JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS 2005 MEDIA GUIDE

Improving lives for 50 years.

Over the past five decades, Baptist Health has been here to improve people's lives at every stage—from the beginning of life through the senior years. Today, our circle of care includes five, full-service hospitals, including the new Baptist Medical Center South and Wolfson Children's Hospital. In 2005, we celebrate our 50th anniversary and the opening of our new, riverfront Heart Hospital at Baptist Downtown. To learn more, visit us at e-baptisthealth.com.

MISSION STATEMENT

Believing that youth represent the community's future, the Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation is committed to serving the greater Jacksonville area through strategic financial, networking and volunteer support benefitting economically and socially disadvantaged youth and families. By building upon our city's strengths, we seek to realize the positive potential of our young people in need. In doing so, we aim to serve as a model to other sports franchises.

PROGRAMS:

GRANTMAKING: When the Jaguars were named as the 30th franchise in 1993, the Weaver's vision was to give back to the community in a substantive manner. The Foundation was announced on September 14, 1994, and awarded its first grants in 1995 before the team played its first game. From March 1995 through July 2005, the Jaguars Foundation has allocated more than $8.5 million in grants. This level of giving is among the top few in professional sports. Through a fair and objective evaluation process, grants are allocated to serve the needs of economically and socially disadvantaged youth throughout Northeast Florida.

STRAIGHT TALK™: Straight Talk is a unique partnership with local media and Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Florida to help prevent teen pregnancy, HIV/AIDS and other sexually transmitted infections. Under the leadership of Foundation Chair and CEO, and Jaguars owner, Delores Barr Weaver; WJXT-4; WJCT-7; WTLV-12; WJWB-17; WJXX-25; WAWS-30; WTEV-47; Comcast Cable; Cox Radio (WAPE; 95.1); The Florida Times-Union/jacksonville.com; Clear Channel Radio (WJBT; 92.7); Clear Channel Outdoor; and PRI Productions collaborate to produce an annual prime time television town hall forum, "Teens & Sex...the Real Truth." The show offers candid information on teens and sex and the consequences faced by sexually active teenagers. Broadcast each May, the 2005 show was hosted by Jennifer Gandelino and featured Jaguars player Ephraim Salaam; ROAR member, Sunny Hill; and radio personalities Jay Styles and DJ Dr. Doom; a panel of experts; guest testimonials; a middle school studio audience; an exciting student PSA contest; and, a message from players in the Jaguars Lockerroom. The Straight Talk program, in partnership with the Weaver Family Foundation, has also awarded more than one million dollars in grants to local programs specifically dealing with this issue. Information can be accessed at straighttalk.jacksonville.com created in partnership with jacksonville.com/The Florida-Times Union.

HONOR ROWS®: In partnership with Reebok and Alltel, this unique program, now in its 11th year, uses seats at Jaguars home games as incentives for youth ages 9 to 17 to set and achieve ambitious but realistic goals. Youth can earn their seat to a game for academic achievement; behavioral improvement and participation in community service projects. In addition; all Honor Rows youth pledge to remain free from illegal drugs; alcohol and tobacco. In 2005; 4;400 seats have been awarded to about 40 nonprofit agencies. A volunteer committee reviews all Honor Rows proposals. At the game; participants receive a meal; Honor Rows t-shirt and hat; and special recognition by the Weavers and fans. The United Way of Northeast Florida mobilizes game-day volunteers who ensure the overall safety and enjoyment of the participants.

Beyond Honor Rows; the Jaguars Foundation awards seats to other charitable organizations; including Habijax; for volunteer recognition; Sailors Aweigh; for youth whose parents are on deployment with the Navy; youth football associations; Ronald McDonald House; and others who meet Foundation guidelines for support. Each season; the Foundation allocates approximately 11;000 seats for charitable purposes with an in-kind value exceeding $400;000.

THE OFFICIAL PLAYBOOKS® READING PROGRAM: Through a partnership with

Pepsi; Reebok and local libraries; this award winning innovative program was begun to inspire young people to read. In The Official Playbooks; Jaguars owners; players; coaches; cheerleaders and senior staff recommend books they found particularly motivating as youth or as adults today. Youth can pick-up The Official Playbooks during the football season at local libraries. Playbooks can also be accessed year-round at jaguars.com where children can submit book reports and are eligible to win prizes. The Foundation also awards approximately $300;000 annually to programs that promote literacy. In addition; players; cheerleaders and team mascot Jaxson de Ville visit dozens of schools; libraries and youth-serving agencies to encourage reading.

ANTI-TOBACCO INITIATIVE: The team and the Foundation have taken a nationally recognized leadership position in the local and professional sports community against tobacco use. The signature "Jaguars Don't Smoke" logo; shows a vibrant Jaguar squashing a pack of cigarettes under its paw; appears on the scoreboard and signage throughout Alltel Stadium; Jaguars' publications and autograph cards; and on television. The stadium has never engaged in tobacco advertising or product sales. The Jaguars set an exceptional precedent as the first team in the NFL to have tobacco advertising removed from their game-day program; since followed by the entire league.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITION: The Jaguars Foundation's Straight Talk program won the 2005 Wilmer Shields Rich Bronze Award for Excellence in Communications by the Council on Foundations. The Jaguars Foundation itself was named Jacksonville's Outstanding Foundation by the Association of Fundraising Professionals-Florida First Coast Chapter (AFP) in November 2003. The Foundation also received the 2003 Governor's Community Investment Award in recognition of its juvenile justice crime and youth violence prevention programs. This award was also received in 1996 for the Honor Rows program. Other awards include: WTLV-12 Top of the Class Award (1996) for Playbooks; Bridge Builder Award (1997); Grantmakers in Health Award (1995 and '96); and Florida Department of Education's Commissioner's Business Recognition Award (2001). The Jaguars Foundation's innovative programs have been recognized in national media; including the January/February 2005 issue of FOUNDATION News and Commentary; as well as in articles in the New York Times; Forbes; Grantmanship Center Magazine; St. Anthony Messenger; and on the "Osgood File" radio program. Also; through the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation and the Sports Philanthropy Project; the Jaguars Foundation works with other professional teams' foundations to help increase the level of philanthropy in professional sports.

SPONSORS: The Jaguars Foundation's programs are funded in part by Reebok; Alltel; Blue Cross Blue Shield of Florida; Pepsi; and The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.

DELORES BARR

WEAVER

CHAIR/CEO, JAGUARS FOUNDATION

Delores Barr Weaver, a native of Columbus, Georgia and co-owner/partner of the Jaguars; is a woman possessed by the opportunity to make a difference in her adopted hometown of Jacksonville. Delores has a sincere interest in many areas of need and through the Weaver Family Foundation; she and husband; Wayne; have supported the work of many local agencies. The Weavers have been married 50 years and have two children; Brad and Leigh; a fifteen-and-a-half-year-old granddaughter; Morgan and a two-and-a-half year old grandson; Nash. Leigh and her friend; Beau Gage; are the artists of TOUCHDOWN; the 16' long and 6' high bronze jaguar that stands outside the West Touchdown Club at Aflac Stadium.

Delores is committed to helping families and young people in the Jacksonville community lead self-sufficient; meaningful lives. Under her leadership; all seven local television stations and their affiliates; Comcast Cable; Cox Radio; Clear Channel Radio and Outdoor; as well as the local newspaper and their website Jacksonville.com; have joined in partnership to address the problem of teen pregnancy; AIDS; and increased male responsibility. Teen pregnancy is a major personal concern for Delores and is being addressed by the Foundation and local media in the effort to develop a quality prevention program for teens and to heighten awareness of adults in Jacksonville. The annual Straight Talk program is broadcast each May. In addition; the Jaguars Foundation; in partnership with the Weaver Family Foundation; has also awarded more than one million dollars in grants to local programs specifically addressing the issue of teen pregnancy and sexually transmitted disease.

When asked about being a member of the public speaking circuit; Delores laughs and says; "It is interesting to note that until November 30; 1993; no one seemed to care what I was interested in; what good work I might be doing or what I had to say." Then she gives the credit to the Jaguars who "open the doors and I must walk through as many as I can." As to accomplishments; Delores is most proud of the Jaguars Foundation and the impact it has made on behalf of economically and socially disadvantaged children in the greater Jacksonville area. For Delores; the Foundation was a dream come true in September; 1994. In March 1995; six months before the Jaguars played their first game; grants to eight local agencies in the amount of $140;000 were made and through July; 2005; the Foundation has allocated more than $8.5 million in grants. When talking about the Foundation; she is quick to credit Jaguars partners for their generous financial support and staff for their commitment to supporting programs that will have a long-term impact.

In addition to her concerns for Jacksonville's children; Delores has set a personal goal to help level the playing field of life for women and minorities. She is dedicated to eliminating sexism; racism and classism from the hearts; minds and vocabulary of our society.

Locally; Delores serves on the Governing Boards of the Jacksonville Community Foundation; USO Council; Ritz Theatre and LaVilla Museum; and she serves as Trustee of the United Way of Northeast Florida. She also serves on the Advisory Boards of Ronald McDonald House; The Bridge of Northeast Florida; and the Cathedral Arts Project; Inc.; the Honorary Board of Dreams Come True and WJCT Public Broadcasting; as well as the Edward Waters College Board of Visitors. Delores is a staunch supporter of the four local domestic violence shelters: Betty Griffin House; Hubbard House; Micah's Place and Quigley House; as well as Planned Parenthood; and is a member of The International Women's Forum. She is Chair of the Delores Barr Weaver Golf Tournament benefiting HabiJax; Jacksonville's affiliate of Habitat for Humanity. Since its inception in 1996; the tournament has sponsored 54 houses; representing a cash contribution in excess of $1.8 million. In addition; she is the Founder of FRIENDS of HabiJax. Through the Florida Sales Tax Refund Program to build low-income housing; a total of 25 organizations are designated Charter Members of FRIENDS and together they have sponsored 145 houses. The two entities have sponsored a total of 198 houses; representing a cash contribution to HabiJax in excess of $7 million. Delores says; "We can build houses for children; but then we must pray they will have a family to make it a home."

Nationally; Delores is a member of the Governing Boards of Martha Graham Dance Company and NFL Charities; both of New York; Taste of the NFL/Hunger Related Events of Minnesota; and the Dana-Farber Marathon Challenge and the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute of Boston; and a Founding Member of the Sports Philanthropy Project in New England. Delores and Wayne created the Claudia Adams Barr Program in Basic Cancer Research at the Dana-Farber in memory and honor of her mother who lost her battle with cancer in 1957. Delores refers to cancer as her only known enemy and believes the answer to cures; and the eventual elimination of that dreaded disease; will be found at the workbench of research. The Weavers were instrumental in creating the Marathon Challenge; which provides an opportunity for participants in the Boston Marathon to raise funds for the work of the Barr Program. Since its inception in 1990; the Challenge has raised over $22 million.

And yes; Delores was a football fan long before the Jaguars; she attends every game; and readily admits she is both nervous and excited on gameday.

PETER

WAYNE WEAVER CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

The Jacksonville Jaguars organization, in its first decade in the National Football League, established itself as the most successful expansion franchise in league history with four playoff appearances in the team's first five seasons. As their second decade begins with the team's 11th season, the Jaguars are on the verge of returning to the playoffs for the first time since 1999 after falling short of that goal by just one win last year. It was a decade of great success as well as great challenge for the organization, and the outlook is bright for the future.

Wayne Weaver brought the NFL to Jacksonville with a passion and a vision. Through playoff berths, two division titles and two AFC Championship game appearances, Weaver has built this young franchise to succeed. When change was needed, he directed an overhaul of the football operation in 2003 to refocus the organization on its goal - winning championships. In the NFL, winning is what matters, and Weaver is intent on winning again and directing the Jaguars back into the upper echelon of the league.

In hosting Super Bowl XXXIX in Jacksonville on February 6 of this year, the Jaguars put an exclamation point on the first decade of NFL football in Jacksonville. The smallest city to host the league's crown jewel, Jacksonville saw its leaders and citizens work together to create a successful and memorable Super Bowl experience.

Champions of the AFC Central Division in 1998 and '99, the Jaguars' four consecutive playoff seasons were from 1996 to '99. Those achievements are the result of Weaver's commitment to winning. One goal remains: a Super Bowl championship. But first, he knows, the team must get back into the playoffs.

"Our commitment and our resolve have never been greater," Weaver says of the 2005 season. "Everything we do is in the interest of winning and building a championship team, and a strong, successful organization from top to bottom. We face challenges and obstacles like everyone else, and we work hard to overcome them. I feel strongly that our goals are within reach."

Jaguars football began on November 30, 1993, when Weaver surprised the football world by winning an NFL expansion franchise for the city of Jacksonville. In 1994 he presided over the building of one of the NFL's showpiece stadiums, and in the 1995 season his inaugural team claimed four victories.

In 1996 Weaver watched his second-year dream team win seven games in a row including two in the playoffs, and advance to within one game of the Super Bowl. That year's playoff victory in Denver

"Our commitment and our resolve have never been greater. Everything we do is in the interest of winning and building a championship team, and a strong, successful organization from top to bottom. We face challenges and obstacles like everyone else, and we work hard to overcome them. I feel strongly that our goals are within reach."

ances, Weaver has built this young franchise to succeed. When change was needed, he directed an overhaul of the football operation in 2003 to refocus the organization on its goal - winning championships. In the NFL, winning is what matters, and Weaver is intent on winning again and directing the Jaguars back into the upper echelon of the league.

is regarded as one of pro football's biggest upsets ever. The 1997 Jaguars won 11 games, more than any third-year NFL team has ever won, and in 1998 the Jaguars won their first division title and the franchise hosted its first-ever home playoff game. In 1999 the Jaguars finished with the NFL's best record, a 14-2 mark, as the team hosted the AFC Championship game. And in 2000 Weaver led the effort to bring the Super Bowl to Jacksonville, as the city was selected in a vote of his fellow owners.

One of the nation's most successful entrepreneurs, Weaver brought his enthusiasm and business acumen to Jacksonville, a city that was yearning for professional football. He wanted a model franchise and a team that would contend for the playoffs in a short time. He also wanted success both on the field and in the community. Weaver serves as the Jaguars' chairman and chief executive officer, overseeing the day-to-day operations of the team while allowing his staff the autonomy to do its jobs. That's the Weaver way, and it has long proven to be a winning way.

But if football is his passion, Weaver also takes pride and joy in his other businesses. He is chairman and the Weaver family is majority owner of Shoe Carnival, Inc., one of the nation's fastest-growing shoe retailers that is based in Evansville, Ind. He also serves as chairman and CEO of Liz Claiborne Shoes, a wholesale distributor to upscale department stores across the country that is headquartered in Jacksonville. Previously Weaver was co-owner, president and CEO of Nine West Group, Inc., the leading designer and marketer of women's footwear.

Throughout his business career, Weaver has maintained a commitment to philanthropic endeavors. Since the awarding of the Jaguars franchise, Wayne and Delores Weaver have focused their charitable efforts through the Weaver Family Foundation and the Jaguars Foundation.

Weaver is a member of six NFL committees: Finance, Audit, Investment, Business Ventures, Special Committee on League Economics, and Hall of Fame. He is past chairman of the Fashion Footwear Association of New York, and also serves on the boards of Stein Mart, the Cummer Museum of Arts and Gardens, the Jacksonville Zoo and the Alliance for World Class Education.

Weaver was born on January 14, 1935 in Columbus, Ga. A high-school graduate, he rose through the ranks of Brown Group, Inc., a major St. Louis-based shoe company. After serving as senior vice president, he departed in 1978 to become president and CEO of Nine West. Wayne and Delores live in Jacksonville. They have been married for 50 years and have a daughter Leigh, a son Bradley, a 14-year-old granddaughter Morgan, and a two-year-old grandson Nash.

PAUL VANCE
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, FOOTBALL OPERATIONS/
 GENERAL COUNSEL

Paul Vance was promoted to senior vice president, football operations in November, 2001 after serving as general counsel to the team since the inception of the Jaguars. Vance is responsible for the Jaguars' salary cap strategy and planning and contract negotiations. He also oversees the team training and medical functions, the team video and equipment departments and team travel and logistics. He continues to serve as general counsel.

Vance is credited with developing, with former Coach Tom Coughlin, the plan to solve the Jaguars' salary cap problems for the 2002 season. The plan involved the drastic but necessary decision to offer Pro Bowl tackle Tony Boselli, Gary Walker and Seth Payne to the Houston Texans in the Expansion Draft, as well as the implementation of fiscal restraint in player contracts and acquisition for the 2002 and 2003 seasons. As of 2004, the Jaguars have emerged with one of the healthiest cap situations in the NFL.

Since taking over in 2001, Vance has been responsible for the negotiation of extensions for veterans such as Fred Taylor, Jimmy Smith, Brad Meester, Maurice Williams, Chris Naeole, Kyle Brady, Chris Hanson and Paul Spicer and contracts with free agents including Deon Grant, Mike Peterson and Reggie Hayward. Notable rookies signed during this period include John Henderson, Byron Leftwich, Rasheen Mathis, Mike Pearson, Vince Manuwai and Reggie Williams.

After the coaching change was announced at the end of the 2002 season, Vance assisted owner Wayne Weaver in the identification and interview of prospective candidates. The process led to the signing of head coach Jack Del Rio and vice president of player personnel James Harris. Del Rio, Harris and Vance have established a close working relationship that emphasizes consideration and balance of all coaching, player personnel and salary cap aspects in the player acquisition and roster building process.

Vance has been with the Jaguars since July 1994, following 21 years of private practice in Connecticut. While there, he represented Wayne Weaver during the expansion process. Since coming to Jacksonville, he has been of counsel with the Jacksonville office of Foley & Lardner, which serves as the primary law firm of the Jaguars.

Vance graduated from the University of Rochester in 1969 with a degree in economics. While at Rochester, he played baseball and captained the school's basketball team. He received his J.D. in 1973 from Columbia, where he was a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar.

Vance serves on the board of the MaliVai Washington Kids Foundation. He is a member of the Business Advisory Council of the University of North Florida Coggin School of Business. He has also served as a member of the steering committee of Downtown Visions, Inc., which successfully organized a business improvement district in downtown Jacksonville. Vance was born November 12, 1947 in Buffalo, N.Y. He and his wife, Jane, live in Jacksonville. They have four children: daughters, Kerry and Jamie, and sons, Jordan and Derek.

BILL PRESCOTT SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, STADIUM OPERATIONS/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Bill Prescott is the senior vice president, stadium operations/chief financial officer for the Jaguars. He oversees the financial operations and information technology of the team. He is responsible for managing the Jaguars' portion of ALLTEL Stadium year-round, as well as the relationships with SMG (facility and game day operations) and Centerplate and Levy Restaurants (concession operations). Prescott also interacts with the NFL and city of Jacksonville on financial matters.

Prescott oversaw the design and construction of the recent $63 million renovation of ALLTEL Stadium which included amenities such as escalators, the Bud Zone, and the new Terrace Suite, in addition to remodeling of the clubs and suites, retrofitting the scoreboards for new 24'x84' video displays, and the opening of the new Pepsi Plaza in the location of the old practice fields. All of the renovations were completed in time for Super Bowl XXXIX, which was played on February 6 of this year.

Prescott is also responsible for the financial operations of other Wayne Weaver-related entities, such as the DAR

Group, the Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation and the Weaver Family Foundation. He has been involved with the Jaguars since their inception and has also handled the Weavers' finances since 1980. Prescott met Weaver while he worked as a tax manager for Deloitte & Touche. In 1989, Prescott joined Grill, Gilhuly, Prescott & Co. CPAs as a partner, where he continued to work with the Weavers.

A native of the Bronx, N.Y., Prescott is a graduate of Pace University with a degree in accounting and a master's degree in taxation. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Connecticut Society of CPAs and the Financial Executive Institute. He holds CPA licenses in both Connecticut and Florida. Prescott was recently appointed chairman for the Mohawk District of the Boy Scouts of North Florida, an urban scouting program serving the at risk youth of Jacksonville. His hobbies include tennis and skiing. Prescott was born May 7, 1956. He has two sons, Christopher and Michael. He and his wife, Kim, live in Ponte Vedra Beach.

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Tim Connolly joined the Jaguars in March of 2003 as the team's Vice President of Development. He was responsible for the Jaguars' Super Bowl XXXIX project, an initiative to help fund the capital improvements to ALLTEL Stadium for the 2005 Super Bowl. In October of 2004, Connolly was named senior vice president, business development and now directs the ticket sales/marketing, ticket operations/customer service, and the special events teams in addition to developing and sustaining new branding and business opportunities.

Connolly previously spent two years with the Minnesota Vikings and seven years with the Kansas City Chiefs. He served as executive vice president and general manager of the Vikings in 1998 and '99. The Vikings posted a 25-7 regular season mark (the most Vikings wins ever in back-to-back seasons), earned two playoff appearances and participated in the NFC championship game (1998 season). While a member of the Kansas City Chiefs' front office from 1989 through 1995, the Chiefs won 72 regular season games and 3 playoff games. The Chiefs posted an 8-7-1 record in 1989; only their second winning season in 15 years, and then earned six consecutive playoff appearances between 1990-1995, including the AFC Championship Game in 1994. During this six year stretch, the Chiefs recorded more wins and playoff appearances than in any other six-year period in Chiefs history.

Connolly is recognized in NFL circles for building strong front office teams and delivering record-level stadium revenues. In 1999, the Vikings sold the most season tickets in the franchise's 39-year history - 16,000 more than the previous season. In Kansas City, Connolly served as the Chiefs' executive vice president and chief operating officer. He played a key role in the franchise's turnaround effort. When Connolly arrived in Kansas City in 1989, the Chiefs had 25,000 season ticket owners and an average attendance of 47,500 per game. By 1991 Arrowhead Stadium reached sold-out status, beginning a consecutive sell-out streak that has reached 100-plus games. By 1994 the Chiefs led all NFL teams in attendance, and would continue to do so through the end of the decade, averaging almost 77,000 per game.

Connolly began his business career in 1971 with the IBM Corporation and was recognized frequently as a top sales performer and manager. In January of 1986 he was named president and CEO of Bell Atlantic's Cellular Phone Company. In 1987 Bell Atlantic (now Verizon) became the first major cellular company in the world to achieve profitability.

Connolly is a 1971 graduate of George Washington University, is very active in the community and has served on several boards including the Ronald McDonald House (Washington, D.C.) and the Governors Small Business Advisory Board.

He has three grown children - Jenny, Brie and John, and resides with his wife, Nyunok in Jacksonville.

JAMES HARRIS VICE PRESIDENT, PLAYER PERSONNEL

James Harris – known as “Shack” to just about everyone familiar with him – is responsible for all Jaguars player acquisitions, including the annual college draft, free agency, trades, undrafted player signings and the scouting and signing of players from other professional leagues. Harris was named vice president of player personnel for the Jaguars on January 23, 2003. He came to Jacksonville from the Baltimore Ravens, where he played an important role in all aspects of the team's personnel decisions and acquisitions.

Since joining the Jaguars, Harris and his player personnel staff, working closely with Jack Del Rio and the coaching staff, have made significant contributions through the acquisition of 27 drafted players in addition to several key veteran free agents.

A veteran of 30 years in the NFL, Harris played quarterback for 12 seasons before embarking on what is now his 18th year in personnel. His career in scouting began in 1987 as a scout for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-92). From 1993-96, Harris served as assistant general manager of the New York Jets. Named director of pro personnel for the Baltimore Ravens in 1997, he spent six years with the Ravens where he earned a Super Bowl ring with the Ravens' victory in Super Bowl XXXV in 2000.

As a player, Harris was a pioneer. An eighth-round draft choice of the Buffalo Bills in 1969, he played quarterback for the Bills (1969-71), Los Angeles Rams (1973-76) and San Diego Chargers (1977-81) over 12 seasons. During his stint with the Bills, Harris was the first black in league history to open a regular season as a starting quarterback. In 1976, Harris led the NFC with an 89.8 passer rating, highlighted by a 436-yard passing day against the Miami Dolphins that season. Harris was named MVP of the 1975 Pro Bowl after throwing for two TDs in a 14-13 victory over the AFC.

In May of 2003 and again in June of 2004, Sports Illustrated named Harris one of the top 50 most influential minorities in sports, writing that his background as one of the first black quarterbacks in the NFL and being the first to start a playoff game groomed him as a leader and a terrific talent evaluator. In March of 2005, Harris was named one of the 50 most powerful blacks in Sports by Black Enterprise.

Harris played for one of college football's greatest coaches, the legendary Eddie Robinson of Grambling State. The Tigers won or shared the SWAC title in each of Harris' four seasons with the team (1965-68). He was named MVP of the 1967 Orange Blossom Classic and was named Pittsburgh Courier Player of the Year in 1968. Harris was a legendary athlete at Carroll High School in his hometown of Monroe, La., winning 39 consecutive games.

Harris earned a bachelor's degree in education and was subsequently nominated as a distinguished alumnus for his contributions to American society during his NFL career.

