- Jimmy Smith to have his eighth consecutive 1,000 yard season receiving and move into a tie for the third-longest streak in NFL history with Cris Carter.
- Mark Brunell needs eight touchdown passes to reach 150 for his career. He enters 2003 with 142 TD passes.
- Donovan Darius to lead the secondary in tackles for the sixth consecutive season.
- Brad Meester to start all 16 games for the fourth straight season, which would be the longest streak by any Jaguars player. He is the only Jaguar to start his first 48 games after being drafted by the team. Eleven more consecutive starts would give him a streak of 59 straight, setting a team record.
- Hugh Douglas to make more than 10 sacks for the fifth time in his career. He could also be voted to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl.
- J.J. Stokes to reach 400 receptions and 5,000 yards receiving for his career. He joined the Jaguars with 327 catches for 4,139 yards.
- Marcus Stroud has already blocked two field goals in his two NFL seasons. Another blocked field goal would break the team record he currently shares with Clyde Simmons.

FEWEST TURNOVERS (1997-2002)

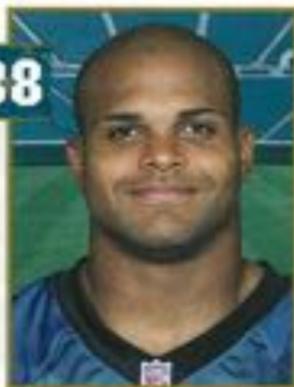

In 2002, the Jaguars became one of only four teams in NFL history that had fewer turnovers than games played in a season (15 turnovers in 16 games). In fact, over the last six seasons, the Jaguars have had the fewest turnovers in the NFL.

RK	TEAM	TURNOVERS	RK	TEAM	TURNOVERS

Forced fumbles — 3 (10/3/99 at Pittsburgh)

Fumbles recovered — 2 (9/29/96 vs. Carolina)

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT TONY BRACKENS

"You have to be aware of where he's at. If he's not rushing and causing fumbles in the air, he's picking off balls. He has a great feel for the game. You've just got to be aware and make sure you don't put him in position to make plays — and that's not always easy to do when he's at the center of attack."

— Pittsburgh Steelers head coach Bill Cowher

"He's got it all and he's smart — extremely smart. He's more gifted than anybody I ever played with."

— Former Jaguars defensive end Jeff Lageman

"Tony Brackens is a great player. He creates big-time matchup problems for you."

— New York Giants head coach Jim Fassel

"He makes a lot of plays other guys wouldn't have a chance to make. He adds a whole difference presence to the defense. He makes players around him better. And he makes other teams game-plan for him."

— Houston Texans defensive tackle Seth Payne

"Brack has unbelievable ability. I believe he can put up some unbelievable numbers."

— Houston Texans defensive tackle Gary Walker

"Tony has the kind of ability that can change the pace of the game instantly because he not only is quick off the ball, but he can beat tackles. A lot of times, when he gets a sack, he forces turnovers — he has a knack for stripping the ball out. Sometimes he demands to be double-teamed and he's going to free up some other guys."

— Cincinnati Bengals linebacker Kevin Hardy

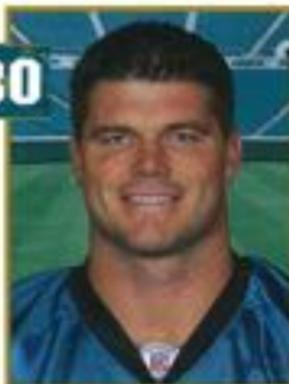

"Tony Brackens is an excellent football player. We had a good chance to see him at the University of Texas when he came out, what kind of potential and ability he had. He is such a quick and strong individual. He has a nose for the football and is a playmaker. There is no question, his play is very important to Jacksonville's defense. You have to be concerned about him."

— Former Dallas Cowboys head coach Dave Campo

"Tony's a guy who handles his business without a whole lot being said about it. He couldn't care less if he gets a lot of credit. He couldn't care less if his name is in the paper or if he's in the news. But he's going to get out there and get his job done. That's the kind of guy you like to play with because that's all he's worried about is playing and making plays. He's a playmaker, one of those guys who puts constant pressure on the passer and does an excellent job in the running game. Tony speaks louder with his play — he makes plays that speak for him."

— Former NFL linebacker Hardy Nickerson

PRO: One of NFL's most underrated tight ends ...

In last four seasons with Jaguars, has 175 receptions to rank fifth among NFL tight ends in that time ...

First alternate to the Pro Bowl in 2001 ... Former first-round draft choice of New York Jets has realized his potential with the Jaguars, setting career highs for both receptions and receiving yards in 1999 and 2000, his first two years with the team ...

Had second-best statistical season of career in 2002 ... Big but fast tight end can do it all — block in line, go deep for bombs or catch short passes over the middle ... Every-down player who has missed only four games in eight NFL seasons, seeing action in 124 contests, with 118 starts ... One of the best blocking tight ends in pro football has helped Jaguars rush for 7,812 yards over the last three seasons, including three years with more than 2,000 yards ... In 2000, caught 64 passes, sixth most among NFL tight ends ... One of only five Jaguars not to miss a game the last three years ... Has career totals of 268 receptions for 2,873 yards (10.7-yard average) and 20 touchdowns. Has nearly two-thirds of those numbers (175 catches for 1,932 yards) in four seasons with Jacksonville (compared to 93 catches for 949 yards in four years with New York Jets) ... First-round draft choice of Jets in 1995 was the ninth player chosen overall and the first of 12 tight ends picked that year ... Joined Jaguars as an unrestricted free agent (transition player) from the New York Jets in 1999 ... 2002: Started all 16 games for fifth time in career and second time as a Jaguar ... Ranked fourth on team with

43 receptions for 461 yards (10.7-yard average, 421 long) and four touchdowns, all three totals being second most of his eight-year career ... One of six players on offense to start every game

... Had five receptions in a game three times: 9/15 at Kansas City, 11/24 at Dallas and 12/22 vs.

Tennessee, with season-high 60 receiving yards in Chiefs game ... Scored TDs in four games:

10/6 vs. Philadelphia, 11/17 at Houston, 12/1 vs. Pittsburgh and 12/8 vs. Cleveland ... Suffered concussion on first quarter reception on Sept. 29 vs. Jets and played sparingly rest of game ...

Had only game without any catches Oct. 13 at Tennessee, ending a 12-game streak ... Received

- NOTABLE
- Ranks fifth among NFL tight ends with 175 receptions the last four seasons
 - Doubled his career highs in 2000 with 64 receptions for 729 yards, ranking sixth among NFL tight ends and breaking Pete Mitchell's team record for tight ends
 - Excellent blocker has helped Jaguars rush for 7,812 yards the last four years an offense game ball for Nov. 10 performance vs. Washington when he caught three passes for 24 yards and team broke four-game losing streak ... Scored on a 42-yard TD on Dec. 1 vs. Pittsburgh for longest reception of career (previous: 36 on 10/29/00 at Dallas). Suffered two sprained ankles in game but continued to play ... A week later vs. Cleveland led team with three receptions for 16 yards, including four-yard TD pass ... Five receptions vs. Tennessee also led team ... 2001: Started all 16 games for first time as a Jaguar ... Finished third on team with 36 receptions for 386 yards (10.7 average, 201 long) and two touchdowns ... Receptions and yards were both second-highest totals of his career at the time ... One of seven players on offense to start every game ... Scored touchdowns on Oct. 18 vs. Buffalo (a 20-yarder that tied for longest scoring reception of his career) and Nov. 4 at Tennessee ... Did not have any catches for first times as a Jaguar on Sept. 23 vs. Tennessee and Nov. 11 vs. Cincinnati ... Was team's main tight end (and was only one to catch a pass) during final half of season after Damon Jones was released ... Had 21 catches in season's final seven games ... Received an offense game ball on Dec. 23 at Minnesota after catching three passes for 29 yards and offense gained 214 yards rushing in season's final victory ... Had season-high five receptions for 51 yards on Dec. 30 vs. Kansas City ... 2000: Had most-productive season of career, with 64 receptions for 729 yards, doubling his previous career highs in both categories ... Also had one two-point conversion for second straight year ... Reception total ranked sixth among NFL tight ends, behind Kansas City's Tony Gonzalez (93), San Diego's Freddie Jones (71), Tennessee's Frank Wycheck (70), Philadelphia's Frank Lewis (69) and Baltimore's Shannon Sharpe (67) ... Yardage total ranked fifth behind only Gonzalez (1,203), Sharpe (810), Jones (766) and Lewis (735) ... Also broke Jaguars' record for catches and yards by a tight end set by Pete Mitchell in 1996 (52 for 575 yards) ... Was 18th among AFC receivers, highest ranking ever for a Jaguars tight end ... Averaged 11.4 yards per catch and scored three touchdowns ... Was team's only tight end to catch a pass after Damon Jones was injured on second play of the season ... Named to USA Today's All-Joe team, which recognizes players who are overlooked or ignored, the hard-working "guys named Joe" ... Tied his career high with five receptions twice in season's first six games, then broke out with back-to-back games of eight catches for 111 yards (Oct. 22 vs. Washington) and 10 catches for 138 yards and one TD (Oct. 29 at Dallas). Became team's only tight end ever with successive 100-yard games. Received an offense game ball vs. Dallas. ... Broke his single-game best for yardage three times during the season ... Only non-start was Sept. 10 when team opened in a three-WR set, though he played as team's primary tight end ... On Nov. 19 at Pittsburgh, received an offense game ball along with Fred Taylor and the offensive line after Taylor rushed for 234 yards ... Broke team record for yards receiving by a tight end on Nov. 26 vs. Tennessee, passing Pete Mitchell's total of 575 in 1996 ... Next week vs. Cleveland, broke Mitchell's team record for receptions by a tight end (52 in 1996) ... Scored second TD of season Dec. 10 vs. Arizona on eight-yard pass from Mark Brunell ... Scored third TD in Dec. 23 season finale at N.Y. Giants on five-yard pass from Brunell, following with two-point conversion catch (third of career) ... 1999: Third on team with 32 receptions for 346 yards (10.8-yard average) and one touchdown ... Also scored on a two-point conversion ... Started 12 of 13 games played, missing three with a knee injury ... Received a game ball along with the offensive line and fellow TE Damon Jones Sept. 19 at Carolina when team rushed for 214 yards ... Had season-high five receptions in first game vs. his former team Oct. 11 at N.Y. Jets to lead the Jaguars in receiving for the first time. Received another offense game ball ... Scored his first TD as a Jaguar on a pass from Jay Fiedler Oct. 17 vs. Cleveland. Added a two-point conversion reception from Fiedler for the second one of his career ... Gained then-career-high 65 yards on four receptions on Nov. 28 at Baltimore before leaving the game in the third quarter with a sprained MCL in his left knee ... Missed the next three games, his first since 1995 season and ending his team-best streak of 60 consecutive starts (49 with Jets and 11 with Jaguars) ... Returned for the final two games of regular season and had three catches in each game ... Played but did not start in a three-wide receiver set in Jan. 15 Divisional Playoff game vs. Miami and had no receptions ... Started in two-TE set in AFC Championship game vs. Tennessee and had postseason-best five catches for 44 yards, including the first playoff TD of his career ... As Jets' transition player, signed offer sheet with Jaguars on Feb. 16 ... 1998: Finished his fourth and final season in New York with 30 receptions for 315 yards (10.5 average) and five touchdowns, all career highs with the team ... Started all 16 games for third straight year ... Had the first multiple-TD game of his career Oct. 19 at New England, catching two scoring passes from Vinny Testaverde. Tied his career high with five catches in that game ... Had a clutch 20-yard TD catch Nov. 1 at Kansas City to tie the game 17-17 in the fourth quarter, marking the longest scoring catch of his career

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT KYLE BRADY

"I think his blocking is very underrated. He's an exceptional blocker in the run game and he's a big target downfield. You can match up a skilled defensive back with him, but he's still going to out-jump him or out-light him for the ball."

— Tennessee Titans head coach Jeff Fisher

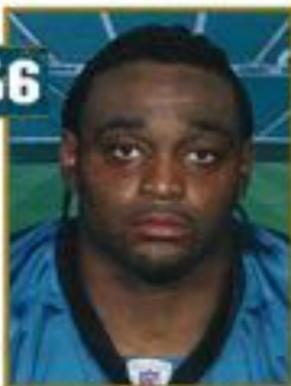

"Kyle is better than ever. I have always had confidence in him; I just haven't always gotten him the ball. We needed to change that, because he is too good not to catch the football."

— Jaguars quarterback Mark Brunell

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT MARK BRUNELL

"He seems to have found the fountain of youth."

— Houston Texans cornerback Aaron Glenn

"I generally reserve the word 'brilliant' for just a few people. I think Mark is a brilliant quarterback. I think he is an outstanding player."

— San Diego Chargers head coach Marty Schottenheimer

"You have to try to keep Brunell in the pocket. This is tough. He can really frustrate defensive players. Just when they think they have him for a loss, he gets away and makes a big play. When he pulls the ball down, he's not looking to run out of bounds. And at the same time, he's pretty effective throwing it."

— Pittsburgh Steelers head coach Bill Cowher

"He sees things other quarterbacks miss."

— Washington Redskins cornerback Champ Bailey

"I admire his attitude. He will take off and run. He still has some spring in his step. He's a competitor. He throws the ball well. He runs it. He sees the field. There's really not much he can't do."

— Jaguars tight end Kyle Brady

"He's the man. Mark is getting better all the time. He has no limitations. Who knows how good he can be?"

— Jaguars wide receiver Jimmy Smith

"I have a tremendous amount of respect for Mark Brunell. He doesn't care about the odds; just give him the football and he will make something happen. I consider him to be one of the top quarterbacks in the league."

— Seattle Seahawks defensive coordinator Ray Rhodes

"He's left-handed, so he can see the rush coming, and he can get out of the way. He can scramble and throw on the run."

— Washington Redskins defensive end Bruce Smith

"I was very impressed with Mark even before what he did to Buffalo and to us (in 1996). He's just a very talented guy that will be one of the great quarterbacks ever to play the game, in my opinion, in years to come. He's the reason they're having the success that they are."

— Denver Broncos head coach Mike Shanahan

"You have to be disciplined on your defensive line against Brunell. You have to be careful that you don't get three rushers on one side of the ball. You have to pick and choose the extent to which you're going to play man-to-man defense, because guys like Mark, when they recognize man-to-man and defenders' backs are turned, they're going to take off and run and make big plays."

— Tennessee Titans head coach Jeff Fisher

"There are definite similarities (between Brunell and Steve Young) — the way the players carry themselves, their movement abilities, how they throw the ball, their abilities to be spontaneous and make big plays. One player took his team to the Super Bowl and the other player is working to do that."

— Former San Francisco 49ers head coach George Seifert

"I call them twins. Same number [eight]. Same throwing arm [left]. Same ability to scramble. Every time I look at him, I think, 'That's Steve Young's twin.'"

— San Diego Chargers linebacker Sam Rogers

"There are some similarities (between Brunell and Young) because they are both left-handed, they're both very fast, they're both very mobile and creative. They are both strong, tough guys. They're like clones."

— Detroit Lions head coach Steve Mariucci

"Mark is a great football player. He's efficient, he's accurate and he throws the deep ball well. Those are the things you need to be successful in the NFL. He's a great playmaker. I enjoy watching him."

— Former San Francisco 49ers quarterback Steve Young

"Mark has his own style. He's always going to keep you in the game with his arm or his feet. He is just a defensive back's nightmare, because you don't know if he's going to run or throw, and he may do both."

— Former Green Bay Packers safety LeRoy Butler

"Brunell is kind of like Brett Favre — only thing is, Brunell is faster than Favre. We've never faced a guy who could do the things that he did to us."

— Former Denver Broncos defensive end Alfred Williams

"I knew, as I'm sure as a lot of people did, that in time he would emerge as a premier player in this league."

— Green Bay Packers quarterback Brett Favre

"What he's done has been remarkable. Brunell has been much better than I expected. I thought he would be a good NFL quarterback, not what he has become. He's a lot better than good. He is a great kid with a great family, the kind of guy you pull for."

