TEAM FINISHES WITH SECOND-BEST MARK IN CLUB HISTORY; TOP MARK UNDER HEAD COACH JACK DEL RIO

2005 IN REVIEW: The Jacksonville Jaguars finished the regular season with a 12-4 record and advanced to the playoffs for the first time since 1999. The Jaguars won eight of their last nine games and were one of only four NFL teams with 12-plus wins in 2005. The Jaguars were defeated by the defending Super Bowl champion New England Patriots at Gillette Stadium on January 7 in an AFC Wild Card game.

The Jaguars locked up their playoff bid with a win at Houston on December 24 as the club registered a season-high 448 yards of total offense. Starting quarterback Byron Leftwich missed the last five regular season games after suffering a fractured left ankle at Arizona on Nov. 27, but returned as a starter in the playoff game. David Garrard stepped up in Leftwich's absence and led the club to a 4-1 record. Veteran Jimmy Smith led the young receiving corps with 70 receptions for 1,023 yards and six touchdowns.

The Jaguars defense ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL as they allowed 290.9 yards per game. The NFL ranking is tied for the second-highest defensive ranking in team history. The Jaguars forced 28 turnovers and finished sixth in the NFL with a plus-11 turnover differential, the highest mark under head coach Jack Del Rio. The club recorded 47 sacks (3rd in the NFL) and 19 interceptions (tied for most in team history) and allowed the second-fewest points (269, 16.8 avg) in team history. HEAD COACH JACK DEL RIO: Jack Del Rio completed his third season as the Jaguars' head coach and has an overall record of 26-22. Del Rio was named to the post on January 17, 2003, becoming the second head coach in Jaguars' history. He led the team to a 5-11 record in his first season and improved to 9-7 in 2004, one of only five NFL coaches to show an improvement of four wins or more over the previous season. He completed his 20th year in the NFL, his ninth as a coach. At 42, Del Rio is the sixth youngest head coach in the NFL (Tampa Bay's Jon Gruden; N.Y. Jets Eric Mangini, Green Bay's Mike McCarthy, St. Louis' Scott Linehan and New Orleans' Sean Payton).

Del Rio spent 11 years as an NFL linebacker and had a standout college career at the University of Southern California. He previously coached in New Orleans (1997-98), Baltimore (1999-2001), and Carolina (2002). He was the Panthers' defensive coordinator, and in his only season with the club the defense improved from 31st in the NFL to second, the biggest one-season defensive improvement in NFL history. Del Rio was the linebackers coach for three seasons in Baltimore, where the Ravens' defense also ranked second each season. He helped the team win Super Bowl XXXV over the New York Giants and coached the Ravens' talented linebackers, overseeing the development of Peter Boulware, Jamie Sharper and Ray Lewis, the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year in 2000 and the MVP of Super Bowl XXXV. Prior to coaching, Del Rio played 11 seasons in the NFL, with New Orleans (1985-86), Kansas City (1987-88), Dallas (1989-1991) and Minnesota (1992-95), playing in the Pro Bowl following the 1994 season.

Del Rio was a starter at linebacker for Southern California (1981-84), where he earned All-America honors, was a runner-up for the Lombardi Award and co-MVP of the 1985 Rose Bowl. Del Rio has learned from some of the best coaches in all of football. He was recruited to USC and played for John Robinson, and in the NFL he played under Bum Phillips, Jim Mora, Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Green. As an assistant coach, he has worked for Hall of Famer Mike Ditka and Super Bowl winner Brian Billick, as well as Super Bowl participant John Fox. Among other notable coaches Del Rio has worked with are Dom Capers, Tony Dungy, Dave Wannstedt, Monte Kiffin, Mike Tice, Tom Moore, Norv Turner and Butch Davis. Drafted by baseball's Toronto Blue Jays, Del Rio batted .340 while playing catcher on USC's baseball team in 1983 and 1984 with future stars Randy Johnson and Mark McGwire. He was a third-round choice by the New Orleans Saints in 1985 and was named to the NFL's All-Rookie team.

NFL HEAD COACHES WITH NFL PLAYING EXPERIENCE: Jack Del Rio has the longest playing tenure in the NFL among active head coaches. He played 11 seasons in the NFL, with New Orleans (1985-86), Kansas City (1987-88), Dallas (1989-91) and Minnesota (1992-95). Here are the head coaches with the longest stay in the NFL as a player:

■ Recorded season-high 19 tackles (11 solo) against Indianapolis on 12/11 and recorded 18 tackles at Cleveland on 12/4 with one sack, one tackle for loss and three quarterback pressures.

