JAGUARS FINISH SECOND YEAR UNDER HEAD COACH GUS BRADLEY

JAGUARS FINISH WITH A 3-13 MARK: The Jacksonville Jaguars concluded the 2014 season with a 3-13 record, with all three wins coming at EverBank Field. The Jaguars played six games against 2014 playoff teams (Indianapolis twice, Pittsburgh, Dallas, Cincinnati, Baltimore) and 10 games against teams that finished .500 or better. The Jaguars continued to overhaul the roster as rookies combined for a NFL-high 82 starts including 13 starts by QB Blake Bortles. Offensively, rookie wideouts Allen Hurns (undrafted, 51-677) and Allen Robinson (2nd round, 48-548) became the first rookie duo in NFL history to register 48 or more receptions in a season. Defensively, the Jaguars improved from 31 sacks in 2013 (32nd in NFL) to 45 in 2014, the sixth-most in the NFL. The Jaguars led the NFL with 12 sack/forced fumbles and ranked third in the NFL with 19 total forced fumbles.

JAGUARS MAKE COACHING CHANGES IN 2015: On January 21, the Jaguars announced the hiring of Greg Olson as the team's new offensive coordinator. Olson, who previously served on the Jaguars staff as the assistant head coach/QBs coach in 2012, spent the last two seasons as the offensive coordinator for the Oakland Raiders. Olson has 28 years of coaching experience, including 13 seasons in the NFL. Olson takes the place of Jedd Fisch, who was let go by the Jaguars on December 30, 2014. On January 20, the Jaguars hired former Bills head coach, Doug Marrone, who will serve as the team's assistant head coach/OL coach. Marrone spent the last two seasons as the head coach for the Buffalo Bills (15-17), leading the franchise to their first winning season (9-7) in 2014 since 2004. On January 27, Kelly Skipper was hired as the running backs coach, replacing Terry Richardson after two seasons. Two days later (January 29), the Jaguars announced the hiring of Nathaniel Hackett as the team's quarterbacks coach.

JAGUARS FAN SUPPORT

The Jaguars did not have a home game blacked out in 2014 for the fifth consecutive season. The Jaguars have a streak of 41 straight regular season games not being blacked out dating back to the 2009 season finale. The Jaguars had a season-high paid attendance of 66,198 at EverBank Field when they hosted Pittsburgh in Week 5. In Week 10 vs. Dallas, the Jaguars played their second of four games (2013-16) as the designated home team at London's Wembley Stadium in front of a season-high crowd of 83,603.

A GIANT COMEBACK

In Week 13 vs. the New York Giants, the Jaguars trailed 21-0 in the second quarter before pulling off the largest comeback in franchise history. The Jaguars scored 22 unanswered points, including a 41-yard fumble return TD by rookie CB Aaron Colvin early in the fourth quarter to give the Jaguars a one-point advantage. After a FG by Giants K Josh Brown gave the Giants a two-point lead, the Jaguars marched 55 yards on an 11-play drive that culminated in a 43-yard game-winning FG by Jaguars K Josh Scobee to give the Jaguars a 25-24 victory. The game-winning FG was the eighth of Scobee's career.

REU-KNIGHT-ED

QB Blake Bortles was joined in the starting backfield by his former UCF teammate RB Storm Johnson in Week 6 at Tennessee. Bortles and Johnson were only the third rookie QB and rookie RB from the same college to start together in the same NFL game since the merger in 1970. The others were QB Vince Young and RB Ahmad Hall for Tennessee in 2006 (University of Texas) and QB Ryan Tannehill and RB Jorborskie Lane for Miami in 2012 (Texas A&M).

INJURIES ADD UP IN 2014

In 2014, the Jaguars were forced to shuffle their lineup for much of the season after the team lost many significant players due to injury. Six players that made starts during the 2014 regular season ended the year on injured reserve (CB Alan Ball [7 starts], CB Will Blackmon [3 starts], RT Austin Pasztor [8 starts], MLB Paul Posluszny [7 starts], rookie WR Allen Robinson [8 starts] and RB Denard Robinson [9 starts]).

Below is a look at some of the key injuries from the 2014 season:

RB DENARD ROBINSON (foot sprain): Took over the starting RB job in Week 7 vs. Cleveland and burst onto the scene with back-to-back 100-yard rushing games (127 rushing yards and 1 TD vs. Cleveland in Week 7; 108 rushing yards in Week 8 vs. Miami). Robinson led the Jaguars with a career-high 582 rushing yards and four TDs in 2014 after posting 66 rushing yards and 0 TDs as a rookie in 2013. Robinson was placed on injured reserve prior to Week 16 vs. Tennessee.

LB PAUL POSLUSZNY (pectoral muscle): The Jaguars defensive captain started the first seven games at the team's Mike position and ranked third in the NFL with 69 tackles (47 solo) before suffering a torn pectoral muscle in the Jaguars' victory over Cleveland in Week 7. The Jaguars gave up 110.3 rushing yards/game in the seven games with Posluszny on the field, which ranked 15th in the NFL over that span. The team gave up 140.1 rushing yards/game in the final nine games in which he was absent.

CB WILL BLACKMON (finger): Eighth-year veteran served as the team's starting nickel CB before he broke his finger in Week 8 vs. Miami. His 28 tackles (21 solo) were the second-most in a season in his career (posted a career-high 41 tackles in his first year with the Jaguars in 2013).

CB ALAN BALL (biceps): Seventh-year CB has started every game (22) he has played for the Jaguars. Started the first seven games of the 2014 season and was leading the team with three passes defended before suffering a bicep injury in Week 7 vs. Cleveland.

RT AUSTIN PASZTOR (hamstring): After missing the first four games of the season with a fractured hand from the preseason, the second-year lineman returned to the lineup and started eight games before rupturing his hamstring in the Jaguars' Week 13 victory vs. the New York Giants.

WR ALLEN ROBINSON (foot): After returning from a preseason hamstring injury, the Jaguars rookie WR emerged as the team's go-to receiver in 10 appearances (eight starts). Before being sidelined with a foot injury that placed him on injured reserve following the Jaguars' game vs. Dallas, Robinson ranked first among rookies with 48 receptions (through Week 10).

DT ROY MILLER (knee): Sixth-year veteran DT produced a career-high four tackles for loss in 2014 and was rewarded with a four-year contract extension on Dec. 16, 2014. Missed the final two games of the season with an injury to his meniscus (knee).

DT SEN'DERRICK MARKS (knee): Started all 16 games at DT and produced career-highs in tackles (44), sacks (8.5), quarterback hurries (16) and tackles for loss (15). Suffered a torn ACL in Week 17 at Houston and had surgery on Jan. 15.

HEAD COACH GUS BRADLEY

GUS BRADLEY

HEAD COACH

Gus Bradley was named the fifth head coach in Jacksonville Jaguars history on January 17, 2013. Bradley has 25 years of coaching experience including nine seasons in the NFL.

Bradley, 48, just finished his second season as the head coach of the Jaguars. In 2014, Bradley oversaw the development of the NFL's youngest roster. Jaguars' rookies combined to make 82 starts, the most by any team in the NFL.

Bradley, led the Jaguars to a 4-12 mark in his first season at the Jaguars helm. The Jaguars overhauled their roster in 2013, with 31 newcomers and rookies combining to make 44 starts. Of the 53 players on the final roster, 20 were rookies or first-year players. The club posted a 4-4 mark following the bye week with three of the wins on the road. Six of the club's first eight games were against 2013 playoff teams and the club played seven games overall against playoff teams including both Super Bowl participants.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Bradley spent four seasons (2009-12) with the Seattle Seahawks as defensive coordinator and played a vital role in the club advancing to the postseason twice. The Seahawks posted an 11-5 mark in 2012, the third-best in franchise history, and advanced to the divisional round of the playoffs.

Bradley developed the Seattle defense into one of the NFL's top units during his tenure. The Seahawks ranked sixth in the NFL in total defense (319.2 yards per game) from 2011-12, third in points per game (17.5), fifth in takeaways (62), first in opponents passer rating (73.2) and fifth in interceptions (40).

Under Bradley's direction in 2012, the Seahawks led the NFL by allowing a franchise-record low 15.3 points per game despite playing with the third-youngest (25 years, 195 days) defensive starting unit in the league. The Seahawks allowed a franchise-low 306.2 yards per game which ranked fourth in the NFL, finishing 10th against the run (103.1) and sixth against the pass (203.1).

Bradley was responsible for the development of two rookies who played key roles for the Seahawks in defensive end Bruce Irvin and linebacker Bobby Wagner. Irvin, the 15th overall pick of the draft, led all rookies with eight sacks while Wagner (2nd round) ranked second among rookies in tackles with 140, and fourth with three interceptions. Safety Earl Thomas was voted to his second consecutive Pro Bowl. Second-year cornerback Richard Sherman earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the team and tying for second in the NFL with eight interceptions. Defensive end Chris Clemons excelled under Bradley's tutelage, posting 33.5 sacks in 48 games including a career-high 11.5 in 2012. In 2011, Bradley's defensive unit ranked ninth in the NFL, allowing 332.2 yards per game, finishing in the top-10 for only the sixth time in the club's 36-year history and for the first time since 1997. Nine of his 11 regulars started at least 14 games on a squad that ranked the second-youngest in the NFL (26 years, 59 days). Seattle ranked in the top-10 in multiple categories, including second in fewest touchdowns allowed in the second half (11), third in second half points allowed (119), fourth in opponent yards per rush attempt (3.79), fifth in turnover differential (+8), fifth in most takeaways (31) and seventh in points allowed per game (19.7).

Bradley's group sent three players to the 2012 Pro Bowl, with Thomas voted as a starter. He was joined in Hawaii by fellow secondary mates, safety Kam Chancellor and cornerback Brandon Browner. In Bradley's first year as defensive coordinator, the Seahawks posted two shutouts at home, the first time since 1986 they accomplished that feat.

Bradley joined Seattle after spending three years (2006-08) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers under defensive coordinator Monte Kiffin, serving the last two as linebackers coach after joining the Bucs in 2006 as their defensive quality control coach. Derrick Brooks earned Pro Bowl appearances in 2007 and 2008 under Bradley's guidance.

Prior to Tampa Bay, Bradley spent 10 seasons (1996-2005) as an assistant coach at his alma mater, North Dakota State, including six as the assistant head coach (2000-05). He also served as defensive coordinator for the Bison from 1997- 2002, and again in 2005. Under Bradley's guidance, North Dakota State's defense led the Great West Football Conference in scoring defense (13.7 points per game), pass defense (150.3 yards), total defense (272.4) and turnover margin (+1) in 2005.

Bradley was the head coach at Fort Lewis College for four months (December 1995 - March 1996) and was defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Fort Lewis for four seasons (1992-1995). Prior to Fort Lewis, he was a graduate assistant coach at NDSU for two seasons (1990-1991).

Bradley played collegiately at North Dakota State (1984-1988), where he was a free safety and punter, a four-time academic All-North Central Conference selection and a valuable member of the 1988 national championship football team. He earned his bachelor's degrees in business administration (1989) and physical education (1990) from North Dakota State as well as a master's degree in athletic administration from NDSU in 1992.

Bradley has been actively involved in the local community since his arrival in Jacksonville. He is the spokesperson for the Ashley Furniture HomeStores Hope to Dream program which provides beds to underprivileged children. In addition, Bradley has made numerous appearances on behalf of the Jaguars and served as the keynote speaker at a variety of events. Bradley and his wife, Michaela, have four children; Carter, Anna, Eli and Ella.

OPPONENTS ON BORTLES

Texans DE J.J. Watt (12/4/14): "[Bortles] is a strong kid and he can run — I think that's one thing that is sometimes overlooked so you have to make sure you're aware of your pass-rush lanes and keep him contained."

Browns Head Coach Mike Pettine (10/15/14): "We had a lot of respect for (Blake) Bortles coming out; didn't know a lot about him until we had a chance to go and work him out and visit with him and came away very impressed. It's not a surprise to us that he's having the success that he's having. He can make all the throws. He can extend plays with his feet. He's not afraid to tuck it and run if he has to. Just looking at his completion percentage is impressive."