— Former Green Bay Packers general manager Ron Wolf

"He's only 6-1. You're supposed to be 6-4 or 6-5 today to get it done. Mark Brunell is short by NFL standards, but who can argue with the results?"

— CBS broadcaster Dan Dierdorf

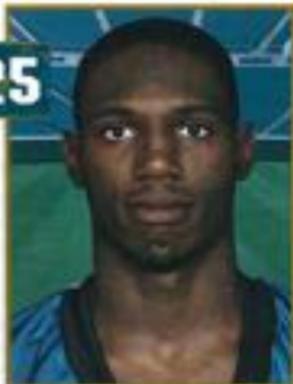

"Mark is one of the rare guys that beats you in and out of the pocket. You have a lot of guys that can run around outside that are trying to learn how to be pocket passers. You have some pocket passers that try to make something happen outside occasionally. If you keep Mark in the pocket, he will kill you. With every year Mark becomes more and more comfortable in the pocket. I think he is beginning to attain that level that Steve Young did. He is one of the dominant quarterbacks in the game."

— Baltimore Ravens head coach Brian Billick

"I don't care if you huddle up with him, don't huddle up, play in the single wing — whatever. If you have Brunell touching the ball, you have problems."

— Former Cincinnati Bengals head coach Dick LeBeau

PRO: Solid veteran left cornerback with loads of talent ... Four-year starter has four career interceptions in 55 starts ... Named to every All-Rookie team in 1999 ... Has second-most starts of any cornerback in Jaguars history, trailing only Aaron Beasley (71, 1996-2001), and can be Beasley this year ... Highest-drafted cornerback ever selected by Jaguars ... First-round draft choice was the second and is one of only four Jaguars to start every game as a rookie (Brian DeMarco in 1995, Brad Meester in 2000 and Maurice Williams in 2001) ... Was the sixth Jaguars rookie to start on opening day ... Short cover corner proved he can stick with tall receivers and play the run well ... Sturdy player who had started 63 consecutive games in college and the NFL until missing two with minor injuries in 2000 (has an active streak of 16 straight starts) ... Has career totals of 258 tackles (217 solo), one forced fumble, six fumble recoveries and four interceptions ... Was the fifth defensive back drafted in 1999, following Champ Bailey, Chris McAlister, Antonio Winfield and Antwan Edwards ... 2002: Played left cornerback and started all 16 games for second time in career and first time since rookie season ... Ninth on team and led team's corners with 67 tackles (61 solo), one interception, two fumble recoveries and 13 passes defended ... One of six players to start every game on defense ... In Sept. 8 season opener vs. Indianapolis, came up with fumble recovery, adding three tackles and a pass defended ... Recovered second fumble of season in game 3 vs. N.Y. Jets (9/29), returning it 26 yards to set up a touchdown ... Received a defense game ball for Oct. 6 performance vs. Philadelphia when he made seven tackles and played with a sprained ankle ... Made his first interception in two years (off Chad Hutchinson) on Nov. 24 at Dallas, returning it 26 yards. Added four solo tackles ... Had season-high eight tackles in Dec. 29 season finale at Indianapolis ... 2001: Played in 10 games with nine starts, missing six games with a foot injury ... Marked his most missed games in a season since he started playing football ... Finished with 56 tackles (50 solo), ranking 12th on the team and tops among team's cornerbacks. Added five passes defended and one tackle for loss but did not make any interceptions ... Started his third straight season opener Sept. 9 vs. Pittsburgh, making six tackles ... Suffered a foot injury on Sept. 30 vs. Cleveland after making nine tackles, tying his career high ... Inactive next game ... Did not start but played as nickel back when he returned Oct. 16 vs. Buffalo. Marked first time in 34 career games that he played but did not start ... Returned to starting lineup Oct. 28 vs. Baltimore and started next six games ... Re-injured his foot in Dec. 3 Monday night game vs. Green Bay after making season-high 10 tackles ... Inactive next four games, then was placed on injured reserve on Jan. 1 before season finale ... 2000: Started all 14 games played, leading team's cornerbacks with 57 tackles (42 solo), along with one interception, nine passes defended, one QB pressure and one fumble recovery ... Received a defense game ball along with 13 other players for team's first shutout ever on Sept. 17 vs. Cincinnati ... Tied for team lead with seven tackles (six solo) in Sept. 25 Monday night game at Indianapolis ... Made only interception of season (off Kordell Stewart) in Oct. 1 game vs.

NOTABLE

- Has led team's cornerbacks in tackles each of his four seasons in the NFL

- Highest-drafted cornerback ever by Jaguars was named to every All-Rookie team in 1999

- Has 55 career starts, the second most of any cornerback in Jaguars history, trailing only Aaron Beasley (71)

Pittsburgh ... Suffered hamstring injury in Oct. 16 Monday night game at Tennessee but was not removed from lineup ... Inactive for following game vs. Washington, missing his first game as a Jaguar and first football game since 1995, when he was a freshman at Alabama. ... Returned to starting lineup on Oct. 29 at Dallas, making four tackles and recovering a fumble to thwart a Dallas drive in the fourth quarter ... Started next four games, but suffered sprained left ankle in first quarter and left game on Dec. 3 vs. Cleveland ... Inactive next week vs. Arizona, but started season's final two games ... 1999: Named to every All-Rookie team (Pro Football Writers of America/Pro Football Weekly; Football News, College & Pro Football Newsweekly and Football Digest) ... Started every game and led Jaguars cornerbacks and was second among defensive backs and fourth on team with 78 tackles (64 solo) ... Also made two interceptions, 13 passes defensed, four tackles for loss, one forced fumble and three fumbles recovered ... Became sixth Jaguars rookie to start on opening day ... Made his first NFL interception in his second pro game Sept. 19 at Carolina (off Steve Buerlein) ... Got his first fumble recovery the next week vs. Tennessee (Sept. 26) to set up a touchdown ... Earned a defense game ball Oct. 31 at Cincinnati when he set up a TD with a recovery of a Corey Dillon fumble at Bengals' eight-yard line. Also made season-high nine tackles (seven solo) and team-leading four passes broken up ... Recovered his third fumble of the season Nov. 14 vs. Baltimore and returned it 23 yards ... Made his second interception of season Nov. 21 vs. New Orleans off Billy Joe Hobert in the fourth quarter to set up a touchdown. Finished with seven solo tackles and two passes defensed to earn his second defense game ball ... Forced a fumble Nov. 28 at Baltimore ... Suffered a strained right hamstring in third quarter of Jan. 2 season finale vs. Cincinnati and did not return ... Started both playoff games ... Made the first postseason interception of his career off Steve McNair Jan. 23 vs. Tennessee in the AFC Championship game ... Selected with the 26th pick in the first round.

COLLEGE: Started his last 40 games ... Made 40 starts in 45 games, registering 179 tackles (149 solo), three fumbles recovered and eight interceptions ... Also returned 17 kickoffs for 466 yards (27.4-yard average) ... Played in two bowl games: 1996 Outback and 1997 Music City ... Consensus All-Southeastern Conference first-team selection as a senior in 1998 ... Started every game and recorded a career-high 51 tackles (44 solo) with two interceptions and four pass deflections ... Closed out his career with an interception and a pass deflection in the Music City Bowl against Virginia Tech ... A broken jaw sustained in spring practice kept him from getting a lot of repetitions offensively (his coaches had planned to use him on offense in 1998, but scrapped that idea after his injury) ... All-SEC second-team choice in 1997 when he made 47 tackles (39 solo) with two tackles for loss, recovered two fumbles and forced one, deflected 10 passes and had three interceptions for 108 yards in returns and one touchdown ... Also returned 15 kickoffs for 416 yards (27.7 average) ... Second-team All-SEC selection in 1996 when he started every game, making 42 tackles (36 solo) with one fumble recovery, deflected 14 passes and blocked a kick ... Also had three interceptions for 13 yards and blocked an extra point attempt ... Knoxville News-Sentinel SEC All-Freshman team pick in 1995 when he started the final six games, finishing with 39 tackles (30 solo) and deflected three passes ... Majored in physical education.

PERSONAL: Lives in Jacksonville ... All-America as a two-way starter at Riverdale High in Murfreesboro, Tenn. ... As a senior, recorded 82 tackles with six interceptions, averaged 30 yards per punt return and caught 48 passes for 798 yards with eight touchdowns ... As a junior, made 62 tackles and five interceptions on defense and caught 25 passes for 350 yards and one TD ... As a sprinter on the track team, finished third in the state 100-meter championships (10.1 seconds) ... One of Jaguars' most visible players in the community ... Established the 25-Sports Foundation in 2001 to help provide guidance and encouragement to inner-city children through a variety of programs ... Supports organ donation programs (brother, Larry, received a life-saving kidney transplant in 2001) ... Volunteers year-round at Jacksonville's Hubbard House, a shelter for battered women and their children ... Filmed a public service announcement in 2000 and helped produce a brochure for their Men Against Violence Against Women Program (MAVAW) ... Hosts 15 disadvantaged youth, "Fernando's Commandos," during each Jaguars home game ... 2001 spokesman for the Wireless Foundation's national Call to Protect/Donate-a-Phone program, which provides refurbished wireless phones to benefit victims of domestic violence. WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT FERNANDO BRYANT

"Fernando has great speed and he has great talent. He has a lot of ability to play at this level. But the best thing about Fernando is he's a competitor. He hates getting beat, and he just doesn't let it happen. He's a great guy to have in the locker room. You couldn't ask for a better guy at that spot."

— Jaguars quarterback Mark Brunell

"A lot of times, Fernando is out there man-on-man on some of the top receivers in the league, and he does an excellent job."

— Dallas Cowboys linebacker Kevin Hardy

"A guy as small as he is (5-10) is not supposed to hit as hard as he does. He lets you know he is going to come up for every game. But he also has knowledge of the game. It is incredible how quickly he picks up things."

— New York Jets cornerback Aaron Beasley

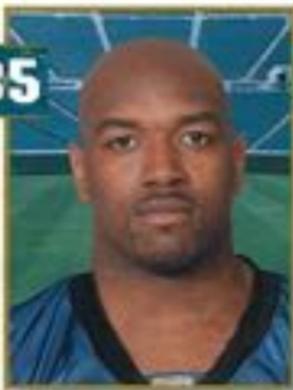

WHY JAGUARS?

Finalists in the contest to name the NFL's expansion team in Jacksonville included Sharks, Stingrays and even Panthers, but it was "Jaguars" that was ultimately selected and announced on December 6, 1991. Utilizing the services of the marketing experts from NFL Properties' Creative Services division and with the partners of Touchdown Jacksonville, the enthusiastic fans of Jacksonville finally had a name to call what just less than two years later would become the 30th franchise to join the NFL.

Although thousands of entries were received when a contest was held to name the team, a majority of hundreds agreed with the name "Jacksonville Jaguars." Of those who submitted the name Jaguars, Jacksonville resident Ray Potts was randomly selected as the contest winner and for his contribution was provided a trip to the Super Bowl that year.

Considered the most aggressive and feared big cats in North America, the Jacksonville Jaguars look to pay tribute to their namesake in championship form.

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT DONOVIN DARIUS

"He's like a Ronnie Lott - he's aggressive and he'll pound up in there. He's a very hard worker. He takes his job seriously, and that's critical. That's all he wants. He's going to be one of the best."

— Former Jaguars safety Camell Lake

"He does add a physical presence. He makes a running back realize, 'Hey, there's somebody back there looking for me.' He's going to lay a lick on him."

— Former NFL defensive tackle John Jurkovic

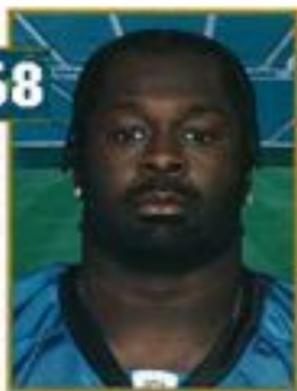

"He brings some violence to the secondary."

— Chicago Bears head coach Dick Jauron

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT HUGH DOUGLAS

"He is a dominant pass rusher with history and production — the type of player that can set the tempo for us. We feel Hugh can be productive — he is coming off a 12.5-sack season. The key thing for a player over 30 is that he is the right kind of guy with his work ethic and how tough a competitor he is. Hugh does all those things. With Hugh Douglas, we now have one of the most dominant pass rushers in the league."

— Jaguars vice president of player personnel James Harris

"He's been a special player in the league for a number of years. I think it's exciting to think about our two tackles (Marcus Stroud and John Henderson) pushing the pocket and Hugh coming around the edge. He should make them better, and they should help Hugh be better, too."

— Jaguars head coach Jack Del Rio

PRO: Pro Bowler in 2002 who quickly developed into one of NFL's top punters ... In second Jaguars season, led AFC in both gross punting and net punting ... Second Jaguars punter to play in the Pro Bowl, joining Bryan Barker (1997) ... Holds Jaguars career records for gross punting average (43.7 yards) and net punting average (37.3) ... In 33 NFL games, has 167 career punts for 7,297 yards, with 22 touchbacks and 51 inside the 20, with a long of 64 ... Team's surprise player of 2001, when he had 37.1-yard net punting average (fourth in NFL) and 43.6-yard gross average (sixth in NFL) ... Training camp pickup in '01 who beat out a fifth-round draft choice (David Leaverton) for the job to replace Bryan Barker ... Young left-footed punter had previous stints with Cleveland Browns, Green Bay Packers and Miami Dolphins ... Had played in just one NFL game before catching on with Jaguars ... Punted for Green Bay in 1999 season opener and spent 2000 season on Miami Dolphins' injured reserve list after suffering torn ACL in right (non-kicking) knee in NFL Europe League ... Also holds for placekicks ... 2002: Voted to Pro Bowl (team's only player on AFC squad) ... Finished season first in AFC in both gross punting (44.2-yard average) and net punting (37.6 average) ... Had the most downed punts in the NFL (16) ... Set career highs for gross and net punting, fewest touchbacks (10), most kicks inside the 20 (27) and long (64) ... Made two tackles on punt coverage ... Had career long punts of 64 yards in Sept. 8 season opener vs. Indianapolis and Nov. 10 vs. Washington ... On Sept. 29 vs. N.Y. Jets, punted five times for 53.2 gross average, the second-highest single-game mark in team history behind Bryan Barker's 53.8 on 10/19/97 ... Punted season-high eight times on Oct. 27 vs. Houston for 44.1 gross average, and made one tackle on punt coverage ... Had stellar game Nov. 10 vs. Washington, punting five times for 48.2 gross average with four inside the 20 and 64 long. Had no kicks returned for net average of 48.2 yards, setting a team single-game record (previous: 46.8 by Barker on 11/2/97). Pinned Redskins at their own 19-, 5-, 7- and 6-yard lines to receive a special teams game ball ... Had third straight game with no touchbacks Nov. 17 at Houston, with six punts for 43.0 average, 3 in20 and 51 long. Received a special teams game ball ... Continued hot streak a week later at Dallas, with six punts for 44.5 average, no TB, 4 in20 and 55 long (punts downed at Dallas 11-, 12-, 6- and 1-yard lines). Moved into first place in AFC in both gross and net punting ... Had four more punts inside the 20 on Dec. 8 vs. Cleveland, when he kicked seven times for 46.6 average ... 2001: Came out of nowhere to win team's punting job, superbly replacing Pro Bowler Bryan Barker, the only punter in franchise's first six seasons ... Signed as veteran free agent on Aug. 18 after release of Aron Langley to provide competition for David Leaverton, the team's fifth-round draft choice and favorite to win the job ... His third TD was on a 14-yard pass from Beuerlein ... Made his second start of the season Dec. 10 vs. Indianapolis and had a team-leading seven receptions for 79 yards and one TD, a four-yarder from Mark Brunell, which extended his streak to three consecutive games with a TD catch and gave him a total of five TDs in a three-game stretch ... Signed with Jacksonville as a veteran free agent on Feb. 28 ... 1994: Was waived by the Dallas Cowboys on July 11 and signed by Philadelphia on July 19 ... Spent preseason with the Eagles, catching five passes for 58 yards and returning 13 kickoffs for 265 yards (20.4 average) ... Waived by the Eagles Aug. 29, one day after the final cuts ... Out of football rest of the year ... 1993: In the preseason, was Dallas Cowboys' receiving leader with 13 catches for 197 yards until undergoing an emergency appendectomy prior to the final preseason game ... Was placed on the reserve/non-football injury list on Sept. 2 for the entire season ... 1992: Suffered a broken right leg in training camp July 19 and spent the first five weeks of the regular season on injured reserve ... Returned to practice Sept. 28 and was placed on team's active roster on Oct. 7 ... Played in seven of the last 12 regular-season contests and three in the playoffs, including Super Bowl XXVII ... Had no receptions but made one tackle on special teams ... Drafted in the second round, the 36th player overall and third wide receiver behind Desmond Howard and Carl Pickens.

