JAGUARS END SIXTH SEASON WITH 7-9 RECORD

TWO STRAIGHT LOSSES END FIRST LOSING SEASON SINCE 1995

2000 IN REVIEW: The Jacksonville Jaguars finished their 2000 season with a 7-9 record, their first losing season and their first year out of the playoffs since their inaugural year of 1995. It was a season of streaks for the Jaguars, who lost five straight games in September and October, then rebounded with five wins in six games before dropping their final two games on the road.

The Jaguars lost by a field goal in each of their final two games, dropping contests at both Cincinnati and the New York Giants. They finished the second half of the season with a 5-3 record, rebounding from a 2-6 first half that kept them from making the playoffs for a fifth straight season.

"We expected to be in the hunt this year. We're disappointed we're not," said Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin. "It was a disappointing season in terms of the record. No one had anticipated a 7-9 record, that's, for sure. But we created it for ourselves and we have no one to blame but ourselves. In that spirit, there is not a whole lot to say. We had opportunities. We were in a lot of games. But we did not do the things we have to do. We're better than this; we can play better than we did. There is no reason that we have to be talking about losing some of the games that we lost. We lost at least three games that we shouldn't have lost.

"We have a lot of self-evaluation to do. Our situation will not be a total rebuilding," added Coughlin. "We'll try to do what's right by our team and by our franchise. But I will say this, if it can't be done, then you will see some major changes. That's the facts of life in this league."

In the last four seasons, the Jaguars have the second-best record in the NFL. Their 43-21 record in that time is two games behind Minnesota (45-19) and tied with Denver. Jacksonville also has the third-best home record in the last four years (32-8, two games behind Green Bay) and their road record of 20-14 since 1996 is tied for the best in the league with Minnesota and Tennessee.

Here's a summary of the 2000 Jacksonville Jaguars:

- Won four of eight games at ALLTEL Stadium, where they have never had a losing season. In six years, they are 34-14 at home
- Won three games on the road
- Won five of 10 games in the division
- The franchise's six-year record in the regular season moves to 56-40

- Market Averaged 60,314 in attendance in 2000, and average 67,306 in six seasons

The team's offseason conditioning program will begin in March.

THE COACH: Jacksonville head coach Tom Coughlin (56-40 in regular season, 4-4 in postseason) has led the Jaguars to two AFC Central Division championships and two appearances in the AFC Championship game in six seasons as the only head coach of the Jaguars. The Jaguars made the playoffs all four seasons from 1996 to '99 — a first for an NFL expansion team and one of only two teams in the NFL to do so (along with Minnesota). In 1999, the Jaguars had the best record in the NFL (14-2), advancing to the conference championship game before losing to Tennessee. In 1998, Coughlin guided them to their first AFC Central Division championship with an 11-5 record. They defeated the New England Patriots in a Wild-Card game before losing to the New York Jets in the Divisional playoffs. In 1997, the Jaguars were 11-5 and finished second in the AFC Central, and they were defeated by Denver in the Wild-Card playoffs. In their second season in 1996, the Jaguars advanced all the way to the AFC Championship game, finishing the regular season in second place in the division with a 9-7 record. In the playoffs, the Jaguars upset the Bills and Broncos on the road before losing at New England. In 1995, the Jaguars finished with four victories in their inaugural season. Coughlin became head coach of the Jaguars on February 21, 1994 following three successful seasons as head coach at Boston College. He compiled a record of 21-13-1 from 1991 to '93 at Boston College, and had two appearances in bowl games and a ranking of 13th in the final AP poll of 1993. A veteran of 30 years of coaching, he was previously an NFL assistant coach with the New York Giants (wide receivers, 1988-90), Green Bay Packers (wide receivers and passing game coordinator 1986-87) and Philadelphia Eagles (wide receivers, 1984-85).

COUGHLIN RANKED AMONG LEAGUE'S TOP COACHES: With every regular-season victory, Jaguars head coach Tom Coughlin moves up on two lists when compared to other active NFL head coaches. In 2000, Coughlin had five victories in 10 games vs. AFC Central teams and four wins in eight home games. Coughlin has the fourth-best record of all current NFL coaches in division games and the sixth-best record in home games (minimum of 16 home games). Records include all teams coached by an individual during the regular season.