Titans DT Jurrell Casey (10/12/14): "(Blake) did a great job today. I can't knock him, he did a heck of a job getting out of the way of pressure, getting them back into the game at the end, he did a great job. He's got a lot of work to do, but I think he's going to be a top quarterback one of these days."

Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger (10/2/14): "I liked him coming out. I thought he was the most ready and a guy that I thought could be the best, just because I think the things he does: He can extend plays, he can stay in, he can throw the ball, he can throw on the run. He is an impressive-type young player. He makes some rookie mistakes but he also makes some plays that you don't expect rookies to make in a good way."

Chargers CB Brandon Flowers (9/28/14): "Bortles is a very poised quarterback. He made some key throws early. It didn't take me by surprise. I used to watch him in college. I always thought he was a great quarterback. He was the top quarterback taken for a reason. He definitely has all the tools and the sky is the limit for him."

BORTLES NOT AFRAID TO THROW IT DEEP

In Week 4 at San Diego, rookie QB Blake Bortles became the 16th QB in Jaguars history to start a game for the franchise and the fifth Jaguars QB to start during their rookie season, joining Jonathan Quinn (1998), David Garrard (2002), Byron Leftwich (2003) and Blaine Gabbert (2011).

The Jaguars defense impressed in 2014 when backed up against its own goal line, forcing three turnovers when opponents were in goal-to-go situations, the most in the NFL (Baltimore, San Francisco and St. Louis also registered three takeaways in opponents' goal-to-go situations).

Seventh-year CB Alan Ball, who finished the season on injured reserve, intercepted Eagles QB Nick Foles in the second quarter of Week 1 in the back of the endzone. Fourth-year LB J.T. Thomas intercepted Dolphins QB Ryan Tannehill in the fourth quarter of Week 8 two yards into the endzone. In Week 12 at Indianapolis, DE Red Bryant forced a fumble on Colts RB Boom Herron on first-and-goal from the seven-yard line that was recovered by rookie LB Telvin Smith.

2014 JAGUARS DRAFT CLASS

DUVAL IN THE DRAFT

The Jaguars' 2014 draft class was one of the highest touted group of rookies by pundits across the league. Check out what the media had to say:

"With the Jaguars committed to building a cocoon around their quarterback of the future, Caldwell and Gus Bradley deserve props for their execution of a well-thought-out plan to improve. GRADE: A-"
Bucky Brooks, NFL.com

"They got their franchise quarterback and then followed that up with two receivers with the next two picks. That's smart. They also got a tough-guy guard in Brandon Linder in the third. They nailed it, especially by taking Bortles. Grade: A"

Pete Prisco, CBSSports.com

"Getting both Marqise Lee and Allen Robinson in Round 2 was remarkable. With Cecil Shorts, they'll form a dangerous corp capable of shifting looks. Their next four picks all hit the mark: G Brandon Linder, CB Aaron Colvin (perhaps a Day 2 pick had he not injured his knee last season), LB Telvin Smith and DE/LB Chris Smith. Grade: A-"

Chris Burke, SI.com

WEEK 1 AT PHILADELPHIA

September 7, 2014 at Lincoln Financial Field

	1	2	3	4
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-1)	14	3	0	0	-	17
PHILADELPHIA EAGLES (1-0)	0	0	14	20	-	34

The Jaguars opened their 20th season in strong fashion by forcing fumbles on the Eagles' first two possessions and turning both into touchdowns, but they were unable to make a 17-0 halftime lead stand up as Philadelphia scored 34 second-half points. In addition to the forced fumbles the defense turned in five sacks and an end zone interception, all in the first half. With two rookies starting at wide receiver, Chad Henne got plenty of production from the pair as Marqise Lee had six catches for 62 yards and Allen Hurns scored the Jaguars' only touchdowns of 34 and 21 yards on his first two receptions, adding a 46-yard catch to finish the first quarter with three receptions for 101 yards. After Hurns' second touchdown Josh Scobee's 49-yard field goal made the score 17-0, but two more opportunities to extend the lead failed on a missed 50-yard field goal try and a blocked 36-yard attempt. In the second half Philadelphia wasted no time in mounting a comeback. On the first series Darren Sproles ran 49 yards up the middle for a touchdown, and on the next possession the Eagles got within 17-14 on Zach Ertz's 25-yard pass from Nick Foles. The teams exchanged several punts before opening the fourth quarter with the score still 17-14, but the Eagles scored on all three of their possessions in the final quarter, first tying the game at 17-17 on Cody Parkey's 51-yard field goal. Foles then hit a wide open Jeremy Maclin with a 68-yard bomb behind the coverage before Parkey added a 28-yard field goal at the two-minute mark to make it 27-17. It was still a 10-point game with two minutes left, and the Jaguars began at their own 20-yard line with no time outs remaining. On second down Henne was stripped by Trent Cole and Fletcher Cox scooped up the loose ball, rumbling 17 yards for the final points. The Jaguars had three rookies in their opening day lineup for the first time since 2009, with Lee and Hurns joined by right guard Brandon Linder. Ryan Davis had two of the Jaguars' five sacks and a fumble recovery, while Chris Clemons and Andre Branch each had a sack and forced fumble. The game marked just the second time in team history (9/13/09) the Jaguars forced turnovers on the opponent's first two possessions.

WASHINGTON REDSKINS (1-1)	7	14	3	17	-	41

The Jaguars struggled from the start against a productive Redskins team that took a 21-0 lead before Jacksonville managed to gain a first down. The Redskins lost starting QB Robert Griffin II and WR DeSean Jackson to injury in the first quarter, but Kirk Cousins threw for 250 yards and two touchdowns in relief to lead the 41-10 Washington win. The Jaguars offense was forced to punt six times after three-and-out possessions including their first four of the game as the Redskins defense tormented Chad Henne, sacking him 10 times on the day. Washington scored touchdowns on its second, fourth and fifth drives, building a 21-0 lead on Darrel Young's 20-yard pass from Cousins and two one-yard runs by Alfred Morris. A 63-yard catch-and-run by Mercedes Lewis put the Jaguars on the scoreboard just after the first half's two-minute warning, making it 21-7, but by halftime Washington dominated the stats with 308 total yards to 87, 21 first downs to four, and a possession time advantage of 20:56 to 9:04. A Kai Forbath 36-yard field goal made it 24-7 in the third period before the Redskins added 17 fourth-quarter points. The Jaguars ran a total of five plays in Redskins territory, all on a fourth-quarter drive that resulted in Josh Scobee's 36-yard field goal, while Washington had six red zone drives and four goal-to-go possessions that all resulted in scores. The Redskins' 10 sacks were a team record for a Jaguars opponent, with Ryan Kerrigan leading the way with four sacks. The Jaguars' 25 rushing yards, the second-fewest in team history, were led by Henne's 17 yards on three carries. The Jaguars' eight first downs tied their fewest ever, while the Redskins' 32 first downs tied the second-most by a Jaguars opponent.

WEEK 3 VS. INDIANAPOLIS

September 21, 2014 at EverBank Field

	1	2	3	4
INDIANAPOLIS COLTS (1-2)	10	20	0	14	-	44
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-3)	0	0	3	14	-	17

The Blake Bortles era officially began in Jacksonville when the rookie quarterback took the field for the start of the second half, but it was too late to change the outcome in a 44-17 loss to Indianapolis in the Jaguars' home opener. The Colts scored on each of their first six possessions, a first for a Jaguars opponent, in opening up a 30-0 halftime lead. The points included three field goals of 48, 43 and 25 yards by Adam Vinatieri and three touchdown passes by Andrew Luck to Ahmad Bradshaw, Dwayne Allen and Coby Fleener. The Jaguars struggled to get started and punted on their first four possessions. By halftime the Colts' dominance was underlined by 18 first downs to 2, 330 yards to 55, 239 passing yards to 22, 22 pass completions to 4, and a possession time advantage of 21:28 to 8:32. Bortles saw his first NFL action on the first play of the second half, and he directed his first scoring drive on the next possession, marching the team 59 yards in eight plays to set up Josh Scobee's 41-yard field goal. The Jacksonville defense then stiffened, stopping Indianapolis on a fourth-and-goal at the Jacksonville four-yard line. Six plays later Vontae Davis picked off Bortles' deep sideline pass to Allen Robinson, and the Colts then drove 64 yards in 10 plays with Luck throwing his fourth touchdown pass of the day to Hakeem Nicks. But Bortles responded with the first touchdown pass of his career on the next series when Allen Hurns caught his deep pass across the middle and broke two tackles on the way to a 63-yard touchdown. The Colts answered when Greg Toler picked off Bortles and returned the ball 47 yards for a touchdown and a 44-10 lead with 2:58 remaining. On the Jaguars' final possession Bortles connected with Cecil Shorts, who was seeing his first action of the season, with a 10-yard touchdown pass to close out the scoring. The Colts finished with 529 total yards of offense as Luck completed 31 of 39 passes for 370 yards and four touchdowns. The Jaguars had three turnovers and Indianapolis converted all three into touchdowns.

WEEK 4 AT SAN DIEGO

September 28, 2014 at Qualcomm Stadium

	1	2	3	4
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-4)	0	14	0	0	-	14
SAN DIEGO CHARGERS (3-1)	3	14	10	6	-	33

In Blake Bortles' first NFL start the Jaguars stumbled on their first two possessions, but Bortles led back-to-back touchdown drives in the second quarter to give Jacksonville a 14-10 lead. The San Diego offense, however, proved too potent as the Chargers pulled away with four straight scoring drives to claim a 33-14 win as Philip Rivers threw for 377 yards and three touchdowns with two 100-yard receivers. Jacksonville lost a Toby Gerhart fumble on the second play of the game, the first of three Jacksonville turnovers, but the defense held and forced San Diego to punt. The Jaguars' next possession ended at midfield with a failed 4th-and-1, and Nick Novak's ensuing 33-yard field goal opened the scoring. Jacksonville then marched 68 yards in 10 plays with Gerhart pounding in from the one for a 7-3 lead. The Chargers answered with an 83-yard drive capped by 24-yard and 47-yard completions from Rivers to Eddie Royal for a 10-7 San Diego lead. The Jaguars countered with a 76-yard drive highlighted by a 44-yard completion by Bortles to Allen Hurns to the San Diego two, from where Bortles hit newly-acquired tight end Nic Jacobs in the back of the end zone for a 14-10 lead. Another Rivers-to-Royal completion of 43 yards put San Diego ahead for good, 17-14, just before the half. The Chargers kept momentum in the third quarter as they scored on their first three possessions with a Rivers touchdown pass to Malcolm Floyd and two more Novak field goals. San Diego tacked on another field goal in the final minutes for the 33-14 final margin. Among the bright spots for Jacksonville was Bortles, who completed 29 of 37 passes for 253 yards, while the Jacksonville defense held San Diego to a field goal on all four of its red zone opportunities. The Jaguars had five rookies in the starting lineup on offense, with Bortles joined by wide receivers Allen Robinson and Allen Hurns, and linemen Luke Bowanko and Brandon Linder.