COLLEGE: Completed his career with 107 receptions for 2,047 yards (19.1-yard average) and 16 touchdowns, adding 19 rushing attempts for 138 yards and one TD ... As a senior, led team with 43 receptions for 804 yards (18.4 average) to earn second-team All-SWAC honors ... Played in the Senior Bowl ... In his junior year, teamed with Tim Barnett (former Kansas City Chief) as the top wide receiver tandem in the nation ... Had a team-leading 40 catches for 877 yards (21.3 avg.) and nine TDs as a junior ... Graduated in 1992 with a degree in business management.

PERSONAL: Married (Sandra) with a son Jimmy Lee III (10/21/95), twins Jaden and Dalys (4/8/01) and son Dyson (4/3/00) ... Lives in Jacksonville ... Attended Calloway High in Jackson, Miss., earning All-Conference honors ... One of Jaguars' most visible players in the community ... Served as honorary chairman in 2002 for American Lung Association of Florida's 2002 Oxygen Ball fundraiser ... Jaguars' 1999-2000 NFL-United Way co-spokesman with Keenan McCardell ... Has asthma and partnered with the American Lung Association of Florida for an ongoing asthma awareness campaign. Has done a public service announcement with then-Jacksonville Mayor John Delaney and appears on poster with teammate and fellow asthma sufferer Chris Hanson ... Annually donates $100 per reception and $500 per touchdown to Wolfson Children's Hospital. Funds are utilized in part for the hospital's Jimmy Smith Scholarship Fund, which insures that no child or adult with asthma will be turned away from the asthma education programs due to a lack of health insurance or inability to pay. Other asthma-related community efforts included serving as honorary chairman for the Christmas Seals Campaign of Northeast Florida and participating in the American Lung Association's Open Airways for Schools Program ... For last six years, has hosted the Jimmy Smith/Keenan McCardell Football Camp for 200 kids, teaching them football skills ... Recognized as the 1999 Volunteer of the Year by the American Lung Association and Thoracic Societies of Florida, Georgia and South Carolina for his support in helping victims of lung-related diseases ... 1999 honorary chairman for "Chairs that Care" fundraiser to benefit the children's hospital. Personalized and signed a child-sized chair made by Ethan Allen Home Interiors and covered in football leather donated by Wilson Athletics. Of the nine celebrities who designed and signed chairs — including Michael Jordan, Bill Cosby, Barbara Bush, Elton John, John Travolta and Jeff Gordon — Smith's chair brought the highest donation ($10,000). Funds were used for the re-design of the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit, critical research in childhood asthma and the expansion of the Bone Marrow Transplant Unit ... His father, Jimmy Sr., attended Jackson State and was drafted by the Cincinnati Bengals as a tight end in 1968 ... Full name: Jimmy Lee Smith Jr.

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT JIMMY SMITH

"In our opinion, he's the best receiver in football. His numbers speak for themselves."

— Tennessee Titans head coach Jeff Fisher

"He's the No. 1 receiver in the league by far. He's the only one who has the total combination — the perfect combination of speed and power."

— Former Carolina Panthers cornerback Doug Evans

"Jimmy Smith doesn't know how good Jimmy Smith is. Jimmy's incredible. He's a great athlete who makes great catches. If a team leaves him one-on-one outside, Jimmy is going to win those nine out of 10 times. Jimmy is just stronger and faster than most any cornerback he faces. He's strong in the hands and he uses them to defeat you at the line. When he comes off the line of scrimmage, everything is tight. He attacks the corner's shoulders. Most receivers take a wide angle to get up field. He keeps all his angles sharp. With a guy that big and that strong, it makes it hard for a DB to attack his shoulder, get in front of him, and use his hands. He has great escape moves."

— Jaguars quarterback Mark Brunell

"He is the top receiver in the league. With Minnesota's Randy Moss, all you have is the deep ball. But Jimmy can run every route in the book."

— New Orleans Saints cornerback Ashley Ambrose

"Jimmy is 'the man' in this league."

— Indianapolis Colts wide receiver Marvin Harrison

"Jimmy has no weaknesses. He can play anyway he needs to. He can play the physical game. He can play the finesse game. Or he can run by you. That's why I think he's the best receiver in the league."

— Tennessee Titans cornerback Samari Rolle

"Jimmy's a lot like (former Viking) Cris Carter because he can do so much. He has very deceptive speed, and he has learned how to use his body and set up defensive backs."

— Former Washington Redskins cornerback Mark McMillian

"I remember when I came back from his workout when he was in college about to enter the draft and he did some things that I hadn't seen before. His ability to run routes, cut and get in and out of breaks reminded me of Henry Ellard, who is in the top 10 of all the records. Henry was a 180-pound guy, and here is Jimmy who can do these things, but Jimmy came into (Dallas') camp with injuries and appendicitis. We had quite a crew of people there, so it didn't work out. But I always thought Jimmy would be a heck of a player. You never know what a guy is going to go on and do. Jimmy is just phenomenal and has gone on to be one of, if not, the best player in the league. Sometimes when you have adversity it takes you a little bit longer and you appreciate it more."

— Miami Dolphins offensive coordinator Norv Turner

"In my opinion, Jimmy's the best and should be considered the best in this league. There's guys who are very fast, and that's all they are. But Jimmy's fast, and he's stronger than people think he is — he's incredibly strong. He's smart and he's a big-play maker. He does things on the field that I think, 'Wow! I've never seen him do that.' He's incredible. A lot of times, honestly, I'll just throw the ball up in the air, sometimes a lot farther than I think it should go, and Jimmy has the incredible ability to run under that thing every time. It's like he sees that the ball is a little farther downfield than it should be, and he just hits that extra gear that very few people have and he goes and gets it. He can adjust his body to where that ball lands perfect."

— Jaguars quarterback Mark Brunell

"You look at some games he had against us (in Baltimore), you'd think he's unstoppable. But then, he does that to a lot of people."

— Arizona Cardinals cornerback Duane Starks (with the Baltimore Ravens 1998-2001)

"He has moved himself into that elite group of the Jerry Rice-, Cris Carter-level of receiver. He has really established himself as one of the elite receivers in the league."

— Baltimore Ravens head coach Brian Billick

"I think he's the best receiver in football. That's not being said out of disrespect to anybody else — I have that much respect for him. I think he is the complete package. He runs tremendous routes. He has great hands. He has speed. He has great moves. We have to try to contain him."

— Pittsburgh Steelers head coach Bill Cowher

"Jimmy is like a fine wine — he just keeps getting better with age. He's an amazing person. He's one of the best players in the league and one of our best players. It's a tossup between him and Fred Taylor."

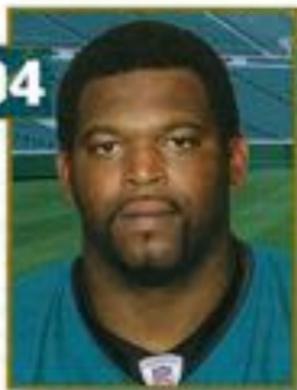

— Jaguars quarterback Mark Brunell

JIMMY SMITH VS. HALL OF FAME WIDE RECEIVERS

Even though he completed only his eighth season with the Jaguars (he had no catches in his first two years with the Dallas Cowboys), Jaguars wide receiver Jimmy Smith already has more receptions and more receiving yards than 17 of the 20 wide receivers who have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT MARCUS STROUD

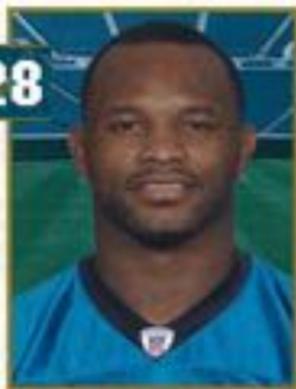

"Marcus is the type of player who could become a real, real problem for opponents — an insurmountable problem for them. He is an exceptional athlete for his size. His speed is extraordinary. His intelligence is extraordinary. And he has the drive to be as good a defensive lineman as there has been in this league."

— Former Jaguars defensive coordinator John Pease

"I knew when he came out of college that he was going to be a dominant player. I knew he was going to get his chance to be a beast at the NFL level. He has great mobility to be that big."

— Pittsburgh Steelers wide receiver Hines Ward

ing the first 1,000-yard rusher in team history with 1,005 yards. Turned in his fifth 100-yard rushing game to earn another offense game ball. Finished with 206 combined yards, including 23 on three receptions. Had a 31-yard run for his eighth play of 30-plus yards on the season. On his first carry, broke Means' team record for single-season rushing yards (823 in 1997), and later broke Jimmy Smith's record for combined yards from scrimmage in a season (1,324 in 1997). Eclipsed his own previous team record of 128 rushing yards, as well as the rushing attempt record of 29 by James Stewart. Marked his fourth game with two or more TDs ... Scored his 15th TD Dec. 13 vs. Tennessee, but was held to 42 yards on 20 carries (long 18). Led team with seven receptions for 32 yards ... Got his sixth 100-yard game of the season Dec. 20 at Minnesota, rushing for 105 yards on 23 carries. Also led team with four receptions for 25 yards to finish with 130 combined yards. With 42 receptions on the season broke the team's rookie record, topping Pete Mitchell's 41 catches in 1995. Was team's leading rusher as well as leader in receptions for the third time ... Scored two TDs in the Dec. 28 season finale vs. Pittsburgh and finished his rookie season with 17 total TDs to tie for third among rookies in NFL history, both for rushing TDs and total TDs. Rushed for 71 yards on 21 carries, with a 12-yard TD run, and caught two passes for 21 yards and a nine-yard TD. His 17 TDs tied Randy Moss for second in the NFL behind Terrell Davis (23). Received his seventh offense game ball. ... Started both playoff games ... Posted the third-best game by a rookie running back in NFL postseason history on Jan. 3 vs. New England with 162 yards on a career-high 33 carries. Also scored one touchdown and earned another offense game ball. Scored on 13-yard run in the second quarter for a 12-0 lead and had 46-yard run in the first quarter, which was the second-longest run in team's postseason history. Also turned in the third 100-yard rushing game by a Jaguar in postseason (Means had two), and his 162 yards were the second most in team's postseason history to Means' 175 on 12/28/96 at Buffalo. His rushing total of 162 ranks third in NFL postseason history for a rookie, trailing only 204 by Washington's Timmy Smith (1/31/88 vs. Denver) and 165 by L.A. Chargers' Paul Lowe (1/1/61 vs. Houston). With 33 carries broke Means' team's postseason record of 31 on 12/28/96 at Buffalo and topped Taylor's regular-season mark of 32 carries on 12/6/98 vs. Detroit. Named NFL Offensive Player of the Week for the Wild-Card weekend, becoming the first rookie to win the award ... Limited by New York Jets defense to 86 yards on 20 carries in the Jan. 10 Divisional Playoff game ... His 248 rushing yards in two postseason games moved him to fifth in NFL history for rushing yards by a rookie in postseason behind Washington's Timmy Smith (342 in 1987), Dallas' Duane Thomas (313 in 1970), Cincinnati's Ikey Woods (307 in 1968) and Houston's Earl Campbell (264 in 1978) ... Drafted ninth overall and second running back picked after Curtis Enis ... Selected with a choice obtained from Buffalo (along with a fourth-round pick) in exchange for quarterback Rob Johnson.

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT FRED TAYLOR

"Fred Taylor is a monster. He's back."

— Tampa Bay Buccaneers defensive end Simeon Rice

"There's not a lot of guys that can do what he does. He can change the course of a game on one play. He has the ability to score from anywhere on any given play."

— Jaguars' quarterback Mark Brunell

"He's a great player. If you look at his numbers when he's been out there, if he would have been healthy his entire career he would have been, if not the top, one of the top three backs in the league in everybody's mind."

— Philadelphia Eagles linebacker Carlos Emmons

"Fred is one of those guys who can take it all the way at any time. He's an explosive back. He can do a lot of things from a lot of different places on the field. He does things that not a lot of backs in this league can do. He has the speed to go the distance. He can make people miss, and he has power, too."

— Houston Texans offensive tackle Tony Boselli

"I honestly think he is going to be the next 2,000-yard back. He's unbelievable. He has speed, he has power, he has a mixture of things that makes him successful."

— Houston Texans cornerback Aaron Glenn

"He's the bell cow. He makes a lot of big plays for them. Marshall Faulk is a unique individual, and this guy is a Marshall Faulk-type. He's a dangerous guy."

— Philadelphia Eagles defensive coordinator Jim Johnson

"Year-in and year-out, minus the injuries, Fred is a Pro Bowl running back. Take away his injuries and Fred can do anything that any running back in the league can do."

— Tennessee Titans defensive end Jevon Kearse

"He hits holes quicker than anybody I've ever seen."

— Oakland Raiders defensive end Trace Armstrong

"Once he gets into the crease, Fred's looking to get to the sidelines. He has outstanding speed. I've been very impressed with Fred Taylor, what I have seen of him so far. You see defenders on video having good angles, suddenly disappearing. He's a very dangerous runner."

— Pittsburgh Steelers head coach Bill Cowher

"He's growing as a player. People think they've seen the best of Fred Taylor. I don't think Fred Taylor's even knows how good he is. You give him just a little blocking, and he's going to make big plays. I'm just happy to play with a guy like that. I've played with Emmitt Smith, but Fred Taylor ranks No. 1 in my heart."

— Jaguars wide receiver Jimmy Smith

"Taylor is a very elusive back. He's almost like Barry (Sanders). He makes people miss."

— Former Detroit Lions wide receiver Herman Moore

"Fred's like a silent assassin — he's very soft spoken but he carries a big stick. There's nothing like blocking your man and looking up and seeing Fred 50 yards down the field. That creates a spark in an offense like nothing else can. At any given moment, he has game-breaking ability. You keep him in the game long enough, he's going to make something happen."

— Former Jaguars offensive tackle Leon Searcy

"I know what kind of player Fred is. He's the complete package. He's a great player."

— Denver Broncos head coach Mike Shanahan

"He's a great back, a quality, quality back that is a franchise back."

— Arizona Cardinals head coach Dave McGinnis

"Anything that Fred Taylor does from here on out shouldn't surprise anybody. It doesn't surprise his teammates. Ask him. He says, 'I need a crack, just give me a crack.' He has the type of ability to turn a 30-yard run into a 60-, 70-yard run."

— Former Jaguars offensive tackle Ben Coleman

"Fred's one of the best backs there is. You give him a little bit of a hole and he's gone. He makes people miss. He's an all-around back. He's able to catch the ball. He can run the ball inside, he can run the ball outside."

— Jaguars center Brad Meester

"He's the most dynamic runner in football, and it is tough to manage him. If you can't manage him — he rips off 20- or 30-yard runs — then the Jaguars can do pretty much whatever they want in the passing game."

— Former Steelers fullback and ESPN analyst Merrill Hoge

"When he's whole, I mean 100 percent physically, he's in an elite class. There aren't many guys who compare to him in terms of being able to do so many things."

— Tampa Bay Buccaneers safety John Lynch

"Fred Taylor is the key. When he gets going, he really gets going. Fred is a silent but violent man. We are aware of what he can do. You have to stay disciplined and make him cut back."

— Pittsburgh Steelers nose tackle Kimo von Oelhoffen

"They find a lot of ways to get him the ball. You see a lot of times on film, if you don't have three or four guys around him, he'll sit on a guy, or spin on a guy, or do a little backstep or two-step and make a five-yard run into a 50-yard run."