He is an inductee of the Atlanta Right and Wrong Hall of Fame, the SWAC Hall of Fame, the Grambling Athletic Hall of Fame and the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame and also serves on the NFL's sub-committee on college relations. He is a member of the Fritz Pollard Alliance and a founding member of the Field Generals: The African American Quarterbacks Club, a non-profit group founded by and composed of NFL greats dedicated to teaching and preserving the history of the African American quarterback.

He was born in Monroe, La. on July 20, 1947. He and his wife, Vickie, reside in Jacksonville.

DAN EDWARDS VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS AND MEDIA

Dan Edwards was promoted to vice president of communications and media on May 9, 2003. He is responsible for overseeing all aspects of the Jaguars' internal and external communications, including media relations, community relations, publications, the team's award-winning web site (www.jaguars.com) and the team's Emmy-winning in-house broadcasting department. jaguars.com was ranked 16th among 131 pro sports web-sites in 2004. The broadcasting department received a 2002 regional Emmy Award for its special "Making of an NFL Broadcast."

Hired more than a year before the team's first game, Edwards is now in his 22nd season in the NFL and his 12th year with the Jaguars. He was named executive director of communications on May 4, 1994, and he took over responsibility for the broadcasting department in 2001. In 2003 the organization's community relations department and Internet content were added to Edwards' responsibilities. Formerly the public relations director for the Pittsburgh Steelers (1987-93), he brought to the Jaguars 10 years of NFL experience working with the Pittsburgh Steelers, Miami Dolphins and the league office.

After receiving a scholarship from NFL Charities and serving as a public relations intern in the NFL office in 1984, Edwards spent the 1984 season working in publicity for the Miami Dolphins, who played in Super Bowl XIX that year. In 1985 Edwards joined the Steelers as assistant public relations director, and in 1987 he was named director of public relations. In 1991, the Steelers' public relations department received the coveted Pete Rozelle Award, which is presented annually by the Pro Football Writers of America to the NFL's top PR staff. Edwards' Jaguars staff was voted one of three finalists for the award in both 1996 and '98. He has also worked for the NFL Super Bowl staff at 17 Super Bowls in addition to the 1990 Pro Bowl.

Prior to entering the NFL, Edwards worked in professional baseball, spending one season as an administrative assistant with the Eugene (Ore.) Emeralds, a single-A affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds. He played football and baseball for Montgomery College (Md.) before transferring to the University of Oregon. Edwards received his undergraduate degree in business administration/management from the Charles H. Lundquist College of Business at the University of Oregon in 1981, and a master's degree in sports administration/facility management from Ohio University in 1984.

Edwards served as chairman of the communications strategy and media hospitality committees for the Jacksonville Super Bowl Host Committee, which hosted Super Bowl XXXIX in Jacksonville. He is a past member of the board of directors for the Florida Sports Awards, and he also served on the Sport Management Advisory Council for Flagler College. He was born January 15, 1959 in Denver, and he grew up in the Washington, D.C. area. Edwards and his wife Tricia have four children: sons Christian and Preston and daughters Danielle and Victoria.

JACK DEL RIO HEAD COACH

NFL: 20TH SEASON
JAGUARS: 3RD SEASON

Jack Del Rio directed a steady course of improvement in his first two seasons as head coach of the Jaguars. Last year Jacksonville was one of five NFL teams to show an improvement of four wins or more over the previous season. Del Rio's goal for 2005 is to take the Jaguars to the playoffs, something the franchise has not experienced since 1999. Del Rio's young team narrowly missed achieving that goal last season, falling one win short of a playoff berth.

"We have made significant progress toward building the kind of team we are determined to have - one with a mindset that is smart, tough and unselfish," Del Rio says of this year's squad. "Our focus is very clear. It's time for us to take that next step."

Now in his third season as the second head coach in franchise history, Del Rio has posted records of 5-11 and 9-7. The Jaguars' four-win improvement last year put them with Pittsburgh, San Diego, Atlanta and the New York Jets as the only teams that improved by four or more wins.

Named head coach on January 17, 2003, Del Rio is now in his 20th year in the NFL and his ninth in coaching. At 42, Del Rio is the second-youngest head coach in the NFL, just four months older than Tampa Bay's Jon Gruden. He has played for, coached with, and learned from some of the best coaches in all of football. He was recruited to play at Southern California by John Robinson, and in the NFL he played under Bum Phillips, Jim Mora, Frank Ganz, Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Green. Among other notable coaches he teamed with during his 11-year playing career are Dom Capers, Dave Campo, Dave Wannstedt, Tony Dungy, Monte Kiffin, Tom Moore, Norv Turner, Butch Davis and Mike Tice. As an assistant coach for six seasons, Del Rio worked on the staffs of Hall of Famer Mike Ditka, Super Bowl winner Brian Billick, and Super Bowl participant John Fox. Among those he was on coaching staffs with are Marvin Lewis and Mike Nolan.

In leading the Jaguars to a 9-7 mark last year, Del Rio posted the team's first winning record in five seasons along with a second-place finish in the division, the team's highest since 1999. Among the other notable achievements were first-ever road wins at The Coliseum, The RCA Dome and Lambeau Field. The team posted a 5-3 record in road games after failing to win on the road the previous year, and was 7-3 in non-division contests.

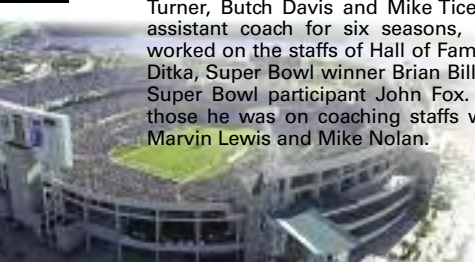

BALTIMORE HEAD COACH BRIAN BILLICK

"It was clear Jack was not going to be an assistant very long. He has what head coaches need - the ability to teach and motivate, the work ethic, the football knowledge. Jack's bright and has a presence. Plus, he played a long time in this league, and understands better than most how much you can ask of a player."

Despite losing several defensive ends to injury, the defense led the league in red zone efficiency and ranked seventh in scoring defense, and 11th overall in yards allowed. The special teams, which ranked last in the NFL in 2003, made significant improvement in jumping 16 spots to rank 16th last season.

In taking over the Jaguars in 2003, Del Rio was the architect of a defense that improved to sixth overall in the NFL, and second against the run. He had inherited a team that had not been in the top 10 in total defense since 1999, ranking 20th in 2002. The defense allowed only one 100-yard rusher in 2003, while the offense allowed just 28 sacks, the fewest in team history, and Fred Taylor rushed for a team-record 1,572 yards with Byron Leftwich starting 13 games as a rookie. The Jaguars' 5-11 record included six losses by seven points or less.

The vast improvement in defense was no coincidence since Del Rio was only one year removed from taking the Carolina Panthers defense from 31st in the league to second overall, as defensive coordinator of the Panthers in 2002. Coming off a 1-15 season, the Panthers defense allowed only 290.4 yards per game, led the NFL in fewest rushing yards per attempt, and ranked second in fewest yards per play, third down efficiency, and sacks (52). The Panthers allowed the fifth-fewest points in the league, did not

OAKLAND HEAD COACH NORV TURNER

"There was no question in my mind he was going to be a good coach. I was excited for him when he got the opportunity in Jacksonville, and I think he's done a fine job."

allow a 300-yard passer, and didn't yield a 100-yard rusher until the season finale.

From 1999 to 2001, Del Rio served as linebackers coach for the Baltimore Ravens, helping the team win Super Bowl XXXV over the New York Giants. For those three years, in which the Ravens finished second in total defense three times, Del Rio coached the Ravens' talented linebacker corps which featured Peter Boulware, Jamie Sharper and Ray Lewis, the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year in 2000 and the MVP of Super Bowl XXXV. During the Ravens' Super Bowl championship season in 2000, the defense set the NFL 16-game record by allowing only 165 points and recording four shutouts, one shy of the post-1970 record. The group also led the NFL with 49 forced turnovers. The defense continued its domination in the playoffs, allowing just one touchdown in four games.

Del Rio began his coaching career with two seasons in New Orleans, as assistant strength coach in 1997 and linebackers coach in 1998 under Ditka.

An 11-year NFL veteran, Del Rio was drafted in the third round by the Saints in 1985. He was named to the NFL's All-Rookie team and earned the Saints' Rookie of the Year award that year. Following two seasons in New Orleans, Del Rio played for the Kansas City Chiefs, Dallas Cowboys and Minnesota Vikings. He led the Vikings in tackles three straight years and played in the Pro Bowl following the 1994 season. During his career, Del Rio recorded 1,078 tackles, registered 12 quarterback sacks, made 13 interceptions and started more than 100 consecutive games between 1989 and 1994. He went to the playoffs once with the Cowboys and three times with the Vikings.

Del Rio was a four-year starter from 1981 to '84 at Southern California, where he earned consensus All-America honors as a senior and was runner-up for the Lombardi Award. The Trojans were 30-15-1 during his four seasons, three times ranked among the top 15 teams in the country. He played in the 1982 Fiesta Bowl and was co-MVP of the 1985 Rose Bowl. He led the Trojans in tackles for a loss three years in a row and played in the East-West Shrine Game and the Japan Bowl. Del Rio finished his college career with 340 tackles, 58 tackles for loss, five fumble recoveries and one interception.

Drafted out of high school by the Toronto Blue Jays in 1981, Del Rio batted .340 while playing catcher on Southern California's baseball team in 1983 and '84. He was a teammate of current New York Yankees pitcher Randy Johnson and former major league slugger Mark McGwire.

PHILANTHROPY: The Del Rios have been active in community causes in and around the Jacksonville area since their arrival in 2003. Together they have been instrumental in raising and distributing more than $250,000. They raised funds for Seamark Ranch through sales of the 2003 JagNet Cookbook, and through the 2004 Jack Del Rio Charity Golf Classic. They also helped to raise money through the American Cancer Society Relay For Life and for The Freedom Alliance Fund. Among the many other charities and events the Del Rios have been involved with over the last two years are The Salvation Army, Cystic Fibrosis, The Ronald McDonald House, Devereaux Day School, St. Catherine Labourer Manor, and Hubbard House. Del Rio graduated from Hayward (Calif.) High School and holds a political science degree from the University of Kansas, which he earned while playing for the Chiefs. Born April 4, 1963 in Castro Valley, Calif., he and his wife, Linda, have three daughters: Lauren, Hope and Aubrey, and a son, Luke.

DAVE CAMPO
ASST. HEAD COACH/SECONDARY

NFL: 17TH SEASON
JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Dave Campo was named assistant head coach/secondary on February 17, 2005 bringing the Jaguars 16 years of NFL experience including three as a head coach. He had spent the two previous seasons as the Cleveland Browns' defensive coordinator.

The Browns' 2003 defense ranked 15th in the NFL, the club's best overall defensive ranking since 1994 when they finished seventh. Cleveland also posted a sack in 15 of 16 games and ranked third in the NFL in inside the 20 touchdown percentage.

Before joining the Browns, Campo spent the previous 14 seasons with the Dallas Cowboys, including 11 seasons as an assistant and the last three as head coach from 2000 to 2002.

During his tenure in Dallas, he helped the team win consecutive Super Bowl championships in 1992 and 1993 and again in 1995.

In Campo's first two seasons as head coach, the Cowboys defense finished third in the NFL in passing defense and the team finished fourth in total defense in 2001. From 2001 to '02, the Dallas defense ranked among the NFL's elite allowing teams to average 3.7-yards a rush and allowed only 22 rushing touchdowns in 32 games. In 2002, the Cowboys ranked eighth in the NFL with 19 interceptions.

In four of the five years that Campo directed the Dallas defense as coordinator, the Cowboys finished the year ranked among the NFL's top 10 units, including a pair of top three finishes.

Prior to becoming defensive coordinator on Jan. 24, 1995, Campo directed a secondary that had grown into one of the team's deepest and most productive units. His 1994 squad led the NFL in pass defense and tied for fourth in the NFL with 22 interceptions. All-Pro strong safety Darren Woodson became the first Dallas defensive back to earn a starting Pro Bowl berth since Everson Walls.

Campo, 58, was hired by Dallas in 1989 after spending two years at the University of Miami as the secondary coach. At Miami, he helped the Hurricanes to a two-year record of 23-1 and the 1987 National Championship. Safety Bennie Blades was the 1987 Jim Thorpe Award winner before being selected with the third pick in the NFL draft by the Detroit Lions.

Campo began his career at his alma mater, Central Connecticut State, where he spent the 1971-72 seasons. He then moved to the University of Albany (1973), Bridgeport (1974), the University of Pittsburgh (1975), Washington State (1976), Boise State (1977-79), Oregon State (1980), Weber State (1981-82) and Iowa State (1983). In addition to starring at defensive back in college, Campo twice earned All-East honors at shortstop at Central Connecticut State. Born July 18, 1947, he attended Robert E. Fitch High in Groton, Conn. He and his wife, Kay, have six children: Angle, Eric, Becky, Tommy, Shelbie and Michael.

CARL SMITH OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

NFL: 18TH SEASON
JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Carl Smith, who brings 32 years of collegiate and professional coaching experience, joined the Jaguars on January 25, 2005 as offensive coordinator.

Smith spent the previous season at the University of Southern California, where he served as quarterbacks coach. In his one season at USC, he mentored Heisman Trophy winner Matt Leinart and the Trojans won the national championship.

He went to USC after spending three seasons (2001-03) as the quarterbacks coach with the Cleveland Browns.

In Cleveland, Smith helped quarterback Tim Couch throw for a career-high 18 touchdowns in 2002, the most by a Brown since Bernie Kosar had 18 in 1991. He also helped quarterback Kelly Holcomb post a 92.9 passer rating while completing over 58 percent of his passes.

Smith, 57, began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo in 1971 and Colorado in 1972. He became the Buffaloes' linebackers coach in 1973 before moving to Southwestern Louisiana, where he handled the defensive line, defensive backs and was offensive coordinator.

He then spent three years as the offensive coordinator at Lamar and the 1982 season as the offensive coordinator at North Carolina State before moving to the pros.

Smith was with the USFL's Philadelphia (later Baltimore) Stars for three seasons (1983-85), handling special teams the first year and quarterbacks and wide receivers the next two years when the team captured USFL titles.

He spent the next 11 seasons, from 1986 to 1996, as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach with the New Orleans Saints. While in New Orleans and later New England, he coached with current Jaguars offensive line coach Paul Boudreau and wide receivers coach Steve Walters. Together for nine seasons, the three totalled 90 wins and made the playoffs six times.

Smith's offenses in New Orleans annually ranked among the league leaders. The Saints ranked second in the NFL in scoring (26.4 points) in 1987 and led the league in third-down conversions in 1988. The Saints allowed only 168 sacks from 1990-96, the fewest in the NFL during that span.

After New Orleans he served with New England for three seasons, as assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach for the first season and tight ends coach for his final two years.

In the NFL, his teams have advanced into the playoffs seven times, as the Saints did so four times (1987-90-91-92 while winning the NFC West title in 1991), the Patriots did so in 1997 and 1998, and the Browns did in 2002. He wrote for NFL.com in 2000.

He was a two-year (1969-70) letterman defensive back at Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo after transferring from Bakersfield (Calif.) Junior College, where he played quarterback in 1966 and 1967. He earned his bachelor's (1971) and master's (1972) degrees in physical education from Cal Poly-SLO, as well as a teaching credential.

Born April 26, 1948, Smith played at Wasco (Calif.) High, where he starred in football, basketball and baseball. He and his wife Dianne, have three sons: Tracy, Tyler, and Nicholas.

MIKE SMITH DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

NFL: 8TH SEASON
JAGUARS: 3RD SEASON

Mike Smith enters his third year as defensive coordinator for the Jaguars. In his second year last season, Smith led the defense to the NFL's top ranking in red zone efficiency and his squad ranked seventh in scoring defense. His run defense continue to be stout, allowing only seven rushing touchdowns last season after ranking second in the NFL in 2004.

Leading the way for Smith's 11th-ranked defense was the defensive tackle tandem of Marcus Stroud and John Henderson, who both earned trips to the Pro Bowl. Stroud, in his second consecutive trip, finished with 80 tackles and 4.5 sacks. Henderson, who earned his first honor, led the linemen with 98 tackles and 5.5 sacks.

Linebacker Mike Peterson led the defense in tackles for the second consecutive season with 178 and Rashean Mathis, who earned defensive player of the week honors, and Donovan Darius combined for 10 interceptions and four fumble recoveries.

Smith was named the Jaguars' defensive coordinator on January 21, 2003. A veteran of 24 years of coaching, Smith, 45, has experience in one form or another with almost every position on defense and on special teams.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, he spent the previous four seasons with the Baltimore Ravens, helping them to their Super Bowl championship in 2000. The Ravens' 2000 defense set an NFL 16-game record by allowing only 165 points. From 1999 to 2001, Smith was the Ravens' defensive assistant/defensive line coach, and in 2002 he was the linebackers coach, replacing Jack Del Rio, who became defensive coordinator of the Carolina Panthers. In 2002, Smith coached All-Pro Ray Lewis and Pro Bowler Peter Boulware, who had his finest NFL season, and he was instrumental in the development of second-year pro Ed Hartwell, who made a team-leading 196 tackles. From 1999 to 2001, Smith worked on all aspects of the defensive game plan and also assisted with special teams.

A native of Daytona Beach and a player in the Canadian Football League, Smith had a 12-year stint at Tennessee Tech (1987-98), the last three as the defensive coordinator. He joined the Tennessee Tech staff as defensive line coach, then served as special teams coordinator from 1988 to '95. He tutored the line for nine seasons before being promoted to defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 1996. With Smith as defensive coordinator, the Golden Eagles' defense finished in the top 10 in the nation in both 1997 and '98. In 1998, Smith was promoted to defensive coordinator/assistant head coach.

Before joining Tennessee Tech, Smith was the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Morehead (Ky.) State. He served as a part-time assistant coach at San Diego State in 1982, and then spent the next three seasons (1983-85) coaching the Aztecs' linebackers. It was at San Diego State where he worked with Brian Billick, who brought him to Baltimore in 1999.

Smith played linebacker for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the CFL in 1982. He played collegiately at East Tennessee (1977-81), where he was named defensive MVP twice at linebacker. As a senior, he led the team with 186 tackles. Smith was a star athlete at Father Lopez High in Daytona Beach and earned All-State honors as a linebacker in 1975. He was born November 30, 1959 in Chicago. He and his wife, Julie, have a daughter, Logan (5/13/00), and live in Jacksonville.

PETE RODRIGUEZ SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

NFL: 18TH SEASON
JAGUARS: 2ND SEASON

Pete Rodriguez was brought to Jacksonville on February 9, 2004 as the Jaguars' special teams coordinator. In the process of the 2004 season, Rodriguez turned his special teams unit into one of the best in the AFC.

Rookie placekicker Josh Scobee was selected in the fifth round of the NFL draft and under Rodriguez's tutelage connected on 24 of 31 field goals and all 21 extra point attempts. He earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors after hitting all four field goal attempts at Indianapolis including the 53-yard game winner.

Chris Hanson returned after missing most of 2003 to punt 84 times for 42.8-yard average, ranking sixth in the AFC with 28 punts inside the 20. The kickoff coverage team drastically improved under Rodriguez. The Jaguars ranked tops in the AFC, allowing opponents to start at the 25 yard line.

Rodriguez, 65, is a veteran of 17 NFL coaching seasons, including six with the Seattle Seahawks. In 2003 he left his mark on the Seahawks' unit, highlighted with Alex Bannister being named to the Pro Bowl. Rookie kicker Josh Brown connected on 22 of 24 field goal attempts inside the 48-yard line. Tom Rouen placed 29 punts inside the 20 against only three touchbacks.

He is widely regarded as one of the top special teams coaches in the NFL, as evidenced by being named Special Teams Coach of the Year in 1992 and Special Teams Coach of the Decade in the '90s by the Dallas Morning News. Rodriguez has tutored five Pro Bowl punters.

Rodriguez entered the NFL as the Los Angeles Raiders special teams coach (1988-89), and served in the same capacity with the Phoenix Cardinals (1990-93) before joining the Washington Redskins staff (1994-97). Prior to entering the NFL he worked with the USFL's Michigan Panthers as a defensive line coach from 1983-84. He also coached with the USFL's Denver Gold (1985) and Jacksonville Bulls (1986), while spending one year in the CFL with the Ottawa Rough Riders (1987).

Rodriguez broke into coaching as a graduate assistant at Arizona (1968-69) and later served as defensive coordinator at Western Illinois (1970-73), Florida State (1974-75), Iowa State (1976-78) and Northern Iowa (1986). He served as head coach at Western Illinois from 1979-82.

Born July 25, 1940, he earned his bachelor's and master's degrees from Western State College in Colorado, and a masters of education from the University of Arizona. Rodriguez and his wife, Sherry, have four children, daughters Regina, Marla and Lori, and son John. They also have four grandchildren, Colby, Riley, Nya and Miles.

KEN ANDERSON QUARTERBACKS COACH

NFL: 29TH SEASON
JAGUARS: 3RD SEASON

One of the top quarterbacks in NFL history, Ken Anderson begins his third season with the Jaguars as quarterbacks coach after serving as the team's wide receivers coach last season. Anderson is in charge of one of the youngest positions on the team with Byron Leftwich, David Garrard and Quinn Gray. The position features Leftwich, who enters his third season in the NFL after passing for just under 3,000 yards and 15 touchdowns, while Garrard started two games with 374 passing yards and three scores last year.

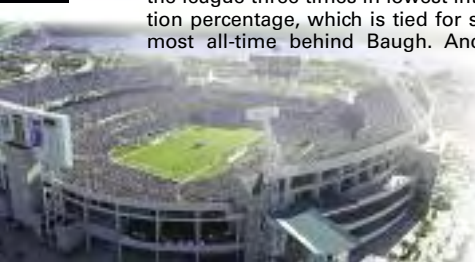

Anderson, 56, played for the Cincinnati Bengals for 16 seasons and was an assistant coach there for 10 years. He joined the team's staff in 1993 and was the quarterbacks coach for three seasons, offensive coordinator from 1996 to 2000, and then quarterbacks coach in 2001-02. Nearly two decades since retiring as a player, Anderson still continues to dominate the Bengals' record book with his career passing marks. He holds the club's all-time marks in completions (2,654), passing yards (32,838) and touchdown passes (197). Twice he has been among the 15 finalists for election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He still holds the NFL record for highest completion percentage in a season: 70.55 in 1982. He won four NFL passing titles, which is tied for third-most in NFL history behind Sammy Baugh and Steve Young, and was named four times to the Pro Bowl. He led the league three times in lowest interception percentage, which is tied for second most all-time behind Baugh. Anderson played in 192 games and led the Bengals to an appearance in Super Bowl XVI against the San Francisco 49ers. He had career totals of 2,654 completions in 4,475 attempts for 32,838 yards and 197 touchdowns. He also rushed for 2,220 yards and 20 touchdowns. He is the 24th ranked passer (at 81.9) in NFL history after ranking 10th when he retired.

When Anderson joined the pro coaching ranks as Bengals quarterbacks coach in 1993, he helped quarterback Jeff Blake chip away at a few of his own Cincinnati marks. In 1995, Blake supplanted Anderson in the categories of most completions in a season (326) and most consecutive games with a TD pass (21). He guided Jon Kitna to a single-season record for pass attempts (581 in 2001) and more than 3,000 yards passing in back-to-back seasons.

Until joining the Jaguars, Anderson had played and coached for only the Bengals since completing a record-setting college career at Augustana (Ill.) in 1970. He was a third-round pick from the small school, the 67th selection in the draft. His 16 years of service as a player (1971-86) are the most in Bengals history. Prior to joining the Bengals as a coach, he worked six years in Cincinnati as a sportscaster. Anderson was born February 15, 1949 in Batavia, Ill. He has a son, Matt (6/5/75), and two daughters, Megan (10/24/78) and Molly (2/27/83). He and his wife, Cristy, live in Jacksonville.

MARK ASANOVICH STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

NFL: 11TH SEASON
JAGUARS: 3RD SEASON

Mark Asanovich is in his third season as the strength and conditioning coach for the Jaguars and his 11th season as an NFL coach. In his first two seasons in Jacksonville, the Jaguars have been one of the healthiest and most physical teams in the NFL.

Asanovich, 46, brought to the Jaguars a new strength and conditioning regime that emphasizes individual supervision of player workouts. The cornerstone of his program is to "coach reps rather than merely count reps." It is his belief that players who are coached in the weightroom will develop better results from what is inspected rather than what is expected.

With the support of Jaguars owner Wayne Weaver, Asanovich oversaw a $300,000 renovation of the Jaguars weightroom since the 2003 offseason conditioning program.

"Wayne Weaver has given us the resources to win and Jack Del Rio and his staff have given us their support," Asanovich said. "The players have responded and have garnered the results."