LAST GAME: The Jaguars lost their 2000 season finale 28-25 to the New York Giants on December 23 in Giants Stadium to drop to 7-9 for the year, their first losing season since their inaugural year of 1995. The Jaguars led 10-7 going into the fourth quarter, but they surrendered three touchdowns to the No. 1 seed in the NFC, thwarting the comeback efforts of Mark Brunell, who threw two touchdowns in the final period. The Jaguars played most of the game without WR Jimmy Smith, who was hit hard in the first quarter before returning for the final two drives, and RB Fred Taylor, who suffered a hip pointer on the second play of the second half and didn't return. The Brunell-to-Keenan McCardell connection was the team's main hope, as they hooked up on 11 passes for 131 yards. The Jaguars did stifle the Giants' running game, holding Tiki Barber and Ron Dayne to 81 yards on 30 carries, but Giants WR Amani Toomer did most of the damage with eight receptions for 193 yards and a touchdown. Two notable streaks ended in the game. Taylor rushed for 52 yards — including a 44-yard TD run — but his streak of nine consecutive 100-yard rushing games ended (tied for the third longest in NFL history). And Jimmy Smith did not catch a pass for the first time in 87 games in which he had played, dating back to mid-1995. The Giants opened the scoring in the first quarter with a TD run by Barber. The Jaguars tied the game in the second period on Taylor's long run, then they took a 10-7 lead in the third quarter on Mike Hollis' 36-yard field goal. The Giants took the lead early in the fourth quarter on a Kerry Collins to Ike Hilliard TD pass. Following was a frantic finish that saw four touchdowns in the final 3:05 of the game. Collins threw his second TD pass, then Brunell hooked up with Kyle Brady on a five-yard TD pass (as well as a two-point conversion). Next, Hollis' onside kick was caught and returned for a touchdown by New York's Jason Sehorn, in effect ending the Jaguars' hopes of a non-losing season. In the final minute, Brunell threw a 12-yard TD pass to Alvis Whitted, and then Sehorn recovered another onside kick to end the game and the Jaguars' season. The loss was the Jaguars' first ever in a regular-season finale and marked their earliest end to a season in franchise history.

NOTES FROM THE NEW YORK GIANTS GAME: The Jaguars closed out the season away from home for the first time since 1997, and they finished the year exactly one month earlier than the 1999 season, when they were ousted from the playoffs on January 23. ... They finished 2-2 vs. NFC East teams this season and are 4-4 lifetime vs. NFC East teams.

The Jaguars were outgained (327 to 373), had fewer first downs (14 to 19) and less time of possession (25:39 to 34:21). ... The Jaguars converted 5 of 14 third downs (36 percent), while the Giants were 9 of 17 (53 percent). ... The Jaguars had one takeaway and two turnovers. ... Mark Brunell completed 23 of 41 passes for 262 yards, two TDs and one interception. He finished the season with 20 touchdown passes, tying his team record set in 1998. ... Fred Taylor rushed 13 times for 52 yards (4.0 average) and one touchdown, ending his streak of nine consecutive games with 100 yards rushing, which was tied for the third-longest streak in NFL history with Walter Payton behind Barry Sanders (14) and Marcus Allen (11). ... Taylor finished the season with 1,399 yards rushing in 13 games played (he missed the first three). ... Taylor scored a touchdown in his seventh straight game, extending his team record. He ended the year with 14 touchdowns this season (second most in team history) and 37 in his career (third most, two behind James Stewart and Jimmy Smith). ... With only 70 yards rushing as a team, the 2000 Jaguars fell 70 yards short of setting a team record for most rushing yards in a season. They finished with 2,032 yards, their third straight season with more than 2,000 rushing yards. ... With Jimmy Smith sidelined most of the game, WR Keenan McCardell led the team with 11 catches for 131 yards (50 long). ... The 11 catches gave McCardell a team-leading 94 for the season, three receptions ahead of Smith, and he broke his previous career high of 85 receptions in both 1996 and '97. He also finished the year with 1,207 yards receiving, topping his previous high of 1,164 yards in 1997. It marked his fifth 100-yard game of the season, breaking his previous best of four 100-yard games in 1997. ... Smith played less than a dozen plays, returning for the final two series, but he did not catch a pass, marking the first game in which he has played and not caught a ball since October 22, 1995 ... Alvis Whitted had a career-high four receptions for 39 yards and one TD. ... Amani Toomer's 193 yards receiving was the third most ever against the Jaguars.