■ Tied his career-high with three interceptions in 2005. Had an interception on 11/13 vs. Baltimore and returned it 26 yards for a touchdown, his first career touchdown.

■ Only Jaguar in team history to have a sack (6), interception (3), interception returned for a touchdown (1), pass defensed (4), tackle for loss (2), quarterback pressure (6), forced fumble (1) and fumble recovery (1).

■ Made the transition from outside linebacker to middle when he signed with Jacksonville in 2003 after originally being drafted in the second round by the Colts in the 1999 draft. He has missed only seven games in six seasons.

■ Totaled 534 tackles with the Jaguars which ranks third in team history.

SPICER SHINES IN RETURN FROM INJURY: Veteran defensive end Paul Spicer returned to the starting lineup in 2005 after missing the final 14 games in 2004 with a fractured right leg suffered against Denver on 9/19/04. Spicer wasted no time making an impact on the NFL's sixth-ranked defense as he ranked second on the club with a career-high 7.5 sacks, which ranked sixth in team history for single-season sacks. Prior to 2005, Spicer's highest single-season sack total was 4.0 in 2002. Spicer had a season-high nine tackles at Cleveland on 12/4 including one sack. He surpassed Renaldo Wynn (13.5) for eighth place in team history with 14.5 career sacks. Spicer recorded his first career multi-sack game at the New York Jets on 9/25 with 3.0 sacks. The three sacks were the most by a Jaguar since John Henderson had three vs. Philadelphia on 10/6/02. Spicer finished with 56 tackles (43 solo) and 24 quarterback pressures in 2005. Spicer signed with the Jaguars in 2000 and has started 25 of 68 games.

HAYWARD GETS TO THE QUARTERBACK: When the Jaguars signed defensive end Reggie Hayward in the 2005 offseason, they knew they were getting someone who could be a menace to opposing quarterbacks. Hayward did not disappoint as he led the team with 57 quarterback pressures and 8.5 sacks. Hayward had a season-high two sacks against Indianapolis on 12/11, becoming the only player to sack Peyton Manning twice in 2005. Hayward was signed as an unrestricted free agent on March 2 from Denver and started 15 games in 2005. He led the Broncos with a career-high 10.5 sacks in 2004, tying for third in the AFC. He has tallied 30.5 sacks in 62 career games.

MEIER MAKES MOST OF OPPORTUNITY: Rob Meier saw action in the Jaguars defensive tackle rotation each Sunday and he made the most of his opportunities. Meier, who was a seventh-round pick in 2000 from Washington State, ranked third on the team with a career-high six sacks and led all AFC defensive tackles. He averaged 27 plays per game. His previous high was two sacks in 2002. Meier sees action behind Pro Bowl tackles Marcus Stroud and John Henderson. Meier has played in 91 games with the Jaguars with 17 starts and has 10.5 sacks and 179 tackles. He started eight games at defensive end in 2004 before suffering a fractured fibula at Minnesota on 11/28.

COUSIN DOES HIS PART IN NICKEL PACKAGE: The Jaguars ranked third in the NFL in opponents third down conversions in 2005. Much of the Jaguars' success on third down can be attributed to the play of veteran Terry Cousin, the starting cornerback in the nickel package. Cousin signed with the Jaguars as a free agent in the offseason after spending the past eight seasons with five different teams: Chicago (1997-99), Atlanta (2000), Miami (2001), Carolina (2002-03) and N.Y. Giants (2004). Cousin ranked second on the club with four interceptions along with 56 tackles and seven passes defensed. Cousin tied his career-high with two interceptions on 11/13 against Baltimore.

MARCUS STROUD MAKES THIRD CONSECUTIVE PRO BOWL: Marcus Stroud earned a third consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl as a starter. Stroud, the Jaguars' only Pro Bowl representative in 2005, was the 13th overall pick in the 2001 draft. He has recorded 388 tackles (251 solo), 16.5 sacks, seven forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and two blocked FG attempts in five seasons.

BIG HEN CLOGS UP THE MIDDLE: John Henderson, who made his first Pro Bowl in 2004, has 18.5 sacks in four seasons along with 337 tackles (259 solo), three fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles. Henderson, the ninth overall pick in the 2002 draft, registered 83 tackles, three sacks, four tackles for loss and 20 quarterback pressures in 2005. Henderson had a season-high two sacks at Houston on 12/24 along with seven tackles and one forced fumble. In 2004, Henderson and Stroud combined for 10 sacks, which was the third-best mark in the NFL among defensive tackle tandems. Henderson ranks sixth in team history with 18.5 sacks.