In 2002, Asanovich was the assistant strength and conditioning coach of the Baltimore Ravens. He was the head strength and conditioning coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1996 through 2001, working under former coach Tony Dungy.

Asanovich spent the 1995 season as assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Minnesota Vikings. From 1987 to '95, he was the strength and conditioning coach at Anoka High School (Minneapolis, Minn). In 1984, he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Ohio State, staying there two years. In 1986 he coached at The Citadel.

Asanovich has published several articles in his field of study and served as a member of the Minnesota Governor's Council on Health & Physical Fitness. He earned a bachelor's degree in education from St. Cloud State and a master's degree in exercise science from Ohio State.

Asanovich was born May 20, 1959 in Duluth, Minn. He played guard and linebacker at Duluth East High School and attended St. Cloud State. He and his wife, Allisen, have two daughters, Haley (8/25/00) and Gracie (11/1/02). They live in Orange Park.

PAUL BOUDREAU OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

NFL: 19TH SEASON
JAGUARS: 3RD SEASON

Paul Boudreau is in his third year as the Jaguars offensive line coach. One of the team's strengths the last two seasons under Boudreau, the offensive line continued to develop even with the loss of left tackle Mike Pearson after four games last season. The line allowed only 32 sacks while helping the Jaguars to rush for 1,850 yards.

In 2003 the offensive line broke the Jaguars record by allowing only 28 sacks, including only six in the final eight games. Boudreau was instrumental in the development of rookie guard Vince Manuwai and in moving Brad Meester to center after three years at guard. His line blocked for running back Fred Taylor, whose 1,572 yards rushing was a team record.

Boudreau, 56, was hired on January 27, 2003 and brought a reputation as one of the outstanding offensive line coaches in the NFL. He joined the Jaguars from the Carolina Panthers, where he spent two seasons. Under his tutelage, the Panthers set a club record of only 31 sacks allowed in 2001 after giving up 69 the previous year. In 2002, Carolina allowed 44 sacks for the season but none in four games.

In addition to working with the Panthers, Boudreau has overseen stellar offensive lines in New Orleans, Detroit, New England and Miami. He has coached lines that blocked for eight 1,000-yard rushers, including Barry Sanders and Curtis Martin.

His NFL run of success began in 1987 in New Orleans, where the Saints were perennially ranked among the league leaders in fewest sacks allowed. Overall, the Saints placed in the top three in that category four times in Boudreau's seven seasons. In those seven years, New Orleans allowed a total of only 167 sacks (23.9 per season), third lowest in the NFL. In 1992, they surrendered a league-low 15 sacks.

A move to Detroit in 1994 resulted in more success, as the Lions led the NFL in total offense in 1995, and running back Barry Sanders attained the 1,500-yard rushing plateau in all three of Boudreau's seasons. During Boudreau's stay in Detroit, offensive tackle Lomas Brown and center Kevin Glover were Pro Bowl selections. Boudreau moved to New England in 1997 and coached two seasons with the Patriots. In his first season, he helped the Patriots win their second consecutive division title, a first in franchise history. His offensive line allowed just 30 sacks and ranked fourth in the NFL in sacks allowed per pass attempt (18.7 pass plays/sack). As coach of Miami's offensive line (1999-2000), he developed a unit that paved the way for Lamar Smith to rush for 1,139 yards, giving the Dolphins their first 1,000-yard rusher since 1996, and surrendered just 28 sacks, tied for the fourth-lowest total in the NFL.

Prior to entering the NFL, Boudreau was the offensive line coach for the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League from 1983 to '86. As a college coach, he worked at Boston College, Maine, Dartmouth, and Navy. He also spent a season coaching at Oxford (Mass.) High.

Boudreau was born December 30, 1949 in Arlington, Mass. He was a letterman in both football and baseball at Boston College (1971-73). He and his wife, Joan, have a son, Paul (6/2/75), and a daughter, Jill (9/22/77). Paul is an assistant football coach at Brown University. He has a granddaughter Kalyn and grandson Zach.

LES EBERT
ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

NFL: 5TH SEASON
 JAGUARS: 2ND SEASON

Les Ebert is in his second season as Jacksonville's assistant strength and conditioning coach. Ebert is responsible for assisting strength and conditioning coach Mark Asanovich in all areas of the club's strength and conditioning program, which emphasizes individual supervision of player workouts.

Ebert, 32, spent the 2003 season as a part-time assistant strength and conditioning coach in Jacksonville. He, along with Asanovich, helped strengthen the Jaguars' offensive and defensive lines that proved to be the anchor of the Jaguars. In his first season in Jacksonville, the offensive line allowed the fewest sacks in team history and the defense ranked second in the league in run defense.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Ebert spent three seasons, from 1999 to 2001, as the assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

In his three seasons in Tampa Bay, Ebert helped establish arguably one of the fittest squads in the NFL. During his three-year span, the Buccaneers sent 21 players to the Pro Bowl including Warren Sapp, Derrick Brooks, John Lynch and Mike Alstott, who made three consecutive trips each. Each year the team got stronger as the year progressed. In the final nine games of the regular season from 1999 to 2001 the teams' record was 8-1, 7-2, and 6-3. Those finishes led to three consecutive playoff appearances.

Born October 1, 1972 in Brainerd, Minn., Ebert was strength and conditioning coach at Blaine (Minn.) High School in 1998. In 1997, Ebert served as the Buccaneers' season long strength and conditioning intern.

Ebert earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of Minnesota-Duluth and a master's degree in physical education from Emporia State University (Kan.). Ebert is a certified member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Ebert played center and defensive end at Centennial (Minn.) High School. He and his wife, Rebecca, reside in Orange Park.

RAY HAMILTON DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

NFL: 28TH SEASON
JAGUARS: 3RD SEASON

Under Ray Hamilton the Jaguars defensive line has established its identity with the Pro Bowl tandem of Marcus Stroud and John Henderson at tackle. After losing five ends to IR last season, Hamilton will try to cement the position with the addition of unrestricted free agent Reggie Hayward at one end and with the return of Paul Spicer and Rob Meier along with rookie Bobby McCray.

The defensive line combined for 25 sacks last season while allowing only four running backs to rush for over 100 yards. The unit ranked 11th in rushing defense in the NFL.

Hamilton is a longtime NFL veteran who played nine years for the New England Patriots and coached 16 years in the NFL before coming to Jacksonville in 2003. He joined the Jaguars after coaching the defensive line for Cleveland for two seasons. In his first season, the Browns tied for fourth in the AFC with 43 sacks. He spent three seasons as New England's line coach (1997-99), and then joined the Jets for the 2000 season. His 1998 defensive line tallied 25 of the team's 36 sacks, the seventh-best total in the NFL, and New England's 1997 defense registered 45 sacks.

Hamilton, 54, served a prior stint as defensive line coach with the Jets (1995-96), where he was instrumental in the development of defensive end Hugh Douglas, who was named the 1995 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Hamilton spent the 1993 and '94 seasons as defensive line coach for the Los Angeles Raiders, where he helped develop Chester McGlockton and the front line of a defense that combined for 83 sacks in his two seasons with the Raiders. In 1992, Hamilton was the defensive line coach at the University of Tennessee, following stints as defensive line coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1991) and head coach of the Bay State Titans (1990), a semipro team that featured defensive tackle Eric Swann, the sixth overall choice in the 1991 NFL draft. Hamilton began his coaching career in 1985, spending five seasons as an assistant defensive line coach with New England. He helped the Patriots to their first AFC Championship title and a Super Bowl XX appearance in his first season as a New England coach.

Hamilton was a 14th-round draft choice by the Patriots and a fixture on New England's defensive line from 1973 to '81. He established a Patriots rookie record with seven sacks while starting every game in his first season. Known affectionately as "Sugar Bear" during his playing career, he went on to start a team-record 110 consecutive games and currently ranks fifth on the Patriots' all-time sack list with 54. He played in 132 games in nine seasons.

Hamilton was born January 20, 1951 in Omaha, Neb. He graduated from Oklahoma with a degree in business. He was named All-Conference as a defensive tackle as a junior and senior. Hamilton received a master's degree in public administration in 1977 from Suffolk University while playing for the Patriots.

He has two sons: Kadar (8/24/76) and Damon (6/5/79). Kadar graduated from Stanford and is the Jaguars' BLESTO Scout. Damon graduated from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania. Ray and his wife, Phyllis live in St. Augustine.

ANDY HECK ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

NFL: 14TH SEASON
JAGUARS: 2ND SEASON

Former NFL player and collegiate coach Andy Heck joined the Jaguars coaching staff on February 9, 2004 as the offensive assistant/assistant offensive line coach. Now in his second season in Jacksonville he assists the offensive coaching staff in all aspects of game preparation, and he serves as assistant to Paul Boudreau in coaching the offensive line.

Heck, 38, is a former long-time NFL standout. He recently completed his third season at the University of Virginia, the final year as tight ends coach. He served the previous two seasons as a graduate assistant coach, working with the tight ends.

Heck tutored All-American tight end Heath Miller, who set numerous Atlantic Coast Conference records for a tight end in receiving and scoring. An outstanding blocker, Miller was recently selected in the first round of the 2005 NFL draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Prior to joining the Virginia staff, Heck played in the NFL for 12 seasons as a standout offensive lineman. He finished his playing career with the Washington Redskins, where he played for two seasons. As the starting left tackle in 1999, he blocked for an offense that ranked second in the NFL. From 1994 to 1998, he was a five-year starter for the Chicago Bears. In 1995, he gave up no sacks as part of an offensive line that yielded the fewest sacks in the NFL.

Heck was drafted in the first round (15th overall) by the Seattle Seahawks, where he was a unanimous All-Rookie selection in 1989. A five-year starter with the Seahawks, he played three seasons without missing a snap.

Heck's fifth grade teacher, Marylou Winkler of Annandale, Va., was named NFL Teacher of the Year in January of 1994, after being nominated by Heck. She received $5,000 from the NFL and the school received a $10,000 scholarship in both their names.

A 1989 graduate of Notre Dame, Heck received a bachelor's degree in American studies. A first-team All-American, he co-captained the 1988 national championship team that finished 12-0. Heck started at tight end for the first three seasons at Notre Dame before moving to tackle in spring drills in his senior season.

Heck was born January 1, 1967 in Fargo, North Dakota. He and his wife, Jennifer, have four children: Jonathan, Charlie, Molly and Evelyn, and live in Ponte Vedra Beach.

TODD HOWARD
ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

NFL: 7TH SEASON
 JAGUARS: 3RD SEASON

Todd Howard is in his third season with Jacksonville as the Jaguars' assistant defensive line coach. He assists the defensive coaching staff in all aspects of game preparation, including scouting reports, the statistical analysis of opponents' tendencies and the preparation of playbooks.

He, along with defensive line coach Ray Hamilton, oversee the Jaguars defensive line including Pro Bowl defensive tackles Marcus Stroud and John Henderson. Howard also helps teach the young linemen including Bobby McCray and Anthony Maddox.

Howard, 40, has 11 years of experience coaching in college and four in the NFL, in addition to having played in the NFL for two seasons. He spent three seasons as the linebackers coach at Louisiana Tech, following two years (1998-1999) as a defensive assistant with the St. Louis Rams, who won the Super Bowl in Howard's second season. With the Rams, he assisted with the linebackers in the area of pass-rushing techniques, as well as working on defensive game preparation, film evaluation and quality control.

For one month before joining the Jaguars, Howard was the associate head coach and co-defensive coordinator at Southwest Texas State. He began his coaching career in 1991 at Texas A&M and was a member of three Southwest Conference champion coaching staffs. He coached at Grinnell (Iowa) College from 1994 to '97, and served as the defensive coordinator from 1996 to '97. He was a member of the NFL's minority coaching program with the Washington Redskins in their 1997 training camp, helping on defense.

Howard was a third-round draft choice of the Kansas City Chiefs in 1987, and he played in the NFL for two seasons as an inside linebacker and special teams player. He also played for the Barcelona Dragons of the World League in 1991 and '92. Howard was All-Conference and honorable mention All-America at Texas A&M, where he started for three seasons (1984-86). He received a degree in sociology in 1991 and a master's in human resources in 1995.

Howard was born February 18, 1965 in Bryan, Texas. He and his wife, Susan, have three children: Trey (10/11/91), David (8/10/93) and Ava (8/29/96). They live in Jacksonville.

MARK MICHAELS
ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS COACH

NFL: 7TH SEASON
 JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Mark Michaels was named Jaguars assistant special teams coach on March 2, 2005. He rejoins special teams coordinator Pete Rodriguez, who served along with Michaels in Seattle from 2001 to 2003.

Michaels joined the Seattle Seahawks on February 8, 2001, as assistant special teams coach, and was promoted to special teams coordinator in 2004 after Rodriguez left for Jacksonville.

Last season he coached placekicker Josh Brown, who finished second in the league converting 23 of 25 field goal attempts (92.0 percent) and his squad had the fourth-fewest special teams penalties in the league.

In 2003, his unit featured Pro Bowler Alex Bannister, who helped contribute to 29 punts downed inside the 20, third in the NFL. The Seahawks also led the NFL in lowest opponent punt return average (4.8).

Entering his seventh NFL season, Michaels was the Cleveland Browns quality control coach in 1999 before being promoted to special teams coach for the 2000 season.

Under his guidance, the Browns were second in the NFL in 2000 with four special teams takeaways and were one of five teams without a punt or placekick blocked. Rookie Dennis Northcutt placed sixth in the AFC (10th NFL) with a 10.7 yard punt return average. Punter Chris Gardocki finished fifth in the NFL with a 37.3 net punting average.

Before joining the professional ranks, Michaels spent five seasons coaching at the collegiate level. He coached linebackers and special teams for one season at Massachusetts in 1998, after serving in the same capacity at Brown University for four seasons. He helped coach the Minutemen to the 1998 I-AA National Championship.

Breaking into coaching at New Haven in 1987, he left in 1991 to become the head coach of the Helsinki (Finland) Roosters, guiding them to the Finnish National Championship, before coaching linebackers for the Utah Pioneers of the Professional Spring Football League in 1992-93.

A 1986 graduate of the University of Connecticut, Michaels was a two-time All-New England first-team pick and the Yankee Conference Co-Defensive Player of the Year in 1985. He holds UConn's career sack record with 27.

Michaels was born August 15, 1963 in Kingston, Pa. He and his wife, Mary, have a daughter, Grace Elizabeth, and a son, Max.

KENNEDY POLA RUNNING BACKS COACH

NFL: 2ND SEASON
JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Kennedy Pola was named the Jaguars' third running backs coach on January 28, 2005 replacing Anthony Lynn. He is responsible for the development of the Jaguars young running backs behind Fred Taylor. He will be working with young draft picks LaBrandon Toefield, Greg Jones and this year's fourth round pick, Alvin Pearman.

Pola, 41, completed his first season in the NFL with the Cleveland Browns in 2004. Under his tutelage Browns running backs Lee Suggs and William Green combined for 1,329 rushing yards and four touchdowns along with 262 receiving yards and a touchdown.

He joined the Browns after working as running backs coach (2000, 2002-03) and special teams coordinator (2001-03) at the University of Southern California. Pola helped groom running back Justin Fargas, a 2002 NFL second-round draft pick, along with Tom Malone, the 2003 first-team All-Pac 10 punter.

Overall at USC, Pola coached two first-team all-conference special teams contributors and a second-team All-Pac 10 running back, as well as several honorable mention honorees. He helped the Trojans capture the Associated Press 2003 National Championship.

Pola began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at UCLA (1992-93) and helped the Bruins reach the Rose Bowl in his final season. He then spent three seasons as running backs coach at San Diego State, guiding two rushers, Wayne Pittman (1994) and George Jones (1995), to 1,000-yard seasons. Pola also worked with the special teams in 1996, when the Aztecs produced a first-team All-America punter, Noel Prefontaine, as well as the Lou Groza Award (nation's top place-kicker) runner-up, Peter Holt. After two seasons as running backs coach at the University of Colorado, Pola returned to San Diego State and spent the 1999 season as line-backers coach.

A four-year standout at Southern California (1982-85), Pola started at full-back for four seasons after being moved from linebacker during his freshman year.

Pola comes from a football family. His brother, Al, played collegiate football at Penn State (1985-87). He has two nephews, Troy Polamalu (Pittsburgh Steelers) and Nicky Sualea (Dallas Cowboys, Cincinnati Bengals), who have played in the NFL, and three additional nephews who played Division I-A college football.

Pola was born on Nov. 22, 1963 in Pago Pago, American Samoa, and was named after John F. Kennedy, who was assassinated the day Pola was born. He earned a bachelor's degree in history from USC in 1987. Pola and his wife, Diane, have three sons: Kennedy Christopher, Matthew Aoatoa and Raymond Trey.

ALVIN REYNOLDS DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

NFL: 13TH SEASON
JAGUARS: 3RD SEASON

Alvin Reynolds is in his third season as the Jaguars defensive backs coach. The secondary features one of the strongest pair of safeties in the AFC in Donovan Darius and Deon Grant. Third-year pro Rashean Mathis continues to make strides as a bonafide star at cornerback under Reynolds.

In the secondary, Reynolds has an infusion of new talent to mold including draft picks Scott Starks, Gerald Sensabaugh and Chris Roberson. Last year's sixth round draft choice Chris Thompson looks to make a move in the lineup along with veterans Terry Cousin and Kenny Wright.

Reynolds has over a decade of NFL coaching experience, developing his craft in Denver, Baltimore and Carolina under such coaches as Wade Phillips, Mike Shanahan, Ted Marchibroda, George Seifert and John Fox.

Reynolds, 46, was hired by the Jaguars as the defensive backs coach in 2003 after spending four seasons (1999-2002) as a defensive assistant with the Panthers. He was in Baltimore for the first three seasons of the Ravens franchise (1996-1998), serving as secondary coach. He began his coaching career as a defensive assistant in Denver, spending three seasons with the Broncos (1993-95). During his career, Reynolds has worked with some of the top defensive backs in the NFL, including safeties Steve Atwater and Dennis Smith in Denver and Rod Woodson in Baltimore. In Carolina, he worked with then-defensive coordinator Jack Del Rio, helping with tape breakdown, game plan preparation and statistical tendencies. He also assisted with the Panthers' secondary. Reynolds began his coaching career at his alma mater, Indiana State, in 1982 as a graduate assistant. He was named the team's secondary coach in 1983, and in 1990 became assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator, in addition to serving as secondary coach. He coached two All-America players, including former NFL star Vencie Glenn.

As a player at Indiana State (1978-81), Reynolds starred at strong safety and received two votes for the Heisman Trophy as a senior. His four-year career statistics included 225 tackles, 21 passes defensed, five fumble recoveries and five interceptions. In addition to his football accomplishments, Reynolds was president of the University Club and served as a member of several groups, including the President's Committee on Ethnic Diversity, the Indiana Black Expo, the Charles T. Hyte University Center and the Minority Students Retention Program Committee. While in Denver, he was active in 100 Black Men of America, which emphasizes education and job training.

Reynolds was born June 24, 1959, in Pineville, La. He attended West Jefferson High School in Harvey, La., and was an All-America football player and two-time Most Valuable Player on the track team. He received a degree in business management from Indiana State in 1982 and a master's degree in political science from the school in 1990. Reynolds and his wife, Carla Antonia, reside in St. Augustine with son Alvin Jr. (9/2/85) and daughter Ana Gabriella Naomi (6/12/02).

ALFREDO ROBERTS TIGHT ENDS COACH

NFL: 8TH SEASON
JAGUARS: 3RD SEASON

Alfredo Roberts is in his third season as Jaguars tight ends coach. Roberts was considered one of the best blocking tight ends during his six-year NFL playing career. With the Jaguars he tutors veterans Kyle Brady and Todd Yoder, in addition to promising young players in George Wrihster and Brian Jones.

Roberts attended the University of Miami from 1983 to 1987 where he received a degree in Criminal Justice. While at Miami he was a member of two national championship teams. The first was under Howard Schnellenberger in 1983, which was the school's first championship, and again in 1987 under Jimmy Johnson. Roberts played on five bowl teams for the Hurricanes, in two Orange Bowls, two Fiesta Bowls and one Sugar Bowl.

Selected in the eighth round of the 1988 draft by the Kansas City Chiefs, Roberts played tight end for the Chiefs for three seasons. He joined the Dallas Cowboys in 1991 and was part of two Super Bowl champion teams under Jimmy Johnson, in 1992 and 1993. Roberts played in all 16 games for five straight seasons until his career ended in 1994 following a 1993 foot injury.

Roberts co-owned a successful restaurant in Dallas, Cowboy Café, from 1993 until starting his coaching career in 1999. In 1999 he joined the inaugural coaching staff at Florida Atlantic University under Schnellenberger. Roberts served as the receivers coach for his last two years on the staff before joining the Jaguars in 2003.

While Roberts maintains a busy schedule he still finds time to give back. In 1991 the Home Sweet Home Foundation was established. Roberts heads the charity that is committed to providing residential and ancillary services to individuals with physical, mental and emotional challenges. He also is on the board of directors of Hands On Broward, a charity which mentors children of prisoners.

Roberts and his wife, Angel, have been married 14 years and have three children: twin sons Avery and Austin (12/3/95) and daughter Alyssa (6/10/00). They live in Jacksonville.

BRIAN VANGORDER LINEBACKERS COACH

NFL: 1ST SEASON
JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Brian VanGorder was named linebackers coach for the Jaguars on January 10, 2005 after four seasons as Georgia's defensive coordinator. VanGorder inherits a wealth of talent with the Jaguars with starters Mike Peterson, Akin Ayodele and Daryl Smith, along with Greg Favors, Jorge Cordova and rookie draft pick Pat Thomas.

VanGorder, 46, was named defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Georgia in 2001, after serving the 2000 season as defensive coordinator at Western Illinois.

Last season, the Bulldogs finished 10-2 under VanGorder, including a 24-21 win over Wisconsin in the Outback Bowl to finish ranked seventh in the nation. His defense ranked eighth in the nation and ninth in points allowed.

In 2003, he was named the winner of the Frank Broyles Assistant Coach of the Year Award as the nation's top assistant coach after being a finalist for the honor in 2002. VanGorder was part of a staff that led Georgia to a four-year record of 42-10, one SEC championship, two SEC eastern division titles, three consecutive bowl game victories, and three straight national top-six finishes.

He helped mold the 2003 SEC Eastern Division Champion Bulldog defense that finished second nationally in scoring defense, fourth in total defense and sixth in passing defense. He was also part of the 2002 Bulldog defense that finished first in the SEC and fourth nationally in scoring defense, first in the SEC in red zone defense, and allowed only 31 second half points in the final seven games of the season. In addition, the Bulldogs finished 13-1, won the SEC Championship and Sugar Bowl, and were ranked third in the nation.

In 2002 he was also named the seventh recipient of the Valvoline Southern Sports Tonight Assistant Coach of the Year award.

Under VanGorder six defensive players have been drafted in the first two rounds of the NFL draft including DT Johnathan Sullivan, S Thomas Davis and DE David Pollack in the first round, and LBs Boss Bailey and Odell Thurman and S Sean Jones in the second round.

VanGorder, who is a former head coach at Wayne State University, also served as defensive coordinator at Central Michigan in 1998-99.

His Western Illinois defense in 2000 was ranked 12th nationally in Division I-AA in both passing defense and total defense, and allowed only 17.6 points per game in compiling a 9-2 record. He also coached LB Edgerton Hartwell, 2000's Buck Buchanan Award winner as the best defensive player in Division I-AA.

Prior to CMU, VanGorder was the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Central Florida for one season and was the linebacker coach and special teams coordinator for two seasons.

From 1992 to 1994, VanGorder served as the head coach at his alma mater, Wayne State University. In 1993, his team recorded the first winning season in over a decade.

VanGorder was born April 17, 1959 in Jackson, Mich. He and his wife, Pollie, have five children: Molloy, Morgan, Mack, Montgomery and Mallone.

STEVE WALTERS WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

NFL: 23RD SEASON
JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Steve Walters was named the Jaguars wide receivers coach on January 28, 2005 after six seasons with the Tennessee Titans. He inherits the most intriguing prospect in Jaguars history in first round pick Matt Jones. Walters will attempt to convert Jones from college quarterback to NFL receiver like he did with the Titans' wide receiver, Drew Bennett.

Walters' corps includes five-time Pro Bowler Jimmy Smith along with Reggie Williams, Troy Edwards, Ernest Wilford Cortez Hankton and Jones.

Walters, a 33-year veteran of coaching, including 22 in the NFL, completed his sixth season with the Titans as wide receivers coach. Walters joined the Titans coaching staff in 1999 after spending two seasons as wide receivers coach with New England.

Last year, Titans WR Derrick Mason became the only player in franchise history to record four consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons, as he tallied 96 receptions for 1,168 yards and seven touchdowns. Walters also has developed young talent as Drew Bennett had a career-year with 80 receptions for 1,247 yards and 11 touchdowns.