WEEK 5 VS. PITTSBURGH

October 5, 2014 at EverBank Field

	$\frac{1}{0}$	$\frac{2}{10}$	$\frac{3}{0}$	$\frac{4}{7}$	-	17
PITTSBURGH STEELERS (3-2)	0	10	0	7	-	17
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-5)	3	3	3	0	-	9

Scoring on their first possession and trailing 10-6 at halftime, the Jaguars gave Pittsburgh a fight but were unable to overcome an eight-point deficit in the fourth quarter in losing 17-9. Blake Bortles made his first home start and completed 22 of 36 passes but was victimized by two interceptions, the second of which was returned for the game-winning touchdown. After the Jacksonville defense forced a three-and-out on the Steelers' opening possession, the Jaguars put together a 15-play drive that resulted in a 43-yard Josh Scobee field goal. The Steelers tied it at 3-3 on Shaun Suisham's 24-yarder early in the second quarter, and then Ben Roethlisberger directed a 10-play drive that started with a 27-yard completion to Heath Miller and ended on a one-yard touchdown pass to Michael Palmer for a 10-3 lead with 1:53 remaining in the first half. Bortles then directed a two-minute drive covering 58 yards in 10 plays – including completions of 13, 18 and 17 yards – to set up Scobee's 35-yard field goal to get within 10-6 at the half. In the third quarter Scobee kicked a 36-yarder on a drive sparked by a 20-yard Storm Johnson run and a 20-yard Bortles pass to Toby Gerhart, and while that made it a one-point game at 10-9 the Jaguars had been forced to settle for a field goal for the second straight red zone possession. The fourth quarter began with the Steelers' only turnover, a sack and fumble by Roethlisberger that Abye Jones forced and Andre Branch recovered at the Jaguars' 17-yard line. But two play later Bortles' pass to the flat for Allen Hurns was picked off by Brice McCain and returned 22 yards for a touchdown, making it 17-9 with 11:32 left in the game. The Jaguars managed to gain one first down on their final two possessions and were forced to punt twice as Pittsburgh ran the final 10 plays to end the game. The Jaguars had seven rookies in their starting lineup including six on offense. With a large contingent of Steelers fans, the 66,198 tickets distributed were the most for a Jaguars game at EverBank Field since December of 2012 against New England.

WEEK 6 AT TENNESSEE

October 12, 2014 at LP Field

	$\frac{1}{7}$	$\frac{2}{0}$	$\frac{3}{0}$	$\frac{4}{7}$	-	14
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-6)	7	0	0	7	-	14
TENNESSEE TITANS (2-4)	3	7	3	3	-	16

After failing to recover Jacksonville's onside kick, Tennessee blocked Josh Scobee's 55-yard field goal try on the Jaguars' last play of the game to preserve a 16-14 divisional win at home. In the end the Jaguars posted season-highs in seven offensive categories: 379 total yards, 75 plays, 27 first downs, 297 net passing yards, 32 pass completions, 46 pass attempts and a possession time of 31:07. But the stats weren't enough to overcome two turnovers and six sacks, even though the Jacksonville defense also yielded season-lows in total yards and points and added three sacks to their season total. The Jaguars began the day with a strong start, marching 80 yards to score their first opening-possession touchdown of the season on a one-yard plunge by Storm Johnson, making his first NFL start. The scoring drive highlight was a 59-yard catch and run by Clay Harbor, who was finally tackled at the Tennessee 7. The Titans scored on their second possession with a 25-yard field goal after Charlie Whitehurst completed passes of 18, 11 and 25 yards. In the second quarter he had completions of 37, 17 and 22 yards to set up a one-yard touchdown run by Jackie Battle for a 10-7 Tennessee lead with 1:04 left in the first half. Opening the third quarter the Titans extended their lead, driving 77 yards to the Jacksonville 3, with the help of two third-down penalties on the Jaguars, to set up Ryan Succop's 21-yard field goal. The first turnover of the game came on Jacksonville's next possession, a 14-play series that ended with Bliidi Wreh-Wilson's interception of a Blake Bortles pass at the Tennessee 16. His return to midfield put Tennessee in position to take advantage, which they did with Succop's 42-yard field goal for a 16-7 lead at the beginning of the fourth quarter. The teams exchanged punts a couple of times before the second Jaguars turnover, this time a fumble by Cecil Shorts at the Titans' 10 at the end of a 16-yard completion. The defense held and gave Jacksonville the ball again at their own 17 with 2:43 remaining and no timeouts. Bortles calmly directed the 83-yard drive, capping it with a 20-yard touchdown strike to Harbor with 37 seconds left. After Scobee's successful onside kick the Jaguars advanced only to the Tennessee 37, from where the 55-yard field goal try was blocked.

WEEK 7 VS. CLEVELAND

October 19, 2014 at EverBank Field

	1	2	3	4		6
CLEVELAND BROWNS (3-3)	3	3	0	0	-	6
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-6)	0	7	3	14	-	24

The Jaguars claimed their first win of the season with a stingy defense, including three second-half takeaways that led to 17 points, and a strong running game to beat Cleveland 24-6 at EverBank Field. The Jaguars' season-high 185 rushing yards were led by Denard Robinson's 127, with touchdowns scored by Robinson and rookies Storm Johnson and Allen Robinson. In getting his first win as a starter, Blake Bortles was intercepted three times but the Jacksonville defense yielded just a field goal and made two fourth-and-stop following the turnovers. Cleveland scored first on a 40-yard Billy Cundiff field goal that was set up by Tashaun Gipson's first interception and 31-yard return on the Jaguars' second possession. Cundiff added a 22-yarder in the second quarter to cap a 14-play drive after the Jacksonville defense held following first-and-goal at the 4. On the Jaguars' next series Bortles was picked off again by Gipson, and the defense did its job again by stopping the Browns on fourth-and-one at the Jacksonville 24. With 1:33 left in the half, Bortles marched the Jaguars 76 yards in three plays with completions of 16, 24 and 31 yards, the last to Allen Robinson with 37 seconds remaining for a 31-yard touchdown that gave the Jaguars their first halftime lead since opening day at 7-6. The only scoring of the third quarter was Josh Scobee's 30-yard field goal, which was set up by a Paul Posluszny fumble recovery on Telvin Smith's sack and forced fumble. Bortles' last interception came at the Cleveland six, and the Browns moved to the Jacksonville 43 from where the Jaguars defense held again on a fourth-and-5 early in the fourth quarter. The biggest break of the game came in the middle of the fourth quarter when Jordan Poyer tried to field Bryan Anger's punt at his own two-yard line but muffed the catch and the ball was recovered by LaRoy Reynolds at the Cleveland eight. From there Denard Robinson scored his first NFL touchdown for a 17-6 lead with 5:58 remaining. The clincher came two plays later when Telvin Smith intercepted Brian Hoyer at the Cleveland 22 and returned it to the seven. Storm Johnson scored from the three for a 24-6 lead with 4:35 left. The defense turned in one more fourth-down stop on the Browns' final possession when Chris Clemons got a sack for the third straight game.

WEEK 8 VS. MIAMI

October 26, 2014 at EverBank Field

	1	2	3	4		27
MIAMI DOLPHINS (4-3)	0	10	14	3	-	27
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-7)	0	3	3	7	-	13

A strong performance by the Jacksonville defense was nullified by turnovers, including two interceptions returned for Dolphins touchdowns, as the Jaguars lost at home 27-13. The Jaguars appeared to be off to a strong start, narrowly missing a touchdown on the opening possession on a long pass from Blake Bortles to Allen Robinson. Forced to settle for a field goal, they came up empty when Josh Scobee's 48-yard try was blocked. A series of punts ensued for the rest of the first quarter, but on the first play of the second period Bortles' pass was intercepted by Louis Delmas and returned 81 yards for a touchdown. Jacksonville answered quickly though, with a 14-play, 66-yard drive ending with a 30-yard Scobee field goal. After the Jacksonville defense forced a third consecutive three-and-out, the Jaguars moved to the Miami 37 before Bortles fumbled at the end of a nine-yard run at the Miami 23. The Dolphins capitalized again, with Caleb Sturgis hitting a 43-yard field goal with 58 seconds left in the half to cap an 11-play drive. The Jaguars dominated the first half statistically—with 21:26 to 8:34 time of possession, 11 to 3 first downs, 219 to 56 total yards and 118 to 26 rushing yards—but trailed 10-3 due to the two turnovers. The third quarter began with the Jaguars defense forcing another punt after Ryan Davis' second sack of the day, but the Jaguars' first play of the half resulted in a second interception returned for a Miami touchdown, this time 22 yards by Brent Grimes for a 17-3 lead. The Jaguars answered with a 10-play drive to set up Scobee's 40-yard field goal, but Miami responded two series later with a 95-yard scoring drive that included a 50-yard pass and a 30-yard run before Ryan Tannehill threw a three-yard touchdown pass to Rishard Matthews for a 24-6 advantage. Miami tacked on another field goal in the fourth quarter before the Jaguars' final possession of the day ended with a 48-yard Bortles touchdown pass to Allen Robinson. Denard Robinson turned in his second straight 100-yard rushing game, including a 41-yarder, as the Jaguars ran for 176 yards. J.T. Thomas, making his first start at middle linebacker for the injured Paul Posluszny, got his first NFL interception in the end zone in the fourth quarter.

WEEK 9 AT CINCINNATI

NOVEMBER 2, 2014 at Paul Brown Stadium

	1	2	3	4
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-8)	3	0	7	13	-	23
CINCINNATI BENGALS (5-2-1)	0	12	7	14	-	33

The Jaguars, trailing by 16 points in the second quarter, battled back to get within three points with 8:13 left in the game, but turnovers and special teams miscues led to a 33-23 loss in Cincinnati. The Bengals led 12-3 at the half on an Andy Dalton-to-Mohamed Sanu 19-yard touchdown pass and a Mike Nugent field goal. The additional two points came on a safety when a Bryan Anger punt was blocked through the end zone, this after his previous punt was tipped and deflected before rolling dead at 27 yards. Cincinnati extended the lead to 19-3 in the third quarter on a Jeremy Hill one-yard run, but the Jaguars responded with a 40-yard scoring pass from Blake Bortles to Allen Hurns to cap a three-play, 64-yard drive. Cincinnati's next possession ended with a Sherrod Martin interception before the Bengals scored again on an 18-yard A.J. Green touchdown catch to make it 26-10 early in the fourth quarter. Jacksonville answered again with another Hurns touchdown, this time on an 18-yard pass capping an eight-play, 75-yard series. J.T. Thomas' interception at the Cincinnati 17 was returned to the seven, setting up a Denard Robinson five-yard touchdown run to get the Jaguars within three at 26-23. But Josh Scobee's ensuing kickoff went out of bounds, giving the Bengals possession at their own 40, and they took just one play to reach the end zone one more time on a 60-yard Hill run to close out the scoring. Hill finished with 154 rushing yards while Denard Robinson finished with 94 yards on 17 carries, narrowly missing a third straight 100-yard rushing performance. Hurns turned in 117 receiving yards and two touchdowns on a career-high seven receptions. Bortles posted a career-best passer rating of 96.4 with 247 passing yard and two touchdowns while completing 22 of 33 passes. On defense Thomas and Martin got interceptions while Sen'Derrick Marks notched his fourth sack of the season.

WEEK 10 VS. DALLAS

NOVEMBER 9, 2014 at Wembley Stadium

	1	2	3	4
DALLAS COWBOYS (7-3)	10	14	7	0	-	31
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-9)	7	0	0	10	-	17

In their second-ever home game at Wembley Stadium the Jaguars took an early lead but were unable to hold off a productive Dallas team that scored 24 first half points, falling 31-17. Though he was not certain to play because of a back injury, Tony Romo started and completed 20 of 27 passes for 246 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Cowboys. Dez Bryant did the most damage with six receptions for 158 yards and two touchdowns, all in the first half, while NFL rushing leader DeMarco Murray ran for 100 yards on 19 carries. Denard Robinson scored both touchdowns for the Jaguars, on runs of 32 and 1 yards, while Blake Bortles threw for 290 yards including 119 to Cecil Shorts. Both teams scored on their initial possession, with the Cowboys getting a 54-yard Dan Bailey field goal before Robinson's 32-yard scoring run which capped a 9-play, 80-yard drive for a 7-3 lead. Dallas then added three first half touchdowns with Jason Witten catching a two-yards pass in the first quarter—set up by a Jaguars muffed punt at their own six-yard line—before Bryant's 35- and 68-yard scores in the second. Bryant's second touchdown came on a one-play drive with 19 seconds left in the first half, one play after a Jaguars punt to the Dallas 32. Joseph Randle tacked on a 40-yard touchdown run on the Cowboys' first possession of the second half to cap an 87-yard drive and give Dallas a 31-7 lead. The Jaguars' next four possessions ended with two failed fourth-down plays, one punt and an interception. Jacksonville got a safety in the fourth quarter when the Cowboys were called for holding in their own end zone on a punt, and the Jaguars scored on their final possession of the day when Denard Robinson ran in from a yard out and then Allen Robinson caught two two-point conversion pass. The Jaguars reached their bye week with a 1-9 record.

GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 12 AT INDIANAPOLIS

NOVEMBER 23, 2014 at Lucas Oil Stadium

	1	2	3	4	-	3
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-10)	3	0	0	0	-	3
INDIANAPOLIS COLTS (7-4)	3	3	14	3	-	23

A strong start by the Jaguars defense—including five sacks, five forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries in the first half—was later negated by four consecutive Colts scoring drives as the Jaguars lost 23-3 in Indianapolis. Nine of the Jaguars' 12 possessions ended in a punt or a turnover as the team was held to a season-low in points. On the fourth play of the game Chris Clemons got the first of his three sacks and forced an Andrew Luck fumble that Telvin Smith recovered at the Colts' 46. But two plays later Blake Bortles was intercepted and the Colts, despite Clemons' second sack in as many drives, capitalized with a 46-yard Adam Vinatieri field goal for a 3-0 lead. The Colts' next possession ended with another strip sack, this time by Chris Smith with Sen'Derrick Marks recovering at the Colts 12 to set up Josh Scobee's 28-yard field goal to make it 3-3. On Jacksonville's next series the turnover battle continued as Denard Robinson was forced to fumble and the Colts recovered at the Jacksonville 41. Clemons got his third sack of the day on the next drive before another Indianapolis fumble which was recovered by Telvin Smith at the Jacksonville seven. The Jaguars were unable to take advantage there, but the defense held on a goal line stand at the end of the first half and Indianapolis took a 6-3 halftime lead on Vinatieri's 20-yard field goal. The game turned in the third quarter, when the Jaguars failed to gain a first down and went three-and-out three times while the Colts scored 17 points on three consecutive drives with a Trent Richardson one-yard run, a Luck-to-T.Y. Hilton 73-yard pass and a 32-yard field goal. In that period Indianapolis was four-for-four on third down, gained 11 first downs and more than doubled the Jaguars' time of possession. The Jaguars fell to 1-10 for the first time. The Colts' six fumbles tied the most by a Jaguars opponent, and through 11 games the Jaguars defense recorded 33 sacks, their most in a season since 2007.

WEEK 13 VS. NEW YORK GIANTS

NOVEMBER 30, 2014 at EverBank Field

	1	2	3	4	-	24
NEW YORK GIANTS (3-9)	0	21	0	0	-	24
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-10)	0	3	13	9	-	25

Turning in the largest come-from-behind win in franchise history, the Jaguars got two second-half touchdowns from their defense to erase a 21-0 second-quarter deficit and claim a 25-24 win at home against the Giants. Josh Scobee's 43-yard field goal with 28 seconds remaining provided the winning margin, capping Blake Bortles' first game-winning drive of 11 plays and 55 yards. Both teams punted on their initial possession but then the Giants took over, scoring touchdowns on three consecutive drives including a 19-play, 91-yard march that consumed 9:51 and made it 7-0 on Rashad Jennings' two-yard run. A three-yard touchdown pass from Eli Manning to Preston Parker and a Jennings 17-yard run made it 21-0 midway through the second quarter. Scobee's 28-yard field goal on the Jaguars' next series made it 21-3 at halftime. In the second half the Jacksonville defense took over, getting a touchdown on the Giants' first series when Manning was sacked by Geno Hayes and fumbled at his own eight-yard line with J.T. Thomas recovering the ball in the end zone. A Giants missed 43-yard field goal try later in the quarter preceded the Jaguars' second touchdown, a 30-yard Bortles pass to Marqise Lee. The Jaguars' two-point conversion try fell incomplete, leaving the score at 21-16. The Giants' next possession ended in another Jaguars defensive touchdown as Aaron Colvin scooped up a Larry Donnell fumble and returned it 41 yards to give the Jaguars their first lead at 22-21 with 2:04 gone in the fourth quarter. Another two-point conversion try fell incomplete, leaving Jacksonville with a one-point lead. After two punts the Giants regained the lead on Josh Brown's 33-yard field goal, making it 24-22 with 3:26 remaining. The Jaguars responded, driving 55 yards in 11 plays with Bortles completing four consecutive passes and running for 11 and 20 yards. After Scobee's kick made it 25-24, the Jaguars defense sealed the win on the next play when Sen'Derrick Marks got his second sack of the day and forced a Manning fumble which Chris Clemons recovered. The Jaguars' 21-point comeback win broke the previous team record of 15 points in 1996, and the game marked the first time in franchise history the defense scored two touchdowns in a game.

WEEK 14 VS. HOUSTON

DECEMBER 7, 2014 at EverBank Field

	1	2	3	4
HOUSTON TEXANS (7-6)	3	7	7	10	-	27
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-11)	7	6	0	0	-	13

The Jaguars scored first and built a 13-10 halftime lead but were unable to hold it as Houston scored on its first three possessions of the second half to post a 27-13 win. Blake Bortles threw his first first-quarter touchdown pass of the season on the Jaguars' second possession, hitting fellow rookie Allen Hurns on the run with a four-yard pass. Houston answered on the next series with a 44-yard Randy Bullock field goal capping a 54-yard drive, and the Texans took their first lead on their next possession, marching 52 yards in six plays with Ryan Fitzpatrick scoring on a four-yard run for a 10-7 Houston lead early in the second period. The Jaguars' two longest drives of the day came in the second quarter and both resulted in Josh Scobee field goals of 33 and 37 yards to cap 11- and 13-play drives and make it 13-10. In the second half the game turned as the Jaguars' first three possessions ended in punt, interception and punt while Houston scored on its first three drives of the half. The Texans took the lead for good at 17-13 on Alfred Blue's one-yard run which capped a 16-play, 84-yard drive. Bortles was then intercepted by D.J. Swearinger at the Jacksonville 32 and Arian Foster's ensuing one-yard scoring run gave Houston a 24-13 lead early in the fourth. Bullock tacked on a 44-yard field goal for a 14-point lead at 27-13, and the Houston defense stopped the Jaguars on fourth down on each of their last two possessions. Scobee eclipsed the 1,000-point mark for his career with his two field goals and PAT, giving him 1,002 in his 11-year career to become one of nine active NFL players with 1,000 points. Sen'Derrick Marks got 1.5 sacks on the Texans' first two possessions to increase his season total to 8.5, while Hurns' touchdown was his sixth, a franchise record by a rookie wide receiver. Houston's J.J. Watt turned in three sacks to increase his season total to 14.5, and Foster finished with 127 rushing yards.

WEEK 15 AT BALTIMORE

December 14, 2014 at M&T Bank Stadium

	1	2	3	4
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-12)	6	6	0	0	-	12
BALTIMORE RAVENS (9-5)	7	3	7	3	-	20

An ominous start, with Baltimore blocking a punt for a touchdown on the first series of the game, set the stage for an unusual contest that included six field goals, just one offensive touchdown and a successful onside kick and fake punt by the Jaguars, but Jacksonville's inability to reach the end zone cost them in a 20-12 loss in Baltimore. After the blocked punt put them in a 7-0 deficit, the Jaguars scored on each of their next three possessions with Josh Scobee kicking field goals of 53, 45 and 53 yards for a 9-7 lead. On the next series Scobee missed from 42 yards and Justin Tucker's 22-yarder midway through the second quarter gave Baltimore back the lead at 10-9. Tucker then missed a 54-yard try before Scobee ended the first half with his fourth field goal of the day, this one from 45 yards again to give Jacksonville a 12-10 halftime lead. That would be the end of the Jaguars' scoring, however, as they punted on their first four possessions of the second half. Baltimore put together a 6-play, 80-yard drive early in the third quarter on which Joe Flacco completed all five of his passes including 22- and 29-yarders to set up his three-yard touchdown pass to Owen Daniels for a 17-12 Baltimore advantage. The five-point margin stood through most of the half, and the Jaguars were unable to march beyond the Baltimore 34-yard line, where they failed on a fourth-and-nine with 3:29 left in the game. From there the Ravens drove 49 yards in eight plays for a 33-yard field goal that gave them an eight-point lead with 1:11 remaining. Then on fourth-and-19 Blake Bortles' desperation pass was intercepted to seal the win for Baltimore. The Ravens defense harassed Bortles, sacking him eight times on the day including four in the fourth quarter. The Jaguars' two successful special teams plays - an onside kick in the second quarter and a fake punt in the third - went for naught as the team was unable to score following either surprise play.

Closing out the home portion of their schedule on a Thursday night, the Jaguars offense produced three touchdowns including two on consecutive 11-play drives to reverse a 10-0 deficit and spark a 21-10 win over Tennessee. The night began with the Titans taking the opening possession and marching 84 yards in 12 plays, eating up nearly half of the first quarter, to take a 7-0 lead on an eight-yard pass from Charlie Whitehurst to Leon Washington. The Jaguars, meanwhile, struggled to get started. They punted on each of their first four possessions including three straight three-and-outs. Tennessee also punted three times but then scored again, this time on a 50-yard Ryan Succop field goal that made it 10-0 with 3:46 left in the first half. At that point the Jaguars awoke as Blake Bortles drove them 80 yards in 11 plays in just 3:15, capping the series with a four-yard touchdown pass to Mercedes Lewis. The Jaguars got the ball to start the second half and they picked up where they left off, with another 11-play drive covering 72 yards and ending with Toby Gerhart's one-yard run up the middle to give Jacksonville a 14-10 lead. After the teams exchanged a couple of punts each the Jaguars defense stood up, stopping Tennessee on a fourth-and-two at the Jacksonville 39-yard line. The offense made it pay off on the next play when Jordan Todman broke free on a 62-yard touchdown run that made it 21-10 with 9:13 remaining. The Jacksonville defense then did its part again, stopping Tennessee at the five-yard line after a first-and-goal at the seven, forcing the Titans to kick a field goal that made it an eight-point game with 6:06 left. A time-consuming 10-play possession by the Jaguars kept the ball away from Tennessee until 1:07 remained. The Titans, with no time outs, advanced to the Jacksonville 35 but Sen'Derrick Marks ended the game with a sack, the Jaguars' fourth of the night. The Jaguars became the first team in NFL history to have two rookie wide receivers with 48 or more receptions in Allen Hurns and Allen Robinson, while Todman's 62-yard run was the Jaguars' longest in four years.

The Jaguars held the lead twice and were driving for a potential game-winning touchdown in the final minute before falling short and losing in Houston, 23-17, to close the season at 3-13. The Texans scored quickly, driving 83 yards in seven plays on their opening possession to take a 7-0 lead on Case Keenum's 10-yard pass to Arian Foster. The Jaguars responded on the next series with a 53-yard Josh Scobee field goal, capping an eight-play series, but it was the Jacksonville defense that gave the team its first lead on Houston's next possession when Dwayne Gratz intercepted Keenum and returned the ball 55 yards for a touchdown and a 10-7 first-quarter lead. In the second quarter Houston put together an impressive 14-play, 74-yard drive to regain the lead at 14-10 on Alfred Blue's one-yard run up the middle. But the Jaguars battled back in the third quarter. After Scobee's 51-yard field goal try hit the left upright, the defense came up with another take-away, this time a fumble forced by Chris Clemons' sack and recovered by Ryan Davis at the Houston 23. On the ensuing play Cecil Shorts took a lateral pass and threw downfield to an uncovered Jordan Todman for a 23-yard touchdown as Jacksonville regained the lead at 17-14. Houston answered on the next possession, however, driving 80 yards in 12 plays and regaining the lead at 21-17 on Keenum's 8-yard pass to Andre Johnson early in the fourth quarter. The Texans extended their lead to six points when J.J. Watt sacked Blake Bortles in the end zone midway through the period, but the Jaguars were still not done. Their final possession began at their own 15-yard line with 2:51 remaining. An 18-yard completion to Shorts on fourth-and-10 kept the drive alive, and then Bortles ran 34 yards to set up first-and-goal at the Houston 10. A five-yard completion to Allen Hurns on second down moved them to the five, but two incomplete passes ended the comeback. An inability to convert third downs doomed the Jaguars, as they finished 0 of 11 while Houston was 10 of 18 on third down. Bortles, who started the final 13 games and broke the Jaguars rookie record with 2,908 passing yards, led the team with 61 rushing yards in the finale. Hurns, another of the seven rookies in the starting lineup in Houston, finished with 51 receptions and six touchdowns to tie the fourth-most in NFL history by an undrafted rookie in each category.