GIANT KNOCKDOWNS: Since pairing up in 2002, defensive tackles Marcus Stroud (6-6, 312) and John Henderson (6-7, 328) have caused major problems for opposing quarterbacks. They have combined for 91 quarterback pressures in 64 games together (Stroud, 53; Henderson, 38). The Jaguars had 184 quarterback pressures in 2005, including 47 in the last four games (15 vs. Indianapolis on 12/11 and 18 vs. San Francisco on 12/18; 7 at Houston 12/24; 7 vs. Tennessee 1/1).

2005 DEFENSIVE TIDBITS:

- Jaguars opponents began 48 drives inside their own 20 and scored on only eight of those drives (6 TDs, 2 FG), a 16.7 scoring percentage, which ranked tied for third in the NFL.
- The Jaguars defense was faced with 10 possessions starting inside their own 50-yard line and allowed only 29 points (3 TDs, 3 FGs), which ranked tied for first in the NFL.
- Opposing offenses had the fifth-lowest average time of possession in the NFL (28:27)
- The Jaguars allowed only 36 completions of 20-plus yards, which ranked tied for seventh in the NFL.
- The Jaguars were the only NFL team to record double-digit sacks in every quarter (1st, 10; 2nd, 14; 3rd, 11; 4th, 11)
- Opposing offenses recorded 96 negative plays for a loss of 385 yards.

DEFENSE SHOWS MARKED IMPROVEMENT FROM A YEAR AGO: There are several areas to look at for the reason behind the Jaguars' improved defense in 2005 as it ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL. The defense allowed only 290.9 yards and ranked seventh in NFL passing defense (184.1) in the regular season. One of the key additions in the offseason was the signing of unrestricted free agent defensive end Reggie Hayward from Denver. In addition to Hayward, the return of veteran defensive end Paul Spicer from injury made a major difference. Hayward led the team with 8.5 sacks and 57 quarterback pressures. Spicer ranked second with a career-high 7.5 sacks. Hayward and Spicer join Pro Bowl defensive tackles Marcus Stroud and John Henderson to form a formidable front line.

CB Rashean Mathis and S Deon Grant returned to a secondary that produced 15 interceptions in 2004. Mathis led the team with five interceptions in 2005, including two at St. Louis on 10/30. Grant has started 80 consecutive games and has 174 tackles (129 solo) and five interceptions after signing with the Jaguars prior to the 2004 season. Rookie Gerald Sensabaugh started at free safety after making his first career start at Houston on 12/24. The club lost Donovan Darius for the season with a torn ACL in week two at Indianapolis. Unrestricted free agent Kenny Wright (Houston) started at right cornerback spot opposite Mathis.

Linebacker Mike Peterson led the club in tackles in 13 games this season and added a career-high six sacks and three interceptions. It marked the second consecutive season Peterson registered five-plus sacks. Akin Ayodele and Daryl Smith occupied the outside linebacker spots. Here is a look at the defense compared to 2004:

TALL TARGETS: All five of the Jaguars wide receivers stand at least six-feet tall. The Jaguars have selected three receivers in the last two drafts and all three stand at six-foot-four or taller (2004, Reggie Williams, 6-4; 2004, Ernest Wilford, 6-4; 2005, Matt Jones, 6-6). Veteran Jimmy Smith and third-year receiver Cortez Hankton are the smallest of the group at six-foot-one.

SECOND ROUND SUCCESS: The Jaguars have selected seven players with second-round draft picks since 2000 and six of the selections started for the Jaguars in 2005. Four offensive linemen have been selected with three filling starting roles. Here's a closer look at the Jaguars' second-round picks since 2000:

■ C Brad Meester (2000) — Meester was selected with the 60th overall pick from Iowa, the first center chosen in the 2000 draft. He started 92 consecutive games until the streak ended against Indianapolis on 12/11. Meester was placed on injured reserve with a torn bicep prior to the Colts game. Meester is the only Jaguars player to start the first 92 games after being drafted. He started 44 games at center the last three seasons after starting the first 48 games of his career at guard.

■ RT Maurice Williams (2001) — Williams was the 43rd overall pick from Michigan and has developed into a dominant blocker and pass defender at right tackle. He has started 69 games including 48 consecutive games after suffering a broken leg in 2002. Williams made the switch in college from defensive tackle to offensive line where he started for only one season for the Wolverines.

■ LT Mike Pearson (2002) - Pearson was the 40th overall pick out of Florida and has started 33 of 39 games in four seasons. He suffered a left knee injury in 2004 that required reconstructive surgery and ended a streak of 31 consecutive starts. He served as the backup to 2005 second-round draft pick Khalif Barnes at left tackle.