The maturation of Mason over the last four seasons led to eye-popping numbers. His four year totals (4610 yards on 343 receptions and 29 touchdowns) are the among the best in the franchise in 40-years. Walters has developed Bennett, who came to the Titans as a walk-on player at UCLA as a part-time quarterback and wide receiver, into the perfect complementary receiver to Mason.

In 2001, the Titans tandem of Derrick Mason and Kevin Dyson totaled 1,953 yards and 16 touchdowns. The 16 touchdowns ranked third in the league among receiving tandems. Additionally, Mason and Dyson each posted 100-yard performances in the same game in consecutive weeks – a feat that had not been accomplished since 1961.

Walters spent two coaching stints with New England. He began his NFL coaching career with New England in 1992, serving as defensive backs coach for three seasons before serving as wide receivers coach with the New Orleans Saints for 11 seasons (1986-96). During his tenure in New Orleans, his wide receivers set the record for most single-season receptions in franchise history.

Walters began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Virginia Tech in 1971. After two seasons, he accepted his first full-time position coaching receivers at Tampa University in 1973. He coached the defensive backs for two seasons at Northeast Louisiana before moving on to Morehead State as the quarterbacks and receivers coach. From 1977-78, Walters served as wide receivers coach at the University of Tulsa. In 1979, he coached quarterbacks at Memphis State before spending two seasons as secondary coach at Southern Methodist.

Born June 16, 1948 in Springdale, Ark., Walters played defensive back at the University of Arkansas. He lettered in football and basketball at Springdale High in Arkansas. He earned his bachelor's degree at Arkansas and added his master's degree in physical education from Morehead State in 1976. Steve and his wife Susan are the parents of two children, Kirk and Kasey.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Virginia Tech 1971-72, Tampa 1973, Northeast Louisiana 1974-75, Morehead State 1976, Tulsa 1977-78, Memphis State 1979, Southern Methodist 1980-81, New England Patriots 1982-84, Alabama 1985, New Orleans Saints 1986-96, New England Patriots 1997-98, Tennessee Titans 1999-2004, Jacksonville Jaguars 2005

CHARLES BAILEY DIRECTOR, PRO PERSONNEL

Charles Bailey brought 23 years of scouting and front office experience with him when he was named the Jaguars' director of pro personnel on May 13, 2003. He continues to upgrade the Jaguars roster in 2005. Since his arrival, the team has signed several key unrestricted free agents during the offseason, including Deon Grant and Greg Favors (both of whom started for the Carolina Panthers in the 2003 Super Bowl), in addition to Reggie Hayward and Todd Yoder. His unrestricted free agent signees this offseason include Reggie Hayward, Kenny Wright and Tony Williams.

Bailey is responsible for overseeing the scouting and evaluation of all pro personnel, as well as advance scouting. He spent 14 seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers and New Orleans Saints, helping both of those teams to several playoff appearances.

Bailey was the Saints' assistant general manager of football operations from 1999 to 2001, and spent the 2002 season as the organization's director of community affairs/assistant director of government affairs. As the Saints' assistant general manager, Bailey was responsible for scouting and evaluating talent for the Saints around the NFL, as well as college scouting and other administrative duties. He also served as a member of the executive board for the 2002 Super Bowl Host Committee in New Orleans.

Bailey was with the Steelers from 1989 to '99 and was an integral part of the club's Super Bowl XXX appearance after the 1995 season. In his 10 years with the Steelers, he served three years in college scouting and seven years as the club's pro personnel coordinator. Bailey joined the Steelers following eight years of scouting with National Football Scouting, Inc. (1981-88).

A native of Winston-Salem, N.C., Bailey spent six years on the coaching staff at Winston-Salem State (1975-1980). He attended North Carolina Central, where he was a scholarship student-athlete from 1969 to '73. After graduation, he earned his master's degree from North Carolina A&T. Bailey and his wife, Carolyn, have three children, daughters Kahmil and Aundrea, and a son, Charles.

GENE SMITH DIRECTOR, COLLEGE SCOUTING

After seven years as a Jaguars college scout, Gene Smith was promoted to director of college scouting in 2000, and he has guided the team's NFL draft for the last five years. His responsibilities include the scouting and evaluation of hundreds of college players on an annual basis, as well as directing a staff of seven college scouts. Smith also has some additional pro personnel responsibilities, including the evaluation of selected unrestricted free agents.

Smith is one of 17 staff members who celebrated their 10th anniversary with the Jaguars last year.

Smith was previously the team's college scout responsible for the southeast United States. He joined the Jaguars on May 1, 1994 and was originally the team's scouting representative for the northeast with the BLESTO scouting combine, which he joined in February 1994. He was the southeast regional scout for BLESTO in 1995 before becoming solely the southeast regional scout for the Jaguars. Smith had previously been an assistant coach at the college level for eight years. He worked at Edinboro University from 1989 to 1994, serving as an assistant coach, recruiting coordinator, and strength and conditioning coordinator. From 1986 to '88 Smith worked at Ohio University, where he began his college coaching career as a graduate assistant and later served as an assistant coach.

Smith graduated from Heidelberg University, serving as captain of the football team while playing as a defensive lineman. He graduated in 1986 with a degree in education and in 1987 received his master's degree with emphasis in athletic administration from Ohio University. He also served as a captain of the Monroeville (Ohio) High School football team, under head coach Steve Ringholz.

Born December 31, 1963, Smith is a native of Monroeville, Ohio. He and his wife, Debbie, have two daughters, Alana Rose and Carlie Grace. They live in Fleming Island.

LOUIS CLARK ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, PRO PERSONNEL

Louis Clark was promoted to assistant director, pro personnel on May 13, 2003 after serving as a college scout for the Jaguars since 1997. A former wide receiver for the Seattle Seahawks and Green Bay Packers, Clark assists Charles Bailey in the scouting and evaluation of pro personnel.

He handles the advance scouting, and also assists in college player evaluation.

Clark attended Mississippi State, where he played wide receiver from 1983 to '86. He graduated with a degree in educational psychology in 1994. Clark was selected in the 10th round of the 1987 college draft by the Seahawks. He played six seasons in Seattle. In 1993, Clark signed with Green Bay as an unrestricted free agent and spent his final season with the Packers.

Following his playing career, he spent four years in private business. Clark was born July 3, 1964 in Tupelo, Miss. He and his wife, Carla, have a son, Antonio, and a daughter, Antonece. They live in Jacksonville.

TERRY McDONOUGH EXECUTIVE SCOUT

Terry McDonough was named a Jaguars executive scout on May 13, 2003. He scouts the top collegiate players throughout the country. Additionally, McDonough does crosschecks, attends all major all-star practices and selective spring player workouts of the top draft-eligible players. He also has some additional pro personnel responsibilities.

McDonough joined the Jaguars from the Baltimore Ravens, for whom he scouted the eastern half of the country for the previous three years as the Ravens' eastern college supervisor. He also helped evaluate free agent prospects for the pro personnel department during the free agency period, working with James Harris.

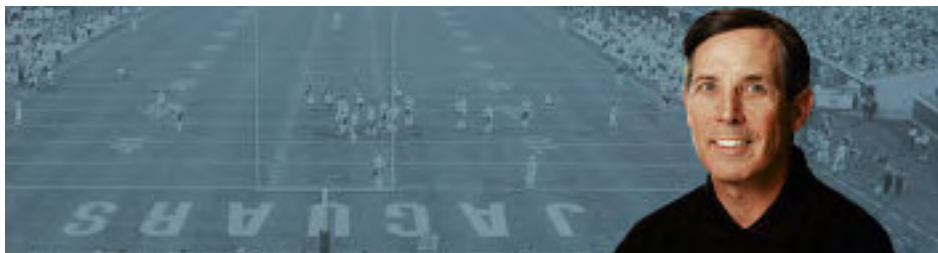

A Boston native, McDonough began his NFL scouting career with an internship with the San Francisco 49ers in 1989. Following his graduation from Massachusetts with a sports management degree, he was named player personnel director of the Barcelona Dragons of the World League in 1990. While with the Dragons (1990-92), McDonough handled a variety of personnel assignments, serving as West Coast scout for the league and helping each team prepare for the WFL drafts. McDonough toured both NFL and CFL training camps to grade potential WFL players. The 1991 Barcelona team finished with a 9-3 record, losing the league title to London in the World Bowl. The following season, the Dragons captured the European title.

In 1992, McDonough was hired by the Cleveland Browns as the southeast area scout, and he moved to Baltimore with the franchise in 1996.

At Hingham (Mass.) High School, McDonough was All-Conference as a running back in football as well as in baseball, and he also lettered in basketball. He transferred to Bridgton Academy, where a serious knee injury that required reconstructive surgery ended his playing career. McDonough has three children, Patrick, Caroline, and Brendan, and lives in Raleigh, N.C.

TIM MINGEY EXECUTIVE SCOUT

Tim Minge has been with the Jaguars since 1994, serving as a college scout for nine years before being named executive scout in 2003. He has the responsibility of scouting the southeast region of the United States. Additionally, Minge does selective crosschecks and attends all major all-star practices and spring player workouts of the top draft-eligible players. He also coordinates the post-draft college free agency process and has some additional pro personnel responsibilities.

Minge is one of 17 staff members who celebrated their 10th anniversary with the Jaguars last season.

Before joining the Jaguars, Minge spent 11 years as a college assistant coach and then 10 years as a recruiting coordinator. His college coaching career began in 1973 as defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach at St. Joseph College (Ind.), where he had been a three-year varsity letterman as a defensive back. He was a graduate assistant at Western Michigan from 1974 to '75, then served as defensive coordinator at Loyola Academy in 1976 before returning to Western Michigan as an assistant coach from 1977 to '81. In 1982, Minge was coach of the secondary at East Carolina, and in 1983 he coached at Miami (Ohio) University as defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach.

In 1984, he was named the recruiting coordinator at the United States Military Academy. He served there until 1987, and then spent 1988 to '90 as recruiting coordinator at Tennessee. In 1991, Minge returned for three more years at the U.S. Military Academy before joining the Jaguars.

Minge received a bachelor of science degree in physical education from St. Joseph College in 1972 and a master of arts in physical education in 1976 from Western Michigan. Minge was born January 1, 1950 in Chicago.

ANDY DENGLER REGIONAL SCOUT

Andy Dengler has been a Jaguars college scout since 1998. Since 2003, he has been responsible for scouting the mid-west United States. Dengler joined the Jaguars from the National Football Scouting combine, where he was an area scout in the northeast and mid-Atlantic regions the previous four years. He has some additional pro personnel responsibilities as well.

Previously, he was an assistant head coach, offensive line coach and defensive backfield coach at St. Joseph's (Ind.) College (1992-95); offensive coordinator, interim head coach and offensive line coach at Tiffin University (1990-92); a graduate assistant at Bowling Green (1988-90); and an assistant high school coach in Circleville, Ohio.

He received a degree in history at Heidelberg College and a master's in secondary education at Bowling Green. He was born Sept. 9, 1963 in Berea, Ohio. He and his wife, April, live in Circleville, Ohio, with their daughters Emily and Abigail.

CHRIS DRIGGERS REGIONAL SCOUT

Chris Driggers is in his eighth year in scouting with the Jaguars. He has been a college scout for six years following two years as a scouting assistant and three years in football operations. He scouts the southwest United States for the Jaguars and has some additional pro personnel responsibilities.

Driggers joined the Jaguars on October 11, 1994 as the salary cap administrator, assisting in preparing player contract proposals, salary cap administration and negotiating player contracts. He became a scouting assistant in 1998, assisting in the evaluation of free agents and college and pro players. He is one of 17 staff members who celebrated their 10th anniversary with the Jaguars last season.

Driggers, a native of Jacksonville, graduated from the University of Alabama with a degree in finance. He and his wife, Alyson, have three sons, Thomas, Travis and Tyler.

KADAR HAMILTON BLESTO SCOUT

Kadar Hamilton was hired on June 21, 2004, as the southeast area scout for the BLESTO scouting organization. He is responsible for providing evaluations, background and resources on draft eligible players to the team. A former strong safety and special teams player, Hamilton attended training camps with the St. Louis Rams and New England Patriots. His NFL experience also includes a stint with the NFL Europe League's Barcelona Dragons.

Following his pro playing career, he spent four years in the private sector. Kadar's father, Ray, is the Jaguars defensive line coach.

Hamilton earned a bachelor's degree in economics from Stanford University in 1998. He has a 4-year old son, Xander, and lives in Smyrna, Ga.

MARTY MILLER REGIONAL SCOUT

Marty Miller is in his fourth season with the Jaguars, joining the organization on February 21, 2002 as the team's scouting assistant. As a regional scout he works the northeast United States, as well as the scouting of players in the Canadian Football League. Previously, Miller assisted in the pro scouting department, evaluating players in the NFL, the CFL, the Arena League and doing some advance scouting of NFL teams and their practice squads.

Miller previously worked as director of football administration for the Los Angeles Xtreme of the XFL. He has also worked as a staff assistant for the San Diego Chargers and the Kansas City Chiefs. He is the son of Les Miller, a longtime NFL personnel director, and he has a brother, Matt, who coaches at Kansas State. A graduate of Pacific Christian College, Miller was born on February 28, 1969. He and his wife, Kerinda, live in Jacksonville with daughter, Channing.

ART PERKINS REGIONAL SCOUT

Art Perkins joined the Jaguars as their West Coast region scout on May 13, 2003. He spent six years in the same capacity with the Baltimore Ravens. Perkins' experience as a professional football player, coach, and administrator spans more than 30 years. He also has some additional pro personnel responsibilities.

A fourth-round draft choice of the Los Angeles Rams in 1962, Perkins was named to the All-Rookie team as a running back. His playing career lasted nine years as a running back for the Rams (1962-64) and in the CFL with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers from 1964 to '66 and Edmonton Eskimos from 1967 to '70.

Perkins landed his first coaching job in 1972 as offensive coordinator for the semipro L.A. Mustangs. He directed the Mustangs' offense before joining Compton (Calif.) College, where he spent 24 years. Perkins started out as an offensive coach (1974-77) before being promoted to director of cooperative education. In that position (1977-79), he coordinated a program between upper level management of large American companies and college students to provide the students with practical experience and training that would enhance their employment opportunities after graduation. Beginning in 1979, Perkins served as a physical education professor and head football coach at Compton College. He also held the title of athletic director from 1979 to '89. Perkins served as a personnel scout for the New York Jets (1994-96) before joining the Ravens in 1997. With both the Jets and Ravens, he worked closely with James Harris.

He received a master's degree from Pepperdine University and also attended California State University at Dominguez Hills and North Texas State. He and his wife, Elise, have a son, Jacque. They live in Los Angeles.

LARRY WRIGHT SCOUT

Larry Wright Jr. was hired as a scout on February 1, 2003. He assists in scouting college players, evaluating players in the Arena League, scouting NFL restricted and unrestricted free agents and evaluating players on other teams' rosters, as well as assisting in advanced scouting of Jaguars' opponents.

Wright was the head coach at Ringgold (La.) High School in 2001 and '02, and previously was a graduate assistant at Grambling, a scouting intern with the Baltimore Ravens, and a strength and conditioning coach for the Grambling basketball team.

He earned a degree in sociology at LouisianaTech, where he was a three-year letterman and team captain, and received a master's degree in sports administration at Grambling. He and his wife, Vincincia, have a daughter, Victoria. They live in Jacksonville.

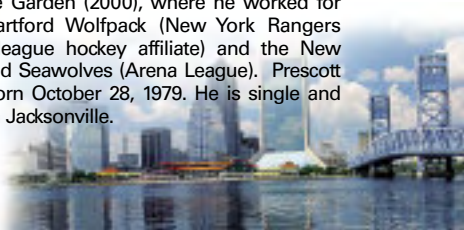

CHRIS PRESCOTT SCOUTING ASSISTANT

Chris Prescott was promoted to scouting assistant on May 13, 2003 after serving as a scouting intern for the previous year. He assists in the day-to-day operations of the scouting department, as well as some college scouting and the evaluation of unrestricted NFL free agents and players in the NFL Europe League, Canadian Football League and Arena League. He also works with and hosts unrestricted free agents in the spring.

Prescott played safety for four years at Western New England (Springfield, Mass.), where he received a degree in sport management. A native of Bridgeport, Conn., he interned for the Bridgeport Bluefish minor-league baseball team (1999) and for Madison Square Garden (2000), where he worked for the Hartford Wolfpack (New York Rangers minor-league hockey affiliate) and the New England Seawolves (Arena League). Prescott was born October 28, 1979. He is single and lives in Jacksonville.

MIKE PERKINS VIDEO DIRECTOR

Mike Perkins is the Jaguars' video director, and his primary responsibilities include compiling and editing all game and practice tapes for coaches' analysis, cataloging NFL game tapes and producing "cut-ups." He also manages all video equipment and design of the Jaguars' video department, including implementing the team's state-of-the-art Pinnacle editing system. Perkins was one of 17 staff members who celebrated their 10th anniversary with the Jaguars last season.

Perkins was hired by the Jaguars on May 12, 1994 after serving as video coordinator for three years at Syracuse. Prior to that, he served with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as assistant video director from 1987 to '90. Perkins was born May 24, 1967 in Tuscaloosa, Ala. Perkins and his wife, Jennifer, live in Jacksonville.

DREW HAMPTON EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Drew Hampton was named equipment manager on July 2, 1998 after serving one year as assistant equipment manager. His responsibilities include ordering, issuing and maintaining all uniforms and footwear, players' protective equipment, coaches' and support staff apparel, as well as ordering and maintaining all field equipment and supervising its transport for home and away games. In 2004, Hampton was named the National Football League's "Equipment Manager of the Year" by vote of his peers, and was presented the Whitey Zimmerman Award.

Before coming to Jacksonville, Hampton had worked in the New York Jets' equipment room on a part-time and full-time basis since he was 13 years old. His father, Bill Hampton, was the Jets' equipment manager for 39 years until retiring in 2001 (he moved to Florida and now assists his son on game days). Drew's brother Bill Jr. was vice president of operations for the Cleveland Browns, and another brother, Clay, is the equipment manager for the Jets. Hampton was born July 29, 1966 in Long Island, N.Y. He and his wife, Janine, have three daughters: Paige, Peyton and Haley.

MICHAEL RYAN
HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER/PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Michael Ryan has been the Jaguars' head athletic trainer since June 1, 1994, after serving as assistant athletic trainer/physical therapist for the New York Giants since May 1988. In 2003, Ryan and his staff won the prestigious Ed Block Courage Award, given to the NFL's top athletic training staff.

This is his 18th season in the NFL and Ryan is one of 17 staff members who celebrated their 10th anniversary with the Jaguars.

Ryan is president of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers' Society Research and Education Foundation and the author of numerous sports medicine articles. He continues to lecture on various sports medicine topics throughout the United States and in Mexico and Europe, and he was the keynote speaker at the grand opening of the Kennedy Space Center Rehab and Fitness Center. His career has included working as an athletic training intern with the Giants during preseason training camps from 1984 to '86.

Ryan attended Central Connecticut State, where he received a bachelor's degree in athletic training in 1985. He was a scholar-athlete, earning six varsity letters in cross country, indoor and outdoor track. He also earned a degree in physical therapy from the University of Connecticut in 1988.

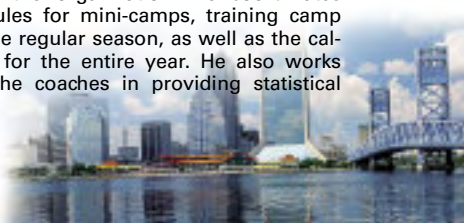

An avid runner, Ryan has participated in countless unique races and triathlons, including Ironman Triathlons in Hawaii (1994), New Zealand (1996), Canary Island (1998), Brazil (2000) and Idaho (2004), the Escape from Alcatraz Triathlon, and the 2002 World Championship Duathlon, in which he finished 14th in his age group. Other races include the 1992 and '99 Running with the Bulls in Pamplona, Spain, the Race Up the Empire State Building in New York and the 1996 Boston Marathon. Ryan was born February 5, 1963 in Framington, Mass. He and his wife, Samantha, live in Ponte Vedra.

DEVIN BONIK
ASSISTANT TO HEAD COACH

Devin Bonik joined the Jaguars as the assistant to the coaching staff/special projects on April 10, 2003. He works directly with the coaching staff providing administrative support as well as acting as a liaison between coaching and other departments within the organization. He coordinates schedules for mini-camps, training camp and the regular season, as well as the calendar for the entire year. He also works with the coaches in providing statistical analysis and putting together the scouting reports for upcoming opponents.

Bonik came to the Jaguars from Forever Sports Inc., a company he founded in 1987 that operates residential youth football camps featuring instruction from NFL players and college coaches. In 14 years, more than 25,000 youth attended football camps held in 17 NFL cities. Bonik was an assistant coach at Oklahoma State in 1985 and '86, after serving as an administrative assistant at Conoco Oil from 1982 to '84. He received a degree in business administration in 1982 from Oklahoma State, where he played outside linebacker for three seasons under Jimmy Johnson. Bonik was born May 16, 1961 in Corning, N.Y. He is single and lives in Jacksonville.

DR. CARLOS TANDRON HEAD TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Carlos Tandron is in his fifth season as the Jaguars' head team physician after serving as the Jaguars' associate orthopaedic surgeon from 1995 to 2000. He is responsible for all orthopaedic matters dealing with injuries to joints and muscles, as well as surgical procedures.

Dr. Tandron is a graduate of Georgia Tech University and Emory Medical School in Atlanta, and he did his internship and residency at Emory University Affiliated Hospitals. He maintains a private practice at Jacksonville Orthopaedic Institute and is a member of the active staff at Baptist Medical Center. He is a member of the NFL Team Physician Society, the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgeons and American Medical Association. Dr. Tandron is a team physician for Jacksonville University, Florida Community College-Jacksonville and Bishop Kenny High School. Dr. Tandron was born July 3, 1958 in Santa Clara, Cuba. He and his wife, Jenny, have two sons, Carlos and Max, and two daughters, Alexia and Marissa.

DR. DAVID MURRAY CHIEF MEDICAL OFFICER

Dr. David Murray is in his 11th season as the team's chief medical officer. He is responsible for all matters dealing with illnesses and non-orthopaedic injuries for the players, coaching and administrative staffs.

Dr. Murray is a graduate of Yale University and the West Virginia

University School of Medicine. He did his internship and residency in internal medicine at Shands Jacksonville, and is board certified in internal medicine, sports medicine and geriatrics. A director of Emergency Resources Group, Dr. Murray actively practices emergency medicine at its six hospitals in northeast Florida. Sports medicine has long been an interest of Dr. Murray. He was involved with the Jacksonville Tea Men of the North American Soccer League (1980 to '81) and the Jacksonville Bulls of the USFL (1984 to

'86). Presently a member of the Jacksonville Sports Medicine program, he is involved in the pre-participation screening of public school athletes in the area, as well as college athletes at Jacksonville University and the University of North Florida.

Born July 7, 1947 in Spencer W. Va., Dr. Murray and his wife, Cynthia are active in the preservation of the historic San Marco section of Jacksonville. They are the parents of a son, David, and a daughter, Lida.

DR. ANDY RUFFETT TEAM NEUROPSYCHOLOGIST

Dr. Andy Ruffett received his bachelor's degree from Dartmouth College in 1974 (magna cum laude) and received his Ph.D in clinical psychology from Purdue University in 1980. Since completing his internship training at the Indiana University Medical Center, he has worked as a clinical psychologist and neuropsychologist in a variety of inpatient and outpatient settings.

He has been in full-time private practice in Jacksonville since 1988, specializing in adult neuropsychological assessment.

Dr. Ruffett has been married for 31 years to his wife, Susan, who is a reading coach for teachers in the Duval County School System. He and his wife have two grown children.

SCOTT LOFT EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, TICKET SALES AND MARKETING

Scott Loft, who joined the organization in August 2002, was named executive director of ticket sales and marketing for the Jaguars in 2004. He is responsible for all aspects of ticket sales, including season and group ticket sales, sales management, ticket operations, customer service, premium seat sales and service, and ticket marketing.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Loft was vice president of sales for the Nashville Predators of the National Hockey League. He was one of the first employees of the expansion team and was responsible for forming the ticket sales and service departments in an attempt to sell 12,000 season tickets in six months to gain the NHL franchise. The Predators sold more than 12,000 tickets in that time, the first NHL or NBA franchise to do so. The Predators played to more than 90 percent capacity and received a 95 percent "outstanding" or "good" customer service rating from their fans during Loft's four seasons with the franchise. Before joining the NHL, he spent one season as vice president of ticket sales for the Chicago Wolves of the International Hockey League, and nine seasons as director of ticket sales of the NBA's Philadelphia 76ers.

Loft received a bachelor's degree in sports administration from Ball State in 1988 and a master's degree in sports management from Temple in 1990. He lives in Fleming Island, Fla. with his wife Cathy and nine-year old son Josh.