JAGUARS QUOTES

JAGUARS HEAD COACH GUS BRADLEY SEASON-ENDING PRESS CONFERENCE TUESDAY, DECEMBER 30, 2014

(Opening statement) "As many of you know, we made a change with our coaching staff. It was a very difficult decision. We ended up releasing Jedd Fisch of his duties. It's tough, this is tough on me, I know it's tough on our staff and our team. Jedd is a very good friend of mine, a guy that put his heart and soul into this organization and to what we're trying to build. He's been a very good member of our staff as far as sending the message of our culture and what we're all about and what we're trying to build. It came down to that my responsibility to do what's best for this team and we just had some philosophical differences. I think I mentioned to you earlier that we observe daily and evaluate weekly; this was more observe daily and evaluate at the end of the year. I had the chance to visit with our coaching staff, individually and then we visited as offense, defense and special teams. We had very good discussion and the conversation was very good between Jedd and myself and a lot of things were discussed. It took place this morning really just a little bit before Ryan came down and visited with you guys. I think that's the big thing. It's just differences. Jedd is an extremely, extremely knowledgeable coach. Very good scheme coach, very good getting those things across to our players. And, like I said, a very good friend of mine. On my side, it won't change. It may take some time but I understand that. I think when I look back at it, the direction that we want to go as an organization on offense, I think that's what it came down to."

(What were the philosophical differences?) "I think it's just the direction. Some people have asked, 'geez Gus, it's kind of tough that eight rookies have started offensively and you had some young guys and then a rookie quarterback.' It wasn't about that with me, I understood that. That's a tough duty for our staff to take on, the kind of youth that we had. So it wasn't about that, it wasn't about the 31st or 32nd-ranked offense. It really wasn't. I just felt like what do we need to put this together, to get better, to ensure we get better in the direction that we want to go. I think as far as our approaches and where we want to go from here, that's where it was different."

(Did he run the ball too much, was it the blocking scheme...?) "We didn't talk too much about scheme. It wasn't too much about scheme-wise, it was more about the direction. I think you might ask 'so Gus, what are you looking for?' We want precision, we want execution and we want our team to play fast. I think that's more the difference. I'm more of the type of let's make sure our players can execute at the highest level and make sure there's a lot of precision to it. That's one philosophy. It's kind of like defensive philosophy: do you want to play a few things and do it really well or do you want to be multiple and do a lot of different things and cause confusion? Both have been very successful. Both work. I think it was more of those conversations offensively."

(Any more changes to the offensive staff?) "No, we don't foresee any."

(How quickly do you want to move on a new guy?) "This just happened so it really was a decision that... I've been observing this, I knew these were discussions that had to be brought up. It's really gone over the last couple of days, but I really think the final part of the decision took place today. As far as the time frame for hiring a new guy, I think when we find the right guy it'll be time."

(Would you like somebody with previous offensive coordinator experience?) "I don't want to limit ourselves to that. I think that would be a great quality to have if they have some, but not if it deters us from getting the right guy."

(Did the relationship between Jedd Fisch and Blake Bortles have any impact on your decision?) "Nothing with that."

(Are you concerned with switching coordinators with a second year quarterback?) "I think any time you make a decision like this, you obviously want continuity. Continuity is very big. I think we all know that here with some of the experiences that we've had. That was something I took very seriously. I know sometimes when you do this, you take a step back sometimes because they're learning a new system, a new coordinator, a new playbook. You have to go through a learning curve. And in my analysis of it, I thought that he may take a step back but hopefully it's with two or three steps forward."

(How much did the sacks play a role in this?) "It really wasn't. Looking at the precision and the direction that we want to go and things like that, it was more philosophically that way. I really didn't get into stats. I really didn't want to get into the part where we're justifying. Let's take a look at comparable offenses. That wasn't part of the conversation. It's more about the direction where we wanted to go."

(Is it an added bonus if you can find an offensive coordinator that has also been a head coach?) "I'm looking to try to get the best guy. If he's had head coaching experience, that's okay with me."

(Will you reach out to Marc Trestman?) "I haven't even thought about it, to be honest. I know Marc. Mark is a good person. I have a lot of respect for him, but I haven't thought about that right now."

(Was Blake Bortles developing in Jedd Fisch's offense the way that you needed him to?) "Those are good conversations. You're always looking and seeing in the environment, can guys get to be their best as quickly as possible? We saw great development in some of those guys on offense, we talked about that. But I think that in the future, how is that progress going to be elevated? How are we going to do this in a manner that it happens quicker? I think that's where the philosophical differences came in."

(How much will you rely on Dave Caldwell on staff changes?) "Dave and I have always been pretty open. This wasn't Dave's decision, or Shad's decision; this was my decision. It was tough. There are things I bounce off. When it got to that point, I had conversations with Dave and talked to him about some of the direction that I wanted to go. With hiring a new guy and getting lists formulated and coming up with ideas, I'll always talk to Dave about that. We're always pretty transparent over that."

(When you entered the meeting, did you feel like you were going to be parting ways with Jedd Fisch?) "I met with some of the offensive staff individually but not as a whole group. I wanted to do that with Jedd in there. I hadn't made the decision final. I thought there was a chance, but I wanted to be open and have everyone have a chance to hear him out. It's kind of like when you make a decision, you gather all of the information and take it all in and then you make the decision. I think I was just gathering all of the information. At the same expense, I don't want to make it sound like I just thought about this yesterday: 'after the Houston game, I...' It wasn't like that. I think it was just my observations and then I started asking more and more questions. Jedd was very open too. It was like 'Jedd, here's what I'm thinking. I know you and I have had this conversation. How do you see this? How do you see the staff members?' It was pretty open. It wasn't a conversation that we were challenging each other. It was pretty open."

(Do you wish you were more involved in the offensive game-planning this year?) "We've got very good coaches. I met with some players and talked to them. That's what I get out of it; there is a certain sense of trust that I can appreciate. That same thing is with me with our staff. Especially of the offensive side, I trust them and that they'll go in there but I'm in there and seeing the direction that we want to go with the game planning and things like that. I think it was just the overall direction that we're heading."

(What kind of offense do you want?) "I want an offense that we execute, we play with precision and we play fast. Does that mean a simple offense? I'm not saying that. It can be as complicated as we want to be, but we don't want to lose those things, those qualities."

(Does that mean no-huddle?) "No. Whatever we can do to play fast, I mean that guys know what they're supposed to do. There's a high level of execution. We talk about play hard, play fast, play together and we have a culture of execution which requires precision. That's what we're looking for on offense."

(Is it hard with all of the rookies?) "Yeah, so you may have to find what areas you simplify things so that they have the ability to play fast."

(When you hired Jedd Fisch, did you realize the philosophical differences?) "No, I think that we felt like we were pretty similar. I had time with him in Seattle. As you get a chance to go through it, it wasn't like, 'oh boy, this is drastically different.' I just felt like the direction we wanted to go from this point forward, I think it kind of branched off as far as what we're putting on players' plates, what to ask them to do, how do we really protect this culture of execution in what we're looking to do?"

(On if the players understood the offense as well as he had hoped) "I think from here on out, there's some things to have a scheme or offensive philosophy that we're going to do. Like I said, Jedd is very, very smart. It comes to him very easy for him. I believe he did a great job explaining it to our players. I just think that with some of them with a younger group and a mix of veterans in there, to facilitate that that allows the greatest amount of growth to take place. I know it sounds like a cliché, that's really all I'm interested in is creating a culture where we can get better as fast as possible. I felt that the direction that we wanted to go in offensively, that's where was a little bit different in how we wanted to go about doing that."

(Do you still have a desire to coach in the Senior Bowl?) "If we're asked to do it, we're doing it."

(Did some of the players not jell with Jedd Fisch?) "No, I don't think that. I didn't have those types of conversations. There's always going to be – we should have played three deep, we should have played man. There's always going to be those types of conversations and that's okay. I think it's when the bigger issues are when you talk to multiple people and it seems to arise. Philosophically, what direction do we want to go? Do we want to have multiple offenses that put a lot of strain on Blake and keep having him develop in it? Or is it one where you try to execute with precision and it might mean it's a smaller package but we're going to try and execute. Which one is better? It's really about your philosophy. I know for us, I get in front of the team and talk about precision, execute, playing hard, playing fast. Those are the principles. That's where I kind of think differentiating between Jedd and I."

(Do you want a smaller package?) "No. I didn't say that. I want to make sure we play fast. Whatever we can do to play fast, that's what we want. If it can be a multiple package that we can play fast, great. That's awesome."

(What is playing fast?) "Where everybody understands their responsibilities and can execute at their highest level. Just when we talk about victory, we want everybody to be at their best. Have a system where everybody can be at their best. There's going to be things that pop up. I'm not going to say it's going to be perfection. There's going to things that pop up during the game that are new or create anxiety or things like that. I'm just talking about an overall feel where guys can go out and execute. Some head coaches say 'no, I want to be very multiple and do a variety of things and these guys have to catch up too.' He's really a good coach, really sharp. He's on it. It's just more of a difference in philosophy."

(Were you concerned with Blake Bortles' psyche as you bring in a new offensive coordinator?) "No. I did just talk to Blake and shared with him. Obviously he cares, Blake's a great guy, he cares about Jedd and respects the job he did. I also know Blake will be ready and open for a challenge too."

(Did you have any concerns entering the season with the direction of the organization?) "No, not coming into the season."

(Was there a turning point this year?) "I think just the last couple of weeks, the direction, just having more and more conversations. I never wanted to be a head coach where things came out of left field. I know to you it maybe feels that way because this is kind of a shocker. I try to have discussions with coaches so they completely know where I'm coming from and give them the chance to say 'okay, let's see where we go from here.' I think Jedd and I have had those conversations. That's why it's been pretty open. It hasn't been anything distracting. It's just that as we talk, we could feel that it was going that way. As we've had a chance to talk about it more, we came to this conclusion. I know it's hurting Jedd. It's not like 'hey, it's a mutual thing where hey you go your way, I'll go my way.' That's not how it was. We're both hurting. We both wanted it to work out where we'd both be here to be the best for the organization."

(Is Bob Babich coming back?) "Yes."

(Any changes on the defensive side of the ball?) "No."

(What about the offensive line coach?) "I have had conversations with George so I've heard really good news through George in talking with him. We fully expect and want George to be back here. I'd like to sometime go out there and see him, go out there and visit him. That's what I hope to do here maybe after the Senior Bowl. I would like to go see him but I know everything on his plate, he's talking about if everything goes well, he'd like to get back here sometime in February. What a story in itself, what he's gone through and competing to where he's at."

(Are you grateful that it has worked with Blake Bortles playing the amount that he did?) "Yeah, I asked him about that in conversation. He said it's tough, but he learned a lot. What I can appreciate from Blake is his demeanor and how he handled things on the sideline or coming off the field. He had a certain intensity that built as the year went on. He has always been competitive but more of a fierce competitor as he got more and more comfortable and the more and more he played. I saw that come out, especially this last game, I saw that trait. I'm pleased that he has played as much as he did."

(Was there a lack of downfield passing from him as the season progressed?) "I'll take a look at that. I know there was one stat that Ryan had about 20+-yard passes down field. We were up there, there's some stat that show it. We'll find out the truth to it but you're right. I think the challenge for me and the offensive staff and how we went about it was that he did throw a lot of interceptions and there were some pick-sixes. We were talking about how we were going about this to keep him playing without that fear of making a mistake, but yet we need to tone this down. How do we go about doing this? It seems like a double-edge sword. I know multiple conversations, so I'm really pleased with how the staff handled that because he did have them come down and he became even more of a fierce competitor. So I'm thankful for that with his development as well."