■ CB Rashean Mathis (2003) — Mathis has started all 48 games since being selected with the 39th overall pick from Bethune-Cookman. He started his first six games at free safety as a rookie before making the switch to cornerback. Mathis ranks third in team history with 12 career interceptions and led the team in 2005 with five interceptions.

■ LB Daryl Smith (2004) — Smith has started 29 of 31 games after being selected with the 39th overall pick from Georgia Tech. He started 13 games as a rookie, the third-most in team history. He started all 16 games in 2005 and ranked second on the team with 116 tackles. Smith had a career-high 18 tackles at Houston on 12/24.

■ RB/FB Greg Jones (2004) — Jones was the second of the Jaguars two second-round picks in 2004 and was the 55th pick overall from Florida State. He has played in 30 of 32 games (missed last two games of the 2005 regular season) with 17 starts and has totaled 213 carries for 737 yards and seven touchdowns. He played a key role in the regular season with Fred Taylor being hampered with injuries and ranked second on the club with 151 carries for 575 yards and led the team with four rushing touchdowns.

■ LT Khalif Barnes (2005) — Barnes stepped into the starting lineup in week five after being selected with the 52nd overall pick from Washington. A massive offensive tackle, Barnes was one of only two rookies (S Gerald Sensabaugh) in 2005 to earn a starting spot.

FRED TAYLOR - JAGUARS ALL-TIME LEADING RUSHER: Fred Taylor has career totals of 1,831 carries for 8,367 yards and 51 touchdowns rushing. Taylor led the Jaguars in the regular season with 194 carries for 787 yards and three touchdowns:

■ Taylor had 22 carries for 165 yards and one touchdown on 10/30 at St. Louis, tied for the fifth-highest rushing total in team history. Taylor owns the top five marks including a team-record 234 yards on 30 carries at Pittsburgh on 11/19/00. Taylor recorded his third 100-plus rushing game of the season at Houston on 12/24 with 22 carries for 101 yards and one touchdown.

■ Taylor has led the Jaguars in rushing in six of eight career seasons.

■ Taylor owns 34 Jaguars records including every career rushing mark in Jaguars history and is the only player in club history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season.

■ Taylor owns the top five seasonal marks for a running back in Jaguars history for rushing yards (1,572, 2003), rushing attempts (345, 2003), highest rushing average (4.8, 2000) and most 100 plus rushing games (9, 2000).

■ He holds the single game club record for rushing yards (234, 11/19/00 at Pittsburgh, 30 att.), rushing attempts (37, 9/25/05 at NYJ., 98 yards), highest rushing average (8.5, 10/31/99 at Cincinnati, 15-128) and longest run from scrimmage (77t, 10/12/98 vs. Miami).

■ Jaguars have a 8-4 record when Taylor touches the ball 30 plus times and a 3-0 mark with 35 touches.

■ Has 19 of the top 20 rushing performances in Jaguars history and has posted 37 career 100-yard rushing games. He recorded a career-high nine 100-yard rushing games in 2000, including nine consecutive games. The streak tied the late Walter Payton for the third-longest streak in NFL history behind Barry Sanders (14) and Marcus Allen (11).

■ Taylor has rushed for over 100 yards in 13 games in two-plus seasons under Jack Del Rio and the Jaguars are 8-5 in those games.

TAYLOR SHOWS HE STILL HAS BREAKAWAY SPEED: Fred Taylor led the Jaguars in the regular season with 194 carries for 787 yards along with three touchdowns and three 100-yard rushing games. Taylor missed four games due to injuries in 2005 and was inactive (coaches decision) vs. Tennessee on 1/1 in the regular season finale. Taylor rushed for a season-high 165 yards on 22 carries and one touchdown at St. Louis on 10/30 including a 71-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. The 71-yard scamper was the longest in the AFC in 2005 and tied for fourth-longest in the NFL this year. Taylor surpassed the 8,000 career rushing yards mark, becoming only the seventh active player to do so. Taylor has recorded runs of 10 yards or more in 85 of 97 games and runs of 15 yards or more in 62 of 97 games. He has posted the top five longest runs from scrimmage in club history (77t, 10/12/98 vs. Miami; 71, 10/16/00 at Tennessee; 70t, 11/15/98 vs. Tampa Bay; 63t, 9/15/02 at Kansas City; 62, 12/7/03 vs. Houston) and seven of the top eight. Taylor has 51 career rushing touchdowns and eight are for 40 plus yards.