SKIP RICHARDSON EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, FOOTBALL OPS/FACILITIES

After serving four years as director of security for the Jaguars, Skip Richardson was named director of football operations in 1999 before being promoted to executive director this year. He oversees all administrative matters for the football operations department, including player programs, team travel and security, as well as coordination and management of the team's facilities. He is a member of the NFL security task force that was established after September 11, 2001. Richardson also worked with Paul Tagliabue's staff regarding security for Super Bowl XXXIX in Jacksonville.

In 2000, the Jaguars were honored with the "Most Outstanding Player Development Program" award at NFL meetings in San Diego.

A veteran of 23 years in law enforcement, Richardson joined the Jaguars on July 21, 1995. He still directs every phase of security for the team, as well as handling security matters involving the NFL office. He works closely with local, state and federal law enforcement agencies. Richardson was previously a police S.W.A.T. team supervisor for the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and planned security for all special events held in Jacksonville, such as the annual Florida-

Georgia game, the Gator Bowl and the Jazz Festival. Richardson retired as a supervisor from the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office in 1995.

He received a degree in criminology from Florida State University. A native of Jacksonville, Richardson is active in the Police Athletic League. Richardson in past years has been active in Big Brothers/Big Sisters and the Jacksonville Symphony Guild. He is a member of the American Society for Industrial Security, National Association of Chiefs of Police, and the Florida Association of Licensed Investigators.

Richardson was born December 31, 1953. He and his wife, Ann, have a son, Brett, and a daughter, Kristen.

BRUCE SWINDELL EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Bruce Swindell is responsible for the development, procurement, implementation and management of computer-related technology and training within the Jaguars organization. This support extends to all facets of the organization, and includes database and application development and support, network administration, help desk support and hardware maintenance.

Promoted to executive director this year, Swindell guided the development of the team's award-winning website (www.jaguars.com) when it went online in 1996. Swindell joined the Jaguars on November 29, 1994, following 21 years of service in the U.S. Navy. Prior to joining the Jaguars, he managed a software development and maintenance facility and served as a database administrator in Charleston, S.C. During his Naval career, he served in various locations throughout the United States and the world, including Iceland, Puerto Rico and the British Indian Ocean Territories.

Swindell was born December 1, 1954 in Woodbury, N.J., and received a degree in business administration from Limestone College in Gaffney, S.C. He and his wife, Jane, have a son, Wade, and a daughter, Erica.

MACKY WEAVER EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP

Macky Weaver was named to the position of executive director in May of 2004. He is responsible for overseeing the sales and service of all sponsor inventory associated with the Jaguars and Alltel Stadium.

In addition, he is responsible for the sales of the Jaguars media department, including Jaguars radio and TV broadcasting as well as jaguars.com, the team's website. Unique to the NFL, this allows the Jaguars unprecedented control of the sales efforts of the team.

He originally joined the Jaguars on May 15, 1994 as an account executive in corporate sponsorship. He was promoted director of corporate sponsorship in December of 1997.

Weaver was born May 21, 1965 in Atlanta and moved to Jacksonville in 1976. He received a degree in economics from the University of Georgia in 1987. He and his wife, Reppard, have two sons, Jimmy and Evans.

TIM BEACH DIRECTOR, SPECIAL EVENTS/PROMOTIONS

Tim Beach is in his first season as director of special events/promotions. He is responsible for Jaguars game operations, including the game day entertainment, promotions, large screen video displays, audio operations, half-time events, cheerleading team, mascot programs, and most of the Jaguars non-game events.

He came to the Jaguars on April 4th, 2005 from the New York Islanders Hockey Club and New York Dragons Arena

Football Club where he was the vice president of game operations and events. He started his career in 1989 with the New York Yankees, as the assistant director of video operations. He joined the Islanders in 1992 as the team's first-ever director of game events. In 1998 he left the Islanders for the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim to become the manager of game entertainment. He returned to the Islanders in January of 2001. He has worked over 2,500 professional sporting events and has been a part of the game day personnel of the Jets, Yankees, New York/New Jersey Metrostars, New York Rangers, World Cup of Soccer (1994), and the World Cup of Hockey (1996, 2004).

Beach graduated from Quinnipiac

College in Hamden, Conn. in 1990 with a degree in mass communications. He was born on May 17, 1968 in Kings Park, N.Y. He is single and resides in Jacksonville.

TIM BISHKO DIRECTOR, TICKET OPERATIONS

Timothy Bishko has been the director of ticket operations for the Jaguars since 2000. He is responsible for ticket operations and ticket distribution. Bishko joined the Jaguars in September 1994 as a ticket specialist, and he worked his way up the ranks to his current position. Prior to joining the Jaguars, he was an intern in the athletic department at Jacksonville University.

Bishko received an associate degree in sports administration from Becker College in 1991 and a bachelor's degree in sport management from the University of Massachusetts in 1994. He was born November 3, 1971 in Hadley, Mass. Bishko is single and lives in Jacksonville.

JENNIFER PERKINS DIRECTOR, MARKETING

Jennifer Perkins served as director of creative services since May 2, 2002 until being named director of marketing this year. She had been the Jaguars' manager of creative services for the previous two years. She is responsible for advertising and marketing initiatives for ticket sales, corporate sponsorship and event promotions, as well as brand management for the team.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, she worked for Cook Marketing Communications for seven years. She was an account executive for the last four years and handled the Jaguars' account from 1997 to 2000 until joining the team.

Perkins graduated from Hollins College in Roanoke, Va. in 1993 with a degree in communications. She was born on July 24, 1971 in Rochester, Minn. and grew up in Jacksonville. Perkins and her husband, Mike, live in Jacksonville.

CHRIS SINCLAIR DIRECTOR, BROADCASTING

Chris Sinclair was named director of broadcasting on January 14, 2004. He oversees the combined efforts of the Jaguars television and radio productions, as well as other special broadcast projects. In addition to overseeing creative and production aspects of all programming, he is also responsible for the maintenance and supervision of the Jaguars Television Network, and works in conjunction with the Jaguars' television partner to create and execute programming.

The Jaguars broadcasting department has received three Emmy Awards for excellence in sports television programming. Sinclair also co-produces the Jaguars Radio game broadcasts.

Sinclair joined the Jaguars in 1994, and has served as a production assistant, the executive radio producer, and the manager of broadcasting in his 11 years with the club.

He graduated from the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse University with a degree in broadcast journalism.

Sinclair was born April 27, 1972 in Arlington Heights, Illinois. He and his wife, Kristina, live in Jacksonville.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 2005

- The Jaguars to have a winning season in back-to-back years and for the sixth time in 11 years in the NFL.
- Marcus Stroud to return to the Pro Bowl for a third straight year and for John Henderson to go to the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive season.
- Fred Taylor to have his fourth consecutive 1,000 yard season and sixth in his eight seasons in the NFL. With 552 all-purpose yards in 2005, Taylor would surpass 10,000 career all-purpose yards and would be the second Jaguars player to do so. He enters 2005 with 9,448 yards.
- Jimmy Smith to have his ninth 1,000-yard season of his career. Smith currently ranks 12th all-time with 792 career receptions and 14th all-time with 11,264 receiving yards. With 59 catches, he will move into the top seven in all-time receptions and with 882 receiving yards will move into the top 10 in receiving yards.
- Donovan Darius to lead the secondary in tackles for the eighth consecutive season and to have over 100 tackles for the seventh time in eight seasons.
- Donovan Darius to break the Jaguars career record for interceptions, held by Aaron Beasley with 15. Darius enters 2005 with 14 career interceptions.
- Brad Meester to extend his team record of starting all 80 career games since being drafted in 2000.
- Mike Peterson to lead his team in tackles for the fourth consecutive season and to surpass 100 tackles for the sixth time in seven seasons in the NFL. With 127 tackles, he would surpasses 1,000 tackles for his career.
- Akin Ayodele to record his fourth consecutive 100-tackle season with the Jaguars. He has averaged 130 tackles a season and at that rate will become only the third Jaguar to surpass 500 career tackles in Jacksonville.
- Deon Grant to start all 16 games for the fifth consecutive season and record at least two interceptions for the fifth straight season.
- <None>

- > In college, Mike was an Athletic Director's Academic Honor Roll student, earning a 4.0 GPA
- > Mike has started 105 games at left guard, nine at center and five at left tackle

2002: Started all 16 games - 15 at left guard and one at center ... Part of offensive line that allowed only 31 sacks in 2002, the lowest total since 1997 (30), and also did not allow a sack in four games in 2002, the first time the Patriots have accomplished that feat since 1995.

2001: Started all 16 regular season games on the offensive line ... One of three Patriots offensive linemen to start all 19 games (Joe Andruzzi and Greg Robinson-Randall) ... Helped pave the way for running back Antowain Smith's four 100-yard games, the highest single-season total since Robert Edwards recorded four in 1998 ...

2000: Started every game for the Detroit Lions, opening the season at center before switching to guard for the fourth through the 10th game ... Returned to start at center for the final five games of the regular season ... Moved to left guard to stabilize a position that had lost three players due to injuries and started Weeks 4-10 ...

1999: Started 15 regular season games and one playoff game for the Lions ... Started 15 of the 16 games, including the playoffs, at center after starting the previous three seasons at left guard ... His one other start came at left tackle in place of Ray Roberts in the season finale at Minnesota (1/2/00) ... Missed season opener at Seattle (9/12) with a left knee injury, but returned to starting lineup for the remainder of the season ... His start at left tackle in the season finale was the fifth of his career at that position, having started two games at that spot midway through 1997 and in the first two games of 1995.

1998: Started every game at left guard ... Played at a high level throughout the season, both in pass protection and in paving the way for Barry Sanders' 10th 1,000-yard rushing season in a row ... He was on the field for every offensive play for the Lions during the season ... Spent considerable time playing center vs. Tampa Bay (9/28) after Jim Pyne left the game with a pulled groin ... Accepted the role as team's long-snapper in PAT and field goal placements for fourth straight season.

1997: Enjoyed a solid season, starting all 16 games, plus the team's NFC wild-card playoff game at Tampa Bay (12/28)... Played with a broken bone in his hand for the final four games of the season, including the playoffs, but did not miss any playing time ... Started 14 games at left guard, shifting to left tackle at Tampa Bay (10/12) and vs. N.Y. Giants (10/19) with Ray Roberts out due to a knee injury ... Major part of an offensive line that opened holes as Sanders set an NFL record with 14 straight 100-yard rushing games and became only the third player ever to rush for over 2,000 yards in a season ... Sanders treated him and the other four starting offensive linemen with a trip to Honolulu for the Pro Bowl in February 1998.

1996: Started 15 games at left guard ... Missed just one game vs. Seattle (11/17) after suffering a sprained ankle at San Diego (11/11) ... Returned to lineup the following week at Chicago (11/24) and remained there for the final four games of the season ... Served as club's snapper for field goals and PAT's for the second consecutive year.

1995: Started seven of 16 regular season games and handled the long-snapping responsibilities on field goals and extra points ... Also served as Detroit's primary backup at left tackle, both guard positions and at center ... Started the first two games of his career at left tackle (a position he had not previously played) due to the contract holdout of Lomas Brown ... Made his NFL starting debut at Pittsburgh (9/3) where he spent the afternoon battling Pittsburgh All-Pro linebacker Greg Lloyd, who recorded just three tackles ... Started at left tackle again the following week at Minnesota (9/10), but was shifted to left guard on the second play of the game to replace injured Doug Widell ...

1994: Saw action in just two games in short-yardage situations ... Active, but did not play in 14 other regular season games and the NFC wild-card game at Green Bay (12/31) ... Served as snapper on field goals and PATs in preseason.

1993: Saw action in eight games as a reserve his rookie season ... Made his NFL debut vs. Seattle (10/17), giving center Kevin Glover relief late in the game ... Also filled in at center for Glover late in the game vs. Tampa Bay (11/7) ... Played on special teams in the final five regular season games and the playoff game vs. Green Bay (1/8).

COLLEGE: Earned consensus first-team All-American and All-Big East Conference honors by The Sporting News, the Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft, Football News and Associated Press as a senior at West Virginia ... One of the six recipients of the NCAA's Top Scholar/Athlete Award ... Finalist for the 1992 Lombardi Award, given to the top lineman in college football ... Did not allow a sack or pressure all year and averaged five knockdown blocks per game. Earned first-team All-Big East Conference honors by AP his junior year ... Recipient of the Ira E. Rogers Award, given to the Mountaineer who shows high leadership and academic qualities as well as football performance ... He was also an Athletic Director's Academic Honor Roll student, earning a 4.0 grade point average ... Graduated with a teaching degree in physical education and health education.

the season and his career. Received offense game ball for the second time ... A week later, became the first Jaguar to post back-to-back 100-yard games, catching a team-leading seven passes for a then-career-high 162 yards. Had receptions of 49 and 41 yards, and picked up first downs on each of the seven catches ... Reached the 1,000-yard mark for the season Dec. 8 at Houston, joining McCardell as the 26th tandem in NFL history to both gain 1,000 receiving yards ... Posted his third 100-yard game in four weeks and scored team's only two TDs Dec. 15 vs. Seattle, finishing with a team-leading eight catches for 124 yards to earn the offense game ball. Had TD catches of 12 and 39 yards to break team's single-season record with seven TD receptions. Took over as team's receiving yardage leader for the first time, moving ahead of McCardell ... Took over the AFC lead in receiving yards when he caught five passes for 75 yards in the season finale vs. Atlanta ... Started all three postseason games and finished third on team with 11 receptions for 174 yards and two touchdowns ... Started for the first time in the second postseason game of his career in the Dec. 28 Wild-Card game at Buffalo and led the team with five receptions, including a critical two-yard TD on a screen pass in the fourth quarter to tie the game at 27-27 ... Led the team with 71 receiving yards on three catches on Jan. 4 at Denver in the Divisional Playoffs, including a 16-yard TD catch in the fourth quarter to give the Jaguars a 30-20 lead with 3:39 remaining ... Made three receptions for 45 yards in the Jan. 12 AFC Championship game at New England ...

1995: Tied for team lead with five touchdowns and was the only player to score TDs three different ways, with three receiving, one on a kickoff return and one on a blocked punt return ... Made 22 receptions for 288 yards to rank sixth on the team and was the top kickoff returner with a 22.5-yard average on a team-high 24 returns ... Also tied for third in special teams tackles with 11 ... Started four of 16 games played ... Had all of his 22 receptions and five touchdowns in the second half of the season ... Only wide receiver on the team to play in every game ... Played as a reserve wide receiver in the first eight games, as well as returning kickoffs and on special teams ... Made his first NFL reception Oct. 29 at Pittsburgh and four for the game ... Was Steve Beuerlein's target on a two-point conversion attempt at the end of a 17-16 loss at Tampa Bay on Nov. 19, catching the pass but unable to keep both feet in bounds ... Made his first NFL start Nov. 26 vs. Cincinnati for injured Willie Jackson and responded with his first NFL TD reception, a 31-yarder from Beuerlein. Finished with four catches for 55 yards to rank second on the team ... Had a big game Dec. 3 at Denver, scoring three touchdowns three different ways — a 14-yard reception, an 89-yard kickoff return and on a blocked punt recovered in the endzone. Marked his second straight game with a TD while personally scoring the team's last four TDs. Scored the franchise's first TD off a blocked punt at end of the first half after Mike Dumas blocked Tom Rouen's kick into the endzone. Kickoff return TD came on a kick fielded by Desmond Howard, who ran five yards, stopped and threw across the field to Smith, who ran up the left sideline to cover the final 89 yards for the first touchdown on a kickoff return in franchise history. His third TD was on a 14-yard pass from Beuerlein ... Made his second start of the season Dec. 10 vs. Indianapolis and had a team-leading seven receptions for 79 yards and one TD, a four-yarder from Mark Brunell, which extended his streak to three consecutive games with a TD catch and gave him a total of five TDs in a three-game stretch ... Signed with Jacksonville as a veteran free agent on Feb. 28 ...

1994: Was waived by the Dallas Cowboys on July 11 and signed by Philadelphia on July 19 ... Spent preseason with the Eagles, catching five passes for 68 yards and returning 13 kickoffs for 265 yards (20.4 average) ... Waived by the Eagles Aug. 29, one day after the final cuts ... Out of football rest of the year ...

1993: In the preseason, was Dallas Cowboys' receiving leader with 13 catches for 197 yards until undergoing an emergency appendectomy prior to the final preseason game ... Was placed on the reserve/non-football injury list on Sept. 2 for the entire season ...

1992: Suffered a broken right leg in training camp July 19 and spent the first five weeks of the regular season on injured reserve ... Returned to practice Sept. 28 and was placed on team's active roster on Oct. 7 ... Played in seven of the last 12 regular-season contests and three in the playoffs, including Super Bowl XXVII ... Had no receptions but made one tackle on special teams ... Drafted in the second round, the 36th player overall and third wide receiver behind Desmond Howard and Carl Pickens.

COLLEGE: Completed his career with 107 receptions for 2,047 yards (19.1-yard average) and 16 touchdowns, adding 19 rushing attempts for 138 yards and one TD ... As a senior, led team with 43 receptions for 804 yards (18.4 average) to earn second-team All-SWAC honors ... Played in the Senior Bowl ... In his junior year, teamed with Tim Barnett (former Kansas City Chief) as the top wide receiver tandem in the nation ... Had a team-leading 40 catches for 877 yards (21.3 avg.) and nine TDs as a junior... Graduated in 1992 with a degree in business management.

PERSONAL: Married (Sandra) with a son Jimmy Lee III (10/21/95), twins Jaden and Dalys (4/8/01) and son Dyson (4/3/03) ... Lives in Jacksonville ... Attended Calloway High in Jackson, Miss., earning All-Conference honors ... Served as honorary chairman in 2002 for American Lung Association of Florida's 2002 Oxygen Ball fundraiser ... Jaguars' 1999-2000 NFL-United Way co-spokesman with Keenan McCardell ... Has asthma and partnered with the American Lung Association of Florida for an ongoing asthma awareness campaign. Has done a public service announcement with then-Jacksonville Mayor John Delaney and appeared on poster with teammate and fellow asthma sufferer Chris Hanson ... Annually donates $100 per reception and $500 per touchdown to Wolfson Children's Hospital. Funds are utilized in part for the hospital's Jimmy Smith Scholarship Fund, which insures that no child or adult with asthma will be turned away from the asthma education programs due to a lack of health insurance or inability to pay. Other asthma-related community efforts included serving as honorary chairman for the Christmas Seals Campaign of Northeast Florida and participating in the American Lung Association's Open Airways for Schools Program ... For last seven years, has hosted the Jimmy Smith/Keenan McCardell Football Camp for 200 kids, teaching football skills ... Recognized as the 1999 Volunteer of the Year by the American Lung Association and Thoracic Societies of Florida, Georgia and South Carolina for his support in helping victims of lung-related diseases ... 1999 honorary chairman for "Chairs that Care" fundraiser to benefit Wolfson Children's Hospital. Personalized and signed a child-sized chair made by Ethan Allen Home Interiors and covered in football leather donated by Wilson Athletics. Of the nine celebrities who designed and signed chairs — including Michael Jordan, Bill Cosby, Barbara Bush, Elton John, John Travolta and Jeff Gordon — Smith's chair brought the highest donation ($10,000). Funds were used for the re-design of the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit, critical research in childhood asthma and the expansion of the Bone Marrow Transplant Unit ... His father, Jimmy Sr., attended Jackson State and was drafted by the Cincinnati Bengals as a tight end in 1968 ... Full name: Jimmy Lee Smith Jr.

WHY JAGUARS?

Finalists in the contest to name the NFL's expansion team in Jacksonville included Sharks; Stingrays and even Panthers; but it was "Jaguars" that was ultimately selected and announced on December 6, 1991. Utilizing the services of the marketing experts from NFL Properties' Creative Services division and with the partners of Touchdown Jacksonville!, the enthusiastic fans of Jacksonville finally had a name to call what just less than two years later would become the 30th franchise to join the NFL.

Although thousands of entries were received when a contest was held to name the team; a majority of hundreds agreed with the name "Jacksonville Jaguars." Of those who submitted the name Jaguars; Jacksonville resident Ray Potts was randomly selected as the contest winner and for his contribution was provided a trip to the Super Bowl that year.

Considered the most aggressive and feared big cats in North America; the Jacksonville Jaguars look to pay tribute to their namesake in championship form.

Baltimore. Scored his first touchdown of season. Also caught season-high seven passes for 45 yards, his most receptions in a game since 9/20/98 ... Had his first 100-game of season and started what would become a nine-game streak in Oct. 16 Monday night game at Tennessee, rushing 20 times for 112 yards. Had 71-yard run that was his second longest in regular season ... On Oct. 22 vs. Washington, ran 22 times for 124 yards and caught four passes for 33 yards ... Rushed 31 times for 107 yards and caught two passes for nine yards on Oct. 29 at Dallas. Marked team-record third straight 100-yard game, breaking a record he had set three times previously and shared with James Stewart. His 31 carries marked second most of his career and were one shy of the team record. Received an offense game ball ... Had fourth consecutive 100-yard game on Nov. 12 vs. Seattle, when he rushed 21 times for 103 yards. Also scored on a 10-yard run for his second TD of the season, and caught five passes for 34 yards ... Had game of his career on Nov. 19 at Pittsburgh, when he set a team single-game record and had what was then the 12th-best rushing performance in NFL history with 234 yards on 30 carries. Scored career-high four touchdowns (three rushing, one receiving) for the second-most TDs ever by a Jaguar (record: 5 by James Stewart), and his 7.8-yard average ranked second on team's single-game list. Rushing yards were most ever allowed by Steelers, breaking O.J. Simpson's Three Rivers Stadium record of 227 yards, and his four TDs tied Jim Brown's high vs. the Steelers. His 234 yards fell only 44 yards short of Corey Dillon's NFL single-game rushing record. Received an offense game ball along with TE Kyle Brady and the offensive line, and was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week and Miller Lite NFL Player of the Week ... Had 24 carries for 104 yards on

Nov. 26 vs. Tennessee and caught team-high four passes for 22 yards, including a 10-yard TD pass from Mark Brunell in the first quarter for a 10-7 lead. Marked his 15th 100-yard game in his first 30 NFL starts, and gave him six 100-yard games for the season, tying his own team record set in 1998 ... In Dec. 3 rout of Cleveland, sat out the fourth quarter but still gained 181 yards on 30 carries, scoring three TDs to earn another offense game ball. Marked his seventh consecutive 100-yard game, breaking his own team record. His 181 yards marked the third-best rushing game in team history and gave him 1,100 yards for season, surpassing the 1,000-yard mark for the second time in three years. Surpassed James Stewart as team's career rushing leader with 3,055 yards (Stewart had 2,955 from 1995-99). Also was his third game with three rushing TDs, and 30 carries was his third most in a game ... Rushed 23 times for 137 yards on Dec. 10 vs. Arizona, scoring two TDs. Received third offense game ball in four weeks. Marked eighth consecutive 100-yard game. With 1,237 yards rushing for the season, broke team's single-season record of 1,223 he set in 1998. Scored a rushing TD in fifth straight game, breaking the team record of four set five times previously (three times by Taylor, once each by James Stewart and Natrone Means) ... Had ninth consecutive 100-yard game on Dec. 17 at Cincinnati, rushing 32 times for 110 yards and one TD. Extended his team record for 100-yard games and tied for the third-longest streak in NFL history with Walter Payton behind Barry Sanders (14) and Marcus Allen (11). Had 1,010 yards in those nine games, an average of 112.2 per game. Extended his team record for 100-yard games in a season with nine. His 32 carries tied his single-game mark set 12/6/98 vs. Detroit, and with 279 attempts through the game broke his season mark of 264 set in 1998. Marked his sixth

TAYLOR HOT IN THE WINTER

Fred Taylor rushed for four 100-yard games in his last six starts in 2004 after beginning the season with one 100-yard game in his first eight. Here is how Fred Taylor performs by month:

MONTH	RUSHING AVG	100-YARD GAMES	TDS
September	75.5	5	7
October	72.3	6	6
November	96.1	13	13
December/January	102.5	11	22

straight game with a touchdown, extending another team record ... Had 100-yard game streak stopped in Dec. 23 season finale at N.Y. Giants. Started but was injured two plays into the second half (hip pointer) and did not return. Rushed 13 times for 52 yards, with a 44-yard TD run, scoring in his seventh straight game, extending his team record ...