— Kansas City Chiefs linebacker Shawn Barber

"Fred forces defenses to stay honest. He's one of the few backs in the league who has the ability to go the distance any time he touches the ball, and because of that you have to concern yourself with your run front and numbers. And when you do that, there's going to be big plays down the field."

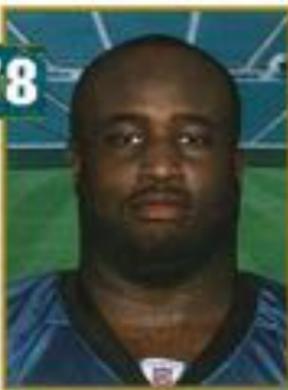

— Tennessee Titans head coach Jeff Fisher

THE RUSH IS ON

In the last six seasons, the Jaguars have rushed for 107 touchdowns, the most in the NFL.

COLTS 28, JAGUARS 25
 SEPTEMBER 8, 2002
 ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

INDIANAPOLIS COLTS (1-0)	7	7	7	7	—	28
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-1)	0	7	10	8	—	25

The Jaguars opened their eighth season with a 28-25 loss to the Indianapolis Colts at ALLTEL Stadium, snapping their six-game winning streak on Opening Day. The Jaguars pulled to within three points with 4:16 to play and got the ball back on their own 20-yard line with 1:02 left. Mark Brunell led the team into Indianapolis territory, but a "Hail Mary" pass into the end zone fell incomplete as time ran out. The Jaguars allowed 14 points to the Colts on an interception that was returned for a touchdown and a muffed punt that was turned into a touchdown three plays later. After missing all of the preseason in a contract holdout, WR Jimmy Smith caught eight passes for 104 yards — the 36th 100-yard game of his career — and scored on a two-point conversion. Brunell passed for 228 yards, and Fred Taylor — playing in his first full game in a year — rushed for 83 yards and a touchdown, as the Jaguars outgained the Colts and held the ball for 32:33. Brunell threw two TD passes, the first to Pete Mitchell, who was returning after a three-year absence, and to Patrick Johnson, who was playing in his first game as a Jaguar. The loss was the Jaguars' fourth straight at home, tying the longest streak in franchise history that was set in 1995.

GAME NOTES

- Jimmy Smith registered his 36th career 100-yard game. It was his 36th in 119 career games, which ranked second only to Randy Moss.
- The first quarter 96-yard scoring drive by Indianapolis was the longest drive by a Jaguars opponent since 10/26/97 at Pittsburgh.
- The game marked Mark Brunell's 100th career start.

GAME 2 JAGUARS 23, CHIEFS 16

SEPTEMBER 15, 2002
ARROWHEAD STADIUM, KANSAS CITY, MO.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-1)	0	9	0	14	—	23
KANSAS CITY CHIEFS (1-1)	3	3	0	10	—	16

The Jaguars got their first win of the season when they defeated the Kansas City Chiefs 23-16 at Arrowhead Stadium. It was the fourth win in the last five road games for the Jaguars, who won for the first time in the regular season since December 23, 2001. Mark Brunell passed for 320 yards and two touchdowns in leading the victory, as the Jaguars struck for two long touchdowns in the fourth quarter. Tied 9-9 with 6:57 left in the game, Brunell first hooked up with Patrick Johnson for a 79-yard touchdown pass — the longest pass in franchise history — for a 16-9 lead. Then, as soon as the Jaguars got the ball back after forcing a punt, Fred Taylor ran 63 yards for a touchdown. The Chiefs jumped out to a 6-0 second-quarter lead on two Morten Andersen field goals following long drives on their first two possessions. The Jaguars got their first touchdown late in the second quarter on a 37-yard pass from Brunell to Jimmy Smith on a 4th-and-5 play, but the extra point snap was mishandled and the game was tied 6-6. The Jaguars then took a 9-6 lead on the final play of the first half on a 26-yard field goal by Hayden Epstein. The third quarter was scoreless, and then the two teams combined for 24 points in the final quarter.

GAME NOTES

- Fred Taylor broke the team record with his 34th career rushing touchdown, topping the mark of 33 by James Stewart.
- The Jaguars did not allow a sack for only the fourth time ever.
- The Jaguars' 450 total yards were their most since December 10, 2000 and their sixth most ever, while their 320 passing yards were the most since 9/10/00 at Baltimore.

GAME 3
JAGUARS 28, JETS 3
 SEPTEMBER 29, 2002
 ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

NEW YORK JETS (1-3)	0	3	0	0	—	3
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-1)	7	7	14	0	—	28

The Jaguars got their second win of the season 28-3 over the New York Jets, snapping a four-game losing streak at ALLTEL Stadium. The win gave the Jaguars a 2-1 start for the fourth consecutive season and moved them into a tie for first place in the AFC South. Fred Taylor gained 237 yards from scrimmage — 142 rushing and 95 receiving — and scored a touchdown to lead the Jaguars. Stacey Mack added three rushing touchdowns, as the Jaguars won at home for the first time since November 11, 2001. The Jaguars rushed for 233 yards, the third most in franchise history, and Mark Brunell attempted only 15 passes — just two in the second half — the Jaguars' fewest ever in a game. Taylor rushed 21 times for 142 yards — the fourth-highest total in team history — and he caught three passes for 95 yards, the most ever for a Jaguars running back. Mack chipped in with 70 yards on 15 carries and the first three-TD game of his career. The Jets threatened several times, but the Jaguars forced four turnovers, three of them leading to touchdowns. On the Jaguars' first offensive play of the game, Brunell hooked up on a 72-yard pass with Taylor, who was tackled just short of the goal line. One play later Mack barreled in for the touchdown. The Taylor-Mack duo accounted for 315 of the team's 383 yards in the game, including 219 of the 227 offensive yards on the four scoring drives. Jets quarterback Vinny Testaverde was injured in the first quarter on Marcus Stroud's first career NFL sack and did not return.

GAME NOTES

■ Fred Taylor notched his second 100-yard game of the season and the 20th of his career. His 237 combined yards from scrimmage (142 rushing and a career-high 95 receiving) were the third most in team history (291 by Jimmy Smith at Baltimore in 2000 and 248 by Taylor in 2000 at Pittsburgh).

■ The Jaguars did not allow a touchdown for the first time since December 23, 2001.

■ Stacey Mack became the fourth player in team history to record three or more touchdowns in a game (accomplished seven times).

GAME 4

JAGUARS 28, EAGLES 25

OCTOBER 6, 2002

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

PHILADELPHIA EAGLES (3-2)	0	7	3	15	—	25
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (3-1)	3	11	0	14	—	28

The Jaguars defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 28-25 at ALLTEL Stadium. The Jaguars took a 28-10 lead late in the fourth quarter on Bobby Shaw's 69-yard punt return for a touchdown and held off the Eagles, who scored two touchdowns in the final three minutes to make the score close. Philadelphia dominated the statistics, gaining 406 yards and 28 first downs to Jacksonville's 267 yards and 16 first downs and controlling the clock for 34:58. But the Jaguars were opportunistic and trailed for only two minutes of the game. Following two short field goals by Hayden Epstein and then a go-ahead touchdown by the Eagles, the Jaguars struck back on a two-yard pass from Mark Brunell to Kyle Brady (and then were successful on a two-point conversion) to take a 14-7 halftime lead. The Eagles closed the gap to 14-10, before the Jaguars pulled away. Stacey Mack scored on a one-yard run, and after the Jaguars forced the Eagles to punt on the ensuing possession, Shaw returned the kick 69 yards for a score and a 28-10 lead with 6:23 to play. The Jaguars rushed for only 70 yards, with Fred Taylor carrying 21 times for 48 yards.

GAME NOTES

■ Jimmy Smith led the team with four receptions and 91 yards. He became the 26th player in NFL history to make 600 receptions.

■ The team got a season-high five sacks, their most since 10/28/01 at Baltimore. No. 1 pick DT John Henderson made his first NFL start and made three sacks, the first of his career and tying the team's single-game record set by Kelvin Pritchett on October 12, 1997 vs. Cincinnati.

■ Bobby Shaw's 69-yard punt return for a touchdown was the third-longest in Jaguars history and the third TD on a punt return ever (Reggie Barlow did it twice, on 9/13/98 vs. Kansas City and 11/21/99 vs. New Orleans).

GAME 5 TITANS 23, JAGUARS 14

OCTOBER 13, 2002

THE COLISEUM, NASHVILLE, TENN.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (3-2)	0	7	7	0	—	14
TENNESSEE TITANS (2-4)	7	9	0	7	—	23

The Jaguars were defeated by the Tennessee Titans 23-14 at The Coliseum, losing their fourth straight game in Nashville. QB Mark Brunell suffered a concussion on the first series of the game. He played one more possession, then left the game and was replaced by rookie David Garrard, who had his first extended playing time in an NFL game. Garrard scored both of the Jaguars' touchdowns, becoming the team's first quarterback to score two TDs in a game. But the Jacksonville passing game struggled, accounting for only 68 yards and a franchise-low 13 attempts and seven completions, as the Jaguars had fewer than 200 total yards of offense for only the third time ever. The Titans controlled the clock for 37:43 and gained 370 yards but were forced into field goal attempts on four occasions, hitting on three of them. They also scored their two touchdowns on long drives. Garrard rushed for 71 yards, followed Fred Taylor's 59 yards, and WR Jimmy Smith caught four of the team's seven completed passes. For the Titans, Eddie George rushed for 113 yards and scored both touchdowns.

GAME NOTES

- David Garrard's 71 yards rushing were the most ever by a Jaguars quarterback.
- The Jaguars' 68 net and 84 gross passing yards were the lowest since the inaugural game when they had 45 and 69, respectively, against the Houston Oilers. The Jaguars' 13 pass attempts broke the record of 15 set two weeks earlier against the New York Jets.
- MLB Wail Rainer led the team with 22 tackles (9 solo), followed by WLB Danny Clark with 16 tackles (7 solo). Rainer's 22 tackles tied for the second-highest single-game total in franchise history.

GAME 6

RAVENS 17, JAGUARS 10

OCTOBER 20, 2002

RAVENS STADIUM, BALTIMORE, MD.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (3-3)	0	7	0	3	—	10
BALTIMORE RAVENS (3-3)	0	7	10	0	—	17

The Jaguars lost their second straight game and fell to 3-3 on the season, as they were defeated 17-10 by the Ravens in Baltimore. Mark Brunell was intercepted on the final play of the game with the Jaguars trying to tie the score. Jacksonville kicked a field goal with 2:30 remaining to get within seven points and forced the Ravens to punt, taking over the ball at their own 17-yard line with 2:05 left. Brunell drove the Jaguars 58 yards to the 25-yard line before the interception, his third of the game. Fred Taylor gained 197 yards from scrimmage, with 151 rushing and 46 on eight receptions, as the Jaguars gained 397 yards. However, the three interceptions and a failure to capitalize on good field position held the team to its fewest points since November 18, 2001. The Jaguars had seven possessions inside the Ravens' 31-yard line and managed only the two scores. The Ravens gained only 261 yards but never trailed, as they won their fifth straight game over the Jaguars. Taylor scored the team's only touchdown on a nine-yard run, and Hayden Epstein added a 22-yard field goal. However, Epstein also missed a 39-yard attempt and the Jaguars chose not to attempt field goals on three other occasions.

GAME NOTES

■ Fred Taylor rushed for a season-high 151 yards, the fourth-highest total in team history. He became only the second player to rush for more than 100 yards against the Ravens in the last 61 games. His 100-yard game was his third of the season and 21st of his career. He added a team-high eight receptions for 46 yards, which was one catch short of his career high.

■ Taylor surpassed 4,000 yards rushing for his career, and his touchdown was the 41st of his career.

■ Jimmy Smith led the team with 63 yards receiving on seven receptions. His seven catches gave him 613 for his career, moving into 24th place on the NFL's all-time receiving list, passing Keith Byars.

GAME 7 TEXANS 21, JAGUARS 19

OCTOBER 27, 2002

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

HOUSTON TEXANS (2-5)	0	7	3	11	—	21
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (3-4)	0	9	3	7	—	19

The Jaguars were defeated by the Houston Texans 21-19, losing for the third time to an AFC South team. The loss dropped the Jaguars to 3-4 for the year and put them below .500 for the first time since the opening week of the season. The Texans' Kris Brown kicked the game-winning field goal with 2:11 to play, capitalizing on a 47-yard punt return off a lateral that put the ball on the Jacksonville 33-yard line four plays earlier. Jimmy Smith opened the scoring in the second quarter with a 25-yard touchdown pass from Mark Brunell, but the Texans evened the score at 7-7 with their first TD ever by a running back. Eric Westmoreland blocked a punt for a safety and a 9-7 lead at halftime. In the third quarter, the teams traded field goals, with Houston taking a 10-0 lead on a 43-yarder by Brown and then Jacksonville going back ahead 12-10 after a 34-yarder by newly acquired Tim Seder. In the fourth quarter, the two teams alternated touchdowns. First the Texans scored on a one-yard pass from David Carr to Billy Miller and were successful on a two-point conversion for an 18-12 lead. The Jaguars took their last lead 19-18 midway through the fourth period on a two-yard run by Stacey Mack.

GAME NOTES

- The Jaguars lost for the first time to an expansion team, after sweeping the Cleveland Browns in 1999.
- The team got four sacks, one each by John Henderson (5th of the season), Wali Rainer (first as a Jaguar) and Marlon McCree and Danny Clark (first of their careers).
- For the second straight week, the Jaguars lost a game in which they had more yards (290 to 242), more first downs (18 to 12) and more time of possession (33:39 to 26:21).

GAME 8

GIANTS 24, JAGUARS 17

NOVEMBER 3, 2002

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (3-5)	0	0	3	14	—	17
NEW YORK GIANTS (4-4)	7	7	10	0	—	24

The Jaguars were defeated by the New York Giants 24-17 in a Sunday night game at Giants Stadium. The loss was the team's fourth in a row and dropped them to 3-5 on the season. The Giants jumped out to a 24-0 lead, rolling up 372 yards and 24 first downs to the Jaguars' 105 yards and five first downs at the midpoint of the third quarter. Jacksonville scored the game's final 17 points, getting two touchdowns in the final 5:20 of the game. Jimmy Smith caught a season-high 10 passes for 123 yards, his 37th career 100-game. But, while the Jaguars gained 329 yards in the game, a costly turnover on their first possession, seven first-half penalties and a failure to stop the Giants put the game out of reach not long after halftime. After pulling within a touchdown at 24-17, the Jaguars tried an onside kick with 1:47 to go but failed to recapture the ball. Fred Taylor suffered a back injury and missed most of the second half, and he finished with six carries for nine yards, a career-low in games he had started. The Giants led 14-0 at halftime, converting a 4th-and-17 play just 26 seconds before the end of the second quarter and then scoring a touchdown on the next play. The Giants also missed two field goals in the first half.

GAME NOTES

■ Jimmy Smith led the team with a season-high 10 catches for 123 yards and one touchdown (his third of the season and 49th of his career, extending his team record). His career totals increased to 627 receptions (one behind Rob Moore for 23rd place on the NFL's all-time list) and 8,863 yards (moving into 32nd place on the all-time receiving yards list, six yards behind Mark Duper in 31st place).

■ The team got four sacks, two by Marcus Stroud (a single-game best, giving him three for the year) and one by Akin Ayodele (first of his career).

GAME 9 JAGUARS 26, REDSKINS 7

NOVEMBER 10, 2002

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

WASHINGTON REDSKINS (4-5)	7	0	0	0	—	7
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (4-5)	0	10	13	3	—	26

The Jaguars defeated the Washington Redskins 26-7 at ALLTEL Stadium behind four field goals by Tim Seder and a stout defense that kept the Redskins from scoring after their first possession. The victory snapped a four-game losing streak and gave the Jaguars a 4-5 record, one game out of first place in the AFC South. Seder, who was signed by the team three weeks earlier, tied a career high with his four field goals, and Stacey Mack and Fred Taylor scored rushing touchdowns, as the Jaguars broke out of an offensive slump. After the Redskins scored on their first possession, the Jaguars struck back with 23 points in the second and third quarters. Jacksonville came up with three interceptions and two sacks. On Washington's final 11 drives, the Redskins punted five times, suffered three interceptions, were stopped on downs twice and missed a field goal. Punter Chris Hanson pinned the Redskins at their own 19-, 5-, 7- and 6-yard lines with excellent punts. Washington drove 77 yards for a touchdown on its first series, then managed only 127 yards until midway through the fourth quarter. By that time, the Jaguars had scored on six of eight possessions and they spoiled Steve Spurrier's return to the state of Florida.