GREG JONES FILLS VOID WITH TAYLOR OUT OF LINEUP: With starting running back Fred Taylor in and out of the lineup due to an ankle injury, second-year player Greg Jones made the most of his opportunities. Jones ranked second on the team in rushing with 151 carries for 575 yards and led the team with four rushing touchdowns and five runs of 20-plus yards. Jones recorded his first two career 100-yard rushing games in 2005. Jones registered his first career 100-yard rushing game vs. Baltimore on 11/13 with 25 carries for a career-high 106 yards and one touchdown. He had 103 yards on a career-high 27 carries at Cleveland on 12/4. Perhaps Jones' most important role came at Pittsburgh on 10/16 when Fred Taylor was inactive with an ankle injury. Jones made his first career start and finished with 18 carries for 77 yards and one touchdown as the Jaguars defeated the Steelers, 23-17, in overtime.

MATHIS MAKES HOMETOWN FANS PROUD: Cornerback Rashean Mathis is one of six Jaguars to play high school, college and professional football in the state of Florida (Fred Taylor, Mike Pearson, Bobby McCray, Quinn Gray, Mike Peterson). But Mathis is the only one to play high school and professional football in Jacksonville. Mathis starred at Englewood High School in Jacksonville prior to becoming a three-time Division I-AA All-America cornerback at Bethune-Cookman (Daytona Beach). Mathis was a third round pick of the Jaguars in the 2003 draft, 39th player selected overall, and has started all 48 games and recorded 12 interceptions. He recorded a team-high five interceptions in 2005. Mathis tied his career-high with two interceptions at St. Louis on 10/30. Mathis had interceptions in overtime wins at the New York Jets on 9/25 and 10/16 at Pittsburgh. Mathis intercepted Tommy Maddox on 10/16 and returned it 41 yards for the game-winning score in overtime. Mathis signed a contract extension in August to remain a Jaguar.

MATHIS PROVIDES JAGUARS WITH BIG PLAYS IN 2005: Third-year cornerback Rashean Mathis made his share of plays in 2005 as he led the team with five interceptions. All but two of Mathis' 12 career interceptions are on the road (11/14/04 vs. Detroit; 1/1/06 vs. Tennessee). Here is a list of Mathis' big plays in 2005:

Scobee set a team-record against Cincinnati on 10/9 with two field goals of 50-plus yards (51, 53) and the 53 yards tied his career-high and the longest field goal in club history. In fact, Smith joins Donovan Darius (1st round, 1998 draft), Fred Taylor (1st round, 1998 draft) and Kyle Brady (UFA-NYG, 1999) as the only players with the club more than five seasons in Jacksonville. Each player holds a prominent place in the Jaguars career record books. Taylor holds every career rushing mark in Jaguar history while Smith owns every career receiving mark. Here's a look at several of the Jaguars career records with players in italics representing current players moving up the charts:

JAGUARS HAVE HISTORY OF SUCCESS WITH THREE-GAME ROAD TRIPS: The Jaguars have been faced with three consecutive road games twice since 2001 and the team has won all six games. The Jaguars finished 3-0 on their three-game road trip in 2005 with victories over Tennessee, Arizona and Cleveland. It marked only the fourth time in team history (1997, 1998 and 2001) the club has played three consecutive road games. The Jaguars defeated Cincinnati, Cleveland and Minnesota in 2001 to end the road trip with a 3-0 mark. There have been 14 times since 2001 a team has had three consecutive road games and the Jaguars are the only team to post a 3-0 record and they have accomplished the feat twice. San Francisco and Tampa Bay were the only other NFL teams to have three consecutive road games in 2005. Here is a look at the teams and their record since 2001 when playing three consecutive road games:

YEAR	TEAM	RECORD	YEAR	TEAM	RECORD
2005	Jacksonville Jaguars	3-0	2002	St. Louis Rams	0-3
2005	San Francisco 49ers	1-2	2002	New England Patriots	2-1
2005	Tampa Bay Buccaneers	2-1	2002	Washington Redskins	1-2
2004	Tennessee Titans	1-2	2001	Buffalo Bills	1-2
2003	Cincinnati Bengals	2-1	2001	Cleveland Browns	1-2
2003	San Diego Chargers	1-2	2001	Jacksonville Jaguars	3-0
2002	Atlanta Falcons	2-1	2001	New England Patriots	2-1

ROAD WARRIORS: Winning on the road is crucial for success in the NFL and the Jaguars made a step in the right direction with wins in eight of their last 10 road games dating back to last season. The Jaguars finished 6-2 away from home in 2005 with the only losses at Indianapolis on 9/18 and at St. Louis on 10/30. The Jaguars have won consecutive road games under head coach Jack Del Rio six times in the last two seasons. The Jaguars improved their 0-8 road record in 2003 in Del Rio's first season to a 5-3 mark in 2004 to 6-2 for the second-best road record in club history (7-1, 1999).