1999: Started nine of 10 games played, missing six entirely with a hamstring injury and was limited in several others ... Finished season second on team with 732 yards on 159 carries (4.6-yard average, 52 long) and six touchdowns ... Ranked 12th in AFC in rushing, and his 4.6 average was tied for fourth ... Was healthy in the post-season, turning in two 100-yard games and finishing with 245 yards on 37 carries (6.6 average, 90t long) and one TD, as well as three receptions for 55 yards (18.3 average, 39t long) and one TD ... Had three 100-yard games during the regular season, in addition to two in the playoffs ... Gained 27 yards on five carries on Sept. 19 at Carolina before suffering a strained left hamstring in the first quarter (did not return) ... Inactive next game (Sept. 26 vs. Tennessee) ... Started Oct. 3 at Pittsburgh and ran eight times for 28 yards before aggravating his hamstring strain in the second quarter. Did not play in the second half ... Inactive next two games (Oct. 11 at N.Y. Jets and Oct. 17 vs. Cleveland) ... Returned to the starting lineup Oct. 31 at Cincinnati and erupted for 128 yards on 15 carries (8.5 average), including 126 yards in the first half to earn the offense game ball. Scattered 35 yards on his first carry of the game and capped that drive with a one-yard TD plunge for his first score of the year. Later had a season-long 52-yard run to set up a TD. Marked the seventh 100-yard game of his career. Total of 128 yards was just one yard less than his season total entering the game ... Turned in his second-straight 100-yard game Nov. 7 at Atlanta, rushing for 124 yards on a season-high 27 carries. Also gained 54 yards on two receptions for 178 combined yards, then the fourth-best total of his career ... Started Nov. 14 vs. Baltimore and ran seven times for 12 yards and caught one pass for three yards before aggravating his left hamstring strain late in the first quarter (did not return) ... Inactive for next three games (Nov. 21 vs. New Orleans, Nov. 28 at Baltimore and Dec. 2 vs. Pittsburgh) ... Returned to action for the first time in a month in Dec. 13 Monday night game vs. Denver as the backup and set up the game-winning field goal after scoring the go-ahead TD on a 38-yard run with 2:35 remaining. Then, after Denver tied the game, had three carries for 22 yards on the game-winning drive to move the ball to Broncos' five-yard line, setting up the winning field goal on game's final play. Had nine carries for 74 yards, all in the second half after starter James Stewart was injured. ... Made his seventh start of the season and first in five weeks and sparked Dec. 19 win at Cleveland with a game-clinching 41-yard TD run in the fourth quarter. Ran 26 times for 136 yards and one TD as Stewart was inactive. Total of 136 rushing yards was then third best in team history and his second most ... Rushed for 85 yards and scored two TDs on 22 carries in the Jan. 2 season finale vs. Cincinnati ... Started both postseason games ... Rushed for 135 yards and one TD on 18 carries (7.5 average) and scored on his only reception in the Jan. 15 Divisional Playoff vs. Miami. Scored on NFL postseason-record 90-yard run in the first quarter, then scored on a 39-yard reception after taking a short pass

TAYLOR TOPS IN JAGUARS YARDS FROM SCRIMMAGE

In 2004 Fred Taylor collected his third consecutive season with over 1,000 yards rushing and his fifth season with at least 1,500 combined yards from scrimmage. He now has five of the top six marks in team history. Here is a list of the top six combined yards from scrimmage by a Jaguar:

YARDS	PLAYER	YEAR	BREAKDOWN
1,942	Fred Taylor	2003	1,572 rushing; 370 receiving
1,722	Fred Taylor	2002	1,314 rushing; 408 receiving
1,644	Fred Taylor	1998	1,223 rushing; 421 receiving
1,639	Fred Taylor	2000	1,399 rushing; 240 receiving
1,636	Jimmy Smith	1999	0 rushing; 1,636 receiving
1,569	Fred Taylor	2004	1,224 rushing; 345 receiving from Mark Brunell. Did not play in the second half after Jaguars took a 41-0 lead ... Posted his third 100-yard outing in four postseason games in the Jan. 23 AFC Championship game vs. Tennessee. Rushed for 110 yards on just 19 carries (5.8 average). Became the second Jaguar to have back-to-back 100-yard rushing games in the postseason, joining Natrone Means (1996) ...

1998: Had at the time the best season by a running back in Jaguars history, setting 29 team records ... Rushed 264 times for 1,223 yards (4.6-yard average) and 14 touchdowns and caught 44 passes for 421 yards and three TDs ... Led all NFL rookies with 1,223 rushing yards and 1,644 total yards despite having fewer than seven carries in a game five times ... Finished rookie campaign as the sixth-leading rusher in AFC and 10th in NFL ... Led all rookie rushers despite starting only 12 games ... Posted then-team-record six 100-yard rushing games, the most by an NFL rookie since 1995 (Curtis Martin, nine) ... Was the only NFL player with TDs of more than 75 yards both running and receiving ... Scored 17 total touchdowns (tied for second in NFL) and 14 rushing TDs, team single-season records ... Tied for the second-most TDs in the NFL behind Terrell Davis (23) ... Only player in NFL with more than 1,200 yards rushing, 12 rushing TDs, a 4.5-yard average per carry, 40 or more receptions and 1,600 yards total offense ... Finished fourth in AFC with 1,644 total yards from scrimmage ... His 4.6-yard rushing average was fifth in NFL ... Finished third in voting for Rookie of the Year by Associated Press, despite having 327 more total yards, two more 100-yard games and as many touchdowns as Minnesota's Randy Moss ... Selected as second alternate running back for the Pro Bowl ... In his first three games as the main ballcarrier, had runs of 52, 49 and 77 yards, making him only the 11th player in the NFL since 1950 to have runs of 40 or more yards in three consecutive games. The other 10 players were: Lenny Moore (1956), Jim Brown (1958), Clarence Peaks (1960), Curtis McClinton (1962), Gale Sayers (1965), Franco Harris (1972), O.J. Simpson (1976), Ottis Anderson (1980), Bo Jackson (1990) and Barry Sanders (1997) ... Named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month in both September and December, becoming the first player to win the award twice, and was the Miller Lite NFL Player of the Week for his November 15 performance vs. Tampa Bay ... Missed approximately 10 quarters of action because of injuries (did not start the first two games while playing sparingly behind James Stewart; missed the fourth quarter Oct. 12 vs. Miami with a shoulder injury; did not play Oct. 18 at Buffalo because of a shoulder injury; missed more than a quarter on Oct. 25 at Denver with a mild concussion; and missed three quarters on Nov. 29 at Cincinnati after reaggravating his shoulder injury) ... Selected as the recipient of the Jasper Award for Florida Pro Football Player of the Year ... Started the season as the backup to James Stewart, who rushed for more than 100 yards in the first two games before being injured early in Game 3 ... Saw limited action in the Sept. 6 season opener at Chicago, running once for two yards ... Replaced the injured Stewart on Sept. 20 vs. Baltimore and responded with a then-team-record 128 yards rushing and 85 receiving for 213 combined yards to earn AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors, in addition to receiving the offense game ball. Ran 23 times for a 5.6-yard average, including a 52-yard TD run on his first carry for the then-longest rushing TD in team history. Also led team with nine receptions for 85 yards (41 long) ... Made his first NFL start Week 4 at Tennessee and turned in his second straight 100-yard outing, finishing with 116 yards and one TD on 25 carries (4.6 average) to earn the offense game ball for the second straight week ... Ran for 89 yards on only 12 carries (7.4 average) and scored two TDs in Monday night game Oct. 12 vs. Miami before suffering a sprained left shoulder in the third quarter and leaving the game. On the first play from scrimmage, broke free for a 77-yard TD run that marked the longest run from scrimmage in team history. Added a two-yard TD run in the second quarter to break the team record for TDs by a rookie, eclipsing Stewart's previous mark (three) and rookie rushing TD mark (two) set in 1995 ... Inactive Oct. 18 at Buffalo ... Returned to the lineup Oct. 25 at Denver, but was sidelined early after taking a blow to the head ... Scored two TDs for the second time with a franchise-best 78-yard receiving TD and a one-yard run, earning his fourth offense game ball on Nov. 1 at Baltimore. Turned in 165 combined yards with 87 rushing on 22 carries and 78 receiving on his reception. The 78-yard catch topped the previous record 75-yard non-scoring catch by Jimmy Smith on 11/9/97 vs. Kansas City ... Posted his third 100-yard game Nov. 8 vs. Cincinnati, with 118 yards on 27 carries and his sixth rushing TD. Became the first player in Jaguars history to have three 100-yard rushing games in a season. Total of 27 carries tied for the second most in team history. Marked the sixth straight game in which he played that he scored a TD ... Broke free for a 70-yard game-winning TD run with 2:40 left to clinch a 29-24 comeback win on Nov. 15 vs. Tampa Bay, earning his fifth offense game ball. Finished with 128 rushing yards (fourth 100-yard game) to tie his own team record for rushing yardage and scored three TDs for the first time in his career (also scored on runs of six and three yards). Finished with 196 combined yards (128 rush, 68 receiving) for the then second most of his career and then third most in team history. Broke two team records: total TDs scored in a season (11, topping Stewart's 10 in 1996) and single-season rushing attempts by a rookie (142, topping Stewart's 137 in 1995). Tied two team records: rushing TDs in a season (nine, matching Natrone Means' in 1997) and consecutive games scoring a TD (four, matching Means' in 1997). Marked the seventh straight game in which he played that he scored at least one TD ... On Nov. 22 at Pittsburgh, scored a team-record 10th rushing TD of the season on a two-yard run, breaking Means' record. Also broke Mean's team mark for consecutive games scoring a rushing TD, with five. Had a breakout game Dec. 6 vs. Detroit with a then-franchise-record 183 rushing yards on a record 32 carries and scored two TDs, becoming the first 1,000-yard rusher in team history with 1,005 yards. Turned in his fifth 100-yard rushing game to earn another offense game ball. Finished with 206 combined yards, including 23 on three receptions. Had a 31-yard run for his eighth play of 30-plus yards on the season. On his first carry, broke Means' team record for single-season rushing yards (823 in 1997), and later broke Jimmy Smith's record for combined yards from scrimmage in a season (1,324 in 1997). Eclipsed his own previous team record of 128 rushing yards, as well as the rushing attempt record of 29 by James Stewart. Marked his fourth game with two or more TDs ... Got his sixth 100-yard game of the season Dec. 20 at Minnesota, rushing for 105 yards on 23 carries. With 42 receptions on the season broke the team's rookie record, topping Pete Mitchell's 41 catches in 1995. Was team's leading rusher as well as leader in receptions for the third time ... Scored two TDs in the Dec. 28 season finale vs. Pittsburgh and finished his rookie season with 17 total TDs to tie for third among rookies in NFL history, both for rushing TDs and total TDs. Rushed for 71 yards on 21 carries, with a 12-yard TD run, and caught two passes for 21 yards and a nine-yard TD. His 17 TDs tied Randy Moss for second in the NFL behind Terrell Davis (23). Received his seventh offense game ball. ... Started both playoff games ... Posted the third-best game by a rookie running back in NFL postseason history on Jan. 3 vs. New England with 162 yards on a career-high 33 carries. Also scored one touchdown and earned another offense game ball. Scored on 13-yard run in the second quarter for a 12-0 lead and had 46-yard run in the first quarter, which was the second-longest run in team's postseason history. Also turned in the third 100-yard rushing game by a Jaguar in postseason (Means had two), and his 162 yards were the second most in team postseason history to Means' 175 on 12/28/96 at Buffalo. His rushing total of 162 ranks third in NFL postseason history for a rookie, trailing only 204 by Washington's Jimmy Smith (1/31/88 vs. Denver) and 165 by L.A. Chargers' Paul Lowe (1/1/61 vs. Houston). With 33 carries broke Means' team post-season record of 31 on 12/28/96 at Buffalo and topped Taylor's regular-season mark of 32 carries on 12/6/98 vs. Detroit. Named NFL Offensive Player of the Week for the Wild-Card weekend, becoming the first rookie to win the award ... Limited by New York Jets defense to 86 yards on 20 carries in the Jan. 10 Divisional Playoff game ... His 248 rushing yards in two postseason games moved him to fifth in NFL history for rushing yards by a rookie in postsea-

Attention turns to Colts

By Vic Lombardi, regular columnist editor

Jack the Rico went down tonight to spell for 3-0 Jaguars. Omeris remained guarded and cautious in his statements of Monday's press conference, instead had his time moment of a press conference. The game clock for the second or so.

"It was a big win but it's a long season," De La Cade, referring to Sunday's 15-12 win at Tennessee.

Big win? How about a huge win? Well, that's still to be seen. After all, it was the Jaguars' 1st game since the name Oiler.

Wages from Jacksonville 1. In the 1970s, the NFLPA proposed to decrease 40 percent of the players would pay the salary cap for an $100 million. I don't know if that would be enough to put the Jaguars into a Division 1. I don't know if that would be enough to put the Jaguars into a Division 1. JAGUARS 13, BILLS 10

SEPTEMBER 12, 2004
RALPH WILSON STADIUM, ORCHARD PARK, N.Y.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-0)	0	3	3	7	-	13
BUFFALO BILLS (0-1)	7	0	0	3	-	10

The Jaguars kicked off their 10th season in the NFL with a remarkable come-from-behind, 13-10 win at Buffalo on the final play of the game. The Jaguars trailed for 59 minutes and 59 seconds before Byron Leftwich hit Ernest Wilford in the back of the endzone for the game-winning score as time expired. The Bills started the scoring with a 17-yard touchdown pass from Drew Bledsoe to Eric Moulds in the first quarter, but the Jaguars answered with a 25-yard field goal by Josh Scobee before halftime. Scobee kicked another 27-yard field goal to cut the lead to one in the third quarter, before Rian Lindell converted a 25-yard attempt early in the fourth quarter. After trailing 10-6 with 2:07 left in the contest, Leftwich orchestrated the 14-play, 80-yard game-winning scoring drive in which he completed 6 of 11 passes for 72 yards and had a three-yard rush. He converted three fourth down plays – the first a 45-yard pass to Jimmy Smith on fourth-and-14 and a six-yard pass to Troy Edwards on fourth-and-2. The Jaguars ended a nine-game road losing streak with the win.

GAME NOTES

■ For the first time in team history the Jaguars won on a touchdown pass on the final play of the game. The Jaguars had previously won two games on last-second field goals – on 11/26/00 vs. Tennessee and on 12/13/99 vs. Denver.

■ With the win the Jaguars improved to 7-3 on Opening Week, which ranked tops in the NFL. They became 4-1 on the road on Opening Week.

GAME 2 JAGUARS 7, BRONCOS 6

SEPTEMBER 19, 2004

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

DENVER BRONCOS (1-1)	0	6	0	0	-	6
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-0)	0	7	0	0	-	7

The Jaguars improved to 2-0 after defeating the visiting Denver Broncos 7-6 at ALLTEL Stadium. On third-and-nine from the 23 with 37 seconds remaining, Quentin Griffin fumbled the handoff from Jake Plummer and Akin Ayodele recovered to ensure the Jaguars' second victory of the season. The Jaguars began the scoring with a five-play drive early in the second quarter that was started by a 50-yard punt return by Jermaine Lewis. The Jaguars offense traveled 32 yards, and scored on a 12-yard touchdown strike from Byron Leftwich to Ernest Wilford for a 7-0 lead. The Broncos scored on a Jason Elam 44-yard field goal on the next drive and in the final drive of the half Elam connected on a 22-yard field goal after failing to score a touchdown with first-and-goal from the four-yard line. Elam missed a 51-yard attempt at the end of the third quarter. Down 7-6 with 2:20 left in the contest and with Denver starting at its 11-yard line, the Broncos proceeded to drive down the field to the Jaguars 23-yard line in less than two minutes. The drive was extended with a costly 15-yard roughing the passer penalty on DE Lionel Barnes on a third-and-four.

GAME NOTES

- With a 2-0 record the Jaguars stood alone in first place in their division for the first time since the end of the 1999 season.
- Quentin Griffin rushed 25 times for 66 yards as the Jaguars defense did not allow a 100-yard rusher for the 17th consecutive game. That ranked as the best active streak in the NFL.
- Chris Hanson punted nine times for a 44.1 yard average. The nine punts tied a team record for most punts in a game. Hanson also had back-to-back games with punts of 60 yards or longer. He had a 61-yarder vs. Denver after a 69-yarder at Buffalo.

JAGUARS 15, TITANS 12

SEPTEMBER 26, 2004
THE COLISEUM, NASHVILLE, TENN.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (3-0)	0	0	7	8	-	15
TENNESSEE TITANS (1-2)	0	6	0	6	-	12

The Jaguars continued to win in dramatic fashion, defeating the Tennessee Titans, 15-12, on a last second touchdown run by Fred Taylor to improve to 3-0. The win snapped a five-game losing streak to the Titans and was the first win at The Coliseum for Jacksonville. The Titans opened up the scoring with two second-quarter field goals by Gary Anderson from 26 and 40 yards for a 6-0 halftime lead. The Jaguars drove 73 yards on seven plays late in the third quarter and Byron Leftwich hit George Wrihster on a 7-yard touchdown pass, extending his streak of nine consecutive games with a touchdown pass. The Titans returned with a 74-yard drive that was capped by a 26-yard touchdown run by Chris Brown to take a 12-7 lead. With 5:37 remaining in the game, Leftwich led the Jaguars on a 13-play drive in which the Jaguars traveled 69 yards in 5:28 with Taylor rushing one yard for the game-winner with nine seconds remaining.

 ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

INDIANAPOLIS COLTS (3-1)	7	3	7	7	-	24
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (3-1)	0	3	3	11	-	17

The Jaguars' three-game winning streak ended with a 24-17 loss to the Colts at ALLTEL Stadium. With two minutes left, the Jaguars had one last attempt to tie or win the game, but were stopped at the Colts' 45-yard line on fourth-and-one. The Colts began the scoring with a 15-yard touchdown pass from Peyton Manning to Marvin Harrison in the first quarter following a failed fourth-down attempt by the Jaguars on the Colts' 24-yard line. Mike Vanderjagt connected on a 46-yarder to give the Colts a 10-0 lead. In the final 40 seconds of the half, Byron Leftwich drove the Jaguars 61 yards and Josh Scobee hit a 48-yarder as time expired. Scobee hit two more field goals (42 and 22 yards) in the second half, while Manning threw his second touchdown pass to Marcus Pollard. Rookie linebacker Daryl Smith grabbed his first NFL interception in the fourth quarter off Manning, and Leftwich hit Jimmy Smith on a 40-yard touchdown strike on fourth-and-one. After converting on the two-point conversion to rookie tight end Brian Jones, the score stood at 17-17 with 10:45 left to play. Manning again drove the Colts 74 yards for the eventual game-winning score when Edgerrin James ran three yards for the touchdown.

QUALCOMM STADIUM, SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (3-2)	0	7	0	14	-	21
SAN DIEGO CHARGERS (3-2)	14	7	6	7	-	34

The Jaguars lost to the San Diego Chargers 34-21 in their first West Coast trip since 2001. The Chargers dominated the first half, soaring to a 21-0 lead on two Antonio Gates touchdown receptions from Drew Brees and a one-yard plunge by LaDainian Tomlinson. The Jaguars scored on a 15-play, 77-yard drive capped off by a one-yard touchdown run by Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala in the second quarter. Chargers rookie kicker Nate Kaeding connected on two field goals in the third quarter from 21 and 28 yards and Leftwich scored on a two-yard run to cut the lead to 27-14. Back-up running back Jesse Chatman rushed 72 yards in two plays, including a 41-yard touchdown run, and Leftwich threw a touchdown pass to Cortez Hankton to end the scoring. The Jaguars drove down to the Chargers' one-yard line but failed to score on fourth down with 14 seconds remaining in the contest.

RCA DOME, INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (5-2)	0	10	3	14	-	27
INDIANAPOLIS COLTS (4-2)	0	14	0	10	-	24

The Jaguars continued their last-minute heroics with a 27-24 win over Indianapolis. This was the first win ever in Indianapolis after being 0-3 there. With the score tied 24-24, Byron Leftwich drove the Jaguars 30 yards in 3:14 to set up Josh Scobee's 53-yard game-winning field goal with 38 seconds left in the game. The Jaguars began the scoring with a 4-yard touchdown pass from Leftwich to Kyle Brady in the second quarter, and the Colts responded with a 7-yard touchdown pass from Peyton Manning to Marvin Harrison. Scobee hit a 26-yard field goal and the Colts' Dallas Clark caught a 17-yard TD pass to end the first-half scoring. Scobee connected on back-to-back field goals (32, 26) and Mike Vanderjagt hit from 34 yards to give the Colts a 17-16 fourth-quarter lead. The Jaguars came back with a 25-yard TD pass to Jimmy Smith, and Ernest Wilford caught the two-point conversion. The Colts responded with a 39-yard TD strike to Harrison to tie the score before the Jaguars took the lead for good on Scobee's game-winner.

 RELIANT STADIUM, HOUSTON, TEXAS

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (5-3)	0	3	0	3	-	6
HOUSTON TEXANS (4-3)	7	3	0	10	-	20

The Jaguars lost to the Texans in Houston 20-6 to drop their record to 5-3, but they remained in first place in the AFC South with a half-game lead over Houston and Indianapolis. The Texans began the scoring with a 15-yard touchdown pass from David Carr to Corey Bradford in the first quarter. The Jaguars scored in the second quarter on a 44-yard Josh Scobee field goal. Scobee missed a 49-yarder with 21 seconds remaining in the half and the Texans capitalized with a Kris Brown 38-yard kick as time expired. Brown converted on a 21-yard kick in the fourth quarter and Scobee connected on a 36-yard kick on the following drive. The Jaguars, trailing by seven points at 13-7, forced the Texans to punt with 56 seconds remaining, but two plays later Leftwich was intercepted by Demarcus Faggins who returned 43 yards for a touchdown to end the game. Fred Taylor suffered a hip pointer and finished with just three rushing attempts, all in the first quarter.

GAME NOTES

- Byron Leftwich did not throw a touchdown pass, ending his streak of 12 consecutive games with a touchdown pass which was the second-longest streak in team history (14, Brunell).
- With Jimmy Smith's 117 yards receiving, he moved into 15th place in NFL history with 10,795 receiving yards, passing Stanley Morgan (10,716).
- Donovin Darius recovered his fourth fumble of the year, tops in the NFL. The four recoveries also tied the Jaguars' single-season record held by Bryan Schwartz.

GAME 9

JAGUARS 23, LIONS 17 (OT)

NOVEMBER 14, 2004

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

DETROIT LIONS (4-5)	0	0	0	17	0	-	17
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (6-3)	7	3	7	0	6	-	23

The Jaguars continued their dramatic play with a 23-17 overtime win over the Detroit Lions at ALLTEL Stadium. David Garrard started his first game since 2002 in place of injured Byron Leftwich and led the team with 198 yards passing and two touchdowns. Fred Taylor (144 yards rushing) and Jimmy Smith (109 yards receiving) both eclipsed the 100-yard mark in the win. Smith caught the game-winning 36-yard touchdown pass from Garrard in overtime. The Jaguars jumped out to an early 10-0 lead in the first half following a 12-yard touchdown pass from Garrard to LaBrandon Toefield on the opening drive and a Josh Scobee 31-yard field goal before halftime. Greg Jones extended the lead to 17-0 on a 1-yard scoring plunge on the opening drive of the second half. The Lions scored on a 55-yard punt return for a touchdown by Eddie Drummond early in the fourth quarter, and Jason Hanson followed with a 21-yard field goal. With 46 seconds remaining in the game, Drummond returned another punt 83 yards for a touchdown. The Jaguars won the coin toss in overtime and drove 76 yards for the eventual game-winner.

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

TENNESSEE TITANS (4-6)	3	7	0	8	—	18
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (6-4)	0	6	7	2	—	15

The Jaguars lost to AFC South division rival Tennessee Titans 18-15 at ALLTEL Stadium. The loss dropped the Jaguars out of first place in the division. The Titans began the scoring with a 41-yard Gary Anderson field goal in the first quarter and the Jaguars followed with a 35-yard Josh Scobee field goal. Steve McNair threw a 37-yard touchdown pass to Derrick Mason in the second quarter and the Jaguars rallied for a 10-6 score at halftime with a 48-yard Scobee field goal. The Jaguars took the lead on a five-yard touchdown run by David Garrard and Greg Favors sacked McNair in the endzone for a safety and a 15-10 lead. After a missed 44-yard field goal attempt by Scobee, McNair drove the Titans 59 yards in 37 seconds, capped off by an Antowain Smith two-yard touchdown run which gave Tennessee a three-point lead. The Jaguars came up short on a comeback attempt as Garrard's final pass was intercepted by Rich Gardner.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (6-5)	0	13	0	3	-	16
MINNESOTA VIKINGS (7-4)	3	10	7	7	-	27

The Jaguars lost to the Minnesota Vikings 27-16 in the Metrodome. The Vikings began the scoring with a Morten Andersen 25-yard field goal following a Jaguars fumble on their first drive. The Jaguars answered with Byron Leftwich (who returned after missing two weeks with a knee injury) hitting Brian Jones with a 26-yard touchdown pass. Josh Scobee followed with a 33-yard field goal after Donovan Darius intercepted a Daunte Culpepper pass on the next series. Culpepper scored on a 1-yard plunge after a nine play, 80-yard drive. The half ended at 13-13 with each team kicking a field goal – Scobee from 32 yards and Andersen from 33 yards as time expired. The Vikings scored first in the third quarter on a Culpepper to Randy Moss two-yard touchdown pass. Scobee converted his third field goal of the day to pull the Jaguars to 20-16. Leftwich drove the Jaguars 55 yards in 11 plays but he was sacked and fumbled. Vikings defensive tackle Kevin Williams returned the fumble 77 yards for the game-winning touchdown. The Jaguars drove to the Minnesota 15-yard line on the last drive of the game but failed to convert on fourth down.