(How much does hearing about what other quarterbacks have to say reinforce the thought that you have your guy at quarterback?) "It's great. I know all those things that you're talking about and I know that's how Blake's mentality is. We want him to take some time off. If you look at it this year, how much he threw in the offseason, getting ready for the draft and right into minicamp, training camp. I think a little bit of time off will be good for him. But he's a guy that wants to visit with people. We talked about developing a routine and I think towards the end, he had a routine. I think he's trying to develop an offseason routine now, and he wants to talk other quarterbacks about what they do. He's targeting ones that I think really fit his style and what he's all about, similar picture as himself. I think he wants to have conversations with those guys, which is awesome."

(Would you like to have an OC that's called plays in the NFL?) "I don't want to limit ourselves. I think that's great if he has and another check if he has that, but I really believe we want the best fit for us and where we want to go. If he's a former head coach that has offensive play calling qualities and he fits into our culture and he can help us get better, that's a great candidate. If he hasn't but we know based on his experience that he's capable of, then we'll go with that too. I would hope that he has some experience."

(Any prerequisites for the hire?) "No I'm open. Let's get the best."

(Are you trying not to say something about Jedd and the situation?) "Yeah, I suppose. I'm sitting here saying he is a good guy, good friend, good coach."

(I'm confused) "I can see that. Probably on purpose I'm doing that a little bit, because I do think highly of him. I do think he's a very good coach. I think that there were just some differences as far as how we wanted to go about things and I think the direction we wanted to go and the development of some of our players."

(Is it the development of Blake?) "There is a lot of truth to philosophical differences as far as we want to put on Blake's plate to do a lot. Let's throw a lot at him and then let's see how much he'll be able to carry that over to the next year. Or let's not put a lot on his plate and let him grow through this. Which way is best? I don't know. I know the way we kind of want to do it. That would be somewhat of an example. I think we want to help him get better every day, not overwhelm him. I think you know my philosophy enough of be careful how much you put on a guy to create a lot of anxiety, it might keep him from being his best. Does that help a little bit right there?"

(How do you not look at the lower number of wins as a step back?) "Great question. I do look at it as where our team is and how we progress because I don't know the roster changes how many new guys we have compared to last year, so it's hard for me to compare this year to last year. I do look forward to this year in that I think we'll have less roster changes. I'm hoping less roster changes because you'd like that continuity and being able to work with guys. I always tell our guys don't compare, compete because if you get caught in that it's a waste of time. We do have to try to take this team and what we have and find ways to help them improve, but it's hard at the end of the season to evaluate and not look back. I think that we look at it and there was games that, was it disappointing in some of the results? Yeah. We've been asked this question many times 'I thought you don't care about winning?' We care about winning. We just want victory and we trust if we get everybody to be their best then the wins will come. Don't get it confused with we don't care so at the end of the year we wish we had more wins. Yeah, we missed some opportunities and we had some close games. We were in some close games at the very end and we missed our opportunities. That's frustrating. We've got to find a way to get us over the hump and how can we do it within our core beliefs but we stay consistent and we challenge our players to raise the bar even higher. That's a challenge that we have next year. I think what our team has understood going through what we did this year I sense a team that understands what they're capable of. I think they go 'alright when you lose 43-10 and 45-17 or whatever what are we capable of when things like that?' But when you're seeing it close we have chances at the very end of the game they're saying 'we taste a little bit, we understand this feeling, we understand if we just get these things right what we can be capable of.' I appreciate that with our team. Gus you went from four wins to three wins? Yeah, but we have a different mindset. I think now we understand what we're capable of and I think we can take the next step because of that."

(What are you capable of?) "I think these games that we're so competitive in, I think last year it was 'just make it close in the fourth quarter.' I've heard that a bunch of times; 'just give us a reason to stay in the stands at the end of the game.' There were some of those but now it's like 'ok, why can't we win?' That's the next step. We've got to find out how to get these games and take that next step. So many people hear that; 'if I hear the process one more time,' and I understand that. I understand that it's like 'Gus you have a process and you follow a process and we trust the results will come. When are those results going to come?' I understand that. You're right in saying that. To us, I believe they will come. I believe from last year to this year from trusting the process we saw improvement in some of those areas, the competitiveness and things like that. So we're going to stay the course, we're going to send the same message, we're going to challenge our guys even more, we're going to expect even more and then let's go and see what takes place. Those are good signs but we're not satisfied, we're not saying let's just go out here and have fun and go out there and play. It's not like that now. This is not a country club atmosphere we have. I think the players feel the challenge to get better. What I like about this team is that we have a good mix of veteran and youth. I think we'll add even more veterans, I think we'll add even more youth and I think that's important to us because I think we have a spirited team that understands we went through this this year and let's get this right. I loved the competitiveness in that team that is willing to do that."

(Dave said he regretted not giving you more veterans on the roster. Going forward do you need that?) "I appreciate that with Dave, but we understood that. We've had many conversations about this is what we're going to do offensively, defensively, the number of veterans and how we're trying to work the cap so we can do some things. Because of that we didn't have many veterans, we found out about a lot of young guys as well. I think that veteran leadership, I think we've both come to the conclusion in our conversations that it is very important for a team. We saw that in our defensive line, we saw the importance of it with our defense, but it's got to be the right kind of veteran. It's got to be the right leader."

(How hard has your job been in last two years with the youth?) "Once again, it hasn't been as far as this; to work with him and an owner that calls repeatedly and gives me strength and stays strong, that's a great job. That's a great job because it allows me to stay strong and me to be convicted. I say this too, I think sometimes coaches talk about the fans and they go, 'the fan base is great.' Let me tell you something about this fan base; we haven't exactly tore it up record-wise and I just sense that when I go out and stuff like that a lot of people say we believe in what the Jags are doing, we believe in what you're doing. That's pretty strong now. We haven't given you much to still say that and you're still saying that. This fan base is strong now. That's incredible. I think when you have people that support you like that it's not a hard job, but I don't take that for granted. It's not something when you have a group of people or a group like that that believes in it so strongly you don't take that for granted You want to appreciate it and work even harder for it."

(Why do your explanations for letting Jedd go not apply to offensive position coaches?) "That's a great question. Sometimes when it's the offensive coordinator, sometimes as position coaches your job is to obviously make the head coach strong and the team strong, but you're also making the coordinator strong. So if the coordinator says this is the direction we want to go then the position coaches do those things to make him strong, so in some cases that's what it was. It wasn't like they had a decision in it. They have input but it was more the direction led by them."

(On offensive package being smaller so they can play faster) "We want to have an offense that has the ability to play fast. Size has nothing to do with it. As long as we can have a culture of execution where guys can play fast regardless of size, that's what's really important. We play with precision so it can be a big package, it can be whatever, but let's err on the side of being that."

JAGUARS QUOTES

(Where were your expectations coming in?) “Dave and Shad did a great job explaining the situation when I was first hired and said here’s what we want to do, here’s what we’re looking at trying to do for this organization and for this city and for our fan base. It was all about we have a lot of work to do but we want to try to build a team that sustains, that year in and year out is extremely competitive, and we know to do that it might take some time. We want to build it the right way. Was that six years? Five years? It wasn’t talked like that. I just said I understand. I love the challenge. We’re starting this thing from ground level, we’re going to build our culture, we’re going to get challenged and we’re going to go through some very difficult times but we’re going to build this culture and that’s what we wanted to do. The first year is build this strong culture, second year is add to it, get an influx of some veterans along with another draft class and then keep this thing strong. I look back and I think you say, ‘if I hear another word about culture too it’s just like process’ but it’s so important. Looking around the League some of these teams and what they’re going through and guys that are in their second year as coaches and what’s going on. Believe me, I don’t take that for granted. I want to talk about it. I’m going to talk about our team all the time because it’s that important that you have it because you have to create an environment where there’s trust and you have to create an environment where there’s cooperation. If you have those two you can get better, and we’re going to protect those.”

(On your name being on this team) “I think that’s where another thing, it can get confused like, ‘hey Gus are you very competitive?’ I’m very competitive, and we’re going to compete every day to get better. We will scratch, we will do everything so when you say Gus does this hurt you? I don’t know what you’re talking about. I’m always competing, we are always competing in this building. We are going to dig. I hear players and they go by and they hear coaches say let’s go by and have our team meeting and then we’ll go on vacation. Not us, man. We are meeting. We are meeting all day Monday after the meeting and Tuesday. We are going to grind through this and we are going to find out how to get better. When you say how about competing? That’s every day. It will come. I just believe it so wholeheartedly.”

(You feel they will give you that time to let it come?) “Yeah, but I can’t control that so I don’t even go there. It’s like comparing this team to another team or comparing the other teams in the League that have had rookie quarterbacks. I don’t have time for that. That’s a waste of my time to go look and compare and try to justify where we’re at. Put all the time into getting us better. I can’t control that. How can you compare us to any other team in the League? You might say you had a rookie quarterback. We had eight rookie starters. It’s a waste of time. I’d rather put all of that energy into getting us better. That’s what I want to do. That’s what I want to put all of my attention on. Do you think they’re going to give you enough time? I don’t know about that. That’s a waste of my time. I just like to compete right now and live today and try to find ways to improve us. I know it sounds cliché but it’s just what I believe.”

(What’s your plan to sell the OC candidate?) “Just thinking about it now without putting a lot of time into it I think we have a lot to sell. Probably moreso than a couple of years ago, I’m guessing. Here we’ve got some youth, we’ve got some guys that love football, I think the perception of our organization, I just go off of free agency, the conversations we’re having back where people are excited to look at Jacksonville. How do you know? People have committed to come here without even visiting; that’s a good sign. I think the mentality or the opportunity to come to Jacksonville is very appealing. I think that our culture as a coaching staff and as a team is out in the League and what I’m hearing back is very appealing, it’s a great situation to be a part of. So I think because of that we will draw really, really good candidates. I’m really not concerned about the number of candidates or getting phone calls, especially at the Senior Bowl. I think a lot of candidates will pop up.”

(Will the new OC have the power to make changes staff-wise?) “I will tell you what I said to the staff. Sometimes I think I tell you guys too much. I believe in being transparent when I can. I just said my hopes it to keep everybody in place. I really, really do believe in our coaching staff and I believe in our offensive coaching staff. I think there’s very good coaches on that side of the ball. My heart is going to try to find an offensive coordinator that comes in and we keep everything intact. That’s what I would prefer, that’s what I would really like, but I do have to be open if I say we’re willing to get the best guy and we want the best guy that we can. I do have to understand that sometimes those things occur. With that I would try to talk him out of it but I think I just have to be open to say that is a possibility. To be honest with you, that’s what I told our staff. I think they trust me enough to know they can trust what I’m saying. I am hoping they believe it because that’s how I feel.”

(Will you get away from zone blocking?) “No. I think that’s important because that’s what our personnel is.”

(If Blake played just two or three games would it have been less attractive to hire an OC not seeing what he can do?) “I think so. I would think so, right? They had a chance to see his body of work and what he can do and what he’s capable of. I’m thinking that would be an advantage for us.”

(Did you talk to them at all about looking at other jobs?) “I did not bring that up to them, I did not bring that up to them. We put a staff together and I know that’s a perception. I just want a really good group of staff members that put their heart and soul into this team and help them get better. I know there’s that perception out there about the guys that are on the phone and always looking for the next job and I think that was pretty important to me to get guys that were really heavy ball-oriented guys because I know for me that’s important. So I think guys want to be here. They hope to be here but I guess I couldn’t blame them if I told them that, if they were open to things.”

(Assess these three players: Poz, Mercedes and Cecil) “Poz, obviously we think the world of him. We thought he did a really good job. When he got hurt we dropped a little bit and then it took us a little time. I don’t know if we ever played back to that level but we did some good things. I really think the world of him. Mercedes, I thought he came back from his injury, I think that we talk about him being a very good blocker, a very big target, things like that. My belief is we have to find ways to utilize him more to see just how dynamic he is. He was a very good leader for us too in the building, same with Poz. Cecil I told him I thought he had his most competitive game this last game and I’m not talking about how many catches and all of this, just how he went to attack it. I thought he played with the most freedom he has. I think he would look back and he would think this season has been disappointing but he learned a lot and he grew from it. Cecil knows how I feel about him too. I just take these guys and I love to watch them get better. Do we have some tough decisions to make? Yes, I know we do. Dave and I haven’t had too many of those conversations yet but those are coming. Those are three quality guys that have done really good and added to our organization greatly.”