The defense had three sacks, giving them 24 in the last six games, compared to only 16 in the seasons' first 10 games. Sacks were made by: DE Joel Smeenge (giving him 6.0 this season and 35.5 for his career), DE Renaldo Wynn (giving him a career-high 3.5 for the season) and LB Kevin Hardy (his third of the year). Hardy started his 49th consecutive game, breaking Ben Coleman's team record of 48 straight starts (1996-98). ... DE Tony Brackens made an interception, the fourth of his career ... LB Brant Boyer led the team with 12 tackles (6 solo), followed by LB Kevin Hardy with 11 tackles (7 solo). ... Mike Hollis scored five points on two PATs and one field goal. ... Bryan Barker punted seven times for a 42.4-yard average, with a long of 56, no touchbacks and three inside the 20-yard line. He had two kicks returned for nine yards. ... Every player who dressed played except backup QB Jamie Martin. ... Thursday's inactives were: CB Shad Criss, OT Gannon Shepherd, G Dwayne Ledford and DE Paul Spicer; Saturday's inactives were: RB Shyrone Stith, OT Reggie Nelson, DT Emarlos Leroy and QB Jonathan Quinn (third QB). ... Jaguars captains were DE Renaldo Wynn, SS Donovin Darius, OT Tony Boselli and LB Brant Boyer.

MILLER LITE PLAYER OF THE WEEK: The Jaguars' nominee for the Miller Lite Player of the Week Award was WR Keenan McCardell, who caught a game-high 11 passes for 131 yards in the Jaguars' 28-25 season-ending loss to the New York Giants on December 23 at Giants Stadium. The 11 receptions tied McCardell's season high, and he finished the season with 94 catches and 1,207 yards, both career highs.

FROM OB MARK BRUNELL: (on finishing 7-9) "We had a lot of expectations going in, and it was unfortunate. We had a lot of injuries that hurt us. We lost some games that we shouldn't have lost. It's difficult particularly because of the success we have had in previous years. Not going to the playoffs and having a losing season is frustrating. And I think everyone is getting hit right now with all these emotions. As rough as it was this year and as difficult as it was, guys really hung together and came together as a team. I am really proud to be a part of this great group of guys."

(on rumored changes in 2001) "I refuse to believe that it is an end of an era. We'll be competitive next year. It will be a different team, but I firmly believe that we will keep the core group of guys and we will be competitive. We have got a lot of things to turn around, but I think this group can do it. From the players to the coaches, we have one goal as an organization and that is to get to the Super Bowl. And it's important that we do everything we can to get to that next level."

THE TEAL IS REAL... In the last four seasons, the Jaguars' record is tied for the second best in the NFL, two games behind the Minnesota Vikings and tied with the Denver Broncos. SMITH IS NFL'S LEADING RECEIVER SINCE 1996 ... Since the start of the 1996 season, Jaguars WR Jimmy Smith has the most receptions in the NFL, and teammate Keenan McCardell is fifth (Smith missed one game and most of three others in 2000). The two receivers are close friends, with McCardell nicknamed "Thunder" and Smith called "Lightning." Smith was the NFL leader in 1999 with 116 receptions — the sixth most in a season in NFL history — and he easily broke the team record of 85 set in 1996 and '97 by McCardell. McCardell has a total of 486 career receptions, while Smith has 472. Here are the leading receivers since 1996:

SMITH AND McCARDELL SET NFL RECORD: Jaguars WRs Jimmy Smith and Keenan McCardell set an NFL record in the November 12 game vs. Seattle when they both had 100 yards receiving in the same game for the eighth time (the record has since been tied by Minnesota's Cris Carter and Randy Moss). That broke the league mark they shared with Don Maynard and George Sauer of the New York Jets, who combined for 100-yard games seven times in the 1960s. Here's a look at the eight 100-yard games by the Smith/McCardell tandem:

SEVEN IS HEAVEN FOR JAGUARS: The Jaguars had five selections in the seventh round of the 2000 college draft (four or compensatory picks), and all five players made the team's 53-man roster. In fact, only six of 15 players chosen leaguewide on compensatory picks in the seventh round are still in the NFL, and four of those six players are Jaguars.

The Jaguars' seventh-rounders are:

| Pick | Overall | Player | Summary |
|-------------|----------------|-------------------|--|
| 7a | 236 | S Erik Olson | Regular on special teams, making 7 tackles |
| 7b | 241 | DE Rob Meier | Regular on special teams (7 tackles), plus 17 tackles and a half-sack on defense |
| 7c | 243 | RB Shyrone Stith | Reserve running back, seventh-leading kickoff returner in AFC, 14 special teams tackle |