PITTSBURGH STEELERS (11-1)	7	7	0	3	—	17
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (6-6)	7	0	6	3	—	16

The Jaguars fell to the Pittsburgh Steelers 17-16 on a Jeff Reed 18-yard field goal with 18 seconds left in the game. The loss was the Jaguars' third in a row and dropped them to 6-6 on the season. The Steelers began the scoring on a 37-yard touchdown pass from Ben Roethlisberger to Hines Ward in the first quarter. The Jaguars answered with a 22-yard touchdown pass from Byron Leftwich to Troy Edwards. In the second quarter Jay Riemersma caught a 26-yard touchdown pass, which was reviewed by the officials and upheld. After missing from 32 yards in the second quarter, Josh Scobee connected on three consecutive field goals from 20, 29 and 36 yards in the second half. The 36-yarder put the Jaguars ahead 16-14 with 1:55 remaining in the game. The Steelers then drove 56 yards in six plays for the game-winning kick. With four seconds remaining Scobee missed wide right on a 60-yard attempt.

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

CHICAGO BEARS (5-8)	0	3	0	0	-	3
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (7-6)	7	3	3	9	-	22

The Jaguars ended their three-game losing skid with a 22-3 win over the Chicago Bears at ALLTEL Stadium. The Jaguars began the scoring in the first quarter with a 6-yard touchdown pass from Byron Leftwich to Reggie Williams, the first touchdown reception of Williams' career. The Bears countered with a Paul Edinger 42-yard field goal in the second quarter after he missed wide left on a 47-yard attempt earlier in the quarter. Just before halftime Leftwich drove the Jaguars 56 yards in 1:13 and Josh Scobee connected on a 30-yard field goal. In the third quarter Scobee connected again on a 25-yarder capping off a seven-play, 37-yard drive. After a Chris Hanson punt pinned the Bears on their own four-yard line, Daryl Smith came up with his first career sack which resulted in a safety of Bears quarterback Chad Hutchinson. In total the Jaguars had five sacks of Hutchinson. Jimmy Smith capped off the scoring with a 31-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter. The win improved the Jaguars to 7-6 on the season, marking the most wins since 2000.

LAMBEAU FIELD, GREEN BAY, WISC.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (8-6)	7	7	7	7	—	28
GREEN BAY PACKERS (8-6)	0	10	7	8	—	25

The Jaguars defeated the Packers 28-25 at Lambeau Field in the second-coldest game in team history and the Jaguars' first visit to Lambeau Field. The temperature was 12 degrees at kickoff (-3 wind chill). The Jaguars began the scoring with a three-play, 68-yard scoring drive on their first possession. Fred Taylor ran for 46 yards on the second play from scrimmage and Byron Leftwich followed with a 31-yard TD strike to Jimmy Smith. The Packers answered with a Ryan Longwell 35-yard field goal. The Packers took a 10-7 lead on a controversial 15-yard fumble return for a touchdown by Darren Sharper. The Jaguars ended the first-half scoring with a 16-yard TD pass from Leftwich to Smith. Brett Favre drove the Packers 76 yards in six plays to start the second half, capped off by a 32-yard touchdown pass to Donald Driver. Fred Taylor, who finished the game with a season-high 165 rushing yards, scored on the Jaguars' ensuing drive on a 37-yard run. Greg Jones scored his second touchdown of the season on a fourth-and-one play from the one yard line for a 28-17 lead early in the fourth quarter. Favre attempted another fourth-quarter comeback but was intercepted twice on back-to-back drives by Rashean Mathis and Deon Grant. In total the Packers turned the ball over five times – three interceptions and two fumbles. Antonio Chapman caught a six-yard TD pass and the Packers converted on the two-point play to make it 28-25 with 1:11 left. On the ensuing onsidess kick attempt Nick Sorensen recovered for the Jaguars.

TEXANS 21, JAGUARS 0

DECEMBER 26, 2004

ALLTEL STADIUM, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (8-7)	0	0	0	0	-	0

The Jaguars were shut out by the Houston Texans 21-0 at ALLTEL Stadium in the Jaguars' regular season home finale and finished with a 4-4 record at home. The Jaguars' troubles started before the game when Fred Taylor ended his consecutive starts streak at 46 games, missing the game with a knee injury. The Texans began the scoring on a 10-play, 65-yard drive on their opening possession, capped off with Domanick Davis scoring a touchdown on a one-yard run. On the Jaguars' second possession, Byron Leftwich fumbled the football, and while recovering it, was hit for a loss by Robaire Smith. Leftwich left the game but later returned. The Texans scored another touchdown in the second quarter on a 10-yard pass from David Carr to Andre Johnson. In the final minute of the first half, the Jaguars intercepted two passes and the Texans intercepted one. In the third quarter, Josh Scobee missed wide right on a 31-yard field goal try and snapped his scoring streak at 14 games. Kris Brown's 34-yard attempt was blocked by Akin Ayodele. On the ensuing drive, Leftwich was pulled out of the game and replaced by David Garrard. On the third play of the drive Troy Edwards fumbled after a 12-yard completion and Texans' DL Antwan Peek returned it 66 yards for a touchdown. On the Jaguars' final drive, LaBrandon Toefield fumbled to end the game.

JANUARY 2, 2005

NETWORK ASSOCIATES COLISEUM, OAKLAND, CALIF.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (9-7)	0	3	10	0	—	13
OAKLAND RAIDERS (5-11)	3	3	0	0	—	6

The Jaguars defeated the Raiders 13-6 in Oakland in the regular season finale at Network Associates Coliseum in a driving rainstorm. The Jaguars ended their season at 9-7, posting their first winning season in five years, but missed the playoffs by one game. The Raiders began the scoring with a 12-play, 67-yard drive that was capped by a Sebastian Janikowski 35-yard field goal. The Jaguars tied the score on a Josh Scobee 26-yard field goal in the second quarter. Jimmy Smith lost a fumble with 29 seconds left in the half and the Raiders capitalized on a 27-yard field goal by Janikowski. Scobee connected on his second field goal from 22 yards in the third quarter and on the ensuing drive Greg Jones scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Ernest Wilford made a 46-yard one-handed catch on third-and-nine from the 48-yard line to keep the drive alive. The Raiders drove the ball inside the red zone on their final two possessions but those ended with a Donovan Darius interception — his second of the game — and a Kerry Collins fumble on fourth down to end the comeback attempt.

GAME NOTES

■ The Jaguars won on the road in Oakland for the second time in three trips. They finished with a record of 5-3 in road games, their best since finishing 7-1 on the road in 1999.

■ The Jaguars recorded three interceptions and had at least two interceptions in three consecutive games for the first time in team history. The eight total interceptions in the last three contests were the most ever in a three-game stretch.

■ Josh Scobee connected on two field goals and one extra point and finished the season with 93 points ranking second in team history for rookies behind Fred Taylor's 102 points in 1998.

April 20 — Illinois outside linebacker Kevin Hardy is selected with the Jaguars’ first pick in the 1996 college draft; the second overall player chosen. By the early third round; the Jaguars also draft defensive end Tony Brackens; center Michael Cheever and defensive back Aaron Beasley.

July 19 — The Jaguars open their second training camp; their first at Ferrell Fields at Jacksonville Municipal Stadium. The practice fields were named in memory of Roger Ernest Ferrell Sr. in a morning dedication.

Sept. 1 — The Jaguars open their second season with a 24-9 victory over the defending AFC-champion Pittsburgh Steelers. It marks the first game the Jacksonville defense does not allow a touchdown.

Sept. 22 — Mark Brunell throws for a team-record 432 yards and three touchdowns; but the Jaguars lose their first-ever overtime game; 28-25; at New England.

Sept. 29 — In the first regular-season game between the two 1995 expansion teams; Jacksonville beats Carolina; 24-14; as James Stewart runs for two TDs and the Jaguars rush for a team-record 179 yards.

Oct. 20 — Keenan McCardell catches 16 passes — tied for the third-highest total in pro football history — for a team-record 232 yards. However; despite breaking or tying 28 team records for single-game performances; the Jaguars lose at St. Louis; 17-14.

Nov. 24 — The Jaguars win at Baltimore; 30-27 for their first overtime victory on a 34-yard field goal by Mike Holis.

Dec. 12 — Keenan McCardell becomes the first Jaguar voted to the Pro Bowl. Mark Brunell and Tony Bose are later added as replacements; and Brunell goes on to win MVP honors in the Feb. 2 game in Honolulu.

Dec. 22 — The Jaguars clinch their first playoff berth in franchise history with a 19-17 victory over the Atlanta Falcons; as Morten Andersen’s 30-yard field goal attempt goes wide left.

Dec. 28 — The first second-year expansion franchise in NFL history to play a postseason game; the Jaguars become the first team to defeat the Buffalo Bills in a playoff game in Rich Stadium. Natrone Means leads the way in the 30-27 victory by running for 175 yards.

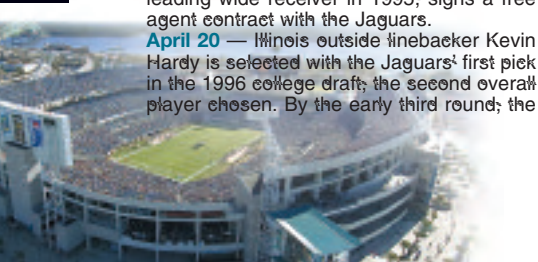

1997

Jan. 4 — The Jaguars post the biggest upset in the NFL since Joe Namath led the Jets to victory in Super Bowl III; as they stun the football world and the Denver Broncos with a 30-27 victory. After flying back to Jacksonville; the team finds 40,000 fans waiting for them at 1:30 a.m. in Jacksonville Municipal Stadium.

Jan. 12 — The Jaguars’ Cinderella season ends short of the Super Bowl; as Jacksonville is defeated by the New England Patriots 20-6 in the AFC Championship game. Jaguars turnovers led to 17 of the Patriots’ 20 points in a game played in a wind chill of zero degrees.

Jan. 23 — David Seldin resigns as Jaguars president but remains a partner.

Feb. 5 — Chris Palmer is named offensive coordinator, replacing Kevin Gilbride who had become head coach of the San Diego Chargers.

March 5 — The Jaguars sign their only 1997 unrestricted free agent, Pittsburgh cornerback Deon Figures.

April 18 — ALLTEL Stadium becomes the new name for Jacksonville Municipal Stadium in a sponsorship agreement with the information technology and communications provider.

April 19 — Jacksonville selects defensive tackle Renaldo Wynn of Notre Dame with the 21st pick of the first round of the NFL draft. In all, the Jaguars draft seven players.

Aug. 9 — QB Mark Brunel# suffers a knee injury in a preseason game against the New York Giants and misses the next four games; including the first two of the regular season.

Aug. 31 — In his first NFL start, Rob Johnson leads the Jaguars to a 28-27 victory at Baltimore in the season opener. Johnson displayed incredible courage in returning twice from a severe ankle sprain; setting a team record with 20 completions in 24 attempts (83.3 percent); 2 TD passes and a 25-yard TD run.

Sept. 7 — The Jaguars win their home opener; 40-13; over the New York Giants as Steve Matthews makes his first NFL start for an injured Rob Johnson. The Jaguars started 2-0 for the first time in team history and set a franchise record with 40 points. It marked the first time in 30 years that a team won twice with two different quarterbacks making their first start in consecutive games.

Sept. 22 — Mark Brunel# returns and leads the Jaguars to a 30-21 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers in the Jaguars' first appearance on "Monday Night Football." Brunel# threw for 306 yards; but the victory wasn't clinched until the final play; when Clyde Simmons blocked a 40-yard game-winning field goal attempt and Chris Hudson returned the ball 58 yards for a touchdown as time expired.

Oct. 12 — James Stewart rushes for five touchdowns in the Jaguars' 38-21 victory over the visiting Philadelphia Eagles. It marks only the fourth time in NFL history and the first time since 1963 that a player scored five TDs rushing in a game; and Stewart became one of only 12 NFL players with five or more touchdowns in one game.

Dec. 11 — Five Jaguars are named to the AFC squad for the Pro Bowl: Tony Boselli; Bryan Barker and Mike Hol#is as starters; and Mark Brunel# and Jimmy Smith as backups.

Dec. 14 — The Jaguars clinch a playoff berth for the second straight year after defeating the Bills; 20-14; in Buffalo one week before the end of the regular season. Keenan McCardel# and Jimmy Smith both go over the 1,000-yard mark; becoming the eighth tandem in NFL history to have back-to-back 1,000-yard receiving seasons.

Dec. 21 — The Jaguars win their team-record 11th game of the season by defeating the Oakland Raiders. The victory gave the team a 4-4 mark on the road for the first time ever; and matched division-winner Pittsburgh's 11-5 record. It takes five tie-breaker steps to determine the Steelers win the division.

Dec. 27 — The Jaguars' third season comes to an end in Denver; with the eventual Super Bowl-champion Broncos winning the Wild-Card playoff; 42-17.

1998

Feb. 13 — Quarterback Rob Johnson is traded to the Buffalo Bills for the ninth pick in the first round and a fourth-round choice in the 1998 NFL draft.

Feb. 16 — The Jaguars sign Buffalo Bills linebacker Bryce Paup; an unrestricted free agent.

April 18-19 — The Jaguars draft 11 players; their most ever; in the NFL draft. Two players are selected in the first round: running back Fred Taylor from the University of Florida with the ninth pick and safety Donovan Darius from Syracuse with the 25th choice.

May 12 — Rick Reiprish; who had been responsible for the Jaguars' first four successful drafts; is promoted to director of player personnel. Fran Foley is named director of pro scouting; and Riek Mue#er is named director of college scouting.

Sept. 20 — Running back James Stewart is injured on the Jaguars' second play of the game and lost for the season. But first-round draft choice Fred Taylor takes over and runs 52 yards for a touchdown on his first carry. The Jaguars defeat the Baltimore Ravens; 24-10; for their third win of the season.

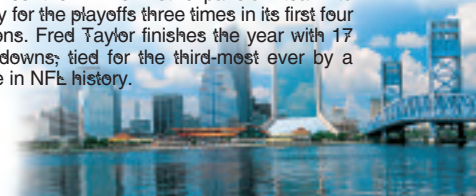

Oct. 12 — The Jaguars post a franchise-best 5-0 start; beating the visiting Miami Dolphins 28-21 on "Monday Night Football" when Mark Brunel# and Keenan McCardel# hook up for two touchdown passes in the fourth quarter. Fred Taylor ran for a 77-yard TD on the game's first play from scrimmage.

Nov. 1 — The Jaguars explode for a team-record number of points in a 45-19 victory at Baltimore. Jacksonville scored six TDs in the first half — the seventh-most ever in a half in NFL history — jumping out to a 42-7 lead. Taylor's 73-yard TD reception becomes the longest play from scrimmage in team history.

Dec. 13 — Mike Hol#is becomes the most accurate field goal kicker in NFL history by making two attempts; giving him an 81.45 percentage in four seasons (101 of 124); dethroning Philadelphia's Chris Boniol.

Dec. 20 — The Jaguars clinch their first-ever AFC Central Division championship prior to kickoff of a Sunday night game at Minnesota; dethroning the Pittsburgh Steelers after a four-year run.

Dec. 28 — With a 21-3 victory over the Steelers on "Monday Night Football," the Jaguars win their 11th game for the second straight year and becomes the NFL's first expansion team to qualify for the playoffs three times in its first four seasons. Fred Taylor finishes the year with 17 touchdowns; tied for the third-most ever by a rookie in NFL history.

Jan. 3 — In their first-ever home playoff game, the Jaguars defeat the New England Patriots, 25-10. Mark Brunell returns after missing three games with an ankle injury to throw a TD pass and Mike Hollis kicks four field goals, as Jacksonville claims its first postseason win in two years.

Feb. 12 — On the first day of free agency, the Jaguars sign two unrestricted free agents: DT Gary Walker of the Tennessee Titans and S Carnele Lake of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Feb. 16 — The Jaguars sign TE Kyle Brady, a transition free agent from the New York Jets, to an offer sheet. The next day, the Jets decline to match the offer, making Brady a Jaguar.

April 24-25 — The Jaguars draft eight players in the NFL draft, including Fernando Bryant, a cornerback selected in the first round from Alabama.

Sept. 12 — The Jaguars open their fifth season with a 41-3 victory over the San Francisco 49ers at ALETTE Stadium.

Nov. 7 — Jacksonville makes a team-record nine sacks and forces four turnovers in a 30-7 win at Atlanta.

Nov. 28 — The Jaguars score 23 points (three touchdowns, two two-point conversions) in the fourth quarter at Baltimore and leave with a 30-23 victory.

Dec. 11 — The Jaguars win their 11th consecutive game, setting a team record, as they defeat the Cleveland Browns, 24-14.

Jan. 2 — The Jaguars conclude the regular season with a 14-2 mark — the best record in the NFL — and head into the playoffs as the No. 1 seed in the AFC. Jimmy Smith catches 14 passes to finish the year with 116 receptions, the most in the league and the sixth-highest total in NFL history. The defense allows only 217 points, the 12th-fewest allowed since the 16-game schedule began in 1978.

Jan. 15 — The Jaguars trounce the Miami Dolphins 62-7 in the Divisional Playoffs in what would be the last game for Dan Marino and Jimmy Johnson. Jacksonville's 62 points and 55-point margin are the second most ever in NFL postseason history; and Fred Taylor's 90-yard run is the longest ever in an NFL playoff game.

Jan. 23 — Tennessee claims its third win of the season over the Jaguars in the AFC Championship game. Jacksonville led 14-10 at halftime before losing 33-14.

Feb. 22 — Jacksonville signs middle linebacker Hardy Nickerson, an unrestricted free agent from the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

April 15-16 — The Jaguars select wide receiver R. Jay Soward from Southern California in the first round of the draft. Altogether, 11 players are drafted by Jacksonville.

Sept. 10 — Jimmy Smith catches 15 passes for 291 yards — the fifth-highest receiving total in NFL history in a game against the Baltimore Ravens, who would go on to win the Super Bowl and set an NFL record for fewest points allowed in a 16-game season.

Sept. 17 — The Jaguars win their home opener 13-0 over Cincinnati, the first shutout in team history.

Oct. 29 — The Jaguars defeat the Dallas Cowboys 23-17 in overtime on a 37-yard TD pass from Mark Brunell to Alvis Whitted to snap a five-game losing streak.

Nov. 1 — At their annual fall meeting in Atlanta, NFL owners award Super Bowl XXXIX to the city of Jacksonville. The game will be played at ALETTE Stadium on February 6, 2005.

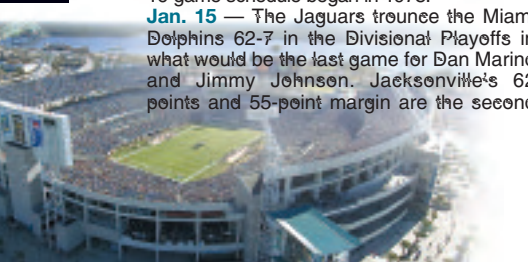

Nov. 19 — Fred Taylor rushes for 234 yards, setting a Jaguars record and at the time what was the 12th-most rushing yards in a game in NFL history (and the most ever at Three Rivers Stadium), as the Jaguars beat the Steelers 34-24. Taylor scored four touchdowns in the game.

Nov. 26 — Jacksonville defeats Tennessee 16-13 on a last-second 38-yard field goal by Mike Hollis, ending a five-game losing streak to the Titans.

Dec. 3 — The Jaguars shut out the Browns 48-0 in the most dominating game in team history. Cleveland has only two first downs and 53 yards on offense. For the Jaguars, Fred Taylor runs for 181 yards and three TDs to pass the 1,000-yard rushing mark; Jimmy Smith surpasses 1,000 yards receiving for the fifth straight season and Mark Brunell reaches the 3,000-yard mark passing.

Dec. 17 — Fred Taylor rushes for more than 100 yards in his ninth consecutive game; tying Walter Payton for the third-longest streak in NFL history. However, the Jaguars lose on the road to the Bengals 17-14 after allowing 10 points in the final 1:15 of the game.

Dec. 23 — The Jaguars lose their season finale 28-25 to the Giants, finishing 7-9 and marking their first losing season since 1995.

September 22, 1996 — at New England 28, Jacksonville 25

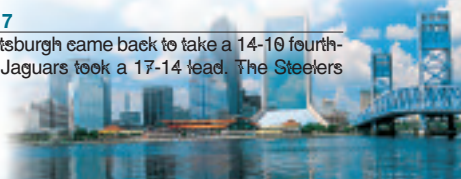

After spotting New England a 22-0 lead; the Jaguars rallied in the second half; scoring three touchdowns on 51-, 41- and 61-yard receptions from Mark Brunell and a Mike Hollis field goal; to tie the score at 25-25. The Patriots had the only possession in overtime and won on a 40-yard field goal by Adam Vinatieri.

November 24, 1996 — Jacksonville 28, at Baltimore 25

The Ravens led 25-10 going into the fourth quarter. After a touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Pete Mitchell; the defense recovered a fumble at the Raven's 19-yard line. Brunell found Willie Jackson six plays later; and Brunell ran in for the two-point conversion to tie the game at 25-25 with 1:24 remaining. The Jaguars won the toss; but were forced to punt. The Ravens fumbled; and Jacksonville drove down the field; with Mike Hollis winning the game with a 34-yard field goal.

October 26, 1997 — at Pittsburgh 23, Jacksonville 17

The Jaguars took a 10-0 lead into the second half; but Pittsburgh came back to take a 14-10 fourth-quarter lead. After a Brunell TD pass to Pete Mitchell; the Jaguars took a 17-14 lead. The Steelers scored a 19-yard field goal at the end of the fourth quarter to tie the game 17-17. The Steelers won the toss and scored on a 17-yard shovel pass from Kordell Stewart to Jerome Bettis.

October 29, 2000 — Jacksonville 23, at Dallas 17

The Jaguars ended a five-game losing streak with a 23-17 overtime road victory over the Cowboys; with Alvis Whitted scoring on a 37-yard pass from Mark Brunel on the first series of overtime for his second touchdown of the game. Brunel threw for three TDs and tied a team record for passing accuracy; as he completed 29 of 24 passes. Kyle Brady caught 10 of those passes for 134 yards; as he eclipsed the 100-yard mark for the second straight week.

November 14, 2004 — at Jacksonville 23, Detroit 17

The Jaguars continued their dramatic play with a 23-17 overtime win over the Detroit Lions at ALLTEL Stadium. David Garrard started his first game since 2002 in place of injured Byron Leftwich and led the team with 198 yards passing and two touchdowns. Jimmy Smith caught the game-winning 36-yard touchdown pass from Garrard in overtime. The Lions erased a 17-3 fourth-quarter lead with two Eddie Drummond touchdown returns.

JAGUARS NON-DIVISIONAL SCHEDULE (2005-2009)

Along with realignment, the NFL instituted a schedule rotation in which the matchups for 14 of the 16 regular-season games for all clubs for the next six seasons are set. The final two intraconference games are based on the prior year's standings (first place plays first place; etc.).

1996 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF ● JAGUARS 30, BILLS 27 DECEMBER 28, 1996, RICH STADIUM

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (10-7)	10	7	3	10	-	30
BUFFALO BILLS (10-7)	14	3	3	7	-	27

The Jaguars won their first-ever playoff game with a come-from-behind victory over Buffalo and became the first road team to win a postseason game at Rich Stadium. Natrone Means rushed for 175 yards and a touchdown; and Mike Hollis kicked three field goals; the game-winner with 3:07 to play. Buffalo jumped out to a 7-0 lead; but Clyde Simmons intercepted Jim Kelly and ran 20 yards for a score to tie the game. Simmons also had two sacks. Buffalo took a 27-20 lead early in the fourth quarter; but Mark Brunell found Jimmy Smith for a 2-yard TD pass to tie the score; and Aaron Beasley recovered a fumble prior to Hollis' field goal.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (11-7)	0	13	7	10	-	30
DENVER BRONCOS (13-4)	12	0	0	15	-	27

The Jaguars won their seventh straight game as they shocked the football world with their upset victory over the 13-3 Broncos. After falling behind 12-0; the Jaguars scored on their next six possessions; all on drives of 50 yards and longer; taking a 30-20 lead. Denver had not lost at home all season and had not lost a playoff game at Mile High Stadium since 1984. Natrone Means rushed for 140 yards; and Mark Brunell threw TD passes to Keenan McCardell and Jimmy Smith. The Jaguars dominated in yards; first downs and time of possession.