(On rough starts; What do you do differently in August and September next year?) “I think that’s where I look at it and I go, ‘can you compare it to last year?’ Again, it’s one of those things where it’s hard because it was a different team. If it was the same team you’d say we have the exact same guys, we came back and did the exact same thing so don’t you have to look at something here? We’ll evaluate all of that but it might be for different reasons.”

(Do you think you will change up camp at all?) “No, we haven’t had those discussions yet.”

(On Sen’Derrick Marks going down and shaking up depth chart) “No, Ziggy has come along and did some good things. And Abry has the ability to play in there so I think we feel fortunate that we have guys that we have created more depth there.”

(If Roy and Sen’Derrick are ready by the beginning of the season do you anticipate having to take some snaps off their plate?) “No, I don’t think it will change too much from this year because we already kind of did that this year.”

JAGUARS QUOTES

JAGUARS GENERAL MANAGER DAVE CALDWELL SEASON-ENDING PRESS CONFERENCE TUESDAY, DECEMBER 30, 2014

(Opening statement) "Looking at the season in review, for the most part I want to thank our fans for one, in terms of their undying support for our team and for our organization and their passion and their commitment. We can't do this without them and we appreciate their patience and their frustrations. I understand it, we get it, and we feel that this season was very challenging for the most part because of our decision to go young. As we said before, it wasn't an excuse. We had 82 rookie starts which I believe is the most in the NFL by a large margin. When you factor in guys like Telvin Smith and Aaron Colvin, when they played, they played starter reps but didn't necessarily start games so it was probably more than that. I have to give a lot of credit to our coaching staff. I've said this before, I think over the last two years, Coach Bradley – not to diminish any other coaches in the NFL – probably has had the most challenging job out of anyone in the NFL in terms of roster turnover, in terms of our youth. To play that many rookies, to make a commitment to develop young players is kind of unheard of in this league, and Coach Bradley is in the forefront of doing it and because we're doing it from the way we believe on day one, and we're doing it because we have a tremendous owner, Shad Khan, who believes in our vision, who believes in our process of how we want to build this and continue to build this team. I think we're right on par for where we thought we would be at this point in time."

(Are you surprised that you didn't have more than three wins?) "I wouldn't say I'm completely surprised, no. This season kind of went, I thought we would have the opportunity to win maybe somewhere between four and seven wins this year, and I think we had that. We didn't capitalize on some of those opportunities and the NFL is a highly-competitive league. But I'm proud of the way our players played and competed to the last second."

(Is the next step for this team being able to finish games?) "Looking back over the two-year period, our first year was finding a culture of what we wanted to build here. Coach Bradley and his staff have done a great job doing that. Going into this past season, we wanted to identify a core of players that are going to be here for a long period of time; we feel like we've done that. Going into next year, it's about making a difference. It's about making a difference on our roster, it's about making a difference on the outcome of games."

(What are the roster's biggest needs?) "Coach Bradley has been tied up with the coaching staff for the last 48 hours since the last game. He and I talk periodically, but I think this is more season in review. Going forward we're going to address every position. As you guys know, we're going to compete to put the best roster out there."

(How much guidance will you give Coach Bradley on staff changes?) "Those are coaches' decisions. I firmly believe that the coach is kind of the CEO of the coaches and players. He'll ask my guidance, he'll ask my opinion, but I try not to get too involved in that because Gus is really the expert on Xs and Os and our staff is the expert on Xs and Os. I may ask some tough questions. We may have some tough conversations, but at the end of the day, that's Gus' decision."

(Where do you think you made the most progress this year?) "Defensively, I think all year they've played really solid football, what I would consider playoff caliber football, especially on third down. Our defensive line to have 45 sacks, sixth in the NFL, with an offense that hasn't produced and put them in a position to sack the quarterback, has been great. I think it's been the most sacks here since 2005. We have to play good defense and we have to be able to run the ball. That's two things we wanted to focus on this year. The young secondary, Demetrius McCray, Aaron Colvin, Johnathan Cyprien, I think those guys played well. They had some inconsistencies at times earlier in the year, but really settled down in the last eight to nine games. Young guys like Telvin Smith, he had the most tackles over the last two weeks of anybody in the NFL. He's averaged a little over 10 tackles after he started, so that was really good. Offensively, we knew it would be a tough season. We knew that we would have nine of 11 new starters. I feel like defense is where we made our most gains this year."

(On the advantages next season with Blake Bortles starting this season) "I thought it worked out really well for him. I give him a ton of credit. You guys see him on the injury report on a weekly basis. He's taken plenty of hits that you guys have documented every game that I see. The kid has a heart that's unmatched and his competitive desire to win and to compete is really good. The experience that he's going to draw from playing these 14 games is going to be great for him next year. He's not going to be seeing things for the first time. Everything he sees is probably going to be for the second time, which is great."

(How has the roster after year two compared with your expectations?) "I'm really optimistic about it. I actually feel better than probably what our record indicates in terms of where the roster is right now. We can go into this draft and not have to draft a player who has to come in and start right away. That was not the situation the last two years. We've had little margin for error. When you talk about starting seventh round corners, sixth round safeties, sixth round centers, third round guards and coming in, undrafted free agent wide receiver, that's not an ideal situation – fifth round linebacker. Ideally, you want to get to a situation where the roster is your first round pick's playing right away, your second round pick may play at some point down the season and as the year goes, maybe you have injuries and guys start to pay. The way we've done it has been a little unconventional. We feel good about it. The experience these guys have gotten, they have to get better and we have to get better as a team. It has to result in better outcomes of games."

(What has you confident that your rookies will be more comfortable next year?) "I feel like it did towards the end of the year with Blake. You saw him cut down dramatically on some of the mistakes that he made early in the year. I think for Blake, it has been a good balance of cutting down on mistakes, but still trying to be aggressive. That's what we really wanted him to do. Some of the interceptions, I didn't care about. The ones where he was trying to make a play because I think next year and the year after, those may turn into touchdowns. You don't want to take that out of him. I think for the most part, his ability to identify different protections and things like that has really slowed down for him. He really got to a point later in the year where he felt comfortable with it and knew the offense inside and out. That was a good thing."

(How difficult is it to improve the offensive and defensive lines during free agency?) "I don't think it's very difficult. I think our offensive line needs to be addressed; some of the things we need to do with them probably needs to be addressed. For the most part, we feel good about our center position, our right guard position, our left tackle. The other two positions, they're going to just get better by just playing another year, another offseason. Luke Joeckel spent nine months rehabbing, he didn't spend nine months getting better last year. This will be an offseason where he can spend nine months getting better. Brandon Linder, Luke Bowanko, those guys have a pretty good plan to come in. Zane Beadles, I know early in the season was a little inconsistent, but really settled down the last part of the season. People forget that it was his first year in this offense too. He spent four years in a different offense and came in. Just because you're a veteran doesn't mean you know all of the intricacies of different offenses. I think we need to add some competition there, we need to add some depth and we'll see where it takes us."

(Do you need that competition for Zane Beadles or all of the positions?) "Everybody. That's our central theme of our organization: we're going to compete to put the best 22 players out there."

JAGUARS QUOTES

(Regarding the offensive line, did you mention problems with how they're being used?) "Just some of the things in terms of our zone blocking scheme. I think what our coaches did a nice job is halfway through the year, the run game really started to take off. We had some games where we ran the ball really well and used those guys to their strengths. We all look at the sacks that we gave up, but we did a pretty good job of running the ball later in the year."

(Do you know if George Yarno will be back?) "Gus has been in contact with him. We've texted back and forth. I know it's his plan to come back, we'll see where it takes us. We're taking it day by day and just thinking and praying for George."

(Will you have to make a decision whether you have to hire someone there?) "No."

(Do the injuries to Sen'Derrick Marks and Roy Miller make you reevaluate that position?) "No. Ziggy Hood, we signed last year and played good football for us this year, so if we had to start the season with him at Sen'Derrick's spot, we'd feel good about that. Abry Jones is another one. Todd Wash, our defensive line coach, said that with those two guys going down for offseason knee surgery is a bad thing. The good thing is we have two really good backups. We'll have to address it and see where we're at. Hopefully we'll have them back at the beginning of the season. Sen'Derrick will be pretty close, Roy should be ready for the offseason and we'll see where it goes."

(On the three rookie receivers) "They're highly competitive. They're great kids. It means something to all of them. They can't wait to get back and start training and compete. And they're all pretty talented."

(On Blake Bortles' performance in late game scenarios) "I think it's a great thing. A lot of these games in the NFL are won and lost in the last two minutes of the game, and if he can be composed in those last two minutes that would be great. Some of the routine stuff, that'll come with experience. That'll come with him having a better knowledge that he can see a guy on a crossing route and realize that he's going to be there and he doesn't have to rush the throw and that the pass protection is going to be there. Once some of those things slow down, a lot of those routine plays will be become nature."

(Late in the year, did Blake Bortles look at the rush?) "I didn't notice that too much. I think his clock was pretty much on time. Some of the stuff that we told him, look at your first read, if it's a quick game type of thing they're going to be coming. We're cut blocking, so be aware. I think for the most part he's stood up there. On that fourth down and 10, he stood there in the pocket and hit Cecil on the last drive of the game last week. He's always keeping his eyes downfield."

(On Justin Blackmon's status) "We hope for him, we pray for him, our thoughts are with him. We hope he comes back because he's talented. We also know that he's a good person fighting a tough battle. I think we have to treat it as a luxury. If he comes back, that's great. If he doesn't, we feel good about the three guys that we've got and if he comes back, that's even better."

(Have you heard good things about Justin Blackmon?) "We've been hearing some good things. Haven't been in contact with him, but just some of his people have relayed some messages that he's really kind of dedicating himself to being healthier and coming back."

(Why would you want him back? What's his number if he comes back?) "It tolls from last year. I think it's 1.7."

(Money aside, why would you want him back?) "There's no risk. If he comes back and he's a luxury, that's great for us. There's no downside to it. Do you see a downside to it?"

(Yes. You talk about creating a culture of telling the truth and being accountable. I don't think he's done that.) "Yeah, I think there's some issues that may have not allowed him to do that. We're trying to stand by him and trying to get him where he can do that and be that type of person that we all strive to be. Nobody is perfect. We've said that from the beginning. We're not going to have 53 angelic players, we're going to have players with issues. At the end of the day, if they're willing to do the right things and show remorse, we're not going to be the ones to judge them for that."

(When do you think you'll hear from the League regarding him?) "I'm hoping by the time the draft rolls around so we can plan accordingly."

(How do you approach free agency in regards to players who've had issues with other teams?) "I think the biggest thing is that we have to identify what we can tolerate here and what is acceptable for us. We want guys that are good in the locker room, that are competitive, that really love football. If they have some issues off the field, we want to make sure they're not a menace to society and they're not going to be a headache and they're not going to be a distraction. We also want players that are productive in the community. If we can find players that can do a lot of those things, we'll have to weigh the risk and reward on them."

(Is this the year you spend the money?) "Well, we'll see. We'll see what's available. With the salary cap potentially going up, there are rumors that it's going up. Teams will be able to afford players that they think are going to hit the market. Our plan was to for year three, bring some free agents in. We'll see where it's at and see if we can find some good opportunities."

(What side of the ball are there strengths for both free agency and the draft?) "On the offensive side of the ball there are some good wide receivers that are free agents this year. Defensively, interior defensive linemen."

(You averaged 15 points per game the last four years. What are your expectations for this offense?) "To average more than 15 points a game. We'll see what we do in the offseason."