GAME NOTES

■ Chris Hanson punted five times for a 48.2-yard average with no touchbacks and tied his career-high with four kicks inside the 20. He had no punts returned (one fair catch) and a net average of 48.2, which set a team single-game record (previous: 46.8 by Bryan Barker on 11/2/97 vs. Tenn.). Hanson also tied his career long with a 64-yarder.

■ The Jaguars grabbed three interceptions, after opponents had gone 192 consecutive passes and five games without throwing an interception. Making interceptions were Jason Craft (second of the year, fourth of career), Marlon McCree (team-leading third of the year), and Danny Clark (first of his career).

■ Jimmy Smith caught five passes for 68 yards, moving into 22nd place on the NFL's all-time receiving list and into 31st place on the receiving yardage list.

GAME 10 JAGUARS 24, TEXANS 21

NOVEMBER 17, 2002

RELIANT STADIUM, HOUSTON, TEXAS

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (5-5)	7	10	7	0	—	24
HOUSTON TEXANS (2-8)	0	7	7	7	—	21

The Jaguars defeated the Houston Texans 24-21 at new Reliant Stadium behind two Mark Brunell touchdown passes and the strong running of Fred Taylor and Stacey Mack. It was the Jaguars' first victory over the expansion Texans and avenged a loss three weeks earlier at home. Brunell threw touchdown passes of two yards to Kyle Brady and 13 yards to Jimmy Smith, and Stacey Mack scored from one yard out on fourth down, as the Jaguars jumped out to a 24-7 lead, scoring two of their touchdowns off Houston's two turnovers. The Texans scored two touchdowns on runs by quarterback David Carr, but the Jaguars' defense came up with two sacks on Houston's final drive to thwart any chance of a comeback. Taylor rushed for 56 yards and Mack added 54 yards in a tandem effort that kept the Texans off balance. Meanwhile, the Jaguars allowed only 78 yards rushing. Jimmy Smith caught six passes for 70 yards and one touchdown and moved into the top 20 on the NFL's all-time receiving list and into 26th place on the career receiving yardage list. He also surpassed 9,000 yards receiving and scored his 50th career touchdown. The win was the team's second in a row and moved them back to .500 at 5-5 with six games to go. It was their first win in the AFC South.

GAME NOTES

■ Jimmy Smith became the 26th player in NFL history to surpass 9,000 yards receiving with 9,001 for his career. His TD was the 50th of his career, extending his team record.

■ Mark Brunell completed 15 of 25 passes (60.0 percent) for 224 yards, 2 TD and 1 INT for a passer rating of 99.4.

■ Brunell had a streak of 112 consecutive passes without an interception snapped in the second quarter, a streak that was the fourth longest in team history.

GAME 11 COWBOYS 21, JAGUARS 19

NOVEMBER 24, 2002
TEXAS STADIUM, IRVING, TEXAS

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (5-6)	0	5	0	14	—	19
DALLAS COWBOYS (4-7)	0	7	7	7	—	21

The Jaguars were defeated by the Dallas Cowboys 21-19 at Texas Stadium, dropping to 5-6 for the season. Jacksonville scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter, but a Fred Taylor fumble on the one-yard line midway through the final period cost them a chance to narrow the 21-12 deficit. The Cowboys entered the game with the NFL's lowest-scoring offense and a rookie quarterback. But they scored three touchdowns, as Chad Hutchinson passed for 301 yards and two touchdowns, both of them to Joey Galloway. The Cowboys outgained the Jaguars 405 yards to 326, with 179 of Jacksonville's total yards coming on their final three drives. After taking a 2-0 lead on a Dallas safety early in the second period, the Jaguars trailed the remainder of the game, falling behind 14-5 late in the third quarter. Taylor rushed for 100 yards and Jimmy Smith caught eight passes for 90 yards. Stacey Mack scored on a three-yard run and Kevin Lockett caught an eight-yard scoring pass from Mark Brunell for the two fourth-quarter touchdowns. But the Dallas defense stymied the Jaguars most of the game — the team gained more than 20 yards on only one of its first 10 drives — while 11 penalties and three turnovers were costly in the loss.

GAME NOTES

■ Jimmy Smith caught eight passes for 90 yards. He moved into 24th place on the NFL's career receiving yardage list, moving up two spots ahead of Tony Martin (9,065) and Shannon Sharpe (9,069).

■ Chris Hanson punted six times for a 44.5-yard average, with no touchbacks and four inside the 20 and a long of 55. He had two kicks returned for 11 yards and two fair catches for a net average of 42.7.

■ Fred Taylor led the team in rushing with 100 yards on 20 carries (5.0 average). It was his fourth 100-yard game of the season and 22nd of his career.

GAME 12

STEELERS 25, JAGUARS 23

DECEMBER 1, 2002

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

PITTSBURGH STEELERS (7-4-1)	6	10	3	6	—	25
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (5-7)	7	3	0	13	—	23

The Jaguars were defeated by the Pittsburgh Steelers 25-23, dropping to 5-7 for the year. Mark Brunell threw a seven-yard touchdown pass to Jimmy Smith with 1:16 remaining, but when he tried to hit Smith again for the two-point conversion try to tie the game, the pass was incomplete. The Steelers jumped out to a 19-10 lead, dominating the game and the clock. They rushed for 219 yards — the second most ever against the Jaguars — and held the ball for 38:41 — the third most ever (Jacksonville's 21:19 time of possession was its second-lowest total ever). The Jaguars gained only 111 total yards in the first three quarters before getting touchdowns on their final two drives of the game, the first on a 42-yard pass from Brunell to Kyle Brady and then the Brunell-to-Smith pass. Fred Taylor, who rushed for 80 yards, scored the team's first touchdown on an 18-yard run in the first quarter. Jeff Reed kicked a team-record-tying six field goals for Pittsburgh, the most ever by a Jaguars opponent. The Jaguars had no penalties for the first time in their 124 games, as well as no turnovers.

- The Jaguars had no penalties for the first time in their 124 games, as well as no turnovers.
- Marlon McCree made his fifth interception of the season, one behind the team's single-season record held by Aaron Beasley. His 53-yard return was the second-longest in franchise history.

GAME 13 BROWNS 21, JAGUARS 20

DECEMBER 8, 2002

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

CLEVELAND BROWNS (7-6)	0	0	14	7	—	21
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (5-8)	7	0	7	6	—	20

A 50-yard Hail Mary pass for a touchdown from Tim Couch to Quincy Morgan on the final play of the game handed the Jaguars a 21-20 loss to the Cleveland Browns at ALLTEL Stadium. The play was reviewed by instant replay but not overturned. The Jaguars had taken a 20-14 lead with 50 seconds remaining on the second of two Danny Boyd field goals, a 22-yarder. A squib kick was returned to the Cleveland 47-yard line, and then Couch was sacked on first down, then completed an eight-yard pass before the Hail Mary throw. The game was tied 14-14 late in the fourth quarter before Boyd kicked a 33-yard field goal — the first of his career — with 2:32 remaining in the game. Five plays later, Akin Ayodele intercepted Couch and returned the ball to the Browns' 24-yard line. The Jaguars drove to the four, but they went for a field goal on fourth down prior to Cleveland's final drive. The Browns gained 417 yards to the Jaguars' 211 (only 54 passing), and they controlled the clock for 34:56. Morgan scored on passes of 60 and 50 yards for the Browns, who were aided by William Green's 119 yards and one TD rushing.

GAME NOTES

■ Marlon McCree made one interception and tied two team single-season records — six interceptions and six takeaways, tying marks set by Aaron Beasley in 1999. McCree also moved into a tie for fourth place on the team's career interception list with seven.

■ Akin Ayodele got the first interception of his career, along with his third sack.

■ Fred Taylor rushed 23 times for 145 yards, his fifth 100-yard game of the season and 23rd of his career.

■ Chris Hanson punted seven times for a 46.6-yard average, with no touchbacks, four inside the 20, and a long of 56. He had three kicks returned for eight yards and one fair catch for a net average of 45.4.

GAME 14

JAGUARS 29, BENGALS 15

DECEMBER 15, 2002

PAUL BROWN STADIUM, CINCINNATI, OHIO

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (6-8)	7	7	8	7	—	29
CINCINNATI BENGALS (1-13)	3	9	3	0	—	15

The Jaguars snapped a three-game losing streak by defeating the Cincinnati Bengals 29-15 at Paul Brown Stadium. Mark Brunell threw three touchdown passes for the first time in 29 games in leading the Jaguars to their most points of the season. Jimmy Smith, Pete Mitchell and Kevin Lockett caught TD passes and Stacey Mack scored on a short plunge, as the team scored four touchdowns in a game for the first time since Week 3. The Jaguars jumped out to a 7-0 lead on Lockett's TD, scoring a touchdown on their opening possession for the first time since Game 3. They fell behind 15-14 in the third quarter after Cincinnati's Neil Rackers kicked his third field goal of the game. On Jacksonville's next possession, two 4th-and-6 plays were key. The Bengals forced a punt but had too many men on the field, giving the Jaguars another chance on 4th-and-1, which they converted. Four plays later, again on 4th-and-6, head coach Tom Coughlin went for it, and Brunell hooked up with Smith on a 26-yard touchdown pass (Fred Taylor then added a two-point conversion). Mack added a touchdown in the fourth quarter and the Jaguars kept the Bengals from scoring over the final 24 minutes of the game.

GAME NOTES

■ Mark Brunell completed 19 of 28 passes (67.9 percent) for 223 yards, 3 TD and 0 INT for a passer rating of 127.5. It marked his third straight game in which he was not intercepted and had a passer rating over 100.0.

■ The Jaguars had gone three games without a turnover, the second-longest streak in team history (they went four games without a turnover in 1999).

■ Jason Craft got his third interception of the season (and fifth of his career).

GAME 15

TITANS 28, JAGUARS 10

DECEMBER 22, 2002

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

TENNESSEE TITANS (10-5)	7	7	7	7	—	28
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (6-9)	0	3	0	7	—	10

The Jaguars were defeated by the Tennessee Titans 28-10 in their most decisive loss of the year. The loss dropped the team to 6-9 and assured the Jaguars of their third straight losing season. The Titans won in Jacksonville for the first time in three years, jumping out to a 28-3 lead before the Jaguars scored their lone touchdown with eight seconds to play. Mark Brunell suffered a strained hamstring and left the game after the third quarter, and Jimmy Smith and Fred Taylor were sidelined with injuries for a while, as the Jaguars failed to mount much momentum on offense. Tennessee scored touchdowns in all four quarters and held the Jaguars to 214 yards, their third lowest output of the season. Brunell was replaced by David Garrard, who led the team to its only touchdown, a four-yard pass to Smith. The Titans rushed for 175 yards, led by Eddie George (89) and Steve McNair (56). Taylor rushed for only 17 yards on three carries, and Smith had just three receptions for 17 yards and a touchdown.

GAME NOTES

- With 42 catches through 15 games, Bobby Shaw set a career high for receptions, surpassing his previous best of 40 catches with Pittsburgh in 2000.
- Jimmy Smith's touchdown reception was the 51st of his career, extending his team record.
- The Jaguars made no sacks in the game for the first time since 10/22/00 vs. Washington, snapping the NFL's second-longest active streak at 38 games.

GAME 16 COLTS 20, JAGUARS 13

DECEMBER 29, 2002
RCA DOME, INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (6-10)	3	7	0	3	—	13
INDIANAPOLIS COLTS (10-6)	0	10	0	10	—	20

The Jaguars lost their season finale 20-13 to the Indianapolis Colts in the RCA Dome and finished their eighth season with a 6-10 record. Rookie David Garrard replaced an injured Mark Brunell and became the eighth player to start a game at quarterback for the Jaguars. He led the Jaguars to a 13-10 lead early in the fourth quarter before the Colts scored the final 10 points to win. Garrard completed 13 of 26 passes for 135 yards and ran for 44 yards. Fred Taylor rushed for 73 yards and scored the Jaguars' lone touchdown, and Danny Boyd kicked two field goals, as the Jaguars lost their season finale for the third straight year. The Jaguars' defense held Colts All-Pro WR Marvin Harrison to a season-low 28 yards on six receptions, and Peyton Manning threw for only 146 yards on 28 passes. Once again, penalties and mistakes doomed the Jaguars. A roughing the punter penalty on Elvis Joseph led to the Colts' first score in the final period, and personal fouls on John Henderson and Akin Ayodele preceded Indianapolis' winning touchdown. The Jaguars finished the season with a 3-5 record on the road and 1-5 in the new AFC South, snapping a streak of seven straight .500-or-better seasons in the division. Head coach Tom Coughlin was fired the day after the game.

GAME NOTES

■ Fred Taylor finished the season with 1,314 yards rushing, the second-highest total in team history (record: 1,399 in 2000) after playing in all 16 games for the first time.

■ The Jaguars finished the season plus-12 in turnovers (tied for second in the AFC).

■ Jimmy Smith made three catches for 35 yards. He finished the season in 19th place on the NFL's all-time receiving list and in 20th place on the all-time receiving yardage list. Smith also surpassed 1,000 yards receiving for the seventh consecutive season, tying for the fourth-longest streak in NFL history with Hall of Famer Lance Alworth.

HISTORY

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

1989

Aug. 17 — Touchdown Jacksonville, a partnership to lead the community effort to win an NFL franchise is formed. The group, led by Tom Petway, includes Jeb Bush, Hamilton Jordan, and Arthur "Chick" Sherrer.

1990

April 4 — National Football League commissioner Paul Tagliabue announces that the League will expand by two teams no later than the 1993 season.

July 26 — The NFL Realignment and Expansion Committee recommends that the League expand by two teams for the 1993 season.

Feb. 12 — In a unanimous vote, the Jacksonville City Council votes to commit $60 million to renovate the Gator Bowl contingent upon the City being awarded an expansion football team.

May 15 — The NFL Realignment and Expansion Committee recommends that the League expand by two teams for the 1994 season, contrary to the July 26, 1990 vote.

May 22 — At the owners' meeting in Minneapolis, a plan is approved that will add two expansion teams to the League for the 1994 season.

May 30 — Florida Governor Lawton Chiles signs into law the Professional Sports Facilities Program, a state statute that provides state funding of up to $2 million for 30 years for funding new sports facilities that operate in the state of Florida.

June 25 — The lease that includes the recently approved $60 million package to renovate the Gator Bowl is approved by City Council.

July 17 — The NFL announces that it will accept applications for expansion teams.

Sept. 16 — The City of Jacksonville files an expansion application with the League, one of 11 cities to apply.

Oct. 1 — Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. submits its ownership application to the League. The nine-member partnership includes local businessman and Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. general partner Tom Petway. J. Wayne Weaver is one of the eight limited partners, along with Jeb Bush, Lawrence DuBow, Earl Hadlow, Preston Haskell, Sandy McArthur, Charles Towers and Ron Weaver.

March 17 — At the League's annual winter meeting in Phoenix, the list of expansion candidate cities is cut from 11 to seven. Jacksonville is one of the seven; Nashville, San Antonio, Raleigh-Durham, and Honolulu are eliminated.

May 19 — The five finalists in the expansion race are named: Jacksonville, Charlotte, Baltimore, Memphis, St. Louis. Sacramento and Oakland are eliminated.

Oct. 20 — Citing complications surrounding the ongoing labor situation, the NFL votes to delay the expansion announcement to its 1993 fall meeting in Chicago and for expansion teams to begin play in 1995.

Jan. 6 — A seven-year Collective Bargaining Agreement is reached between the League and its players. With the labor situation resolved, a new expansion timetable is expected in March.

March 18 — J. Wayne Weaver is introduced as managing general partner of Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd.

March 23 — The expansion race is officially resumed by the NFL.

April 12 — After a tour with Touchdown Jacksonville, Ltd. representatives, NFL officials indicate that additional renovations beyond those already planned would be necessary to renovate the Gator Bowl to NFL standards.