1996 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME ● PATRIOTS 20, JAGUARS 6 JANUARY 12, 1997, FOXBORO STADIUM

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (11-8)	0	3	3	0	-	6
NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (13-5)	7	6	0	7	-	20

In just their second season, the Jaguars' saw their hopes of reaching the Super Bowl end in the AFC Championship game on a cold night in New England. The game began ominously for Jacksonville on its first series; when punter Bryan Barker fielded a high snap and was tackled at the Jaguars' four-yard line. The Patriots scored a touchdown two plays later. Mistakes haunted the Jaguars throughout the game; with a total of four turnovers - three on their last four possessions - including an end zone interception and a fumble that was returned for a touchdown. The Jaguars held the ball for 34:43 and held the Patriots to just 234 yards; but Jacksonville could manage only two field goals by Mike Hollis.

1997 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF ● BRONCOS 42, JAGUARS 17 DECEMBER 27, 1997, MILE HIGH STADIUM

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (11-6)	0	7	10	0	-	17
DENVER BRONCOS (13-4)	14	7	0	21	-	42

The Jaguars returned to the site of their historic playoff upset over Denver a year earlier; but the outcome was not to be the same. The Broncos took a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter; however the Jaguars closed the gap to 21-17 in the third quarter with a blocked punt returned for a touchdown and looked to make a rally. On the next series the defense forced a fumble; but the Jaguars could not capitalize as a fumbled snap at the Denver 16-yard line ended the Jaguars' momentum. The Broncos rolled up 511 yards on offense; 310 of them on the ground; and scored five rushing touchdowns in the game. The Jaguars held the ball for just 19:01; their lowest time of possession ever.

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (9-8)	0	0	7	3	-	10
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (12-5)	6	6	0	13	-	25

The Jaguars hosted their first-ever home playoff game and defeated the Patriots to advance to the divisional playoffs. Mark Brunell returned as the starter after missing nearly three games with a high-ankle sprain. For the Patriots, Scott Zolak started for the injured Drew Bledsoe. The Patriots did not score on their eight first-half possessions. The Jaguars took advantage and scored on two Mike Holles field goals and a 13-yard run by Fred Taylor. New England scored 10 points before the Jaguars bounced back with 13 in the fourth quarter. Taylor's 162 yards rushing were the second-most in a postseason game in Jaguars' history; and his 33 attempts were the most. Holles' four field goals without a miss extended his streak of consecutive field goals in the postseason to 12 and broke his post-season single-game record.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (12-6)	0	7	7	10	-	24
NEW YORK JETS (13-4)	7	10	14	3	-	34

The Jaguars' season ended in 26 degree temperatures in New York; with the Jets jumping out to a 17-0 lead and coasting to the win. Jacksonville's only first-half score was a 52-yard pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the final play. The Jaguars couldn't stop New York's Keyshawn Johnson, who scored both rushing and receiving and also intercepted a pass. With the score 31-24 late in the fourth quarter; Brunell, who threw three TDs and three interceptions; had a chance to tie the game late after a Donovan Darius interception of Vinny Testaverde in the end zone. But the Jaguars went 3-and-out and the Jets added a field goal for their final points. Smith caught two TD passes and became the first Jaguar to have 100 receiving yards in a playoff game.

MIAMI DOLPHINS (10-8)	0	7	0	0	-	7
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (15-2)	24	17	14	7	-	62

Scoring on their first five possessions, the Jaguars advanced to their second AFC Championship game in four seasons with a record-setting defeat of Miami; in what would be Dan Marino's final game. The 62 points scored were the second-most in NFL postseason history and the most scored in an AFC playoff game; and the 55-point margin of victory was the second-largest in NFL postseason history. Mark Brunell returned to action after missing the season finale with a knee injury. Fred Taylor ran 90 yards for a touchdown; the longest in NFL postseason history. The 41 points in the first half also tied the NFL postseason record. Jay Fiedler connected with Jimmy Smith for a 70-yard touchdown to take a 48-7 lead. The Jaguars scored twice more in the game; on a touchdown catch by Alvis Whitted and a five-yard run by Chris Howard. The 62 points scored were the Jaguars' most ever.

TENNESSEE TITANS (16-3)	7	3	16	7	-	33
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (15-3)	7	7	0	0	-	14

The Jaguars' season came to a sudden end; as Tennessee defeated Jacksonville for the third time in the season. A record crowd of 75,206 saw the Jaguars get off to a fast start; with Kyle Brady scoring a touchdown on a seven-yard pass from Mark Brunell. The Titans responded with a nine-yard touchdown catch by Yancey Thigpen. Then the Jaguars took a 14-7 lead on a 33-yard TD run by James Stewart. But Reggie Barlow fumbled a punt that was recovered by the Titans and converted into a 34-yard field goal. The second half was all Tennessee; as the Titans scored 23 unanswered points and shut out the Jaguars. The Titans got a one-yard touchdown run by Steve McNair. Then came a safety of Mark Brunell; and on the free kick Derrick Mason returned the ball 80 yards for a touchdown. The Jaguars could not recover; as they had three turnovers in the last 16 minutes of the game. Tennessee scored once in the fourth quarter for the 33-14 final score.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS
IN THE COMMUNITY

JAGUARS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Jacksonville Jaguars' community relations department manages a broad scope of community support, including player involvement and celebrity appearances. In 2004, Jaguars players, the ROAR cheerleaders, team mascot Jaxson de Ville and other team personalities made over 1,250 appearances to schools, hospitals, non-profit organizations and businesses throughout the region.

The Jacksonville Jaguars have established a regional policy to provide fundraising support by donating in-kind gifts to community organizations located within the state of Florida and South Georgia. In 2004, the Jaguars contributed to over 1,300 organizations and donated 1,768 items.

In all, over 2,500 area organizations are assisted annually through the Jaguars community relations department's programs and services.

COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS

HABIJAX

HabiJax is the largest affiliate home-builder within the Habitat for Humanity organization and continues to make progress through the tireless efforts of countless volunteers and generous contributors. The Delores Barr Weaver Golf Tournament is recognized as the single largest contributor to HabiJax. The tournament has built 53 houses since 1996, representing a cash contribution of $1.8 million. Each year, front office staff, The ROAR cheerleaders and Jaguars players get together for a day of building. In 2005, 21 volunteers worked on two separate houses. In celebration of Super event focused on improving literacy in support of Jacksonville Mayor John Peyton's literacy initiative - Rally Jacksonville. Jaguars players help lead the activities and emphasize reading fundamentals with participating youth from six Jacksonville community agencies.

JUNIOR JAGUARS AT TRAINING CAMP

The Normandy Village United Methodist Child Care and Boys & Girls Club of Jacksonville Beach were two community groups who were special guests of the Jacksonville Jaguars and Blue Cross Blue Shield of Florida at training camp for the Junior Jaguars at Training Camp program. The youth watched practice from a Bowl XXXIX in Jacksonville, HabiJax built 39 houses for children and deserving families. Those efforts were supported through a $250,000 challenge grant from the Weaver Family Foundation.

HOMETOWN HUDDLE

This past fall, the Jaguars partnered with the United Way of Northeast Florida for the Sixth Annual Hometown Huddle. This special seating area. Following practice, the children met Jaguars players and received autographs. Each guest received a team souvenir and goodie bag.

OPERATION BLESSING

The Jaguars joined with several corporate partners, hundreds of volunteers and other local organizations to assist over 3,000 families in need during the Thanksgiving holiday. Fourteen Jaguars players, led by safety Donovan Darius, and over 250 Wachovia and Winn-Dixie Store volunteers, off-loaded truckloads of groceries and distributed non-perishable food items donated by growers, food processors and manufacturers that support Operation Blessing International, a national non-profit humanitarian relief organization. In addition, nine area agencies that serve the disadvantaged throughout the First Coast region picked up boxes of frozen turkeys donated by Jaguars players and staff.

RED CROSS DISASTER RELIEF

The Jacksonville Jaguars teamed up with the American Red Cross to raise $11,313 for families affected by Tropical Storm Bonnie, local tornadoes and Hurricane Charley. Members of the team's volunteer wives group, along with 20 Red Cross volunteers and members of

The ROAR cheerleader squad collected monetary donations from fans pregame on August 20th.

PROSTATE CANCER EDUCATION COUNCIL

Jaguars defensive tackle Marcus Stroud served as spokesman during Prostate Cancer Awareness Week (September 14-20) to raise awareness for the disease and to encourage all men to get screened for prostate cancer.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS TASTE OF THE NFL

Branching out from the national event held every year at the Super Bowl, Jacksonville is one of 13 NFL cities to have launched a local Taste of the NFL dinner to help raise awareness in the fight against hunger. The Second Annual Jacksonville Jaguars Taste of the NFL was successful in raising over $92,000 to benefit the LSS Second Harvest Food Bank. The event featured eight Jaguars players and one Jaguars alumni player.

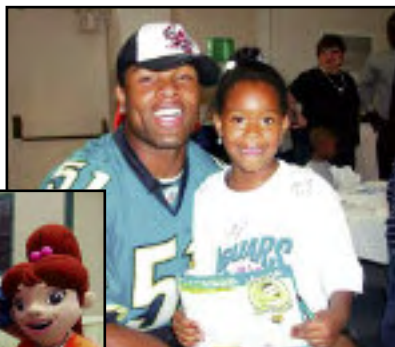

EDUCATION

JAGUARS READERS

In 1997, the Jaguars established the Jaguars Readers program. This is a special reading program at local elementary schools supported by Jaguars front office staff. Staff volunteers spend time with students reading a few of their favorite books while giving them some one-on-one attention.

JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT

During a five-week period in 2004, Jaguars center Brett Romberg taught basic math economics to fourth grade students at Twin Lakes Elementary School as part of a Junior Achievement program.

GAME DAY PROGRAMMING

JAGUARS FAMILY FOOD DRIVE

The Jaguars, in partnership with Winn-Dixie Stores, collect food and monetary donations to benefit The LSS Second Harvest Food Bank. Fans are encouraged to drop off their non-perishable food items at area Winn-Dixie Stores.

Jaguars players make in-store appearances. Jaguars player and staff wives, also accept donations of non-perishable food items and cash donations. The total food and money collected in 2004 converted to over 12,000 pounds in food.

PLAYS FOR A PURPOSE PROGRAM

In 2004, the Jaguars implemented a new program to help raise money for non-profit organizations in the Jacksonville community based on the players' on-field performance. The Jaguars Plays for a Purpose Program provides a unique way for small businesses or individuals to financially support their favorite local charities. Eight local not-for-profit organizations were selected and "placed" with one of eight Jaguars position groups. Jaguars players hand picked local organizations and regularly visited their facilities to lend a hand in support. At the end of the 2004 season, a grand total of $79,142 was raised.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

POP WARNER JUNIOR JAGUARS BOWL

Since 1996, the Jaguars have sponsored the Pop Warner Junior Jaguars Bowl at alltel Stadium in cooperation with the Greater Jacksonville Pop Warner Association. Thousands of players, cheerleaders and families have enjoyed the fun and spirit of this bowl game format. Participants (8-14 years old) must sign a pledge card with their parents and make a commitment not to use tobacco, alcohol or illegal drugs in order to be involved. The Jaguars have awarded approximately 1,200 tickets to Jaguars home games each fall to Pop Warner youth and coaches as part of the program. The Junior Jaguars Bowl is a three-day event which includes a host party Friday night at the Pepsi Plaza, games played at five area sites on Saturday and a chance to attend a Jaguars called "Practice Like the Pros" which gave six NFL Flag and six Pop Warner teams a chance to practice on the Jaguars' practice fields during training camp. Teams held practices prior to the Jaguars night practices and were invited to stay and watch practice from a covered area and receive autographs from Jaguars players following practice.

PLAY IT SMART

In 2001, the Jaguars and the National Football Foundation placed a Play It Smart program at William M. Raines High School in Jacksonville. For the 2004 season Jaguars cornerback Dewayne Washington "adopted" the program. Washington provided dinner after evening practices and made regular visits to the school on Tuesdays. He also attended several home games to support the student-athletes. The NFL also hosted the Raines Play It Smart program at the NFL Experience during the Super Bowl to show its appreciation to the Raines Vikings Play It Smart program.

regular season game on Sunday. More than seventy teams participate each year from states as far away as Indiana, Pennsylvania and North Carolina. The Jaguars have also received awards from Pop Warner Little Scholars two of the last four years. In 2001, Wayne Weaver received the Warner Award, given for outstanding commitment and support of Pop Warner programs, and in 2004 the Jaguars received the Pop Warner AFC Team of the Year award for continued commitment to youth football.

PRACTICE LIKE THE PROS

In 2004 the Jaguars introduced a program

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS/JACKSONVILLE QUARTERBACK CLUB COACH OF THE WEEK

Since 1996, the Jaguars have recognized the hard work, dedication and selflessness of area high school coaches in Northeast Florida and in 2003 the Jaguars partnered with the Jacksonville Quarterback Club. Ten weekly winners are chosen during the high school season and each winner is awarded a plaque and $1,000 for his school. Each weekly winner is also recognized during the tailgate show on the Jaguars Radio Network. During the final regular season home game, the Coach of the Year is announced at the 50-yard line in a pregame ceremony. The coach of the year winner receives $2,000 along with a coach of the year framed certificate.

JAGUARS ROOKIE CLUB FOOTBALL CAMP

In June of 2003 the Jaguars established the "Rookie Club" for all incoming rookies to assist in the transition from college to the NFL. In 2004 this rookie club held a "Got Skills" football clinic sponsored by Winn Dixie for 200 youths in the Jacksonville area. This clinic was held on the practice fields at alltel stadium and included instruction, gift bags, autographs and food.

NATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL ALL-STAR COMBINE

Each March, the Jacksonville Jaguars/National High School All-Star Combine is held at alltel Stadium on the team's practice fields. NHSASC is designed to expose rising seniors to every college in the United States and enables college recruiters to review more student-athletes than ever before. The combine is patterned after the NFL combine. More than 100 high school players participated in the combine last year. Athletes participate in the 40-yard dash, the shuttle run, the 185-pound bench press, the long jump and the vertical leap. Each player is weighed, and their height and arm span is measured.

HOLIDAY PROGRAMMING

ANGEL TREE

Each year, the Jaguars partner with a local agency to give Jaguars players and front office staff the opportunity to experience the true meaning of the Holidays by helping those in need. Hubbard House was the beneficiary of this generosity in 2004. Jaguars players and staff selected Angel "ornaments" to purchase the child's Holiday gift wish.

SHOP WITH A JOCK

Last year, the Ephraim Salaam Foundation organized Shop with a Jock, designated to give homeless, neglected and abused children in the Jacksonville area a night of fun, filled with food, games and a $100 shopping spree at Wal-Mart with their favorite Jaguars player. This event, which benefited children from Florida Family Services, was sponsored by the Kossak Companies and New York Life.

RADIO BROADCASTERS

In the Jaguars radio booth: Brian Sexton and Jeff Lageman

Original Jaguars defensive end Jeff Lageman joined the Jaguars Radio Network team in 2003 and pairs with Brian Sexton on all Jaguars games. Lageman handles color analysis on radio for his third year, while Sexton continues calling play-by-play.

Sexton, 36, returns for his 11th season as the "Voice of the Jaguars." He has called every game in the Jaguars 10 years and is one of just a handful of observers and the only media member who has witnessed every Jaguars game played. Sexton anchors the Jaguars Radio Network's coverage on Game Day and is also the host of 'Jaguars Reporters' on Mondays, 'The Jack Del Rio Show' on Tuesdays and 'Jaguars This Week' on Wednesdays on the Jaguars flagship radio station (690 WOKV). He also serves as the Jaguars lead TV personality hosting 'The Jack Del Rio Show' and 'The Coggin Pregame Show' on Sunday mornings prior to kickoff, as well as 'THE Jaguars Show' on Monday evenings, all on WTEV. Additionally he provides commentary and insight on jaguars.com. Sexton has broadcast NFL Europe games for FOX Sports for two seasons including a game with Jaguars tight end Kyle Brady. In 2000 he was a contestant on the highly rated ABC-TV show 'Who Wants to Be A Millionaire?' walking away with $32,000. In 2002 he was named one of the Jacksonville Business Journal's 'Forty Under Forty' as one of the community's up and coming young leaders. He has become an active and visible part of the Northeast Florida community as a speaker, volunteer and goodwill ambassador. He serves on the Boards of Directors for the United Way of Northeast Florida, The Ronald McDonald House, Daniel Inc., and the Grove House of Jacksonville. In 2004-05, he served as the Leadership Giving Chairman on the United Way's Campaign Cabinet. An Eagle Scout, he's also active with the Boy Scouts in Northeast and Central Florida, as well as with the Devereaux Day School in St. Augustine. He and his wife Jennifer live in Atlantic Beach with their sons, Keegan and Rian.

Lageman, 37, played for the Jaguars from 1995 to '98 and was the team's first captain. He started 37 of 40 games played in the Jaguars' first four seasons, making 175 tackles and 12.5 sacks. His final year was ended in the season opener because of a torn right biceps. In 10 NFL seasons, including his first six with the New York Jets, Lageman played in 122 games, making 118 starts. He was a first-round draft choice of the Jets in 1989, the 14th player selected overall. After his retirement he joined the Jaguars' preseason TV booth as color analyst for the 1999 to 2002 preseasons. Lageman also called NFL regular-season games for Fox Sports from 1999 to 2001. He has been co-host of the "Jaguars This Week" radio show along with Sexton and Vic Ketchman on Wednesday nights on WOKV, and he continues in that role. He also continues as co-host of "THE Jaguars Show" on television along with Sexton. For the last eight years, Lageman has been co-host/co-owner of "The Outdoor Show" aired Saturday mornings on WOKV. Since 1996, he has been honorary chairman of the Children's Miracle Network, and is a board member of the Georgia Sheriff's Boy's Home in Hahira, Ga. Lageman and his wife, Misti, live in Jacksonville with their four-year-old son, Dylan.

Also part of the game day team are Cole Pepper and Vic Ketchman on the pregame show, and Pepper with former Oakland Raiders star Pete Banaszak on the postgame show.

JAGUARS RADIO NETWORK

The Jaguars' flagship stations are WOKV (690 AM) and WJGL (96.9 FM). The Jaguars Radio Network extends to 16 affiliates in Florida and Georgia.

ALLTEL STADIUM

On August 18, 1995, when the Jacksonville Jaguars played their first game in their new stadium, it marked the first time in sports history that an expansion team had played its first home game in its first season in a new stadium or arena. Not only that, but it was built faster than any major-league stadium had ever been built in North America.

In the short period of 19 1/2 months, the old Gator Bowl was demolished and a new stadium arose on the shores of the St. Johns River. And, very quickly, it was called the best stadium in the country. Just seconds before the Jaguars kicked off their first regular-season game on September 3, 1995, NBC broadcaster Don Criqui said, "There isn't a better football facility in America." For its 10th year of operation, Alltel Stadium was the host site of Super Bowl XXXIX, the biggest single-day sporting event in the world.

To ensure that Jacksonville has the finest venue in the NFL, Alltel Stadium underwent a $63 million renovation. Among the additions were the ADT Terrace Suite, a 25,000-square-foot sports bar called the Bud Zone, a 20,000-square-foot Patio, 20 new escalators and four new elevators, a new secure perimeter fence around the stadium, two new state of the art scoreboards, and newly renovated clubs and suites.

The practice fields that were used from 1995 through 2003 are now a 400,000-square-foot entertainment zone adjacent to the stadium, known as the Pepsi Plaza. For Jaguars game days, this area includes tailgate cabanas for pregame hospitality, a corporate hospitality area, interactive games, and a stage for pregame and postgame entertainment.

Alltel Stadium signature features include the two Crown Royal Touchdown Clubs, which are located on both sides of the stadium. The Crown Royal Touchdown Clubs and all 10,000 club seats are located at midfield, rather than being spread out horizontally through the stadium. Each Club provides more than 70,000 square feet of air-conditioned comfort with a variety of food and beverage selections. In all, 75 percent of the seats in Alltel Stadium are located on the sides, with just 25 percent behind the end zones.

Alltel Stadium seats 67,164, but additional temporary seats were added behind the South End Zone — expanding the capacity to well over 82,000 — for the annual Florida-Georgia game and Super Bowl XXXIX.

In 1997, Jacksonville Municipal Stadium was re-named Alltel Stadium after the Little Rock, Ark.-based wireless telecommunications and information services company that is listed in Forbes 500 and Fortune 500. Alltel also has a regional office in Jacksonville. Revenue from the 10-year grant of naming rights is shared equally between the Jaguars and the city of Jacksonville.

THE ROAR

The ROAR of the Jaguars was formed in 1995 and has been an integral part of the Jaguars' entertainment package during all home games. Under the direction of manager Christy Stechman Zynda, these professional cheerleaders captivate Jaguars fans with their explosive, high-energy routines and cheerful personalities. When not on the playing field, members of The ROAR serve as goodwill ambassadors for the Jaguars by participating in various corporate, community and charitable events throughout Florida and around the world.

JAXSON DE VILLE

MASCOT

Height: 8.5 paws (about 7 feet)

Weight: 403

College: Denied admission due to size, but is working on his MBA, just in case Jaguars owner Wayne Weaver needs any business advice

Birthdate: Not sure, but he'll celebrate it later this year at one of the Jaguars' home games

Birthplace: Jacksonville (where else would a cat have teal spots?)

First Appearance: August 18, 1996, Jaguars vs. 49ers preseason game

How Acquired: Was a stray cat found during the building of Alltel Stadium

NFL Experience: 10th year

SEASON: Has never seen action in an NFL-sanctioned game ... Has played in several half-time games against some very tough Pop Warner teams (9- and 10-year olds) and has done quite well ... Head coach Jack Del Rio said he was "very impressed" with Jaxson during spring minicamps ... Currently lobbying the league for bigger helmets so he can play this year ... Until then, will remain a starter at his All-Pro position, "Left Out!"

STATS: Completed his ninth straight season as "The Self-Proclaimed Best Mascot in Sports" ... Best statistics include most pizzas consumed in one game (56) and highest rapell off a scoreboard (175 feet) ... First mascot ever to go overseas to visit our troops ... Has never been tackled, sacked, intercepted or blocked — mostly because he never plays (but that's beside the point) ... Most loved and hated mascot in the NFL ... Has hugged and kissed more than 200,000 people during his 4,000-plus appearances over the last nine years ... Speaking of appearances ...

OFFSEASON: Jaxson de Ville does not have an "offseason," as he does appearances year-round at any event where a 403-pound cat is needed ... so give him a call and find out why everyone loves Jaxson!

For appearances call: (904) 633-6544

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Credential requests are honored only for working media on specific assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication. Credentials are not issued to freelance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news organization or sports publication. All credential requests must be submitted in writing on company letterhead to Dan Edwards, Vice President of Communications and Media, Jacksonville Jaguars, One Alltel Stadium Place, Jacksonville FL 32202, or by fax to (904) 633-6055. Requests must be received at least one week prior to a home game.

PARKING: Parking in lots surrounding the stadium is limited. Every effort will be made to accommodate requests for parking passes, but parking cannot be provided for all credentialed media. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to all stadium parking lots on game days. Television trucks which provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will be parked in the TV truck compound near Gate 1, and a parking pass is required.

MEDIA ENTRANCE, CREDENTIAL WILL CALL: The media entrance at the stadium is Gate 1, at the southwest corner of the stadium. The appropriate game credential must be presented at the media entrance for admission to the stadium. Game credentials not picked up in advance will be available on game day at the media will-call window at Gate 1. The Media Will Call window will open three hours prior to kickoff. Parking passes will not be left at the Will Call window.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers and videographers on assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication. No one except network television personnel and authorized game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field. The photographers check-in location is near the media entrance on the service hallway.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS AND LOCKERROOM ACCESS: Members of the media needing to conduct postgame interviews will be given access to the Jaguars' interview room after each game, as well as the home and visiting lockerrooms. Jaguars head coach Jack Del Rio conducts his postgame news conference in the team meeting room. The visiting head coach will be available in a room off the visitors lockerroom.

DURING THE WEEK

MEDIA WORKROOM: The media workroom in the stadium is located just inside the media entrance. This room is available to working media during business hours throughout the week. Phones, Jaguars updates and NFL news releases, and other information is available.

JACK DEL RIO INTERVIEWS: Head coach Jack Del Rio conducts his weekly news conference on Mondays in the media workroom. He is not available on Tuesdays, but is available to the media on Wednesdays and Thursdays.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS: The Jaguars lockerroom is open to accredited media for specific interview periods during the week. On Mondays players are available, and on Tuesdays there is no availability, as this is the players' off day. The lockerroom is also open to the media on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. All interviews should be arranged through the Jaguars communications department. Interviews may be conducted in person or by phone, but please call in advance to schedule.

MEDIA WEBSITE: The Jaguars' media website can be accessed on the worldwide web at: www.jaguars.com/pr and on the NFL's Web Site at: www.nfl.com. Daily updates, injury reports and other news is posted as well.