(Do you have to spend as a franchise?) "We don't have to spend. No, not this year. We have until 2017 so in 2017 this past draft class is going to be able to be renewed so we can see where we're at. Our plan is to. If we spend 95% of the cap over the next two years we'll hit our target so we don't necessarily have to spend a ton of money. Our owner is incredible. Our option not to spend over the last couple of years has been my decision. He comes in on a daily basis and asks us can I do anything for you? Do you need anything? Is there anything we can do? So it was my decision not to spend over the last two years. He's been there, anything that we've ever asked for. When we went for Alex Mack last year he was all for it. He will do whatever he can to create a winner here and it's my job to help him do that."

(Is it an accurate number 69?) "Close."

(What's the bigger gamble? Do you go after three big guys or six free agents?) "I think for us it's where we have needs and where those players fit in our needs. I think if there was a big-time player there that we have a need for we'll be aggressive for it. If there's a couple of mid-line players like we did over the last couple of years we'll do that to gain some depth and be bridges until we can fill those through the draft. Make no mistake, the draft is going to be the lifeline of this organization. I was watching a Monday night game, Green Bay and Atlanta a couple of weeks ago. There was a stat where they said 48 players have never played for another team and that's where we want to get to. Right now we don't have that and it's going to take some time so we have to backfill with free agency."

(Will your current depth chart allow you to zero in on a couple of guys instead of quantity?) "Yeah, because we're at a position where we can line up now. We have 22 starters on offense and defense and we can line up. Now it's creating serious competition where maybe some of the draft pick might not make it next year because we have competition and a better roster. There's going to be attrition from the draft picks. We have 17 of the 17 draft picks on our roster plus some college free agents, but that's not going to be the case next year."

(Taking a look at some of the guys from your first draft class have they developed in their second season the way you had hoped?) "Yeah, I think Cyprien definitely has in my opinion and I know our coaching staff feels the same way. Luke (Joeckel) was set back a little bit because of the injury, but has played some good football. I know we look at the sacks that he may have given up but around the NFL left tackles give up sacks; that's what they do. There are some really good ones that give up less than others but we've got to get Luke to that position. Gratzie has kind of settled down the last eight games and I think the addition of bringing Aaron Colvin in playing nickel and some things our coaching staff, they have split his reps a little bit. He's done a nice job. Ace (Sanders) hasn't had a setback and probably hasn't from a punt return standpoint been as explosive as we thought. D-Rob has probably exceeded our expectations and Demetrius McCray and Josh Evans have too. Josh Evans, I don't know how many tackles he had this year, but a sixth-round safety. Demetrius McCray we have a starter as a seventh-round corner."

(On Toby Gerhart and people being disappointed) "They're disappointed because of fantasy football. We weren't disappointed in Toby. Toby had a tough year. From that Philly game on in terms of being not healthy. You saw some glimpses later in the year when he was healthy what he could do and that's why we signed him and that's what we hope to get out of him in the future."
(News on the Senior Bowl?) "No, we're supposed to find out today."

(would you want to do it?) "We would love to do it."

(Perception that you guys are going to go get two or three or four top-line free agents. That doesn't sound like that's the case at all.) "It really depends on... we have to sit down with Gus and the coaching staff and see what they feel our number one, two and three needs, where can we fill those in free agency? If there are top line guys at different positions we'll go after them. If there are top-lines at one position and mid-line guys at other positions we'll do that too. Whatever we don't get in free agency we'll get through the draft."

(Do you need to add veteran presence?) "Yeah, I think that's the one thing, and I've told Gus this and I've told Shad, I probably in hindsight should have added more veteran presence going into this year, where we weren't so forced to play so many rookies right away. I think that's probably the one thing that I probably overlooked was the value of somebody that can just steady the waters in a game where things start to go awry. It probably was a little bit unfair to the rookies and the coaching staff to start so many rookies. Hopefully it pays dividends in year three, four and five but I think hindsight for the success of this franchise this year some veteran presence would have helped everybody out."

(How do you address that because of the secondary?) "Our hope is that our first draft class like Cyp, he is a veteran. D-Mack is a veteran, Gratzie is a veteran so I think that's a good thing. I wouldn't necessarily say that we need to add a veteran there. Maybe somebody for some depth, for sure. Through the draft class we can add some more youth in the secondary. For the most part some of these guys are turning into veterans in front of our eyes just because they're here. But to have some at some of the positions where we are really young to bring in a veteran wouldn't be a bad thing."

(On winning seven games in two years in the NFL. Why is Shad so patient?) "I think the communication has been great with Shad. I didn't have grandiose expectations in these first two years to be quite honest with you. To be quite honest with you we may have won more games than I anticipated when I first took the job over the two year period. I was very honest with Shad where we were at. He knew even before I interviewed where we were at. When we hired Gus I told him exactly where we were at from a talent standpoint and that we were going to do this with youth. When you do it with youth you're going to have adversity and you're going to have a lot of it early on. We said that it's going to pay dividends and we're going to build this the right way. We're going to build it through the draft and we're going to be wise with the cap until we feel like we can compete. We weren't going to do it until we felt like we had the quarterback situation resolved."

(When do the expectations become grandiose?) "I guess it depends on what grandiose means to you."

(What does it mean to you?) "I would expect us to win more games in the next couple of years, for sure. Some of these close games that we didn't take advantage of I expect to be victories in the next couple of years."

(Do you have a true number one receiver in this building?) "I don't know that yet. Not a lot of teams do though, so you can win and be successful without having a true number one."

(Are playoffs realistic next year?) "We'll see what we do in the offseason. We'll see. It depends what we do in free agency and how the draft falls."

(On running backs being devalued in the draft and possible underclassmen coming out) "We always felt like that would be the last piece that we would add, so we'll see where we're at. We probably have bigger pressing needs than that position right now, but if the right time if there's a guy available we'll address that."

(Do you feel like you need a veteran presence in the receivers room?) "We've got Jerry (Sullivan). He's pretty veteran."

(Do you need one on the field?) "This year we probably would have. Going into next year I'm not sure. Now these guys are veterans. Allen Hurns, Marqise, Allen Robinson are veterans now so this past year it probably would have been good to have one."

(Two biggest cap hits: Poz and Lewis. Does their cap figure into your decision or is more about the player?) "It's more about the player. When we sit down with Gus and the coaching staff we'll figure out what the best course of action with those two guys are. Poz has been incredible in terms of his leadership. He has some things that you can't measure by just watching him. I think he's still got some productive years ahead of him and same with Mercedes."

(Does their veteran presence have value to keep them?) "Yes."

(Will Cecil be a part of this team next year?) That's something we have to address with our coaching staff too. All of our free agents and all of our guys that we haven't re-signed yet we are going to spend the next three weeks looking at our roster and looking at who fits, who doesn't fit, what our needs are and we'll see."

(On relationship growth with Gus) "We challenge each other probably more than we did in year one, I would say. But the communication is better than ever. I love working with him more today than I did the first day. He's been great, he challenges me more than ever which is good too for everybody around this building. I don't envy the job that he has had to do the last two years, and I haven't done him any favors with the youth and the amount of young players that we've had to go in the games with is not something that's easy for anybody to do. Outside of us being challenged more, that's about it."

(Sitting at number three draft pick. Is that a good spot?) "I think this draft class is a lot like last year's. It's going to be very heavy at receiver again and there are some impact players in the top ten, really throughout the first whole round that you can get good value."

(On going youth all the way up is sort of like putting an expansion team together. Why choose to do that when you know it's going to be hard?) "What do they say: 'anything easy isn't worth doing?' It's part of the reason why I chose to take this job in Jacksonville because I knew the challenge and I knew it was going to be extremely rewarding when we look back and say remember in 2013 and 2014 when we played all of those young guys and now to see them grow in front of your eyes. Now we have hopefully a team we can be proud of not only inside this building but across the city of Jacksonville."

(There's no doubt in your mind that this is working?) "There's no doubt, no. I think this has been our vision. We're going to make mistakes, we have made mistakes. Hopefully we don't have any setbacks and hopefully our players stay healthy. But I think we have to continue to build and get more players and get better players, and I think our coaching staff can lead them to where we need to go."

(What tangibles do you have that it's working?) "We didn't come within 17 points of a playoff team last year. We had opportunities where we were close to a lot of them this year, and that was at halftime. Tangible, we won some games but we didn't beat a playoff team. This year Pittsburgh was a game that we were in to the final two minutes. Baltimore for all intents and purposes we played really well in a very difficult situation. Cincinnati we came back within three late in the game. I think that in itself, the Texans were a 9-7 team and we were four plays away from winning that game this past weakened. So I think you may look at the win-loss record but when you look at the product on the field and how they've competed I think it's pretty clear that we got better."

(On 50% roster turnover throughout this year from last year. What's an ideal percentage this year?) "Not that. It wasn't an ideal situation to start ten rookies this year in different games but that's what we chose to do. Next year hopefully that's not our case. I think we will have some turnover but not nearly as much as 50 percent."

(12? 13? 14?) "I would guess so. You figure maybe our seven draft picks and then some free agents. About 15 players or so."
(How do you evaluate J.T. Thomas this year?) "Just by watching video and seeing how he practices."

(What was your opinion?) "I think he played really well. I think he came in and did a really nice job. He started the year as our weak outside backer, comes in, we get Telvin and we felt good about there, had Geno there and then Poz goes down and he's our backup Mike. We had him at Otto for a period of time so for a guy to play all three positions and he's a very good special teamer too, he's athletic, he's fast. I think he had a nice year and did himself fairly well this last eight games."

(Are you better at linebacker than you thought going into this year?) "Yeah the addition to Telvin for what he's done being a fifth-round pick and coming in and playing the way he did has been a great...I don't want to call it a surprise because it makes it look like that but it's been a great surprise. I told Telvin walking yesterday, 'hopefully we can count on you next year,' because if he plays like he did for 16 games like he did the last five he will be a Pro Bowl-caliber player."

(Best and worst moments this year) "Best moment was probably the Browns game because it was our first win. The worst moment was just the fact that it was over. We'd like to still be playing this time of year. Hopefully we'll be playing this time of year for years to come."

(Have you talked about how to change it up to get to a better start next year?) "Yeah, I think our training camp reps and some of the stuff we do in training camp. We have a little bit of a hurdle here with the humidity and the heat that we have here. I know Shad is willing to improve our facilities and do some things, whatever he can do, but for the most part it's just really trying to take care of our players in OTAs and minicamp so that we don't have those hamstring pulls where Allen Robinson starts against Philadelphia but only practices six games over a five month period. Those things will set you back and maybe come out of the gate a little bit slower."

(Besides receiver in the draft is it defensive line or offensive line pretty strong?) "It's a good offensive line year, and it's a pretty good draft year all the way around. If anything tight ends and linebackers might be a little bit thin right now."

(You sound like all these rookies are going to make a big step next year) "I would say this: rookies make their biggest jump from year one to year two. Do I think all ten of them are going to be Pro Bowlers next year? No, but they'll take a step up. It does happen. You don't recognize it because most of them don't play as rookies and then come into their second year and play so we're just in a fortunate situation where these guys have been under a microscope for a year and this time last year they were playing in a bowl game. They will take a jump up, I believe that."

(Any other people saying even though you're struggling where we think you're doing a good job?) "Yeah, I get some texts from quite a few people. They're not the texts you want; we really want it to say 'congratulations on making the playoffs.' But I get a lot of texts from a lot of people across the League. A lot of personnel people are envious in terms of 'I wish we could do it here, I wish we could have the patience to do that.' I think some people just say 'hey I see what you're doing, I see how it's going and Gus is doing a great job in developing these young players.' I think there is a lot of that. That's not our goal. Our goal is much greater than that."

(No belief at all from Shad that this thing is make or break next year?) "No, he hasn't given me that. He's been incredibly supportive. We spent a good time yesterday talking and he understands what we're trying to do. I've communicated to him. He's going to want results, especially if we invest a lot more of his money this year he's going to want a lot more results. I don't doubt that, and he should. The city of Jacksonville should too. I want results too but understand the process and understand that this is the path we chose and we believe in it."

(Would you like to resign Tyson Alualu?) "I would, yeah."

(Do you think that will start before the market?) "We'll see. I have to meet with the coaches again too on the defensive side of the ball. I told Tyson after the game if we can we'd like to get him back some way somehow."