June 25 — Negotiations for a new lease between Jacksonville Mayor Ed Austin and Touchdown Jacksonville!, Ltd. break down.

July 1 — Mayor Austin and Touchdown Jacksonville!, Ltd. resume negotiations and agree on a plan that caps stadium renovation costs at $112 million and protects the city from cost overruns. Mayor Austin sends the lease to City Council for approval.

July 21 — The Jacksonville City Council fails to approve the newly negotiated $112 million stadium proposal. As a result, Weaver announces that Touchdown Jacksonville!, Ltd. is ending its bid for an NFL expansion franchise.

July 22 — Touchdown Jacksonville!, Ltd. closes offices and club seat and executive suite deposits are returned.

Aug. 20 — The Florida Times-Union reports that negotiations between Touchdown Jacksonville!, Ltd. and the City have resumed, encouraged by the NFL and at the request of Times-Union publisher Carl Cannon and Chamber of Commerce chairman Adam Herbert.

Aug. 21 — Mayor Austin and Touchdown Jacksonville! reach an agreement on a new stadium lease capping stadium renovation costs at $121 million, $53 million to come from City funds and $68 million from team and team related sources. As project manager, Touchdown Jacksonville! assumes responsibility for any cost overruns.

Aug. 22 — Facing the challenge of selling 9,000 club seats, a committee of civic and business leaders is formed called NFL Now!, headed by Carl Cannon and Adam Herbert.

Aug. 23 — The City Council votes 14-4 to approve the new lease.

Aug. 24 — With the new public/private partnership, Weaver and Mayor Austin meet with commissioner Taglabue, who welcomes Jacksonville back into the expansion race.

Aug. 25 — NFL Now! begins a 10-day drive to sell the required club seats.

Aug. 26 — Former Kansas City Chiefs defensive back Deron Cherry joins Touchdown Jacksonville! as the ninth member of the ownership group.

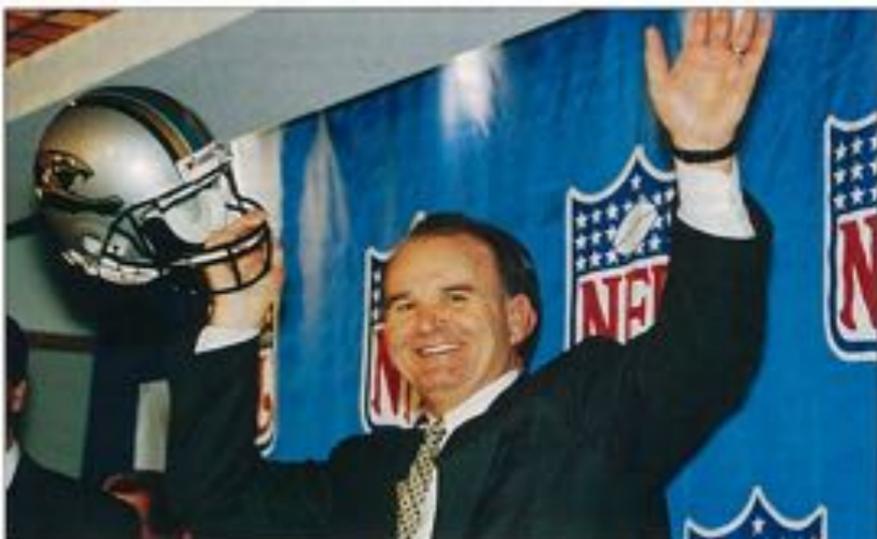

Sept. 3 — Carl Cannon of NFL Now! announces that 9,737 club seats have been sold, a number that rises to 10,112 once all the applications are processed.

Sept. 21 — Weaver and other Touchdown Jacksonville! officials make their presentation to the NFL finance and expansion committees.

Jan. 20 — The Jaguars unveil their new logo and team uniform.

Jan. 21 — Larry Pasquale is hired as the team's special teams coordinator.

Feb. 14 — The Jaguars draft 31 players in the expansion draft. The first player selected is Arizona quarterback Steve Buecker. During the draft, the Jaguars acquire such veteran players as Desmond Howard, Keith Gogonian, Darren Carrington, Reggie Cobb, Eugene Chung and Derek Brown.

Feb. 28 — The Jaguars sign their first unrestricted free agents: guard Shawn Bowens and defensive linemen Joel Smeenge and Don Davey. Within 15 days, six more unrestricted free-agents are signed: cornerback Vinnie Clark, punter Bryan Barker, cornerback Mickey Washington, defensive tackle Kelvin Pritchett, defensive end Jeff Lageman and center Dave Widell.

March 23 — The Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation awards its first grants to eight local organizations totaling $139,850.

April 21 — The first trade in Jaguars history: Jacksonville acquires quarterback Mark Brunell from the Green Bay Packers in exchange for draft picks in the third and fifth rounds of the 1995 draft.

April 22 — Southern California offensive tackle Tony Boselli becomes the Jaguars' first-ever selection in the college draft, the second overall pick. Later in the first round, running back James Stewart is chosen 19th overall after the Jaguars trade up in the round. The Jaguars select a total of 10 players during the two-day draft.

April 28-30 — The first minicamp is held on the practice fields adjacent to the new stadium.

June 1 — The Jaguars sign their entire first class of draft choices at the same time, an event unprecedented in NFL history.

June 2-8 — The second minicamp is held, with one practice session being conducted in front of 2,500 fans at Bishop Kenny High School.

June 10 — "The Roar of the Jaguars," the team's cheerleaders squad, is introduced at The Landing in downtown Jacksonville. The squad includes 36 cheerleaders.

July 8 — The Jaguars' first-ever training camp opens at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point.

July 29 — The Jaguars play their first preseason contest in the Pro Football Hall of Fame game in Canton, Ohio, but lose to the Carolina Panthers 20-14 when a last-minute drive ends at the Panthers' two-yard line.

Aug. 18 — Jacksonville Municipal Stadium opens, as the Jaguars host their first home preseason game. However, they lose to the St. Louis Rams 27-10.

Sept. 3 — The Jaguars play their inaugural game in front of 72,363 fans but lose to the Houston Oilers 10-3.

Oct. 1 — The Jaguars get their first win 17-16 at Houston in the fifth week of the regular season — the third-fastest first victory in NFL expansion history and the fastest to earn a win on the road.

Oct. 8 — The Jaguars defeat AFC Central rival Pittsburgh Steelers 20-16 for their first home victory, the only time in NFL history an expansion team has ever defeated a team that would go on to play in the Super Bowl the same season.

- Oct. 22 — The Jaguars record their third win of the season at Cleveland with a 23-15 victory.
- Dec. 3 — Jaguars wide receiver Jimmy Smith scores a team-record three touchdowns three different ways at Denver — on a blocked punt, off a lateral on a kickoff return and on a pass reception — an extreme rarity in NFL history.
- Dec. 24 — The Jaguars break the previous record for victories by an expansion team with a last-second 24-21 win over Cleveland in the Browns' final game before a three-year absence.

- Feb. 18 — Pittsburgh Steelers offensive tackle Leon Searcy becomes the first unrestricted free agent to sign with the Jaguars in 1996.
- March 1 — Free agent Eddie Robinson signs from Houston, bolstering a young linebacker corps.
- March 2 — Keenan McCardell, Cleveland's leading wide receiver in 1995, signs a free agent contract with the Jaguars.
- April 20 — Illinois outside linebacker Kevin Hardy is selected with the Jaguars' first pick in the 1996 college draft, the second overall player chosen. By the early third round, the Jaguars also draft defensive end Tony Brackens, center Michael Cheever and defensive back Aaron Beasley.
- July 19 — The Jaguars open their second training camp, their first at Fossil Fields at Jacksonville Municipal Stadium. The practice fields were named in memory of Roger Ernest Fossil Sr. in a morning dedication.
- Sept. 1 — The Jaguars open their second season with a 24-9 victory over the defending AFC champion Pittsburgh Steelers. It marks the first game the Jacksonville defense does not allow a touchdown.
- Sept. 22 — Mark Brunell throws for a team-record 432 yards and three touchdowns, but the Jaguars lose their first-ever overtime game 28-25 at New England.
- Sept. 29 — In the first regular-season game between the two 1995 expansion teams, Jacksonville beats Carolina 24-14 as James Stewart runs for two TDs and the Jaguars rush for a team-record 179 yards.
- Oct. 20 — Keenan McCardell catches 16 passes — tied for the third-highest total in pro football history — for a team-record 232 yards. However, despite breaking or tying 28 team records for single-game performances, the Jaguars lose at St. Louis 17-14.
- Nov. 24 — The Jaguars win at Baltimore 30-27 for their first overtime victory on a 34-yard field goal by Mike Hollis.
- Dec. 12 — Keenan McCardell becomes the first Jaguar voted to the Pro Bowl. Mark Brunell and Tony Boselli are later added as replacements, and Brunell goes on to win MVP honors in the Feb. 2 game in Honolulu.
- Dec. 22 — The Jaguars clinch their first playoff berth in franchise history with a 19-17 victory over the Atlanta Falcons, as Morten Andersen's 30-yard field goal attempt goes wide left.
- Dec. 28 — The first second-year expansion franchise in NFL history to play a postseason game, the Jaguars become the first team to defeat the Buffalo Bills in a playoff game in Rich Stadium. Natrone Means leads the way in the 30-27 victory by running for 175 yards.

1997

- Jan. 4 — The Jaguars post the biggest upset in the NFL since Joe Namath led the Jets to victory in Super Bowl III, as they stun the football world and the Denver Broncos with a 30-27 victory. After flying back to Jacksonville, the team finds 40,000 fans waiting for them at 1:30 a.m. in Jacksonville Municipal Stadium.
- Jan. 12 — The Jaguars' Cinderella season ends short of the Super Bowl, as Jacksonville is defeated by the New England Patriots 20-6 in the AFC Championship game. Jaguars turnovers led to 17 of the Patriots' 20 points in a game played in a wind chill of 0 degrees.
- Jan. 23 — David Seldin resigns as Jaguars president but remains as a partner.
- Feb. 5 — Chris Palmer is named offensive coordinator, replacing Kevin Gilbride who had become head coach of the San Diego Chargers.
- March 5 — The Jaguars sign their only 1997 unrestricted free agent, Pittsburgh cornerback Deon Figures.
- April 18 — ALLTEL Stadium becomes the new name for Jacksonville Municipal Stadium in a sponsorship agreement with the information technology and communications provider.
- April 19 — Jacksonville selects defensive tackle Renaldo Wynn of Notre Dame with the 21st pick of the first round of the NFL draft. In all, the Jaguars draft seven players.
- Aug. 9 — Quarterback Mark Brunell suffers a knee injury in a preseason game against the New York Giants and misses the next four games, including the first two of the regular season.
- Aug. 31 — In his first NFL start, Rob Johnson leads the Jaguars to a 28-27 victory at Baltimore in the season opener. Johnson displayed incredible courage in returning twice from a severe ankle sprain, setting a team record with 20 completions in 24 attempts (83.3 percent), 2 TD passes and a 25-yard TD rushing.

Sept. 7 — The Jaguars win their home opener 40-13 over the New York Giants as Steve Matthews makes his first NFL start for an injured Rob Johnson. The Jaguars started 2-0 for the first time in team history and set a franchise record with 40 points. It marked the first time in 30 years that a team won twice with two different quarterbacks making their first start in consecutive games.

Sept. 22 — Mark Brunell returns and leads the Jaguars to a 30-21 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers in their first appearance on "Monday Night Football." Brunell threw for 306 yards, but the victory wasn't clinched until the final play, when Clyde Simmons blocked a 40-yard game-winning field goal attempt and Chris Hudson returned the ball 58 yards for a touchdown as time expired.

Oct. 12 — James Stewart rushes for five touchdowns in the Jaguars' 38-21 victory over the visiting Philadelphia Eagles. It marks only the fourth time in NFL history that a player scored five TDs rushing in a game and the first time since 1963, and Stewart became one of only 12 NFL players with five or more touchdowns in one game.

Dec. 11 — Five Jaguars are named to the AFC squad for the Pro Bowl: Tony Boswell, Bryan Barker and Mike Hollis as starters, and Mark Brunell and Jimmy Smith as backups.

Dec. 14 — The Jaguars clinch a playoff berth for the second straight year after defeating the Bills 20-14 in Buffalo one week before the end of the regular season. Keenan McCardell and Jimmy Smith both went over the 1,000-yard mark, becoming the eighth tandem in NFL history to have back-to-back 1,000-yard receiving seasons.

Dec. 21 — The Jaguars win their team-record 11th game of the season by defeating the Oakland Raiders. The victory gave the team a 4-4 mark on the road for the first time ever, and matched division-winner Pittsburgh's 11-5 record. It takes five tie-breaker steps to determine that the Steelers were the division champion.

Dec. 27 — The Jaguars' third season comes to an end in Denver, with the eventual Super Bowl champion Broncos winning the Wild-Card playoff 42-17.

Feb. 13 — Quarterback Rob Johnson is traded to the Buffalo Bills for the ninth pick in the first round and a fourth-round choice in the 1998 NFL draft.

Feb. 16 — The Jaguars sign Buffalo Bills linebacker Bryce Paup, an unrestricted free agent.

April 18-19 — The Jaguars draft 11 players, their most ever, in the NFL draft. Two players are selected in the first round: running back Fred Taylor from the University of Florida with the ninth pick and safety Donovin Darius, from Syracuse, with the 25th choice.

May 12 — Rick Reppish, who had been responsible for the Jaguars' first four successful drafts, is promoted to director of player personnel. Fran Foley is named director of pro scouting, and Rick Mueller is named director of college scouting.

Sept. 20 — Running back James Stewart is injured on the Jaguars' second play of the game and lost for the season. But first-round draft choice Fred Taylor takes over and runs 52 yards for a touchdown on his first carry. The Jaguars defeat the Baltimore Ravens 24-10 for their third win of the season.

Oct. 12 — The Jaguars post a franchise-best 5-0 start, beating the visiting Miami Dolphins 28-21 on "Monday Night Football" when Mark Brunell and Keenan McCardell hook up for two touchdown passes in the fourth quarter. Fred Taylor ran for a 77-yard TD on the game's first play from scrimmage.

Nov. 1 — The Jaguars explode for a team-record number of points in a 45-19 victory at Baltimore. Jacksonville scored six TDs in the first half — the seventh most ever in a half in NFL history — as they jumped out to a 42-7 lead. Fred Taylor's 78-yard TD reception becomes the longest play from scrimmage in team history.

Dec. 13 — Mike Hollis becomes the most accurate field goal kicker in NFL history by making two attempts, giving him an 81.45 percentage in four seasons (101 of 124), dethroning Philadelphia's Chris Boniol.

Dec. 20 — The Jaguars clinch their first-ever AFC Central Division championship prior to kickoff of a Sunday night game at Minnesota, dethroning the Pittsburgh Steelers after a four-year run.

Dec. 28 — With a 21-3 victory over the Steelers on "Monday Night Football," the Jaguars win their 11th game for the second straight year and becomes the NFL's first expansion team to qualify for the playoffs three times in its first four seasons. Fred Taylor finishes the year with 17 touchdowns, tied for the third-most ever by a rookie in NFL history.

Jan. 3 — In their first-ever home playoff game, the Jaguars defeat the New England Patriots 25-10. Mark Brunell returns after missing three games with an ankle injury to throw a TD pass and Mike Hollis kicks four field goals, as Jacksonville claims its first postseason win in two years.

Jan. 10 — The Jaguars' fourth season ends with a 34-24 loss to the New York Jets in the divisional playoffs.

Jan. 13 — Head coach Tom Coughlin is rewarded with a contract extension through the 2003 season.
Jan. 26 — Dom Capers, the former head coach of the Carolina Panthers, is named defensive coordinator, replacing Dick Jauron, who became head coach of the Chicago Bears.
Feb. 12 — On the first day of free agency, the Jaguars sign two unrestricted free agents: DT Gary Walker of the Tennessee Titans and S Carnell Lake of the Pittsburgh Steelers.
Feb. 16 — The Jaguars sign TE Kyle Brady, a transition free agent from the New York Jets, to an offer sheet. The next day, the Jets decline to match the offer, making Brady a Jaguar.
April 24-25 — The Jaguars draft eight players in the NFL draft, including Fernando Bryant, a cornerback selected in the first round from Alabama.
Sept. 12 — The Jaguars open their fifth season with a 41-3 victory over the San Francisco 49ers at ALLTEL Stadium.
Nov. 7 — Jacksonville makes a team-record nine sacks and forces four turnovers in a 30-7 win at Atlanta.
Nov. 28 — The Jaguars score 23 points (three touchdowns, two two-point conversions) in the fourth quarter at Baltimore and leave with a 30-23 victory.
Dec. 11 — The Jaguars win their 11th consecutive game, setting a team record, as they defeat the Cleveland Browns 24-14.

Jan. 2 — The Jaguars conclude the regular season with a 14-2 mark — the best record in the NFL — and head into the playoffs as the No. 1 seed in the AFC. Jimmy Smith catches 14 passes to finish the year with 116 receptions, the most in the league and the sixth-highest total in NFL history. The defense allows only 217 points, the 12th-lowest allowed since the 16-game schedule began in 1978.
Jan. 15 — The Jaguars trounce the Miami Dolphins 62-7 in the Divisional Playoffs in what would be the last game for Dan Marino and Jimmy Johnson. Jacksonville's 62 points and 55-point margin are the second most ever in NFL postseason history, and Fred Taylor's 90-yard run is the longest ever in an NFL playoff game.
Jan. 23 — Tennessee claims its third win of the season over the Jaguars in the AFC Championship game. Jacksonville led 14-10 at halftime before losing 30-14.
Feb. 10 — Tony Brackens is designated as a franchise player before the start of free agency.
Feb. 22 — Jacksonville signs middle linebacker Hardy Nickerson, an unrestricted free agent from the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.
April 15-16 — The Jaguars select wide receiver R. Jay Soward from Southern California in the first round of the draft. Altogether, 11 players are drafted by Jacksonville.
Sept. 10 — Jimmy Smith catches 15 passes for 291 yards — the fifth-highest receiving total in NFL history in a game against the Baltimore Ravens, who would go on to win the Super Bowl and set an NFL record for fewest points allowed in a 16-game season.
Sept. 17 — The Jaguars win their home opener 13-0 over Cincinnati, the first shutout in team history.
Oct. 29 — The Jaguars defeat the Dallas Cowboys 23-17 in overtime on a 37-yard TD pass from Mark Brunell to Alvis Whitted to snap a five-game losing streak.
Nov. 1 — At their annual fall meeting in Atlanta, NFL owners award Super Bowl XXXIX to the city of Jacksonville. The game will be played at ALLTEL Stadium on February 6, 2005.
Nov. 19 — Fred Taylor rushes for 234 yards, setting a Jaguars record and at the time what was the 12th-most rushing yards in a game in NFL history (and the most ever at Three Rivers Stadium), as the Jaguars beat the Steelers 34-24. Taylor scored four touchdowns in the game.
Nov. 26 — Jacksonville defeats Tennessee 16-13 on a last-second 38-yard field goal by Mike Hollis, ending a five-game losing streak to the Titans.
Dec. 3 — The Jaguars shut out the Browns 48-0 in the most dominating game in team history. Cleveland has only two first downs and 53 yards on offense. For the Jaguars, Fred Taylor runs for 181 yards and three TDs to pass the 1,000-yard rushing mark, Jimmy Smith surpasses 1,000 yards receiving for the fifth straight season and Mark Brunell reaches the 3,000-yard mark passing.
Dec. 17 — Fred Taylor rushes for more than 100 yards in his ninth consecutive game, tying Walter Payton for the third-longest streak in NFL history. However, the Jaguars lose on the road to the Bengals 17-14 after allowing 10 points in the final 1:15 of the game.
Dec. 23 — The Jaguars lose their season finale 28-25 to the Giants, finishing 7-9 and marking their first losing season since 1995.

Jan. 12 — Bob Petrino, who had been the team's quarterbacks coach the previous two seasons, is promoted to offensive coordinator.

April 20-21 — The Jaguars select defensive tackle Marcus Stroud from Georgia in the first round of the draft. A total of 10 players are drafted by Jacksonville.
May 22 — NFL owners approve a realignment plan which will place the Jaguars into a new AFC South Division — along with the expansion Houston Texans, Indianapolis Colts and Tennessee Titans — beginning with the 2002 season.
Sept. 9 — The Jaguars win their sixth straight season opener, 21-3 over the Pittsburgh Steelers at ALLTEL Stadium. It is the second-longest active streak in the NFL.
Sept. 16 — The NFL postpones all games for the weekend due to the terrorist attacks in New York and Washington.
Dec. 9 — The Jaguars win at Cincinnati, only their second victory in 11 games. Jimmy Smith surpasses 1,000 yards receiving for the sixth straight season, only the fifth player in NFL history to do so.
Dec. 16 — The Jaguars play their final AFC Central Division game, defeating the Cleveland Browns 15-10 in a game marred by bottle throwing in the final minutes. The Jaguars' intradivision record in the AFC Central closes out at 39-23.
Dec. 23 — The Jaguars defeat the Minnesota Vikings in the Metrodome, completing a sweep of three road victories in three consecutive weeks, a first in the NFL since 1997. Jimmy Smith gets his 100th reception of the season, making him one of only six players in NFL history to do so twice.

Jan. 6 — The Jaguars complete their seventh season with a 6-10 record, losing six games in the final 5 minutes and 13 seconds.
Feb. 18 — OT Tony Boselli and DTs Gary Walker and Seth Payne are selected in the expansion draft by the Houston Texans.
April 20-21 — The Jaguars select nine players in the draft, including John Henderson, a defensive tackle from Tennessee in the first round.
June 13 — The Jaguars sign their sixth unrestricted free agent of the offseason, their most since 1995, including WRs Patrick Johnson and Bobby Shaw and G Chris Naele. The team also signed veteran free agents DE Marco Coleman and TE Pete Mitchell and acquired MLB Wali Rainer in a draft day trade.
Oct. 6 — The Jaguars defeat the Philadelphia Eagles to finish the first month of the season with a 3-1 record and are one of the surprise teams in the NFL.
Nov. 17 — WR Jimmy Smith joins the NFL's top 20 leading all-time receivers. He would finish the season in 19th place among career receivers with 664 catches.
Dec. 29 — The Jaguars lose their season finale 20-13 in Indianapolis and finish their eighth season with a 6-10 record, their third consecutive losing season.
Dec. 30 — Wayne Weaver asks Tom Coughlin to step down as head coach, following eight seasons in which he led the team to a 68-60 record and four playoff appearances.

September 22, 1996 — at New England 28, Jacksonville 25

After spotting New England a 22-0 lead, the Jaguars rallied in the second half, scoring three touchdowns on 51-, 41- and 61-yard receptions from Mark Brunell and a Mike Hollis field goal, to tie the score at 25-25. The Patriots had the only possession in overtime and won on a 40-yard field goal by Adam Vinatieri.

November 24, 1996 — Jacksonville 28, at Baltimore 25

The Ravens led at the end of the first half 16-10, and built a 25-10 lead going into the fourth quarter. After a touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Pete Mitchell, the defense recovered a fumble at the Raven's 19-yard line. Brunell found Willie Jackson six plays later and Brunell ran in for the two-point conversion to tie the game at 25-25 with 1:24 remaining. The Jaguars won the toss, but were forced to punt. The Ravens fumbled, and Jacksonville drove down the field, with Mike Hollis winning the game with a 34-yard field goal.

October 26, 1997 — at Pittsburgh 23, Jacksonville 17

The Jaguars took a 10-0 lead into the second half, but Pittsburgh came back to take a 14-10 lead in the fourth-quarter. After a Brunell TD pass to Pete Mitchell, the Jaguars took a 17-14 lead. The Steelers scored a 19-yard field goal at the end of the fourth quarter to tie the game 17-17. The Steelers won the toss and scored on a 17-yard shovel pass from Kordell Stewart to Jerome Bettis.

October 29, 2000 — Jacksonville 23, at Dallas 17

The Jaguars ended a five-game losing streak with a 23-17 overtime road victory over the Cowboys, with Alvis Whitted scoring on a 37-yard pass from Mark Brunell on the first series of overtime for his second touchdown of the game. Brunell threw for three TDs and tied a team record for passing accuracy, as he completed 20 of 24 passes. Kyle Brady caught 10 of those passes for 134 yards, both career highs, as he eclipsed the 100-yard mark for the second straight week.

JAGUARS NON-DIVISIONAL SCHEDULE FROM 2003 TO 2009

Along with realignment, the NFL instituted a schedule rotation in which the matchups for 14 of the 16 regular-season games for all clubs for the next seven seasons are set. The final two intraconference games are based on the prior year's standings (first place plays first place, etc.)

1996 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF ● JAGUARS 30, BILLS 27

DECEMBER 28, 1996, RICH STADIUM

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (10-7)	10	7	3	10	—	30
BUFFALO BILLS (10-7)	14	3	3	7	—	27

The Jaguars won their first-ever playoff game with a come-from-behind victory over Buffalo and became the first road team to win a postseason game at Rich Stadium. Natrone Means rushed for 175 yards and a touchdown, and Mike Hollis kicked three field goals, the game-winner with 3:07 to play. Buffalo jumped out to a 7-0 lead, but Clyde Simmons intercepted Jim Kelly and ran 20 yards for a score to tie the game. Simmons also had two sacks. Buffalo took a 27-20 lead early in the fourth quarter, but Mark Brunell found Jimmy Smith for a 2-yard TD pass to tie the score, and Aaron Beasley recovered a fumble prior to Hollis' field goal.

1996 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF ● JAGUARS 30, BRONCOS 27

JANUARY 4, 1997, MILE HIGH STADIUM

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (11-7)	0	13	7	10	—	30
DENVER BRONCOS (13-4)	12	0	0	15	—	27

The Jaguars won their seventh straight game as they shocked the football world with their upset victory over the 13-3 Broncos. After falling behind 12-0, the Jaguars scored on their next six possessions, all on drives of 50 yards and longer, taking a 30-20 lead. Denver had not lost at home all season and had not lost a playoff game at Mile High Stadium since 1964. Natrone Means rushed for 140 yards, and Mark Brunell threw three TD passes to Keenan McCardell and Jimmy Smith. The Jaguars dominated in yards, first downs and time of possession.

1996 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME ● PATRIOTS 20, JAGUARS 6 JANUARY 12, 1997, FOXBORO STADIUM

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (11-8) 0 3 3 0 — 6
NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (13-5) 7 6 0 7 — 20

In just their second season, the Jaguars saw their hopes of reaching the Super Bowl ended in the AFC Championship game on a cold day in New England. The game began ominously for Jacksonville on its first series, when Bryan Barker fielded a high snap and was tackled at the Jaguars' four-yard line. The Patriots scored a touchdown two plays later. Mistakes haunted the Jaguars throughout the game, with a total of four turnovers - three on their last four possessions - including an end zone interception and a fumble that was returned for a touchdown. The Jaguars held the ball for 34:43 and held the Patriots to just 234 yards, but Jacksonville could manage only two field goals by Mike Hollis.

1997 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF ● BRONCOS 42, JAGUARS 17 DECEMBER 27, 1997, MILE HIGH STADIUM

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (11-6) 0 7 10 0 — 17
DENVER BRONCOS (13-4) 14 7 0 21 — 42

The Jaguars returned to the site of their historic playoff upset over Denver a year earlier, but the outcome was not to be the same. The Broncos took a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter, however the Jaguars closed the gap to 21-17 in the third quarter with a blocked punt returned for a touchdown and looked to make a rally. On the next series the defense forced a fumble, but the Jaguars could not capitalize as a fumbled snap at the Denver 16-yard line ended the Jaguars' momentum. The Broncos rolled up 511 yards on offense, 310 of them on the ground, and scored five rushing touchdowns in the game. The Jaguars held the ball for just 19:01, their lowest time of possession ever.

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (9-8)	0	0	7	3	—	10
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (12-5)	6	6	0	13	—	25

The Jaguars hosted their first-ever home playoff game and defeated the Patriots to advance to the divisional playoffs. Mark Brunell returned as the starter after missing nearly three games with a high ankle sprain, but for the Patriots, Scott Zolak started for the injured Drew Bledsoe. The Patriots did not score on their eight first-half possessions. The Jaguars took advantage and scored on two Mike Hollis field goals and a 13-yard run by Fred Taylor. New England scored 10 points before the Jaguars bounced back with 13 in the fourth quarter. Taylor's 162 yards rushing were the second most in a postseason game in Jaguars' history, and his 33 attempts were the most. Hollis' four field goals without a miss extended his streak of consecutive field goals in the postseason to 12 and broke his postseason single-game record.

JANUARY 10, 1999, GIANTS STADIUM

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (12-4)	0	7	7	10	—	24
NEW YORK JETS (13-4)	7	10	14	3	—	34

The Jaguars' season ended in 26 degree temperatures in New York, with the Jets jumping out to a 17-0 lead and coasting to the win. Jacksonville's only first half score was a 52-yard pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the final play. The Jaguars couldn't stop New York's Keyshawn Johnson, who scored both rushing and receiving and also intercepted a pass. With the score 31-24 late in the fourth quarter, Brunell, who threw three TDs and three interceptions, had a chance to tie the game late after a Donovan Darius interception of Vinny Testaverde in the end zone. But the Jaguars went 3-and-out and the Jets added a field goal for their final points. Smith caught two TD passes and became the first Jaguar to have 100 receiving yards in a playoff game.

1999 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF ● JAGUARS 62, DOLPHINS 7

JANUARY 15, 2000, ALLTEL STADIUM

MIAMI DOLPHINS (10-8)	0	7	0	0	—	7
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (15-2)	24	17	14	7	—	62

Scoring on their first five possessions, the Jaguars advanced to their second AFC Championship game in four seasons with a record-setting defeat of Miami, in what would be Dan Marino's final game. The 62 points scored were the second most in NFL postseason history and the most scored in an AFC playoff game, and the 55-point margin of victory was the second largest in NFL postseason history. Mark Brunell returned to action after missing the season finale with a knee injury. Fred Taylor ran 90 yards for a touchdown, the longest in NFL postseason history. The 41 points in the first half also tied the NFL postseason record. Jay Fiedler connected with Jimmy Smith for a 70-yard touchdown to take a 48-7 lead. The Jaguars scored twice more in the game, on a touchdown catch by Alvis Whitted, and a five-yard run by Chris Howard. The 62 points scored were the Jaguars' most ever.

1999 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME ● TITANS 33, JAGUARS 14

JANUARY 23, 2000, ALLTEL STADIUM

TENNESSEE TITANS (16-3)	7	3	16	7	—	33
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (15-3)	7	7	0	0	—	14

The Jaguars' season came to a sudden end, as Tennessee defeated Jacksonville for the third time in the season. A record crowd of 75,206 saw the Jaguars get off to a fast start, with Kyle Brady scoring a touchdown on a seven-yard pass from Mark Brunell. The Titans responded with a nine-yard touchdown catch by Yancey Thigpen. Then the Jaguars took a 14-7 lead on a 33-yard TD run by James Stewart. But Reggie Barlow fumbled a punt that was recovered by the Titans and converted to a 34-yard field goal. The second half was all Tennessee, as the Titans scored 23 unanswered points and shut out the Jaguars. The Titans got a one-yard touchdown run by Steve McNair. Then came a safety of Mark Brunell safety, and on the free kick, Derrick Mason returned the ball 80 yards for a touchdown. The Jaguars could not recover, as they had three turnovers in the last 16 minutes of the game. Tennessee scored once in the fourth quarter for the 33-14 final score.

RADIO BROADCASTERS

In the Jaguars' radio booth: Brian Sexton and Jeff Lageman

Original Jaguars defensive end Jeff Lageman joined the Jaguars Network Radio team in 2003 and pairs with Brian Sexton on all Jaguars games. Lageman will handle color analysis on radio for the first time, while Sexton will continue calling play-by-play for his ninth season.

Sexton, 34, is the voice of the Jaguars. He is the host of several of the Jaguars' television and radio shows, including "Jaguars Reporters" (6:00 p.m. Mondays on WOKV), "Jaguars This Week" (6:00 p.m. Wednesdays on WOKV) and both the radio and television versions of "The Jack Del Rio Show" (7:30 p.m. Mondays on WTEV Channel 47 and 6:00 p.m. Tuesdays on WOKV). In spring 2003, Sexton spent a month broadcasting NFL Europe League games for FOX Sports. Formerly sports director at WOKV, Sexton came to Jacksonville from Wichita, Kan., where he served as assistant sports director at KNSS in 1993 and hosted various pregame and postgame shows in addition to handling play-by-play for the Wichita State University Radio Network. In 2000, Sexton was a participant on the highly rated ABC-TV show "Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?," walking away with $32,000. Sexton is chairman of the Ronald McDonald Discovery Board and is on the Board of Directors of the Grove House of Jacksonville, which serves adults with disabilities. He is also a member of the volunteer committee of the River Bend District of Boy Scouts of America as well as on the volunteer committee of the Northeast Council of the Boy Scouts of America. In 2002, he was named as one of the Jacksonville Business Journals "Up and Comers," which recognizes young leaders in the Jacksonville community. He and his wife, Jennifer, live in Atlantic Beach, with their two-year-old son, Keegan.

Lageman, 35, played for the Jaguars from 1995 to '98 and was the team's first captain. He started 37 of 40 games played in the Jaguars' first four seasons, making 175 tackles and 12.5 sacks. His final year was ended in the season opener because of a torn right biceps. In 10 NFL seasons, including his first six with the New York Jets, Lageman played in 122 games, making 118 starts. He was a first-round draft choice of the Jets in 1989, the 14th player selected overall. After his retirement he joined the Jaguars' preseason TV booth as color analyst for the 1999 to 2002 preseasons. Lageman also called NFL regular-season games for Fox Sports from 1999 to 2001. He has been co-host of the "Jaguars This Week" radio show along with Sexton and Vic Ketchman on Wednesday nights on WOKV, and he will continue in that role. He will also continue as co-host of "THE Jaguars Show" on television along with Sexton (10:30 p.m. Thursdays on WAWS Channel 30). For the last six years, Lageman has been co-host/co-owner of "The Outdoor Show" aired Saturday mornings on WOKV. Since 1996, he has been honorary chairman of the Children's Miracle Network, and is a board member of the Georgia Sheriff's Boy's Home in Hahira, Ga. Lageman and his wife, Misti, live in Jacksonville with their three-year-old son, Dylan.

Joining Sexton and Lageman on Jaguars radio broadcasts is field reporter Ryan Elijah, who is the sports director for WTEV-TV and WAWS-TV in Jacksonville. Also part of the game day team are Cole Pepper and Vic Ketchman on the pregame show, and Pepper with former Oakland Raiders star Pete Banaszak on the postgame show.

PRESEASON TELEVISION

All four of the Jaguars' preseason games in 2003 will be telecast locally in Jacksonville on WTEV Channel 47 (cable Ch. 6).

CBS broadcaster Gus Johnson will call the play-by-play for Jaguars preseason games for the first time this year. Former Jets and Jacksonville Bulls quarterback Matt Robinson has moved over from the Jaguars' radio booth and will be the Jaguars' preseason color analyst.

The Jaguars' first preseason game, on Saturday, August 9 against the Minnesota Vikings at the Metrodome in Minneapolis, will be telecast live at 8:00 p.m. The Jaguars' first home game on Friday, August 15 against the Miami Dolphins in ALLETEL Stadium will be broadcast at 7:30 p.m. The second road game against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers on Saturday, August 23 will air at 8:00 p.m. And the preseason home finale on Thursday, August 28 against the Washington Redskins in ALLETEL Stadium will be telecast at 8:00 p.m.

For the second year, Sunshine Network will replay statewide, on a same-day delay basis at 11:30 p.m., all non-national network preseason games.

ALLTEL STADIUM

They said it couldn't be done. They said it wouldn't be ready. But on August 18, 1995, when the Jacksonville Jaguars played their first game in their new stadium, it marked the first time in sports history that an expansion team had played its first home game in a new stadium or arena. Not only that, but it was built faster than any major-league stadium had ever been built in North America.

In the short period of 19 1/2 months, the old Gator Bowl was demolished and a new stadium arose on the shores of the St. Johns River. And, very quickly, it was called the best stadium in the country. Just seconds before the Jaguars kicked off their first regular-season game on September 3, 1995, NBC broadcaster Don Criqui said, "There isn't a better football facility in America." Now in its ninth year of operation, ALLTEL Stadium is still drawing raves.

And, in less than two years, on February 6, 2005, ALLTEL Stadium will be the host site of Super Bowl XXXIX, the biggest single-day sporting event in the world. The city of Jacksonville was awarded the game on November 1, 2000 in a vote among NFL owners.

To ensure that Jacksonville has the finest venue in the NFL, ALLTEL Stadium underwent a $46 million renovation that was finished in time for the 2003 season. Among the additions are a Terrace Suite for 700 people, a 25,000-square-foot sports bar called the Bud Zone, a 20,000-square-foot Patio, 20 new escalators and four new elevators, and a new secure perimeter fence around the stadium.

Most of the additions were on the south end of the stadium. On the main concourse level is the new Bud Zone sports bar that is open to the field and available to all fans attending games. Above that is the new Terrace Suite that accommodates 700 people with outdoor seating, a 20,000-square-foot-enclosed private bar and dining area with a view to the field. And, above that is the Patio, easily accessible to the upper deck, with portable food and beverage carts that will allow fans to gather and watch games from a unique vantage point. Also new to the South End Zone are eight escalators to carry fans to every level of the stadium, as well as four elevators to serve the main concourse, Terrace Suite and the Patio. In the North End Zone are two new escalator towers to the main concourse and upper level for the east and west sides of the stadium. The new perimeter fence increases by 50 percent the number of entry points into ALLTEL Stadium and creates new themed entertainment and concession areas for pregame enjoyment. The Bud Zone sports bar and Terrace Suite are available for rental on non-game days. The new concessionaire for these areas is Levy Restaurants, one of the best in the sports restaurant business.

And, with the Super Bowl fast approaching, future plans call for additional enhancements to the sports complex area. The Jaguars' practice fields were relocated to the northwest corner of the stadium complex where Wolfson Park once stood. There are three practice fields, including one with the new Field Turf. New bleacher seats to accommodate 1,200 fans will allow fans to interact with the players from inside the fence line for training camp every July and August.

The practice fields that were used from 1995 through this year's minicamps will be developed in time for the start of the 2004 season to provide a 400,000-square-foot entertainment zone adjacent to the stadium and available for other events in the sports and entertainment complex. For Jaguars game days, this area will include the current Pepsi Experience, a corporate hospitality area, interactive games, and a stage for pregame and postgame entertainment, as well as tailgating hospitality opportunities.

ALLTEL Stadium signature features are the two Touchdown Clubs, which are located on both sides of the stadium. The Touchdown Clubs and all 10,000 club seats are located at midfield, rather than being spread out horizontally through the stadium. Each Club — with entrances that are glass-enclosed, 100-foot-high atriums — provides more than 65,000 square feet of air-conditioned comfort with a variety of food and beverage selections. In all, 75 percent of the seats in ALLTEL Stadium are located on the sides, with just 25 percent behind the end zones.

ALLTEL Stadium seats 76,877, but additional temporary seats are added behind the South End Zone — expanding the capacity to well over 82,000 — for the annual Florida-Georgia game. A permanent deck for the temporary seats was part of the $46 million renovation.

In 1997, Jacksonville Municipal Stadium was re-named ALLTEL Stadium after the Little Rock, Ark.-based wireless telecommunications and information services company that is listed in Forbes 500 and Fortune 500. ALLTEL also has a regional office in Jacksonville that employs more than 1,000 employees. Revenue from the 10-year grant of naming rights is shared equally between the Jaguars and the city of Jacksonville.

In addition to hosting at least a dozen football games every year, ALLTEL Stadium is quickly developing into a popular venue for some of the world's top concerts. In the past few years, U2, Shania Twain, George Strait and *NSYNC have performed at the stadium, and the Billy Graham Crusade had four days of sold-out shows at ALLTEL in 2000.

The construction of ALLTEL Stadium in the record 19 1/2 months was unprecedented. Twelve different consulting companies shaped the construction. Demolition began on the old Gator Bowl on January 3, 1994, with approximately 90 percent of the old stadium torn down. In fact, the only portion salvaged was the west upper deck, which had been added in 1962. A total of 121 sub-contractors had a hand in the job ... all in all, thousands of people worked on the stadium from start to finish. And on Friday, August 18, 1995, ALLTEL Stadium opened its doors to more than 70,000 Jaguars faithful.

This July 2003 photo shows construction of the $46 million renovation to ALLTEL Stadium. New to the south end zone are the Bud Zone sports bar, a 700-seat Terrace Suite, an open-air Patio.

SUPER BOWL COMING TO JACKSONVILLE

Artist's rendering of aerial view of Jacksonville's "Super Bowl on the River" on February 6, 2005

Jacksonville will truly be a Super City on February 6, 2005 when it hosts Super Bowl XXXIX. The NFL's championship game will conclude the 2004 season with a unique "Super Bowl on the River," featuring the largest land and water football tailgate party ever conceived.

The area near ALLTEL Stadium will be transformed into the "SuperFest Zone," a hub of activities and festivities where, for one week, thousands of people will find parties, events and lodging within a compact two-mile area that can be easily walked. Water taxis will regularly cross the St. Johns River, connecting the SuperFest Zone and traditional NFL Super Bowl parties to the fun-filled NFL Experience.

The most unique feature of Jacksonville's Super Bowl will be cruise ships that serve as floating hotels on the St. Johns River near downtown and ALLTEL Stadium. The cruise ships will provide nearly 4,000 rooms for NFL guests and will add 16 restaurants, 29 bars, 12 nightclubs and 11 entertainment venues, all of which will be open to the public with prior credentialing.

The NFL's showcase game was awarded to Jacksonville on November 1, 2000, when NFL owners voted Jacksonville to host the game over Miami and Oakland. The Super Bowl is always coveted by community leaders as a badge of membership in the top tier of American cities. It promises a local economic impact of $300 million, as the city houses, feeds and entertains as many as 100,000 fans. The game will be televised worldwide, exposing the host city to an audience of nearly one billion people in more than 200 countries. Thus, when Jacksonville was awarded Super Bowl XXXIX, the city took another step toward becoming a major-league player on the national scene.

Awarding the Super Bowl to Jacksonville helped spur a $46 million renovation of ALLTEL Stadium. And the total of 83,000 seats in the stadium for Super Bowl XXXIX gives ALLTEL the biggest capacity of any stadium in the current rotation of Super Bowl cities. Only 10 American cities have ever hosted the Super Bowl, and Jacksonville's Super Bowl Host Committee hopes that a successful game in 2005 will secure a spot for Jacksonville in the NFL's rotation of Super Bowl hosts. As Jaguars owner Wayne Weaver told his fellow owners on November 1, 2000 when Jacksonville was awarded the game: "We're going to make you very proud of your vote."

For more on Super Bowl XXXIX, contact the Super Bowl Host Committee at (904) 493-7239 or see the website at www.jacksonvillesuperbowl.com.

THE ROAR

"The Roar" of the Jaguars was formed in 1995 and has been an integral part of the Jaguars' entertainment package during all home games. Under the direction of manager and choreographer Robin Valetutto and coordinator Christy Stechman Zynda, these professional cheerleaders captivate Jaguars fans with their explosive, high-energy routines and cheerful personalities. When not on the playing field, members of The Roar serve as goodwill ambassadors for the Jaguars by participating in various corporate, community and charitable events throughout Florida and even around the world.

Weight: 403

College: Denied admission due to size, but is working on his MBA, just in case Jaguars owner Wayne Weaver needs any business advice

Birthdate: Not sure, but he'll celebrate it this year at the October 5 game against the San Diego Chargers

Birthplace: Jacksonville (where else would a cat have teal spots?)

First Appearance: August 18, 1996, Jaguars vs. 49ers preseason game

How Acquired: He was a stray cat found during the building of ALLTEL Stadium

NFL Experience: 8th year

SEASON: Has never seen action in an NFL-sanctioned game ... Has played in several halftime games against some very tough Pop Warner teams (9- and 10-year olds) and has done quite well ... New head coach Jack Del Rio said he was "very impressed" with Jaxson during spring mini-camps ... Currently lobbying the league for bigger helmets so he can play this year ... Until then, will remain a starter at his All-Pro position, "Left Out"

STATS: Completed his seventh straight season as "The Self-Proclaimed Best Mascot in Sports" ... Best statistics include most pizzas consumed in one game (56) and highest rap-off a scoreboard (175 feet) ... First mascot ever to go overseas to visit our troops ... Has never been tackled, sacked, intercepted or blocked — mostly because he never plays (but that's beside the point) ... First mascot to book his flight for the Super Bowl in Houston ... Most loved and hated mascot in the NFL ... Has hugged and kissed more than 200,000 people during his 3,000-plus appearances over the last seven years ... Speaking of appearances ...

OFFSEASON: Jaxson de Ville does not have an "offseason," as he does appearances year-round at any event where a 403-pound cat is needed ... so give him a call and find out why everyone loves Jaxson!

For appearances call: (904) 633-6544

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Credential requests are honored only for working media on specific assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication. Credentials are not issued to freelance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news organization or sports publication. All credential requests must be submitted in writing on company letterhead to Dan Edwards, Vice President of Communications and Media, Jacksonville Jaguars, One ALLTEL Stadium Place Jacksonville FL 32202, or by fax to (904) 633-6055. Requests must be received at least one week prior to a home game.

PARKING: Parking in lots surrounding the stadium is limited. Every effort will be made to accommodate requests for parking passes, but parking cannot be provided for all credentialed media. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to all stadium parking lots on game days. Television trucks which provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will be parked in the TV truck compound near Gate 1, and a parking pass is required.

MEDIA ENTRANCE, CREDENTIAL WILL CALL: The media entrance at the stadium is Gate 1, at the southwest corner of the stadium. The appropriate game credential must be presented at the media entrance for admission to the stadium. Game credentials not picked up in advance will be available on game day at the media will-call window at Gate 1. The Media Will Call window will open three hours prior to kickoff. Parking passes will not be left at the Will Call window.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers and videographers on assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication. No one except network television personnel and authorized game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field. The photographers check-in location is near the media entrance on the service hallway.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS AND LOCKERROOM ACCESS: Members of the media needing to conduct postgame interviews will be given access to the Jaguars' interview room after each game, as well as the home and visiting lockerrooms. Jaguars head coach Jack Del Rio conducts his postgame news conference in the team meeting room. The visiting head coach will be available in a room off the visitors lockerroom.

DURING THE WEEK

MEDIA WORKROOM: The media workroom in the stadium is located just inside the media entrance. This room is available to working media during business hours throughout the week. Phones, Jaguars updates and NFL news releases, and other information is available. The phone number in the media workroom is (904) 633-6312.

JACK DEL RIO INTERVIEWS: Head coach Jack Del Rio conducts his weekly news conference at 2:00 p.m. on Mondays in the media workroom. He is not available on Tuesdays, but is available to the media on the field at the end of practice (1:20 p.m.) on Wednesdays and Thursdays and at 12:30 p.m. on Fridays.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS: The Jaguars lockerroom is open to accredited media for specific interview periods during the week. On Mondays, players are available at 3:30 to 4:00 p.m., and on Tuesdays there is no availability, as this is the players' off day. The lockerroom is open to the media on Wednesdays and Thursdays from 1:45 to 2:30 p.m. and on Fridays at 12:45 p.m. All interviews should be arranged through the Jaguars communications department. Interviews may be conducted in person or by phone, but please call in advance to schedule.

NEWS RELEASES ON THE INTERNET: The Jaguars' weekly news releases can be accessed on the Jaguars' Official Web Site: www.jaguars.com and on the NFL's Web Site at: www.nfl.com. Daily updates, injury reports and other news is posted as well.
